DOT will replace Baker's Bridge for $1.8 mil in 2018

By DAVID L. SNYDER

Editor, Publisher & Janitor

ALFRED STATION—The Alfred Town Board, meeting at the Town Highway Building Thursday night, Oct. 13, heard that Baker's Bridge will be replaced by the New York State Department of Transportation (NYS-DOT) during the summer of 2018. Estimated cost of the bridge replacement will be $1.8 million.

NYS-DOT Assistant Design Engineer Michael J. Griffin of Region Six's Hornell office attended the meeting and displayed an aerial rendering of the project.

"Our plan is basically to do work from Rt. 244 to the intersection with Rt. 21 and put back what is there today," Griffin said.

"So is it a falsehood that you're tearing down all the buildings there?" Councilman Mary Stearns asked.

"It IS a falsehood," Griffin answered, "We will eliminate an erosion issue where the two creeks meet. That may require removal of a few willow trees."

Griffin said it will take four months to build, probably May through August 2018. All traffic, he said, will be detoured to the intersection of Rts. 21 and 244.

"Three years ago, 1,000 vehicles used that bridge in one day," Griffin said. "By reducing it to one way, use of the bridge has been reduced to about 450 vehicles per day."

ASSISTANT DESIGN ENGINEER Michael J. Griffin presents Baker's Bridge plans to members of the Alfred Town Board at the board's monthly meeting Thursday evening, Oct. 13.

Griffin said the bridge replacement is funded and there's no reason to believe it won't be bidded out.

He said there will be considerable noise during construction but that the DOT's goal is that "People will be happy when we leave."

The intersection of Rt. 21 and Hamilton Hill Road Extension, Griffin said, has a higher incident of accidents but they are mostly random accidents. Therefore, no turning lanes would be added on Rt. 21.

In other business...

...Eagle Scout candidate Silas Cochran reported that his project to install fire numbers on 517 properties in the Town of Alfred is now completed. More than 500 posts were made and installed at a total cost of $7,794.64. He said that about 298 man hours were invested in the project, with eleven people working each of three or four major work days.

TRIVIA NIGHT

Alfred Lions plan first Trivia Night

ALFRED—As you may or may not know, the Alfred Lions Club has entered its 51st year as a Chartered Club. Members celebrated their 50-year achievement this past spring and have decided to introduce into its line of regular fundraisers (Cuba Cheese fundraiser now going on ~ see any Lion member to get your order in!), a Trivia Night.

The Alfred Lions Club will host its first annual Trivia Night at 7 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 12 at the Union University Church Center (corner of Main & Church in Alfred). All are encouraged to participate, and in turn, support an organization that is dedicated to serving those in need.

Be it eye exams, new glasses, providing medical equipment for the under/un-insured, and granting scholarships to graduating Alfred-Almond students to help further their education at Alfred State or Alfred University, all fundraising proceeds stay LOCAL.

As the UUCC is limited as far as capacity, we are encouraging folks to register early (with/payment). Stop in to Community Bank by or before 3:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 10th to sign up your team (of no more than seven players), and receive five bonus points! We will accept teams at the door until capacity is reached.

Players may bring their own refreshments (No alcohol, please). If this event goes over well, we'll look into having refreshments for purchase at the next one.

Art Force 5 takes Manhattan with Stan Lee tribute

MANHATTAN—AU's Art Force 5 continued to tout creativity as a real superpower, as the program was recently invited by coordinators of the New York Comic Con to design and lead a fan-made salute to the legendary comic creator Stan Lee.

Over three hundred fans (of the nearly 200,000 attendees) painted predetermined patterns onto ceramic tiles and signed possibly the largest, physical "thank you card" ever created. Thousands of attendees posed for photos with the artwork as it evolved throughout the four days. The project was intended to acknowledge Mr. Lee's likely last east-coast event (as travel at 93 is becoming difficult) and gave fans an outlet to honor the creator of Spiderman, Hulk, Thor, Iron Man, the X-Men and more.

The work was presented to Mr. Lee at the event and will be mailed to his museum for possible exhibition. "There have been too many creative and impactful artists passing away lately," lamented team member Mawia Elawad, an AU senior from Rochester. "It was an honor to thank him for inspiring the next generation to carry on his legacy here in New York. We would be additionally honored to deliver the artwork to him in California."

The colorful apron-clad Art Force 5 uses the popularity of superheroes to lead impactful community-based art, often addressing social justice issues. Most recently, the team has been working with NYS police departments to foster creative community engagement.

Coincidentally, Mr. Lee recently designed and shared a logo and pin intended to build respect between police and community. Expect to see these pin on the super team's aprons sometime soon.

Art Force 5 display huge "thank you card."

AU has one of 'The Best 294 Business Schools'

ALFRED—Alfred University's School of Business has been included in a new survey by The Princeton Review of the best business schools in the U.S. AU is featured in The Review's 2017 edition of The Best 294 Business Schools.

"We chose the 294 schools in this book based on our high regard for their academics and our assessment of institutional data we collect from the schools," Robert Franek, Princeton Review Senior Vice President/Publisher said this week in announcing the new edition.

Alfred University President Mark Zupan said the AU School of Business warranted its national reputation.

"We are immensely pleased to learn of the glowing review provided by Princeton Review of our MBA program," Zupan said. "They have aptly recognized the commitment of our faculty and staff to the student experience; the benefits of our highly-personalized learning environment, and the professional successes realized by Alfred MBA graduates."

The Princeton Review developed its review of best business schools in part through a survey of 25,000 students attending business schools in the U.S.

AU's School of Business drew particular praise for its "intimate environment," interaction between students and professors, and support services such as the Robert R. McComsey Career Development Center, according to Franek.

MARION L. BREWER JR.
Pinsetter, paperboy, policeman
HORNELL—Marion L. Brewer Jr., 80, of 33 Washington St., Hornell, died Wednesday evening, Oct. 12, 2016 Hornell Gardens following a long illness. Born in Hornell on April 10, 1936, he was the son of Marion and Sarah (Smith) Brewer. Marion grew up in Hornell and was a graduate of Hornell High School (class of 1955). From the time he was eleven years old, Marion held various jobs as a paperboy, pinsetter at Seneca Lanes and as a ballpark vendor at Maple City Park. His personal hobbies included hunting, photography, fishing and sports. He also served as his brother, Bob's personal bodyguard while at dances at Lake Demmon. He was a veteran of the US Army, serving his country from 1956 – 1958 and for a time was stationed in Germany. Following his honorable discharge from the US Army, Marion worked for Ontario Industries as a shipping-receiving Foreman. He then went on to the Hornell Police Force and served for 23 years, first as a patrolman and later as sergeant. He was considered an expert marksman – especially with a pistol, having trained with the FBI. Marion later served as a trainer/instructor of fellow officers on the Hornell Police Department. Following his retirement from the Hornell Police Department, he served 30 years as Head of Security for St. James Mercy Hospital in Hornell. Marion was a member of Our Lady of the Valley Parish and was a communicant of St. Ann's Church where he often filled in as an usher. He was a New York Yankee fan and was also an avid Cleveland Browns fan. He was married to the Love of His Life, the former Marilyn "Midge" Jimerson who died April 2, 2009. He was also preceded in death by his sisters, Patricia Palmiter and Norma Hurd, along with two infant siblings. Surviving are his daughter, Debbie (Casey) Cameron of Hornell; four sons, Karl (Laura) Brewer of Rochester, Mike (Rainy) Brewer of Arkport, Eric Brewer of Hornell and Gary Brewer of Hornell; his brothers, Randie (Darlene) Brewer of Hornell, David Brewer of Hornell, Joseph (Linda) Brewer of Dover, DE, James ""JB"" (Geri) Brewer of Avon, Robert (Karen) Brewer of San Antonio, TX and Tracy (Luly) Brewer of San Diego, CA; three sisters, Suzanne (Ernie) Kelly of Ocala FL, Joanie (Peter) Sowinski of Pulteney and Deanna (Don) Cook of North Hornell; seven grandchildren; one great-grandchild; many nieces and nephews. Calling hours for Marion L. Brewer were held from 4-7 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 18 at the Dagon Funeral Home, 38 Church St., Hornell. A Memorial Mass was celebrated at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Oct. 19 at St. Ann's Church. Marion's family request that in lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in his name be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, PO Box 1000 – Dept. 300, Memphis, TN 38148. Memorial forms will be available at the Dagon Funeral Home. The Family of Marion Brewer would like to thank the Hornell Gardens for their passionate care during his stay. In recognition of Marion's military service during the Korean Conflict, the American Flag at the Dagon Funeral Home will be flown at half-staff.

AU President Mark Zupan to give 'Fiat Lux' Awards

ALFRED—Fiat Lux—"Let there be light"—has become a major leadership theme for Alfred University (AU) President Mark Zupan, as he prepares for his formal inauguration as AU's 14th president on Saturday, Oct. 22. "I want you to think about light," Zupan told university faculty and staff, at the annual breakfast meeting that kicks off AU's academic year. "Light illuminates, and thereby dispels darkness. Light also warms, and the warmth our students feel tells them 'People care for me here.'" Zupan now has initiated The Fiat Lux! Award, recognizing outstanding accomplishments of AU alumni, and will present the first three awards Friday, Oct. 21, at a pre-inaugural dinner on the AU campus. This year's honorees: Julio Fuentes, the former AU football player who suffered a paralyzing injury in 2006 – and who returned in September to Yunevich Stadium where he was recognized for his extraordinary spirit in fighting back against his injury; Don McPherson ('84), inventor of lenses that correct color-blindness and the founder of En Chroma, which manufactures the lenses; and Kristen Beck ('89), former U.S. Navy SEAL and Wellsville native. As Christopher Beck, she served a member of Seal Team 6, and then ran for Congress as a transgender woman. According to Zupan, the diversity of the Fiat Lux awardees casts its own bright light on the Alfred University community. "Light is powerful, but it is made up of a rainbow of component colors that combine to deliver the strength that is light."

