Ricky and Joyce Dickens of Mora NM catch up on the Alfred Sun while visiting Keith and Donna Rogers recently. Ricky (AA class of '59) and his wife were passing through Alfred while traveling to Ottawa, Ontario for Joyce's Uncle's 100th birthday celebration. Ricky remembered working as a printers devil for the Alfred Sun in the 50's for $1 per hr, 40 hrs. per week.

Village Board will take legal action against Alfred State over water bills

By DAVID L. SNYDER

Editor, Publisher and Janitor

ALFRED—The Alfred Village Board's regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, May 14 was a marathon session. Mayor Justin Grigg, in just his second monthly meeting, may have broken a Village Board record as the session lasted four hours.

The meeting, which began at 7:30 p.m., included discussion of volunteer help in marketing the village, talk about street ownership issues, extensive discussion with villagers and college officials about Hot Dog Day, an executive session to discuss collective bargaining negotiations and to discuss litigation, plus the regular monthly reports and business of the Village Board.

At about 11:30 p.m., following executive session, the Village Board voted to petition Harris Beach law firm to commence action against Alfred State College, seeking a money judgment for the non-payment of its water bills.

The Village Board also agreed to request an order permitting the Village to terminate water services to Alfred State College for continued non-payment.

Alfred State has refused to pay the higher commercial water rates enacted by the Village Board last year.

In addition, following executive session, Mayor Grigg and Trustee Virginia Rasmussen will serve as the committee to negotiate a contract with the police union.

Earlier in the meeting, the Village Board welcomed the offer of village resident Catherine Jaycox to voluntarily pursue marketing opportunities for the village.

"My family and I have been back here three years," she said, "Alfred has a lot to offer. There's a niche here that could bring in new residents and there are a lot of resources to work with, such as the Allegany County Chamber of Commerce."

She said she is interested in opening up opportunities to market Alfred. She'd like to discern "the voice of Alfred and the face of Alfred" and "get it out there."

Trustee Brad Bowden noted that the Village is "not hiring her" but "if we were to find some grants, perhaps she could administer it."

Rasmussen suggested she look into some things that have been done in the past such as Alfred Alive and perhaps pick up on them and move it forward.

She also mentioned working with the Alfred Business Association.

"We have some outstanding business people here in Alfred," Rasmussen said.

"It's always good to have someone take a step back and see how we appear and work with the opportunities," added Trustee Becky Prophet, "It's a great ideal!"

Turning to the topic of Hot Dog Day, Rasmussen opened the discussion indicating "there are new kinds of concern" about some violations "in larger quantity than in the past." She said the vice-presidents for student affairs from both colleges—

Alfred State nurses continue 'Pay It Forward' tradition

ALFRED—The Alfred State Nursing Department continued its "Pay It Forward" philosophy through the awarding of its seventh annual round of "Pay It Forward" scholarships to Gary Crouse, Hammondport; John Kozlyuk, Rochester; and Maura Tuffey, Albany.

Each recipient received $150 and good wishes from the class of 2005 who first established the scholarship. Each scholarship recipient needs to demonstrate an understanding of caring as evidenced by implementing a unique caring project and to reveal insight and sensitivity in the written assignment.

The premise of "Paying it Forward" comes from a movie by the same name where a school child, as the result of a homework assignment to change the world, begins the practice of helping others expecting that each of those beneficiaries will go on to help three more people. The caring aspect of that concept prompted Linda Panter, professor in Alfred State's nursing program, to incorporate it into the program.

All senior nursing students submit proposals detailing the activities they could conduct to demonstrate the caring nature of the profession. One of those ideas was the "Pay It Forward" scholarships which are awarded to senior nursing students at the beginning of their last semester. Funding is primarily supported by the graduates of the Alfred State nursing program.

"Pay It Forward" is a concept relating to social change beginning with the individual," says Panter of the project. "Application of the process results in exponential development of moral health and caring, as well as transformation of the individual into a contributing member of the global society," she adds.

Since the inception of "Pay It Forward", several caring projects relating to this concept have been developed by the students within

JILLIAN D. "JILL" ANDOLINA

Fought leukemia 2½ years

ARKPORT—Jillian D. "Jill" Andolina, 26, of 24 Meadowbrook, Arkport, died Saturday evening (May 11, 2013) at Strong Memorial Hospital in Rochester, following a courageous 2½ year battle with Leukemia.

Born in Hornell on Jan. 17, 1987, she was the daughter of Dr. Richard and Molly (Dagon) Andolina.

Jill grew up in Arkport and was a graduate of Arkport Central School, class of 2005. She attended State University of New York at Alfred, graduating with an associate degree in 2007. In 2009, she received a bachelor's degree in psychology from SUNY Geneseo. Jill's plan to obtain her master's degree was interrupted when she was diagnosed with leukemia on Nov. 12, 2010.

Jill was a member of Our Lady of the Valley Parish and a communicant of St. Ann's Church. She was also a member of the Hornell Association and the Arkport American Legion Post 1248 Auxiliary.

A self-proclaimed "country concert queen," she enjoyed attending her favorite country music concerts with her numerous friends. Jill was a dedicated fan of The Ohio State University football team, attending numerous games over the years. She was such a fan that she named her dog Buckeye.

A lover of the outdoors, she always looked forward to her family's annual summer fishing trip to Canada. Jill was a frequent visitor and volunteer at the Hornell Humane Society and very active in Relay for Life.

