

Kenyon Memorial Hall

HAIL TO THEE, ALFRED

By L. C. Randolph

Nestled away 'mid the Empire State hills,
'Neath the watch-care of sentinel pines,
Where the murmuring song of the brook
hums along,
And a favoring sun ever shines;
In a valley so fair where the forest trees share
Dominion o'er hillside and glen,
Stands the pioneer college of Western New York—
Alfred, the mother of men.

—Chorus—

Hail to thee, Alfred, thou guide of our youth,
Sweet, benign mother, all hail!
Sing on thy anthems of duty and truth;
May thy clear ringing music ne'er fail.

She was founded in toil, cemented with blood,
And nurtured thro' yearnings and tears,
Her treasure the hearts of brave heroes who stood Undaunted throughout trying years;
Each stone was a prayer and her battlements there
Have memories of purposes strong.
Staunch daughters and sons are her monument fair,
And they lift up the grateful song.

—Chorus—

Others may boast of prestige and size,
Of numbers and treasure and fame;
But Alfred's pride lies in manhood's clear eyes,
And womanhood's high, stainless name.
Old Alfred, we say; Alfred now and for aye—
Kenyon and Allen and Main,
And the gallant young leader we honor today,
Her honor and power maintain.

—Chorus—

IN APPRECIATION

The students and faculty have awaited anxiously for the last few weeks for reports as to the condition of Prof. Ford S. Clarke. We are glad to say, that, at present, he is somewhat improved, though still in a very serious condition. The influenza left him with weakened resistance and threatened tuberculosis. It is difficult to put into words the influence and inspiration, which Prof. Clarke has imparted to the college, the community and the individual students. It is a rare privilege to come in contact with his broad vision, his untiring zeal and deep sympathies. We all join in the hope for a complete recovery.

PEACE PLANS of the S. A. T. C.

According to a communication recently received from Washington no more men can be taken into the S. A. T. C. owing to the order of the President suspending inductions. There are now 136 men in the Alfred S. A. T. C. whose induction is complete and twenty men whose status is not quite certain in view of the suspension of inductions.

The courses in Military Law and Practice and Map Making will probably be discontinued at the end of the term, if not at once. The class in War Issues will continue throughout the year but after the present term the program of studies for S. A. T. C. men will have more direct reference to college work.

Military instruction will continue as at present, eleven hours per week, with six hours only for technical men. Other military details conflicting with class room and study hour work will be reduced.

ALFRED AHEAD

War Work Campaign Fund Has Been Oversubscribed

Eight teams of two men each canvassed the Alfred school district Thursday afternoon. The other outlying districts are being canvassed by the ladies of those districts. The total amount of money pledged has not been exactly ascertained yet, but there is absolutely no doubt but what Alfred will go over the top as usual. The college Y. W. C. A. reports $158 which they have raised.

CAPTAIN BONYNGE TO BE HEAD OF S. A. T. C.

On Monday, November 18, Captain Russell Bonyng of New York arrived in Alfred. He is commander-in-chief of the University S. A. T. C. and will take the place of Captain Mott, who left Monday morning for Cornell.

LIBRARY NOTES

Judge Clarence Willis of Bath, N. Y., has sent to the library a collection of New York State county histories. This is a valuable collection and covers the history of 35 counties of the state.

The tables contain a very good list of books on military art and science. Among these books may be found works on horses and riding, radio-communication, trench fighting, machine gunners, private's manual, small arms manual, cantonment manual, airships, etc.

Among the very readable books might be mentioned "Blown in by the draft" by Hunt. The story deals with the great American army, the soul of which Mr. Hunt interprets as he describes the great draft army from the time the first recruits came in to the present time.

DR. BALLARD OF HORNELL

Gives Interesting Address in Student Assembly

Dr. Ballard, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Hornell, delivered a very interesting address before the student body at assembly two weeks ago. Dr. Ballard told of his experiences and impressions gained as a Y. M. C. A. secretary at Camp Merritt where he was stationed for four months.

