Bunnell ex '44 Makes Initial Bomb Mission

Second Lieutenant Lowell A. Bunnell of Middleport, N. Y., B-17 Flying Fortress navigator, received his battle baptism in a recent large scale bombing attack on the Nazi railyards at Kassel by the Eighth Air Force reports a publicity release from Eighth Air Force Bomber Station in England. "We did meet up with quite a bit of anti-aircraft fire," said Lt. Bunnell after returning from his initial mission over enemy territory. "We must have been lucky as our plane wasn't hit at all."

Lt. Bunnell was a student at Alfred University prior to his entry into the AAF in January, 1943. He was a member of the class of '44 and of Lambda Chi Alpha. He is the son of George A. Bunnell, Manager of Dormitories.

The 48th Bomb. Group, commanded by Colonel William K. Martin, of which Lt. Bunnell is a member, is a unit of the Third Air Division, the division cited by the President for the historic England-Africa shuttle bombing of Messerschmitt plants at Regensburg in August, 1943.

Campus Red Cross Canvass Starts March 1

Alfred's urgent drive for a quota of $2,450 in the National Red Cross war fund campaign will begin March 1, Mrs. S. R. Scholes, chairman of the campus canvass, announced Sunday.

Sponsoring of a specific Red Cross drive is a deviation from the procedure in former years, when this and all other funds of a similar nature were combined in an all-inclusive "Campus Chest," it was indicated.

Under the general chairman for the community, Mrs. Ramon Reynolds, and the village chairman, Mrs. Roger Thomas, the local organization of War Wives will serve as collectors.

At the Brick, Mrs. E. M. Burdett is in charge of the drive, and she has appointed Roberta Wells as supervisor for collections on the three floors, first floor, Naomi Olive, second, and Marie Fuller will assist in canvassing Barbara Adams, third.

Mrs. Lou Hill will direct the campaign in Bartlett, Russell Leinhos in Klan Alpine, Mrs. Helen Cottrell in the Ag-Tech Institute, and Mrs. Robert Campbell in the Ceramic College.

At the Ceramic Experiment Station Mrs. Charles Amberg will organize the drive. Mrs. A. E. Whitford will supervise collection in the College of Liberal Arts; Mrs. A. J. C. Bond in the School of Theology; George Bennett, Ag-Tech men on campus; and Paul Meissner, other college men.

Mrs. Katherine Fuller has been appointed to direct the campaign at Pi Alpha Pi; and Jeanne Hauth at Sigma Chi Nu.

Miss Margaret Aylor has charge of soliciting funds from the administration; Mrs. Greta Potter, from the plant personnel.

Mrs. Scholes stated that a meeting will be called soon to acquaint the directors with their duties during the drive. She expressed the national slogan: "Be at his side with the Red Cross," and urged that it be given all-out support, even above and beyond the high quota.

"La Kermesse Heroique"

"A gay colorful comedy, a saucy and impudent farce of how the women of Flanders took the men's places and with cunning wile and flirtatious lure, saved their town from the Spanish invaders in the 16th century."

In brief, this is the plot of the French movie, "La Kermesse Heroique" (Carnival in Flanders), which is being presented in Alumni Hall, at 7 p.m., March 6th, by the French Club.

This picture has been acclaimed as the best foreign language film by the critics of the New York news and trade press; it has been awarded the Grand Prix du Cinema Francais and the Gold Medal of the Venice International Exposition Cinematography, and was winner of the New York Film Critics' Award for the year it was presented.

Complete dialogue titles of the film are given in English, and the student body and townspeople are cordially invited to attend at regular movie prices.

Norma Kelderhouse, Jean Martin, Jeanne Morgan, Dorothy Owen, Roxanne Roberts, Jeanette Shephardson, Betty Strayer, Lois Sutton and Dorris Weaver also received bids from Sigma Chi.

The new sorority, Alpha Kappa Omicron, is pledging Ellen Levy, Olive Cohen and Gloria Woodward. This is the first time this sorority has pledged any members. They made their debut on our campus about two weeks ago.

Daphne Phillips is the president of the new group, Peggy Baker being their rushing chairman. Presidents of the other sororities are Helen Dreher, Pi Alpha; Joanna Folts, Theta Chi; and Isabel Smith, Sigma Chi. Rushing chairmen were Jean Moore, Pi Alpha; Joanna Folts, Theta Chi; and Martha Miner, Sigma Chi.

Pledge services and dinners will be held by all the groups tonight, bringing to a close the 1944-45 rushing season on the campus of Alfred University.

Students Have X-Rays Taken

All ceramics and liberal arts students, eleven Ag Tech students, the faculty and staff both of Alfred University and of the Alfred-Almond Central School, were X-rayed yesterday by the National X-Ray Services, sponsored by the Allegany County Health and Tuberculin Association, University Treasurer B. B. Crandall announced.

This is the first time such an examination has been given on campus, although skin tests were made last year. While it includes all students this year, it is the intention of the administration to furnish this health service only to those new students who enter between this and another all-college examination, which may take place after a period of two years.

The X-ray films will be kept on file here, and will be freely accessible to all who may have use for the records, Mr. Crandall stated.

H. O. Burdick Is Honored By Cadet Nurses

Mr. H. O. Burdick, head of the Department of Biology, was guest of honor at a surprise party, Tuesday, February 13, given by the Cadet Nurses at his home on Sayles Street.

