

MAT GAME VOTED TO MAJOR SPORT DURING ASSEMBLY

EASY VICTORY

Present Team Takes Minor Awards For Last Time

During the regular assembly period last Thursday morning the Alfred Athletic Association held a vote on whether or not wrestling should be made a major sport. The final vote showed a decisive majority of those students who were present in favor of placing the mat game into the major sport class. Results of the ballot showed 259 students to be in favor of the question, while only 31 voted "No!"

The result of the vote is another evidence of a move that would have been passed if it had been brought before a student ballot three years ago. Agitation was made in favor of making wrestling a major sport at that time. However, refutation of these arguments were brought forward and counter-proposals were stated, being based on unreliable sources and erroneous reports. These counter-proposals squelched the pro-wrestling movement, but they later proved to be false. The adoption of the mat game to the major sport class then became only a matter of time—until agitation could begin once again.

Former Alfred wrestling stars were deeply gratified by the action of the student body. In a recent letter a former wrestling captain stated that "wrestling was a sore spot to Alfred athletes and as a minor sport, it was an injustice to the wrestlers themselves. Interpretation was once made that a minor letter was equal to a major award, except that it gave credit to an athlete for competing in an individual sport. I'm glad that people have been frank enough to refute that argument by a vote. To me, a minor letter has always meant a minor award for a sport not requiring as much effort or expense as a major sport to make it a success."

The wrestling awards of the 1931 team, were given by vote at an Athletic Governing Board meeting.

MISS ERMA HEWITT HOPES FOR NOVEL ROCK GARDEN ON COLLEGE CAMPUS NEAR HOME OF PRESIDENT ALLEN AT STEINHEIM

We have learned lately in this country a happier solution to the problem of managing unsightly banks or rough tracts, sure to be found on any lawn or campus, than to make formal grades or terraces of them. The answer is to take advantage of the conditions as they are and, adding where necessary, make a rock garden reproducing nature in every possible detail.

So that is exactly what we intend to do with the grade back of the Social Hall. President Davis liked the idea and suggested that we extend the plans to include the site of the old Allen home much to our satisfaction for it offers the opportunity for a wall garden than which there is no more real rock garden.

Considering the number of people connected with the college who are especially interested in gardening including President Davis, Professor Binns, Mr. Place and Doctor Rice and others; the interest of Mr. Ross, an authority on rocks and where they may be found; the privilege of consultation with the art department as to composition; and the proffer of as-

GIRLS' BASKETBALL FINALS TO FINISH TOURNEY TONIGHT

The finals for the girls' interclass basketball tourney will be held tonight in the Field and Track House. The preliminary between the Frosh and Seniors will begin at 7:45 P. M., and the Sophs and Juniors will meet in the final game for the championship.

Interest runs high in the tournament as both of the finalists support strong teams, which appear to be evenly matched. Neither team is rated as a favorite in the game. The competition is based on a point system, which will decide the winner of the interclass cup at the end of the school year.

Banjo Band Gives Musical Treat

The Gibsonian Banjo Band offered a rare musical treat at Alumni Hall last Thursday evening with nearly two hours of stringed entertainment. The band, a state championship organization, played several entertaining arrangements of popular music during the program.

L. E. Hagadorn, director of the unit, was disappointed at the size of the audience which came to see the favorites for the national championship contest. He stated that the regular routine program also called for novelties, singing and tap dancing, but that he was unable to ask his players to extend themselves, after such small appreciation for an act of good will on their part.

The small audience was highly appreciative of the performance.

SPRING ATHLETICS GO TO OUTDOOR WORK

Outdoor tennis will begin on the Park street courts shortly following the Easter vacation. Pending good weather, an interclass tournament will be held before the actual season begins. Varsity racketeers will be given preference on the courts.

The outdoor track season also will begin its campaign before the first of May, weather permitting. It is reported that the Penn Relays event is dropped from the schedule this year. The results of indoor trials predict another successful season this year.

CERAMIC GUILD HOLDS MEETING FOR REPORTS

HARDER SPEAKS

Several New Members Initiated Into Organization

The Ceramic Guild gave a tea for the Ceramic Art students Tuesday afternoon, March 24, in the Agricultural Building. The tea was accompanied by an informal meeting at which reports of the ceramic convention, recently held in Cleveland, were given.

Professor Binns described and explained the organization called "Fellows" that is a new division of the American Ceramic Society. Miss Fosdick gave a report explaining the divisions of the Ceramic Society and told briefly the work carried on by the Art Division.