Camp Merritt has a population of 35,000 to 40,000 which is constantly changing. It is a camp where mess call is sounded at midnight and roll call held every hour, and where, in the darkness of early morning the units march silently out of camp to go to Hoboken to take the boats for overseas duty. Dr. Ballard said that when he first arrived in camp the soldiers were stationed there about two weeks before they proceeded overseas and when he left camp it was only two or three days before the soldiers left. The work was so efficiently done that two days gave plenty of time to outfit the soldiers when a short time before it took two weeks. Each soldier is given a medical inspection, his equipment completed and new equipment issued, before he leaves camp. Then if any company lacks a few men these vacancies are filled so that the companies are at war strength when they leave the United States.

One thing that impressed Dr. Ballard very greatly was the respect for the flag. When retreat is sounded and the flag is lowered all trucks stop. Their drivers stand at attention. All working gangs and all soldiers come to attention; in fact there is no disturbance or movement of any sort in camp when retreat is sounded. Another thing that impressed him was the equality of the men. Class distinction was forgotten in brotherhood of man. One of the humblest Y. M. C. A. workers proved to be a very wealthy man though no one would believe it to see him at his work. Another young fellow who ran errands in a very dilapidated old Ford and who was a general handy man about the hut was the son of a very prominent millionaire.

The third thing which impressed Dr. Ballard was the harmony with which all the different organizations worked together having but one purpose in view. That was to serve the boys in the best way they could. There were no different religious sects among the soldiers; they were all just Christians. Dr. Ballard explained that in his twenty years of trying to preach the gospel he never saw such straightforward religious work as was going on in camp. Incomprehensible influences are at work in the army, influences which have never moved men's hearts to such an extent before this war. It was a new and remarkable experience for Dr. Ballard.

"Between the optimist and pessimist the difference is droll,
The optimist the doughnut sees—the pessimist the hole."

Something About The Captain

Captain John W. Mott, commanding officer of the S. A. T. C. unit at Alfred University, has received orders to report for duty at Cornell University.

Captain Mott was born at Webster, Mass. After graduating from high school he entered Williams College. There he took a prominent part in athletics and he is a football player of splendid ability. He took a special course in Military Science and Tactics and in his Junior year at Williams, he tried entrance examinations for the Officers' Reserve Corps. The examination was easily passed, and Captain Mott was at once commissioned a second lieutenant and placed on active duty as a recruiting inspector.

At the opening of the first camp at Plattsburg, Captain Mott was sent there as an instructor, under the command of Captain Goodridge. When the United States entered the present war and Camp Devens at Ayr, Mass., was opened, the Captain was sent to that camp and assigned to the 301st Infantry. While there he received his first Lieutenant's commission.

In September of this year, an order came to him to report at Buffalo, and this was followed by another order, to report at Alfred University and take command of the S. A. T. C. unit there.

Since reporting here, he has been commissioned a captain. Captain Mott has, under great difficulties, accomplished much in organizing the S. A. T. C. He should receive unlimited credit for the work that has been accomplished.

An excellent soldier in ability as well as in appearance, Captain Mott deserves the highest praise. We wish him every success and our sincerest hope is that his new work at Cornell will bring him higher advancement and even greater honors than he has attained heretofore.

BARN DANCE

Firemen's Hall was merry again Saturday night—this time with a barn dance. Don't let the name mislead you—it really wasn't a dance, but it was a lively party, with apples for the taking and peanuts for the hunting and a supper partner in a bungalow for the buying of a dainty box of lunch. The Misses Dowling of Wellsville, professional dancers of merit, patriotically donated their services. The dances rendered were executed with exceptional grace and technique.

All future Saturday night entertainments at the Y. M. Hut will be in charge of a specified committee made up of two representatives of each of the classes and the social committee of the Y. W. C. A. Mary Elizabeth Wilson is chairman of the committee.

AN APOLOGY

As a result of a mistake in the printing of the last issue of the Fiat, the announcement of Lieutenant Baumler's arrival in Alfred was placed under Ag School Notes. We apologize deeply.