Jill will forever be remembered for her brave and fearless fight against cancer. Throughout her treatment, she inspired family, friends, and the loving medical community with her ability to keep a smile on her face while fighting this dreaded disease. She never complained, even while facing the numerous effects associated with aggressive chemotherapy and two bone marrow transplants.

Jill continually showed courage in the face of adversity, found humor when tears should have prevailed and an ability to comfort her family and friends when she herself deserved comfort. Right up to the very end, Jill taught everyone the true meaning of being tough. On April 13, 2013, she posted in Facebook the following: "I love all of you so much! And it can't go unseen on how much I cherish and appreciate all the support from family, friends, and the community."

Those who knew Jill realize that a kinder or more appreciative person never touched their lives. She truly will be missed.

Jill was preceded in death by her paternal grandmother, Elsie Andolina, and her maternal grandfather, James Dagon.

In addition to her parents, Jill is survived by her three loving and protective brothers, Dr. Richard Andolina, Jr., of Buffalo, Dr. Nicholas Andolina, of Alexandria, Va., and Mitchell Andolina, of Arkport; her paternal grandfather, Frank Andolina, of Whitesville; her maternal grandmother, Marieka Dagon, of North Hornell; and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

Jill's family received friends from 2-7 p.m. Wednesday, May 15 at the Dagon Funeral Home, 38 Church St., Hornell. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at 11 a.m. Thursday, May 16 at St. Ann's Church with burial in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Memorial contributions in her name may be made to the Jillian Andolina Scholarship Fund at Arkport Central School, East Avenue, Arkport, NY 14807; the Hornell Humane Society, 7649 Industrial Park Road, Hornell, NY 14843 or the Bone Marrow Transplant Unit, C/O Mike Ellis, Strong Memorial Hospital, 601 Elmwood Ave., Box 650, Rochester, NY 14642. Memorial forms will be available at the Dagon Funeral Home.

Vidalias are here! Vidalias are here!

They're here! Wegmans has them right up front so you can't miss them as you come in the doors. Of course, you could just smell them—that sweetness grown only in a twenty county region of Georgia, first discovered in 1931 by a Toombs County truck farmer.

Here's a terrific recipe for fried onion rings that really allows the sweet onion flavor of Vidalias to come out. You can keep any leftover dredging mixture in an airtight container in the refrigerator for two weeks. The recipe is from Southern Living.

Crispy Fried Sweet Onion Rings

3 c. buttermilk	1 c. plain yellow cornmeal
2 c. flour	2 tsp. salt
½ tsp. ground red pepper	2 lg. Vidalia onions cut into ½ " slices

Separate onion slices into rings and place in a 9 inch square baking dish. Pour buttermilk over rings. Cover and chill 2 to 24 hours. Pour vegetable oil to depth of 2 inches in a Dutch oven; heat to 360 degrees. Stir together flour and next 3 ingredients in a shallow dish. Dredge onion rings in flour mixture and place on a baking sheet. Discard buttermilk. Fry onion rings, in batches, 2 minutes or until golden brown, turning once. Drain on paper towels. Serve immediately with dipping sauce.

Outback Steakhouse Onion Dipping Sauce

½ c. mayonnaise	1/8 tsp. garlic powder
2. tsps.. ketchup	1/8 tsp. dried oregano
2 T. horseradish (little less)	1 dash ground pepper
¼ tsp. paprika	1 dash cayenne pepper
¼ tsp. salt

Combine all ingredients and mix well. Cover and place in the refrigerator for at least 30 minutes before serving.

AU graduates get return on investment

ALFRED—Graduates of Alfred University (AU) get a good return on their investment in the form of lifetime earnings, according to a PayScale.com ranking of more than 1,500 colleges and universities.

The "PayScale 2013 ROI (Return on Investment) Report" says that Alfred University ranks the highest among all schools in Western New York in terms of the 30-year return on investment. Alfred University is 253 on the list, with the University of Buffalo next-highest among Western New York schools with a ranking of 265.

Rankings are based on cost of a degree, with financial aid factored in, compared to anticipated 30-year earnings of graduates.

"This confirms what we have been saying: An Alfred University is worth the investment students and their families make in an AU degree," said Alfred University President Charles M. Edmondson.

Question of numbers

To the Editor:

Reading the letters to the editor is one of the most insightful parts of the Sun. These letters give windows into the thinking of the members of our community. Sometimes something is written that I would like to have further information.

A case in point was from the letter, "Appalled by Cartoon." The writer presents some statistics to consider.

"Only 3 percent of their (Planned Parenthood) services is devoted to providing abortions which is the focus of the religious right which ignores the 97 percent of valuable work done by Planned Parenthood. ..."

Sometimes when I see percentages I ask, "What is the real or hard number?" So I go to Bing and find from one source in 2009 Planned Parenthood and affiliates helped with just over 330,000 abortions. This number seems very high. Is there a better number out here maybe one that reflects 2012?

Thank You
Kenneth D. Chroniger

Genesee headwaters

To the Editor,

I am writing of my concerns regarding the Headwaters area of the Genesee River, which lies in Potter County, PA. Plans for a fracking wastewater treatment plant to be built in this highly sensitive and irreplaceable area should be of concern to Allegany County, and to anyone bordering the Genesee.

I moved to New York's southern tier 12 years ago, and am now very concerned that, even if the fracking industry is kept out of New York, we are all 'downstream' from the Genesee Headwaters.

Take the time to investigate this issue. Some PA citizens are trying to fight this plant. Search for "Triple Divide" information regarding this threatened area that influences three major river systems.