AU's inaugural ceremony will begin at 10 a.m. the following day in the Galanis Family Arena at the McLane Center. The ceremony is open to all faculty, staff, students, alumni and members of the community. A reception will be held in the adjoining Joyce-Walton Health and Wellness Center immediately following the ceremony. Zupan was appointed Alfred University president by the AU Board of Trustees in February 2016. He officially began his tenure on July 1.

AABA to plan holiday celebration

ALFRED—The Alfred Area Business Association held its monthly meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 12. Following officer reports those in attendance heard an excellent "Business Spotlight" report from Snow Hill, a local landscaping, mowing and snow removal business. Tara Snyder explained how she and her husband Matthew have developed and enhanced the mowing business that he had started 10 years ago to now provide professional landscaping and snow removal. They have seven employees. Full information on their services can be found at snowhillinc.com.

Members also spent beneficial time discussing Christmas past, present and what we can do in the future to encourage the business climate in our community. Holiday plans will be finalized at a meeting at 6:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 24 at the Village Hall. All interested in improving our community celebration are welcome.

A.E.Crandall Hook & Ladder Fire Company Service and Activities An exceptionally busy summer

By BECKY PROPHET
A.E. Crandall Hooks Fire Co.

Alfred's volunteer fire and ambulance emergency service, A.E. Crandall Hook and Ladder Company, had an exceptionally busy summer, with many, many calls putting the company well over its average service in summers past. Through June, July, and August, we averaged nearly one call per day in a time frame where we usually have about 25-30% that amount of activity.

In September the trend of high volume continued. With students back on both campuses and a full complement of residents back in town, we were nearly overwhelmed with 61 ambulance calls—residents 8; non-residents 9; AU 19; and AS 25. This number also represents a few calls to Almond as mutual aid. Still, it does represent slightly more than two ambulance calls a day for a volunteer company. WOW!

Fire calls for September were also high at 76 fire calls—false alarms at AU 30; AS 28; Standbys 18 for mutual aid; Community service event 1.

Remember, every time you hear the siren, it does mean that an automatic alarm has been dispatched from some place in the village to 911 and back to Alfred. We must respond, and we always will. As the siren goes off, one chief goes immediately to the scene. Crews assemble at the fire hall.

A.E. Crandall covers fire calls, with three chiefs who rotate daily on-call responsibilities. That means that Nancy Furlong, Zach Hamm, and Paul Weaver regularly interrupt their day to investigate alarms in the village. They also work together to assure that there is coverage, thus limiting their freedom and flexibility to leave town. This is truly astounding dedication and service! Thank you.

Regular coverage of ambulance calls is spread among a number of drivers, extra hands, and EMT-basics. However, our company is blessed with six Critical Care EMTs.

These highly skilled EMTs are the ones, who truly save lives. Of these, Bob Pipal, Nancy Furlong, Jane Cochran, and Paul Weaver, are dynamos. At least one of these four and sometimes two seems to be present on every call. That means that each are responding to at least 15 calls a month, in addition to regularly

DAR chapter plans membership workshop

ALFRED—The Catherine Schuyler Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) will hold a workshop for prospective members at 4 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 25 upstairs at the Terra Cotta Coffeehouse on Main Street in Alfred.

Any woman, 18 years of age or older who is wondering if she may be eligible to join the DAR and believes she may be descended from a Revolutionary War era ancestor who contributed to the founding of our country is invited to attend. Students are welcome.

Local chapter leaders will briefly introduce attendees to the organization and the activities of the local chapter. Lineage researchers will be on hand to explain application requirements and process and to assist those who are able to bring lineage information. Each attendee will receive a folder containing information about the organization and aids to assist in recording and documenting their lineage.

The DAR is the world's largest women's service organization dedicated to patriotism, education and historic preservation. The local chapter is centered in Allegany County but has a membership, currently 75 in total, which extends beyond county borders.

For more information or to RSVP or to make an appointment to meet, contact Joan Sinclair at 607-247-5032 or joansinclair1776@gmail.com by Sunday, Oct. 23.

On a sweet, warm Saturday, October 16, 2016, while the hillsides near Wellsville, flamed with seasonal glory, walkers, runners, and hikers emerged from yellow schoolbuses to enjoy, "up close and personal," the beauty of the woods, logging roads, rocky ridges, and isolated fields. The 24th Annual RidgeWalk and run, was sponsored by Jones Memorial Hospital.

Early on the Six Mile Walk trail, marked by blue and white flags, was this special one, a deer skull, one of the volunteers found and used to anchor the marker.

Highlights of the September 6, 2016 Town Board Meeting Public Hearing and Another Bridge

Our regular monthly meeting was preceded by a public hearing on the proposed Charitable Games of Chance Law. In that no community members attended to speak for or against the board moved ahead, after a brief discussion and adopted the law. This will become effective if it is passed in the November referendum.

Routine business included a report by Code Enforcement Officer Steve Kilmer regarding the temporary storage container at a residence on Route 244. This as well as the unlicensed cars at a residence on Jericho Hill are ongoing issues.

The final topic of note was a report by the supervisor that New York State DOT will replace Pine Street Bridge in 2020. There will be no cost to the town since 80% of the cost will come from federal sources and 20% from New York State.

Hillary just as bad as Trump

To the Editor:

I have been watching TV and all that shows up is how Trump did this, and how he did that.

I want to know why these so-called women didn't come forward when it happened, especially the lady that was his secretary. It's because she liked the attention and the salary she got; working for him was great.

But we are forgetting that Hillary's so-called husband had many! many! women that he did the same thing with while he was president of the United States and in the White House. And if Hillary gets there, he can start all over again.

We also have still not gotten answers on the e-mails, and the Benghazi problem. And she never fulfilled her duty to us; when she never finished the Secretary of State, she let all of us down. Will she do that again if she becomes president?

She wants to open our borders to everyone; the bad and the good people. We cannot check everyone that comes into the U.S. We already have a problem with drugs coming in. When she does that, it will be easier to get their drugs here.

And more of our factories will be gone, since her husband put NAFTA into place.

It wouldn't surprise me that she or someone in her campaign is paying these women to say these things. To me that means that her campaign people are dirty people. Do you want someone like that as your president? She's as bad as Trump (if he did those things.)

Nor head us out in woods too deep,
But just goes 'long by that there stream.
With all that water, don't it seem
It oughtter pass a waterfall?
'Bout ten foot wide and forty tall,

That ya hear the sound...but can't see at all.

Well anyways, the trail's not hard—
We c'n go f'r 'piece an' not git taard,
Just trampin' 'round on mountain paths;
Nothin's quite as peaceful as
A-seein' big, humungous trees,
An' smellin' ther decayin' lea'es,
An' hearin' sounds—'zat yer creakin' knees?
Here's hopin' you don't have one seize.

But that's okay, cuz 't least out there
We'll leave behind all earthly care
An' breathe that healthy mountain air.
Don't worry—we won't see a bear;
Ther much too shy to leave ther log
An' clamber 'round through gorse and scrog
Ta wander down ta this here bog—
Hey, looky! There's a big black dog!

Election Day luncheon

Dear Editor,

Election Day 2016 is just around the corner, and the Almond 20th Century Club is planning its annual luncheon, basket auction, and sale to benefit our community Library.

We hope you will join us at the Library that day! We are planning a luncheon with our delicious vegetable-beef soup, sandwiches, beverages, and homemade pies from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Take-outs will be available.

We hope to offer a variety of baskets showcasing many local businesses, so there will be something for everyone. Donations from individuals are also most welcome. Baskets will be on display during Library hours from now until Election Day, November 8, when the auction will be open from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Winning tickets will be drawn beginning at 6 p.m. Winners need not be present.

During the basket auction, there will be a sale of new decorative pillows, greeting cards, houseplants, used books, and a quilt featuring forty-eight state birds, which was donated by the estate of Marie Rigby, long-time Almond resident.

We also will have our annual quilt raffle with a beautiful long-queen-sized Log Cabin quilt in cranberry, burgundy, and cream. The drawing for the quilt will be at 6 p.m. this year. Tickets are only $1 each or 6 for $5.

All proceeds go to support the Almond Library, which seeks to provide educational and recreational opportunities and resources to all in our community. Your support is much needed and appreciated.

For more information, please call the Library at 607-276-6311 or Susan Steere at 607-276-6380.

Sincerely,
Susan Steere, Helen McKnight

Allegany County Legislator

EMPHASIS ON PERSONNEL, BUDGET

The Board of Legislators held another regular meeting on October 11th. Because of Columbus Day, the meeting was held on Tuesday, rather than on Monday. Former Army Specialist Fourth Richard L. Blouvet, Jr., led those present in the Pledge of Allegiance. (Unlike at some sporting and other events, everyone stood and joined in.) Richard Blouvet served as an artilleryman in the mid-1970s. He currently serves as the Commander of Allegany County Forty and Eight Chapter and as Third Vice Commander of American Legion Post 1168 in Friendship.

