ALFRED UNIVERSITY Mark Zupan inaugurated as University's 14th president

ALFRED–Alfred University Saturday inaugurated Mark Zupan as the 14th president of the 180-year-old university.

The former dean of the Simon Business School at the University of Rochester, and most recently director of the Bradley Policy Center, Zupan succeeds Charles Edmondson, who had served as AU president since 2000.

Zupan quoted Alfred University's motto – Fiat Lux; Let there be Light – in his inaugural address and quoted the university's second president, Jonathan Allen, in rallying the university community: "Alfred, starting as a little taper set in an upper window, becoming soon a candle... .thence developed gradually into a candelabrum, many lighted. ... Let us therefore continue to multiply and brighten her lights, in the full assurance that, when we have done what we can, coming generations will take up and augment the good work.

MARK ZUPAN, 14th president of Alfred University

cluded the bestowing of an honorary degree on Joseph Kalt, Emeritus Ford Foundation Professor of International Political Economy, who recalled meeting an undergraduate Zupan in an economics class at Harvard University.

Kalt said he recognized in Zupan "character and values that would make him a success in life" and promised the university community it would recognize in Zupan "one of the most decent, caring and compassionate individuals we have ever known.'

Charitable Games of Chance Law on the ballot for Town of Alfred

By DAVID L. SNYDER

Editor, Publisher and Janitor ALFRED-A quick glance at the ballot for the General Election in the Town of Alfred on Tuesday, Nov. 8 might make one wonder whether a casino is in Alfred's future. It isn't.

Voters in the Town and Village of Alfred are

•The law will legalize the many fund-raisers that are already being conducted by college groups, fire departments, the rod and gun club and other groups.

•Because it's a local law, a public hearing is required and then must go up for Public Referendum and appear on the ballot in November. The local law was unanimously approved by the Alfred Town Board at its special August 18 meeting and the Town Board unanimously voted to hold a public hearing on the proposed law on Tuesday, Sept. 6, to be followed by its regular monthly meeting. The public hearing and early monthly meeting were scheduled to facilitate the referendum appearing on the Nov. 8 ballot. The Board of Elections deadline for inclusion on the ballot was Thursday, Sept. 8. No one attended the public hearing. The law states that "The Chief of Police of the Village of Alfred shall exercise control and supervision over all Games of Chance conducted under a duly authorized license. Guidelines for Charitable Gaming found at: https://www.gaming.ny.gov/charitablegaming/raffle guide.php indicate that those organizations that will raise less than $5,000 or less than $20,000 in a calendar year do not need to file an application for a gaming license from the local municipal clerk. When the Town Board was discussing the proposed law at its August 18 meeting, Councilman Bob Ormsby asked how the Police will be involved and was told that they will be involved only if there is a problem. Town Supervisor Dan Acton said there have been raffles in the Town of Alfred for decades and he is not aware of any problems.

hands," Kalt concluded.

Five additional guests at the ceremony also recalled their relationships with Zupan, praising him as a pivotal figure in their own lives and careers: Nina Schwalbe, a principal at Spark Street Consulting, New York; Scott Givens, CEO and owner of FiveCurrents, Redondo Beach, CA; Jim Moore, President and CEO, University of Illinois Foundation, Urbana, IL; Will Reynolds, U.S. Army Captain (Ret.), and Janet Anderson, executive director of professional programs at Simon Business School.

"He had a cult following at Harvard," Schwalbe joked. "And I was one of his groupies."

Zupan received a standing ovation from the hundreds of faculty, staff, trustees and AU trustees attending the inauguration after AU board Chairman Leslie Gelber formally completed his installation, presenting AU's presidential medallion to the new university president.

being asked to approve a referendum to permit games of chance by charitable organizations in the Town of Alfred.

Listed as "Proposal #1" on the Alfred ballot, the referendum reads: "Shall there be approved and adopted in the Town of Alfred, NY, a local law entitled 'Local Law #1-2016 A Local Law Authorizing Charitable Games of Chance by Authorized Organizations in the Town of Alfred', as enacted by the Town Board of the Town of Alfred on September 6, 2016? Yes or No."

The Alfred Town Board held a special meeting Thursday, August 18 to consider the Games of Chance Law. The law was requested by an Alfred State official at the board's August 11 meeting.

The Town Board was told at the August 11 meeting that legal counsel for State University of New York in Albany said Alfred State student organizations could not hold raffles unless the Town of Alfred adopted a local law permitting them.

Some factors regarding the proposed local law:

•The law would be for non-profit groups only.

•Games of Chance – it would not allow Bingo or any game where one player plays against another.

•The law permits sale of raffle tickets off prem-

•If less than $5,000 is raised, no license or application is required.

AU's Mark Zupan presents inaugural Fiat Lux! awards kicked off its celebration of the inauguration of President Mark Zupan with a moving ceremony Friday night awarding two AU alumni – and one alumnus-to-be -- the newly created Fiat Lux! honor.

Zupan, playing host, presented the award to alumni Don McPherson, the inventor of corrective lenses that allow color blind people to discern individual colors, and Kristin Beck, a Wellsville native and former U.S. Navy Seal whose transgender transformation is the subject of a book, Warrior Princess, and a documentary film Lady Valor.

Both are alumni. McPherson earned a master's in glass science engineering in 1984, and a 1989. Beck is a 1989 graduate of AU.

Finally, Julio Fuentes, who as an AU student suffered a paralyzing spinal injury in a 2006 football game, received his own Fiat Lux!, promising the nearly 200 guests attending the dinner he also would accept the AU Board of Trustees' offer to return to AU and complete his undergraduate studies. Fuentes has been undergoing physical rehabilitation for the past 10 years.

"You truly made an impact on my life," Fuentes told Zupan after receiving his Fiat Lux! plaque. "And I know you'll do the same for Alfred."

Zupan takes the helm of Alfred University as its 14th president.

ALFRED STATE Pioneer Trail hiking system opens

ALFRED–Offering 4.5 miles of trails and gorgeous views of nearby scenery, Alfred State's Pioneer Trail system is now officially open. Located within a 200-acre wooded area, the Pioneer Trail includes three hikes to challenge all levels of physical fitness, while exploring the forest, discovering wildlife, and taking in the scenery. All trails begin and end at the parking area located behind and above the Orvis Activities Center (parking lot 24).

Each of the three trails is designated with a different-colored hiker icon: blue for the Pioneer Fitness Trail, green for the Happy Valley Trail, and yellow for the Cross Country Trail.

The one-mile Pioneer Fitness Trail offers a novice-tointermediate challenge to trailgoers, and also features fitness stations. The intermediate-todifficult one-and-a-half-mile Happy Valley Trail offers some significant climbs and allows hikers to explore what was originally developed as the Happy Valley Ski Hill.

The two-mile Cross Country Trail is designed for running, walking, and cross-country skiing. It delivers scenic views of the village, college, and athletic fields, and is novice-tointermediate in level of difficulty.

To mark the opening of the trails, the college held a ribboncutting ceremony, attended by students, faculty, and staff. Welcoming everyone in attendance was Spencer Peavey, assistant vice president for Student Affairs.

"These trails will offer students an additional outlet on campus for fitness and recreation," he said. "They will also offer faculty and staff members a great opportunity during breaks.

Peavey was one of numerous individuals and groups who helped make the trail system a reality. Credit also goes to President Dr. Skip Sullivan, Building Trades Assistant Professor Mark Payne and his heavy equipment operations students who helped create paths throughout the trail system, Student Senate, and Vice President for Student Affairs Gregory Sammons.

sion for the trail system has been years in the making, and is still a work in progress.

