It's All About the Shirt!

Alfred University's Orientation program is designed to assist new students in becoming part of the AU community and to help them feel comfortable with academic and student life on campus. In order to accomplish this, we rely on Orientation Guides (OG), a team of enthusiastic and knowledgeable AU students who want to make a difference for their peers.

Being an OG is a volunteer position, involving participation in training Aug. 16-18 and the Orientation program itself, Aug. 19-23.

Please consider volunteering for this great experience. Applications are due in the Office of Student Activities and Powell Campus Center, by 4:30 p.m., Friday, April 10.

Concert: A Celebration of CB

Join the AU Chamber Singers and University Chorus and friends to celebrate the works of Carol Burdick, English professor and long time Alfred resident who passed away last April.

The concert will feature works for chorus and soloists set to the poems of CB. Friends will also read from her published works.

This is not a memorial, it is simply a tribute to a wonderful friend, mentor and teacher.

The concert begins at 8 p.m., Saturday, April 4, in the Alfred Seventh Day Baptist Church. The concert is free.

Help Welcome Coordinator of Diversity Programming Candidates

Students, staff, and faculty are invited to give input on a professional position that is central to our commitment to diversity at Alfred University. Four candidates will be giving presentations over the next 10 days at noon in the Knight Club. Please try and meet them and give us feedback through Dan Napolitano at napolitano@alfred.edu.

Rafael Rodriquez (interviewing Monday, April 6) Rafael is completing his masters in higher education from UBuffalo. As an undergraduate at Hobart & William Smith Colleges, he was president of the Latin American student organization and received a bachelor's of arts degree; an individually-created degree "The Politics of Race." His graduate internships included working with the Intercultural & Diversity Center, the EOP program, and the Center for Student Leadership.

Craig Arno (interviewing Thursday, April 9) Craig currently serves as the interim Coordinator of Diversity Programming at AU where he has been concentrating on increasing the membership and supporting leadership within our student organizations. As an undergraduate, he led Poder Latino as president and director of their annual Raices show. He also is an adjunct professor of Spanish, which was his major as an undergraduate at AU.

Christina Smith (interviewing Friday, April 10) Christina is completing a Master of Arts degree (Africana Studies) from SUNY Albany and received a bachelor of arts (public relations) from University of South Carolina. Her graduate internships included assisting the Greek Life office and acting as teaching assistant. As an undergraduate she worked for the Campus Life office and was a programming chair for the Association of African-American Students (AAAS).

Ana-Ramona Gilbert (interviewing Tuesday, April 14) Ana-Ramona is from the University of Maine, where she received a bachelor's of science degree (child development and family relations) and is completing her masters in higher education (concentration: multicultural student transition to college). She has completed graduate assistantships with the university's office of Multicultural Affairs, where she wrote and received a grant for faculty-mentoring of students of color. As an undergraduate she was president of the Latin American Student Organization.

Location: Alfred University, Alfred, New York

Cost: $40

CEU/CME Credit: 5.25 hours of Category 1 Credits*

*Please refer to the Registration Brochure for details on CME/CEU Credit information

On behalf of the 2009 Aging Conference Planning Committee, I would like to invite you to register for Allegany County's 5th Annual Aging Conference entitled Nurturing Our Livable Communities. We are pleased to announce that Dr. Bill Thomas will be our Keynote Speaker. Dr. Bill Thomas is an international authority on geriatric medicine and eldercare. He is a professor at the Erickson School and has been heavily involved in the culture change movement to promote elderhood as an honorable and valuable position in our society. He is the founder of the Eden Alternative, a philosophy and program that de-institutionalized nursing homes world-wide over the past 20 years. Most recently he developed the Green House, a radically new approach to long term care where nursing homes are torn down and replaced with small, home-like environments where people can live a full and interactive life. In 2005, the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation announced a five-year ten million dollar grant to support the launch of Green House projects in all fifty states.

Free Medicare Basics Trainings

The Allegany County Office for the Aging will offer free trainings to help people understand the Medicare program and their choices for additional health and drug plan coverage. These trainings will give you basic information on what is and isn't covered by Medicare, what premiums, deductibles, and co-pays you can expect in 2009, and how you can supplement your coverage with additional health and drug plans.

See attachment for all the times and places for the upcoming trainings.