Dorothy Hallock and Myrtle Klem, Guild delegates to the convention, told of the various meetings and described the pottery exhibits. Mary Brown Allen gave a report, and Professor Harder concluded the talks by stressing the attitude that can be gained by attending such a convention.

After the reports were given, a meeting of the Guild members was held at which new members were initiated into the organization. Those initiated were, Katherine Chamberlain, Eudora Perry, Margaret Lyons, Virginia Wallin, Marion Burrows, Hazel Mott, Elizabeth Rogers and Ruth Mitchell.

Klan Alpine Gives Forty-Niner Party

Forty-niners were in full force at a party given at Klan Alpine last Saturday evening. Music for twentieth century rounds was furnished by Fitch Brothers' Orchestra. The house was transformed into an old western saloon of the gold rush period. The rooms were lighted by lanterns hung from the ceiling and by candles stuck in gin bottles. All about the rough board walls were posters appropriate to the time and setting. Refreshments were served during the intermission.

Chaperones included Mrs. Margaret King, Professor Harris, Professor and Mrs. Rice, Professor and Mrs. Seidl, Professor and Mrs. Amberg and Professor Crandall. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Galloway. Alumni who returned for the party were William White ex'31, Daniel Gridley '29, William Wright ex'32, William Duke ex'33, and Emerson Chamberlain '28.

PAUL ORVIS HOPES TO PAY OFF SPORT DEBIT IN TWO YEARS

Graduate Manager Paul E. Orvis is confident after viewing the results of the recent basketball season and past football schedule that the Athletic Association will be able to pay all of its long-standing debts within the next two years.

The new graduate manager has concentrated on paying off several long-term bills and has made considerable headway in this respect during the late gridiron and cage campaigns. The four home football games and a long series of home basketball games next year, he believes, should aid considerably in putting local athletics in good financial standing again.

Glider Club Plans Activities Soon

Alfred's Glider Club which soared into sudden prominence on the campus last spring is in the throes of reorganization once more. The club intends to resume its activities shortly following the close of the Easter recess.

Last spring the club became hastily organized in the latter part of May. With the end of the school year so near at hand the members of the group decided to finance the project and to purchase their glider during the summer vacation. However, sickness, lack of summer employment and the necessity for some to attend the local summer session finally resulted in a postponement of club activities for a year.

KANAKADEA MATERIAL NEARS COMPLETION

The 1932 Kanakadea received its finishing touches last week-end when the final pages of the book were given to the editor last Saturday. The last two sections of the book then were mailed to the printers' this morning in an effort to complete all of the last-minute details during the Easter recess.

According to Lewis Beyea, editor-in-chief of the annual, the proofs of the book promise gratifying results. He reports that the photography of the Arthurs Studios was an excellent piece of work.

STEINHEIM MYSTERY BECOMES PUZZLE TO STUDENT BODY WHEN WEIRD NOISES PERVADE CAMPUS AT MIDNIGHT

"Two shrieks and a groan," and the Campus shivers and shakes, exclaiming "Ghost!" in no uncertain terms. In the middle of the night when the winds are blowing through the pines comes this unearthly sound—an inhuman sound, and the hunt is on.

On three occasions during the past week these sleep-disturbing cries have rent the midnight air from first the Steinheim region, then Alumni Hall and finally from the vicinity of the slumbering Brick. Spreading more rapidly than mere rumor, reports of these outcries were carried about the dorms and now the entire Campus is agog!

Many theories present themselves for solution. Some suggest that such is the spirit of Sally—that venerable, yet mystic, skeleton which resides in the Steinheim itself. Sally, it is said, when dressed in a human and more lifelike garb was the last woman to be hanged in Allegany County. Whether or not, Sally is still in her death throes and anguish remains to be seen.

Others believe that it is a forlorn co-ed who once weakened on the cold

HONOR SYSTEM DOWNED BY VOTE; FACULTY RULING HAS LONG CAREER

Committee To Judge Relative Values In New System

At a regular meeting of the College Faculty held March 16th, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

1. Resolved that the present honor system of examinations be suspended and that the faculty assume complete control of all examinations for an indefinite period of time.
2. Resolved a committee be formed to investigate thoroughly the relative merits of the various systems of conducting examinations and to make recommendations to the faculty for the future.

The committee shall consist of three faculty members, elected by the faculty, three student members elected by the faculty, and three student members elected by the student body.

Such was the statement which was issued by the faculty group last Thursday. To some students and professors, the action was inevitable, and should have been made two or three years ago. To others the report came as something which had been feared for quite some time. Those who believed in the honor system still bear a few hopes that the system can be made to function properly in Alfred.