The 2017 County Tentative Budget was placed on the desks of all Legislators. The annual Budget Hearing will be held on Thursday, November 10th, at 7:00 p.m. in the Legislative Chambers. We received from County Administrator Timothy Boyde an approved Report of Intra-Fund Transfers and an approved Report of Tax Bill Corrections. Chairman Curtis Crandall appointed Ravo Root as a Member of the Board of Directors of the Allegany County Telecommunications Development Corporation, subject to confirmation by the Board of Legislators. He also proclaimed October 22, 2016, as "Make A Difference Day in Allegany County." Legislator Charles Jessup introduced proposed Local Law No. 4-2016, entitled "A Local Law to Provide Increases in the Compensation of Certain County Officers."

The Board approved 11 resolutions. Resolution 225-16 set a public hearing on October 24, 2016 at 2:00 p.m. on proposed Local Law No. 4-2016. If approved, this local law will provide salary increases for specified county officers, but none for County Legislators. Resolution 226-16 re-appointed Richard Hollis as Commissioner of Elections (Republican) for a 4 year term. Resolution 227-16 appointed Randy Shayler of Wellsville as a member of the County Industrial Development Agency Board of Directors. Resolution 228-16 approved a 7 year Agreement between the County and Public Employees Federation ("PEF") covering the period from 2013 through 2019. Resolution 229-16 amended the PEF Salary Plan to add new salary grades 12, 13 and 14. Resolution 230-16 amended the PEF Salary Plan accordingly. These changes are needed to help the County attract qualified candidates for the position of County Engineer.

Resolution 231-16 authorized the appropriation of $230,000 in the General Fund Reserve Account for repairs and replacement of boilers and storage tanks at the County Jail. It also transferred those funds to capital accounts. Resolution 232-16 corrected a Wellsville Central School Tax Bill for property owned by Niagara Mohawk/National Grid Company, and provided for appropriate charge backs or credits. Resolution 233-16 authorized the transfer of $2,750 in Employment and Training Accounts. Resolution 234-16 approved a lease between Donald Baldwin and Allegany County for premises used by the Allegany County Department of Health WIC/Cancer Services at a monthly rental of $2,100. Resolution 235-16 authorized submission of grant applications to the NYS Department of Transportation for the Allegany County public transportation system.

The approval of the new Collective Bargaining Agreement between the County and PEF warrants special attention. Negotiations have been ongoing since 2012. The Agreement approves wage increases ranging from 1.0% to 2.5%. The average over 7 years is 1.928%. A significant change involved the elimination of "flat dollar contributions" for health care insurance. There will now be percentage contributions from all employee members. Employees hired before September 13, 2010 will immediately begin paying a 6% contribution towards their health insurance costs. This will increase in increments, reaching 10% in 2019. Employees hired after 9/13/10 will continue to contribute 20% towards their insurance costs. There were other provisions dealing with longevity payments, retiree health insurance (those hired since 9/13/10 don't qualify for it), and an early retirement incentive. It took more than three years to negotiate this contract. Neither side got everything it wanted. Both sides had to accept provisions they didn't like. After a lot of hard work we ended up with a fair, "good compromise." I count that as a success.

ALFRED UNIVERSITY

'Passionate,' 'dynamic' Hope Childers gets Chancellor's

ALFRED—"Transformative," "passionate," and "dynamic" are only a few of the words used to describe Alfred University Assistant Professor Hope Childers.

Recognition of her excellence on the AU campus now extends throughout the SUNY system. Childers, a member of the Division of Art History at the New York State College of Ceramics, has been honored with a SUNY Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Teaching.

The SUNY Chancellor's Awards honor SUNY personnel in numerous separate areas of education: teaching; librarianship; professional service; scholarship; faculty service and creative activities. The award, however, recognizes all its honorees as "SUNY community role models" and celebrates "consistently superior professional achievement and ... the ongoing pursuit of excellence."

Childers arrived at AU in 2011 after receiving her PhD in Art History from the University of California Los Angeles. Since then, according to Doreen Edwards, former acting vice president for Statutory Affairs, she has taught more than 830 undergraduate and graduate students. As a global art historian, her range of courses has been vast, including "Arts of Ancient India" and "Global Arts: Contemporary Asian Art in a Transnational Age," plus newly developed courses, including "Women/Art/History: Feminist Art in a Global Frame."

Her classroom work has also included the use of groundbreaking teaching technology, including practice in the use of Wordpress blogs, Endnote and Zotero, and encouragement of students to use applications such as Prezi, concept mapping and PowerPoint as teaching tools. Her scholarship has included numerous publications on Indian and South Asian art, and she is working on developing her dissertation — The Visual Culture of Opium in British India — into a book manuscript.

While Childers excels as a master teacher, she also is quick to credit Alfred University students with transforming their classrooms into productive learning experiences. In particular, she says, the combination of AU art history and studio arts students in a single class yields a potent brew of intellectual curiosity and energy.

"When I came to Alfred, it was such a pleasure to teach students who first and foremost were interested in art. They're curious, active, and so many have no problem participating in the classroom. They're interested in how things are made — even when we're not talking about functional pieces, the students are interested in how this art works in the world. And that interest becomes part of a much larger discussion."

HOPE CHILDERS

SUNY Chancellor's Award recipient

Childers says she also uses the multifaceted interests of AU faculty to further enlarge the classroom experience. "I have strong connections with people across the university, and I've made good strides in connecting with people across the campus. So in my "Women/Art/History" class, for instance, I have guest lecturers almost weekly from philosophy, anthropology and history."

Her efforts weave a complex and stimulating tapestry in the education of her students. As Edwards said in her nomination of Childers for the SUNY Chancellor's Award, "The New York State College of Ceramics and the broader University are fortunate to have someone of Hope's caliber, intellectual acumen, enthusiasm, and commitment."

COAST-TO-COAST EXCURSION

Former AU Habitat members 'share' their apartments

I know why Tim Riggins often said "Texas Forever" in Friday Night Lights. It just goes on and on and on and on and on...

Following the rendezvous with Kyle Chandler, I headed west. I traveled with a sense of urgency as I had tickets for a baseball game between the Arizona Diamondbacks and my Washington (formerly Montreal Expos) Nationals for Monday night, August 1 and was hoping to arrive in Phoenix Sunday.

Despite wanting to put Texas behind me, I soon tired from driving and settled for a $43 room at the Motel 6 in San Angelo, Texas. It was just too hot to camp. The motel allowed me to relax, phone the family, rehash the day and write in my journal.

Next morning, after more writing, I hit the road in hopes of reaching Carlsbad, New Mexico where my family had visited the Carlsbad Caverns back in 1966. While we had stayed at Bottomless Lakes State Park back then, it was too far north this time around. I decided to stay at a Kampground of America (KOA) between Carlsbad and Artesia, New Mexico.

I arrived Friday afternoon and set up camp, expecting to stay two nights. Perpetual driving was wearing on me and I needed a break. A brief game of pick-up basketball, a dip in the pool and a dinner prepared by camp staff was just what the doctor ordered. The KOA was managed by a family from Upstate New York. Although I'm no ornithologist, I saw my first roadrunner. I also was rudely awakened by the sound of coyotes yip-yapping at early dawn. But there was no "Beep! Beep!"

A family in the next campsite was from Daytona Beach, Florida. He taught at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University. I told them of meeting an Embry-Riddle retired prof while building houses in nearby De-

Land for West Volusia Habitat for Humanity together with Alfred University students during their Spring Breaks. AU students had built nineteen houses in fifteen years. I had been part of twelve during my ten years of involvement.

It was through the Habitat trips that we learned how God blesses when we share our time and talents in helping others. In doing so, we made good friends.

Among them was Josh Rafta (AU '09) from Webster, who works for Paychex and together with wife Jenna were recently transferred to Phoenix; and Alan and Lauren (Morris) Mabry, who now reside in Los Angeles (where I hoped to wade into the Pacific Ocean.)

While still a student at AU, Josh, a marketing major, had selected the Alfred Sun as the subject of a family business study in Frank Duserick's class.

At the conclusion of his study, he met with me to present his observations and recommendations for this little newspaper business. After all had been discussed, he pushed a dime across the table and said, "I'd like to buy a share in the Alfred Sun." We both laughed. I took his dime.

The very next day, Alan Littell, then travel editor of the Sunday Spectator, approached me at Herrick Library.

"I think I may quit writing for the Sunday paper," he said, "I think they're in trouble financially. Do you know what their stock is selling for?"

"I have no idea," I replied.

"Nine cents a share," he said.

"I don't know how they can stay in business."

"Nine cents a share?" I laughed. "You know, Alan, just yesterday, I sold my first share for ten cents!"

So while a visit with Josh and Jenna in Phoenix was for my own pleasure, I could also write it off as a business expense: a "shareholder's meeting."

I arrived in Phoenix late Sunday afternoon and enjoyed a quiet evening with the Raftes. They put me up in a guest bedroom. Next morning, they were off to work early.

Josh returned before noon and took the afternoon off to show me the town: In-and-Out burger for lunch, outlet stores, and a visit to the Arizona Cardinals' training camp.

