

Frosh Rules Interpreted By Campus Court

Since many people, upperclassmen as well as Freshmen, have varied conceptions of the Freshmen rules, the following revised list has been prepared. The handbook is rather indefinite on several points and it is hoped that this will clear up all questions. The rules appear here as they will be interpreted at all sessions of the Campus Court in the future.

Transfers and special students should pay careful attention to these rules to save any embarrassing situations that might arise due to ignorance of the rules.

No complaints will be accepted from upperclassmen unless they are accompanied by a full account of the infraction: date, time, violation, Freshman's name, complainant's name; and must be placed in the Campus Court box in the Post Office not later than Monday noon preceeding each session of Court.

Freshman Rules

1—Freshmen shall wear the regulation hat until moving-up day; exceptions being: from 6 p. m. until 6 a. m. on week days and week-ends from the time of the individual's last class Friday p. m. until 6 a. m. Monday. The hat must be worn at all home athletic contest including those held at the gym.

Alfred to Mexico:

Little Rollanda Learning Spanish, Mexico Fascinating To Mrs. Ringo

Enjoying a pleasant winter in Mexico are Mrs. Elbert W. Ringo and Rollanda Ringo, age two, wife and daughter of Elbert W. Ringo, Spanish professor. They crossed the border without any trouble, merely showing a tourist's ticket, after Prof. Ringo had spent some time in arranging and signing papers to prove that Mrs. Ringo would have the means of livelihood in Mexico without employment. The government employs only Mexicans.

The trains are arranged into first, second and third classes. First class, Mrs. Ringo noted in her letters home, had "put on airs," while second and third class were more democratic. Arriving in Mexico, Mrs. Ringo was quite bewildered over the baggage since porters were not allowed on the train, but waited outside the windows while baggage was handed out.

People rushed to the train to sell wares ranging from candies to toys. The men wear sandals, white trousers and shirts, big hats and colorful

Indian Princess In Next Assembly

Something different from the usual run of assemblies will be presented this Thursday when Princess Nacoomie, Osage Indian, talks on tribal life and customs.

Princess Nacoomie is the daughter of Takan, a famous Indian chief, and a granddaughter of one of Custer's scouts, California Joe. Although she has lived among the tribes, the Princess has been educated in the best of American schools.

In buckskin costume, she will talk on tribal customs, the Indian religion and philosophy before the coming of the white man, and give an explanation of sign language.

Roosevelt Wins In Intercollegiate Poll

Madison, Wis.—(ACP)—Going contrary to the various presidential polls being conducted throughout the United States today, that of the Associated Collegiate Press points toward the victory of Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Forty institutions of higher learning, colleges and universities, small and large, in all parts of the country were included in this tabulation. The results show that Franklin D. Roosevelt carried 22 schools to Governor Alfred M. Landon's 17.

In its relation to the actual national election, college straw-ballooting should not be regarded too seriously, since many of the voters are not of legal voting age. This small survey, which includes all the results on hand at press-time, is merely a birds-eye glance at the general preferences of college students.

Find Teaching Jobs Open In Many Subjects

Widespread interest has been aroused on the campus by the statements made by Dr. Seidlin in last week's Fiat Lux, concerning the chances for Science Major's obtaining teaching positions after graduation.

His reassuring statements relieved and cheered the math and science students, but left many of the other Liberal Arts students a little bit worried. With this in mind, the Education Departments presents the following statistics as found in the latest study on "Teachers Demand."

885 new persons were employed in New York State, to teach academic subjects in public secondary schools. Of this number, 546 were assigned to teach subjects in one academic field only; 285 were assigned to teach subjects in two different academic fields; 54 were assigned to teach in three or four academic fields.

In the group of qualified persons to teach in one field only, the greatest demand was for English teachers, 34% of the experienced and 35% of the inexperienced teachers being hired for this subject. 25% of the experienced and 28% of the inexperienced teachers were hired to teach the social studies. The Sciences claimed 17% of the experienced, and 16% of the inexperienced teachers, while Mathematics received 16% of the experienced and 14% of the inexperienced teachers. The foreign languages received varying smaller percents, the greatest being 4% experienced and 3% inexperienced teachers for French.

