SUGGESTIONS

The demand upon institutions of learning are broadening year by year, and equipment and endowment must be increased to keep pace with the demands. Alfred forms no exception to the rule. With the assistance of her friends she has been enabled to meet all requirements in the past. Relying upon a continuation of that kindly interest in her work, there is here presented for consideration a variety of channels in which substantial aid in meeting the demand of the future may be directed. Those who wish to perpetuate their usefulness and their memory, and make their deeds live after them, cannot better do so than by giving or bequeathing something to Alfred University in one of the following ways:

INCREASE IN THE GENERAL ENDOWMENT FUND, the income of which shall be at the disposal of the University for its general expenses.

THE CENTENNIAL FUND was established in 1899 with the expectation that it will amount to $100,000.00 when the University shall celebrate its centennial. Gifts to this fund may be made from $1.00 to $100.00.

THE ENDOWMENT OF PROFESSORSHIPS. Twenty-five thousand dollars will fully endow a professor's chair.

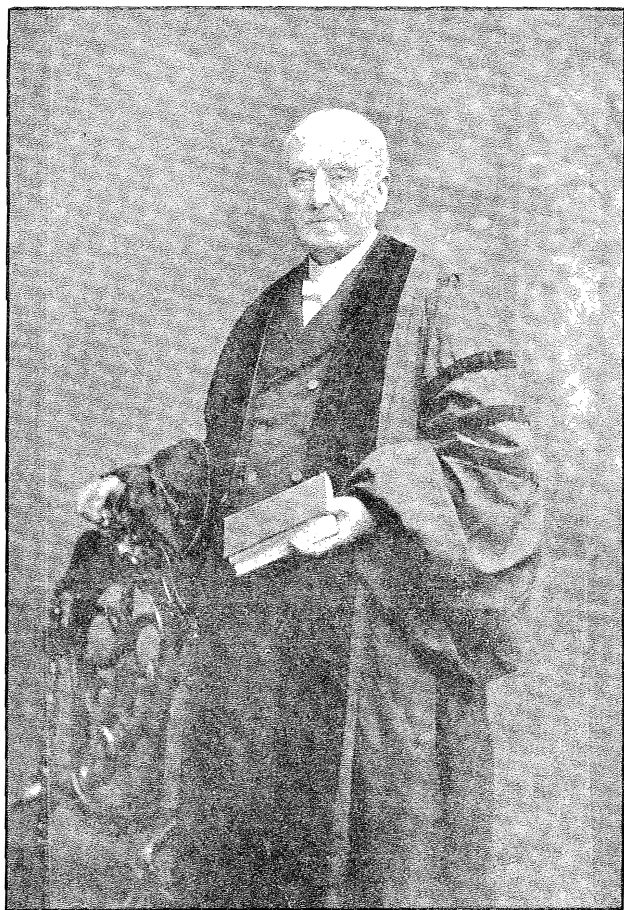

THE ENDOWMENT OF SCHOLARSHIPS to pay the term bills of worthy, but needy students. One thousand dollars will endow a scholarship.

A scholarship may be instituted conditionally upon the payment of one hundred dollars and kept alive by the payment of not less than twenty-five dollars every two years thereafter, until one thousand dollars shall have been paid; and the beneficiary will be credited on his tuition charges with the income of the fund. In the case of scholarships founded by societies, if twenty-five dollars or more be added to the principal annually, the beneficiary will be granted free tuition, but incidental and extra fees must be paid in cash by the beneficiary.

A LIBRARY BUILDING which will cost, say $25,000.

The gift of books and of moneys to buy books.

Every gift will be used as the donor may direct. The giver of fifty dollars or more will be asked to allow his name to be used in connection with the gift in the reports of the University.

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT

TO THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF ALFRED UNIVERSITY:

The President has the honor to submit his tenth annual report, viz: for the year beginning June 22, 1904 and ending June 20, 1905.

NECROLOGY

During the year, death has afflicted the University by the removal of three of our faithful and esteemed trustees. While we bow in submission to this bereavement, we are able to report that into the ranks of the faculty and student body, death has not entered. For the preservation of life and the general health of our faculty and students, we are devoutly thankful.

Darius R. Ford, D. D., LL. D., entered into rest November 25, 1904, at eighty years of age. Dr. Ford was born at Belfast, New York, October 5, 1825. He entered Alfred Academy as a student in 1844 and graduated in 1848. He then entered Brown University from which he graduated in 1852. After teaching one year in the public schools of Hornellsville, he began teaching in Alfred Academy, where he remained ten years a faithful and beloved professor. He was a professor and trustee of the University when the charter was granted in 1857. He was one of the seven men who banded themselves together to maintain the new and struggling University for a period of years and to accept whatever remuneration might be left to them proportionately after the expenses had been met. After ten years of such service, he became professor of physics and chemistry in Elmira College and there rendered about forty years of faithful and distinguished service, endearing himself to all who knew him. He remained a member of the board of trustees of Alfred University until the time of his death. He was a ripe scholar, a clear, concise thinker and a man of hopeful conservative judgment.

Joseph Mitchell Titsworth was born in Plainfield, New Jersey, July 4, 1849. During his early manhood, he spent a short time as a student in Alfred University and then entered upon a business career. He gained prominence in many business interests, was treasurer of the Potter Printing Press Company, trustee of the Seventh-Day Baptist Memorial Fund, and a director of the Dime Savings Institution of Plainfield. He retained a deep interest in Alfred University during all his busy life. In 1896 he was elected a trustee and continued to hold this office until the time of his death, being esteemed by all as a loyal and able adviser of the University. His death occurred March 14, 1905.

Silas Clarke Burdick, E. B., was born at Alfred, N. Y., March 12, 1838, and graduated from Alfred University in 1858—one year after the charter was granted. He then attended college one year in Madison, now Colgate University. Returning to Alfred, he entered the mercantile business and through his entire life retained an active and helpful interest in the town and in the University. He served his town as clerk, supervisor, and postmaster. In 1865, he was elected a trustee of the University and continued to hold this office until the time of his death. Mr. Burdick was a man of scholarly tastes and ideals. He believed in a high standard of educational efficiency and sought by all possible means to promote such standards. He also had a genius for making friends and he kept constantly in his memory the hundreds of students who had attended Alfred University during his connection with it. He especially sought to give a cordial welcome to returning Alumni and to make our Commencement seasons successful as reunions of former students. He passed to his reward March 21, 1905.

In the death of these trustees, the University has sustained a heavy loss, and will continue to bear in loving memory these men who have served it nobly in their day and generation.

FACULTY

The faculty of the University has remained the same as last year with the exception that Miss Alberta Oakley did not take up the work in English and Expression at the beginning of the year. Miss Agnes Rogers, Ph. B., was employed as a substitute for a short time, when Miss Edith C. Putnam, A. B., of the Woman's College of Baltimore was appointed instructor in English and Expression and assumed the work of the instructorship after the Thanksgiving vacation. Miss Putnam was also made preceptress of the Ladies Hall. In these positions, she has rendered satisfactory service and is recommended by the committee on teaching force for the coming year.

All members of the faculty have shown their usual loyalty and devotion to the work of the University and merit the commendation of the Board of Trustees.

I regret to report that Prof. Claude I. Lewis of the Department of Natural History and Agriculture has tendered his resignation, that he may pursue graduate studies in Cornell University. His work in this department has been of a high order, and in the Allen Steinheim Museum, as his report will show, and as can be easily seen by inspecting the Museum, he has accomplished excellent results. The Museum is now better catalogued, classified and arranged than ever in its history.

Mr. Walter L. Greene, who for three years has been instructor in physical training, has graduated from the Seminary and has accepted a position as field secretary for the Seventh-Day Baptist Sabbath School Board, and resigns his instructorship. Franz H. Rosebush, A. B., instructor in Latin in the Academy, has been appointed instructor in physical training and director of the gymnasium.

Mr. Linton B. Crandall, who for four years has been foreman in the carpenter shop, has resigned his position to accept an instructorship in manual training which will be more remunerative financially.

Mr. Allen W. Corwin, who has for two years been the foreman of the machine shop has also tendered his resignation. Successors to these positions have not yet been appointed, though the committee is in communication with individuals whom they hope to secure for these positions.

In the Academy, Miss Dora Kenyon, who had been an efficient instructor in Latin for six years, resigned at the middle of the year, and Mr. Franz H. Rosebush, A. B., was appointed in her place.

Some changes will occur in the Academy faculty for the coming year. Mr. William S. Maxson, Ph. B., of Chicago has been appointed principal, and Mr. S. Whitford Maxson of Adams Centre, New York, has been appointed training class instructor. Miss Eugenia Marvin, instructor in English and Modern Languages, has resigned her instructorship after a successful service of three years. Miss Agnes Rogers, Ph. B., has been appointed to this position for next year. No other changes are anticipated in any of the faculties of the University.

REGISTRATION

The registration of the University for the year has been as follows:

College	131
Academy	158
State School	35
Theological Seminary	10
Total	334

Of this total 29 are duplicates, leaving a net total registration of 305 individuals during the year. The Senior class in the college this year numbers twelve, including one who is to take the degree of B. S. in Ceramics, having completed the course in the New York State School of Clay-Working and Ceramics. Aside from these, there is one candidate for the degree of M. S., and two candidates for the degree of B. D., who have completed the required course in the Theological Seminary. In the Academy there are 14 graduates, most of whom will enter next year's Freshman class.

THE STATE SCHOOL

The New York State School of Clay-Working and Ceramics has enjoyed its largest registration during the past year and continues to hold the esteem and approval of the people of the State and of the State Legislature. While its administration is an important responsibility which Alfred University must carry, it nevertheless furnishes an opportunity for a high order of technical and experimental work by which we are rendering most valuable service to the State. The annual report of the New York State School of Clay-Working and Ceramics to the Governor of the State of New York is appended as a part of this annual report.

LIBRARY

During the year, the fire proof vault mentioned a year ago, has been completed, and many rare and valuable books have been placed therein. It is a most commodious and valuable addition to our University equipment. Many other books and manuscripts are still to be transferred to it for safe-keeping.

A large number of books have been received during the year including two large boxes from London, England—the former library of the late Rey. Wm. M. Jones—contributed by his widow. These additions accentuate the importance of better accommodations for the books of the library. The congested condition of the library renders it less available than it should be, and also taxes the strength of the Kenyon Memorial Hall to such an extent as to raise apprehensions for the safety of the building. It is devoutly to be hoped that some friend of the University may contribute a library building large enough to contain the rapidly growing collection of books of the University. Last year's report called attention to the greatly increased work of the associate librarian within the past few years and to the urgent necessity of increasing her salary.

For a number of years, the salary paid to Mrs. Stanton has been but $300 per year. During that time, board in Ladies Hall has increased from $2.50 per week to $3 per week, and it is but just that this added cost of living be provided for by the trustees and that an increase of salary for the associate librarian in some measure proportionate with the increased work be allowed her hereafter. The President would recommend that the trustees pay Mrs. Stanton for the past year $25 as reimbursement for increased living expenses, and that for the future her salary be raised to $400 per year instead of $300 per year.

CLASS ROOMS

By instruction of the trustees at the last annual meeting, the executive committee authorized the equipment of two additional recitation rooms with forty chairs each, also repairs to chairs in the room of Philosophy and Education. The new rooms were provided—one in east basement of Ladies Hall—the other in the south wing of Babcock Hall of Physics. These rooms together with the added chairs in the room of philosophy and education have provided much more adequate class room facilities. It has been done at a cost of about $250.

