

The Sun at Niagara Falls

Eleanor “Norky” and Mike Mastrobattisto of Burlington, CT were distracted from one of the “Seven Wonders of the World,” Niagara Falls, recently, when they were introduced to The Alfred Sun in a chance encounter with the editor, publisher and janitor of this little hometown newspaper. They must have been impressed, they kept their copy.

ALFRED UNIVERSITY

Mark Zupan takes the reins of Alfred University

ALFRED—Twenty weeks ago at a campus-wide meeting on the Alfred University campus, Mark Zupan, former dean of the University of Rochester’s Simon Business School and most recently the director of the Bradley Policy Center, as well as the Olin Professor of Economics and Public Policy at Simon, was announced as the Board of Trustees’ choice to succeed Charles M. Edmondson as the president of the University.

On Friday, July 1, Zupan began his first day as Alfred University’s 14th president, a remarkable number for an institution founded as select school in 1836 and chartered as a university in 1851.

During the intervening 140 days, Zupan has traveled far and wide, from Boston to Boulder, CO, to meet with AU alumni; he’s spent hours on the telephone, talking with trustees, alumni and prospective students; he’s had breakfast with emeriti faculty, and met with groups of students, faculty and staff.

And he’s learned – a lot – about the place he will lead.

“The more of you I have met over the past several months, the more I have been struck by the consistency with which our University transforms students’ lives and thereby betters society,” Zupan said in a memo today to the Alfred University community.

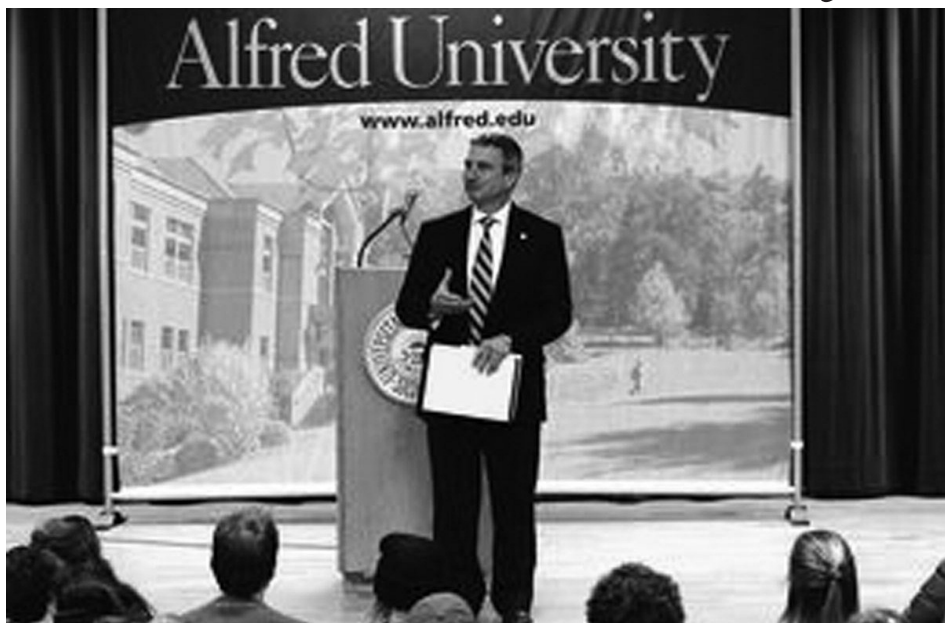

“More than at any other educational institution I have been a part of to date, I have heard from alums and students about how an Alfred faculty or staff member took a personal interest in their development and thereby gave them the confidence to succeed,” he said. “This is a point of distinction of which we can be immensely proud, especially at a time when there are growing questions about the value of higher education.”

Prior to Simon, Zupan was dean and professor of economics at the University of Arizona’s Eller College of Management for seven years. Before that, he was on the faculty of the University of Southern California’s Marshall School of Business, attaining tenure there while also serving as associate dean for master’s degree programs. He was a visiting professor in the Amos Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College in the fall of 1995.

As a member of the USC faculty, Zupan won several awards, including the university-wide Burlington Resources Foundation Faculty Achievement Award for Outstanding Scholarship, and a Golden Apple award for MBA teaching excellence. Over the years, he has served on the editorial boards of such academic journals as Public Choice, Economic Inquiry, and the Journal of Business Economics.

While earning his Ph.D. degree in economics at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), Zupan taught in the economics department at Harvard University, where he earned his B.A. degree in 1981, twice receiving the Allyn Young Teaching Prize from the economics department, and also earning the university-wide Joseph B. Levenson Memorial Teaching Prize.

His fields of specialization include industrial organization, regulation, and political economy. He has published over twenty refereed articles in leading scholarly journals. His commentaries have appeared in media outlets such as the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, Los Angeles Times, Arizona Republic, BusinessWeek.com, Huffington Post, Kiplinger, Financial Times of London, San Francisco Chronicle, and the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle. Zupan is the co-author of two books, “Microeconomic Theory and Applications,” published by John Wiley and Sons and “Microeconomic Cases and Applications,” published by HarperCollins. Later this year, the Cambridge University Press will publish his latest book titled “Inside Job: How Government Insiders Subvert the Public Interest.”

AROUND ALFRED

‘THE RAIL’ REMOVED—An historic landmark of sorts in downtown Alfred, “the rail” that kept pedestrians from falling into the stairwell below the Kampus Kave, was removed recently. It was a long-time loitering place for generations of Alfredians. The Rosebush Block, last year sold by Marc Rawady to Peter Brown of Wellsville, is being renovated to house a new restaurant in the north storefront of the structure. The old stairwell is being replaced by a handicap ramp to facilitate entry. (SUN Photos)

NINTH ANNUAL ‘FROM THE EARTH’ JULY 30

From the Earth the ‘real deal’

By DEBBIE MACCREA
Special to the Alfred Sun
ALFRED—When asked what keeps bringing her back several years running to the event known to locals as “From the Earth,” a woman’s reply was, “Because it’s so REAL.” How right she is.

