

Alfred University men's cross country team finishes 7th

9/19/05

The Alfred University men's cross country team finishes in 7th at the Fredonia State University Invitational on Saturday. Alfred recorded five runners under the 30 minute mark for the 8k run. Finishing in 7th was junior, Fontana Fluke (Shaftsbury, VT/ Mt. Anothony Union) at 28:12. Sophomore Matt Karczewski (Penn Yan, NY/ Penn Yan) finished in 9th place with a time of 28:25. Junior Travis Swan (Binghamton, NY/ Binghamton) finished 15th at 28:45. Two seconds after senior Jason Belt (Potsdam, NY/ Potsdam) took 16th place. Senior Jeff Norton (Buffalo, NY/ St. Francis) recorded a time of 29:11 which placed him in 22nd place. The women's cross country took 11th place at Fredonia in a 5k run. Leading the women's team, placing 17th, was freshman Krista Villoman (Kings Park, NY/ Kings Park) with a time of 20:52. Eight seconds after junior Kate Ciccone (Brooktondale, NY/Ithaca) placed 19th with a time of 21:00. Less than a minute later Junior Kristen Egan (Robesonia, PA/ Conrad Weiser) finished with a time of 21:43 placing her in 25th place. AU Saxons competes next on Saturday at St. Lawrence.