CALENDAR

The faculty of Alfred University have given much attention during the past year to the matter of increasing the usefulness and attractiveness of Commencement week. Various methods for accomplishing these results have been considered and recommendations will be made to the Trustees.

The President, however, desires to call attention to certain embarrassing difficulties for which a remedy should be found. It has never been possible to secure anything like a good attendance of the students during Commencement week. Many of them are earning their way through college and desire to use this week in such a way as to be earning money for the next college year. Alfred University has continued in session later in June than the majority of colleges, rendering our students less vacation time for earning money than many other colleges give. Furthermore we have occupied the week previous to Commencement with final examinations and allowing students to be exempt from final examination who have gained a standing of 90 per cent or more. This has liberated our best students two weeks before Commencement. During the past few years a number of our faculty have travelled abroad, and since the Commencement comes so late in June, those who go abroad seem compelled to start earlier than Commencement. This and other causes have led to the absence of some of our faculty each year from Commencement, a condition which has not been without its influence upon the student body.

Other members of the college faculty desire to study in the summer schools and as some of these schools begin before our present Commencement, such members must either be absent from the Commencement or late to enroll in the summer school. The recommendations from the faculty to the Trustees will suggest the shortening of the Easter vacation and the using of the latter half only of the week preceeding Commencement for examinations together with Monday and Tuesday of Commencement week; and that the Commencement of the college be placed on Thursday of the first full week in June, which will throw it between the 5th and 12th of June. This will reduce the number of days of instruction but one, and will place the Commencement of the College before the time necessary for sailing for a summer abroad or of entering the summer schools. It will enable the members of the faculty to remain for Commencement, as the President believes they should be required to do except in rare emergency. It will also enable us to hold our students until Tuesday of Commencement week and with interesting sessions for Wednesday and Thursday following, it is believed they can be held with but few exceptions until Commencement is over.

This will give members of the college faculty an opportunity to attend high school commencements, and deliver addresses before high school graduates as they are not able to do now, the college commencement coming the same week as the high school commencements.

I have made an investigation of fifty colleges in reference to their date of Commencement. I find these fifty distributed as follows: ten coming June 2d or 3d (earlier than ours can possibly come with the present arrangement) viz, Baker University, Bryn Mawr College, Kansas Wesleyan University, Kansas College, St. Louis University, University of Missouri, University of California, University of Minnesota, Boston University, Dickinson College of Carlyle, Pennsylvania.

Fifteen occur from June 5-12th, viz:—Bellevue College, Columbia University, University of Colorado, University of Illinois, University of Kansas, University of Nebraska, University of Denver, University of Iowa, Teachers' College, Syracuse University, Vassar College, Wells College, Swarthmore College, and Union University.

Seventeen Commencements come between June 15-20th, viz, Albion College, Allegheny College, Brown University, Colgate University, Cornell University, Fisk University, Hobart College, Iowa State College, Lehigh University, Michigan University, North-Western University, Otterbein University, Ohio University, Pratt Institute, University of Rochester, University of Pennsylvania, Western Reserve University.

And nine occur between June 20th and 27th, viz, Amherst College, Dartmouth College, Hamilton College, Oberlin College, University of Wisconsin, Yale University, Howard University, Rutgers College, and Alfred University.

It seems therefore that the majority of colleges close one or two weeks earlier than we are closing. Furthermore, colleges for women and co-educational colleges, for the most part, close earlier than we are closing. The only disadvantage which I can see to the earlier closing of the University is that it will be impossible for the Academy to close until after the Regents examinations which come the week preceeding our present Commencement. This disadvantage however, I believe, is more than compensated for by the advantages of a full attendance on the part of the faculty and students which will certainly be most inspiring to the Alumni and former students whom we so much desire to have return and attend Commencement with us.

PROSPECTIVE REGISTRATION

A larger number of persons than ever before, have been in correspondence with the President with a view to entrance to college next autumn, and next year's Freshman class promises to be the largest in the history of the University.

FINANCE

This year, which is the twenty-fifth anniversary of Mr. Crandall's treasurership, and the tenth anniversary of my election to the presidency, we have striven to make a notable year in the increase of the endowments of the University. Our efforts have not been as fruitful as we had desired, but the Treasurer's report will show an increase in endowments, for the year, of $8,364.96. The bequest of Mrs. Ida F. Kenyon does not become available until after the first of July, otherwise the increase would have aggregated more than twice that sum.

FINANCIAL POLICY

During the past ten years or more the policy of the University has been to apply all contributions, no matter how small, unless otherwise designated, toward the increase of the endowments and equipments of the University; and the efforts of the President and Treasurer, with attendant expenses, have been mainly directed in this way. During the past year, out of a deficit of $4,200, $1000 is directly due to efforts to increase the number of endowed scholarships, the principal part of that sum having been paid, by vote of the executive committee, to Mrs. Harriett I. Macdonald for salary and expenses in Sunshine Scholarship work. Such efforts and expenditures have always brought additional endowments, but they have also increased the current expenses of the University and augmented our indebtedness. It is the firm belief of the President that the policy of the Trustees should be sufficiently altered to permit the raising of a sustaining fund which shall be expended annually in meeting the current expenses of the University until the endowments shall be sufficient to meet these expenses without such sustaining fund.

After much thought upon the matter and consultation with many of the Trustees, the President believes that there is no possible way to reduce maintenance expenses except by reducing the faculty. He also believes that with our three hundred students and enlarged prospects for the coming year, the reduction of our teaching force would be disastrous to our good name and growing popularity and usefulness.

Pending the addition of one hundred thousand dollars of endowment, or the increase of permanent maintenance funds from other sources, a temporary sustaining fund seems the wisest and only adequate solution of the problem. There are over 500 living alumni, and many more old students who did not remain to graduation. An average annual contribution of $10 each from five hundred such persons would create the necessary fund.

I most earnestly recommend that the Trustees adopt the policy of raising a sustaining fund by securing subscriptions from alumni and friends for that purpose, and thus enable the President to continue the educational policy which is giving such gratifying results, and also enable the Treasurer to meet all current expenses each year without a deficit.

It is believed that the refunding committee will be able to refund the debt during the coming year at a lower rate of interest and thus enable the Treasurer to make annual payments on the debt already incurred, without increasing the annual expenses of the University.

It is with profound gratitude for the Divine blessing which has attended and prospered our beloved University, and with sincere appreciation of the confidence and support which the Trustees have given to the administration, not only during the past year, but during the ten years of my presidency of the University, that this report is respectfully submitted.

BOOTHE COLWELL DAVIS, President.

REGISTRAR'S REPORT

TO THE PRESIDENT OF ALFRED UNIVERSITY:

As Registrar, permit me to submit the following brief report concerning the recorded work of the College department of the University for the school year beginning Sept. 20, 1904, and ending June 22, 1905:

REGISTRY OF STUDENTS

1st Semester:—(a) In residence.....	117
(b) Non-resident.....	1—	118
2d semester:—(a) In residence.....	120
(b) Non-resident.....	1—	121

Total different names registered during the year:

(a) In residence.....	130
(b) Non-resident	1—	131

These students are classified as follows:

Graduates	3
Seniors.....	12
Juniors.....	14
Sophomores.....	30
Freshmen.....	32
Specials	40—	131

HONORS

Honors have been awarded by the Faculty as follows:

SENIOR HONORS

(a) Valedictory Oration to Mabel E. Reed of Hornellsville for the highest average standing for the college course.

(b) Salutatory Oration to John E. Vincent, of Cape Vincent, who stood second in rank.

(c) Third Honor Oration to J. May Jones of Norway, who stood third in rank.

(d) Department Honors to Mabel E. Reed in Mathematics and in Science; to J. May Jones in Science, and in Philosophy and Education; to John E. Vincent in Mathematics, and in Science.

SOPHOMORE HONORS

The following Sophomores having no entrance conditions, and having an average standing of 90 per cent or more for the year's work, are entitled to the award of honors at this Commencement: Arthur E. Baggs, Emily Boothe, Clara E. Robinson, M. Llewellyn Bell, Ruth E. M. Graham, Mabel T. Rogers, M. Elizabeth Binns, Harry W. Langworthy, S. Ethel Stevens.

FRESHMAN HONORS

The Freshmen who have fulfilled the above conditions and are therefore entitled to honors, are: George L. Babcock, Myrtie A. Evans, Grace E. Burdick, Elmina G. Titsworth, Will T. Donaldson.

CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES IN COURSE

The following students have been recommended by the College Faculty for the degree earned by each as indicated in the list of 12 candidates for Bachelor's degrees and one candidate for a Master's degree:

Alonzo Neil Annas,	Bachelor of Science
Davis Lee Baker,	Bachelor of Philosophy
Ernest Ralph Brown,	Bachelor of Philosophy
Paul Ernest Cox,	Bachelor of Science in Ceramics
Ralph Ellison Horton,	Bachelor of Philosophy
Jennie May Jones,	Bachelor of Science
Shigeru Mohara,	Bachelor of Philosophy
Mabel Eliza Reed,	Bachelor of Science
Stephen Carl Rosebush,	Bachelor of Arts
John Estes Vincent,	Bachelor of Philosophy
Lloyd Raymond Watson,	Bachelor of Arts
Lela Wilson,	Bachelor of Philosophy
Caroline Bell,	Master of Science

COMPETITIVE SCHOLARSHIP EXAMINATION

Five candidates entered the competitive free scholarship examination held June 8th, two from Allegany county, two from Steuben county, and one from McKean county, Pa. Three were successful, two from Allegany county, and one from Steuben county, viz: Anna Lelia Burdick Nile; Inez L. McNett of Hornells-ville; George A. Place of Alfred.

Respectfully submitted,

A. B. KENYON, Registrar.

REPORT OF CURATOR OF ALLEN STEINHEIM MUSEUM

TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY:

I submit the following report:

During the past year the collection in Paleontology has been partly reclassified, relabeled, and recatalogued in a way to make it much more valuable for class and general use. The specimens have been so labeled that they can be easily located if misplaced.

COLLECTION IN MINERALOGY

A large share of our valuable minerals have been labeled heretofore with ink that has badly faded. This year we have relabeled nearly the entire collection with India ink. The collection has also been recatalogued. There is still a good deal of classifying to be done on this collection when the proper literature can be obtained.

ENTOMOLOGY

For some years a large collection of insects have been scattered here and there in the Steinheim, library, etc. Unfortunately many of them, because of poor care, have suffered seriously. These have been collected, the poor specimens discarded, and the remainder cleaned, and many of them reclassified, labeled and catalogued. The classes in Entomology and Zoology have added many valuable specimens. A new case is being built to contain this collection, which probably in time will become very valuable. We already have some valuable Mexican, Central American and European species, as well as insects from various parts of the United States and Canada.

THE COIN COLLECTION

For some time it has seemed desirable to have available more useful information in regard to our coin collection, as generally the label does not signify much. Accordingly the American coins have been studied and we now have a typewritten pamphlet giving the origin and history of the American coins, which is available for our students or the general public.

Thanks are due to Mr. Annas, Miss Bell, and Mrs. C. I. Lewis for assistance in the work of classifying, etc.

