Visiting Artist Display at Herrick

An exhibit of work by Heidi Neilson is on display in Herrick Library's entrance.

Heidi Neilson is an artist working in printmaking, artist books, and public projects concerning topics such as weather, fake snow, and the debris in earth's orbit. She has exhibited widely, including at the Queens Museum of Art, the International Center for Prints New York, the Bronx Museum of the Arts, the Islip Art Museum, and The Drawing Center. Her work is included in over 50 museum and university collections.

During March, Heidi is a Visiting Artist in the College of Liberal Arts and Science's Interdisciplinary Art program, teaching an artist's book workshop as part of the course, "Image, Text and Culture," with Dale Inglett, Assistant Professor of Studio Art.

For more information, visit the Herrick Library blog.

It's All About the Shirt

Alfred University's Orientation program is designed to assist new students in becoming part of the AU community and to help them feel comfortable with academic and student life on campus. In order to accomplish this, we rely on Orientation Guides, a team of enthusiastic and knowledgeable AU students who want to make a difference for their peers.

Being an OG is a volunteer position, involving participation in training Aug. 20-22 and the Orientation program itself, Aug. 23-26.

Applications are due in the Center for Student Involvement, Powell Campus Center, by 4:30 p.m., Monday, April 2.

NIMBY: Not In My Back Yard

Show Dates: Monday, March 19-Friday, March 23

Artist Talk: Monday, March 19

Time: 5:30 P.M.

Closing Reception: Friday, March 23

Time: 6-9 P.M.

Location: Robert C. Turner Gallery

Cost to Attend: Free/Open to Public

The "Not in my Backyard" philosophy (NIMBY) is typified by landfill, whereby the unpleasant aesthetic qualities of waste are buried from view. This solo exhibition is Jared Singer's way of bringing this back to the gallery for acknowledgement of universal interconnectedness with the environment, forging a sustainable future.

Back Up Important Files in More Than One Place

At this time of year when you are trying to finish up all your assignments for class, it is really important to remember to back up your files in more than one place.

You can use your U:drive, a pen drive or email it to yourself so that you have an extra copy in case your original copy becomes corrupted or deleted.

Below is the link for U:drive instructions. Please call the Helpdesk at x2222 if you have any questions.

Alfred Montessori School Multicultural Event

In conjunction with local families and multicultural clubs from Alfred State and Alfred University, the Alfred Montessori School will be holding its first Multicultural Open House.

Donations will be gladly accepted, but this event is free to attend and open to the general public. Countries from all around the world will be represented at the event: Alfred University's Confucius Institute will join us to present traditional music from China, Alfred State's International Club will be sharing foods from Russia and Japan, and a family from the local community will be teaching us a simple Irish dance.

Come join us on Saturday, March 24 from 3-6 p.m. at the Alfred Montessori School (located next to the children's park on Main Street) to see what other great activities we have planned!