Such amenities as the new trail system, Sullivan said, do not happen without a lot of hard work, a lot of preparation, and a lot of people behind the scenes.

"I'm honored to stand up and say, 'Look what we've got now,'" he said, adding, "Very few campuses have the aesthetics that this campus has, and we want to recognize and celebrate that."

Spooktacular Halloween Concert set

ALFRED-A "Spooktacular' Halloween Concert with the Alfred University Symphonic Orchestra will be held at 8 p.m. Monday, Oct. 31 in Holmes Auditorium, Harder Hall, on the AU campus.

All Ghosts, Goblins and Ghouls, are invited to come as they are or dress for the occasion. The AU Symphony Halloween concert complete with Brooke Harris as the Monster of Ceremonies is one of Alfred's favorite shows.

The concert is free and everyone is welcome to attend.

Mary Veola Babcock (grandmother of David S. Clarke) was a student at Alfred University where she met Alpheus B. "A.B.' Kenyon whom she married in 1873. Mary Veola cared well for their family and their home at 33 South Main Street as well as accompanying A.B. at social events and helping with his college duties. He retired in 1920 having given 46 years to teaching and administration at AU. Mary frequently hosted university guests, neighborhood gatherings and family reunions. The Kenyons had three daughters, Grace, Dora, and Agnes, David Clarke's mother.

This is her recipe from the 1906 cookbook.

Savory Potatoes

Wash, pare, and thinly slice some potatoes. Fill a one-quart baking dish with the sliced potatoes, sprinkling each layer with salt, pepper, and grated cheese. Dot the top with one tablespoon of butter broken into small pieces; pour over this one egg beaten with one pint milk. Cover and bake for half an hour at 350 degrees, then uncover and bake an additional 20 minutes.

defends Japan

Dear Editor,

The United States spends $5.5 billion per year to provide military defense to Japan.

Under the defense treaty, the United States is obligated to defend Japan, even if Japan provokes another country such as China, yet there is no reciprocal clause in the treaty.

As long as the United States military is providing defense to Japan, the United States must require that United States citizens are given the right to live, work, study, and operate a business in Japan, on an equal basis to Japanese citizens.

If Japan does not agree to provide U.S. citizens these rights, Japan should simply be declared a territory of the United States, as our military is already in control of the country.

It is unfair that United States taxpayers are footing the bill for Japan's security, as a result of Japan's bad behavior in World War II, yet U.S. citizens cannot benefit from the fruits of the security.

Community Chest Goal set at $42,325 Drive reaches 18% of its goal

The Alfred-Alfred Station Community Chest has completed its two weeks of its 2016 drive and, thus far, has received pledges of $7604.88 or 18 % of our goal of $42325. We encourage you, the people of our community, to consider pledging today. As Wes Bentz has always pointed out, our local organizations benefit im-mensely from your contributions. This week I am selecting the Senior Nutrition Site as our 'poster' organization.

The Senior Nutrition Site is an important organization that receives support from your Community Chest. Each week, lunch is served for our senior citizens at the Union University Church Center. Not only does this luncheon provide a nutritious meal for the seniors, it is also an opportunity for them to meet old and new friends and neighbors. Many of those who live alone enjoy the companionship that this gathering provides. In fact, seniors often come early to participate, and to assist others.

The Nutrition Site is sponsored by the Allegany County Office for the Aging and is regularly attended by our 'elderly' community people. Volunteer drivers are available to pick up those who need transportation. Diners are asked to make a payment for their meal, but this does not cover incidentals such as decorations and other items for festive meals and for birthday celebrations. Sugar substitutes are needed for those on low sugar diets, as well as other required modifications for specialized diets.

A gift to the Community Chest is an opportunity to provide the extras to our senior citizens who have given so much to us and our community over the years. Many of these individuals, although they are on relatively low, fixed incomes, continue to make generous contributions to our campaign. We hope that you will agree that support for the Senior Nutrition Site, as well as our other campaign organizations, provides services that are essential to our community. We ask those of you who have not yet made a donation or pledge to join your friends and neighbors who have made our drive a success again this year. Many thanks to those who have been so generous in this pledge year, as well as in past years.

If, for some reason, you did not receive a pledge card, your donation may still be left at the Alfred Pharmacy in Alfred, the Canacadea Country Store in Alfred Station, or may be mailed to Alfred-Alfred Station Community Chest, Box 603, Alfred, NY, 14802. We always look forward to any community support you can provide.

CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT AND THE SEPARATION OF POWERS

Many aspects of the current Presidential cam-paigns are important, and troubling. There is plenty of room for disagreement, and we have certainly had an abundance of disagreement. In my opinion both major candidates are deeply flawed, and most Americans appear to share that viewpoint. Our current method of selecting Presidential candidates appears to be incapable of producing even one good candidate. That is extremely troubling. However, there is another aspect of Presidential politics that is even more troubling to me. Americans expect too much from the President, and appear to be rejecting the principle of "Separation of Powers.

Our nation was founded after a bloody revolution. Americans were deeply distrustful of government. They had good reason for such distrust (and we still do). Historically, governments always become oppressive and out of touch with the needs of their citizens. To combat oppression our nation's founders limited the scope of government. Their greatest concern was that government would become too large and powerful. They were more concerned about liberty, and less concerned about economics. Their major tool to combat tyranny was the Constitution, and that incorporated the principle of "separation of powers." There are several levels at which that separation operates Our Constitutional model of government divides power between the federal government, the states, and the people. The founders never intended the federal government to hold most of the power. That was reserved to the citizens. The states were to hold most governmental power, and the scope of federal government was to be very limited. That doesn't describe our situation today. Circumstances have clearly changed, and maybe it is necessary for the federal government to have more power. However, we need to be very careful that the government we have created doesn't destroy the Constitutional form of government that has served our nation so well for more than 200 years. The Constitution also established "separation of powers" within the federal government. It was intended for most of the power to be held by Congress. That is where the representatives closest and most accountable to the people make decisions. Congress makes laws and establishes national policies. The President is supposed to administer those laws and implement policies established by Congress. The federal judiciary, and especially the Supreme Court, was intended to make sure that the other branches of federal government didn't get out of hand. There is to be a "balance of power" among the three branches. Our Constitutional structure is designed to prevent any single branch of the federal government from becoming too powerful.

Over the past 70 years that model has been compromised. Today the power of the Executive branch, and specifically of the President, exceeds the power of the other branches of government. During the Great Depression the public was desperate to have prosperity restored. President Franklin Roosevelt asked for immense new powers, that Congress voted to give him. The Supreme Court initially ruled many of those laws "Unconstitutional." However, under Roosevelt's threat to "pack the Court" by appointing extra Justices, it capitulated. Over the following decades, various crises, including World War II, the Cold War, were advanced to justify further grants of power to the President and Executive Branch. Today the President holds far more power than either Congress or Supreme Court. President Obama refuses to enforce laws that he happens to disagree with. That is illegal and unconstitutional, and violates his oath of office. He (and other Presidents) ignores Congress and governs through the use of "Executive Orders." Federal agencies (like the Environmental Protection Agency and Army Corps of Engineers) ignore rulings of the Courts and exceed the powers given to them by Congress, to pursue the President's agenda. Congress and the President need to work together to resolve the many serious problems facing our nation. However, we cannot allow our Constitutional form of government to be destroyed in the pursuit of short-term solutions. If we do, our experiment in democracy and self-government will quickly fail. I believe this is the great challenge currently facing our nation. To paraphrase Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, the issue is whether our nation of liberty and Constitutional government "can long endure" and whether "government of the people, by the people, for the people shall not perish from the earth.