For some time it had seemed to the Curator that our system of allowing visitors to enter the building at all hours was poor in many ways. Sometimes visitors are not trustworthy. Often their presence disturbs the general work of the classes. It was thought that if an attendant were present more interest would be taken in the collections. Accordingly certain hours were set apart and published in our paper and a list of the same posted on the door. Miss Caroline Bell was appointed assistant. The system has worked very well. We have endeavored to get our collections in such form as to be available to students for study and reference. Heretofore students have not used the museum to the best advantage and we hope that in the near future the museum will come more and more to supplement our library study.

We note with much pleasure that the Steinheim has been generously remembered during the year with gifts. The following is a list of these gifts:

Collection of silk worms, moths, etc., showing life History, by Mr. Frank Ostrander, '04.

A piece of wood containing a bullet shot May 12, 1864, at Spotsylvania Court House battlefield. William Middaugh, a student of Alfred, was killed in this battle. Presented by Captain John Emery Middaugh, Belmont, New York.

Live rattlesnake, Presented by Messrs. Roy and Otis Brainard, '04.

Paper fibre, Presented by Mr. Reuben Armstrong, '92, Alfred, New York.

Petrified wood, Presented by Prof. Stephen Babcock, New York City.

Japanese silver coin, Japanese collar button, picture found on battlefield of Bull Run, Presented by Mrs. Hamilton Ward.

Japanese document, presented Judge Hamilton Ward by General William Calkenberg, United States minister to Japan under General Grant, Presented by Mrs. Hamilton Ward.

Watch owned by President Kenyon, first president of Alfred University, Presented by Mrs. Emily Brown, Alfred, New York.

Bear trap, formerly owned by Elisha English of Potter County, Pa., presented to Alfred University by Mrs. Wm. E. Callen, Alfred, New York.

Foot stove used by Dr. Ella F. Swinney while in China, purchased and presented to Alfred University by J. A. Hubbard, Plainfield, New Jersey.

Life History of Amblystoma punctatum, Presented by Miss May Reed, '05

Thibetan prayer flag, presented by Miss Susie Burdick.

Cane, Presented by Rev. A. W. Coon, who circulated one of the first subscription papers for founding Alfred University.

A large and valuable collection of minerals and fossils presented by C. E. and A. H. Utter, Friendship, New York.

Collection of Jerusalem, Roman tessalates, presented by M. S. Warden, M. D., Fouke, Ark., for Rev. Wm. M. Jones of Mill Yard, London, England.

Loaned to the University a large mastodon's cervical vertebra, by William Stanton Sawyer, Friendship, New York.

Respectfully submitted,

CLAUDE I. LEWIS, Curator of Museum.

ACADEMY REPORT

TO THE PRESIDENT OF ALFRED UNIVERSITY:

The Academy has enjoyed a prosperous year. One hundred fifty-eight students have been enrolled and done class work. This includes twelve music students, so that there have been one hundred forty-six literary students enrolled in the Academy, eight more than in 1903-1904. The average daily attendance has been one hundred eleven. During the year twenty-one students have completed all the preliminaries and are entitled to preliminary Academic certificates and are now entitled to be designated as full Academic students. There have been eighty-eight residents receiving the benefits of free Academic tuition. There are twenty-three non-resident students who have regent's certificates for whom tuition will be paid, for their attendance, by the state.

The loyalty of a great majority of the students has been praiseworthy. I believe the efforts of our year's work will result advantageously to the school. I wish to thank my assistants for their zeal and loyalty.

S. G. BURDICK, Principal.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY REPORT

TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY:

The prosperity of previous years has been continued and there has been slight increase in some directions. There have been six students taking the full course, and four students in special courses. Twenty-five college students have taken special courses in theology, the history of missions, or in the English Bible. The nine taking the courses in the English Bible are not included in the general summary given below as this work under Prof. Whitford is classed as strictly college work. We believe that the work of the Theological Seminary is growing in popularity with college students, and that it deserves even greater attention on the part of those who are seeking a liberal culture.

The following is a summary of the year's work:

Introduction to Theology		Old Testament Exegesis
2 students	2 hours	3 students	4 hours
New Testament Theology		New Testament Exegesis
4 students	1½ hours	2 students	1 hour
History of Religion		5 students	2 hours

There have been also two visitors not registered, and very creditable work has been done.

The Theological Seminary has had under its charge this year a circulating library for the use of clergymen and Sabbath School workers. This library has been well patronized.

The work of the regular teaching force has been supplemented this year as in the past by numerous addresses from clergymen of experience. A course of lectures on the History of Missions by the Seventh-day Baptists was given by Rev. O. U. Whitford, D. D., of Westerly, R. I.

Three students are graduated this year. There are good prospects for increased attendance next year.

Respectfully submitted,

A. E. MAIN, Dean.

TREASURER'S REPORT

TO THE TRUSTEES OF ALFRED UNIVERSITY:

GENTLEMEN:—The annual report of the Treasurer for the fiscal year ending May 31st, 1905, is herewith transmitted to you.

Schedule 1 is a summary of the Income Report. Schedules 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 12 furnish the details. Schedule 12 furnishes a statement in detail of the receipts and disbursements for account of the Theological Seminary. Schedule 10 is a statement of the debt. Schedule 11 shows the amounts standing to the credit of the several funds.

Schedule 13 is a summary of the Endowment held by the Treasurer. The schedules following give details relating to this endowment. Additions made to the endowment during the year just closed are set forth in detail in Schedule 18.

Those not familiar with the numerous funds held by the Treasurer will find explanations in Schedules 14, 15, and 16, which, if read before the Income Report is studied, will facilitate the study of the latter.

Very Respectfully,

WILLIAM H. CRANDALL, Treasurer

Gifts to the Library

Generous gifts have been made to the Library by many friends, as indicated by the list of contributors named in the report of the Librarian. A few of these gifts are here mentioned:

HON. JOHN N. DAVIDSON, Wiscoy, N. Y.: Ten dollars in money and a set of the Hon. Andrew D. White's Autobiography.

MRS. THEODORA W. JONES of London, England, has donated a large number of books and pamphlets from the library of her husband, the late Rev. William Mead Jones, D. D.

There have been contributed 200 volumes from the estate of MRS. IDA F. KENYON, and about 250 volumes from the estate of MRS. DARWIN E. MAXSON.

DR. DANIEL LEWIS of New York City has presented twenty-five volumes, viz:

Text book of Pharmacology and Therapeutics, Cushny, 1899. Medical Diseases of Childhood, Oppenheim, 1900. About Children, six lectures, Kelley, 1897. Pathological Technique, Mallory & Wright, 1897. Practical First Principles, Leuf, 1901. Pulmonary Tuberculosis, Knoff, 1899. Consumption and Chronic Diseases, Denismore, 1899. Essentials of Histology, Leroy, 1902. One Thousand Prescriptions, Leonard, 1899. American Year-Book of Medicine and Surgery, Gould, 1898, '99, 1900, '01, '02, '03, (ten volumes.) International Clinics, 5th Series, Vol. 1, 2, 3, 4, Daland, Bruce & Finlay, April, July, and October, 1895, January, 1896. Veterinary Studies for Agricultural Students, Reynolds, 1903. Public Papers of Daniel D. Tompkins, Governor of New York, 1807-17, Hastings, 1898.

GOVERNOR GEORGE H. UTTER of Westerly, R. I., include thirty-six bound volumes of the Century Magazine, and sixty-nine bound volumes of Harper's Magazine.

C. C. CHIPMAN, '86, New York City: About 900 architectural photographs of exteriors, interiors and details, selected with great care from a large collection. The collection comprises examples from the different periods of architecture in Egypt, Greece, Rome, Italy, Germany, France, England and America. Many of these photographs are copies taken from valuable and rare books, thus adding interest to the collection as well as value.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF GIFTS

The Centennial Fund

This fund, the plan for which was first presented to the attention of the friends of the University six years ago, reached the sum of $4,315 on June 1, 1905. This amount has been contributed in 1621 separate contributions, thus showing the popularity of the plan. It is hoped every friend of higher education and of Alfred University will make a contribution to this fund.

Whenever one thousand dollars are subscribed and paid into the Centennial Fund from any town in the counties of Allegany and Steuben, or from any county in any state or territory, free tuition will be given to one student for the Freshman year of the College; the student to be a resident of the town or county contributing the money, and to be selected by competitive examination.

One Thousand Dollar Scholarships

[Act of 1894]

During the year thirteen scholarships have been established conditionally, four of the number were named during the preceding year and a nominal amount paid toward the $100 required to establish a scholarship conditionally. Fifteen more scholarships have been named and something paid on account of the first one hundred dollars. $6,582.81 have been received on principal account, of which $4,928.76 were paid on account of Scholarships previously founded, and $1,654.05 on account of new Scholarships. See Treasurer's Report for details, schedule 15, page 28, and schedule 18, page 33.

Group 7

June, 1904. THE CLASS OF 1904 SCHOLARSHIP was established conditionally by the class whose name it bears.

June, 1904. THE GEORGE WESLEY ROSEBUSH SCHOLARSHIP was established conditionally by Judson George Rosebush, A. M., '00, Professor of Economics in Lawrence University, Appleton, Wis., and named after his father, without whose aid and encouragement his "college course would have been longer delayed, if not left incomplete."

October, 1904. THE TRUMAN WILCOX SAUNDERS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP was established conditionally by Mrs. Lucy Titsworth Saunders, as a memorial to her husband. Both Mr. and Mrs. Saunders were students in Alfred in the '60's.

November, 1904. THE MADEIRA ADELADE STILLMAN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP was established conditionally by her brother, Alonzo Stillman of Alfred. $800 has been paid upon the same, upon the "Income Gift Agreement" plan. Mr. Stillman has always shown a great interest in the University and has ever been ready to assist it, in a substantial way.

January, 1905. THE CAPTAIN JOHN CASEY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP has been established conditionally by Mrs. Edith A. M. Casey of Brooklyn, N. Y., as a memorial to her husband. $151.50 have been paid toward its endowment.

Captain Casey was born in Chester, England, in 1842. He was largely identified with the India and China trade. For a long time, he was commander of the S. S. Weehawken of the Anglo-American Oil Company of London. His death was caused by exposure while engaged in saving the lives of passengers on the Hamburg-American S. S. Bulgaria, during a storm February 5th, 1899; his bravery was rewarded by the German Emperor. Just before his death, a Christian Endeavor friend was reading to him, and the lines, "So shall he bring them to their desired haven," impressed him very much, and they were placed upon his tomb in Hull, Yorkshire.

Mrs. Casey is the assistant secretary of the International Sunshine Society; she has taken a deep interest in Alfred University and the plan of the Sunshine Society to establish one hundred scholarships through sunshine.

January, 1905. THE SIMEON MONTGOMERY THORP AND HELEN FASSETT HATCH MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP was founded by Mrs. Gertrude Fassett Jones, Wellsville, N. Y. $500 have been paid toward its endowment. Mrs. Jones said in founding the scholarship, "I wish to found another scholarship at Alfred and enclose the first installment for this purpose. This is to be in memory of Simeon Montgomery Thorp and Helen Fassett Hatch, his wife and my sister. Mr. Thorp was a graduate of Alfred in the class of 1856 and later a State Superintendent of Public Schools in Kansas and a State Senator. He was killed in Lawrence, Kansas, at the Quantrell Raid, and his wife returned to her and my father's house, was a great sufferer in consequence of this great trouble. Mr. Thorp demonstrated in his career the glory of God in helping poor young men to get an education, which fact induces me to help it." Alfred University deeply appreciates the generosity of Mrs. Jones in founding a second scholarship in the University.