Participants will experience the “Real Deal” at the Alfred area’s ninth annual “From the Earth” from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, July 30.

A festive day of celebrating the participants’ many and differing connections with and passions for our beloved Earth, the event is NOT a carnival with the usual characteristics of showmanship and play-acting for the public’s entertainment.

This festival is definitely a “reality fest” - the Real Deal - with an emphasis on what we perceive as the best that life can be. Isn’t that what we all strive for? It is filled with presentations and discussions between the site participants and their visiting guests on topics very dear to all of us....sustainability, organic food production, building safe, beautiful and earth-friendly homes, knowledge of and sympathetic cohabitation with local wildlife, personal and unique forms of artistic expression and various ways of living in partnership; rather than competition, with the natural world.

Real indeed! These are the passions that not only sustain our Earth, but sustain us; the very things that sometimes, incidentally, make us our living, but more importantly, make up our LIFE.

We’re happy to be continuing to improve and refresh our annual event, offering returning presenters who have been well-received and knowledgeable on their topics from past years’ events as well as adding new faces and new sites each year.

A fresh idea this year is the addition of the theme “The Tools of our Trades” accompanied by a friendly contest based on that theme. Each participant has been asked to submit a photo or two of their favorite, most useful tools. These photos will be posted on our Facebook page (www.facebook.com/FromtheEarth), and also available to see at each site on the day of the event. The winner of the guessing game, with the most correct tools’ names and uses, will receive a gift basket containing representations from the participants’ “trades.”

So, bring your families and your friends and join us once again as we celebrate our own local version of Earth Day!

DEBBIE MAC CREA shares some “down to earth” information at a previous “From the Earth” event in the backyard of her Waterwells Road home, Alfred. (Photo provided)

Alfred Sun Columnist

Ferne Snyder’s butterscotch brownies

[Editor’s Note: Like most of the recipes she shared with our readers over the past couple of decades, Ellen Shultz’s Sunny Side Up columns are worth repeating.]

Ferne Jacox Snyder was a native Alfredian and lived her whole life here. She raised six children and cooked for Klan Alpine on the weekends. Her interests were gardening, her church, and crocheting; she once crocheted an entire suit for herself.

Ferne got her driver’s license when she was 53 and then delighted in driving lady friends somewhere to dinner. She even drove to Texas by herself. She was beloved by everyone and raised a family of outstanding people who went on to become pillars of the Alfred community.

This recipe was one of Ferne’s tried and true bar cookies, which she baked frequently for visiting grandchildren and to share at the many dish-to-pass meals she enjoyed with family and friends.

Butterscotch Brownies

Melt over low heat: 1/2 c. butter, then stir in until blended: 2 c. light brown sugar.

Cool, then stir in 2 eggs.

Sift together and stir in: 1/2 c. flour, 2 tsp. baking powder, 1 tsp. salt. Then add: 1 tsp. vanilla and 1 c. coarsely chopped walnuts (optional).

After spreading in 13x9 greased pan, Ferne always sprinkled with chocolate chips, much to the grandchildren’s delight.

Bake at 350 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes until when touched lightly with finger only a slight imprint remains. Cut into bars while warm.

Senate proposes cutting SHIPs for Medicare insurance counseling

Letter to the Editor:

Have you ever received Medicare insurance counseling from the Allegany County Office for the Aging? Did you know this valuable program may be eliminated? Recently, the Senate Appropriations Committee proposed to eliminate funding for the program that helps people with Medicare and their families—the State Health Insurance Assistance Programs (SHIPs).

Operating in every state, SHIPs answer questions about Medicare and help people solve problems. The intensive support SHIPs provide to older adults, people with disabilities, and their families and caregivers cannot be replaced by websites, brochures, or call centers. Eliminating SHIPs would leave millions who need support comparing coverage options, appealing denials, applying for financial assistance, and navigating increasingly complex Medicare benefits stranded—with nowhere to turn.

In Allegany County, we offer a class every month to help people understand how Medicare works (What are Parts A, B, C and D? What is a Medigap? What programs can help pay for Medicare costs?, etc.). This class is offered on the third Thursday of the month at 1:30 p.m. at our office at 6085 State Route 19N in Belmont.

Once someone has participated in the training, we then offer one-on-one counseling sessions to help the client decide which Medicare plan would work best for them, based on their prescription medications, health issues, etc. We also help clients in appealing denials and complaints about their insurance plans.

In 2015, we served 1,051 older adults, people with disabilities, and their families and caregivers through this important program.

I urge you to contact Congressman Tom Reed, Senator Charles Schumer, and Senator Kirsten Gillibrand to ask them to not eliminate this important funding and instead increase funding for SHIPs to keep pace with inflation and increasing needs among a growing Medicare population. Most of all let them know how important it is to receive unbiased, personalized Medicare counseling.

FROM THE DESK OF DAVID PULLEN

By DAVID PULLEN
Allegany County Legislator

SOUND FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

The second monthly meeting of the Allegany County Legislature was held on Monday, June 27th, 2016, at 2:00 p.m. Twelve Legislators were present, with three absent. Former Air Force Senior Airman Daniel Fuller of Scio led us in the Pledge of Allegiance. Daniel served from October 1991 until October 1995. For part of that time he served as a Tactical Aircraft Mechanic Crew Chief. In that capacity he was responsible for an F-15 being ready to perform in combat. We owe a great debt to him and his fellow veterans.

