Looking for One Female Student

Do you need a Global Perspective class? Want to earn International credit by taking a short-term study tour course during A-block spring 2016 semester? Are you a female student?

Consider joining the Business by Land and Sea course where we visit the Western Caribbean during spring break. We have made our reservations and need one more female student for the double occupancy requirement on the cruise ship. The cost of the course is $2,000 and a $500 deposit is due ASAP. Please email Dr. Theresa Gunn at gunn@alfred.edu if you are interested.

Bergren Forum - 'Hearts of Darkness'

The Bergren Forum sponsored by the Division of Human Studies, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, and the Provost's Office will be meeting at 12:10 P.M. on Thursday, Oct. 15 in the Nevins Theater, Powell Campus Center.

Bring a brown bag lunch; coffee and tea will be provided.

Speaker: Gary Ostrower

Topic: "Hearts of Darkness: The Congo, Hiroshima, Auschwitz"

In 1900, Joseph Conrad wrote a remarkable story about Africa, imperialism, and evil. His settling was the Congo. The forum will look at the way contemporary historians view Conrad's Congo, and then proceed to some epic moments during World War II that raise similar questions of good and evil.