February, 1905. THE GEORGE W. TUTTLE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP was founded conditionally by his mother, Mrs. Dora C. Tuttle of New York City. $102.50 have been paid on account of the endowment. Mrs. Tuttle is a prominent member of the International Sunshine Society and has chosen this way to aid humanity, and to build a memorial to her son.

February, 1905. THE REV. SENECA HOWLAND SCHOLARSHIP was founded conditionally by Rev. Seneca Howland and Sunshine friends. Mr. Howland has been chaplain of the International Sunshine Society for many years. He is devoting much time to missionary work in New York City.

February, 1905. THE THEODORE F. SEWARD MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP was founded by Mrs. Seward and friends of herself and her deceased husband. $253 have been paid upon the endowment. Mr. Seward was an earnest church man and especially active in Sunday School work. It has been a pleasure for his friends to show their appreciation of his life work in establishing this memorial. Bishop Potter, Bishop Vincent, The Rev. Dr. Huntington of Grace Church, New York City, and many other prominent church men are contributors. Mrs. Seward is first vice-president of the International Sunshine Society.

March, 1905. THE SARAH SMITH EVANS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP was founded by her daughter, Miss Roselle Evans of New York City. Miss Evans is a prominent member of the International Sunshine Society, and recently has been selected as president of the Students' Sustaining Club, and has entered heartily into the duties of this department of the "Sunshine" work in connection with the Scholarship branch.

Group 8

March, 1905. THE ANDREW JACKSON RUGG MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP was established conditionally through the efforts of Mrs. Rugg and her daughter, Mrs. Harriett I. Macdonald of New York City. Mrs. Rugg is honorary president of the International Sunshine Society for the State of Tennessee. Mrs. Macdonald is the president of the Scholarship branch of the International Sunshine Society, and Mrs. Rugg is its Secretary, and both have worked zealously and persistently to realize the plan of founding one hundred "Sunshine Scholarships" at Alfred.

March, 1905. THE MARGARET MACDONALD SCHOLARSHIP was founded by little Margaret and her Sunshine friends. Many of the Junlor branches of the International Sunshine Society are contributing, and have pledged to assist in the annual amount needed to continue it. Margaret is the daughter of Mrs. Harriet I. Macdonald, president of the Scholarship branch of the International Sunshine Society.

March, 1905. THE FRANK R. GREEN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP was founded by his mother, Mrs. Lydia R. Green of New York City. Mrs. Green is active in all good work and has been identified with "Sunshine" for a long time. She feels that there can be no better memorial to her son than a scholarship which will be of benefit to some one for all time.

March, 1905. THE RIVERSIDE BRANCH, NO. 1, SCHOLARSHIP has been established conditionally by the Sunshine Branch whose name it bears.

March, 1905. THE SHREDDED WHEAT SCHOLARSHIP was established conditionally by the Natural Food Company of Niagara Falls, New York, as a "Sunshine" service. This firm is generously contributing in educational and Sunshine movements. $100 have been paid on account.

April, 1905. THE CHARLES DARIUS LARKINS SCHOLARSHIP has been established conditionally by Charles D. Larkins, Ph. B., Ped. D., Principal of the Manual Training High School of the city of Brooklyn—a distinguished alumnus of Alfred. Principal Larkins stands at the head of Manual Training in this country, and no man has worked more bravely to gain this unique achievement.

April, 1905. THE PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, SCHOLARSHIP has been established conditionally by friends of "Sunshine," who gave an entertainment at Plainfield, N. J., for this purpose. A local board has been formed who hope to complete the payment by giving a series of entertainments.

May, 1905. THE WILLIAM COLEGROVE KENYON SCHOLARSHIP has been established conditionally by friends through the First Seventh-day Baptist Church of Alfred, N. Y.

William C. Kenyon was a student in Union College at the time James R. Irish resigned the principalship of the select school which opened Dec. 5, 1836, at Alfred, and took charge of the school in the spring of 1839. When the school was incorporated as an academy in 1843 he was its principal, and when Alfred University was chartered by special act of the Legislature of the State of New York in March, 1857, he was unanimously chosen its first president. It is difficult to estimate President Kenyon's life and character, even to this day; and no more fitting memorial could be established than a scholarship which will, for all time, give to the deserving an education.

May, 1905. THE JAPANESE SCHOLARSHIP has been established conditionally by Japanese friends of Sunshine through entertainments. Mr. Hoshi, editor of the Japanese-American Commercial Weekly, has been influential with his countrymen in enlarging the subscription list to this scholarship.

May, 1905. THE STATE OF MINNESOTA SCHOLARSHIP has been established conditionally by the Minnesota Branch of the International Sunshine Society. The credit for this scholarship should be given to Mrs. Theodore Haynes, the honorary president for the State of Minnesota of the International Sunshine Society, who has become very much interested in the scholarship plan.

Group 9

May, 1905. THE WILLIAM HENRY CRANDALL SCHOLARSHIP was established conditionally by William H. Crandall of Alfred. It is subject to an "Income Gift Agreement."

May, 1905. THE HELEN MAR CRANDALL SCHOLARSHIP was established conditionally by Helen Mar Crandall of Alfred. It is subject to an "Income Gift Agreement."

May, 1905. THE SECOND BROOKFIELD SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST CHURCH SCHOLARSHIP was established conditionally by the Church whose name it bears. $105 have been paid on account.

May, 1905. THE CYNTHIA WESTOVER ALDEN SCHOLARSHIP has been established conditionally by her Sunshine friends.

Mrs. Alden was the originator of the Sunshine plan, and is President-General of the International Sunshine Society, with headquarters at 96 Fifth Avenue, New York City. She is author of several books, as well as a contributor to many prominent magazines. Mrs. Alden is an honorary alumnus of Alfred, and is enthusiastic over the plan to establish one hundred Sunshine scholarships in Alfred.

Mr. Frederick A. Owen of the F. A. Owen Publishing Company of Dansville, N. Y., has donated $300 in advertising in one of the publications of the Company, "The Normal Instructor," which reaches 125,000 teachers throughout the United States.

Bequests

REV. DARIUS R. FORD, D. D., '48, died at Belfast, November 25, 1904. His will was probated in Allegany County, New York, July 28, 1905. The eighth paragraph of the will reads as follows:

I give and bequeath all my bound books in my library to Alfred University, N. Y.; part of my said library of bound books is at my residence in Belfast, N. Y., and part is at my house, No. 903 North Main Street, Elmira, N. Y.

MARIA A. KING BEQUEST. $95 have been received in full of this bequest. See Year-Book, 1903-04, page 50.

REV. NATHAN WARDNER, D. D., '45, died at Milton Junction, Wis., April 6, 1894. His will was duly probated in Rock County, Wisconsin, April 17, 1894. It contained the following clauses, viz:

Will, dated April 20, 1885: All the rest and residue of my estate, real, personal or mixed, of which I shall die seized and possessed, or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease, meaning the proceeds thereof, I give and bequeath to the Seventh-day Baptist Memorial Board upon the following trust and conditions, to-wit: that said Board shall divide and pay the same as follows: one-third thereof to be paid to the American Tract Society, known as the American Sabbath Tract Society, for publishing Sabbath literature; one-third thereof to be paid to Alfred University in the state of New York, to be used for its benefit and support in such manner as the Board of Trustees of said University shall deem fit and proper; and one-third thereof to be paid to the Seventh-day Baptist Missionary Society; and upon this further trust and express condition, that the said Seventh-day Baptist Memorial Board shall pay, or cause to be paid, out of said legacy divided as aforesaid, an annuity of five hundred dollars per annum to my wife, Olive Brown Wardner, payable semi-annually during her natural life, the first payment to be made six months after my executor hereinafter named shall have paid said legacy to said Seventh-day Baptist Memorial Board. Default in the payment of said annuity at the time such payment becomes due, or within twenty days thereafter, shall work a forfeiture of said legacy to said Memorial Board.

Codicil, dated January 3, 1888. I give and bequeath unto my son, Morton S. Wardner, all rents, issues and profits of premises in the city of Chicago, known as 1260 and 1262 West Harrison street, being two brick tenements, taxes and insurance thereon deducted, the same to be given him after my decease to have, use, and enjoy the same during his natural life, repairs thereon to be made at the expense of the said Morton.

Codicil, dated July 29, 1890. My former wife, Olive Brown Wardner, having died since the date of my said will, and I, having taken another wife, am impressed with the importance of changing my will by adding to said will another codicil.

That all reference made in said will to the said Olive Brown Wardner I hereby withdraw. And the name of my present wife is Martha Harvey Wardner, and she shall have all that remain of the property which I shall die seized, and, after paying my son, Morton S. Wardner, and the grandchildren as specified in said will, is to use, dispose of, and control according to her own judgment during her natural life; and if she shall have children by me, they shall have at their majority, or their survivors of them, the same amount each as is bequeathed to my son, Morton S. Wardner, as estimated by three competent, disinterested judges, to be appointed by the Judge of Probate before whose court my will shall be proven.

At the decease of my said wife, Martha Harvey Wardner, all that remains after paying the legacies made to my children and grandchildren shall be divided among the three societies as named in my will.

NOTE.—After paying the bequests to his son and his grandchildren there remains the residence of Dr. Wardner at Milton Junction and several parcels of real estate in the city of Chicago, Ill. The widow has recently begun suit in the Circuit Court, Cook County, Ill., for a construction of the will, claiming that the residue of the property belongs absolutely to her, and that the three societies (including Alfred University) have no interest in the residue.

PETER WOODEN BEQUEST. See page 57.

The Following Forms of Bequests are Recommended

1 I give, devise, and bequeath to ALFRED UNIVERSITY, located at Alfred, New York, the sum of _____ dollars, to be safely invested, and called "The _____ General Endowment Fund;" the net income only to be used for the general expenses of the University.

Boothe Colwell Davis Fund

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of Alfred University, it was voted to establish a permanent fund to be known as the BOOTHE COLWELL DAVIS FUND, the net income only to be used at the discretion of the trustees.

This fund was started, believing that no more fitting recognition could be made by the Trustees for the untiring zeal of Dr. Dayis as President of the University. The following subscriptions have been made toward the endowment of this fund :

Income Gifts

These gifts are absolute; but the giver, or a person named by him, receives from the University, each half year for life, an income at a rate per cent. of the gift, agreed upon in advance, in place of the interest which the money would have earned if the donor had invested it.

A form of agreement has been prepared, adapted from a form which has been used for many years by one of the largest missionary societies in this country. That society has received hundreds of thousands of dollars in this way, and the plan has worked to the mutual satisfaction of the donors and the society.

Gifts made in this way are not subject to Inheritance Taxes, which, in many states, materially diminish gifts made by will.

Income Gift Agreement

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT made and entered into BETWEEN (John Doe) of (Ashaway) in the County of (Washington) and State of (Rhode Island) of the first part, and ALFRED UNIVERSITY, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York, of the second part.

WITNESSETH; The said (John Doe) desiring to make a donation of (Five Hundred) dollars to said ALFRED UNIVERSITY, hereby pays to it, and ALFRED UNIVERSITY receives that sum as an absolute gift (subject only to the agreement of ALFRED UNIVERSITY hereinafter expressed), to be devoted to the corporate purposes of said ALFRED UNIVERSITY.

AND, in consideration thereof, ALFRED UNIVERSITY hereby agrees that so long as said John Doe* shall live, but no longer, it will pay to him the annual sum of (Twenty-five) dollars in semi-annual payments as follows: ($12.50) on the first day of (January) next, and ($12.50) at the expiration of each six months thereafter.