During Privilege of the Floor County Treasurer Terri Ross reported that the County's bond rating has just been increased. Both Moody's and Standard & Poors have now upgraded the County's rating. This is important for several reasons. It means that we will be able to borrow at lower interest rates (if we actually borrow from commercial lenders). It also shows that we have made substantial progress and achieved financial stability. All of our short-term capital projects are financed from our fund balance, rather than through bonding. It hasn't been easy, but our fiscal policies have paid off. Now we can look towards economic development to further improve our financial outlook.

The Legislature considered and approved 14 resolutions. Resolution #147-16 appointed Dr. Joseph Felsen to serve on the Office For the Aging Advisory Council. Resolution #148-16 appointed 8 members to serve on the recently formed Allegany County Land Bank Corporation Board of Directors. Resolution #149-16 approved a budget transfer of $950 to cover the cost of bases for no smoking signs. Resolution #150-16 transferred $3 million to fund the capping and permanent closure of the county landfill. Being able to pay for this from our fund balance (instead of through borrowing) represents a significant accomplishment. During my early years on the Legislature there were many dire warnings that paying for closure of the landfill could result in large increases in our tax rate. Sound financial management has enabled us to reduce taxes and still save enough to pay cash for the landfill closure expense.

Resolution #151-16 approved the transfer of $36,961 from a capital account for bridge repair to cover an overage on a bridge capital project on Barber Road in the Town of Rushford. Resolution #152-16 accepted and appropriated an additional $2,892 to supplement $143,989 previously received in 2016 TANF Summer Youth Funding. Resolution #153-16 accepted and appropriated $17,500 in grant funds to purchase equipment for the Tactical/ACLERT Team. Resolution #154-16 approved a grant application by the Office For the Aging for services for older Americans suffering from substance abuse. Resolution #155-16 approved a 2.5% rent increase for the family planning site in Wellsville. Resolution #156-16 approved a multi-jurisdictional agreement between Allegany County and Cattaraugus County for the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act of 2014.

Resolution #157-16 approved an agreement with MJR Partners for the demolition of buildings and clearing of sites on three county-owned properties in the Village of Wellsville at a total cost of $54,300. Resolution #158-16 approved sub-contract agreements for 6 youth programs for a total of $20,444. Resolution #159-16 approved two one-year extensions of an agreement with First Transit, Inc. to deliver public transportation services for the County. The total cost for these services for 2017 will be $855,469, and for 2018 will be $878,994. Over the past several years these services have been provided without any contribution of local taxpayer funds. This represents a major savings for taxpayers. Finally, Resolution #160-16 approved the sale of about 85 tax delinquent properties that had gone through the tax foreclosure process conducted by the County Treasurer.

It goes without saying that our taxes are too high, and that all of us would like to see them reduced. Still, it is significant that during a difficult economic period our County has been able to get on a sound financial footing. We have built a reasonable fund balance, and reduced taxes. More remains to be done, but this is a good start.

Sun Spots

Feeling Blue—But Who Cares

Tell me...how do you pronounce the color "YInMn"? It looks as though it ought to rhyme with "cinnamon". But I'd hate to be committing a faux-pas; For all I know it goes, "YahNàMahNà".

Of its elements, herein is a compendium:
Yttrium and Manganese and Indium.
Though this mixture was concocted accidentally,
It'll very soon enrich the world pigmentally.

So I want to know just how it's said, exactly,
So I know I'll be pronouncing it correctly.
Though I s'pose it's such an awesome shade of blue
That it really doesn't matter if I do.

Raku Extravaganza prelude to Grand Finale

ALFRED—As a prelude to Saturday evening's Gala Finale Concert of the MostArts Festival, all are invited to the "Hair Pin Turn" above Miller Theater on the AU campus for our annual "Raku Extravaganza." Renowned ceramic artist Wayne Higby will be joined by visiting artists, Steve Branfman and Hongwei Lee, and assisted by the Summer School MFA grads.

Participants are invited to select a plate or pot and set free their inner artistry to glaze it and then watch it transform through the raku firing process.

The EisenHearth Pizza Truck will be there, serving their delicious wood fired pizzas. Bring the family to this magic event from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. (weather permitting).

MostArts Grand Finale Gala this Saturday at 7:30pm.

Experience the excitement and thrill as the winners of the "Young Pianist Competition" are announced following Saturday evening's extraordinary concert. Grammy award winning pianist, Angelin Chang takes the stage with the MostArts Festival Orchestra and Conductors, Yuval Zaliouk and Lisa Lantz in the Grand Finale Concert in Miller Theater.

The Festival Orchestra will open with Mozart's "Magic Flute" Overture, followed by the ever-popular Piano Concerto in A minor by Edvard Grieg. The final work closing this year's Festival will be the exciting and beautiful Symphony No. 7 in A major by Ludwig van Beethoven.

This is Ms. Chang's second year with the Festival and she had this to say:

After such a marvelous last year hearing the bright new generation of piano stars, it's an honor and pleasure to help identify and recognize outstanding excellence of young musical artists as well as the incredible support and teaching that makes it possible.

I was delighted to see not only the solid technical feats and incredible artistic depth from the pianists last year, but especially the comradery among the participants. As musicians, even pianists, we are in a community and bloom not in isolation but with mutual support. I believe this is what makes MostArts so special. We all bring our unique qualities together and make it a community that celebrates our individual and collective talents together. Besides being great colleagues, we are dear friends. After my first visit last year, I can't wait to be in Alfred and MostArts again!

Internationally acclaimed pianist Angelin Chang is the first American female pianist awarded the GRAMMY® for Best Instrumental Soloist with Orchestra. She is recognized for her sense of poetry and technical brilliance. An active chamber musician, she performs regularly with the legendary violist Joseph de Pasquale, The de Pasquale String Quartet, and with members of the Philadelphia Orchestra and Cleveland Orchestra.