Thank you,
Sandra B. Sheldon

Why Is Idiom Spelled So Much Like Idiot?

Or,
It May Sound Like English, But It's Gibbergreek to Me

I have axes to grind with the En-gle-ish language; Getting down to brass tacks: it is causing me anguish. I'll give you the scoop if you'll lend me your ear – I don't have a chip on my shoulder, but hear: Those Angles inventing it knew every angle, Any rule of thumb they were likely to mangle; Those rats would spring any old trap they could think – Every trick in the book but the...uh...kitchen sink.

We got off on the wrong foot, my teacher and me... "I'm casting my pearls before swine," muttered she, "His dialect is...shall we say...for the birds." But her actions spoke volumes – much louder than words. I bent over backwards to give her a chance, And all that I got was a big song and dance; She determined she'd teach me, by hook or by crook But we never were on the same page, in my book.

Though she held all the cards, hers was not a full deck; I was learning the ropes, headed for a train wreck. Get a load of the garbage she put in my head: "Just pull yourself up by your bootstraps," she said, And "Don't judge until you've walked a mile in their shoe" (Cross your fingers that you won't get athlete's foot, too), And other such pearls of wisdom – so-called – Which ought to have been, with the Edsel, mothballed.

Who's bothered that Rome wasn't built in a day? And what makes a fiddle so fit, anyway? Who wants birds in your hand if there's more in the bush? If push comes to shove, couldn't shove comes to push? It baffles my mind how a day could be seized – And why in the world would punch be so pleased?! I promise I won't count my chicks till they've hatched, But hey – what's this catch 22's s'posed to've caught?

She's a wolf in sheep's clothing – a snake in the grass; I was clinging to hope that she'd give me a pass. They say that you can't judge a book by its cover, But if she were a cliffhanger... "off" I would shove her. I went out on a limb, got in over my head, And out of the blue I was now seeing red, And starting to smell something fishy – a rat! I'd've dropped out of class at the drop of a hat.

I began mouthing off; she said, "None of your lip!" While I bit the bullet, she shot from the hip. When she spat, in the heat of the moment, "Bad egg!" I thought, "You have gotta be pulling my leg!" I was chickening out as I fought the good fight, In hopes that her bark would be worse than her bite. I had thought that this class would be easy as pie; I'd not learned that it's best to let sleeping dogs lie.

Do I know every dog has it's day? Yeah, of course; But you're asking for it if you beat a dead horse. I barked up the wrong tree, I preached to the choir – It was out of the frying pan, into the fire. I'd upset the apple cart, bitten my tongue, And tried hanging around till the last dog was hung. I kept an eye out for that bright, silver lining Little birdies say comes when your stars are aligning.

I'd been sitting there, minding my own p's and q's, Just an Average Joe, Mr. Goody Two-Shoes, But struggling with keeping my head above water – Like a drowned rat, a scapegoat, a lamb to the slaughter – Cuz already, I'd too many irons in the fire; This contest, I feared, would come down to the wire. Come hell or high water, I'd go to the mat; Curiosity now had been killed by the cat.

Since I can't cut the mustard, I'm using my noodle And throwing it out, the whole kit and caboodle. I don't care if it's i or it's e before c, English is out of the picture for me. It's a subject I'm just giving lip-service to; I'm afraid I've bit off a bit more'n I can chew. Napoleon? He'd pick this Bonaparte, too, And say that I just met my own Waterloo.

To Judge-Jury-and-Hangwoman, now on the bench: Fermez la bouche – if you'll pardon my French. Let's not beat 'round the bush; let me cut to the chase – Cuz down deep in this hole that I'm digging's an ace. She's made me a true Doubting Thomas A. FROM THE DESK OF DAVID PULLEN

By DAVID PULLEN
Allegany County Legislator

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE

The May 13th session of the Allegany County Legislature recognized the distinguished service of a number of local citizens. Army veteran Roy Betteridge led the Pledge of Allegiance, and was later recognized for his military service. He served with distinction during the Vietnam War. Military service was difficult and unappreciated during that period. We owe it to all our veterans to let them know that we understand and appreciate the sacrifices they made for our country.

The Board also recognized the service of Dr. Edna Howard as a member and Chair of the Community Services Board. She has served faithfully for many years, but has announced her well-deserved retirement. Sheriff Rick Whitney also recognized the service of several Police Chiefs and other senior police officers from around the County. Our communities are safer because of the faithful service of these law enforcement officers. Chairman Curt Crandall then issued a proclamation declaring May 12-18 as Police Week, and May 15th as Peace Officers' Memorial Day.

The Board considered five resolutions at this session. Resolution #79-13 authorized the re-funding of Public Improvement Bonds from 2001 with a current balance of approximately $900,000. This process will save about $32,000 in interest due to lower interest rates. Resolution #80-13 unanimously declared May to be "Mayday for Mandate Relief" and urged the State not to adopt laws that impose unfunded mandates on local governments.

Resolution #81-13 addressed a very unique situation. In 2011 a parcel of land was sold at tax foreclosure which apparently does not actually exist. After extensive research by a surveyor, County Treasurer and Director of the County Real Property Tax Service Agency, it was determined that there is no parcel at the location indicated. The Board authorized refund of the funds paid to purchase this non-existent parcel.

Resolution #82-13 approved an agreement between Allegany County and IOC Services, LLC, that will allow that organization access to the former Allentown School building. That organization wants to clean up the property and secure the building against intruders and vandals. The Board unanimously supported this agreement.