ALFRED UNIVERSITY Alfred Ceramic Art Museum opens tomorrow night

ALFRED-Everyone is invited to join in the celebration of a "new era" at the Alfred Ceramic Art Museum on this momentous occasion, the Museum Opening from 6 to 9 p.m. Friday, Oct. 28. There is no admission charge for the opening. The opening exhibition entitled Core Sample: Selections from the Permanent Collection represents a journey through time in the history of ceramic art. Approximately 160 pieces will be on view featuring the art of the renowned Alfred University ceramic art faculty as well as other major 20th and 21st century American and international ceramic artists. In addition, an important feature of this opening exhibition, are the extradinorary works by what the Museum terms "Ancestors" – a collection of ceramic art of the ancient Americas as well as Japanese, Chinese, Korean, African and American Indian masterpieces. Featured as well are the astonishing works from the Museum's MFA collection. This unique collection represents the creativity and intellectual rigor of those artists who have received masters degrees in ceramic art from Alfred University.

Beginning October 29, the hours of operation for the Museum, located on Pine Street on the AU campus, will Mondays: closed Tuesdays: 10 a.m. – 5 p.m. Wednesdays: 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. Thursdays: 10 a.m.-7 p.m. Fridays: 10 a.m.-5 5 p.m. Saturdays: 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Sundays: 10 a.m.-4 p.m. In celebration of the beginning of a new era and its opening exhibition, the museum will be open free of charge October 29-30, 2016.

Beginning November 1, 2016, admission for adults (18-54 years old) is $7; for those 55 and older, $5; and local residents (those whose home zip code begin with 148), AAA members and military, $3. Alfred University and Alfred State College faculty, staff and students will be admitted free with ID, as will Alfred-Almond Central School students.

HURRICANE MATTHEW RAISES THE STAKES Water for Haiti, Meltdown will flow together Saturday

ALFRED–When Hurricane Matthew blew across Haiti early in October, it not only killed hundreds of island residents; it also devastated the basic mechanics of everyday life, including the collection of clean drinking water.

Alfred University Geology Professor Michele Hluchy notes much of Haiti's drinking water is drawn from surface water sources: rivers and streams that now are crammed with storm debris and other waste, ripe breeding grounds for deadly public health hazards.

The dire situation has created an extraordinary level of urgency for a course Hluchy is teaching, "The Water Planet," which this year is studying drinking water systems on Haiti and underscoring the need for groundwater infrastructure: mechanisms that pull safe, drinkable water from underground wells.

Even before the devastation of Hurricane Matthew, Hluchy's first-year students had embarked on an ambitious fundraising project: Water for Haiti. The project hopes to raise $15,000 to finance the construction of single water well in southern Haiti, the area of the island hit hardest in the hurricane.

Hluchy hopes to raise the funds by the end of the year, and a group of AU students and faculty may travel to Haiti during the 2017 spring break for the inauguration of "The Alfred Well," which will be constructed by the organization Haiti Outreach, founded by Neil Van Dine of Wellsville. "The thing I'm trying to get across," Hluchy says, "is that this project is so much more important now because it will provide a safe drinking water source that won't be vulnerable to storms like Matthew." Hluchy's class is only part of a wideranging humanitarian response at Alfred University to the Haiti disaster. "The Water Planet" is part of the First Year Experience curriculum in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. Other FYE classes also are contributing to Hluchy's Water for Haiti project. They include English Professor Allen Grove's "Tales of Terror" and Sociology Professor Karen Porter's "Intro to Sociology," which are collaborating in a "Zombie Run" Saturday, Oct. 29 (The ghouls begin roaming at 11pm at Stull Observatory). AU's Bromley-Dagget Equestrian Center will host a hayride on Oct. 27 (6pm for kid-friendly rides; 8pm for older folks), with proceeds to be directed to Water for Haiti.

And Water for Haiti has teamed up with AU's 10th Annual Meltdown, set for Oct. 29. The Meltdown treats spectators to molten iron pours, sponsored by the Sculpture Dimensional Studies Division of the School of Art and Design

The Meltdown begins at 2 p.m. at AU's National Casting Centre Foundry, 180 N. Main St., Alfred, and allows visitors to carve their own decorative water bowl molds. AU students then pour molten iron into the molds, which can be picked up at a later date (after they've cooled). The cost is $15, and the proceeds are being donated to Water for Haiti.

Meanwhile, as molten iron flows, AU Professor Luanne Crosby will lead her Music Appreciation students (another FYE group) in a street concert of Haitian music. The songs will accompany a street food sale, also organized by Crosby's students.

And later, in the secsemester, AU's ond School of Business students will develop busiplans ness and proposals, then begin their own entrepreneurial start-ups, with all profits targeted for Water for Haiti.

It's a response to a humanitarian disaster that reaches across Alfred University departments and programs and even into the Alfred village community, where the Union University Church is collecting donations for Haiti from its members. As grave as the situation is in Haiti, the level of excitement at AU is rising as the response takes shape.

"We're raising money by raising the temperature," says Coral Lambert, professor of Sculpture at Alfred University and director of the National Casting Centre Foundry.

NOTES from the BOX OF BOOKS

BOX -BOKS ·

By MELANIE MILLER Box of Books Library Director This week concluded our Mission: Mars! Program. Students participated in hands-on activities to learn about the Red Planet. Mission: Mars! was a program modeled from the Lunar and Planetary Institute which trains librarians, museum staff and other educators how to implement STEM related space program for children.

The Lunar and Planetary Institute believes that libraries have

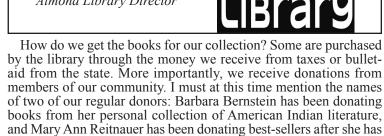

CLOSE TO HOME.

"After three years of pain, an x-ray and a consultation with Dr. Axtell convinced me, I needed a hip replacement. As soon as I woke up after surgery, I knew I had done the right thing. The ache was gone and things immediately started feeling better - I was up and moving the next day. Going to Jones Memorial and Dr. Axtell was the best thing I could have done; from surgical staff, to the nurses and physical therapists, everone was wonderful!"

> Bill McDonnell, Bolivar Total Hip Replacement, 2016

A consultation with Dr. Paul Axtell will provide you with an opportunity to explore non-surgical interventions including physical therapy and joint injections. If surgery is the solution, Dr. Axtell and his team will provide you with pre-operative information and education, work with you to assess your needs during and after surgery, and assist in arranging for services after you return home and during the recovery period.

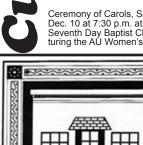

read them. I want to thank both of them for thinking about us! Perhaps you have been wondering how to find out what is going on at your library, or the other local libraries? STLS has been working on a master online calendar for all of the libraries in the system. It will soon be linked with the Almond Library website, but if you wish to view it now, you can go to the STLS website and click on the calendar link. When you are on the calendar page, you can choose to look at the events at all of the libraries, select just one library, or select the type of activity you wish to view, such as "Story time'

We are having a Halloween party here in the library on October 29th from 11-2. Everyone is invited to wear their costumes -- there will be a prize for the best one! The winner of the best-decorated house in Almond will be announced during the party. Contact the library if you live away from the main drag, and you wish your house to be entered. We will have snacks, games and crafts during the party.