Cadet Nurse Pamela Space sang two selections for the guests who were present, "This Is My Country" and "Say a Prayer For the Boys Over There." Mr. Burdick also entertained the group, singing "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied at the piano by his daughter, Carol Burdick. A farewell gift was presented the honored guest by his students.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Burdick and two daughters, Carol and Judy, and the following nurses were present at the party: Wanda Dolan, Doris Sick, Lillian Lombardi, Ronnie McCauley, Millie Collan, Marilyn Neville, Sara Pepe, Irene Schulman, Harriett Seager, Shirley Shepard, Arlene Smith, Betty Smith, Mary Lou Watt, Bertha Gallo, Mary Barney, Ellen Smith, Astrid Johnson, Jane Rupprecht, Pamela Space, Mae Harper, Barbara Adams, Katherine Clark, Marjorie Magnuson, Betsy Dibble, Evelyn Costello, Madge Evans, Evelyn Donnan and Ruth Gallows.

Mr. Burdick, who recently received an appointment from the Red Cross as Assistant Field Director, will leave Alfred soon for Washington, D. C., where he will take a two-weeks' orientation course at American University.

Campus Dance Considered By Student Senate

Possibilities for an all-campus celebration on St. Patrick's Day are still under discussion by the Student Senate, and no definite decisions were reached during the last meeting, it was announced.

Suggestions were submitted for a sleigh ride, treasure hunt or an all-college ball, but the latter idea has been virtually abandoned due to the financial difficulties involved and to the scarcity of men on campus. The only way such a dance could be given would be through the cooperative efforts of the Independents, the Ag-Tech school and the Senate, it was indicated. There was no dance last year.

The next meeting of the Senate is scheduled Wednesday of this week. Any student suggestions for appropriate observance of the holiday will be greatly appreciated by the Senate planners.

Inadequacy

For the past two weeks our campus has been under a strain—important, although not as necessary as it may seem—due to rushing and its rules and regulations.

The Intersorority Council has been functioning for some time now. Its purpose, we are informed, has been to unite all the sororities on campus and supervise rushing activities. Its rules and regulations have more or less gone along with the organization. Conditions here on campus have changed. The constitution, nevertheless, has remained intact except for a few minor details. More and more the Intersorority Council has been recognized as an important group. More and more, however, we feel it has become inadequate. Each year its president assumes more arbitrary power than ever before. Several times this year such arbitrary decisions have been made without even a formal report to the Council. If such power has been given or assumed by one person, we recognize the other council members as mere puppets. Nor does the organization have any regular meetings.

Not only does the organization seem to be lacking in its structure and allocation of power but also in its very rules and regulations. Each year we note even greater disappointments to many new girls on campus. When the frosh and transfer students first come here, sororities and sorority life has seemed to them enshrouded in a sort of mysticism. They are told that if they are wanted by a sorority they will be rushed at the proper time. Nothing more. No one tells them, however, how they come to get on one's rushing list. No one informs them of the unwritten laws of the Council. No one presents them with a clear-cut picture of rushing—its evils and unscrupulous methods. No one gives them a list of "do's" and "do not's." No one protects them from the bad ethics and tactics of some sororities. No one is allowed to explain just exactly how rushing works and why.

In this day and age we see no reason for trying to confuse these new students any more than it is necessary. We can see no just cause for not being permitted to explain what goes on in an Intersorority Council meeting during rushing. Why shouldn't rushees know that some sororities rush but do not place the same girls on their final lists? Why aren't they informed that one rushing dinner may be just as meaningful as two or three? Why can't they be told exactly what the score is? In the final analysis less girls would be hurt. Any freshman or transfer student is old enough to comprehend the workings of the Council if such should be explained to her. There is already enough confusion confronting a new student. Why should the Intersorority Council aggravate the situation?

We should like to see, then, a new Intersorority Council constitution with adequate, clearly-defined rules and regulations to fit present day needs. We should be proud to acknowledge an honest endeavor to clarify a pressing situation.

Assembly Recital

Marking her 25th year with the Music Department of Alfred University as Professor of Pianoforte, Ada Becker Seidlin gave a recital before the College Assembly on Thursday, February 22 in Alumni Hall. Dean M. Ellis Drake who introduced her to the near-capacity audience of students and townspeople, said he was happy to do so on two counts. First, because Mrs. Seidlin was a member of Alfred's faculty and second, because he was proud of her being the fine artist that she is. Mrs. Seidlin announced her own program, saying that she was bowing to public demand and playing the compositions repeatedly requested by members of the student body. The following is her program in the order presented:

Chopin
Nocturne in E-flat, opus 9 No. 2
Etude in C-sharp minor, No. 19, opus 25 No. 7
Etude in C-minor, opus 10 No. 12

Debussy

Technologist From Russia Visits Alfred

Professor O. K. Botvinkin, head of the All-Union Scientific Research Institute of Glass Industry, Moscow, Russia, visited the College of Ceramics last Thursday and Friday. He was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Scholes.

Mr. Botvinkin reported great progress in glass technology in Russia, where technologists and students of science, he said, are not taken into the armed forces. Because of the large demand for chemical glassware for school laboratories, he was especially interested in mechanical methods for its production.