The most controversial matter that came before the Board was Resolution #83-13 that approved a State Legislative Bill extending Allegany County's additional 1.5% sales tax rate until November 30, 2015. None of your County Legislators are happy about this re-authorization. However, as long as Allegany County is saddled with paying expensive State mandates we must raise the money from either real property taxes or sales taxes. Most of us have concluded that doing so through the additional sales represents the "lesser evil." Our current local sales tax rate of 4.5% is one-half percent higher than that in surrounding counties. That additional 0.5% generates approximately $2 million annually. To raise an equivalent amount of money from real property taxes would require a rate increase of more than 6.0%.

Over the past three years the Board of Legislators has kept spending under control, and actually reduced real property taxes. During that same time our contributions and payments to programs like Medicaid, State Pension System, Early Intervention, and other mandated programs have increased significantly. Those increases were paid for through other savings in payroll, health insurance savings, and careful financial management. We must continue our efforts to save money, but recognize we have already achieved most of the savings that are possible.

The long-term solution to high taxes is economic development, rather than cost reductions. In recent months Allegany County has seen some significant economic developments. Our unemployment rate has dropped and several major employers have announced they are hiring. Economic development helps in several ways. First, it reduces expenses for mandated State programs since employed workers don't need or qualify for mandated programs. Second, when people are working they have money to spend on necessary purchases, on home improvements, and services from local businesses. When more people are working the tax burden gets shared among more taxpayers, and everyone ends up paying less. Growth is the ultimate "win-win" solution.

Hornell Area Wind Ensemble concert Saturday night

HORNELL—The Hornell Area Wind Ensemble's co-conductors Edward Belin and Christopher Lynn will soon hand over their batons to guest conductor Colonel Thomas Rotondi, Jr., United States Army, Retired. Colonel Rotondi will lead the Ensemble's spectacular Memorial Day Concert "For Those Who Served" at 8 p.m. Saturday, May 25 in the Hornell High School auditorium.

Colonel Rotondi's credentials are outstanding. He was the eighth Leader and Commander of the United States Army Band "Pershing's Own" (2005-2011.) His previous assignments include Commander/Conductor of the United States Army Band, the U.S. Military Academy Band, the U.S. Army Europe Band and Chorus, in Heidelberg Germany, and the U.S. Military Band at West Point.

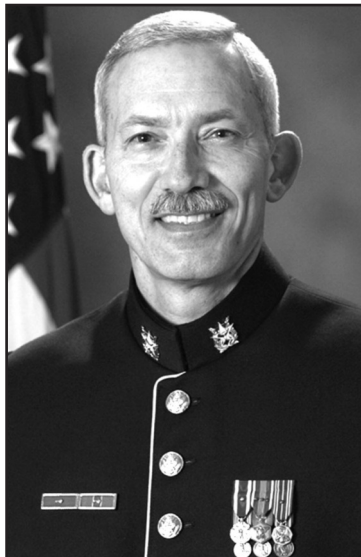

The Saturday evening concert also features guest soloist Leigh Ann Hinton, soprano. She has performed at various venues including Avery Fisher Hall in Lincoln Center, the Kennedy Center, and as a concert soloist throughout the United States, Europe, and China.. She's also shared the stage with Kathy Mattea, Lou Rawls, and Kenny Loggins, to name a few.

The evening will be opened by The Lady Liberties, an auxiliary color guard from Chili. They represent American Legion Post 1830, and will present the colors. They were National Champions in 1996 and from 1998-2009, and are sure to inspire your patriotic spirit!

The Wind Ensemble welcomes back Mark Smith as Master of Ceremonies, who will entertain you with his engaging narratives throughout the evening.

You'll be treated to a variety of patriotic songs, many of which are from the Army Band library.

These include stirring marches, such as "American Exultant" by Henry Fillmore. This piece features trombones, along with a trumpet and drum motif. Listen to the trio section; you'll hear "America."

Other marches include "On Parade," Edwin Goldman's energetic composition, and "Stars and Stripes Forever," widely considered to be John Philip Sousa's magnum opus. By an act of Congress, it's the official National March of the United States of America.

There are jazz offerings as well. Leigh Ann Hinton joins the Wind Ensemble, singing "Autumn In New York." She'll also enchant the audience with four more pieces; "American Anthem," "What More Do I Need," "Patriotic Showcase," and "Armed Forces Salute."

Colonel Rotondi will conduct the Ensemble in "El Camino Real" a Latin Fantasy by Alfred Reed. It was commissioned by and is dedicated to the 581st Air Force Band and its Commander, Lt. Col. Ray E. Toler. This fantasy is based on Spanish folk melodies, and you'll notice all the fiery style and drama of the bull-fight!

You'll also hear "Chorale Prelude on a Theme" (Nearer My God to Thee) composed to honor the memory of Col. William Schemph. The U.S. Armed Forces version of "The United States of America" by Francis Key Scott will be played. It's better known as the "Star Spangled Banner," our national anthem. A fast-paced piece to please the audience is "Liberty Fanfare" by John Williams. It was commissioned to celebrate the centennial of the Statue of Liberty. One music reviewer said "As fanfares go, it's a humdinger."

The Hornell Area Wind Ensemble is honored to have Colonel Thomas Rotondi, Jr. and Leigh Ann Hinton as Guest Conductor and Guest Soloist.

This concert is sponsored in part by public funds from the New York State Council on the Arts Decentralization Program and is administered locally by the ARTS' Council of the Southern Finger Lakes.