Soon we were off to Chase Field for the Nationals-Diamondbacks game. Just as I had hoped, Stephen Strasburg was pitching for the Nats. At the park, I exhibited my loyalties, wearing an Alfred University basketball jersey and a Montreal

Expos hat. Yes, I may have looked ridiculous, but I had hopes of appearing on the Jumbotron. To increase my chances, I also made a sign that said "I drove 2,850 miles to see this game."

It didn't work. But I did catch a t-shirt from the Diamondback mascot, D. Baxter the Bobcat and witnessed a three-hitter by Strasburg, who went 3-for-4 at the plate himself in a 14-1 win.

Next day, after a fun visit, it was an early start to the Grand Canyon for some sightseeing, then on to L.A. via the Mojave Desert to visit the Mabry family.

Lauren had invited me for a 6:30 p.m. dinner but my phone told me I wouldn't arrive until about 7:30 p.m., which was their young son Dylan's bedtime.

When I arrived at their modern apartment complex in Playa Vista, they met me on the street and we went for a quick bite at a nearby eatery.

Soon we were back to their apartment and Dylan was in bed. We sat and talked. He works for a software company; she works for National Geographic. I told them about my trip and meeting Kyle Chandler. Then they told me what I already knew...that Alfred is such a special place.

They agreed to buy a subscription (in Dylan's name). Because they knew Josh Rafta from Habitat, I told them the story about his buying a share.

A few moments later, Lauren placed a couple of dimes in the envelope with their subscription form and payment.

"I'd like to buy two shares," she said.

"Sold!" I said.

We continued our visit. As all my correspondence had been with Lauren, I exchanged cell phone numbers with Alan.

A few moments later, I received a text. It read, "Is he spending the night?"

"I think this text was intended for your wife, Alan," I said, laughing at the awkwardness of the moment.

"I had just planned to do dinner and then be on my way," I explained. "But if I could get a few hours of sleep, I'd be on the road before daylight and beat the traffic."

"We do have a futon in the office that you could sleep on," Lauren offered.

As we continued to visit, I mentioned that I had hoped to fulfill my "coast-to-coast" experience by dipping my toes in the Pacific Ocean.

"I'll take you!" Alan offered, "I can bring Cash (their dog) along."

After a quick trip to the beach, a few photos for evidence, and a walk along a pier, we returned to the apartment. Lauren had the futon ready and a towel set out for a shower in the morning. I hit the hay.

I woke at 3:30 a.m. and was out the door at 4:30 a.m. and on my way to Yosemite National Park.

On the road again, I was grateful. I was happy to have renewed acquaintances with some special friends—now all "shareholders" of the Alfred Sun. And I was blessed that they "shared" their homes and hearts with me.

NOTES from the BOX OF BOOKS

By MELANIE MILLER
Box of Books Library Director
Our Mission: Mars! will conclude on October 23 with an exploration of Mars Engineering. We will look at the current rovers on the surface of Mars and the technology they are using to conduct experiments. Children will learn NASA's Engineering Design Process, and build a rover with craft materials. They will compete in an engineering challenge in which their rovers must meet "mission objectives." Alfred State College's Women Engineers are Pioneers (WEP) club will be on hand to help children with their engineering. This final installment in our Mission: Mars! program will take place on October 23 at 1:30 p.m.

October 27 at 4 p.m. we will host our Tail Waggin' Tutors. This is a program for all young readers to practice their reading skills with therapy dogs. Jessica Biddle of Therapy Dogs International will be here with her two cane corsos! On Sunday, Oct. 23 from 1 to 3 p.m. outside the Box of Books Library we will host a Perennial Plant Exchange. This is an opportunity to share plants from your gardens with the community, as well as get new plants to try in your own garden. If you haven't already, stop into the Box of Books to check out our Seed Library!

THE CARE YOU NEED, CLOSE TO HOME.

"It took me about a year to get the courage to have the knee replacement my doctor recommended - I am squeamish about that kind of thing. But I was tired of wearing a knee brace, so I called Dr. Axtell. I can't say enough about him and the awesome care - from the day of my surgery to the last day of physical therapy, everyone was friendly and encouraging. And the best part - I didn't have to go far to get the care I needed."

What's Happening at Almond Library

By ELIZABETH CALL
Almond Library Director

A Quilt for Ezra is going great! The kids and the adult volunteers are working well together, and the quilt squares are developing nicely. There are two more sessions to go, and your child can still participate, if they wish!

We are having a Halloween party here in the library from 11 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 29. Everyone is invited to wear their costumes—there will be a prize for the best one! The winner of the best-decorated house in Almond will be announced during the party. Contact the library if you live away from the main drag, and you wish your house to be entered. We will have snacks, games and crafts during the party.

Interested in learning how to access the library from home on your computer or tablet? Rima from the Box of Books and Kim from Alfred-Almond Central School will be joining us on the third Thursday of every month to help you learn! If you are planning on getting a new tablet for yourself, or for a Christmas gift, Rima can help you decide what's best for you!

Are you interested in becoming more involved with your library and the Almond Community? Join the 20th Century Club! Every month we have a different activity, whether it is a speaker, a craft, or just food to share. Newcomers are welcome, and the yearly dues are just $10!

Feel free to contact the library with any questions you might have about our upcoming programs or anything else, and don't forget to check our website and our facebook page for the most up-to-date information: www.almondlibrary.org.

The DIY Farmer's Wife Approach

By KRISTINA SNYDER
Alfred Sun Columnist

Do It Yourself Butternut Beef Stew

This fall season is gorgeous as ever! The trees on the farm are painted vibrant with color. The nights are certainly cooling off and nodding towards Jack Frost. Our family loves to warm up this time of year with harvest stews and soups like this Butternut Beef Stew. Serve with parmigiana and ft esh sourdough bread.

Ingredients:

1lb Stew meat	1 onion chopped
2 sweet Italian pepper diced	1 whole Butternut
7 fresh sage leaves	2 cup sliced mushroom
1 cup kale	1 jar beef broth

Salt & pepper
Preheat oven to 425. Cut Butternut in half, scoop out seeds and roast for 45 minutes with water in bottom of pan. Salt and pepper the stew meat and brown in a skillet. Transfer to crock pot but leave drippings. In the same skillet sauté onions, kale, chopped fresh sage, peppers and mushrooms, then add to crockpot. When squash has softened scrape away from peel and incorporate into ingredients in crock, at the same time adding the broth. Cook on high for 6 hours or low for 10 and enjoy!

If you have a household tip to share or questions for The Farmer's Wife, e-mail: Kristinamariesnyder@gmail.com or write her at: The Farmer's Wife, 1724 Randolph Road, Alfred Station, NY 14803.

Pigskin Picks

A weekly fall feature in which Alfred Sun readers attempt to pick the winners of ten small college (Division III) games and ten NFL games each week for 13 weeks during football season.

Also featuring the D3football.com weekly Top 25, The D3 East Region Fan Poll, not to mention Alfred Sun sports columnist (and sports authority) Doug Loro's weekly NFL "almost perfect" prognostications.

Pigskin Picks Football Contest

JAY LAWRENCE wins Week Seven!
It came down to the Monday Night Football Tiebreaker and Jay Lawrence of Fulton edged Art McLaughlin of Alfred Station to take Week Seven Pigskin Picks honors. Both had six misses of the twenty games.

Nelson Snyder of Alfred Station, Jim Moretti of Clermont, FL, Judy Marlatt of Almond and Doug Loro of Webster each had seven misses, while Gary Moore of Geneseo, Bob Baker of Alfred, and Barb Welch of Arkport each had eight misses.

Floyd Patrick Farley of Hornell, Robert Grogan of Canisteo, Betsy "The Bird Lady" Brooks of Alfred Station and Chris Yarnal of Almond had nine misses. Two-time winner Roland Stephens II of Hornell dropped back in the pack with 12 misses.

It's easy to participate! Enter your guesses of winners of the 20 football games (found in the ads on these pages) and predict the score of the MNF game as the tiebreaker in the form below. Enter today! The entry form below is due by 5 p.m. Friday, OCT. 28. Send entries to: Pigskin Picks, PO Box 811, Alfred, NY 14802 or take to the ALFRED SUN mailbox on the porch of the home office located at 764 Route 244 in Tinkertown. Good luck!

Growing Up in Alfred

By JUDE FRECHETTE
Special to the Alfred Sun
“Tomatoes”

What could ever equal the experience of biting into a fresh, ripe, homegrown tomato?

Maybe you are standing in the garden, with the juices dripping off your chin, your nose and tongue exploding with happiness at the flavor, a perfect balance between sweet and tart. Or maybe you're tasting that touch of summer in a mid-winter soup, sauce, stew, or pizza, so different from the commercially canned or frozen product. Whatever its form, all the world agrees - nothing beats a homegrown tomato!

Alfred's tomatoes can hold their stems up with the best. Personally, I think our clay-heavy soil gives them a unique tang. But, as anyone who has lived and gardened here knows, we have a short season. We stretch it by starting early indoors, and throwing old sheets over the plants in the fall when frost threatens.

Still, it's a rare year when we don't end up with an overabundance of green tomatoes. In a cool summer, it's hard to get red ones. This fact has led to the invention of many tasty recipes beyond the traditional fried green tomatoes. One year the season was such a wash-out that the Alfred Sun ran a whole series on the topic. I have personally resorted to green tomato relish, mincemeat, marmalade, chutney, pickles, and mock-apple pie, and that only scratches the surface.

