Tools and Tricks to Being a Successful Student at AU

Date: Wednesday, Sept. 18

Time: 4 until 5 P.M.

Location: Powell Campus Center, 2nd Floor, Kenyon/Allen Room (Signs Will Be Posted)

Format: Presentation

Title: Beating Educational Barriers: You Made It This Far, Keep Going

Special Academic Services provides support services, consultation, and advocacy for students at Alfred University. As part of our mission, we are conducting a series of presentations to demonstrate how to get the most out of your education. Please join us for these informative sessions.

The second in the series is titled, "Beating Educational Barriers: You Made It This Far, Keep Going". This presentation will discuss how college presents its own unique obstacles that nearly every student will face. Explore how to identify and manage them, as well as continue succeeding.

Ole Jensen Public Lecture

Ole Jensen: Randall International Chair/Division of Ceramic Art - Public lecture

Date: Wednesday, Sept. 18, 2013

Location: Holmes Auditorium, Harder Hall

Time: 4:30 - 6 p.m.

Reception to follow

The School of Art and Design and the Division of Ceramic Art are pleased to welcome Ole Jensen as a recipient of the 2013 Randall International Chair.

Ole Jensen received his education from The Arts and Crafts College in Kolding and the Royal Academy of Fine Arts in Copenhagen. Since 1985 Ole has taught at several design schools, exhibited his works in most of Europe, and co-founded and served as a member of several design associations and councils.

He has won a number famous design awards and been featured in several publications. In 2011, Ole's work was included in, TableSpace, an exhibition at the Fosdick-Nelson Gallery, curated by AU Professor Linda Sikora and Albion Stafford (MFA 2007).

Through Oct. 11, Ole will interact with undergraduate and graduate students while also designing and producing his own work in the ceramic art facilities.
For more images and information about Ole, visit www.olejensendesign.com.

Juniors, Seniors, Grad Students: Alumni Reception Deadline Extended

ATTENTION JUNIORS, SENIORS AND GRADUATE STUDENTS: THE DEADLINE HAS BEEN EXTENDED FOR THE RISING ALUMNI NETWORKING RECEPTION!

The Alfred University Alumni Council cordially invites you to our Rising Alumni Networking Reception to be held on Friday, Oct. 4, from 5 to 7 P.M. at the Knight Club, 3rd Floor of PCC. Hors d' oeuvres and refreshments will be served.

The Council consists of alumni from the past five decades, each of whom was a student leader while on campus. Promoting connections between current students and alumni is one of the primary missions of the Council. Our past experiences at AU can make us an excellent resource for you as you get ready to transition to the next phase of your life. We encourage you to feel comfortable contacting one or more of us anytime.

Please RSVP on EventBrite.com (<http://aurisingalumni.eve...>) by Friday, Sept. 27, 2013. When you RSVP, you will receive an email with a link to the directory of current council members.

We applaud your upcoming graduation, and we hope you'll take this opportunity to get to know us. We all look forward to meeting you!

Sincerely,
Bradley J. Berwald '00
Alumni Council President

Seeking Champions of Ideas

Hundreds of AU students have great ideas for what should be in the old L'il Alf/Cyberfresh Caf space; a thrift shop, an arcade, a student kitchen, a barbershop, a print shop, a gallery space, a comic book shop... (the list goes on and on).

These ideas are wonderful but NOW is the time for students to step forward and champion their ideas. We need student entrepreneurs who actually want the experience of developing a business model and persuading others that their idea is worth investing.

The LAUNCH PAD has been designed to support students with an extremely rare opportunity of NO PERSONAL FINANCIAL RISK - the only risk is your time and energy.

All these great ideas will never become reality unless YOU choose to make it happen. If you are ready to champion an idea, email LAUNCH@alfred.edu or talk to Dan Napolitano at the CSI Office.

'Chris Gustin, Masterworks in Clay Exhibition'

This retrospective exhibition of the ceramic work of Chris Gustin comes to us from the Fuller Art Museum in Brockton, Massachusetts.

Chris graduated from the Kansas City Art Institute with a BFA in 1975 and received an MFA from the NYS College of Ceramics at Alfred in 1977. He taught for 23 years at Boston University, the Swain School of Design, and the University of Massachusetts, Dartmouth where he is now Professor Emeritus.

Museum Reception:

Thursday, Sept. 19, 4:30-6 p.m.

Top floor of Binns-Merrill Hall, AU campus

The Schein-Joseph International Museum of Ceramic Art will host "Chris Gustin: Masterworks in Clay," Thursday, Sept. 19 through Friday, Nov.22, 2013.

Museum hours:

Wednesday-Friday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.

Gustin will also give a gallery talk on Friday, Sept. 20, at noon, in the museum. This, too, is open to the public.

Special Museum hours:

Family Weekend

Saturday, Sept. 21, 1-4 p.m.

Ecology of the Bahamas

The Environmental Studies Division is pleased to offer the course Ecology of the Bahamas for Spring 2013. This is a full semester, 3-credit course which includes a week-long field trip at the Gerace Research Center on San Salvador Island, Bahamas.

Through this course students will learn concepts that are central to ecology and biodiversity through the exploration of Bahamian plant and animal life. We will use a natural history approach to investigate coral reefs, seabird colonies, tidal channels, caves, and inland lakes.

An information session will be held Friday Sept. 20, Science Center 326, 2:30 p.m.

Prerequisite: ENVS101 or BIOL201, plus instructor permission. To apply: <http://alfred.abroadoffic...>

For questions: contact Dr. Beaudry (beaudry@alfred.edu)
