

Artstream Nomadic Gallery rolling into Alfred University

3/23/18

ALFRED, NY “Artstream Nomadic Gallery,” a restored 1967 Airstream travel trailer that has been converted into a showcase for art on wheels, will be on the campus of Alfred University from Sunday, March 25, through Tuesday, March 27.

The visit is sponsored by the Alfred University School of Art and Design. Artstream, based in Carbondale, CO, has been a showcase for contemporary studio pottery for 17 years, making stops at locations across the country. Since its 2002 debut tour, titled “North American Dishmakers,” Artstream has exhibited work by more than 150 national, international and emerging ceramic artists.

Following is a schedule of events, after its arrival Sunday, during Artstream&s visit to Alfred University:

Monday and Tuesday, March 26 and 27 Demonstrations in in the Undergraduate Studios of Harder Hall, by artists Lisa Orr, Mike Helke and Simon Levin (8:30-11:10 a.m.) Orr (1992) and Helke (2011) have MFA degrees in ceramic art from Alfred University; Demonstrations continue (1:20-4:20 p.m.); Artstream open to the public, outside the Alfred Cerramic Art Museum (10 a.m. to 5 p.m.); Lecture at Binns Merrill Hall 106 Room C (5-6:30 p.m.)