Election Day is nearly here! Regardless of who you support, LECT to have soup and sandwiches at our annual soup luncheon and basket auction from 11-6 on Tuesday, Nov. 8th. The winner of the quilt raffle will also be selected during the event. It is not too late to purchase tickets! Come by the library and buy 1 for $1 or 6 for $5. Are you interested in becoming more involved with your library and the Almond Community? Join the 20th Century Club! Every month we have a different activity, whether it is a speaker, a craft, or just food to share. Newcomers are welcome, and the yearly dues are just $10! Feel free to contact the library with any questions you might have about our upcoming programs or anything else, and don't forget to check our website and our facebook page for the most up-to-date information: www.almondlibrary.org. Coming up at the Almond 20th Century Club Library:

a great opportunity to encourage space science in children because libraries foster lifelong learning, family engagement and community partnerships. When asked "What did you learn about Mars during the Mission: Mars! one participant Program?" stated, "Mars is way more than a red rock in space." To see photos from this program you can visit our Facebook Page or our website at www.alfredboxofbookslibrary.org

Just a reminder that at 4 p.m. today (Thursday Oct. 27) we are holding Tail Waggin' Tutors, a program of Therapy Dogs International. This program allows children to practice reading skills with trained therapy dogs.

Teen Advisory Board will meet on Sunday, October 30 from 1-2 pm. This is a way for teens to give us ideas for future programs and materials they'd like.

Cheddar Herb and Garlic Biscuits

I am currently doing a ketogenic and I feel amazing! I have been in the kitchen experimenting with keto recipes; grain free, sugar free and high fat foods that are great for your body! Comfort foods have been my target as the days cool off and there is nothing more hearty than a cheesy and buttery biscuit served with a side of soup! Check out this recipe. It is easy, delicious and healthy for your body and mind.

DIY Cheddar Herb and Garlic Biscuits (Grain Free)

- 1/2 c coconut flour
- 1/2 c chedder cheese
- 1/4 c parmigiana cheese
- 2 T. Italian seasoning
- 4 T. lard, coconut oil, or butter (melted) 2 eggs

Preheat oven to 350. Thoroughly mix ingredients together and drop on a baking sheet with parchment paper. Bake for 15mins and serve warm! Enjoy.

The monthly magazine features stunning 2D and 3D digital art accompanying articles that provide a behind the scenes look at digital artists' creative processes.

The September 2016 issue of Digital Art Live includes two pieces of digital art created by von Stackelberg. They are creating photorealistic and near-photorealistic images of human characters. Mr. von Stackelberg used three dimensional computer modeling software and has adapted traditional photographic techniques to create the images.

In November, von Stackelberg in partnership with Digital Art Live will present a 90 minute webinar on the use of camera and image composition techniques for creating digital artwork with 3D graphics software.

This digital artwork is part of ongoing work von Stackelberg is doing in transmedia storytelling – the use of multiple forms of media to tell one or more related stories. Over the past five years, his recited in the emerging field of transmedia storytelling and worldbuilding - the creation of fictional worlds within which novels, films, and other types of stories are set.

He is a member of the World Building Institute at the University of Southern California's School of Cinematic Arts. In addition to his digital artwork, von Stackelberg has worked as an award-winning investigative reporter, photojournalist, and professional futurist.

PAMELA LAVIN BERNSTEIN LECTURE AT AU Girls on the Run founder to speak here

ALFRED-Molly Barker, the founder of Girls on the Run and a four-time Hawaii Ironman triathlete, will deliver the 2016 Pamela Lavin Bernstein Women of Influence lecture on Nov. 3 at 6:30pm in Nevins Theater. The event is free and open to the public.

Girls on the Run, which Barker founded in 1996 in Charlotte, NC, integrates running into a larger set of activities that encourage young women to be, in the organization's own words, 'joyful, healthy and confident.' Girls on the Run organizations are located in more than 210 cities across the U.S. and Canada, with one branch operating in the Alfred-Almond Central School District.

In founding Girls on the Run, Barker coined the phrase "The Girl Box," which describes limitations adolescent girls place on themselves using cultural and societal stereotypes that limit their choices and opportunities. Girls on the Run pushes back by encouraging young women to recognize the limiting pressures that surround them, and even their acquiescence to those pressures from Within.

Barker has been featured in

She will be the third Women of Influence speaker, since the annual address was initiated thanks to the generosity of Pamela Lavin Bernstein. For more information, email leadership@alfred.edu or call (607) 871-2971.

Compiled By DAVID L. SNYDER Alfred Sun Editor and Publisher 50 Years Ago, October 27, 1966

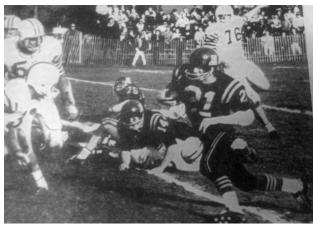

Speaking to an audience of some 100 persons Tuesday night in Howell Hall, Rep. Charles E. Goodell, Republican candidate for re-election from the 38th District, said "education is the engine of social progress." Mr. Goodell was speaking in Alfred under sponsorship of the Alfred University Faculty Wive's Club.

Awarding of a $10,000 Federal grant for the development of additional facilities on the Almond Dam Recreation Area in Steuben County, was announced today by the Northeast Regional Director of the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, Rolland B. Handley. The area has been developed on land leased from the U.S. Corps of Engineers in 1965 for a period of 25 years. The lease is held by the Steuben County Board of Supervisors. According to Handley, since there is no state park in the area, this project is an essential element in the development of the recreational resources in the Allegany-Steuben area. Plans call for additions to the water and electrical systems, permanent sanitary facilities and apparatus. Existing facilities include a 125 acre flood control impoundment, bathing beach, bathhouse, tent and trailer campsites, picnic areas, parking areas and interious roads.

Alfred's Bird Count—Species observed during the past week are as follows: common loon, pied-billed grebe, Canada goose, killdeer, ring-necked gull, screech owl, flicker, hairy woodpecker, downy woodpecker, blue jay, crow, black-capped chickadee, white-breasted nuthatch, winter wren, catbird, robin, wood thrush, golden-crowned kinglet, ruby-crowned kinglet, starling, myrtle warbler, house sparrow, meadowlark, red-winged blackbird, cardinal, purple finch, goldfinch, towhee, junco, field sparrow, white-crowned sparrow, whitethroated sparrow, and song sparrow.

25 Years Ago, October 24, 1991 Alfred State College of Technology has been awarded a $400,000 federal grant to improve the effectiveness of emergency medical services in rural areas nationwide. Using FARMEDIC Training, Inc. training methods, faculty from a consortium of rescue providers, including Alfred State, will train 200 selected instructors in proper rural emergency response. They in turn will train at least 11,000 local emergency responders across the United States during the next five years.

Members of Kappa Sigma Fraternity of Alfred University recently completed the demolition of the old addition on the back of The Bicycle Man building in Alfred Station as a community service project. Nineteen members of the Alfred University fraternity spent the day Saturday, Oct. 5 dismantling the 12' x 24' room and hauling away debris. "The guys were great," exclaimed Peter Stull, owner of the Bicycle Man. "They were very careful not to damage the remaining structure. It would have taken me a week to do that job myself." The demolition was done in preparation for a new addition to be erected in two stages. The first adds a 275 square foot attic to the area covered by the demolished room. The second stage will add 600 square feet of new work space and 550 square feet of new attic storage. Members of Hornell Gospel Tabernacle, the church Stull attends, and of Lighthouse Christian Fellowship in Alfred raised the first stage Saturday, Oct. 12 and Monday, Oct. 14. "It is neat the way the Lord has provided for me to build this addition," said Stull. "My business has tripled since 1986 so I really need the space. This spring it looked like I would need to borrow to pay for it, but when I was refused a bank loan (in part because he "gave too much to the church too often"), I started a savings account and now don't need the loan. "I'm glad Jesus isn't limited by the recession," Stull said. The building, an 1849 school house, has been the home of The Bicycle Man shop since 1979. It was used as a school until the early 1900s. There is still graffiti on the walls from the students. A series of small businesses including a pool hall occupied it until about 1935 when Clyde Willard purchased it for a private garage. It was Clyde who built the addition on the back as a workshop...