It is the belief of several students that the new faculty control of examinations will eventually contract into a modified honor and proctor system combined. Under the new regime the professor could proctor the examination from his desk, while students, in seeing violations and cheating, could handle the case in the usual manner.

However, no particular system has been made definite as yet. The findings of the new investigation committee probably will have considerable to do with the adoption of some particular set of rules within the near future.

Steinheim steps, and who goes there each night to mourn the loss of her lover—now graduated, busted or merely departed.

A few ventured the belief that the so-called "Steinheim Mystery" started as a practical joke and that a certain group of students preferred to see how far such a hoax would go. Said group has hinted of some knowledge of the "mystery's" source, but has failed to make any comment as yet. Friends of the clique claim to have strong suspicions concerning the problem's solution, but they too refuse to divulge any secrets. How much longer the episode will last is not known.

Again it is the crazy man or the wild animal that formerly lurked about the campus, upsetting the status quo with his weird screams. It also is suggested by saner students that the furore was caused by an innocent student hailing a friend in Alumni Hall. Further theories assumed that different marauders perpetuated the scheme by popularizing this novel form of expressing themselves. But then it might be a faculty scheme to keep the wayward students away from their parking place of tradition.

Another Noble Experiment

The Honor System has been suspended by faculty resolution. We believe this resolution to be in every way wise, sane and sensible, although a bit tardy.

Alfred is a college where the Honor System does not work, the College Catalog notwithstanding. The Honor System has been Honored in the breach rather than in the observance. It has been Honored in the abuse rather than the use.

The majority of the real students and workers have long felt that a great injustice was being perpetrated by the continuance of the system. To the loafers, the shirkers, the cribbers, the sport-model play boys and play girls, and to those who nearly every week-end make their exodus from the college, this suspension of the unhonored Honor System will mean Hell. They will have to either get busy or get out.

The Honor System does work at Princeton is the cry. Why doesn't it work at Alfred?

We believe the answer to this lies in the class of students found in the two colleges. At Princeton there is a fairly homogenous student body. To them the Honor System represents a gentleman's code of ethics. They would as soon cheat at cards as to crib. At Alfred we have a rather heterogeneous student body. Perhaps the majority do not cheat at cards; unfortunately many crib. At Princeton the students must remain in the college every other week-end. This induces study and an interest in campus affairs. We advocate this ruling for Alfred.

We hope that the committee which is to be formed for an investigation of the situation will be chosen on merit and not popularity. We refer them to several members of the Class of '31, who have a great deal of matter on the subject remaining from their Frosh year when they thoroughly investigated the pro's and con's in a debate.

"Noble Experiments" have tough sledding nowadays.

April Fool Number

For the past few years it has been the custom of this paper to have an April Fool number. This practice has not been abandoned this year. For those who might be disappointed we call attention to our gesture in the form of a cartoon. We also recommend for their edification such publications as "Judge," "Life," "Boners" or any comic strip.

Issues of April 21st and 28th

The issues of April 21st, will be edited by Robert Flint '32, Associate Editor of the Feature Department.

The issue of April 28th, will be edited by Raymond Schlehr '32, Associate Editor of the News Department.

This plan allows each Associate Editor to put out an issue experimentally.

We await these issues with the greatest of interest.

HUMOR?

The Sunday School teacher had achieved great success with his Young Men's Bible class. He had brought them to the point where they neither drank, nor smoked nor used profanity.

One day he was greatly disturbed to discover that the young men were dating constantly with chorus girls. He resolved to remedy this ill. The following Sunday he harangued them in a severe manner concluding, "Young men don't you know that Hell is full of half-dressed profligate chorus girls?" He got no further—a voice in the rear chanted, "Oh Death where is thy Victory—Oh Death where is thy Sting?"

OPINIONS

Editor, Fiat Lux:—

An opinion appeared in the Fiat Lux two weeks ago which stressed the need for less expense and less promiscuous fraternity rushing. The plan of rushing stated therein hoped to shorten the actual rushing season, and to make the system less strenuous to both the fraternity men and the Frosh.

The writer's idea, I believe, is a workable plan, but would his abbreviated system fully reveal the actual worth of each fraternity to the prospective pledge? It is absolutely necessary that the Frosh become pledges in the first semester of their college careers?

In my opinion I would suggest that the season be postponed until the Frosh has adjusted himself to his college routine and until the frat man has had a good view of the Freshman's scholastic status. Several bust-outs as well would be eliminated from the rushing program, after the final exam period. Rushing itself could be shortened after each party concerned has had an entire semester to look each other over.