Such payments shall be made at the office of the Treasurer of ALFRED UNIVERSITY, at Alfred, N. Y., upon reasonable demand, or, at the option of the party entitled thereto, they shall be remitted to him by ALFRED UNIVERSITY in any ordinary or usual way, as instructed, and within ten days after instructions received from him.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said (John Doe) has set his hand and seal, and ALFRED UNIVERSITY has caused this agreement to be executed in its corporate name by the President of its Board of Trustees, and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed and attested by its Secretary, this first day of July in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and two.

In presence of

(John Doe) [L. S.]

ALFRED UNIVERSITY,

(Thomas Brown) as

by (Albert B. Cottrell)

to (John Doe)

President of its Board of Trustees.

(Seal)

Attest (Charles Stillman)

Secretary.

*Or Martha Doe, his mother.

NOTE.—The above is the form of agreement which has been adopted. For illustration, the form has been filled in, in parenthesis, as an agreement with respect to a gift from "John Doe."

The registration of students at the two dormitories has been practically the same as last year. During the first semester 18 students and teachers were domiciled in furnished rooms at Burdick Hall, and 20 at Ladies Hall. In the second semester there were 15 at Burdick Hall and 17 at Ladies Hall. In addition nine unfurnished rooms have been under lease at Ladies Hall.

It will be noticed that there is a decided falling off in receipts from summer boarders as compared with the preceding year.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The fees that students in Alfred University are required to pay are known as tuition fees, incidentals, and extra fees. The following statement shows the total tuition and incidental fees charged, the allowances on account of scholarships, and the cash income from such fees, in each of the last five years (excluding income from the Training Class) viz.

Three systems of scholarships are in force in the University, as follows:

TEN PER CENT SCHOLARSHIPS. These were established many years ago on the following terms: The University agreed to pay, by allowance upon tuition fees, ten per cent, per annum on moneys donated to its funds; but the founders of the scholarships were not to use them to the detriment of the University by selling, renting or leasing them, although they might donate the use of them to any person or persons who depended entirely upon their own exertions to defray their educational expenses. Incidental and extra fees, however, must be paid in cash by the beneficiaries of the scholarships.

ONE THOUSAND DOLLAR SCHOLARSHIPS. ACT OF 1894. These may be established conditionally on the payment of $100, and they will continue in force so long as payments are made amounting to at least $25 in two years, but they become permanent when the sum of $1,000 is fully paid. The owner of a scholarship is entitled to keep one student in attendance at the University whose tuition fees, incidental fees, and extra fees, will be paid out of the income of the principal fund, if the income is sufficient to pay the same; but if not, the remainder of such fees must be paid in cash by the student. Societies endowing scholarships conditionally, and paying at least $25 a year toward the principal, will be allowed free tuition fees for one student every year; but the student must pay incidental and extra fees in cash.

COMPETITIVE FREE SCHOLARSHIPS. These are granted, under certain conditions, to pupils in the High Schools in the counties of Allegany, Steuben, Cattaraugus, Livingston, and Wyoming, New York; and the counties of McKean, Potter, and Tioga, Pennsylvania. They are limited to students fully prepared for college, and exempt the holders from payment of tuition and incidental fees, but require the payment in cash of the nominal sum of $2 a year.

*Including $1,000 paid by Union Free School District No. 3.

†Including $1,100 paid by Union Free School District No. 3.

‡Including $1,100 paid by Union Free School District No. 3, and $422 paid by state under High School Law.

HONORARY DEGREES

Master of Science

CHAUNCEY LOOMIS ALLEN, S. M.

The name of Mr. Allen was presented for the honorary degree of Master of Science by Professor Bates, who said :

Our century is one of great things accomplished. In no line has there been more done than in the field of science. The sons of Alfred have distinguished themselves in this work. I have the honor to present for the degree of Master of Science one who has achieved distinction in his chosen profession, Mr. Chauncey Loomis Allen of Utica.

President Davis, in conferring the degree, said:

Mr. Allen, son of Alfred and of Syracuse; distinguished head of a great electric railway corporation, you are welcomed back to-day to your Alma Mater with supreme pleasure. Since you went out from these halls you have won, by strenuous endeavor, sterling integrity, and unusual scientific and executive ability, the highest recognition given in this State to any member of your profession, viz.: the Presidency of the Street Railway Association of the State of New York. You have made yourself the highest authority and a most successful executive of this modern method of transportation and public service. In recognition of this distinction, and of the personal qualities of mind and character by which you have attained it, Alfred University desires to indicate her pride and pleasure in your attainments by conferring upon you this honorary degree. The personal pleasure which this occasion gives me touches me deeply. It recalls the happy years of comradeship in our college life together; memories of many delightful experiences as colleagues in the Orophilian Lyceum; and cements in still stronger bonds the love enkindled in those distant college days. It is therefore the greatest pleasure, in obedience to the command of the Trustees, to admit you, my dear friend, Chauncey Loomis Allen, to the degree of Master of Science in Alfred University, and I confer upon you all the rights and privileges that belong thereto.

Chauncey Loomis Allen was born at Syracuse, N. Y., January 16th, 1870. He was a pupil in the public schools of Syracuse and Cicero, N. Y. He entered Alfred University in the year 1885-86, and remained through the year 1888-89. He then pursued a course in engineering in Syracuse University, and in 1890 entered the employ of the Norfolk and Western Railway with the engineering corps. He remained in the employ of this Company for two years, being promoted from axman to chainman, rodman, instrument man, and inspector of masonry. From 1892 to 1895 he was a member of the firm of Mather & Allen, Engineers, Syracuse, N. Y. Since 1895 he has been engaged in electric railway work. As chief engineer of the Syracuse Electric Railway properties until March 1, 1898; then as assistant general manager; and later as general manager up to January 1, 1900, when he went to Lorain, O., as general manager of the Lorain Street Railway, which position he held until August 1, 1900, when he went to Utica as engineer and assistant to the general manager of the Utica and Mohawk Valley Railway. In 1902 he was made general manager of the Utica and Mohawk Valley Railway Company, which position he still holds. He was a member of the Orophilian Lyceum at Alfred University and of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity at Syracuse. He was chairman of the Executive Committee of the Street Railway Association of the State of New York during 1903-1904 and was president of the Street Railway Association of the State of New York during 1904-1905. He is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers. On the day previous to the conferring of the honorary degree of Master of Science, he was unanimously elected president of the Alumni Association of Alfred University.

RODERICK COLIN McLENNAN, M. D., S. M.

The name of Dr. Roderick C. McLennan was presented by Professor Bates who said :

Another of Alfred's sons has won a place at the head of his profession in the city of his adoption. It is my privilege to present Dr. Roderick Colin McLennan for the degree of Master of Science.

President Davis said :

Dr. McLennan, distinguished physician and surgeon of Syracuse, son of Alfred, Cornell and Columbia, Alfred University delights to show just recognition of the achievements in medical science by which your enviable reputation has been gained. I therefore gladly admit you to the degree of Master of Science in this University, and confer upon you all the rights and privileges belonging thereto.

Roderick Colin McLennan was born in Lyndon, Cattaraugus Co., N. Y., March 19, 1858, the son of Colin and Ann (Fraser) McLennan. He began his education in the district school of his native town, continuing his studies in the preparatory department of Alfred University and Oberlin College. He entered Cornell University in the course of philosophy with the class of '84. During his Junior year, however, he left Cornell to take charge of the graded school at Portville, N. Y., where he remained two years. The following year, he began the study of medicine under the guidance of Dr. Daniel Lewis of New York City. He matriculated in the College of Physicians and Surgeons of New York, securing the degree of Doctor of Medicine in the class of 1886. After some time spent as interne in Roosevelt Hospital, he opened an office in Syracuse, N. Y. He has continued to practice in that city to the present time. He is attending surgeon to the Syracuse Hospital for Women and Children, of whose staff he was for many years the president. Dr. McLennan is the author of a number of valuable scientific papers, among them being "Surgical Treatment of Cholelithiasis," "Report of Two Cases of Abdominal Fibroids," "Cause and Symptoms of Epidemic Influenza," and also numerous articles on dietetics and personal hygiene, in which subjects he takes special interest. He is a member of the American Medical Association, New York State Medical Society, The Central New York Medical Association, Onondaga County Medical Society, and the Syracuse Academy of Medicine, of which he is a trustee and an ex-president. He is also trustee of the Carnegie Public Library of Syracuse.

Master of Literature

CYNTHIA WESTOVER ALDEN, A. B., LITT. M.

The name of Mrs. Alden was presented by Miss Putnam, who said:

Mr. President, I bring to you the name of one who has been for the past twenty years in literary work. One who has for several years done reportorial work; occupied important editorial positions on prominent New York papers; wrote the first history of greater New York, known as Manhattan Historic and Artistic. She is a writer of books and perhaps reaches more hearts and interests, more people in philanthropic and educational work by her sunshine articles in several hundred papers, than any other woman in the world. I therefore recommend for the degree of Master of Literature the name of Mrs. Cynthia Westover Alden, President-General of the International Sunshine Society, Editor of the Sunshine Bulletin and member of the editorial staff of the Ladies Home Journal.

President Davis said:

Mrs. Alden, scholar, author and world renowned philanthropist, Alfred stands next to Oberlin in the work of co-education, giving to women equal opportunity and equal honor with men. Your unique career in western pioneer life, your graduation from the University of Colorado with her first class, your literary achievements in the metropolis, and above all the universal love and esteem in which you are held, as the originator and President-General of the International Sunshine Society, make your adoption as an honorary alumnus of Alfred University a matter of pride and pleasure. I therefore gladly admit you to the degree of Master of Literature in this University and confer upon you all the rights and privileges belonging thereto.

Cynthia Westover Alden was born at Afton Iowa, May 31, 1862. At the time of her birth, her father, Oliver S. Westover, was editor of an Afton paper; and the little girl inherited a love for writing. At the age of three years, she accompanied her father to the mining fields in the Rocky Mountains, and for nine years was with him in all his camps, often being his companion on perilous journeyings. Living the life of a miner's child, away from the world and without the influence of any woman, her mother having died when she was a baby, she grew up a veritable child of nature, finding her playmates among her four-footed friends. While at Central City an acquaintance was formed with Henry M. Teller, now U. S. Senator Teller, an alumnus of Alfred University, then a miner, and he and Mr. Westover, finding many things in common, became close friends, and the little girl, familiarly known as "Bushy" held no small share in this friendship. One year at Christmas time, the school entertainment was held in Mr. Teller's cabin because it was the largest; and it was on this occasion that "Bushy" was instructed by her teacher to faithfully fill her part on the program or she would get a bad mark. "Bushy" made up her lines from her own imagination when she forgot the words she had been taught. Mr. Teller, convinced that she was the brightest scholar in the class, arose and pinned the blue ribbon on her dress. At the age of twelve, "Bushy" was sent to Denver to school and was one of the first graduates of the Colorado State University. Mrs. Alden is perhaps the best drilled newspaper woman of the day; having begun at the bottom of the ladder and worked her way up to the editorial chair. She married into a literary family, her husband, John Alden, now an editor of the Brooklyn Eagle, is a nephew of Henry Mills Alden, editor for the past thirty-four years of the Harper's Magazine. Mrs. Alden is author of several books, among them "Manhattan Historic and Artistic," "Bushy," "Child Life in the Far West," and "Women's Ways of Earning Money" which are popular books. But Mrs. Alden's greatest distinction and her greatest service to humanity lie in her organization and presidency of the International Sunshine Society. In this work she has reached a wider sphere of influence than any other American woman. She has actively promoted the establishment of Sunshine Scholarships in Alfred University.