Dr. Angelin Chang is Professor of Piano and Coordinator of Keyboard Studies at Cleveland State University, where she is also Professor of Law at the Cleveland- Marshall College of Law. This is her debut with the MostArts Festival Orchestra.

Israeli-American conductor, Yuval Zaliouk began his career in London with the Royal Ballet Company, where he was the exclusive conductor for Margot Fonteyn and Rudolph Nureyev in Covent Garden and on European tours. In 1975, he revived Israel's Haifa Symphony Orchestra, and went on to become Music Director of the Toledo Symphony Orchestra. Between 1995- 2001, he was Music Director of the Raanana Symphonette in Israel, an orchestra comprised of Soviet Union ex-patriates.

Maestro Zaliouk has conducted extensively internationally including The Israel Philharmonic, The Bournemouth Symphony, The Royal Liverpool Philharmonic, The Royal Philharmonic, The Tokyo Symphony, The Berlin Symphony, The Stuttgart Radio Orchestra, Helsinki Philharmonic, The Oslo Philharmonic, Madrid National Symphony, Portuguese National Orchestra, and The Moscow Chamber Orchestra.

Not only an internationally known symphony conductor but Maestro Za-liouk is also a gourmet chef and founder of the Almondina cookie company in Maumee, Ohio. A delicious, crispy wafer with the delicate flavor of roasted almonds and the natural sweetness of plump raisins, they are sold in all 50 states and overseas. And now in Alfred, they can be exclusively at "The Festival Shop" on Main Street.

Lisa Lantz is the Artistic Director and Founder of the MostArts Festival. She is the Chair of Performing Arts at Alfred University and Professor of Music and Conductor of the University Symphony Orchestra.

She studied many years with the late great virtuoso violinists, Ruggiero Ricci and Jacob Krachmalnick. For over a decade, she participated in European master classes with internationally renowned violinists Aaron Rosand and Nathan Milstein. Lantz has performed with many regional orchestras in Western New York, and currently performs with The Orchestra of the Southern Finger Lakes.

Do It Yourself Deodorant Stick

Its commonly known that most store bought deodorants contain carcinogens and other things not good for our body. I've experimented with a lot of ways to get around the deodorant debacle. This recipe is the easiest and most effective for our family. It is safe for sensitive skin and young teens. I buy the reusable deodorant containers from Amazon for the convenience. However, you can put this recipe in a covered jar and just swipe on with your fingers in the morning.

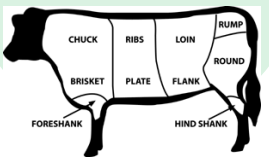

Here's What You Need: (Makes two sticks)

- *1/3 c coconut oil
- *3T beeswax grated
- *2T Shea butter
- *1/3c arrow root powder
- *10-15dr essential oils
- *2T baking soda

Melt oil, beeswax and Shea butter on low in a small saucepan. As soon as mixture turns to liquid, take off burner and add arrow root powder and baking soda. Finally add your favorite essential oils or keep unscented. Pour into stick container or jar. Once cooled to room temperature use and enjoy!

ALFRED UNIVERSITY

AU named a 'Best Buy' in Fiske Guide to Colleges for 2017

ALFRED—Alfred University (AU) has been named a “Best Buy” among 26 private institutions listed in the just-released “Fiske Guide to Colleges Best Buys of 2017.” The University has been included in the publication consistently for more than 17 years.

Private institutions from the United States, Canada, and the United Kingdom are included on the 2017 Fiske list. The guide notes all “Best Buy” schools fall into the inexpensive or moderate price category and most have four- or five-star academic ratings.

“In this day and age, when college tuition rates and student debt levels have been rising, we are immensely honored to be recognized once again by the Fiske Guide for the great value that Alfred University provides to our students,” said Mark Zupan, president of Alfred University. “We remain committed to a highly personalized and transformative educational experience that allows our students to identify and pursue their passions and thereby grow as individuals and succeed professionally. We are proud of the diverse and high-quality array of curricular and extra-curricular offerings that Alfred University provides in an intimate educational environment.”

“For 180 years AU has been providing a unique blend of opportunity and quality,” said W. Richard Stephens, provost and vice president for Academic Affairs. “To be recognized by the Fiske Guide now for 17 years is a mark of value and consistency which should encourage any and all students who are considering their options for higher education.”

In its AU profile, the Fiske Guide highlights the University’s unique combination of programs including the nationally renowned college of ceramics with its schools of Art and Design and Engineering, as well as a business school and College of Liberal Arts and Sciences intertwined in a University of just over 2,000 students.

“The university boasts highly respected programs in art and design, as well as ceramic engineering. Innovation not only shapes the curriculum, but also has a profound effect on campus life. Small classes and friendly competition support this diversity while encouraging individuals to succeed,” reads the Guide’s AU profile.

“Ceramic engineering (the development and refinement of ceramic materials) is the academic cornerstone and the program that brings Alfred international recognition. All engineering programs are found within the School of Engineering, and there is a degree in renewable energy engineering,” continues the Guide.

“The art department, with its programs in ceramics, glass, printmaking, sculpture, video, and teacher certification, is also highly regarded. The School of Art and Design offers a graphic design major in which students use the latest electronic and computer equipment. The business administration school also gets good reviews from students and provides undergraduates with work experience through a small business institute where students have real clients,” says the Fiske profile for AU.

“Whatever their major, all students enjoy small classes and the quality of teaching is reported as high. The teachers are very accessible and more than willing to help students with anything they need,” says a freshman. Most classes are taught by full professors, with graduate students and teaching assistants helping out only in lab sessions,” notes the profile.