As stated by Dr. Seidlin, the greatest demand for persons to teach subjects in two academic fields, was in the subject combination of science and mathematics. This is true only among the experienced teachers, as 28 combined subjects of French and of them were hired for this combination. 26 were hired to teach the Latin, while 19 were employed to teach the subjects of English and Social studies.

Among the inexperienced teachers, the English-Social studies combination proved to be the most desired. 39 teachers being hired for these subjects. Math and Science came next with 36 teachers, and Latin-French, with 24 teachers, was next in line.

It is interesting to note that Social Studies are paired with every other subject. More teachers in both the experienced and inexperienced groups were hired to teach Social Science in conjunction with some other subject, than any other single subject in combination. Out of 128 experienced teachers, teaching combinations, 42 of them have Social Science as one of their subjects. 71 out of 145 inexperienced teachers also have this as one of the subjects they teach.

From the above figures, it is evident that Liberal Arts students interested in teaching subjects other than mathematics and sciences, need not be discouraged. The Social studies seem to offer as good a chance for a position, if not a better one, as any other field required for a secondary education.

Two Will Represent WSG At Conference

Alice Matson president of the Women's Student Government at Alfred, and Ruth Wilson, Theta Chi's WSG representative, will represent Alfred at a conference of the Women's Intercollegiate Association of Student Governments to be held at the University of Maryland, Nov. 5 to Nov. 8, at College Park, Md.

The purpose of the conference is the exchange of programs and discussion of the varied organizations of student governments in colleges throughout the country.

This is the fourth Alfred delegation to attend one of these annual conferences. Margaret Bastow, '34, former president of the Alfred WSG, was the president of the intercollegiate association in her senior year.

Hallowe'en Occasions Parties

Spun-Lo's Spider Spree was a brilliant success at the Brick Saturday night and was attended by 160 persons. In obedience to the ten commandments of Spun Lo, dictator of the party, escorts followed signs to gain entrance to the Brick and after bowing three times before his Buddha-like figure, they offered up apples as sacrifice.

Under the direction of Eleanor Hargrave, Barbara Smith, and Mary Stadnyk, the halls were lined with cornstalks, black and orange spider webs, ghosts and goblins. Lanterns and balloons covered the ceiling. In the spooky green light of the "Den of Iniquity" were skeleton, corpses and bones.

Refreshments, provided under the management of Lois Patterson, were served in the transformed smoking room where cider was provided in a multitude of bottles with imported labels.

At twelve o'clock, the music of the amplifying system ceased and the escorts left while sleepy co-eds began their duties as clean-up squad.

With a formal dance Saturday night at Social Hall, Theta Chi and their guests celebrated Hallowe'en. The Hall was lighted by candles and a large pumpkin head leered from the hearth. Lennie Rubenstein's orchestra played for the dancing.

Faculty guests were: Dean and Mrs. A. E. Whitford, Prof. and Mrs. Austin Bond and Miss Erma Hewitt. Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers, Alice Matson and Howard Sephton were also guests. Marguerite Hyde '36, attended the dance. Agnes Broich and Barbara Suter made the plans for the evening.

France to Alfred:

Red Agitation Throughout France, But Kids Still Read U. S. Funnies

Marie Louise Cheval, teacher of Romance languages, returned this fall from a France waving red flags and singing "L'International".

"We didn't stay in Paris any more than we had to," said the French teacher. "The streets were full of strikers parading and singing hateful songs—communist demonstrations. Oh, your life wasn't in danger, but a big crowd would gather at the 'Place de la Bastille'—all a low kind of people—and make demands for more pay. Comment? Oh, they want a 40 hour week, two weeks vacation with pay—"

"You know, they have a new kind of—what do you say?—strike—called 'greve sur le tas.' Instead of going home the workers stay in the store. They do their cooking and sleeping right there. It is so funny, to see the wives taking their husbands clothes down to them. Of course, some times when it would not be proper to stay, the girls go home—"

"One thing about the strikes—when the buildings are opened up again, the employers find everything in order.