Doctor of Science

ALPHEUS BURDICK KENYON, S. M., Sc. D.

The name of Professor Kenyon was presented by Judge Peter B. McMennan, who said:

Mr. President: I very greatly appreciate the honor of having been authorized to propose the name of a gentleman upon whom the Board of Trustees have authorized the conferring of the degree of Doctor of Science. He is a gentleman who laid the foundation of his distinguished career in our midst as a student of Alfred University. As a student he was faithful. He worked indefatigably, was always highminded, and a gentleman. He graduated with honor and distinction. He was well equipped to enter upon his life's work, principally because he had learned how to study, how to work successfully and progressively. For thirty-one years he has served his Alma Mater with fidelity and distinction as Professor of Mathematics. Not only in thorough and accurate scholarship is he distinguished, but in manly character and disinterested service to this University. He is known and loved by all who know and love Alfred. It must be evident to all to whom I refer. I present the name of Professor Alpheus Burdick Kenyon.

President Davis said:

My dear Professor Kenyon: This tumultuous burst of applause from the alumni and students of this University speaks louder than words of mine can speak, of the love and esteem in which you are held by those with whom, and for whom, you have labored for more than thirty years. Your faithfulness to the interests of Alfred and your interest in the welfare of your students have won for you this love. The Trustees are not unappreciative of these qualities which have distinguished you as a professor, but this honor today has an added reason. It is in recognition as well of the high qualities of scholarship in pure and applied science that this unsought honor is gratefully thrust upon you. I am overwhelmed by the personal pleasure which this occasion gives me. You, who was first my college professor, and who have now been for ten years my colleague in this faculty, and who have so unsparingly labored to make my administration successful, and to whom I gladly acknowledge so great an indebtedness for the marvelous achievements of this University for the past ten years; you, sir, I proudly admit to the honorary degree of Doctor of Science in this University, and confer upon you all the rights and privileges belonging thereto.

Alpheus Burdick Kenyon, M. S., was born at Potter Hill, R. I., and was prepared for college in the Academic Department of Alfred University. For three years he was a teacher in the public schools of Smethport, Pa., and Little Genessee, N. Y. He graduated from the Collegiate Department of Alfred University in 1874, with the degree of S. B. He was elected Professor of Mathematics at Alfred and entered upon his duties in that capacity at the opening of the college year in 1874. During the year 1886-7 he was granted leave of absence to pursue post-graduate study in Mathematics and Graphics at Cornell University. He was Senior Examiner in the office of the State Board of Regents during the summer of 1893. Since 1897 he has held the professorship of Industrial Mechanics, as well as the Rhode Island Professorship of Mathematics. For several years, Professor Kenyon served as Secretary of the Faculty, and has been Registrar since 1891. He was Acting-President of the University after the death of President Allen, until the duties of the office were assumed by President Main in April, 1893. In 1877, his Alma Mater conferred upon him the degree of S. M. For ten years he has been Vice President of the Alumni Association.

Doctor of Laws

JOSIAH STRONG, D. D., LL. D.

The name of Dr. Josiah Strong was presented by Professor Clark, who said:

Mr. President: We are honored this morning by the presence of the gentleman who delivered the masterly Doctor's Oration of the day. The distinguished position, that of President of the American Institute of Social Service, held by this gentleman, has been won by a deep and scientific study of social problems. No man has done so much as he to place social science upon a true, scientific, and Christian basis. There is scarcely a man in this country, or the old, who has not, either directly or indirectly, felt the uplift of his influence. This influence has been multiplied an hundred fold by the many and splendid books from his ready pen. The social, political, and religious world is greatly indebted to this distinguished visitor of ours today for the new and higher ideals of Christian citizenship which he has brought. Because of this scientific aid to social uplift, I take pleasure, Mr. President, in presenting to you, for the degree of Doctor of Laws, the name of Rev. Josiah Strong, D. D., of New York.

President Davis said:

Dr. Strong, son of Western Reserve University, distinguished scholar, sociologist, and author, Alfred welcomes you today for the service you have rendered to humanity. Not only as a preacher of the Gospel and a promoter of Christian missions, but as an advocate of social and economic reforms. You have endeared yourself to your countrymen and to the race. Your books, "Our Country," "The New Era," "The Times and Young Men," and a half dozen others have made your name a household word. The American Institute of Social Service, of which you are the organizer and president, has made available the vast stores of material which your world-wide investigations are bringing to light. This movement is the most sane, humanistic, universal, and Christian that the world has yet witnessed in scientific sociology. It is a happy coincidence that on this college platform, made sacred by the propagation of many reforms, there meet today the Presidents of the two most widely known social movements: The International Sunshine Society, and the American Institute of Social Service. You have honored Alfred University with your presence and with your memorable Doctor's Oration, just delivered, on the New Age Chivalry: an oration replete with learning, wisdom, and human sympathy. I therefore gladly admit you to the degree of Doctor of Laws in this University, and confer upon you all the rights and privileged belonging thereto.

Josiah Strong was born in Naperville, Ill., near Chicago, Jan. 19, 1847. He was son of Josiah Strong and Elizabeth C. (Webster) Strong; was graduated from Western Reserve College in 1869; studied at Lane Theological Seminary, 1869-71; D. D., Western Reserve College, 1886; pastor, 1871-81; home missionary secretary, 1881-84; pastor, 1884-85; secretary, Evangelical Alliance of the United, 1886-98; organized League for Social Service, and became its president, 1898; League re-organized as American Institute of Social Service, 1902. His writings are as follows: "Our Country," 1886; revised edition, 1891; "The New Era," 1893; "The Twentieth Century City," 1898; "Religious Movements for Social Betterments," and "Expansion," 1900; "The Times and Young Men," 1901; "The Next Great Awakening," 1902. Some of these books, in whole or in part, have been translated into many various languages, including Chinese.

1905 LAWS OF NEW JERSEY Chapter 213

At the annual session of the legislature of New Jersey held in 1905, a general act was passed affecting corporations organized for religious, educational, charitable and benevolent purposes. It became a law, April 20, 1905. The following is a copy:

1 Every corporation of this state organized for religious, educational, charitable or benevolent purposes under the provisions of any act of the legislature of this state, general, special, or private, is hereby authorized to take and hold by purchase, gift, devise, bequest, or otherwise, for any religious, educational, charitable or benevolent purposes whatsoever, such real or personal property, or both, as such corporation may require, or as, in any manner, may have been or may be vested in such corporations for, or any all of such purposes, and to grant, bargain, sell or convey the same, and every such corporation is further authorized to take and hold in trust for any religious, educational, charitable or benevolent purposes whatsoever, such real or personal property, or both, as, in any manner may have been or may be given, granted, conveyed, bequeathed or devised to, or otherwise vested in such corporation in trust for any of said purposes, and to grant, bargain, sell and convey property so held or to be held in trust for any such purposes, in accordance with the terms of the gift, grant, conveyance, bequest, devise or instrument creating such trust or trusts, respectively.

2. Any and all property, real or personal, heretofore given, granted conveyed, bequeathed or devised to, or otherwise vested in any such corporation in trust for any religious, education, charitable or benevolent purpose, shall, so far as the same may not have already been applied in the execution of such trust, continue to be held and applied by such corporation in accordance with the terms of the gift, grant, conveyance, bequest, devise or instrument creating such trust in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if such corporation were originally authorized to act in the capacity of trustee in the premises, provided that such trust, otherwise than in the designation of the trustee, is valid under the laws of this state.

3. This act shall take effect immediately.

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OF ALFRED UNIVERSITY

Incorporated—1886—New York

This Society is incorporated under Chapter 268, Session Laws of New York, 1882, as amended by Chapter 262, Session Laws of 1884.

The Society includes all graduates of the University, all persons who have received degrees from it, members of the Faculty, and former students who have been in attendance for one year or more. The annual fee is one dollar.

The objects of the Society are, to foster fraternal intercourse and sympathy; to keep its members interested in their Alma Mater; to promote the interests of Alfred University; and to raise a permanent fund, which has been named the KENYON-ALLEN ENDOWMENT FUND.

This fund now amounts to nearly $12,000. The income is used, in part to defray the expenses incident to a course of lectures at the University and in part for the general expenses of the University.

Two forms of pledges toward the principal of the endowment fund have been adopted,—one for the payment of $1.00 a month for five years, and the other for the payment of $10.00 a year for ten years. Pledges and contributions in cash are solicited, and will be duly acknowledged and added to the principal of the fund. Remember the Society in your will, making the bequest payable to the Society by its corporate name, to wit, THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OF ALFRED UNIVERSITY.

The Society is represented on the Board of Trustees of the University by nine trustees, three of whom are elected each year for a term of three years.

The Annual Meeting of the Society is held on Wednesday of Commencement Week, the whole day being given over to the Society.

APPENDIX D

NEW YORK STATE SCHOOL OF CLAY-
WORKING AND CERAMICS

BOARD OF MANAGERS

(University Trustees)

PRESIDENT BOOTHE COLWELL DAVIS,
WILLIAM H. CRANDALL,	JOHN J. MERRILL,
ELWOOD E. HAMILTON,	WILL R. CLARKE.

The following is a copy of Chapter 383 of the Session Laws of New York, 1900:

An act to establish a State School of Clay-Working and Ceramics at Alfred University, and making appropriation for the construction and equipment of a suitable building and the maintenance of such school for one year.

Section 1. There is hereby established a state school of clay-working and ceramics at Alfred University. For the purpose of constructing and equipping a suitable building for such school at Alfred, New York, the sum of fifteen thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated to be paid by the treasurer, upon the warrant of the comptroller, upon vouchers approved by the state architect, to Alfred University. No part of such moneys shall be expended until the plans and specifications for the construction and equipment of such building and the location thereof shall be approved by the state architect, nor until the comptroller shall have certified that in his judgment the expense of the completion and equipment of such building in accordance with such plans and specifications will not exceed the amount of such appropriation. Such building and equipment shall be the property of the state. There shall be no tuition charged to students residents of this state for instruction in the school hereby established.

Section 2. For the maintenance for one year of said state school of clay-working and ceramics, the sum of five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, payable to the treasurer of Alfred University, on the warrant of the comptroller.

Section 3 This act shall take effect immediately.

DIRECTOR'S REPORT

TO THE PRESIDENT OF ALFRED UNIVERSITY:

SIR: I have the honor to submit to you the fifth Annual Report of the New York State School of Clay-Working and Ceramics.

The work of the School has progressed in accordance with the anticipation made last year, and there is every reason for congratulation upon the success attained.

During the year thirty samples of clays and other materials have been examined. Most of these have been analyzed in the University laboratories, and experimental work upon them has been performed in this School. In addition to this, the owners of clay lands have visited the School for conference in larger numbers than hitherto.

Not only has the work of the School thus increased within the State, but a large amount of correspondence has arisen with other parts of the country, a fact which gives evidence of the increasing esteem in which the School is held. The railroads continue to call upon the School for expert assistance, and the State geologist has expressed a desire to send in clays discovered in the work of the survey.