The Fiske Guide concludes the University stresses its commitment to helping undergraduates plan their future, and the academic advising and career planning services have proven Alfred delivers on its promise. Students say faculty members really want to see them succeed, both in class and in the real world.

AU professor of dance joins NYS DanceForce

ALFRED—D. Chase Angier, professor of dance at Alfred University (AU), has recently become a member of the NYS DanceForce, a select consortium of dance professionals.

Members of DanceForce, which has existed since 1994, are selected by invitation only, said Curt Steinzor, director. The group, now a statewide organization, was originally formed “to invigorate dance activity throughout upstate New York,” he noted.

DanceForce members are each given an annual funding allocation to create partnerships between dance artists and communities throughout the state. To date, DanceForce members have created more than 350 artist residencies and other programs, resulting in well over 4,500 performances, workshops, and related events, with a direct economic impact exceeding $4 million, said Steinzor.

“As a member of the DanceForce, Ms. Angier will be able to bring in exceptional dance artists to the Alfred, NY community,” he added. DanceForce is a program of the NYS Council on the Arts, the state’s official arts funding agency, administered by the American Dance Asylum, Inc., a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit corporation based in Corning.

Angier has been at AU since 2002. She holds a bachelor of arts degree in dance from the University of California at Los Angeles and a master of fine arts degree in choreography from The Ohio State University.

She is a choreographer/ director/ performer and the artistic director of Angier Performance Works. Angier creates and performs dance-theater, performance installations, and performance art works in theatre and gallery spaces as well as unexpected natural settings and public sites.

These works are created in collaboration with dynamic artists in the visual arts, performance, music, theater and dance; and have been performed internationally (Japan, Czech Republic, Germany, Mexico, The United Kingdom) and nationally (New York, California, Washington, Vermont, South Carolina, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Florida, Texas, Pennsylvania, Alabama).

Her work has been reviewed as “intelligent entertainment,” “a comic romp,” and “fine storytelling” by The New York Times and The Dance Insider.

Approval of Governor Rockefeller's supplemental budget by the State Legislature has paved the way for establishment of a vocational training program at Wellsville as a branch of State University Agricultural and Technical College at Alfred. The program, first of its kind in State University, will be operated primarily with $300,000 included in the supplemental budget. Another $100,000 was previously received from the federal government for the purchase of equipment and for planning work connected with the vocational branch. Dr. David H. Huntington, president of Alfred State College, said the branch serves two critical needs (1) the needs of the many high school graduates who desire training for skilled occupations and (2) the needs of business and industry for skilled manpower...

For the Birds—Although July has barely begun, the days are getting shorter and the appearance of a welcome cold front last Sunday brought the first signs of post-breeding dispersal of birds. Along the McAndrews Road, starlings, Red-winged Blackbirds and Bobolink were flocking up—the nesting season is over. The breeding season for many species probably began a week or two early this year. My peak banding day at Braddock Bay came on May 9 which is a good 10 days early. Hopefully, the correspondingly early haying of the fields didn't destroy the nests of the Bobolink who, along with Upland Sandpipers that also are field nesters, only have one brood. Most other field-nesting species such as Red-winged Blackbird and Henslow's, Savannah, Song, Field and Grasshopper Sparrows have double or even triple broods so if they're caught by early haying operations, they'll quickly renest...

Carol Burdick always wanted to star in a play written about herself. That dream will become reality at 7:30 p.m. tonight (Thursday, July 6) at the Union University Church Center when she stars in an Alfred Community Theatre (ACT) reading of a play written and directed by Emrys Westacott. All who know Carol appreciate her wit, her way with words and her appreciation of comic relief. Thus, one can expect there will be plenty of laughter in the audience. The reading of Westacott's play will kick off a month of theatre offerings presented for the seventh consecutive year by ACT, founded in 2000 with the two-fold purpose of "getting summer theatre going again in Alfred" and assisting in the restoration of Alfred's 1890 Firemen's Hall Theater. Other offerings in July include: "The Fantasticks" musical at 8 p.m. July 13-14-15 at the 1890 Firemen's Hall Theater; "Wee Playhouse Presents" a reading at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, July 20 at the Union University Church Center; "Whose Line Is It Anyway?" a theatrical smorgasbord including audience participation, improv and lots of laughs at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, July 27 at the Union University Church Center. Alfred Community Theatre's series is funded in part by a New York State Cultural Arts decentralization grant through the Cattaraugus County Arts Council.

Adventures with Joan--It was the later part of May when daughter Patty from Erie, PA sent me a news clipping about Skunk Cabbage. She thought perhaps I could find it adventurous to find it in our area. I loved the idea as I knew nothing about its culture, just the name was familiar. After getting all sorts of info from the computer I was even more intrigued. Then I hit a huge snag. Everyone I quizzed about it had no idea where it grew in our area, let alone what it looked like or even smelled like. I could only assume it had a skunk like odor. Wouldn't you also assume that much? Finally in our search Ellen Hardy (remember Ellen, my adventure partner?) asked some people at a church meeting and found one man, Duane Green, who had it growing in a swampy area near his home at Five Corners. Of course the mere fact that we were a few months late for the first stage in its growth didn't stop us from studying it. It is one of the first plants to bloom any time from February to May. The first part of the plant to bloom is the spathe. This spathe is a brownish-purple shell-like pod with green splotches. Kind of like something from a science fiction movie. Even stranger than its looks is that the temperature inside the hood of the spathe is about 72 degrees F.

ALFRED STATION SDB CHURCH

Communion to be celebrated July 9

ALFRED STATION—A long time ago (1600's) Baptists developed congregations in England that stood outside of the "State Church." As such, these congregations stood independently from each other and formulated a "Covenant Document" which set forth how those who were part of that congregation would practice "the Faith."