PEACE!

ALFRED GETS THE NEWS

"What in blazes is going on?" drawled Jim sleepily, as he slowly rose up in his cot in the barracks and became conscious of unusual sounds outside. Jim had been on K. P. and guard duty so much that he aroused with difficulty.

"Sounds to me like the fire bell," ventured Bill, helping to sense the situation for the crowd.

"No," piped Jack, "that is the church bell, not the fire bell. I know the difference in sound. I haven't listened to the two eighteen years for nothing."

"Gosh, I know," yelled Jim now thoroughly awake, eyes bulging out of his head, I'll bet a five the armistice has been signed, and the war is over."

Everybody hurriedly agreed that that was the correct solution and out they all piled. It was evident that drowsy citizens all over town had come to the same conclusion for the boys found them streaming in from every direction. As the crowd gathered the racket increased. The chapel bell suddenly began to speak, revolvers were fired, the bugler played "The Star Spangled Banner." Soon improvised cannons were booming, while a quickly gathered pile of inflammables illuminated the morning dusk near the Stillman & Jacox store. Soldiers, students and townspeople executed a lively snake dance around the fire.

So the day had begun, the greatest day of modern times. Well might people rejoice. Not only was the horror of war, killing and being killed over, but right had gloriously, overwhelmingly triumphed; not only had the end of our sacrifices come in sight, but our sacrifices big and little have not been in vain. Our type of civilization which permits men to direct their own life, to occupy a wide area of real freedom has vindicated itself. Once we were dubious. We didn't know for sure but that a severely disciplined, well organized, autocratic society, allied with all the serving forces of modern science and invention might prove too strong for our easy-going life. But now we have won. No wonder we celebrate. No wonder classes were adjourned, no wonder there were parades, and music and speeches and noise, laughter, jollity, public meetings, dances, trips to Hornell, decorations. Yes and no wonder there was good weather. The smiles of providence never come singly. Let the truth soak in. Yes, it is really true. The war is over. Hurrah! and again we yell Hurrah!

HAVE YOU PAID FOR YOUR FIAT?

When you pay for your subscription to the Fiat, send a check for 75 cents to Harold Reid. Due to the reduced number of issues per year, the subscription price has been cut from $1.50 to 75 cents.

The Fiat is printing the address of Arthur Sichel, ex-'20, in order that any of his friends and former classmates may write to him: Sergeant Arthur Sichel, 1934872, c/o Medical Supt., Transportation A. P. O. 735, Base Section 7, American E. F.

N. Y. S. A. NOTES

Director Wright attended the meeting of the various directors of State Schools at St. Lawrence University. A successful Halloween party was held at the State Barn, Oct. 31. The costumes ranged from that of a clergyman to a Hawaiian dancer.

The following Ag students have entered the S. A. T. C. recently: Woodfred Mills, Sidney Cornell and Alfred Kemna.

At a recent meeting Paul Erway and Bernard Bowman were elected for the student senate to fill the vacancies left by Woodfred Mills and Bob Weigel, who have entered the S. A. T. C.

The Ag School held its annual apple show Nov. 7 and 8. Varieties of all kinds were exhibited. S. S. Karr & Son took individual honors. Mr. Kratz, Assistant Farm County Agent, was the speaker during the show.

At a meeting of the student body, Bob Weigel was elected Ag School editor for the Fiat and Harvey Luffman was chosen business manager. Bernard Mullaney was elected Ag School vice president of the Athletic Council.

On Monday evening, Nov. 4th, Mr. Holmes spoke to the Poultry Association on Chinese Incubation. The Association holds its meetings Monday evenings at which time difficult daily farm problems are solved. Anyone interested is cordially invited.

It is with regret not only on the part of the Board of Managers of the State School of Agriculture, but the entire student body that Director Wright has resigned; to become head of the Rural Project Department at Cornell University. The state is to be complimented in being able to secure the services of so competent a man as Director W. J. Wright.