There was a large turnout for School Night for Scouting at Alfred-Almond Central School...The Tiger Cubs that registered are Christopher Berry, Michael Bitting, Ben Cerio, Christoper Cline, Patrick Cregan, Cole Fertitta, Daniel Gillette, Matthew Lester, Chris McElhenny, Eric Perry, Aaron Rawady, Christopher Shea, Philip Snyder, Justin Henry, Eric Jordan and Adam Slater. Two new Wolf Dens were formed. Glen Smith is the leader of a group that is meeting in Almond at the library on Tuesday evenings. The boys in his group are Taylor Brown, Luke Harvey, Jeffrey Aguglia, Ryan Collson and Glen Smith. The other group has Gordon Shea for a leader. They meet at the Methodist Center in Alfred on Tuesday evenings. The boys in that group are Robert Greil, Ryan McElhenny, Jeffery Meteer, Peter Ostrower, Sawyer Van Horn, and Lukas Shea. Four boys joined a Bear Den. They are Eli Peterson, Gary Briggs, Brent

The Alfred University Welcome Center at the Fasano House is a design winner. Project architects Chambers, Murphy & Burge Restoration Architects, Ltd., Akron, also will receive a 2006 Design Award from the American Institute of Architects (AIA), Akron (Ohio) Chapter, during an awards ceremony Nov. 8 at the Sheraton Suites, Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. Elizabeth Corbin Murphy, FAIA, president of Chambers, Murphy & Burge, was the principal architect for the endeavor which transformed the former Delta Sigma Phi fraternity house on the corner of Main and Pine streets, Alfred, into a showcase welcome/visitor center and professional offices for Alfred University's fund-raising and alumni professionals. Murphy's involvement with the welcome center began with family connections. Robert Corbin (AU class of 1956), Murphy's father, was not a member of Delta Sig but who often ate dinner there before going to Davis Gym for basketball practice. He read about the proposed renovation of the former fraternity and volunteered the services of his daughter. Murphy is not just an architect, but an award-winning restoration architect whose firm is recognized for its work on such national treasures as The Octagon House in Washington, DC; Thomas Jefferson's Poplar Forest; Frank Lloyd Wright's Dana Thomas House; and Bertram Goodhue's Nebraska State Capitol.

It was "Chili" at the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church this past Sunday, Oct. 22 as the church helf its First Annual Chili Cook-Off. There were 11 different chilies entered from ten people, two of which were white chilies...The winners were: 1st Place, winning a $50 gift certificate to the Old West Food Company in Alfred, were Angie and Tim Palmiter. 2nd Place, winning a new 6-quart crock pot, were Corey and Susie Sanborn. 3rd Place, winning a hot sauce/chili making gift basket, were Reid and Phyllis Mattison. The hottest chili award was given to Curtis Palmiter, and his wife Dawn was given the award for the most unique chili for her no meat, no heat, with pineapple chili...

Harold Jacob Stewart, 80, of Webbs Crossing Road, Hornell, formerly of Hornell Street, died Monday evening, Oct. 16, 2006 at Roswell Park Cancer Institute in Buffalo, following a long illness. A native and life resident of Hornell, he was born July 9, 1926, and was the son of Harold and Louise (Schwartz) Stewart. Harold was a graduate of Hornell High School (Class of 1944). He was employed for several years at the former Hornell Brewery and later worked at Foster Wheeler Corporation in Dansville. In 1960, he established Stewart's Esso Service Station which later became Stewart's Exxon Service Station located in North Hornell. In 1975, he moved the business to Seneca Street in Hornell and the business became Stewart's Sunoco. He retired in 1990..

Recently, Bill Hart of Angelica and the owner of Hart's Jewelry in Wellsville spoke to the Almond Historical Society on Allegany County's own historical figure, Moses VanCampen. Bill's interest in the life and times of Moses VanCampen's began when he purchased the VanCampen home in 2001. Touted as one of the oldest homes in Allegany County along with the Van Wickle & Belvidere Mansions, it was built with clay dug from the hillside. It was remodeled in 1870 and "Victorianized" with stained glass and gingerbread. Many families have tread the halls of the historic structure and it has gone through many changes, including modernizations such as running water and electricity as well as restoration...

The Saxon defense didn't allow a point and forced four turnovers, leading the Alfred University football team (6-1, 3-1 Empire 8) to a 24-7 victory at Husson College Saturday afternoon. The Saxons led 14-0 at the half after junior quarterback Paul Keeley (Caledonia-Mumford) tossed a pair of short TD passes (one in the first quarter, another in the second) to freshman wide receiver Jared Manzer (Johnson City). The Saxons held the host team to nine first downs and 117 yards of offense, including only 11 on the ground. Husson (4-4) got its lone score on an interception return midway through the third quarter to make it 14-7. AU scored the last 10 points on a fourth-quarter 47-yard touchdown pass from Kelley to freshman wideout Saucobie Riley (Rochester/ Marshall) and a 38-yard field goal from junior placekicker Chris Reynolds (Pittsford-Sutherland)

Putting last Saturday's disappointing 31-8 loss to Susquehanna behind them, the Alfred Saxon football team will host the Redmen of Ripon College (WI) this Saturday, Oct. 26 on Merrill Field. The game, which is slated kickoff at 1 p.m., is the first between the two schools. The Saxons, 4-2, will attempt to rebound from the loss to the Crusaders, who won their sixth grame of the year without a loss. The Redmen, 5-2, are looking for their third straight victory after posting wins over Lake Forest (24-23) and St. Norbert (15-6) the past two

Matthew struck Haiti in early October, the effects on Haitians' livestock were devastating, causing a major blow to an important aspect of the residents' livelihood. Looking to help with this problem are two groups of Alfred State veterinary technology students who will be traveling to the country in January and May.

According to Associate Professor of Agriculture and Veteri-

ALFRED–When Hurricane nary Technology Doug Pierson, the students will travel to Les Cayes, where they will put their skills to use caring for residents' animals by participating in mobile clinics and coordinating with the local veterinary agent.

"We also have a truck that we load up with vet supplies and take out to farmers," said Pier-son, who, along with his wife, Debbie, will be accompanying the students to Haiti. "The farmers just bring their animals to us and we take care of whatever need they have."

Speaking to the importance of livestock to residents in Haiti, he said, "A Haitian family wants to have livestock because if they have a need that comes up somebody gets sick and they need to pay a hospital bill, or they have to pay school tuition – they want to have an animal to sell so they can generate the money they need. Animals are almost like a banking system. The typical poor Haitian family survives on bartering and on the livestock they are able to maintain.'

The vet tech students leaving Alfred for Haiti on Jan. 12 and returning Jan. 20 will be Dominique Battaglia, of Baldwinsville; Santina Blair, of Utica; Lynnsie Bennett, of Victor; and Morgan Childs, of Scio. Those departing for Haiti May 14 and returning May 22 will be Megan DiMartino, of Cuba; Rachael Schweiger, of Barton; Caitlyn Roof, of Palmyra; and Alison Sell, of Hanover, PA.

The Piersons' connection to Haiti goes back more than 15 years, as they had lived near Les Cayes from 2000 to 2003 because of Doug's involvement with the Christian Veterinarian Mission. Since 2010, the Piersons have been taking groups of Alfred State students to Haiti twice a year. Initially, the trips centered on reconstruction and involved building trades students, but in recent years, the focus has shifted more toward caring for livestock.