Another plan which is now in use in Dartmouth and Columbia does not permit pledging until the prospective pledge's third semester in college. The system is considered to be a great success in more ways than one.

The Frosh seldom lives in his fraternity until his second year as matters stand now. Under the above system the Frosh with stable indices remain; expense and unnecessary time will be reduced to a minimum; and lastly, the pledge will seek out his fraternity instead of being back-slapped for a semester.

Such a regime would be of some loss in income to fraternities for only one year, but after that the men could be initiated each year as usual.

Another Fraternity Man.

Yes, we brand our friends and enemies and then expect them to act just as the brand says that they will. We seem to be always trying to make people "conform," but we admire individuality whenever it is found. What a paradox!

Something must be wrong with a society which forces one to accept a given standard of action and thought merely when one belongs to a certain group.

Spring is coming with wind and rain, cleaning the nooks and corners and driving out into the sunlight all things that have been hidden during a long winter. Why not have a mental house-cleaning and drive all our thoughts out of the dark corners for a little airing while we shake off our labels and throw away our code of conformity? Then with open minds and a new attitude and ability to think for ourselves, we could go through Spring elections unhampered by false standards or limiting prejudices.

Bowdoin Head Writes Collegian's Aims

To be at home in all lands and ages; to count nature a familiar acquaintance and Art an intimate friend; to gain a standard for the appreciation of other men's work, and the criticism of your own; to carry the keys of the world's library in your pockets, and feel its resources behind you in whatever task you undertake; to make hosts of friends among the men of your own age, who are to be leaders in all walks of life; to lose yourself in generous enthusiasms and co-operate with others for common ends; to learn manners from students who are gentlemen and form character under professors, who are Christians. This is the offer of the college for the best four years of life.

JUNIORS TROUNCE RIVALS TAKING CLASS TRACK MEET

Local track activities got off to a flying start last Friday afternoon when the Junior Class won the interclass indoor track meet by nosing out the Sophomore Class by half a point. High-scoring honors went to Ken Robinson '32, who garnered thirteen points by virtue of a first place in the 40 yd. low hurdles, another in the shot put, and a second in the 40 yd. high hurdles.

The local tracksters wrecked havoc among the records, lowering the time for the 440 and 40 yd. low hurdles, and raising the broad jump and high jump marks. Ryskind '33 equaled the 35yd. dash mark of 4 1-5 seconds and now holds it jointly with Egger '33. Egger could do no better than get a fourth place in the event this year. In the 440, Merck '33, turned in one of the best performances of the afternoon, clipping one and two-fifths seconds off the old record of 60 seconds. Robinson '32, Varsity track star, lowered the record for the 40 yd. low hurdles a fifth of a second. Robinson now holds the record for the 40 yd. low and high hurdles, having set a new low in the latter last year. Clark '34, pulled one of the big surprises of the day when he shoved the broad jump mark up to 20 ft. 4 3/4 inches to beat out Staiman '31, a heavy favorite in the event. Maroney did likewise in the high jump which he copped with a leap of 5 ft. 9 1/4 inches to top the old record of 5 ft. 6 3/4 inches.

The day's performances point to a successful track season which will swing into real earnestness outdoors soon after the Easter holidays.

CERAMIC GUILD TO HOLD EASTER SALE

The Ceramic Guild is holding a sale and exhibit of pottery at Stillman's store, Wednesday and Thursday, April 1 and 2.

The Guild is inaugurating something new with this sale. Previously, the only occasions when pottery has been sold were at the annual Christmas and the June festivals. This year, however, the Guild is giving an Easter sale. The ware on display is to be inexpensive and all are invited to come and see the exhibition whether they wish to buy or not.

GIRL SEXTETS MEET IN CLASS TITULAR EVENTS

The Sophs and Juniors romped away with the preliminary round of the girls' interclass basketball tourney in two hard-fought contests last Monday night. All four teams competed for an interclass cup, which will be awarded to the high point scoring class at the end of the year for field hockey, basketball and spring sports.

In the opening game the Sophs staged a last-period rally to forge ahead of their traditional rivals, the Frosh, for a 17-12 win. Both teams were evenly matched and furnished one of the best played girls' contests in the past five years.

Fleischauer starred for the odd-class cagers with a sterling game at center guard position. Parmalee and Webber tied for high scoring honors with eight points apiece.

In the final contest the Juniors took an easy victory from a make-shift Senior line-up. The winners led throughout the game and were never threatened by the opposing combination, which failed to function in its first tilt.