COUNTRY LIFE CLUB

The Country Life Club had a very interesting program Nov. 14th. "Star Spangled Banner"

Piano Solo Thomas Staples
Gleanings Bliss Weatherby
Vocal Solo Mrs. W. T. Wright

The program ended with a talk by the lucky three of the unlucky class of 1913. Profs. Thornton, Wright and Robinson were the lucky three.

COLLEGE NOTES

The sad news has come to us of the death from influenza of Mrs. Irene Martin Preiss '09.

Lieut. Burr Straight '11, was killed in action while leading his men on the battlefield in France.

Lieut. Earle Burdick '16, has returned from France to Newport News, Va., where he is recovering from a fractured ankle.

Walter King '17, has the following new address: Sanitary Squad No. 67, Headquarters Justice Hospital Group, A. P. O. 784, France.

Lewis Harold Burdick, Ag. '12, died from influenza and pneumonia at East Lansing, Mich., Nov. 2, 1918. He was in the military department of the Michigan Agricultural College.

Leon I. Shaw, who is in the chemical warfare service in Tours, France, has been promoted from Lieutenant to Captain. His address is now: Capt. Leon I. Shaw, Chemical Warfare Service, U. S. Military P. O. 717, A. E. F., France.

The Misses Mary and Adele Dowling spent the week-end as the guests of Miss Dorothy Kinney. The Misses Dowling gave some exhibitions of aesthetic dancing at the barn party Saturday night.

Due to a nervous breakdown resulting probably from the influenza, Miss Ruth Randolph '20, is at her home in New York City. Mr. and Mrs. Randolph were in town about a week ago and she accompanied them home. Miss Randolph hopes to be able to continue her work here in January.

Y. M. C. A.

Every Sunday evening at the Y. M. Hut, inspiring talks have been heard by the S. A. T. C. men. Dr. Norwood spoke on "War Religion" at a recent meeting and last Sunday evening Dr. Paul E. Tittsworth talked on "What is a Man?" The Y. M. Hut will soon be made more homelike for the boys and it will be open practically all the time.

WAR RISK INSURANCE TALKS CONCLUDED

In recent assembly talks, the explanation and description of the work of the War Risk Insurance Bureau in Washington was continued by Prof. Whitford and Prof. Waldo Tittsworth. Prof. Tittsworth placed special emphasis on the Department of Audits and Records in which he had charge of the Miscellaneous section.

Alfred's Team a Winner

Alfred has always had a splendid football team. She has always been "dead game," in victory or defeat. The athletic score board has blazed forth every year the proud record of football contests, many won, and some few lost. This year the score board flaunts yet another victory—the greatest ever known—Win the War! Perhaps it was the sight of this huge triumph always before us that made Alfred belligerent. Certain it is that this year more than ever before, the football men have gone through every line they tackled. Big games have been very scarce, due to the flu and the recent war. A game with Corning Northside, last Saturday resulted in a score of 20-0. The game was played on the fair grounds at Hornell. The second team matched against the Andover Eleven resulted in a victory to the tune of 43 to 6. As a balancer of all our other victories, there looms up only one small defeat. Johnny Clark, captain of the team, has labored long and hard, and the results are most gratifying.

S. A. T. C. EQUIPMENT

Will the Boys Get Their Uniforms Before the Corps is Disbanded?

The uniforms for the members of the S. A. T. C. are slowly arriving. The first shipment came about two weeks ago in the form of two boxes of legging laces. Last Friday the overcoats arrived, and were immediately issued. With them came that camphory smell that goes with old army equipment, but the boys don't mind that a bit. The rest of the uniforms have been shipped, and are expected to arrive any day now.

Seventy-five Russian rifles have arrived, and will be issued for use in bayonet work under the direction of Lieut. Baumler. The rest of the rifles are expected almost immediately.

TRENCHES!

During the past week or two, the members of the S. A. T. C. have been busily engaged in digging trenches. These gruesome regions of warfare are located below the Agricultural School down along the Kanakadea. The work is being done under the able direction of Sergeant Warner and the boys are getting violent experience in this back-breaking construction work involving the use of picks and shovels.