One year my mother got sick of composting the majority of her tenderly-raised tomatoes, and decided to change the game. Mom was a woman who felt deeply that if something wasn't right, it was up to her to fix it, if she could, and a little matter of climate wasn't going to scare her off. After some careful research, she went into action.

Our house had a large cellar with a concrete floor and thick stone-and-mortar walls. The gas furnace (formerly coal) was down there, as well as the water-heater, so it stayed fairly warm in winter. Before we knew it, Mom had bought and installed several florescent light fixtures in one corner, and started her tomato patch. She got special plant-lights which glowed with a distinctly purple hue, and seeds bred for indoor growing.

By now, I honestly don't recall if she dove straight into hydroponics, or if that was the second year, but either way, she soon had a dozen healthy plants beginning to flower and set fruit.

I went down every day to look at them, as if my attention would help them grow faster. This was in the late '60s, when ideas were being proposed about the benefits of talking to plants, touching them, and even playing music for them. I thought that was a little nutty, but it couldn't hurt to try, right? I sang to them when nobody was listening, and made sure to stroke the leaves of each one daily. Whether or not it helped, I was almost as proud as Mom was when delicious ripe tomatoes began to appear on the dinner table.

There weren't a lot to go around at first, with seven people eating them - maybe only a single wedge on a salad. But they were a far, far cry from the tasteless store-bought tomatoes we were accustomed to in winter, and everyone agreed that Mom's idea had been brilliant. Everone, that is, with the possible exception of my father.

Oh, he enjoyed eating them as much as we did. He raved about their flavor, texture, and juiciness. But Dad was a scientist. He wasn't satisfied to accept anything without first crunching the numbers.

Unknown to us, he quietly kept a running tally of production and expenses all winter. One evening in spring, when we were eating the last fruits from the exhausted plants, Dad beamed at Mom and said, "Yes, Sally, the tomatoes have been great!" Then he got that wicked gleam in his eye and concluded with a wink, "They darned well better be, at $13.00 a pound!"

As we grow older or busier, we look for the perfect plant - one we plant and it lasts for decades - one suited to our environment (it will prosper with little care) - one that seems immune to blight and disease - one the critters avoid - one that brings joy to a sometimes dreary world. Look no further than the small spring bulbs: snowdrops, crocuses, Siberian squill, and chionodoxa.

These treasures fit the bill and the time to put them in the ground is NOW. Late October is a bit late but the warm lingering fall has kept the soil temperature high. Mulch your bulbs and corms with 4 inches of mowed leaves and they will grow roots into December, and be ready to burst forth in the last days of winter.

Snowdrops evolved in the forests of Europe and prefer humus, damp soil. They come and go over March and April when sun reaches them through the bare tree branches (their leaves, like all in this column, will be gone by late May). Do not remove the leaves until dead, as they are making food to be stored in the bulb for next year's early show. Snowdrops need to be planted right after bloom, as they do not store well. A generous friend is your best source.

Some of you may remember Lynn Phelan of Almond - my snowdrops come from his backyard. Lynn is gone now but his snowdrops live on, greeting each late winter with undaunting determination.

Plant bulbs as soon as you can, with the base 3-4 inches deep and 4 inches apart in sun or shade, in a well-drained site. If the area goes dry in summer, fine. Their original home, temperate forests, are wet in spring and dry in summer and fall. Mine, on the south side of the house, bloom in February, often emerging from the snow to declare winter's end. Those in the woods appear two weeks later. If happy, they will self-sow and, given time, the clump of a dozen will grow into a colony of hundreds, even thousands.

My true loves are the crocuses. Their ancestors came from the Eastern Mediterranean and the steppes of the Middle East. There, winters can be cold and wet, but not too wet, and the summer and fall, hot and dry. This does not match our climate and most crocus species are short-lived, the wet summer doing them in.

Two species that will survive and even self-sow are Crocus tommasinianus (or tommies, as I call them) and Crocus chrysanthus. Both need sun to fully open and sandy, well-drained soil. The corms are small and go 3 inches down and 4 inches apart. A minimum of twelve makes a good show. These crocus blooms are cup-shaped and lifted to the sun to attract the first honey bees. The "tommies" are found in shades of lavender. Chrysanthus crocuses have been bred in shades of white, cream, yellow, and purple.

Siberian squill come from the far North. Most are brilliant blue, small bells on six-inch stems. They will bloom in dappled shade as well as sun, and can spread in a decade or so.

Chionodoxa (glory of the snow) are mostly blue, but lift their white-centered cup-like faces to the sun. Clusters form on 6 to 8-inch stems. They, too, can handle dappled shade.

So, go out now, loosen the soil, gather the mulch, and go find end-of-season bargains. Plant now, enjoy forever!

In The Alfred Sun 50, 25 and 10 Years Ago

Compiled By DAVID L. SNYDER

Alfred Sun Editor and Publisher

50 Years Ago, October 20, 1966

Alfred University honored its late president, Dr. John Nelson Norwood, by recognizing him as an “Alfred Great” and unveiling an oil portrait of him during the Charter Day Convocation, held here on Thursday. Dr. Norwood was a man whose “greatness rests on his contribution as a teacher,” Dr. Finla G. Crawford, chairman of the board of trustees, told the formal academic assembly of students, faculty, and invited guests. Mrs. Dora Degen Norwood, widow of the late president, together with other relatives and descendants of the former president attended the convocation in Men’s Gym as special guests...

Alfred University officials held a symbolic groundbreaking today as bulldozers, shovels and trucks roared nearby preparing the site for construction of a new Science Center which will cost $2,476,354. Bids for construction of the four story structure have been approved by the Department of Housing and Urban Development and letters of intent has been issued to contractors pending formal approval of the contracts, E.K. Lebohner, University treasurer said. Approval by the federal agency is necessary because the University has received a federal grant of $795,070 for the project...

(Photo) Breaking ground for the Alfred University Science Center are E.K. Lebohner, treasurer; President M. Ellis Drake; Dr. Finla G. Crawford, chairman of the board of trustees; Dr. Peter Finlay, chairman of the biology department; Dr. Joel M. Savell, assistant professor of psychology; and Dr. George C. Towe, chairman of the physics department.

Alfredians—Mr. and Mrs. Allan Hitchcock and family of Snyder were Homecoming Weekend guests of Mrs. R.O. Hitchcock... Dr. and Mrs. Paul C. Saunders were in Little Valley, Friday, where Dr. Saunders gave a liquid air demonstration at the school... Following the Alfred-Brockport football game Saturday evening, the Gordon Sanford family gathered at the H.O. Burdick home to celebrate the birthdays of David and Cynthia Sanford... Dr. and Mrs. Dan Rase and Dr. Ray Wingate attended the inauguration of Dr. Bert Hollans as president of Hobart and William Smith Colleges Oct. 8 at the homecoming alumni luncheon which followed the ceremonies... Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Alty Crafts of Buffalo joined the Harry Stoneham family and Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Jacox and Christina at the J.W. Jacox home, Homecoming Weekend... Mrs. J. Nelson Norwood and Mrs. A.J.C. Bond returned with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Moulton to their home at Miller Place, L.I., following the Charter Day Convocation, to spend a few days...

Almond Happy Elves—Nine members of the Happy Elves Bluebird Group became Camp Fire Girls at a ceremonial fly-up Sunday afternoon in the Almond Union of Churches. They were: Laurie Coleman, Ivonne Formosa, Beatrice Gaynor, Sally Hardy, Cheryl Johnson, Robin Lorow, Juanita McKnight, Colleen Wagner and Debby Wilcox. Mrs. Wayne Brownell, Bluebird leader, gave a talk “Memories of Bluebirds.” The film, “The Open Road” was also shown. The girls were presented their Camp Fire Scarves by their mothers. Mrs. Lyle Sutton is the guardian of the new Camp Fire Group, assisted by Mrs. James Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sisson of Columbus, Ohio, announce the engagement of their daughter Charlene, to Charles Perkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Perkins of Andover...

Alfred Belles 4-H Club—We met at the home of Mrs. Sheppard on Monday afternoon. We worked on felt “barefoot” shoes and our two new members sewed on the felt holders for their sewing box. Mrs. Elsie Cushing assisted our leader and we enjoyed having her at our meeting. Our next meeting will be a Halloween party. Committees were appointed as follows: room decorations, Amy Tuttle, Jane Lewis and Christie Herrick; table decorations and place cards, Karen Cushing and Erion Dirlam. Lisa Smith, Carolyn Williams and Lisa Sheppard will set up the spooky games and Lisa Smith will be in charge of group singing. The club is happy to welcome two new members, Amy Tuttle and Erion Dirlam. Lisa Sheppard, President

They are: Peggy Benson, Carolyn Newman, Louise Clare, Sandra Winters, Pamela Capadonia, Sarah Hurne, Cathy Drumm, Shelva Griffin, Arlene Briggs, Cathy Hamlin, Linda Herbert, Brenda Herbert, Helen Coats, Margo Adams, Janice Phillipson, and Laura Watson...

Alfred’s defensive linemen are staking a claim for top honors in eastern small college football. They have held five opponents to an average rushing gain of only 42.4 yards a game. The Saxon defensive platoon added to its laurels Saturday night by allowing Brockport only 28 yards rushing as the Saxons whipped to a 14-0 victory. Mike Johnston completed an 8-yard pass to Bill Knott to climax an 88-yard drive on 11 plays for the first Alfred score less than three minutes before the end of the first half. In the early minutes of the last quarter, junior halfback Dan Lacey iced the honors when he broke around his own left end, cut behind three blockers and rambled 47 yards to go into the end zone standing up... Yunevich’s Saxons are now 3-1-1 for the season...