Formal Rushing Starts Tonight

Formal rushing by the sororities begins tonight and will extend over a four-week period, it was announced by Audrey Cartwright, president of the Intersorority Council.

Four rushees may be entertained at one time by each house as dinner guests on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights; over-night guests on Fridays; and dinner or supper guests on Sunday. Dinner guests may be entertained from 6 until 7:30, over-night guest until Saturday noon, and Sunday guest from 10 to 3, or 5 to 7:30.

At the end of the rushing season, bidding will be done by the preferential system. As yet no date has been set for the signing of preferential slips and the silence period.

The other members of the council are: Betty Jane Crandall, Alice Matson, Margaret Reiley, Ann Scholes and Ruth Wilson.

Women Send Hockey Team To Cornell Meet

Alfred will be represented by a women's hockey team at Cornell's Sports Day next Saturday. Last year a hockey team went to Elmira College and took part in a similar meet with Cornell, Wells, and Elmira college. These same schools will be represented Saturday with the addition of William Smith college.

Eleven players are to be chosen from those who are trying out at daily practices scheduled for every afternoon this week from 4 to 5:30. A team manager and Miss Lavinia Creighton, director of women's physical education and coach of the team will also make the trip.

Republican Candidates Stronger Than Before

A swing to the left as witnessed by an increase in third party votes was shown by the Fiat Lux second poll, as both Landon and Bleakley gain slightly. The Republican candidate for Governor showed the greatest increase with 344 votes being cast for him, 25 more than in the Oct. 1 poll. Landon showed an increase of two votes receiving the total of 277. Both Roosevelt and Lehman fell off with votes of 193 and 179.

The third party candidates showed a decided increase when taken proportionately with other parties. Thomas gained six additional votes, Browder eight, and Lemke eight.

The increase in votes in this direction is paralleled by increase in the total number of votes which has raised speculations as to the cause. This has been laid, after careful analysis to a "stuffing of the box".

The FIAT LUX, in conducting this second poll, attempted to see whether the four weeks of intensive campaigning would have any effect on the student body. Evidently it hasn't. Whether this is due to a firm first conclusion as to the deserving candidates, or a failure to follow the campaign closely is indeterminable.

Forum Engages Radio, Opera Singer

Miss Margaret Speaks of radio fame and future material for Metropolitan opera stardom has been substituted by the Alfred University Forum committee in place of the Beacon Hill symphonic ensemble. This was necessitated by the cancellation of the Beacon Hill contract by the National Music League. The concert will be on Wednesday night, Jan. 20, at Alumni Hall.

Miss Speaks, who sings regularly on the Firestone radio program with Nelson Eddy, is sure to satisfy all music lovers with one of the finest programs ever presented on the concert stage. She has just completed a European tour during which she was enthusiastically received by audiences in Italy, France, Germany, Russia and England.

It was through unusual circumstances that the Forum was able to secure Miss Speaks at a price within its budget. Her program is to be the third in a series of five and will be preceded by Captain Henry Landau who will appear on Dec. 1, and Rockwell Kent on Jan. 12.

Phonographs Used To Improve Voices

Troy, N. Y.—(ACP)—If you want to graduate from Russell Sage College, you now have to talk yourself out.

This year, for the first time, all freshmen are required to enroll in speech courses. Each pupil receives a first-hand opportunity to "hear herself as others hear her," for phonograph records are made of her voice to help her in diagnosing her own speech weaknesses.

The course follows four graduated steps—diagnosis, demonstration, practice, and performance. Practice is left largely to the individual student and is a regular part of her outside preparation work for the course. Progress or lack of progress is demonstrated in class-room performances. For the sake of comparison, each student again will record her voice at the end of the course.