Each gathering determined, under the headship of the Lord Jesus Christ and interpretation of scripture, the when, who and how of participation in the Sacraments (Ordinances), in particular Baptism and Communion. These early Baptist gatherings typically linked the two together and took on the authority as to their occurrence in congregational life.

Some 185 years ago, when the Alfred Station S.D.B. Church was constituted the congregation established a consistent time for celebrating Communion, the Lord's Supper. The gathered Seventh Day Baptist believers settled on the Second Sabbath of a yearly quarter in order to connect the work to be done at a "Quarterly Congregational business meeting" with a spiritual understanding that the church is seeking and doing the work and will of the LORD.

This Sabbath, July 9, your friends and neighbors at the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church, "A 3 C church: Connect-Care-Community" will cel-ebtrate Communion during the 11 a.m. Sabbath Worship Hour. Believing when Jesus gave the first Communion to His disciples He was in the process of celebrating the Feast of the Passover, Pastor Ken's Communion Homily is drawn from Exodus 12:1-13 and will focus on "The Passover" and the elements that are direct links to Communion.

The Alfred Station Church campus is located at 585 Route 244, Alfred Station. You might want further information so please feel free to call the church office at 607- 587-9176. Remember yesterday is History, Tomorrow is Mystery but Today is a Gift.

THE GLORY OF AMERICA

Thursday, July 7

It is thought that Thomas Hooker was born on this day in 1586; it is certain that he died on it in 1647. With John Winthrop, he was the other great Puritan leader in the New World. Hooker felt led by God to take his flock to the Connecticut River valley, there to found a new colony. For him, civil government derived from church government:

"Mutual covenanting and confederating of the saints in the fellowship of the faith according to the order of the Gospel, is that which gives constitution and being to a visible church... Mutual subjection is the sinews of society, by which it is sustained and supported."

SPORTS ILLUSTRATED BEST MASCOT TOURNAMENT

'Saxons' best mascot in all of Division III?

ALFRED—Much more than school pride was at stake at press time as Alfred University's Saxon squared off against Sweet Briar College's Vixen in the championship of Sports Illustrated's Campus Rush Division III Best Mascot Tournament.

At press time, the Saxon had pretty much locked up the win, holding a commanding 58% to 42% lead over the Vixen.

The respective presidents of the two schools – Alfred's Mark Zupan and Sweet Briar's Phil Stone – agreed to a friendly wager on the outcome of the tournament: the loser will wear the winning school's mascot costume.

The 32-team best mascot tournament began May 17, with four eight-team seeded brackets. Over the next six weeks, team's advanced based on on-line voting until the final two teams – Alfred and Sweet Briar – remained. Voting in the Best Mascot Tournament championship round began Wednesday, June 30 and was to conclude at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, July 6.

To get to the finals, Alfred (the sixth seed in its bracket) pulled off four straight upsets: defeating third-seeded Coe College Kohawks in Round One; the second-seeded Webster University Gorlocks in Round Two; the fifth-seeded Concordia College

It's looking like Sweet Briar College President Phil Stone (left) may be donning the Li'l Alf costume sometime soon, while Alfred University's rookie President Mark Zupan will be spared the embarrassment of wearing pink Vixen bows in his hair.

Cobbers in the regional finals; and the number one seed Oglethorpe University Stormy Petrels in the tournament semifinals.

Sweet Briar, the second seed in its bracket, advanced to the finals by beating the Brandeis University Judges and Mary Baldwin College Fighting Squirrels in the first two rounds; the Sarah Lawrence College Gryphons in the regionals; and the University of California-Santa Cruz Banana Slugs in the tournament semifinals.

No date has been set for when the losing president will have to make good on his bet. If Alfred wins, Sweet Briar President Stone will don Alfred University's Li'l Alf mascot costume; if Sweet Briar wins, AU President Zupan will put on Sweet Briar's Vixen outfit.

Exhorting faculty and staff to help to prevent the "nightmare" of Zupan donning a Vixen outfit, he rallied the Saxons with the following e-mail:

Dear Fellow Saxons:

The Vixens are not slinking away any time soon! After we had built a lead of as much as 62-38 last evening, they have been slowly chipping away at it since—we are now ahead only 55-45 with only 46 hours to go.

We clearly need to increase our (key)stroke count! The Campus Rush link below appears to allow one to cast an unlimited number of votes per day. And voting is also possible through both the AU and SBC official websites.

For those of you who can cast at least 10 votes a day over the last three days that voting is open, King Alfred, L'il Alf, and I all send our profound thanks. For those of you who are willing to do at least 100/day or at least until your fingers start bleeding purple and gold, we will get you a photo op with L'il Alf, King Alfred (the statuesque variety!), and me either at Homecoming on Saturday, September 24th or at the presidential inauguration on Saturday, October 22nd.

Let's finish Saxon strong!

Mark

P.S. I woke up in a cold sweat in the middle of last night from a nightmare that I had pink Vixen bows in my hair. Let's make sure that this was only a one-time bad dream!

Alfred State student finishes 3rd in nation

ALFRED—After winning honors at the state level this past April, Alfred State students brought home national awards from the world's largest showcase of skilled trades, the 52nd annual National SkillsUSA Championship.

Trevor Huntley, masonry, Conklin, earned a bronze medal in the masonry category for placing third against competitors from across the country. Andrea Koston, culinary arts: baking, production and management, Rochester, also earned a top 10 national finish, coming in fifth place in the commercial baking category.

Dr. Craig Clark, vice president for Economic Development, said, "The SkillsUSA competition is a national event where students have the opportunity to compete with the best in the USA in their trade. Our students have done well over the years, and obtaining a third in the nation in masonry and a fifth in commercial baking showcases both our students and the programs at Alfred State."