25 Years Ago, October 17, 1991

Town meets gown routinely around the table at the Alfred Village Board meetings. The mayor and three of the four trustees are employed by either Alfred University or Alfred State College, but that’s not a remarkable fact at all in a community whose major industry is higher education. Mary Carolyn Blankenship is coordinator of continuing education and Dr. Barrett G. Potter is a professor of social and behavioral sciences, both at Alfred State College. Dr. Gary Ostrower is a professor of history, and Dr. William Hall is an associate professor of sociology. Only Trustee JoAnn Johnson is not an employee of one or the other institution—“but she’s a big supporter of both,” notes Ostrower. Most people in the village of just over 4,500 full-time residents either work directly for Alfred State or Alfred University—or are married or related to someone who does...

Dr. Clifton R. Wharton Jr., head of the largest pension fund in the world and former Chancellor of the New York State University system, has been chosen to receive Alfred University’s J. Henry Smith Distinguished Public Service Award. The award, to be presented by Alfred University President Edward G. Coll Jr., at an Oct. 24 dinner, is named for the late J. Henry Smith, longtime Alfred University trustee and former Chairman and President of The Equitable Life Assurance Society and Commissioner of Human Services for New York City...

Alfred University will dedicate a Glenn Zweygardt sculpture, “Allegany Council,” at noon Thursday, Oct. 24, in front of the Saxon Inn, One Park Street. “From the beginning, when we envisioned the Saxon Inn, we knew we wanted an appropriate sculpture in the plaza to complement the building,” said Alfred University President Edward G. Coll Jr. “It seemed appropriate,” said Coll, “for the University to commission one of our art faculty to create the piece, particularly since other faculty sculptures are found elsewhere on campus.” Zweygardt, who is professor of sculpture in the NYS College of Ceramics at Alfred University, says the title “relates, in some way, to the brace of citizens who counceled, and stood tall” to protect Allegany County’s environment...

The Alfred Rod and Gun Club recently adopted a section of Route 21 from the Village of Almond to Alfred Station in Region 6 in the NYS Department of Transportation Adopt-A-Highway Program. The program will pick up litter and perform brush control...

The 1991-92 4-H year for the Lucky Clovers is underway. This is the sixth year of the club. The new officers for this year are: Rebecca Weaver, president; Kristen Davis, vice-president and news reporter; Janna Buckwalter, secretary; Katie Crandall, treasurer; Janet Sootheran, song and recreation leader. Four of the five members of the club, including leader Pauletta Copenhagen, attended the Allegany 4-H Recognition Day. This special event was held in Angelica at the Allegany County Fairgrounds...

A son, Stephen Charles, was born Tuesday, Sept. 17, 1991 to Mr. and Mrs. John Baker (Colleen Schiffhauer) in Rochester. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Baker of Alfred; paternal great-grandmother is Eloise Baker of Almond.

Alfred University will induct four new members into its Sports Hall of Fame on the evening of Friday, Nov. 2. The 1991 inductees are Dave Pomponio ’76, Steve Pulos ’75, Brad Rendell and Bob Schuster ’81...

The last time an Alfred football team traveled to Selinsgrove, PA to face the Susquehanna Crusaders—back in 1963—the team was “outgunned” by a humiliating 68-0 score. It was the worst shutout loss in Alfred football history. “They had a very good team,” said Bob Codispoti of Almond, who played for AU that year. He reminisced, “We played a good first quarter and were only down 8-0, but it was 30-0 at halftime... The next year, in what is considered one of the premier games in Alfred football history, a mediocre Saxon team snapped the Susquehanna win streak by topping the Crusaders, 18-16 before a standing-room-only crowd at Merrill Field. Codispoti, who has a film of that game, said “It was one of those Saturday afternoons when everything went right.”... And that was the last time the Alfred Saxons and Susquehanna met—27 years ago. The Saxons silenced the “Penn State in ‘68” chants in Selinsgrove but the Crusaders are making noise again this year. Alfred takes a 4-1 record to Amos Alonzo Stagg Field in Selinsgrove for a 1:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 19 kickoff when the Saxons hope to stop a streaking 5-0 Crusader team. Once Again, Bob Codispoti will be there, this time in the press box covering the play-by-play duties for WLEA-AM 1480 together with Steve Clark. The Saxons are coming off a 30-10 win over Hobart at Geneva while the Crusaders last week defeated Delaware Valley 31-9...

Jeanne Hyland allows herself enough room to work at Hair Care but all the extra space serves the community and her definition of “community” spreads from Main Street, Alfred to the Indian Ocean. As you head into the holiday shopping season, consider some embroidered items made by the hard working survivors of Indonesia’s tsunami. Nadine Hoover brought briefcases, backpacks and purses of several sizes and colors from some of the cooperative ventures in Ache province. They are all silk but intensely embroidered with designs native to the village of each seamstress...

Alfred’s Hot Dog Day, organized jointly by Alfred University and Alfred State College, provides support for local charities in Allegany County. The 2006 Hot Dog Day, featured rides, arts, crafts, hot dogs, and the Mud Olympics, raised $7,400, or $925 for each of the eight organizations selected to receive the funds...

The Alfred University Chamber Singers will be touring Greece and Bulgaria, May 14-29, 2007. The tour includes Athens, Corinth, Argos, Delphi, and Tessaaloniki in Greece; Sofia, Plovdiv, the Rose Valley and Varna in Bulgaria...

Pictured are Emily Timbrook, Kara Carlson, Sarah Boardman, Steve Kovalcik, Eric Goorich, Andrew Iovich, Matt Owlett and Zac Edwards. Look for the group to be selling pumpkins the weekend of Oct. 14 and Oct. 21 on Rt. 244 in Alfred Station. Proceeds will be used to buy equipment to support the Crew’s outdoor program.

50 Years Ago, Oct. 18, 1956--Tinklepaugh House Damaged By Fire Yesterday--The worst house fire in over ten years struck here yesterday morning when the James Tinklepaugh home at 22 Park Street was badly gutted by fire. While an official estimate was unobtainable as the SUN went to press, damage will run to several thousand dollars. Mrs. Tinklepaugh discovered flames shooting from the back porch about 10 a.m. and sounded the alarm. All the Alfred fire fighting equipment under the direction of Fire Chief Sam Scholes Jr., went into action and the Alfred Station fire company was also called. The fire was under control by 11 a.m. The back of the house, both floors, was totally demolished. This includes the kitchens of the downstairs and upstairs apartments. Smoke and water damage were extensive throughout the house... The Tinklepaughs had just completed a total remodeling project on the downstairs kitchen this past summer, and had redecorated the upstairs apartment, too. The upper apartment is rented by Mr. and Mrs. James Monroe....

50 Years Ago, Oct. 18, 1956--St. Lawrence is Third Saxon Victim; Eleven in a Row--There’s a new record in the University football book now. The Saxons rolled to their 11th successive victory Saturday when they defeated St. Lawrence 44-14. This is the longest winning streak in Saxon history... Charley Shultz caught two touchdown passes to bring his season’s total to three. One was for 14 yards and the other for 21... Shultz scored twice in the first half with Al Moresco on the throwing end on both occasions.

Alfred University junior quarterback Paul Keeley (Caledonia-Mumford) threw three touchdown passes to lead the Saxons (5-1, 3-1 Empire 8) to a dominating 24-3 victory over host Utica College in a windy Gaetano Stadium Saturday afternoon. Keeley completed 18 of 30 passes for 244 yards as the Saxons rolled up 465 yards of offense... The Saxons will take to flight this week. AU has chartered a flight to Bangor, ME for the Saxons’ first meeting with the Husson College Eagles...

'Organ Spectacular IV' Sunday, Oct. 23

ALFRED—The Alfred University (AU) Music Department will present Organ Spectacular IV, a concert to raise money for the community pipe organ at 3 p.m. Sunday, October 23 in the Alfred Seventh Day Baptist Church, 5 Church Street, Alfred.

A string ensemble directed by Lisa Lantz will perform a Handel organ concerto with Laurel Buckwalter on organ. Vocal solos by Verdi, Liszt and Mozart will be performed by tenor Boris Van Druff and sopranos Luanne Crosby and Rebecca Weaver, respectively. Flutist Rachel Decker and vibraphonist Dustin Woodward will perform works by Faure and Locklair. Laurel Buckwalter will offer the Bach Toccata and Adagio in C Major. The AU flute choir will perform two selections.

The program is the kickoff event for a three-year campaign to raise $50,000 for the re-leathering needs of the organ. Due to a gift of $18,600 from the dissolution of the Champlin Civic Betterment Association (Peggy Rase and Virginia Bassett being the last remaining members), gifts in memory of Norma Higgins, and monthly contributions from Brett Greene of Nashua, NH, there is already $25,472 in the Rosebush Organ Restoration Fund.

The organ was installed in 1930 as a gift from the Rosebush family. The 86 year old leather is starting to give out so the organ needs much re-leathering in order to keep functioning.

Supporters of the AU choral department which uses the organ often for concerts are encouraged to contribute, as are church and community members who want the organ to continue to be playable. Major gifts and bequests would help us meet this goal.