Black-Eyed Susan Acoustic Cafe hosts musical groups

ANGELICA—On Thursday, May 23 as part of a special "Brews & Bar-B-Que" pairing dinner, Black-Eyed Susan Acoustic Café will present Lottie and the Manatee, a six-piece band from Ann Arbor, MI playing down-tempo indie folk and soul music.

Every weekend, exceptional musicians of a wide assortment of musical genres appear in the Music Room at 22 W. Main St., Angelica.

On Friday, May 24 Irish fiddler and balladeer Pat Kane of Addison, will perform. Join the ever-engaging, charismatic Mr. Kane for an evening of traditional and modern Irish and American folk music on fiddle, guitar, bodhran and vocals.

On Saturday May 25 we're pleased to introduce The Cadleys with JD Dancks performing new acoustic and traditional folk and bluegrass. Both shows begin at 7:30 p.m. Brews and BBQ Join celebrity grill chefs Mike Robbins and Ed Polanowski on Thursday, May 23 for "Brews & Bar-B-Que"—a beer and food pairing dinner taking place at Black-Eyed Susan Acoustic Café.

"Brews & Bar-B-Que" will feature a four-course meal cooked entirely on the grill. The menu includes grilled bacon-wrapped stuffed jalapenos; grilled Asian tuna steak over mixed greens with sesame ginger dressing; center cut ribs with red beans and rice, smoked brisket, vegetable and corn bread; and for dessert it's grilled lemon pound cake with bourbon-glazed fruit.

Mike and Ed have chosen an inspired selection of regional craft and microbrews to complement each course, and guests will be invited to sample one 'bonus' brew.

The evening includes music by Lottie and the Manatee — a six-piece indie / soul band from Ann Arbor, MI playing down-tempo folk roots music infused with hints of Motown, jazz, and classical. Learn more at www.lottieandthemanatee.com.

A limited number of seats are available for this special event, and reservations are required. The dinner begins at 6 p.m. Reserve your spot by calling 585-466-3399.

Come at 7:30 p.m. Friday, May 24 prepared to tap your feet and sing along with Pat Kane, also known as the "Balladeer of the Southern Tier." Kane is a hardworking full time soloist who may entertain for hours without a break or repeat. On fiddle, guitar, and bodhran, he plays jigs, reels, square dances, and hundreds of ballads from Ireland and America. Oh, and those stories!

He has written many fine songs and knows a host of modern selections as well. Pat is often called "the best there is" and has twice won first place for singing at the NYC Fleadh Cheoil (Festival of Music). He has produced a good number of albums and hosts a weekly Irish radio show in Elmira. Pat has

John and Cathy Cadley, who will perform at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, May 25, are one of the area's most entertaining and popular duos. Following in the tradition of great male-female duets like Ian & Sylvia and Emmylou Harris and Gram Parsons, they show how the simplicity of two voices and two acoustic instruments can produce powerful music.

Their repertoire draws on the traditional bluegrass of Bill Monroe and the Stanley Brothers, the tight harmonies of the Louvin Brothers, the "new acoustic" sounds of Alison Krauss and Claire Lynch, and John's own originals, which have been recorded by national bluegrass artists such as Tony Trischka, Jim Hurst, Missy Raines, and Lou Reid, who, with Vince Gill and Ricky Skaggs singing harmony, took John's song, "Time," to the #1 spot on the national bluegrass charts for three consecutive months.

THE CADLEYS will perform at 7:30 pm Saturday, May 25.

Cathy's resume is equally impressive, including 21 years leading a church and gospel group in her hometown of Fayetteville.

Their live concerts feature everything from traditional mountain ballads and bluegrass classics for an evening of soulful duet singing and tasty picking on guitar and mandolin, the Cadleys are not to me missed. Learn more at www.cadleys.com

Village Board holds marathon meeting

Kathy Woughter (AU) and Greg Sammons (ASC) agreed to attend.

Trustee Tom McDowell asked, "What are the new concerns? I haven't heard anything."

Village resident Alan Littell replied, "The whole weekend is out of control, drunkenness is a threat to the entire community." He added, "People come from distant parts to what they look at as 'Party Central.' You can't market Alfred with this behavior. If someone were to get killed, you'd have a national

Police Chief Tim O'Grady said, "It wasn't the worst Hot Dog Day we've seen." He said there were 38 arrests with a majority of them minor charges, adding, "Most were not students but outsiders who came in for the party."

V.P. Woughter said that from the University's perspective, "The activity of our students was similar to any spring weekend." She said there is no alcohol permitted at the concert, which gives students "several hours at an event where they are not drinking."

V.P. Sammons said this year there was a large crowd and that University Police made 50 arrests but that "a vast majority of the people breaking the law were non-students or older alumni."

He said that Alfred State has in the last five years added a number of events to the schedule including fireworks and a comedian. He said the college also has a more restrictive guest policy whereby students can host only one guest (rather than four or five) and the host is held accountable for their guest's behavior.

Sammons added, "I was not overly disappointed by the behavior of the students," adding, "It was not a menacing crowd but a jovial crowd."

Zach Hamm, representing the A.E. Crandall Hook and Ladder Fire Company, reported on the strategies implemented by the emergency services, reporting that there were 17 ambulance calls from Friday night through Sunday morning. He said 30 members performed more than 300 hours of volunteer service during a 48-hour period. Backup ambulance support was arranged with the Almond and Andover Volunteer Fire Departments.

"This was actually a lighter year for ambulance calls," Hamm said.