One-act plays, debating, and similar activities keep emphasis on speech as one of the main objectives. Upper classmen are not required to enroll, but the poor freshmen have no choice; they can't even talk themselves out of taking the course.

In One Word: "Sophomoric"

If the editors of "The Saxonian," like many of their contemporaries in other colleges, thrive on abuse and persecution, they will find slim pickings here. The FIAT LUX is not angry with them, and the few remarks in this editorial are to be interpreted only as words of admonishment such as a fond parent might deliver to a wayward child—though Heaven forbid that the FIAT LUX, whatever its faults, should sire such an enfant terrible as "The Saxonian".

But by virtue of seniority and, in the present instance, greater perspective, this paper takes the liberty of gently reproving the new-born "Saxonian," with apologies to a saner element in the Alfred community for the vigor of language, for certain very grave offenses against good taste and common sense.

You have erred, young magazine, in bringing forth even before your own ordeal of birth was ended, a type of writing which, repeating our above apology, we may designate as the Outhouse School. We refer to the sundry jokes, cartoons, stories, articles, hints, and allusions which are far more suited to the back of a latrine door than to expensive paper.

We don't intend to give them notoriety by repeating them; you know, and every reader of your magazine knows, which ones we are talking about. Smut in a college magazine is not to be encouraged even when it is funny. You have made the offense more offensive by printing in some instances smut for the sake of smut. And when you achieve a climax by suggesting the mating of a respected professor with a rat, you are waddling ingloriously in a slough of nastiness and scurrility.

We uphold and applaud your idea of crusading, but we admonish you in this respect as in all others, to have some idea what you are talking about. Turn a boy loose with a typewriter and some paper, and anything may happen. Before exploding with some quixotic proposal, consider the possibility that, not knowing all the facts, you may be wrong.

And by the same token, even when you are right, don't assume that those who think differently are blockheads or malignant despots. Be temperate. Remember that your mis-steps are looked upon by others, by the FIAT LUX, notably, with indulgence and commiseration. Return the compliment.

Shortly after your magazine appeared we heard a professor characterize it, brilliantly as befits a professor, as "sophomoric". But he was referring only to the more sordid aspects of your publication, as we have been.

By and large, we think "you have something there". There is a place in Alfred for a good magazine, be it comic, literary, or both. We think you have the talent to produce a good magazine, if you conscientiously turn your talent in that direction. But never forget that there is also a place for a poor magazine; and that is where the "Frosh issue" of "The Saxonian" is going—right off the FIAT LUX editorial desk into the waste basket.

The Transfer Hasn't A Chance!

In our fervent desire to obtain for the Student of Alfred a better curriculum we have been unable to present a problem closely allied to this major program. This is the problem of the transfer student.

In Alfred, the transfer student hasn't a chance! This is literally true. No attention has been given his problems and absolutely no consideration has, as yet, been forthcoming to alleviate his difficulties. His appeals have been futile, and this can be proven by specific example; consider the fact that at the present time there are 76 transfers on the campus and nearly all of them are making up required work.

It is our idea that these students should have some consideration and if the committee does not consider them in their present revision plans, the committee is not only unjust but unreasonable in their attitude.

Last year Norman Isaman, an honor student (Summa Cum Laude), had to take Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior subjects in order to graduate. Of course he was an exception, but many upper classmen today are still taking Freshman and Sophomore subjects even to the exclusion of their entire major and minor fields.

This condition must be remedied. It is our suggestion after some research, that the transfer who comes in good standing from an accredited or recognized college or University of Arts and Science, should be:—

1. Admitted in good standing to the ranks of his own class, without having to go back in his Junior and Senior years to take Freshman and Sophomore subjects.

2. Permitted to continue "in course" fulfilling the requirements of the School from which he was transferred.

These, we feel, are reasonable requests and should be granted. They can result in nothing but good, to both the University and the Student. There might be fewer students in Summer School sessions but now that more educational courses are offered in Summer School, the financial loss in this respect would not be noticeable.