Held June 20-24 in Louisville, KY, the championship was the highlight of the National Leadership and Skills Conference, which featured more than 15,000 students, teachers, education leaders, and representatives from 600 national corporations, trade associations, businesses, and labor unions. The championship included 100 hands-on skill and leadership competitions.

Representing Alfred State in addition to Huntley and Koston were Ryan Balcerzak, heavy equipment, truck and diesel technician, Elma; Scott Erdman, automotive service technician, Jeffersonville; Mahogany Lemon, culinary arts: baking, production and management, Buffalo; James McAdam, drafting/CAD, North Tonawanda; and Timothy Tripp, autobody repair, Little Genesee.

ALFRED UNIVERSITY'S FSA

Birth of a 'Saxon Nation'

ALFRED--Friends of Saxon Athletics, an organization that supports Alfred University Athletics Department, has a new name.

Beginning July 1 FSA, which serves to enhance the experience of the University's 400-plus student-athletes, will be known as Saxon Nation. The FSA Board of Directors approved the name change at a meeting earlier this month.

"We found that name most appealing because 'Saxons' is totally unique to Alfred University among all collegiate programs and portrays great strength and passion," AU Athletics Director Paul Vecchio commented. "'Nation,' of course could have been expanded even further as AU graduates populate every corner of our globe, however, we thought that the camaraderie and common spirit of a nation applies very well in this case to our student-athlete alumni: our 'Saxon Nation'."

Saxon Nation encompasses the spirit of team and pride that comes with participation – as a player or fan – in Alfred University athletics. "It (Saxon Nation) reflects the special relationships our former student-athletes have formed with their teammates, coaches, and indeed, with the University itself, during their time wearing the Purple and Gold," Vecchio said.

The new moniker is one that can be heard today on the AU campus, Vecchio noted. "We have found this term to be a popular one among our current student-athletes, who have often used the term in social media circles to describe their pride in being a part of our program."

Funds raised by Saxon Nation help pay for: the purchase and upgrade of team equipment; renovation and improvement of facilities; enhancement of video streaming of AU athletics contests and website capabilities; team travel expenses; recruiting expenses; team and department awards; and programming for student-athletes and athletics staff. In addition, for the first time in its history, Saxon Nation will featured tiered giving levels starting at $25 all the way to $1,000-plus, with many of the levels featuring Nike apparel adorned with the new Saxon Nation logo.

The Dugout

HITS AND MISSES:

Last week, when discussing "true icons" of the sports world who have retired and are still with us, names I thought of later on were: Kareem Abdul-Jabbar of the Lakers. The all-time leading scorer in the NBA. And, Jerry West of the Lakers ... the logo! Plus, the Big O ... Oscar Robertson. Sure there are still others.

One coaching "icon" passed away since my last column was written and that is the legendary Tennessee Vols women's basketball head coach for so many years, Pat Summitt. NCAA titles galore, her teams dominated the landscape until UConn took over and she is the all-time winningest b-ball coach in history for the women's game. A true giant in the sport of basketball.

Ran into Nazareth men's basketball coach, Kevin Broderick last week on one of my daily morning stops at the Webster Dunkin Donuts. Had chatted with him a couple of times before, reminded him I was from Alfred and knew his brother, Sean. Brother Sean played at Alfred State for the once-legendary Kaz and now is the boys JV hoop coach in Fulton. Assume Dave Kingman (A-A) knows who I am talking about!

Was in touch with former Union College head basketball coach, Bob Montana last week as I wanted to get together to golf again this year in the fall. He just back from coaching at the Colgate Elite Hoop Camp. Montana now retired and working on that golf game!

Detroit Pistons Associate Head Coach, Bob W. Beyer is coaching the Detroit summer league squad in Orlando. Vincent VanSkiver (Canisteo) recently had a chance to chat with the ex-Alfred State College assistant. Brother of Vance and Vernon, whom I had the pleasure of playing tournament softball with on the Bandits team, for many winning games!

Speaking of the NBA, how about the "stupid money" being tossed around for average players! Somebody named Bismack Biyombo got $70 million/4-years from the Orlando Magic. Who? The LA Lakers are free spending to fill out a roster. Mike Conley, a solid player but not a great one, gets something like $30 million per season from the Grizzlies? Per season! If Bird, Magic and Jordan were playing now ... what would they command on the open market? And what scrubs would fill that roster out to fit into the salary cap?

The Golden State Warriors won an NBA-record 73 regular season games in the recent campaign and have now added Kevin Durant to their roster. Yikes! Guess they needed one more All-Pro to overtake the Cavs. Amazing.

The Team USA men's hoop team for the upcoming Olympics was announced with Durant, Kyrie Irving and Klay Thompson leading the way. Not sure what Harrison Barnes is doing on this squad? Melo? Must be they needed an aging shooter. Gotta believe Team USA wins the gold but with much tighter games here and there.

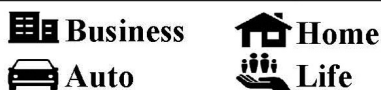

The Hornell Gus Macker hoop tourney will be held this year from July 29-31. Will Robert H. Torrey grab back that coveted foul shooting title held during this event?

The Dick's Open golf tournament on the Champions Tour is this week in Endicott. First non-go in five years along with Leo Nealon.

The 2016 Danielle Downey Credit Union Classic golf tourney on the Symetra Tour is the following weekend in Rochester. In honor of the former area star and Auburn graduate. Still hard to believe no LPGA stop in Rochester with the great fan support.

Dustin Johnson followed up his U.S. Open win with a WGC victory at the Bridgestone Invitational in Akron, Ohio. #1 Jason Day faltered down the stretch, #2 Jordan Spieth was done in by a triple-bogey the day before ... finishing those three back and #3 DJ prevails. #4 Rory McIlroy was at the 100th French Open instead. Up next, the British Open. DJ-Day-Spieth, 1-2-3!