The exhibits alluded to in my last report were duly installed at St. Louis, and much attention was thus attracted to the work done by the School. A silver medal was awarded to the educational exhibit and it has been arranged that this exhibit should accompany the rest of the State Educational Exhibit to Portland, Ore., for exhibition this summer. A bronze medal was awarded to the exhibit of State clays which was made by the Director of this School under the auspices of the State Science Department.

I was further gratified at receiving an invitation to serve on the International Jury on Ceramics at the World's Fair at St. Louis, and still more so at the action of the Jury itself which elected me its secretary. I found that the work of the School was well known by both American and foreign jurors.

I attended the Educational Conference at Syracuse in the Holiday week, and the University Convocation at Albany in June. I was present at the National Ceramic Convention at Cincinnati in February and took a leading part in the discussions.

In the month of May I visited a number of High Schools in the western counties and addressed the students upon the openings which were afforded by the School. I also addressed the Teachers' Institute at Ellicottville and lectured at Almond, and before the Carnegie Institute at Pittsburg.

Exhibits of pottery are in great demand and are furnished as far as possible.

An effort is being made to gather a library of works bearing on ceramics from both the technical and the historical standpoint. Such books are not common and are somewhat costly, but a nucleus has been secured and other volumes will be added as they appear.

In June last the first student was graduated by the School, and received the Science degree from Alfred University. He was at once appointed to a position in a small pottery in Syracuse where the endeavor is being made to build up an industry for New York State in artistic porcelain.

The students who have taken shorter courses are all placed and are giving satisfaction. Applications are being received from time to time for young men to assist in developing clay-working plants, but the demand so far has exceeded the supply.

The registration this year is thirty-three, being an increase of exactly fifty per cent. The Art Department, under the able care of Miss Blanchard, has proved exceptionally attractive, and the students are profiting by the instruction and practice. Some intend to produce artistic pottery, while some are intending to teach in the public schools.

The enthusiasm with which the young men attack their work is very marked. They are studying along various lines and there is no doubt that they will achieve a good record.

I wish to express my appreciation of the act of the Legislature by which the appropriation for the year was raised to $7,500. A part of this money has been expended in securing the services of a permanent machinist and laboratory assistant whose service has been of the greatest benefit. Samples of clay can be worked more rapidly and the kilns burned with more regularity than was possible when I could rely upon the assistance of students only.

The equipment has been further improved as a result of the increased appropriation, and I have been enabled to furnish my private laboratory. This has hitherto been in abeyance for lack of funds, but I am now in a position to prosecute my research work with facility.

I wish again to place on record my sense of the obligation which the School owes to the faculty of the University, without whose aid the work could not be carried on. The financial statement is appended.

Yours faithfully,

CHARLES F. BINNS, Director.

APPENDIX E

NECROLOGY

This list includes those who have studied at Alfred, those who have been connected with the institution as teachers or officers, and those who have remembered the University in their wills.

The friends of those dying during the current year who have sustained either of these relations to the University, will confer a favor by sending obituary notices to A. B. Kenyon, Registrar, Alfred, N. Y.

The number in parenthesis immediately following a name indicates the school year in which the party matriculated; but, in the case of graduates, the year of graduation is given instead, with the initial letters of the degree received. The name of a place in parenthesis indicates the place of residence at matriculation.

ROBERT BEACH was born at Whitney's Point, N. Y. He died at Alfred, Nov. 15, 1904, as the result of an accidental gunshot wound, received while out shooting. He was the son of John L. Beach and Alma Beach. He was a student in Alfred Academy at the time of his death.

SILAS C. BURDICK, E. B. '58. See pages 2 and 11.

TRUMAN AUGUSTUS BURDICK was born at Newport, R. I., February 28, 1839, and died at the home of his son, near Alfred, December 22, 1904. He was the son of Truman J. and Elizabeth Babcock Greenman Burdick. December 12, 1857, he was united in marriage with Millie, daughter of Clark G. Burdick of Alfred. Four children were born to them, two of whom survive. His wife died about two years ago. He was formerly an active member of the Alleghanian Lyceum; his speeches were highly prized on account of their being full of humor and enthusiasm. He was well versed in literature, and he wrote for many publications. His writing has been characterized by originality and vim. His first work as a printer was with the "Newport Mercury." In 1868 he was assistant editor on the "Andover Advertiser." For a number of years he was with the "Sabbath Recorder" as compositor, during which time he was also the Alleghanian editor of the "Alfred Student." He assumed control of the "Hornellsville Herald" during the Garfield campaign. In 1881--82 he was on the staff of the "Wellsville Democrat" as reporter, solicitor and collector.

PHILANDER B. CARPENTER, 1849--50, (Stephentown) died at his home in Stephenstown, October 19, 1905.

LUA MARY CLARKE, 1885--86, was born at West Edmeston, N. Y., November 23, 1871, and died at Alfred, June 10, 1905. She was the daughter of Rev. J. Bennett and Eunice Clarke. She attended Alfred University and pursued her studies as far as the Junior year, and then entered the Ethical Culture School of New York City, where she completed a two years' course in Normal study and training. After graduation she taught one year in the Alfred Grammar School. During the last two years she has been in Chicago, the first year as a member and teacher in the Chicago Kindergarten Institute, and the second year as Head Resident of the Maxwell Street Settlement.

ALICE SARAH COMPTON Jeffrey, 1870--71, (Alfred) was born at Kilborn City, Wis., August 20, 1856, and died at Nortonville, Kansas, July 6, 1905. Her father died when she was 12 years of age, and her mother two years later, when she went to live in the family of Perry Potter at Alfred, N. Y. July 3, 1882, she married James R. Jeffrey.

FLORA A. COTTRELL Mosher, 1868--69, (Richburg) was born at Richburg, N. Y., October 4, 1851, and died at Plainfield, N. J., August 15, 1905. She was the daughter of John B. and Eunice P. Cottrell. She married John P. Mosher, who survives.

REV. GEORGE JAY CRANDALL, A. M. '73; B. D. '74, was born at Brookfield, Madison Co., N. Y., August 12, 1839, and died at Milton Junction, Wis., July 20, 1905. He was the son of Jared B. and Alzina Maxson Crandall. He began his life work at Watson, N. Y., in 1862, and continued in the service until within two or three weeks of his death. July 5, 1862, he was married to Miss Elizabeth R. Maxson, who survives him. Three sons and two daughters were born to them, all but one of whom are living.

REV. DARIUS REYNOLDS FORD, D. D., LL. D. '48. See frontispiece, and pages 1 and 50.

LUCINDA FORD, 1843--44, (Belfast) died in March, 1905, aged 79 years. She was one of the children of Deacon Lewis Hart Ford, and a sister of Dr. Darius R. Ford. She gave her library to Alfred University.

JAMES GRAHAM, 1859--60, (Ithaca) was born in Tompkins county, N. Y., September 10, 1837, and was accidentally killed by the falling of a tree on his farm in Ward Township, N. Y., February 22, 1905. In 1861 he married Lucinda Brandt, who with two daughters and a son, survive him.

GEORGE A. GREEN, 1858--59, (Independence) was born at Independence, N. Y., May 21, 1843, and died at Wellsville, N. Y., February 15, 1905. He was the son of Elisha B. Green. November 29th, 1866, he married Miss Nora Livermore of Independence. In 1861 he enlisted in Company C, 85th regiment, N. Y. Volunteers, and was honorably discharged on account of sickness in the summer of 1862. Later he served the government for a year in the Quartermaster's Department. He was postmaster at Andover 1869-85, and for 12 years was County Clerk of Allegany county,

CHARLES E. GORTON, 1877--78, (Belmont) died at Belmont, leaving a wife and three daughters.

JAMES FRANKLIN HUBBARD was born at Berlin, N. Y., June 25, 1827, and died at Plainfield, N. J., June 20, 1905. He was the son of James and Amy Carpenter Hubbard. In 1849, he married Elizabeth Grace Green, who died in 1864, leaving a daughter Eva, now the wife of J. N. VanSickel of Plainfield, N. J. In 1866 he married Mrs. Isabella Randolph Titsworth, who survives him. In 1862, he enlisted in the 30th N. J. Infantry, and was elected Captain of Company H at the organization of the regiment. He commanded his company at the second battle of Fredericksburg and at Chancellorsville. In 1865 he engaged in the business of manufacturing printing presses with the late Charles Potter, and continued in this relation until 1879. For thirty-seven years he was a member of the Board of Freeholders of Union County, N. J., and for 20 years he was Director of the Board. He was president of the City National Bank of Plainfield and also of the Dime Savings Bank of that city. For many years he was a member of the Board of Trustees of the Seventh-day Baptist Memorial Fund, and at the time of his death, he was the president of the Board. For three years past he has been a trustee of Alfred University. See page 81.

ESTHER FITZ RANDOLPH Burdick, 1855--56, (Green Brier Run, Va.) was born at Greenbrier, near Salem, W. Va., August 28, 1828. She died at Hebron, Pa., February 25, 1905. She was the daughter of William F. and Mary B. Davis Randolph. She and four brothers and sisters, began their studies in Alfred Academy in 1855; they were the first delegation of students to Alfred from West Virginia. She studied and taught alternately for two years, when she married LeRoy Burdick. Her husband and their six children survive her.

ELLSWORTH FITZ RANDOLPH, 1884 -85, (Berea, W. Va.) was born at Berea, West Va., August 12, 1862. He was accidentally killed May 17, 1905, while hauling logs. He left a wife and son.

CALVIN DWIGHT REYNOLDS, 1864--65, (Alfred) was born in West Almond, N. Y., February 14, 1847, and died at Alfred, January 21, 1905. He was the son of Calvin and Susan Page Reynolds. October 9, 1872, he married Imogene Esther Fisk who survives him. He was engaged in business in Alfred for many years with the late William C. Burdick, and continued the business after the death of Mr. Burdick.

ARMINA LESEUR Marvin, A. M., '49, was born at Bolivar, N. Y., November 30, 1824, and died at Lawrence, Kansas, in 1904. July 14, 1851, she was united in marriage with James Marvin, D. D., who was for many years Chancellor of the University of Kansas. She taught in Alfred Academy 1850--51.

ABBY LOUISA STILLMAN Ellis, 1843--44, (Alfred) was born at Alfred, October 14, 1827, and died at Alfred, October 23, 1904. She was the daughter of Silas and Abby M. Stillman. October 18, 1851, she married Thomas Ellis, who died December 29, 1900.

REV. LUCIUS ROMAINE SWINNEY was born near Shiloh, N. J., December 23, 1837, and died at DeRuyter, N. Y., March 23, 1905. He was third of a family of eight children born to Ethan Burdick and Eliza Frazeur Swinney. Two brothers and a sister became physicians: one of them, Dr. Ella Swinney, served for several years as medical missionary with the Seventh-day Baptist Mission at Shanghai, China. His preliminary education was limited to study at Union Academy, Shiloh, but it was then under the leadership of such able men as Ethan P. Larkin, William C. Whitford, William A. Rogers, and O. U. Whitford. In 1856, after graduating from the Academy, he began teaching in the public schools of New Jersey. In 1860 he became principal of a classical academy in Pennsylvania. He continued this work until 1865, when he spent four years in study in New York City,—one year as a reader in Cooper Institute, and three years as a student in Union Theological Seminary, from which he graduated in 1869. He was united in marriage with Miss Sue M. Black of Greenwood, Pa., and began his first pastorate with the Second Seventh-day Baptist Church of Alfred, in 1869, being ordained to the ministry in the same year. 1870-76, he served in the Theological Department of Alfred University, as Professor of Hebrew and Cognate Languages, while continuing his pastoral duties. 1877-86 he served as pastor of the Lost Creek Seventh-day Baptist Church, at Lost Creek, W. Va., giving much time and effort to general missionary work among scattered churches of that state. From 1886 until his death he was pastor of the DeRuyter Seventh-day Baptist Church, at DeRuyter, N. Y. He was President of the Madison County Bible Society, Treasurer of the Madison County Bible School Board; a member of the Seventh-day Baptist Sabbath School Board, a frequent contributor to denominational publications; a member of the Board of Education of DeRuyter, and for the last two terms President of the Board. He was universally beloved and esteemed: a man who had no enemies, and whose charity for others' weaknesses seemed sometimes to approach a fault.