As for the parties, Chief O'Grady said one party had to be broken up several times but that "the fraternity parties were not a problem."

"The fraternities kept control," O'Grady added, "They have something to lose; others have nothing to lose."

In other business, the Village Board...

...HIRED Alex Minnick and Justin Haynoski to work this summer with the Village Streets and Water Department, and Javied Townsend to work this summer at the Wastewater Treatment Plant.

...NAMED former Trustee Joe Dosch and Trustee Tom McDowell to a committee to review issues with Alfred University regarding street ownership.

...VOTED to authorize Chief Tim O'Grady to put out to bid the sale of a police car. The Village will put it out for sale online at Teitsworth auctions.

...APPROVED Mayor Grigg's appointments to the Village Planning Board (with year that term ends in parentheses) as follows: Chair Anne Wenslow (2015), Peg Prisco (2014), Peter McClain (2017), Liz Cronin (2018), Sherman Clarke (2019) and Matt Katz (2020.)

'God is big enough...to conquer my sin'

By LINDA STAIGER
ALMOND—Yee haw, a new message series started today! Pastor Steve does this well...he gets to explore a topic in more depth. Sweet.

How big is God...really. Most of us don't realize how big God really is. When life hands us obstacles and road bumps, we try to fix them all by ourselves without giving a thought to bringing the Big Guy into the picture. We think we are bigger than we actually are and assume we can take care of things ourselves. Go ahead—try it—see how far you get. Then, when it gets out of control remember this...."God is bigger than the Boogie Man!" (Gotta love those Veggie Tales).

This is the problem the Colossians were facing back in the day. Paul wrote his letter to remind them of where the mark is and what the church should be.

It seems that they were telling people that faith in Jesus was not enough for salvation. 1. There was a specific philosophy required—one that incorporated some of the evil and lies around them. 2. They taught a form of Gnosticism—a special knowledge you could only get from them. 3. Circumcision was required. 4. Imposed what had been Jewish Law that included all the feast days for sacrifices; and 5. They brought angel worship and astrology into the mix.

They were teaching that Jesus is not enough, that He's not big enough for our salvation. WRONG. God is more than enough...Jesus is God and God is plenty big enough.

"Through faith in Jesus Christ, our sins are forgiven, and we are made right with God. The separation from God ceases—we become restored. God takes away our sins. He sent His son to die for our sins.

God is way bigger than our sin, and He's already defeated the demons that tempt us. Are you struggling with something? Let God come in and help. Give over control. God has already given you tools to deal with troubles....and one of those is ...HIM!

THE GLORY OF AMERICA

Thursday, May 23

The hawk circled slowly higher in ever-ascending spirals, taking advantage of the updrafts at the leading edge of the towering storm front. From its vantage point, the "prairie schooners" gathered below must have seemed like tiny white dots at the edge of a long, black ribbon. Having ferried across the Missouri, the wagons were forming up to head west behind Broken Hand Fitzpatrick, Kit Carson, or Jim Bridger. It was 1843, and the Great Western Migration was in full tide. New England poet, H.D. Thoreau, summed up:

"The prevailing tendency of my countrymen...eastward, I go only by force, but westward I go free."

DIET ADVISOR

I have a collaborator in writing this column. She is my pert, pet gerbil, Draga. Her name is the Hungarian word for "expensive." I did talk the pet store man into giving me a two dollar discount, bringing her price down to $10. I suspect that my first pet rodent, an albino hamster whom I named Hamlet, cost less than a dollar. I bought him in 1957.

Since then, but for two years which I spent in Australia, I have had a fairly steady stream of hamsters, gerbils, or dwarf hamsters. I always inquire about the sex of these pets before purchasing them, ask for a male, and buy only one. In some pet stores these little animals are separated into cages labelled "male" or "female." In case you ever have the occasion to buy a young rodent for a pet, you need to know that many pet store employees, in truth, cannot tell one sex from the other. I have experienced this three times.

Not too long ago, by believing a store owner, I ended up with ten baby dwarf hamsters in addition to the "male" adult. Fortunately for me, the mama followed the customary path for dwarf hamster mothers. They eat up their first brood. She did so, one baby each day for ten days.

That was after she had finally let me glimpse her offspring. From the size of her girth during the two days that elapsed before she allowed me to view them, I suspect that she actually ate twelve. Obviously, she was a very caring pet, looking out for my welfare. I did not have to lose friends by leaving them unwanted four-legged hostess gifts, thus reducing the overpopulation problem in my house.

Draga, too, was sold to me as a male. Even a dummy like me could discover in a few days that that was not true. I did so by finally catching a view of the appropriate area of her anatomy when she was sleeping in one of her several favorite positions.

Some people, especially in a pet store, try to figure out the sex by dangling a gerbil by the tail to get a quick look. This can be cruel. It can result in a wiggle to get away, which leaves the human holding only the skin off the gerbil's tail.

Perhaps pre-historic homo sapiens used this method on one another. It could be the main reason why humans have mostly evolved into beings without tails. I have only heard of a single recently living person who had one.

But, to return to my original topic of dietary science. Gerbils, and Draga is no exception, must do a lot of gnawing to keep their constantly growing teeth in the right shape for eating. In fact, she is one of the champion chewers among the gerbils I have had.

She assists not only me, but also several of my friends in recycling cardboard toilet paper and paper towel rolls. She loves both to run through them and to nibble them into shreds. The mountainous results incidentally save me money. I do not have to buy as much litter for the cage bottom as would otherwise be necessary.