"In addition to having compassion and a heart to want to help, it's really nice if you bring a skill set so you can be more than a gofer," Doug said, noting how impressed he has been with Alfred State students who have traveled to Haiti in the past. "We're kind of uniquely positioned as a college of technology to bring in students with really high skill sets.'

Debbie said she hoped that when Hurricane Matthew hit, all 104 students who she and Doug have taken to Haiti over the years stopped and reflected on the past trips.

It brings about an awareness of a developing country that maybe they haven't had in the past," she said. "I love going back to Haiti. Every time we go, I'm excited about going, but it's even more exciting being able to see it through the eyes of the students who have never been there. I don't think we've ever taken students who haven't wanted to stay longer than a week because there's so much more to do and they want to help."

THE GLORY OF AMERICA Thursday, October 27

On this day in 1858 was born Theodore Roosevelt, 26th President of the United States. This is what he wrote of the 16th President:

"If ever there lived a President who, during his term of service, needed all the consolation and strength that he could draw from the Unseen Power above him, it was President Lincoln-sad, patient, mighty Lincoln, who worked and suffered for the people and, when he had lived for them at good end, gave up his life. If there ever was a man who practically applied what was taught in our churches, it was Abraham Lincoln."

Kids of all ages invited to help in UNICEF drive

ALFRED-All children, youth, and adults in the Alfred/Alfred Station area are invited to join in this year's UNICEF Drive starting at 2 pm Sunday, Oct. 30. Participants will depart from the Union University Church Center on the corner of Main and Church Streets in Alfred. Orange UNICEF collection boxes will be provided and refreshments will be served upon completion of the event at about 4 p.m

Please support our Trick-or-Treaters for UNICEF when they come to your door! Or donate your spare change in one of the collection boxes that are already available in many businesses in the Village of Alfred.

Community members who are not at home at the time of the drive may make contributions by check made payable to U.S. Fund for UNICEF in care of the Union University Church, 29 N. Main St., Alfred, N.Y. 14802.

For more than 60 years, American kids, schools, parents, and partner organization involved in Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF have raised millions of dollars for UNICEF's lifesaving programs worldwide. As one of the longest running youth volunteer initiatives in America, Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF is an excellent way to inspire our young people to learn the benefits of giving to those in need.

WELLSVILLE—The Allegany County Area Foundation recently awarded a $700 grant to the David A. Howe Public Library. Keturah Cappadonia, Library Head of Children's Services, submitted the grant application to help with the purchase of eight chairs to place at their public computer workstations in their Adult Reading Rooms in the main area of the library.

The immediate beneficiaries of the new chairs will be those who use the public computers at the David A. Howe Public Library on a daily basis. In 2015, the library was visited 54,235 times by members of the public. The library's public computer stations were used a total of 15,273 times in 2015.

The number of users of their public computer workstations has risen in the past two years and their public computers see steady traffic from the time the library opens in the morning until the library closes in the evening. Even with the popularity of smart phones and tablets, the library's computer workstations remain popular. People use them for job seeking, filing taxes, recreational email and gaming, research, filling out and submitting forms, and printing materials.

The David A. Howe Public Library, which is the largest in Allegany County and open the most hours of any public library in the county, provides a vital service in providing free internet access and free public computer access to individuals from across Allegany County. The library is located directly on the bus routes of the Access Allegany transit line, which allows many low-income Allegany County residents to get to our library and use our services, including our computers, on a daily basis.

Joel Fox joins Jones Memorial team

WELLSVILLE–Jones Memorial Hospital is pleased to welcome Joel Fox to the JMH team as the Vice President of Strategic Planning and Practice Management.

Mr. Fox comes to JMH from Borg & Ide Imaging in Rochester, where he served as the Chief Operating Officer, working extensively in practice management and strategic planning. "We are excited to have someone with Joel's experience and background on the Admin team," said Eva Benedict, CEO at Jones.

In his new position as a member of the JMH administrative team, Mr. Fox will oversee primary care and specialty practices, as well as contributing to the overall strategic planning for the hospital. A graduate of both Rochester Institute of Technology's School of Applied Industrial Studies and Monroe Community College, Joel went on to earn his Bachelors of Science in Nursing and his Masters of Business Administration at St. John Fisher College in Rochester.

Mr. Fox and his wife Christine live in Scottsville. Joel's hobbies include vintage motorsports, upland game hunting, fly fishing and fine woodworking.

ALFRED UNIVERSITY SPORTS ROUNDUP run over Hartwick, 61-12; Brockport next (7-0)Saxons

ONEONTA-Coach Bob Rankl's Alfred University football team remained unbeaten, running away to a 61-12 Empire 8 Conference win over host Hartwick College on a cold and rainy Saturday afternoon.

Junior tailback Maleke Fuentes (Olean) ran for a career high 217 yards on 21 carries with two touchdowns as AU, the top running team in the Empire 8 (240 yards per game coming in), piled up 445 yards on the ground. The Saxon defense held Hartwick's high-powered offense to 230 yards, less than half its average entering the game.

With the win, AU moves to 7-0 overall and 5-0 in Empire 8 play and is now ranked 15th in the D3football.com poll and 20th in the AFCA poll.

AU got on the board early. After winning the opening coin toss, AU elected to kick off and Hartwick took over at its own 24.On the Hawks' first play from scrimmage, a bad snap went into the end zone, where Hartwick quarterback Billy Pine was tackled for a safety, giving AU the 2-0 lead 15 seconds into the game.

AU took over on the Hartwick 30 on the ensuing free kick and took five plays to score, with AU senior quarterback Tyler Johnson East Syracuse-Minoa) rushing for a six-yard TD that put Alfred up 9-0 3:04 into the first.

Hartwick responded with a seven-play 65-yard drive that ended with a 40-yard scoring pass from Pine to Koree Reed. The extra point was blocked by junior cornerback Jared Watkins (Buffalo/Cleveland Hill).

AU then scored three TDs and a field goal to take a 33-6 lead at halftime. Two Fuentes touchdown runs in the fourth quarter put the game out of reach.

With reserves on the field, AU went up 54-6 with 8:41 left. After Hartwick turned the ball over on downs at its own 43, the Saxons needed just two runs by junior tailback Sammy Davis

Maleke Fuentes does it again

ALFRED-For the second straight week, Maleke Fuentes (Olean), a junior tailback on the Alfred University football team, has earned weekly honors from the Empire 8 Conference

The conference named Fuentes Offensive Player of the Week for his play in Saturday's 61-12 Empire 8 win at Hartwick College. He ran for a career-high 217 yards on just 21 carries (10.3 yards per carry) with two touchdowns. The 217 rushing yards is the seventh-most in a game in AU program history and led a Saxon ground attack that piled up 445 rushing yards on the day.

ALFRED STATE SPORTS ROUNDUP Football team in home finale Oct. 29

Football: 0-7

The blue & gold had the week off and returns to action for their final home game of the season at 1 p.m. Saturday when they host Kentucky Wesleyan.

Cross Country:

The cross country team had the weekend off but will head to the ACAA Championships hosted by SUNY Canton on Saturday to begin their postseason.

Men's Soccer: 4-11

The Pioneers fell 7-2 at Houghton in their only action of the week. Kory Zimmer (Livonia) scored in the 64th minute after getting a pass from Brian Markel (Arkport) and Tyler Landries (Genesee Valley) scored in the 79th minute after getting a pass from Noah Holmok (Alfred Almond)

Women's Soccer: 7-7, ranked #11 in USCAA Poll

The Lady Pioneers split a pair of games this week. They fell 1-0 in a hard fought battle at Houghton and defeated Villa Maria 12-0.

Allison Danielak (Brockport) made six saves in the loss at Houghton.

