New Round of Employment Scams

Please be advised, a number of students have reportedly received e-mails from employers stating that the Career Development Center sent the employer the student's resume. The Career Development Center does not forward resumes to employers without consent. Therefore, these are scams phishing for additional information.

If you receive such e-mails, please forward them to the cdc@alfred.edu for evaluation and and to be processed (blocked) by ITS.

Thank you

'The Belle of Amherst' in Angelica

The Angelica Players will present a one-night performance of "The Belle of Amherst" by William Luce on Friday, Sept. 23 at 7 p.m. at the Angelica Free Library.

The Belle of Amherst delicately explores the life of America's greatest woman poet at various stages in her experience from the age of 15, when she was full of hope and success, until she died at 56, a virtual recluse with her door closed against society. Her life is recreated with liberal excerpts from her poetry and by the method of her playing the roles of her father, teacher and friends.

The evening's performance features the talents of Annie Wright, veteran community theater actress of Warsaw. The production is directed by Wright's theater colleague and peer, Mary Eckstein.

Tickets are $4 and can be purchased at the door or in advance at The Angelica Sweet Shop, by e-mailing info@angelicaplayers.com, or calling 585.466.3787.

Concert: Paul De Ritter Quintet - Music Through the Ages

Thursday, Sept. 22 at 7 p.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium
David A. Howe Public Library
155 N. Main St., Wellsville
585-593-3410

Join us as regional musicians in the Paul De Ritter Quintet feature music from a variety of historical periods and genres performed on brass, woodwind, string, and percussion instruments.

The Renaissance, Baroque, Classical, and Modern periods will dominate the first half of the concert, swinging into Jazz during the second half of the program. This can be a participatory program with audience "volunteers" taking their first trumpet lesson!

This library-sponsored program is free and open to the general public.