It was planned to dig a series of trenches, and to place obstacles between them. The whole lower meadow was to simulate a battle field and the future officers were to have indulged in active bayonet charges. However, in view of Peace and the Kaiser's defeat, construction work has been stopped, and the bloody battle ground once more has become a somewhat muddy and rather torn up field.

LABOR UNION IN ALFRED

Certain industrious trench diggers have formed a new union under the name of the "Human Steamshovelers and Pickers' Union." The Union will soon be affiliated with the "Wheelbarrow's Club." Although the Union is secret it has been rumored that the "Mayor" is president of the Union and the gentleman who spends his spare time jaming wind through a French horn is the manager. The manager has charge (secretly) of all members of the Union engaged in any construction work.

EXHIBITION AT THE CERAMIC SCHOOL

The authorities of Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, have very kindly lent to the Ceramic School an exhibition of work in Design and Commercial Illustration. This is student work done under the direction of Mr. Ensign, Mr. Johannot, and Mr. Watson. The exhibition may be seen in the Studio on the third floor of the Ceramic School and will be here until the second week in December.

NO MORE GUARD DUTY

The Barracks will now be guarded only between taps and reveille. It has been decided that the former guard duty was not only unnecessary but it took altogether too much time from needed class work. It is a most unfortunate fact that K. P. can not be likewise abolished.

RECEPTION FOR DIRECTOR AND MRS. W. J. WRIGHT

The Country Life Club will give a reception in honor of Director and Mrs. Wright on Thursday evening, November 21, from 8-10 o'clock, at Agricultural Hall. Townspeople are cordially invited.

There is only one American who may remain seated when the Star Spangled Banner is being played. Who is he, you want to know? The man at the piano. And, being an American, he wouldn't remain seated if it weren't positively necessary. For the Star Spangled Banner is the life and soul of every true son of freedom. We speak of the United States as our Fatherland. We reverence every smallest gift of it as such. We look down upon those as slackers and pikers who do not uncover when the flag passes, and who inarticulately murmur "Da de da, da, da, dum" when the last verse of our National anthem is being sung.

We call our love for our fatherland "patriotism." Fortunately there is no such word as "schooliotism," for such a concoctive word as that is not sufficiently dignified for the great and stirring spirit we feel for our Alma Mater. For four years of our life, college preempts every other interest. It remolds our ideals and ambitions, and is our fostering mother indeed. Shall we not, then, take just about five minutes off, and learn the words of our Alma Mater? Let's be sports, and sing every word of every stanza. Its our own song and our own music, and our pride is far too great to allow visitors to think that Alfred students can't sing their college Alma Mater because they do not know the words.

RESPECT FOR THE FLAG

Soon our troops will return, our armies be disbanded, our old occupations resumed, and our communities settle down into a serenity not unlike that prior to the war. Meanwhile retreat sounds at night, the boys stand at attention, the flag descends, and we hurry out of the Library, into the postoffice, down, up, or across the street on the way to our several dormitories to comb our hair in time for dinner. The jostling, the chattering, the scolding, the laughter, the grand-rush,—all are a necessary and natural part of our college life. True. And retreat won't sound for ever. No. Nor will the significance of it be brought home to us. And we'll wonder sometime in the years on beyond, why it's so hard for us to instill into the hearts of our own boys and girls the love we feel they ought to have for the emblem of our country. The reason? It's so simple one need not be a sage to see it. The next time retreat sounds, stop; look up at that piece of bunting, if you choose to call it such; but listen to what your heart says it is, as it floats slowly, majestically, trustingly down to the hands of those boys who reach up to catch it, lest one precious fold touch the ground.

Y. W. C. A.

Every girl was glad when she saw the poster in the Post Office saying that the Y. W. Sunday night meetings were to be resumed, for all had felt the lack of an essential part of our college life. The topic for the meeting of Nov. 3, seemed especially appropriate—"Having a Good Time," and with Iola Lamphere and Ada Walsh as leaders, another page was added to our Book of Pleasant Memories.