Donations can be made out to the Alfred Seventh Day Baptist Church organ fund or the Union University Church organ fund and mailed to Laurel Buckwalter, 5744 East Valley Road, Alfred Station, NY 14803.

Our first donation by mail was recently received from Carol Mead, a music lover from Scio, who sings with the Genesee Valley Chorus and has attended AU choral concerts at the church. Thank you, Carol!

Unitarian group will meet Sunday

HORNELL—The Wayland Paranormal Group will give a presentation at the Hornell-Alfred Unitarian Universalist Society, 198 Main Street in Hornell, at 10:30 a.m. Sunday, October 23.

The mission of Wayland Paranormal is to investigate and research natural phenomena using up-to-date information and technologies. They have traveled widely throughout the country in their investigations to gain knowledge of "what lies beyond our earthly preconceptions".

Refreshments and discussion will follow the program. All are welcome to attend.

Clothing drive set

ALFRED—The Annual Alfred Area Winter Clothing drive to benefit the Cameron Community Ministries in Rochester is now underway, collecting all kinds of winter clothing including coats, blankets, mittens, hats and scarves. Deadline for dropping off bagged items is Saturday, Nov. 19.

Area residents who wish to donate may drop off the warm clothing at the Union University Church Center on Church Street, Hair Care at 15 N. Main Street, or at Community Bank at N. Main Street, all in Alfred.

The Winter Clothing Drive is sponsored by the Union University Church in cooperation with the Alfred Seventh Day Baptist Church Op Shop.

THE GLORY OF AMERICA

Thursday, October 20

On this day in 1781, General Washington called for a service to give thanks for the British surrender at Yorktown the day before:

"The commander in chief earnestly recommends that the troops not on duty should universally attend with that seriousness of deportment and gratitude of heart which the recognition of such reiterated and astonishing interposition of Providence demands of us."

Dr. Miller fans sell lemonade

WELLSVILLE—After deciding to have a lemonade stand this summer, four girls from Bolivar pledged to give one-third of what they raised to the campaign to rename the maternity unit at Jones Memorial Hospital as the Dr. F. Clifton Miller Birthing Center, The campaign is also known as the Dr. Miller Fan Club.

Over two days, the total raised was $42 or $14 for the Dr. Miller project. But Haley and Kori supplemented the donation with their own money to bring the donation to $40. In addition to giving one-third of their sales to the Dr. Miller Fan Club, the girls bought ice cream with one-third and donated the remaining portion the Hannah and Haley’s holiday project to make tie-blankets for local kids. The proud parents are Jonathan and Amy Thomas and Ryan and Rodney Mascho of Bolivar.

The Dr. Miller Fan Club is a fundraising campaign by Jones Memorial Hospital that was started to honor Dr. F. Clifton Miller, a physician who spent his entire 40 year career caring for the women and children of this community. Shortly after his sudden death, colleagues determined that a fitting tribute to his memory is to rename the hospital maternity unit as the Dr. F. Clifton Miller Birthing Center and to establish a trust fund that will be used to support women and children’s health services for generations to come.

The campaign will continue through the holiday season and conclude on December 31, 2016. There is currently a raffle underway in which the winner can choose either a brand new Harley-Davidson Wide Glide motorcycle or $10,000. Tickets are available by calling Jodi Pearson at (585) 596-2053.

Women’s suffrage meeting topic

ANDOVER—The Andover Historical Society has invited Rusty Tobin to present a powerpoint presentation on the women’s suffrage movement from 1893 through 1920 with a particular emphasis on Allegany County and Andover at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 26 at the Andover Community Center.

Women in New York State gained full suffrage in 1917, three years before the Constitutional Amendment in 1920 that gave all women in the country the right to vote.

Women in Allegany County were active in the statewide organization, which was organized like a political party, and Roxanna Bradley Burrows from Andover was recording secretary of New York State Woman Suffrage Association until she became the head of the Allegany County woman Suffrage Party.

The public is cordially invited.

Board of Elections extends hours

ALFRED UNIVERSITY SPORTS ROUNDUP

Saxons defeat Cortland, 41-28; at Hartwick Saturday

ALFRED—The Alfred University football team remained unbeaten and moved into first place in the Empire 8 Conference standings with a 41-28 win over visiting Cortland Saturday afternoon at Yunevich Stadium.

The Saxons got 156 rushing yards on just 15 carries from junior tailback Maleke Fuentes (Olean) and senior wide receiver Brendan Buisch (Hornell) caught seven passes for 108 yards and a touchdown. AU, ranked 23rd in the nation, held Cortland to 78 first-half yards and led 17-0 at intermission. Cortland scored 14 points in each of the final two quarters, but the AU nearly matched the Red Dragons' touchdown-for-touchdown as the Saxons improved to 6-0 overall and 4-0 in the Empire 8. St. John Fisher's 23-6 loss at Utica Saturday gives Alfred sole possession of the top spot in the league standings. With the loss, Cortland falls to 3-4 overall, 1-4 in Empire 8 play.

After the teams exchanged punts on their first two possessions, AU got on the board first with a 27-yard field goal by junior Trevor Monk (Liverpool) with 8:20 left in the opening frame. The score was set up by a 65-yard Fuentes run.

AU added to its lead with just over nine minutes left in the second. After taking over near mid-field following a one-yard Red Dragon punt, the Saxons drove 46 yards in six plays, with Fuentes capping the drive with a nine-yard TD run.

The Saxons closed out the first half's scoring with just 47 seconds remaining before intermission. Taking over at their own 32-yard line with 1:31 on the clock, AU drove 68 yards in four plays, with senior quarterback Tyler Johnson (East Syracuse-Minoa) tossing an eight-yard touchdown pass to Buisch. The drive featured passes of 26 yards to junior wideout Rodney Etienne (Spring Valley/Ramapo) and 20 yards to senior tailback Casey Bright (Pulaski).

Cortland got on the board on the Red Dragons' first play of the second half, when quarterback Kyle Schneider, inserted into the game after halftime, hit Jake Smith with a 72-yard touchdown pass down the left sideline. Monk's second field goal, from 42 yards out, made it 20-7 with 10:35 left in the third, but Cortland answered on its next possession, driving 65 yards on 10 plays and climbing to within six points, 20-14, on Johnnie Atkins' three-yard TD run with 6:23 left in the third.

The Saxons responded by scoring two straight touchdowns, both coming on Johnson runs. The first, from a yard out, came with seven seconds in the third and capped a 10-play 65-yard drive. The second, from two yards out, came with 9:56 left in the fourth and ended a nine-play 79-yard drive to put Alfred up 34-14.

Cortland's Alex Wasserman scored on a five-yard run with 4:15 left to make it 34-21. Alfred recovered the ensuing on-side kick attempt at Cortland's 45-yard line and went 45 yards in six plays to go up 41-21. The drive ended with a 17-yard TD pass from Johnson to senior wide receiver Emile Frigon (Utica/East-Syracuse-Minoa) with 2:52 left in regulation. Cortland closed out the scoring with a five-yard touchdown pass from Schneider to Smith that ended a six-play 60-yard drive with 1:18 remaining.

Cortland attempted four on-side kicks in the game and AU took possession each time. The first came on the game's opening kickoff and the other three followed Cortland first, third and fourth touchdowns of the second half.

Alfred finished with 533 yards of offense, with 284 coming on the ground. The Saxons have the top rushing offense in the Em-

Fuentes earns E8 honors after AU beats Cortland

ALFRED—Maleke Fuentes (Olean), a junior tailback on the Alfred University football team, has earned weekly honors from the Empire 8 Conference.

The conference named Fuentes Offensive Player of the Week for his play in Saturday's 41-28 Empire 8 win over visiting SUNY Cortland. Fuentes rushed for 155 yards on just 15 carries, averaging 10.3 yards per attempt. His 65-yard run on the Saxons' second drive of the game led to a field goal, and his nine-yard touchdown run with just over six minutes left in the second quarter put the Saxons up 10-0. Six of Fuentes' 15 rushing attempts gained at least 11 yards, with each producing a first down.

With Saturday's victory, the Saxons improved to 6-0 overall and 4-0 in the Empire 8. AU, ranked 17th and 21st, respectively, in the D3football.com and American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Top 25 national polls, travels to Oneonta, Saturday, Oct. 22 to take on Empire 8 rival Hartwick College. Kickoff is at 1 p.m.

pire 8 and came into the game averaging 231 rushing yards per game. In addition to Fuentes' 156 yards, AU got 72 rushing yards from Johnson and 57 from Bright.

Johnson completed 17 of 28 passes for 249 yards and two touchdowns. His interception in the third quarter was his first of the season, against 11 touchdowns. Bright finished with four catches for 47 yards and Etienne had two catches for 54 yards.

Schneider completed 19 of 22 passes for 286 yards and a pair of touchdowns in just two quarters of work. Smith had five catches for 110 yards and two touchdowns and Jon Mannix (72 yards) and Anthony Pintabona (37 yards) each had six receptions. Atkins finished with 50 yards on 15 carries.

Junior linebacker A.J. LiCata (Lake View/Frontier) had a game-high 10 tackles to pace the AU defense. Senior free safety Shyheim Wingate (Jamaica/Holy Cross) (forced fumble) and senior end Charles Branwell (Brooklyn/ Abraham Lincoln) (three tackles for loss, one sack) each had eight tackles and senior strong safety Liam Hobbins (Saco, ME/Cheverus) had seven.