Nine different Pioneers found the back of the net in the victory over Villa Maria. Kylie Newman (Waverly) led the way with three goals and an assist while Brooke Geibel (Arkport) scored once and passed out three assists. Michayla Salatel (Geneseo) had a goal and two assists, Nittaya-back of the net twice, and Melissa Mineti (Livonia) had a goal and an assist.

Swimming: Men 1-0, Women: 2-0

The swimming team opened up their 2016-17 season with a perfect weekend. The women's team defeated Franciscan 114-113 and Penn State Altoona 117-92 while the men's team won 110-92 vs. Penn State Altoona.

Rebecca Stevens (Wellsville) won the five dive competition with a score of 169.8 and the six dive with a score of 224.9 for a total of 394.72. Kaileigh Lehman (Lowville) won two individual events. She won the 50 free (27.60) and the 100 free (1:01.33) Alley Sell (Hanover, PA) won the 100 breast (1:14.68) and set a school record in the 200 free (2:04). Elizabeth Drake (Lansing) won the 1,000 free in school record time (12:51). The 200 free relay team of Lehman, Drake, Myriah Perry (Canisteo Greenwood), and Sell set a school record in 1:53.07.

Versus PS Altoona, Perry, Lehman and Sell were all double individual event winners.

The women's 200 medley relay team of Megan Hendershot (Brockport), Josev Brewer (Letchworth), Camryn Elliott (Way-Co), and Rachel Caltagirone (Tonawanda) won in 2:11.41 while the 200 free relay team of Lehman, Elizabeth Drake (Lansing), Perry, and Sell and Tim Olin (Perry) were double individual event winners on the men's side. Cutler won the 1,000 free (11:28.94) and the 500 free (5:32.30) while Olin won the 200 free (1:57.73) and the 100 back (59.91). The men's 200 freestyle relay team of Olin, Mason Sparks (Royalton-Hartland), Nathan Ciciera (Lake Shore), and Kyle Sporysz (Cuba Rushford) won in 1:35.37. Volleyball: 21-4, ranked #3 in

USCAA Poll

The Lady Pioneers won three of their five matches this week. They defeated Penn College 3-0 on Wednesday and then split on both days of the Wilkes Tournament over the weekend, lost 3-2 to Keystone and defeated CCNY 3-0 on Friday and lost 3-2 to Moravian and defeated Wilkes 3-1 on Saturday.

Janae Hamilton (Ellicottville) led the team with 60 kills (.449 hitting percentage) and 14 blocks. Bryanna Godfrey (Tioga) had 59 kills, 47, digs, and 13 aces. Madison Szpaicher (Ellicottville) passed out 170 assists and collected 81 digs, Madison Webster (Corning) had 69 digs, and Jessica Padley (Sweet Home) chipped in 34 kills and 36 digs.

The blue & gold hit .240 for the week. The team also collected 54 service aces and 27.5 blocks. The Lady Pioneers also eclipsed the 20 win mark for the (Union-Endicott) to find the end zone. The first, a 41-yarder, put the ball at the Hawk 2-yard line, and Davis plowed in for the TD on his next carry.

A 30-yard Pine-to-Reed TD pass capped a nine-play 65-yard Hawk drive. A two-point conversion attempt failed as a pass was intercepted in the end zone and AU led 54-12 with 5:28 re-maining. AU recovered the ensuing on-side kick at the Saxons' 48-yard line. After the teams exchanged punts, AU took over at the Hartwick 37 with 1:39 left and on the Saxons' first play of the drive, frosh tailback Aaron Griffin (East Elmhurst/Holy Cross) scored on a 37-yard run, his first collegiate touchdown.

AU had 534 yards of offense and the Saxons' 445 yards rushing were just 37 yards off the school single-game record of 482 set by the 1990 team against Hobart. Fuentes' 217 yards on the ground, which followed last weekend's 155-yard effort, ranks as the seventh-most in a single game at AU. Johnson ran for 64 yards and three TDs on 10 carries and senior tailback Casey Bright (Pulaski) 78 on 13 runs.

Johnson completed seven of 11 passes for 89 yards and a TD, while Buisch caught four passes for 55 yards and a TD.

AU junior linebacker A.J. Li-Cata (Lake View/Frontier) had a team-high six tackles (one for loss, one sack) and senior end Charles Branwell (Brooklyn/ Abraham Lincoln) had five $(2^{1/2})$ for loss, 1 1/2 sacks). Junior linebacker Shaquille Muscadin (Monsey/Ramapo) had four tackles (one for loss); frosh end Josh Rivers (Medford/Longwood) had three stops (1 $\frac{1}{2}$ for loss, half-sack); and Sanders had three tackles and an interception.

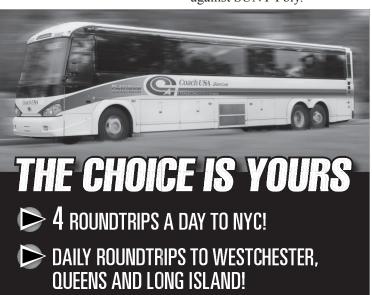

AU (7-0, 5-0 E8) on Saturday, Oct. 29 hosts Brockport (5-2, 4-1 E8) in a key E8 matchup. Kickoff is 1 p.m.

V-ball team drops E8 matches The AU women's volleyball team ended its Empire 8 schedule Saturday evening in the Galanis Family Arena, falling to Stevens and St. John Fisher.

The Saxons (11-16, 3-5 Empire 8) managed to fight back after a first set 21-25 defeat to Fisher with a 25-20 second set win, but were unable to close out the third and fourth sets, falling 23-25 and 22-25. AU dropped a 3-0 decision to Stevens, being ousted 16-25, 12-25 and 21-25. Stevens, like Ithaca College earlier in the season, was receiving votes for national rankings prior to Saturday's match.

Junior captain Heather D'Andrea (Erie, PA/Mercyhurst Prep) led the Saxons in the late game, having played back-to-back matches, with 17 kills off of 48 total attacks for a match-high .354 hitting percentage. She also had one ace for a total of 18.0 points. D'Andrea also got under 17 attacks for digs and added one assist.

AU hosts a tri-match on Saturday, Oct. 29 at 11 a.m. against Oswego State and 3:30 pm against SUNY Poly.

HITS AND MISSES:

The Alfred University Saxons football program (7-0) is rolling along as they remain undefeated after crushing the Hartwick Hawks in Oneonta, 61-12. Coach Rankl's troops are three wins away from a perfect overall slate on the season, a (8-0) conference mark and an automatic berth in the NCAA tournament. The Saxons host The College at Brockport this Saturday at Merrill Field, travel to Utica the following Saturday to take on the Pioneers and then host SJ Fisher on November 12th at Yunevich Stadium. Three good teams on the schedule to complete the 2016 regular season campaign. The Golden Eagles are (5-2) on the year and nipped Cortland last Satur-day, 21-19. Utica is (6-2) and they will be off this week after beating Buffalo State. SJ Fisher (6-1) was off this week, after dropping a game at Utica the week prior, and they will host the Ithaca Bombers this Saturday. If the Cardinals get by Ithaca, nothing certain there, they should beat Hartwick and then head to Alfred with the conference title potentially on the line.

In NCAA Division III football action here and there it was: Ithaca blanking Morrisville, Hobart easing by Springfield late, Union blasting a semi-hapless UR squad, St. Lawrence continuing with an unblemished mark as they blanked the Merchant Marine while only scoring 8-points, WPI beat RPI, Coach Murray's Hamilton team fell to Colby and Williams lost to Tufts. Williams is at Hamilton this Saturday. Also, Mount Union ran it up against Wilmington, 71-7 and John Carroll from the same conference beat Capital, 56-0. Yikes on both games! Those two will meet at the end of the year in the Ohio Athletic Conference finale. Believe both were undefeated during this game last season but John Carroll (A-A) lost their season opener this year to a strong UW-Oshkosh program. John Carroll plays their home games in Don Shula Stadium!