"Unanswered Yet?" was the subject of the following week's meeting. Lois Cuglar told us how our every wish can become a prayer, and Leila Spencer made us see that sometimes those things which we earnestly desire will be granted. In closing Professor Place and Mildred Place sang the old hymn, "Sometime, Somewhere."

This last week has been observed as a week of prayer at the request of the International Committee of the Y. W. C. A. In these days of anxiety, uncertainty and darkness we want something we can be quite sure of, so groups of girls have gathered every day with the prayer of David of old in their hearts. "Oh, Those that hearest prayer, unto Thee shall all flesh come."

The Y. W. has organized a campaign among the girls for the War Work Fund which is being pushed through this week. The girls are helping to put Alfred over the top. They are also planning to have a share in fitting up the reading room in the Y. M. C. A. Hut.

HALLOWE'EN FROLIC

Hoodlum Crowd Progresses From Place to Place in Search of Gayety

The calendar placed Hallowe'en on Thursday evening, but surely the real sport of the night was abroad Saturday evening, and found its way to the Academy Chapel as the clock struck eight, with the group of merry maskers, who crowded thither. A clammy handshake greeted the guests, with the direction in a strange voice to "follow the cornstalk trail." The trail led to the big hall, dimly lighted and filled with every variety of fancy costume.

Cinderella, headless knights, clowns, farmers and fairies mingled with countless other personages of note, and the hall resounded to the hilarity of "ye olden games." All too soon the crowd was sent by twos to the Senior House, where a delicious lunch was served, consisting of sandwiches, coffee, pumpkin pie, cheese and apples. Who said the Senior House wouldn't hold so many? We don't know how it was done, but the fact remains. The men of the party were then given cards, told to find their partners and take them to Firemens Hall. The Hall was suffused with a soft yellow glow and beautifully decorated with crepe paper, cornstalks, pumpkins, etc. As soon as every one had arrived, the Grand March began. Seldom has Alfred seen a prettier sight than the long line of many colored, fantastic couples, weaving in and out of the intricate mazes devised by the leaders. An hour of dancing followed, until the falling of the center decorations proclaimed the party at an end. Professor and Mrs. Paul E. Titsworth, Professor and Mrs. James Bennehoff and Professor and Mrs. Ray Wingate were guests of honor.

The success of the party was due to the splendid planning of the committee consisting of Alice Ayars, Ruth Canfield, Leila Spencer, Catherine Langworthy and Margaret Banghart.

FOOD CONSERVATION STILL NECESSARY

Signing an Armistice with all the Central Powers does not immediately relieve the food situation, or relieve the obligation of the American people for conservation. It was one of the delegates from the United States who offered a resolution at the Conference at Versailles that the Allies and the United States should undertake the task of feeding the destitute in Austria and Turkey. The Conference unanimously approved the resolution, and this will doubtless also be done in Germany and Mr. Hoover has been appointed by the President to go to Europe to take charge of mobilization and distribution of food stuffs to the destitute.

Attention is called also to the fact that the people of Belgium and some portions of France have been very much under-fed during a couple of years, and they need more liberal food rations to enable them to have the strength to reconstruct the devastated country.

It is possible that the restrictions on some commodities will be modified, but the restricted use of others will doubtless remain in effect, at least until next spring. No food can be produced in Europe until next summer. The cessation of submarine warfare and the consequent release of a vast amount of shipping will materially aid in bringing grain from Argentine Republic, Australia, and India. Presumably there is no surplus in any part of Russia. It is known that the larger cities are destitute, and it may be that wheat will need to be shipped into one of the four greatest wheat producing nations of the earth in order to prevent serious loss of life this winter.

No Allegany County people have been injured by the food program. A little less sugar, a little less wheat flour, and a good deal more of other cereals, with much less meat than usual, haven't caused a death in the county so far as I have heard. Lets follow the program and do even more than is asked rather than be the least bit selfish when millions in Europe are starving for the lack of food.