Give the transfer a chance!

The reapportionment of representatives according to the 1930 census was responsible for the difference in the number of electors from most states between 1928 and 1932. The number of members of the electoral college is fixed by law at 531.

266 electoral votes are required for any candidate to be elected. In the event that no candidate receives this number from the popular election today, The Congress of the United States will convene at Washington and elect the president from the three candidates having the highest number of electoral votes.

"Of A Friday Evening"

When the week's work is done the average American seeks some kind of emotional and mental release. For a number here at Alfred this release comes through the medium of music.

If one looks into the church on Friday evening between seven-thirty and eight he will see a number of people sitting quietly, some with their eyes closed, others looking into space. Although they are in a church, they are not worshipping according to any of the established religious forms. Most of them have given their minds and senses free rein, subject only to the varying moods and feelings of the organ.

To one who has imagination, the music may be likened to a magic carpet flying over the earth, showing the colorful things, the sad things—a thousand images and scenes. The traveler sees warring armies, soft rain, wide valleys, the interior of a Dutch tavern, the port of Singapore, any place, or person, or scene the moods of the music might draw from the imagination.

Those who gather thus "Of a Friday Evening" may know little of the artistic and technical in music, but they have the faculty of relinquishing all contact with their immediate environment the better to see and feel.

OPINIONS

ONLY THROUGH THE OPEN AND UNHAMPERED CLASH OF CONTRARY OPINIONS CAN TRUTH BE FOUND.—Glenn Frank

Dear Editor:

I am disappointed with the Saxonian. I think you will find numbers of others who feel the same way.

This magazine can be one of Alfred's most valuable publications. We need a Saxonian; but not the kind this one threatens to become. Humor we need, certainly. An opportunity for the student to express himself in a manner unsuited to the Fiat, is sorely needed; but by "expression" must we mean merely his idea of a dirty crack?

The humor in this first Fall issue is typical of college papers which delight in being just a little bit naughty. Not being able to glean enough spontaneously funny dirt, the writers set about to manufacture it. Nothing smells worse than forced humor. Occasionally humor, ever though a bit raw, everyone can laugh at. But it can never be funny when it is merely dirt for dirt's sake. There are so many amusing incidents happening almost daily on the campus that a clever writer should not lack for excellent material. It must be a lack of resource—definitely a lack of delicacy and good taste—that would cause a writer or editor to fall back on material based on very raw digs at defenceless victims—material with which this issue of the Saxonian is so overburdened. Only a complete thoughtlessness or carelessness for the feelings of others would allow such material to be published.

I am not condemning the entire Saxonian. Some of the articles are of the best. It is too bad that the cheapness of the bad more than overshadows the excellence of the good. The first issue last Spring was fine, but lacked the pep that the present issue offers. Can it strike a happy medium and give us the quality of the first plus the gaiety of the second? Here's hoping!

SIDE LINES

When we were very, very young, they used to give us sulphur and molasses in the spring-time. It was rancid and bitter, but they told us that in the end it would be good for us. Without going into the merits of spring tonics, we think Alfred sport fans took a long draught of a bitter football tonic Saturday, and we think that in the long run the tonic will do them good.

Alfred still has a strong freshman football team. We won't go to the Rose Bowl next fall when these men are varsity athletes, but our team should be considerably better than the 1936 edition. The 7-0 loss to Niagara freshmen Saturday proved several things.

First, Niagara had a better team. Offensively and defensively, the Eagles showed up well. Chuck Pollogi, 150 pound halfback, looks like a future star.

Second, Alfred's defense against end runs is weak. The Eagles scored few long gains through the line, but when they broke Pollogi and Caisse loose around the ends, the Saxons had trouble.

