

Saxons fall to Vassar 8-0

9/13/08

POUGHKEEPSIE, NY The Alfred University men's soccer team was shut out 8-0, at Vassar College on Saturday afternoon. Alex Freund led Vassar's offense with a hat trick and two assists on the day. The Brewers controlled the ball throughout, outshooting the Saxons 25-11 while holding an advantage in corner kicks 9-0. Alfred (0-6-0, 0-0-0 E8) used a pair of goalies in the contest. Freshman Christopher Desouza (Monmouth Junction, NJ/S. Brunswick) played the first 54:55 in net, making three saves before being replaced by freshman Elliot Thorpe (Highlands Ranch, CO/Thunder Ridge), who finished with two stops for the Saxons. The Brewers' Jake London is credited with the shutout, playing 60:11 and making four saves before turning the reins over to Jimmy McCumber, who finished with one save. Alfred will be in action next on Tuesday, September 16, as they host Fredonia at 7 p.m. on Merrill Field.