County Food Administrator.

FIGHT

ALFRED--HORNELL Auto-Transit Co.

THE RED BUS LINE

DON'T SELL YOUR LIBERTY BONDS; TO HOLD THEM IS PATRIOTIC, TO KEEP THEM IS WISE

The wide distribution among millions of American citizens of Liberty loan bonds makes our Liberty loans according to Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo's expressed opinion, the soundest of national financing. That these bonds be kept widely distributed amongst the American people is of great importance to the Nation and to the individual holders of the bonds.

United States Government bonds in the past have gone above par, as high as $139 for a $100 4 per cent bond. That Liberty bonds will go well above par is very probable. Holding one's Liberty bonds, therefore, is wise as well as patriotic.

Every holder of a Liberty loan bond should heed the caution to hold to his or her bonds, because there are going to be great efforts by shrewd and unscrupulous people to buy or secure at inadequate prices these bonds from holders who are not well informed as to stock and bond values.

Worthless or near-worthless stock or stock of only speculative value—"wildcat stocks" they are called—are going to be offered for Liberty bonds. Some will be urged not to sell or exchange their Liberty bonds, but to buy the stock and give the Liberty bonds as security for the purchase price. This is a camouflaged attempt to get Liberty bonds in exchange for the stock of their companies.

If every holder of a Liberty bond will consult a bank before he disposes of it, the get-rich-quick concerns will not prosper, but the individual bondholders will, and the American people as a whole, will be benefited.

GERMAN EFFICIENCY

A German private was among the captured after some severe fighting in the Vosges district. He spoke excellent English and the Allied Captain interrogated him concerning some of the seemingly stupid tactics of the Germans.
"Why didn't you men hide behind the trees instead of exposing yourselves the way you did?" asked the captain.
"Well," answered the soldier, "we would have done so, but there weren't enough trees for the officers."

A barge full of Q. M. supplies had sunk at the dock during the night.
At the investigation the sentry during whose guard the barge sunk was being questioned.
President of the Board (severely)—
"What in your opinion caused the barge to sink?"
Sentry (a bright recruit)—"Too much water got into it, sir." —Ex.

AN OLD FAVORITE

Jane—"What brought Chile into this war?"
Jimmie—"Well, Germany wanted Chile and that made Brazil nuts."

NICE FOR THE COLONEL

Q. M.—"What size hat do you wear?"
Private—"Seven."
O. M.—"Give him seven and a half."
Private—"But 'm not a lieutenant yet, sir."

ALL TAKEN

"You say you want a job in this office? Well, what can you do?"
"Nothing much."
"All those high-salaried positions have been taken long ago." —Zowie.

Gruff Old Gentleman—"My cocoa's cold."
Fair Waitress—"Put on your hat."

MERE MATTER OF CHIROGEOGRAPHY

Captain (examining uniforms which are expected to be marked with owner's name) — "What does this mean, My man? Your name seems to be obliterated.

Private (in rear rank)—"No sir, its

NO TIME FOR ARGUMENT

Captain—"Private Jones, where did you get those Germans?" Private Jones—"I captured seven of them in 'No Man's Land." Captain—"But you have only five here."

Private Jones—"Yes sir; two of them started to argue the matter."

HIS CONCERN

"Now Rastus," said the Captain.
"Don't you want to make your will before you go over?"
"Will nuthin', sah! De only will I'se worryin' about is will I come back?"

An English Tommie, fond of boasting of his ancestry, took a coin from his pocket and pointing to the head engraved on it said: "My great-great-grandfather was made a lord by the King whose picture you see on this shilling."

"What a coincidence!" said his Yankee companion, who at once produced another coin. "My great-great-grandfather was made an angel by the Indian whose picture you see on this cent."

50-50

A burley Irishman was brought into a base hospital pretty well "shot up."
After giving his name the doctor asked him: "You're an Irishman?"
"Half o'me sir" he replied.
"Half of you," asked the doctor in surprise. "And what's the other half?"
"German, sir," was the reply.
"German shrapnel, bits of iron, and holes."