Third, we have great potentialities. Against Cook and Buffalo, even a half-hearted fulfillment of these potentialities was enough. But Niagara broke up our excellent lateral pass attack. Blondy Glynn ran back the opening kickoff 60 yards to the Niagara 20-yard line, but after that the Eagles bottled him up.

Defensively, we looked good. No less than five times Niagara lost the ball on downs inside the Alfred 20-yard line. Once a backfield fumble helped us, but on other occasions slashing ends and line pileups told the story.

Our offense missed Johnson, of course. The negro boy went into the game for a few minutes in the first half and threw three passes, but the Eagles were on guard. With his ankle healed, Bo should be a powerful factor for victory.

What we need now is brushing up on minor flaws to produce a smooth-clicking attack, utilizing the deceptive double wingback formation and the lateral pass weapon. Coaches had not been too confident of breaking the 13-year Niagara jinx, and were not overly disappointed in the Alfred showing.

If the only good result of the game was the loss of our overconfidence and overcockiness, the defeat by Niagara was worth while.

We were sorry to miss the first varsity cross country victory Saturday afternoon. From reports of the race, our team came from behind after the Canadians led most of the way. Little Lyle Perkins and Captain Hughes ran a great race, we understand, coming from behind on the hill to take over Toronto. Colgate will be here next week. Colgate lost to Syracuse by one point more than did Alfred, but here on the hills the Saxons may have an advantage. Ed, Horrick of the Raiders is the main threat.

Colgate hasn't had a regular cross country coach this year. Tom Rourke, the dean of Raider harriers, is acting as trainer to the varsity football team. Maybe after that cheering Colgate upset of Army in football Rourke will be able to turn over more of his time to the harriers.

Jerry Verbie, who scored the Eagles' lone touchdown in the second quarter of Saturday's Frosh game, is a versatile gridman. He played fullback the first half and played running guard for the second half.

NIAGARA JOLTS FROSH ELEVEN TO FIRST LOSS

Baby Saxons Hold Eaglets To 7-0 Score—Glynn Makes 60 Yard Run

Saturday presented ideal football weather to sport fans but to Alfred Frosh is presented a severe headache as their idol, the Freshman football team, suffered its first defeat from aggressive Niagara Frosh, who pushed over their lone tally in the second period to win 7-0, at Monteaegle Ridge, Niagara Falls.

Saxons Fight Gamely

With their backs to the wall, the Saxons continually showed the quality which has won two games for them when they threw the Purple for three consecutive losses within five minutes as the Niagara Frosh tried in vain to push the ball over the goal.

Only by skirting around the ends behind beautiful blocking could the Purple team gain ground. Line plunges by the Purple were ineffective.

The Alfred Frosh fought bravely throughout the entire game, but missed without their spearhead of attack, "Bo" Johnson, who was able to play only about two minutes, tossing long but ineffective passes.

Saxons Threaten

The Saxons threatened the Niagara's goal line twice. On the opening kickoff Glynn returned the ball 60 yards to the 20 yard stripe. Alfred lost the ball on downs.

In the latter part of the third period, Alfred again seemed off to a score as it brought the ball from its own 30-yard stripe to Niagara's 32-yard line on two laterals from Ryan to Glynn and from Bizet to Glynn Halpin and Ryan gained a total of five yards, Bizet tossed to Argyros for 12 yards, and Ryan again passed to Glynn for eight yards as the third quarter ended.

last game of the season Saturday. In a typical athletic bull session the other day, it was suggested that the team take machine guns, clubs and rifles along with them to East Orange. One of the bullies who had watched our frosh team in action broke up the party with, "Why bother? Why not just take Rollery?"

Our frosh harriers still are going strong. Only one defeat, in the first meet of the season, mars their record. Dauenhauer and Kellogg and Snow and the others have added Eastwood to their string of victories over Cornell and Naples.

Captain

Nick Oberhanick, varsity football captain, who will climax a brilliant collegiate football career when Alfred meets Upsala Saturday.

Niagara's line tightened and forced Alfred to give up the ball on downs.