In addition she is quite fond of chewing on cracker boxes and frozen dinner boxes, and various other thin cartons. Here is where her skill as a dietician comes in. Have I mentioned that Draga is literate? Just take a look at this list of nutritional information which she has carved out of food containers. "Whole Grain 18g Protein 270 Calories." "calories 200 3 rolls per serving." "fiber 5g...SERVING SUGGEST... KEEP FROZEN."

"Weight Watchers PointsPlus™ Program." "calculated by Nes...Inc. and is provid...informational purposes only. This is not an endorsement, sponsorship or approval of this product or its manufacturer by Weight Watchers International, Inc., the owner of the Weight Watchers® and PointsPlus® trademarks."

She also reminds me that I have eaten "tuna &...creamy sauce...toasted." "lemongrass chicken." "salmon with basil." Also, I should notice that a demolished dinner box contained a "salad additions COUPON."

Two cutouts come from boxes not containing edibles. One housed "50 BAGS SANDWICH." The other reminds me that I buy "Puffs" brand tissues.

Another item Draga chiseled says "uport fo..." and "national park..." and "how you can get..." It also shows the three bears emblem for the "National Parks Conservation Association" and its website address, "www.npca.org."

There is the possibility that Draga thinks that actual bears are the same size as depicted in the oval emblem which is just under an inch wide. As she is awake right now, I must disillusion her. I shall not be contacting the website and ordering a live, furry trio of bears to join her in her aquarium home.

It looked like thousands of runners got some color on Saturday, May 4 in Rochester. The Color Run 5K was held in downtown Rochester, drawing an announced crowd of about 6,000 runners to Frontier Field. The race raised money and awareness for Teens Living with Cancer, which organized 200 volunteers for the event. Among the participants were (from left) Alfred University students Robert O'Neill, Jose Soto and Kelly McNamara. The race began near Frontier Field and participants ran through downtown while getting doused with colored powder at various stations. Pre- and post-race parties were held in the VIP parking lot at Frontier Field. (photosbylan.com)

ASC nurses still 'paying it forward'

(Continued from front page) the nursing program. As an example, the annual "Pay It Forward" bulletin board is a message sharing project that elicits positive messages to one another each year. The senior class has the opportunity to develop their own theme under the umbrella of this inspiring model. This year's theme is "A single leaf provides no shade." Prior to each exam, students are encouraged to take a moment to reach out to a class member, offering a good luck handshake or a touch of the shoulder. Each day, someone somewhere is implementing the "Pay It Forward" concept.

Other heartwarming class projects this semester included a signed sympathy card by the seniors addressed to the Sandy Hook Elementary School, donations of food to the Alfred Area Food Pantry, and a special contribution to the Jillian Andolina benefit held earlier this year.

The graduating class usually leaves a small pot of money to allow for a pizza party for the next senior class. This event ignites the "Pay It Forward" concept at the beginning of the academic year with the current seniors and starts the rippling effect of the "Pay It Forward" concept in the Alfred State nursing program. The Alfred State nursing class is changing the world with the "Pay It Forward" movement.

The Dugout

HITS AND MISSES:

Three "local" baseball players will be on the roster for the Hornell Dodgers again this summer according to Dodger GM and Alfred State College SID, Paul Welker. Jake Kenney of Alfred-Almond, and most recently Genesee CC, will don the togs of the Dodgers under the direction of head coach Jake Tenhouse (Quincy Hawks). Dylan Dunn of Hornell High/Hagerstown CC and Garrett Hoag of Dansville/SUNY Cortland will also return for another season. Kenney is the son of former Alfred State College baseball coach, Tom Kenney and he played ball this year for Skip Sherman (A-A) at GCC. Other teams in the NYCBL include: the Niagara Power, Sherill Silversmiths, Oneonta Outlaws, Geneva Red Wings, Syracuse JR Chiefs, Wellsville Nitros, Syracuse Salt Cats, Geneva Twins and the Olean Oilers. The Dodgers play their home games at Maple City Park ... home of the Hornell Red Raiders.

There won't be a Cortland-Salisbury rematch in the NCAA Division III men's lacrosse championship game as both teams lost semi-final round games over the weekend. The RIT Tigers upended top-seeded and undefeated Cortland, 10-9 in OT and Stevenson zipped Salisbury, 12-6. RIT, formerly of the E8, will battle Stevenson for the D3 title on Sunday. The Syracuse and Cornell men are still alive in DI lax play, along with Duke and Denver. The Syracuse women are in the semi-finals as well where Northwestern looms. Mercyhurst is going after another D2 men's lacrosse crown on Sunday while the Salisbury women won the D3 championship over defending champion, Trinity. Those two teams also met in the 2012 title game. Wow ... the RIT Tigers!

Sectional baseball and softball action gets underway this week, along with lacrosse-tennis-golf, as the A-A baseball team landed in the #9-slot for first-round DD play. The Eagles played at Genesee Valley on Tuesday past. The winner gets #1-seeded Batavia Notre Dame. Ouch. The A-A girls softball squad is in action Friday in D1 quarterfinals as they are at #4 Elba. Not exactly a great draw. The Andover baseball team was a #10 seed while their softball squad grabbed a solid #3-seed.

