

History professor to discuss books on XM Radio program

5/09/08

Alfred University Professor of History Vicki Eaklor will be interviewed live on XM Radio, Monday, May 12, on the program "The Agenda" with Joe Solmonese, head of the Human Rights Campaign (HRC), between 6:30 and 7 p.m. EDT. Eaklor and Solmonese will be talking about Eaklor's two books: "Queer America" and "Bringing Lesbian and Gay Rights into the Mainstream," Eaklor's edition of the memoirs of Steve Endean, founder of HRC. Eaklor is former chair and governing board member of the Committee on Lesbian and Gay History, an affiliate of the American Historical Association with international membership. She was a drummer at the Tritone Jazz Fantasy Camp in Rochester, summers of 2003 and 2004. "The Agenda" airs live every Monday night on XM Radio's channel 155 from 6-8 p.m. Eastern. Solmonese and co-host Mary Breslauer offer a gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender spin on everything from politics, entertainment, culture, technology and more.