HON. JACOB HENRY SYPHER, A. M. '59, was born July 22, 1837, on his father's farm in Perry Co., Pa. He died May 9, 1905. He responded to the first call for troops in defense of the Union, and enlisted for three months as a private in the Cleveland, Ohio,

Light Artillery, on the 21st of April, 1861, and served in the army of West Virginia under McClellan and Rosecrans. He participated in the first battle of the war on June 3, 1861, at Philippi. On the expiration of his three months' term of enlistment, he engaged in recruiting and organizing Battery "B," First Regiment, Ohio Light Artillery, and on the 8th day of October, 1861, he was mustered into service with his battery as First Lieutenant, and served in the Army of the Cumberland, participating in its campaigns and battles until February, 1864, when he resigned because of dissatisfaction produced by the promotion of a junior officer over him. He immediately went to Washington and tendered his services to the Government. He was ordered before a Board of Regular Army officers, of which Major General Silas Casey was president, for examination as to his qualifications. After a most rigid examination he passed with the highest merit, and was recommended as Colonel of the first class. On July 9, 1865, he was commissioned and assigned to the command of the Eleventh Regiment, United States Heavy Artillery (originally designated the 14th Rhode Island) stationed in the Department of the Gulf. He assumed command of this regiment on August 10, 1864, and served until October 2, 1865, when it was mustered out and discharged at Portsmouth Grove, Rhode Island. At the request of Governor James Y. Smith, the President commissioned Colonel Sypher, to date from March 13, 1865, as Brevet Brigadier General, U. S. Volunteers, for "Faithful and meritorious services during the War." General Sypher commanded the United States forces at the military posts of Plaquemine and Donaldsonville, Louisiana, on the Mississippi River, and the Reserve Artillery of the Department, and he also served on special duty as President of General Court-Martial. The principal battles in which General Sypher was engaged were, Philippi, Beverly, Rich Mountain, Carrick's Ford, Wildcat Ridge, Millsprings, Fort Donelson, Shiloh, Perryville, Stone River, Rogersville, Swedens Cove, Nashville, Chattanooga, and Chickamauga.

At the close of the War, General Sypher located in Louisiana, and engaged in the culture of cotton and sugar. He was admitted to the bar by the Supreme Court of Louisiana, in 1867. He was one of the ablest and foremost advocates of the ratification and adoption of the new State Constitution in Louisiana, under the reconstruction acts of Congress. He was a delegate from Louisiana to the National Republican Convention which nominated Grant and Colfax. Four times he was elected to Congress from the first congressional district of Louisiana and served in the 40th, 41st, 42d and 43d Congresses, but was unseated in his last term.

General Sypher was the author and foremost advocate of Congressional legislation for the improvement of the navigation of the Mississippi River. He introduced the first measure in Congress to authorize and commence that great work, which finally resulted in securing a practicable channel with deep water at the mouth of that great river.

After retiring from Congress, he devoted his time to the practice of law in the District of Columbia. He had an extensive departmental practice, and took part in many important election contests before the Election Committee of the House of Representatives. He was an orator of exceptional ability.

WILLARD TELLER, 1852-53. (Granger) died recently in Denver, Colo. He was a brother of U. S. Senator Henry M. Teller.

JOSEPH M. TITSWORTH, 1865--66, (Plainfield, N. J.) See pages 2 and

HON. WILLIAM PITT TODD, A. M., '69, (Southport) died recently at Horton, Kansas. He was a lawyer by profession. He served as School Commissioner in Steuben county, N. Y., 1873-76, and was Superintendent of city schools, Boone, Iowa, 1876--82.

HARRIET C. TRACY Holcomb, 1854--55. (Phillipsville) died recently at Belmont, aged 63 years.

ROSCOE CONKLIN WORDEN, 1884--85, was born at Leonardsville, N. Y., October 17, 1866, and died at the same place December 19, 1904. He was the son of Leonard J. and Lavina Kellogg Worden. April 9, 1903, he married Miss Emma Beaver of Utica, who survives him.

REV. NATHAN WARDNER, A. M. D. D., '45

NATHAN WARDNER was born in Wheatland, Monroe County, New York, April 12, 1820, and died at Milton Junction, Wisconsin, April 6, 1894.

He was the son of Deacon Philip and Polly Wardner, natives of Vermont. He was the youngest of a family of nine children. His mother died when he was two and one-half years of age, and he was brought up by a step-mother.

When he was about five years of age, his father, with his family, moved to a farm near Andover, Allegany County, New York. The limited resources of the family and the toil and struggle incident to a comparatively new and undeveloped section of the country, rendered his early life as a farmer boy one of busy, yet healthful toil; but affording very little opportunity for acquiring the education which it was his early ambition to secure.

In the spring of 1839, he was converted and baptized into the fellowship of the First-day Baptist Church of Andover, of which church his father was deacon. After his conversion and baptism came the conviction of duty to preach the Gospel, and with it an increased sense of his need of education as a preparation for a work of so much importance and responsibility.

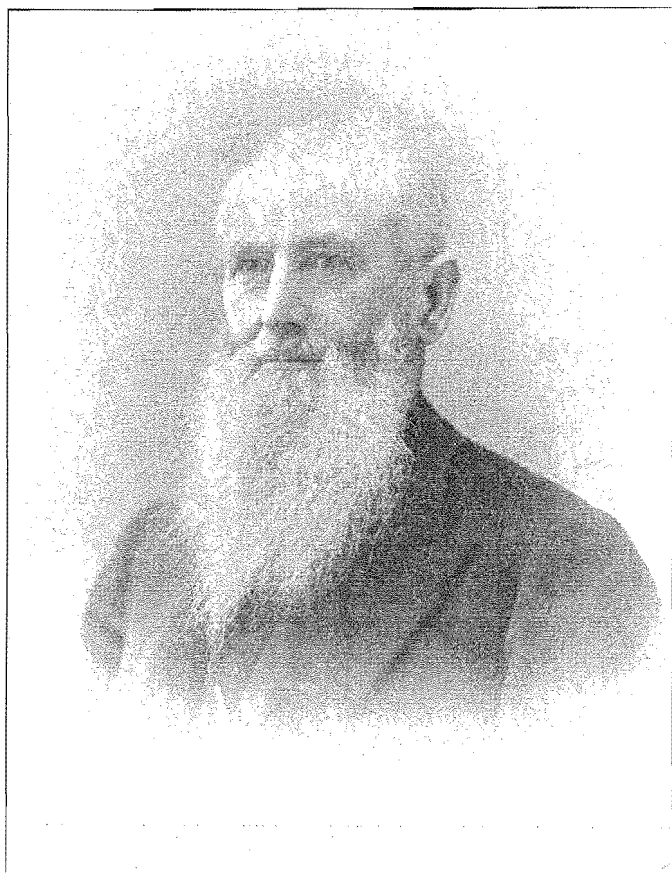

The winters of 1839-40 and 1840-41 he studied in Alfred Academy. After he attained his majority in 1841, he continued his studies at Alfred until his graduation in 1845, with an occasional term out to earn the means to meet his expenses.

At Alfred he commenced the investigation of the Sabbath question in the confident expectation that he should find abundant Bible authority for Sunday-keeping. The struggle through which he passed was that of the devoutly loyal Christian man, honestly endeavoring to lay the foundations of a Christian life upon the sure word of God. It ended when at last he surrendered himself to the divine will and authority and conscientiously committed himself to God in the keeping of His holy day. March 18, 1843, he united with the First Seventh-day Baptist Church of Alfred.

In September, 1846, he accepted the call of the Seventh-day Baptist Missionary Society to become a missionary on the foreign field. October 6, 1846, he was united in marriage with Miss Olive Brown Forbes, who was also a convert to the Sabbath. December 31, 1846, at Plainfield, N. J., he was ordained to the work of the gospel ministry. At the same time, Elder Wardner and his wife, and Elder Solomon Carpenter and his wife, were, by prayerful consecration, set apart to the China Mission.

January 5, 1847, the missionaries embarked at New York on a sailing vessel, bound for Canton, China. April 22, 1847, after a voyage of 112 days they arrived at Hong Kong, where they remained until they had decided where to locate the proposed Mission. The city of Shanghai was finally selected.

Many months were spent in learning the language and procuring suitable buildings and fitting them up for their work, and it was January, 1849, before they began their mission work in earnest.

Rev. Nathan Wardner, A. M., D. D., '45

In September, 1853, an insurrection broke out in Shanghai, and the missionaries were driven from their homes. During this troubled period, they moved ten times to obtain safety and shelter. Peace was finally restored in 1855, and the missionaries returned to the homes that they had been obliged to abandon.

Mrs. Wardner's health was so broken down with the fatigue they had endured and the danger to which they had been exposed, that in February, 1856, she was obliged to return to the homeland. April 18, 1857, Elder Wardner sailed for home. Many difficulties and dangers were encountered and overcome by Elder Wardner and his co-workers at this early day, but they succeeded in laying a substantial foundation for the first foreign mission undertaken by the Seventh-day Baptists of America.

During the period 1875-77, he was in the employ of the American Sabbath Tract Society as Sabbath Reform missionary in Great Britain, with headquarters in Edinburg, Scotland. The Haarlem, Holland, Seventh-day Baptist Church and Mission came into existence through the publication and distribution of Sabbath Reform literature in Edinburg by Elder Wardner.

He served out a number of churches as pastor, viz. Second Alfred, N. Y., 1858-66; Pawcatuck, R. I., 1866-68; West Hallock, Ill., 1868-75; Milton Junction, Wis., 1877-90; Utica, Wis., 1892, up to his death. 1890-92 he was engaged in literary work and preaching.

He was the author of "Nature's God and his Memorial," a work on the Sabbath; "Life, Soul, Death, and the Resurrection," a discussion of Adventism; two booklets on "Communion," and several tracts; and he was a frequent contributor to the Sabbath Recorder.

Alfred University conferred upon him the degree of Master of Arts; and in 1877, Milton College granted him the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

He was a trustee of Alfred University 1862-73. He remembered Alfred University in his will, an extract from which will be found a page 50.

The companion of his early life and toil, Olive Forbes Wardner died October 5, 1888. There were born to them two sons, one of whom died in early childhood, the other, Morton S. Wardner, M. D., is a practicing physician. December 4, 1889, Elder Wardner married Miss Martha Harvey who survives him.

He was conscientious and steadfast in his devotion to truth and duty; upright in life and character; incisive and logical in his methods of thought and discourse; an earnest advocate of the perpetuity of the Law of God, and among the ablest defenders of the principles of the denomination which he loved. He left behind him the influence and benediction of a life sincerely earnest in its purpose and effort to walk with God and lead his fellowmen to the knowledge of truth.