The Rochester Medved Lilac 10K was held this past Sunday, an event that Olympian and A-A Hall of Famer John Tuttle won twice (1985, 2000) as Tim Chichester of Mt. Morris/SUNY Genesee was sixth in the men's race. Former Cortland All-American and Dansville native, Heather Swarts Webster was ninth in the women's race. Bre Glynn, a former member of the SUNY Genesee women's soccer team, ran in this race as did many-many-many others. More results next week. Efforts to reach Tuttle to see if he was running proved futile. Did talk to Alfred State College coach, Gary "Doc" Moore (A-A) prior but he was in Maine and unable to run. Big D, the other active member of the famed Torrey Painting Striders, is now busy on the Florida running circuit.

Daughter Lauren competed in the Brooklyn Half-Marathon this past Saturday and posted one of her best times ever for a H-M. She posted a time of 1:46:06 which was good for 4896 overall ... out of 21,378 runners! 3L was 1070 out of 10,563 women that finished and was 129/1477 in her age group. Definitely her fourth H-M, maybe fifth if I forgot one along the way. Two in Rochester, one in Pittsburgh and perhaps another in NYC. Next up will be the Lake Placid H-M the weekend of June 8-9. Looking forward to that, getting back to the ADK's, and hooking up with friends from the Genesee soccer family ... the Coyle's from Oneonta.

Our Man Frank, Scummer and Jake Taft took in the Boston Red Sox at Tampa Bay Rays baseball game last Thursday evening in St. Pete's (FL) as the BoSox rallied with three-runs in the ninth to pull out a win. Guessing Scum, now located in Florida, is still a Red Sox fan? Those three A-A grads hit the links together on Sunday past at Cove Cay as they were joined there by the one and only (thankfully) ... Drrippens. Have played that layout with Frank and Jake a couple-three times. Taft zipped them all with a 92, Scummer and Drip tied at 106 with "Mr. 195" taking home honors on the tiebreaker and Stubbs brought up the rear with a nifty, 111. Also his bowling average. That foursome is taking in a Yanks-Rays game this weekend. The surging TB Rays of late.

As of Sunday past the LA Angels of Anaheim/Orange County had a "solid" slate of (16-27) with imported sluggers Josh Hamilton and Albert Pujols struggling, big-time. Hamilton had a robust .214 batting average while Pujols, now a DH quite often, at .247 as of Sunday morning. Meanwhile, Texas and St. Louis are in first-place in their respective divisions. The Angels are like the Yanks of old ... paying huge bucks for players who had their best years elsewhere.

The Cleveland Indians are hot in the AL Central as that franchise looks to improve after many dismal campaigns by Lake Erie. The "Traveling Sports Fan" is talking division title already.

Coach K of Duke to coach the 2016 Olympic basketball team again?

The Charlotte Bobcats might be changing their nickname back to the Hornets after New Orleans dropped it. How about deleting the NBA franchise?

Cowburn has served as assistant men's basketball coach for the past five years. He is a very influential and calming force within the basketball program. He has counseled student athletes through his position in the learning center and has volunteered his time to help execute the Special Olympic event.

Watched the fourth-quarter of the Knicks-Pacers playoff game on Saturday evening past. Not a big fan of 'Melo of the New York team and what a terrible last period he had. Four points and two huge turnovers on horrific passes. Still, bombs away. Having said all that, 'Melo certainly had little help during this series against Indiana. The Knicks have too many one-dimensional players and the Pacers play great team ball.

Coach Tom Curle, the Alfred State College Hall of Famer, departing SUNY Plattsburgh (alma mater) for Division II Shippensburg in college hoops?

In the recent USA Today selection of high school All-Americans, teams 1-2-3 in basketball, not one player was headed to the UConn women's squad. When was the last time that happened?

A batch of NYS vanity plates spotted of late: SCNATIVE ... go Gamecocks, NAVY1944 ... props to you this weekend, CARTER ... Gator!, DAISY 01, METALRON ... Cornell ('70), THANQJTC ... thanks from Joe T. Cousins?, KITE PWR, RAGHURAM, OBR ... not Orb in 4th at the Preakness, XRAYVISN ... Clark Kent, NUT-GUY w/Sabres logo ... not Johnny W. Nuttall and CODI 1 ... shots per minute for the ex-Bulldog hoops star at Bolivar.

Jack Bauer ... 24 ... returns!

LB Rolando McClain, a first-round draft pick of the inept Oakland Raiders draft process, has retired from the Baltimore Ravens ... at age 23!

NHL champs ... Boston Bruins.

NBA champs ... can't see anyone beating Miami.

Finally this week, it was a trip "back in time" on Friday past as I ventured down to Muhleisen's Restaurant in Almond for dinner. Excellent company there as I joined my mom & Don, "Foolish" Farley and the Fremont Judge, Judy Coleman, Joannie Reese, Theresa Johnson and her granddaughter, Kiley. Received info galore on Kiley's horse riding as she heads to competition soon in Oklahoma. Most impressive! Pam's daughter, the former A-A softball star! Good company ... always good seeing everyone ... food solid. The "back in time" involved a wedding at the bar and various individuals stopping by our table to fill us in or consult with The Fremont Judge ... Betsey Farley. From Dick Stuart ('70) to Sally Jo Harvey to Jaden Norton the Van Houten's and Dave Bordeaux! Crazy. The Van Houten's, haven't seen Jack in years, from the Hamptons to Bishopville. Watch for the book. Thought I was back in the old days of Harvey's! Had a chance to chat (briefly) with Alfred State soccer standout, Hannah Holmok (A-A) on an overall fun evening. Whew. Only thing missing were my Uncle Butch and Aunt Cass who were "hosting" a camping group at the Angelica Fairgrounds.