Niagara Scores Once

Niagara's only score came early in the second period. Receiving a punt from Glynn, the Purple started for Alfred's goal from the 42-yard line.

Led by Pollogi, 150-pound potential star for Niagara, and Al Caisse, hefty star halfback, the ball was swept around end for 15 yards. Four line plunges totaled 11 yards and then Verbie carried the ball over the goal line on a 16-yard run around end. Winsko kicked the extra point.

Varsity Closes Season Against Upsala Gridmen

Alfred University's varsity football team will play its last game of the 1936 season against the powerful Vikings of Upsala College at East Orange Saturday afternoon.

The Saxons will go into the game on the short end of the odds, but with almost full strength on tap. Ed Ramsey is expected to be back in the quarterback position after suffering from leg injuries most of the season, and Mike Fargione, who returned to his tackle berth in the Clarkson game after a two-week absence, is expected to be in shape for regular line duty.

At the end positions, the two Dicks, Brownell and Martin, will hold sway. Luther Crichlow, colored star, is not expected to play because the game is a Saturday afternoon contest. At tackles will be Fargione and Thomas, at guards, Gustin and Mauro or Bleakley, at center Racusin or Lomas.

In the backfield, Captain Nick Oberhanick and Joe Majseke will pair at halves, Bob Hall will fill in at full and Ramsey or Marjoribanks will be a quarter.

Upsala held Clarkson to a scoreless tie in a rough and ready battle at Potsdam the week before Alfred's clash with the Engineers, laid off a week in reverence for the late President Carl G. Erickson of Upsala College, and trounced Lowell Textile 63-0 last Saturday.

After the Upsala tie, Clarkson took over the Saxons 31-0 and trounced Buffalo 41-0.

Coach Paul Woerner is depending on the return of several injured players to bolster his team for the Alfred game, including Vito Miele, powerful fullback, and Vinnie Albanese, his alternate at the position.

The game will mark the first gridiron contest between the two schools.

Perkins Leads Saxon Parade, Hughes Places Second In Varsity Race—Dauenhauer Scores Fourth Consecutive First Place Triumph In Frosh Win Over Pat Hughes' Syracuse Boys, Kellogg Takes Second

The Purple and Gold harriers of Alfred University broke into the win column here Saturday as they set back the invading Maple Leafs of Toronto University by the almost perfect score of 18 to 37.

Lyle Perkins, Alfred's stellar sophomore speed merchant, broke the tape in 27:54, as for the third consecutive meet, he led the Saxons across the finish line. Captain Bob Hughes of Alfred finished second in 28:39.

Forest of Toronto and Bozzy Keefe of Alfred waged a thrilling battle for third place, with the Maple Leaf harrier finally nosing out the purple-clad Saxon by two seconds. Forest's time was 28:47, Keefe's time, 28:49.

Russ Barreca, Alfred, finished fifth in 29:07 and Ross Dawson, Alfred was sixth in 29:13. Alvah Dorn, Walter Scott, and Bill Knapp were the other Saxon finishers.

Russ Barreca, plucky little sophomore, earned his first Varsity A in Saturday's meet. Hughes, Keefe and Dawson, all letter men last year again earned their A. Perkins had already earned his letter this year.

The Saxon Frosh made it a perfect day for Alfred's cross country teams last Saturday, as they chalked up their third consecutive triumph, by a 20 to 35 win over Pat Hughes' Eastwood High School team of Syracuse, over a 2.7 mile course here.

Len Dauenhauer again demonstrated his prowess as he broke the tape in 16:49. Len's time was twenty-six seconds faster than his time for the same course in the Syracuse Central meet.

Andy Kellogg of Alfred turned in another fine performance as he finished second in 17:11. Leahy, Eastwood, nosed Cliff Snow of Alfred out of third place, by a four second margin. Leahy's time was 17:44, Snow's 17:48.