An Irishman stood for some time before a hall in which a general fight seemed to be going on. Finally he could stand it no longer and, approaching a man in the doorway, asked:
"Excuse me, sorr, but wud you mind tellin' me: iz that a private fight that's goin' on in dere, or kin anyone go in and join in?"

BUSY ALL RIGHT

An officer on board a warship was drilling his men. "I want every man to lie on his back, put his legs in the air and move them as if he were riding a bicycle," he explained.
"Now commence."
After a short effort one of the men stopped.
"Why have you stopped, Murphy?"
asked the officer.
"If ye plaze, sir," was the answer,
"Oim coasting."

"Left, right, left, right," sing-songed Sergeant Warner. "Get that step, McTighe, don't you know your left from your right?"
"I can't help it," answered McTighe,
"You see I am left-handed and right-footed."

The "Navy" sometimes forget that they are in the army instead of somewhere on "The Atlantic." The other day one of the lieutenants called to Harrington, "Where is Negus?" Harrington clicked his heels together, saluted, and replied, "Gone ashore, sir."

THE S. A. T. C. AGAIN VICTORIOUS
OVER THE NORTHSIDE OF CORNING

Last Saturday witnessed a strong battle between the football team of the S. A. T. C. and the Northside of Corning, at Hornell.

The game started about three-thirty with Alfred winning the toss and deciding to receive. The Northside kicked to Huffman who ran the ball for about ten yards. On the next play, which was a trick play, with Tefft playing way out, a gain of forty yards was made by pass to Tefft from Negus. After a series of line plunges in which many good gains were made, Huffman ran the ball for ten yards and made the first touchdown. Negus kicked the goal and the score stood 7-0 in favor of the S. A. T. C.

Alfred chose to receive and the Northside kicked to Tefft who ran the ball for about forty yards. The S. A.
T. C. tried a forward pass but failed and then resorted to the usual line plunges until the end of the first quarter, without further score.

At the beginning of the second quarter the ball was on the twenty yard line of Northside. Working Ford and Huffman through the line another touchdown was secured and after kicking the goal the score stood 14-0.

Corning chose to receive and Huffman kicked to Crumb who ran the ball for about twenty yards. On formation Crumb went through for ten yards followed by Devoe for three. After another line play by Crumb, Northside attempted a forward pass, but failed, and then kicked to Negus who did not advance. After putting Huffman through the line Alfred lost the ball on a fumble. Working their backs through the line the Northside failed to make their downs and so lost the ball. The half ended with the ball in Alfred's possession.
The score at the end of the first half was 14-0. During the entire first half the Northside had the ball not more than five minutes.

At the beginning of the second half Alfred kicked to Crumb who ran the ball for about forty yards. On a trick play Northside advanced the ball forty yards. Trying a forward pass the Northside lost, the pass being intercepted by Negus. At this point time was called for Ketchum, left tackle for Northside, who was generally banged up and forced to retire.
Working the ball down the field by means of Grady, Huffman and Ford, Negus crossed the line for the third and last touchdown. Negus failed to kick the goal. Score, 20-0.

On the lineup Alfred received but lost on a fumble. Corning worked Devoe through the line for about four yards and then played Crumb through for two yards. Losing the ball on a forward pass the quarter ended with the ball in Alfred's possession.

The fourth quarter opened with Alfred attempting a forward pass, but failing in this they worked the backfield through the lineup until within thirty yards of the goal. Negus attempting a drop kick from the goal failed and the Northside gained the ball.
After putting Crumb through the line,
Flaitz, their end, on another trick play, ran the ball for twenty yards. Trying a forward pass they lost the ball.
The quarter and the game ended with the ball in Alfred's possession.

This game was one of the best that the S. A. T. C. have played this year. Credit must be given the Northside for the plucky spirit of some of its members, Flaitz and Devoe, in particular. As for the S. A. T. C. every-
