Free meal at Ade with donation of a pair of shoes!

You can receive a free meal at Ade Hall if you bring a pair of shoes to donate to the Navajo Water Project! We are trying to collect 2500 pairs of new or used shoes (must be wearable) by the end of the semester to meet a challenge by Funds2Orgs. They will donate $1000 to the Navajo Water Project if we collect 2500 pairs by the end of the semester. Dining Servies has graciously offered to provide a free meal at Ade if you bring a pair of shoes with you to donate! Go enjoy a great meal and help a great cause!

Artist In Residence Dave Jones

Dates: November 5 - 16
Location: The Institute for Electronic Arts
Sponsored by: NYSCA and The Institute for Electronic Arts

Dave Jones is a video artist and engineer who has been involved in the video art field since 1971, and has been developing image making tools almost as long. A couple of months after graduating high school he was helping to run a mixed-media performance troupe in Europe. The troupe, known as VideoHeads, performed shows that combined video, film, music, and theater. These shows were performed throughout western Europe in the early 1970's. Image processing tools designed by Dave Jones are in artists studios around the world as well as the studios of several schools. Over the years Mr. Jones has become known for innovative and powerful video tools that let an artist explore the video signal. He has been recognized for his designs by being mentioned in Grolier's Academic American Encyclopedia and Software Toolworks' CD-ROM Encyclopedia under "Video Art".

Allegany-Cattaraugus-Chautauqua Fund for Women (ACC FFW) fundraiser

The Allegany-Cattaraugus-Chautauqua Fund for Women (ACC FFW) has opened our ordering period for our second annual plant sale. $12 each for marble poinsettia and Christmas cactus in addition to red, white, pink poinsettia and red cyclamen.

The Allegany-Cattaraugus-Chautauqua Fund for Women (ACC FFW) exists to invest in the lives of women in our communities in order to promote sustained self-sufficiency. Our mission is supported by strong guiding principles, including: empowerment, community, good stewardship, equity, diversity, and self-determination. The ACC FFW is a component fund of the Cattaraugus Region Community Foundation, a 501 (c) (3) nonprofit organization. Visit www.accffw.org and go to "holiday plant sale" to help us surpass our totals from last year, during which we sold 285 plants and profited close to $1,500. This allowed us to give out our first two grants, of many to come.

Orders are being taken through Sunday, November 18, with pickup available on campus around November 26.

Phil Niblock with Katherine Liberovskaya

Date of Event: Tuesday, November 20
Time of Event: 6:30 pm
Location of Event: Holmes Auditorium
Cost: Free

Sponsored by: Expanded Media, Electronic Integrated Arts MFA program

Phil Niblock
Music Composition Performance

Phill Niblock (b. 1933, USA) is an artist whose fifty-year career spans minimalist and experimental music, film and photography. Since 1985, he has served as director of Experimental Intermedia, a foundation for avant-garde music based in New York with a branch in Ghent, and curator of the foundation's record label XI. Known for his thick, loud drones of music, Niblock's signature sound is filled with microtones of instrumental timbres that generate many other tones in the performance space. In 2013, his diverse artistic career was the subject of a retrospective realised in partnership between Circuit (Contemporary Art Centre Lausanne) and Musée de l'Elysée. The following year Niblock was honored with the prestigious Foundation for Contemporary Arts John Cage Award.

Screening from Niblock's Film: The Movement of People Working 1973-1991

Katherine Liberovskaya

Visiting Artists to Mentor Intro to Printmaking Students

The Print Club of Rochester has been invited to collaborate with Intro to Printmaking students. Bringing their knowledge and experience in the printmaking industry, students are paired up with a member to receive 1:1 advice, and inspiration to develop their practice. Students also worked with images from the Rochester artists, preparing laser woodblocks for printing on Saturday, November 10. You are invited to view the outcome of these prints, which will be on display in the Printmaking Studio (Harder Hall, 3rd floor) from Saturday onwards. Thank you to the Print Club of Rochester for their dedicated time!