Robinson, Eastwood, placed fifth in 18:13, with Leslie Doy and Chris Palotta, both of Alfred tied for sixth in 18:31. Vaughn Davis, Alfred, was ninth in 18:39, and Charles Casamo, Alfred was eleventh in 19:02.

The Eastwood meet was the last home meet for the Frosh, unless pending negotiations with Silver Creek's undefeated high school team are consummated. The final meet of the season will be the IC4-A freshman meet at Van Cortlandt Park, New York City, on Nov. 16.

in all three Roosevelt had the majority.

One of the most surprising polls was that of the University of South Carolina. Calvin, the Prohibition party's candidate, won with 333. Franklin D. Roosevelt was second with 276, and Alfred Landon was last with 11 votes. There are indications, however, that this balloting was not carried on in all seriousness by the voters. The Gamecock, student paper which conducted the poll, allowing any of its readers, university men and outsiders to vote. The Roosevelt victory was 27 to 1 over Landon. Please don't hold this crack against us but it struck us as rather funny so now you have it. Well to get to the picture, it concerns, as the title infers, that monumental flight in aviation history which let the twain, East and West, meet. It's the typical stuff Pat O'Brien is noted for, you know the hard boiled knocked around hero who is very worldly yet is a dreamer enough to sacrifice all that is dear to him for his ideal. These things get rather slushy at times, but in this picture the director manages to retain more on the side of realism than in a sea of fancy.

Colgate Last Home Foe Of Harrier Team

Cross Country Coach James C. McLeod is grooming his forces for the assault by the Red Raiders of the Chenango Valley, as the Saxons play host to the Colgate harriers this Saturday in the last home meet of the current season.

The meet is expected to be a close one, as Alfred bowed to Syracuse by the score of 18 to 37 and Colgate lost to Syracuse by a 17-38 score.

The Saxons are improving rapidly, as was shown by their performance against Toronto, and should be in their prime against Colgate. Against Syracuse, the Alfred team balance, technically speaking, the time elapsing between the first and fifth finishers on a team, was one minute and fifty-five seconds; against Toronto, the team balance was cut down to one minute and nineteen seconds.

The Saxon starters will probably be Lyle Perkins, Bob Hughes, Buzzy Keefe, Russ Barreca, Ross Dawson, Alvah Dorn, Walter Scott, and Bill Knapp.

Metro Mickritz, number one man as a sophomore last year, was forced to drop the harrier sport because of the press of studies and extra work.

Alfred Host To High School Harrier Teams

Alfred University's hills and dales will be the scene of action Friday when high school cross country teams of the area are expected to compete in a three-mile race for the district harrier championship.

Entries for the meet are expected from Naples, Avoca, Corning North Side, and the winner of a previous elimination meet among Rochester high school teams.

Tom Jenkins of Naples High School is in charge of entries for the affair, and junior assistant cross country managers will supervise the meet here.

Playing Last Game

Mike Fargione, left, and Benjamin Racusin, are among the five seniors who will be playing their last game for the Purple and Gold when Alfred meets Upsala Saturday.

Five Seniors Wear Saxon Jersey Last Time In Upsala Tilt

Five seniors—Captain Nick Oberhanick, Robert Hall, Michael Fargione, Andrew Mauro and Benjamin Racusin—will carry the Purple and Gold of Alfred University onto the gridiron for the last time when the Saxons journey to East Orange for the Upsala game Saturday.

A sixth, Johnny Barvian, will await the results of the game from a radio chair back home. Barvian, star right end, suffered a fractured leg in the second game of the season.

Oberhanick is climaxing a four-year football career at Alfred this week. Nick won frosh numerals in his first year here and continued in varsity berths for three years, playing on line and in the backfield as the need was. Fargione, the only other letterman among the five seniors, has been out most of this season with a bad leg, after starring at tackle and end for three years.

Benny Racusin plugged along at end for three years and stepped into a varsity center berth this fall, as did Andy Mauro at guard. Hall, another veteran, took over Walt Gardner's