THE GREAT RACE

Alfred State's 1953 Dodge Power Wagon tow truck crosses the Great Race finish line in Moline, IL on June 26. The Power Wagon finished third in the X-Cup division.

Controlled-speed endurance rally in 1953 tow truck

Alfred State finishes third!

ALFRED—After traveling thousands of miles in a controlled-speed endurance rally known as The Great Race, Alfred State came away with a third-place finish in the X-Cup division with its 1953 Dodge Power Wagon tow truck.

Beginning in San Rafael, CA on June 18, a total of 109 teams ventured across eight states in nine days for the race, finishing up in Moline, IL on June 26. The event tests teams' abilities to follow precise course instructions and their vehicle's ability to endure on a cross-country trip.

For the second straight year, Alfred State competed with the Power Wagon in the X-Cup division, which is designed for high school and college teams, with the goal of creating enthusiasts who will strengthen the antique car hobby. To compete in the division, a team's driver must be between the ages of 21 and 25, and each navigator must be a member of a high school/college/ youth group team and be younger than 22 years old.

The Power Wagon team included Nick Reale, autobody repair, Jamestown; Ryan Valle, motorsports technology, New Windsor; and Sam Holevinski, heavy equipment, truck and diesel technician, Canisteo. According to Kent Johnson, chair of the Automotive Trades Department, the vehicle performed almost flawlessly along the way, with only one issue.

"The engine is small, so it has limited power," said Johnson, who served as the Alfred State faculty adviser during the trip. "In a time/speed/distance rally competition, maintaining a consistent speed is critical. A consistent speed is not possible in a 6000-pound truck that is trying to climb the Sierra Nevada and Rocky Mountains. Next year, the truck will have more power."

The college also partnered with a family from Illinois to enter a 1928 Model A Speedster in the race. The Speedster, which had competed from 1998 to 2003, was driven and navigated by Stephen Krolak, heavy equipment, Palmyra; Nick Shelp, automotive service technician, Endicott; and Kyle Hayes, automotive service technician, Buffalo.

Prior to the start of the race, the Antique Automobile Club of America (AACA) provided a $1,500 grant that was used for the Power Wagon's travel expenses, and Reliable Carriers sponsored transportation of the Model A, a value of more than $2,000. In addition, the AACA later awarded four X-Cup scholarships to Alfred State students based on a team's finishing position, with Holevinski receiving $2,000, and Hayes, Krolak, and Shelp each receiving $280.

Also supporting Alfred State in the Great Race were the Model A Restorers Club (MARC) and the Chemung Region AACA.

While the Power Wagon group faced a speed issue and the Speedster squad battled a problem with a connecting rod, Johnson said both teams did a great job in the competition overall.

"This is really an endurance event, so it was exhausting, but the students had a lot of fun and I think we were able to make connections that will help us move our program forward," he said. "Additionally, this event gets a lot of press, so Alfred State got a lot of national exposure along the way."

No Clayton Kershaw on the hill for the N.L. All-Stars this year as the Dodger ace just went on the disabled list. Yuk.

The once-strong N.Y. Yanks have faded so badly, they'll probably have just one rep on the A.L. squad as everyone has at least one player picked. Would go with reliever Andrew Miller.

My minor league baseball parks list is rather short, compared to the MLB ones I've been at. Old Silver Stadium in Rochester, Harbor Park in Norfolk, Va. when Gids and brother Scott both there, Dunn Tire Stadium in Buffalo and Frontier Field in Rochester. Might have been to Dwyer Stadium in Batavia as well ... not 100% sure!

Named to the first-team NYS high school squad from Class D was Karlee Patrick of Arkport. Wellsville had three girls in "B" named on a team: Amy Lorschbaugh, Rayanna Anderson and Peyton Keib.

The Cleveland Indians had a 14-game winning streak snapped last week, in part, due to a disputed call in a game versus Toronto. They lost the next game to the Jays, 17-1. The "Traveling Sports Fan" off to see his beloved Tribe play the Yanks this weekend in Cleveland. Glen Sayre or Tim Mead headed to the park?

The Alfred-Almond alumni banquet is set for July 23rd at the Alfred State College main dining hall. Class of '70 ... get those dues ($5) in!

Busy, fun, congested holiday weekend past. Off to Almond on Saturday for the 50th year wedding anniversary of Uncle Butch and Aunt Cass. Quite enjoyable! Had chance to catch-up with life of late with Eric Lorow. The recently decorated serviceman, Eric Lorow! Always good to see Butch & Cass. Was able to golf with Pat Atwell on Sunday at Woodlynn Hills in Nunda. He clobbered me, 80-99 but a really good morning on a course with some awesome views. Atwell off to play in Member-Guest tourney with Wayne Johnston in Olean this weekend. No golf ... no phone call, with Johnny "Spock" Arena (2-35) though this July 4th holiday weekend.

Off on a (richly deserved) and very busy vacation starting this weekend with 3L. Headed to Albany, Saratoga, Utica, Lake Placid, Indian Lake and Oneonta. Whew. Maybe we'll pass the McMahon's from Almond along the way. Lauren running in Utica Boilermaker 15K, hiking some new spots, no Lone Birch Motel (sadly), Druthers!, waterfall exploring, seeing the SEAL, finishing up with wedding of Coach Coyle and Coach Blumenauer! Sure other things in between. Hope to surprise Doris Springer in Whitesboro.

Finally, a sad note with the passing of Fred Krause in Texas ... husband of Kelly (Taft) Krause, my cousin. Fred a high school teacher and a good man!
