Carl is survived by his wife Peggy Fie Shively, of Alfred Station; one son and daughter-in-law, Brian and Eunice Shively, of Moravia; two daughters and one son-in-law, Denise Hughes, of Tequesta, FL., and Gretchen and Curtis Gardner, of Easton; one stepson, Matthew (Shelby Cook) Hackett, of Alfred Station; two stepdaughters, Tamera (Steve Learn) Bucher, of Richburg, and Ronda (Don) Rogers, of Manassas, VA; one sister and brother-in-law, Susan and Duane Sargent, of Sunbury; 21 grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and two nephews.

Carl, who retired from the University in 1998, was considered an expert on details of sparkling wine production as well as the still and sparkling wines of New York State and Australia. In particular, he did research attempting to decrease time in the barrel for sparkling wines while also attaining the sensory qualities associated with those that had been aged three-five years.

He was a member of Union University Church, Alfred; the American Wine Society; and the American Society for Enology and Viticulture. Carl was a certified wine judge in all of the United States, Canada, and Australia. He won numerous awards for amateur wines and champagnes in national wine competitions.