Gladys Heard, Junior pivot player, sunk seven field goals for a high score of fourteen points. Smigrod led the Seniors in the scoring column with two field goals and a free throw.

Kansas Fraternities Remain Tax Exempt in State Senate Fight

The Hicks bill to tax property of Greek-letter organizations was defeated in the Kansas state senate recently, with 29 senators voting against the proposal and 11 supporting it. The defeat of this bill marks a definite victory for the fraternities in their fight against the efforts of county and state officials to have fraternities on the tax rolls.

The fight, which began as a court affair, turned into a battle before the legislature when that body convened. The court battle is still pending and will come up before the supreme court April 9.

BONERS

By Those Who Made Them

Illustrated by Dr. Theophrastus Seuss

BONERS is the Golden Treasury of Misinformation. It was written in deadly earnest by schoolboys in England and America, grimly insistent that Polonius was a mythical sausage or that an average is something that hens lay eggs on. Teachers vouch for its authenticity and Dr. Seuss, that polygon of artists, has drawn pictures for those who cannot spell out the words.

Brothers Rothstien and Lefkowitz are to officially open the bumming season.

We extend Easter greetings to everyone.

Beta Pi Kappa
The Ceramic Fraternity met at the Delta Sigma Phi House, Wednesday evening. Announcement was made of the formal initiation of Paul E. Cox of Iowa State College, Aims, Iowa, and Robert F. Sherwood formerly with Passe and Seymour, but now of Canada, at the convention at Cleveland.

Theta Kappa Nu
Tuesday, New York Beta was honored by a visit from Brother Donald F. Lybarger, National Executive Secretary of Theta Kappa Nu.

Saturday night, Theta Nu held an open house. Music was given by Paul Maroney and his Vagabonds. Guests for the evening were Chaplain and Mrs. McLeod, Coach McLane, Miss Starr and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Orvis.

Pi Alpha Pi
Betty Mitchell of Cornell and Sarah Reed of Goucher were week-end guests at the house.

Betty Swarthout and Zo Brockett ex-'31, were back for the week-end. Ruby Robinson spent the week-end at her home in Andover.

Pat is leaving us this week-end. We certainly will miss him, and how! Eudora Perry spent the week-end at her home in Jordan.

Theta Theta Chi
Elsie Bonnet, Felice Menz, Mary Train, Dorothy H. Eaton, and Maxine Armstrong were over-night guests last Saturday.

The following girls were formally initiated last night: Bernadine Smith, Alice Thornton, Mary Train, Dorothy H. Eaton, Betty Stillman, Iva Burdick, Emily Jones and Elsie Bonnet. The pledges were dinner guests Saturday noon.

Brick Notes
Miss M. Fosdick was a dinner guest Wednesday evening. The Misses Eva Bayer and Helen Benzel, of East Aurora, spent the week-end in Alfred as guests of Mildred Bowen, '34.

The Brick girls extend their sympathy to Ethlyn Skinner, who was called home last week by a death in the family. She will not return until after Easter vacation.

Delta Sigma Phi
"Gib" Schults '28, spent the week-end at the house, after a quick trip from Hampton Bays, L. I. Nichols and McGraw payed their usual week-end visit. Larson was among the missing this time.

If the "screams" came from the vicinity of the cemetery rather than the Steinheim, we might suspect J. J. We would advise not too close associations with Hewey and Obourn for the next few days.

Klan Alpine
Alumni Brothers Chamberlain, White, Duke, Gridley and Wright returned for the Forty-niner Party.

An erroneous remark in last week's notes stated that Hap Sproul had a new car—it belongs to his father.

Gaiser is now going in for mural painting—he claims that he specializes in drawing wall flowers.

"Chubb" and "Gully" went to Cornell last week-end, where they were guests of Bart Viviano and Charles Stetson at the Beta Theta Pi House. Viviano is bending his efforts toward procuring a scholarship for "Gully" in the Cornell Graduate School.

Kappa Psi Upsilon
Brother Bryant spent the week-end at home. He made the trip in record time with the "Engineer's Special". Brother Muller has been on the sick list. However his prospective trip to Florida should aid in a rapid recovery.

Brother Merck is a hero at least for a day. May he break more records. Brother Nevins and Rutter gave a moving picture show at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Bennet, Friday evening.

Preliminary games have been played in the pool tourney but the weather is still unfavorable for the play-off as the wind is too strong.

Brother Reiter will probably be the world's greatest flyologist, and Sammy the champion solo "Lonesome Lover" ukist.