In the latest D3football.com rankings, Alfred has moved into the 15th slot, with St. Lawrence one spot behind them. Fisher is in at #24 and Hobart in the "receiving votes" category. The Purple Raiders of Mount Union are (of course) #1 with UW-Whitewater at #2 as they might be headed for their annual collision in the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl. UW-Oshkosh is #5 and UW-Platteville is #11. Ouite the conference.

The Alfred-Almond boys soccer team passed their first sectional test as they blanked league foe, J-T by a 3-0 tally. Believe the game was played at Alfred State College. The Eagles are now in the "D1" semi-finals as they took on Mount Morris at Hornell on Tuesday past. The other semi-final contest was #1 Naples versus the Fillmore Eagles. Seems like Fillmore is always in the semi-finals in boys sectional soccer action. The winners will meet for the sectional title ... guessing here ... on Saturday. Could be in Hornell again. The A-A girls dropped their opening sectional game to Genesee Valley, 2-1. Wheatland-Chili continues to roll over opponents in the "D1" bracket as they blasted Naples, 5-0 and are 16-1 on the year. Defending champs.

Coach Anne Gaisser Holmok's (A-A) women's soccer team is at 7-7 on the year after losing a tough, 1-0 contest to Houghton and then drilling Villa Maria (again) ... 12-0. Two meetings and the Pioneers win both, 12-0. What are the odds of that? Alfred State was at Elmira this week to conclude regular season action and then they'll head to Virginia Beach in November for the USCAA Championships. Brother Scott O. Lorow said he'll take in some of the action in his "backyard!"

Coach Nate Wiley's women's soccer team at SUNY Geneseo (8-2-5) grabbed second-place in the SUNYAC's and a first-round bye in the upcoming playoffs. They will face the Oneonta-Brockport winner on November 2nd. Long layoff! Team allowed five-goals all season.

Coach Patrick O'Driscoll's women's soccer team at PS-Behrend is getting hot at the right time of the year as his squad has won 10-of-11 after a 3-3 "start" to the year and they played Medaille of Buffalo on Tuesday past before heading into AMCC action. Coach Gene "Sky" Doorley (A-A) and his Alfred State college women's volleyball program have posted a gaudy 21-4 mark to date after competing in the recent Wilkes College tournament. The Pioneers have matches left against Houghton and Cazenovia before

mond boys varsity soccer team advanced to the Section V Class D1 finals with a 4-0 win over Mount Morris Tuesday night at Maple City Park in Hornell

The #2 seed Eagles will face the #1 seed Naples at 7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 28 at the Cohocton Sports Complex. Mount Morris advanced to the finals Tuesday night by defeating Fillmore, 4-2.

The Big Green of Naples, the #1 seed in the tournament, sports a 17-0-1 record, while A-A is 15-1-2. Among common opponents, Naples beat Campbell-Savona 3-0 and J-T 2-1. A-A playing in a couple of national tournaments. They too will be in Virginia Beach in November for USCAA play.

Ohio State loses to Penn State in big-time college football? Wow. One loss last year (Michigan State) kept the Buckeyes out of the "Final Four." Again this year? Would say no. Think they'll beat Michigan at the end of the year and then win he Big Ten title. The Buckeyes are not in my group of four right now, again, think they will be. Would go with Alabama, Clemson, Washington and Louisville right now. The Cardinals of Louisville will probably be on the outside looking in after a tough loss to Clemson earlier ... at Clemson! Shouldn't, but will hurt them as their overall schedule isn't that great. Not sure it really matters who is there the way Alabama is playing at the moment. They just beat the #9 Vols of Tennessee and the #6 Texas A&M Aggies, one with ease and the other handily in the second half.

The LA Sparks knocked off the Minnesota Lynx in game five of the WNBA finals to win the championship ... but not without controversy over the shot clock. The Lynx, with Maya Moore leading the way, were shooting for a fourth championship in six years. Candace Parker of LA was named playoff MVP. Minnesota had three different MVP's in their three title years.

Former Canisteo resident Mark Andrews took fifth-place in the recent Scare Brain Cancer Away 5K in the Rochester area with a time of 16:03. Krista Downey Mitchell was ninth in the women's portion of the race.

Huge Ohio State Buckeye fans Michael-Dawn-Abigail Ross of Clinton, OH ran in a 4-Mile race in Columbus with the finish line in Buckeye Stadium! Will see this crew the Saturday after Thanksgiving when Lauren-Jason-I stop by on the way home from Kentucky.

A few NYS vanity plates spotted: 1 US SLR, 41 ANTS with a LA Dodgers plate holder and have no idea what it meant! Also: TEA TIME ... 3L and from Brian Cannon as he and son Matthew in Carlisle (Pa.) ... PUN1$HR on North Carolina plates. The Cannon's (Andover) took in the Carlisle Army War College & Museum while there but don't think they ran into former Webster resident, Johnny 'Spock" Arena!

World Series ... the Chicago Cubs should win

Completes marathon Laurie Meacham Vassolo completed the Long Beach Marathon in Long Beach, California on Sunday, October 9, 2016. It was a warm October day in the city of Long Beach. Laurie earned an 11th place in the Masters Marathon, comprised of all female runners age 40 and up in a field of 367 women. She also placed 4th in her age division with a time of three hours, thirty eight minutes and one second, besting her award-winning time of the previous year by 19 seconds! A Pioneer in the pros Playing in his 42nd game of his five-year NFL career, Rod Streater made his first professional trip to Buffalo recently as a member of the San Francisco 49ers. Playing at Alfred State in 2008 and 2009, he caught 24 passes for 539 yards and six scores in 2009 after playing safety and collecting 20 tackles and two interceptions in 2008. He transferred to Temple and was signed as an undrafted free agent by the Oakland Raiders following the 2012 NFL draft.

HORNELL—The Alfred-Al- beat C-S 4-0 and 3-0 and J-T 3-0, 1-1 tie and 3-0.

A-A 4, Mt. Morris 0

On Tuesday night, A-A scored early and often as Jake Johnston, who finished with a hat trick, opened the scoring just seven minutes into the game, with Cory Olix assisting. Johnston scored again ten minutes later, taking a Duncan Allen pass and finding the net. Olix scored three minutes later, assisted by Johnston as A-A led 3-0 at the half.

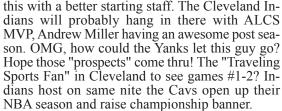

Johnston completed the hat trick with another goal midway through the second half with Olix again assisting Dylan Griffin earned the shut out in the nets for A-A, turning away five shots.

The Eagles outshot the Blue Devils, 20 to 5 and had 6 corner kicks to their opponents' 3.

A-A 3, Jasper-Troupsburg 0 The Eagles advanced to the semi-finals with a 3-0 win over Steuben County League rival J-T on Friday, Oct. 21 on the Eagle pitch.

Čory Olix, Brady Holmok and Evan Wood scored the goals with Johnston assisting on the first two. A-A goalkeeper Dylan Griffith made two saves in the A-A net to earn another shutout.

NFL ... the New England Patriots and who? Tom Brady & Company in Orchard Park this Sunday as they take on the Bills, smarting from a loss to the Dolphins, as Buffalo could be headed for a (4-6) mark here in quick fashion. New England-Seattle-Cincinnati.