Tom Hagan had eight tackles (two sacks) to lead the Cortland defense. Carson Lassiter had seven (one for loss) and Mark DelPrete had three tackles and an interception.

Alfred plays next on Saturday, Oct. 22, at 1 p.m. at Empire 8 opponent Hartwick in Oneonta.

Women tie Fisher

The Alfred University women's soccer team tied St. John Fisher College Friday night by the score of 1-1 in Empire 8 play.

The Saxons (7-6-1, 1-3-1 E8) got on the scoreboard early when senior Keturah Gordon (Boston, MA / Boston Latin) set up sophomore midfielder Alyssa Garbarino (Merrick/Sanford H. Calhoun) for the score in the 13th minute to give Alfred the advantage.

In the 40th minute, forward Carly Finn scored for the Cardinals off the assist from midfielder Emily Murray to tie it up.

The Saxons had the advantage in shots, 18-12. The Saxons also held the advantage in corner kicks, 5-3.

Junior goalie Sammy Jo Shanahan (Valley Stream South) made five saves during the contest.

Men drop two games

The Alfred University men's soccer teams lost to host Ithaca College Saturday afternoon in E8 play by the score of 2-0.

The Bombers outshot the Saxons (7-5-2, 1-1-2 Empire 8) 17-13. Ithaca also had the advantage in corner kicks, 8-4.

Junior goalie Chris Gutierrez (Holbrook/Sachem East) made five saves in the loss.

The Alfred University men's soccer team was defeated by host Geneva College, 1-0, in a non-league contest Wednesday evening, Oct. 12.

The lone goal of the game was scored on a penalty kick by Gib McCracken in the 72nd minute.

Junior goalie Chris Gutierrez (Holbrook/Sachem East) went the distance in net for the Saxons, making four saves.

The Saxons are at Stevens in Hoboken, NJ for another E8 game at 1 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 22, then hosts Elmira at 5 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 29.

ALFRED STATE SPORTS ROUNDUP

Volleyball team sweeps Alfred event

Volleyball: 18-2, ranked T#3 in USCAA Poll

The Lady Pioneers were a perfect 4-0 this weekend as they played in the Alfred State Tournament. They defeated Maine Fort Kent 3-1 and Hilbert 3-0 on Friday afternoon as they opened up play at home and then defeated Pitt Bradford 3-0 and Morrisville 3-1 at Alfred University on Saturday.

Bryanna Godfrey (Tioga) led the way with 35 kills and 59 digs while Jessica Padley (Buffalo/Sweet Home) had a big weekend with 34 kills and 37 digs. The Ellicottville trio of Madison Szpaicher (133 assists, 12 aces, and 57 digs), Janae Hamilton (31 kills and 18 blocks), and Grace Hall (15 kills and 13 blocks) continued to play well.

Madison Webster (Corning) continued to impress with her defensive play. She racked up 92 digs while Valerie Intini (Eastridge) added 38.

The blue & gold hit .243 on the weekend and served 42 aces compared to their opponents 15.

Cross Country:

The Alfred State cross country team traveled to Oberlin, OH to compete in the Inter-Regional Rumble. The Pioneers were one of 32 teams in the competition.

The Lady Pioneers finished 26th out of 29 teams that scored in the women's race. Lindsey Thiel (Liverpool) led the way with a 75th place finish in the 6k race. She crossed the finish line in 23:34.2. Emily Brigman (Lancaster) was 205th (26:29.7) while Kelly Healy (Maple Hill) was 221st (27:34.8).

Jacob Hanss (East Rochester) led the men in the 8k race featuring 278 runners with a 84th place finish. He completed the course in 26:29.6. Eric Hulbert (Mexico) was 171th (27:36.2) while Kyle Glaub (West Seneca East) was 198th (28:09.2).

Football: 0-7

The football team couldn't make enough big plays as Buffalo State defeated the Pioneers 27-0 in front of a large homecoming crowd at Pioneer Stadium.

Dashon Turner (West Genesee) finished with 104 yards passing, Luke Nourse (Dolgeville) led the passing core with 66 yards on two catches, and Hezekiah Williamson (Albany) rushed for 40 yards. The Pioneers gained only 169 yards on the day and earned seven first downs.

Steven Hubick (Fountain Hills, AZ) led the defense with 15 tackles while Brandon Davis (Lansing) finished with 10. Jhamel Cohen (Brooklyn/South Shore) had eight tackles and an interception and Ke'Shawn Pettway (Buffalo/Hutch Tech) recorded seven solo tackles.

Justin Bocchino (Hyde Park) also had an interception and a 62-yard return.

Men's Soccer: 4-10

The men's soccer team struggled offensively this week and fell in all three of their matches. They fell 3-0 at Nazareth, 5-0 at Penn State Behrend, and 3-0 vs. SUNY ESF.

Brandon Holley (Livonia) led the team with 11 shots while Jacob Bartz (West Seneca) made 19 saves in over 240 minutes of action.

Women's Soccer: 6-6, ranked T#8 in USCAA poll

Allison Danielak (Brockport) made 12 saves, including numerous point blank opportunities, in the women's soccer teams 1-0 overtime loss to SUNY ESF in their only action of the week.

Alfred State and ESF battled back and forth for over 96 minutes (96:47) until Anna Bishop was able to sneak a shot into the far corner of the net after getting a crossing pass from Heather Carl.

Swimming:

The Pioneers opened up their season with the 2nd annual Blue & Gold Invitational. The women's team opens up the season on Friday at Franciscan while both the men and women compete at home on Saturday vs. Penn State Altoona.

The Dugout

HITS AND MISSES:

The Alfred Saxons (6-0) football program sits all alone at the top of the Empire Eight Conference after a convincing win over a struggling, and usually strong, Cortland squad, 41-28. Meanwhile, previously undefeated SJ Fisher was dropping a mistake-filled game at Utica, 23-6. Only the Saxons and Cardinals control their own destiny in the E8 with an automatic NCAA berth that goes along with it. That collision could be decided on November 12th in Alfred at Merrill Field if the two teams win out until then. Have to figure one of those two will win the E8 now as Ithaca and Cortland are having off campaigns as Brockport and Utica have replaced them this season near the top of the league standings. Brockport stopped the Bombers on Saturday, Hartwick nipped Morrisville and Buffalo State blanked Alfred State in a non-league tilt. The nationally-ranked Saxons are at Oneonta this weekend to take on the high-scoring Hawks while SJ Fisher is idle. Cortland at (1-4) in the league?

Elsewhere in NCAA Division III football it was Hamilton slipping by Bowdoin late in a battle of winless programs as Coach Dave Murray's team prevailed, 26-25. Springfield demolished the U of R, 70-47! Hobart was off and takes on that high-scoring Springfield ground attack this week. RPI fell to the Merchant Marine and undefeated St. Lawrence plays MM this weekend after an off week. Union was idle as well and plays UR this weekend in Schenectady. Williams fell to Middlebury and Mount Union continued their run to the National Championship (again) with a 45-0 win over Capital.

Have listened to parts of three SJ Fisher football games this season while working on a Saturday (ugh) and have not been overly impressed with them to date. Two of those games they came from way back to win and the other was this past weekend as the Cardinals made mistakes galore. Injuries apparently have thwarted the usually solid offense. Hardly follow the team that close to know for sure but listening (enduring) to the broadcast team that seems to be a big problem. Not exactly in the same class as Cody at Alfred!

It is sectional soccer time in high school and the Alfred-Almond (13-1-2) boys team is seeded #2 in the "D1" bracket. Naples is first (15-0-1), Mount Morris (13-3-0) grabbed the three seed and Genesee Valley (12-2-2) is fourth. If "chalk" holds, the Eagles will have to get by Mount Morris and Naples to win another sectional title. A-A did so last year and advanced to the NYS "Final Four" as well. The Eagles will play the winner of league foe, J-T and Honeoye on Friday at A-A. Jasper-Troupsburg is seeded #7. In "D2" action, Andover will play Hinsdale and Arkport takes on Bradford.

The Alfred-Almond girls (11-5) soccer team secured the #6 seed and will host Genesee Valley (7-8-1) in their opener. GV is an 11th seed. In the "D2" bracket #4 Andover at (7-7-2) will host #13 Scio with a nifty (1-15) slate. Whew. Not exactly the powerhouse they used to be when Pat Codispoti was coaching at Scio! Also, Friendship is at Arkport. Webster Schroeder (12-2-2) is the #3 seed in the "AA" bracket where a tough Victor team looms.

Coach Anne Gaisser Holmok's (A-A) Alfred State College women's soccer team (6-6) dropped their lone contest last week, 1-0 to ESF. The Pioneers were at Houghton Wednesday (10-19) nite. Coach Wiley's SUNY Genesee women's squad is at (6-2-5) on the season with two league games left. Coach O'Driscoll's PS-Behrend women's soccer program is at (11-4) after winning 8/9 as they play Medialle of Buffalo on 10/25.

Got a call from The Mixer late last week, always good hearing from him and he was telling me about his Amtrak trip from NYC to Washington, DC. In his area was none other than announcer Kenny Albert who does Knicks and Rangers games on MSG, I believe and other sporting events like the MLB playoffs. Mixy (A-A) had a chance to chat with him, briefly ... although hard to believe "briefly" was the key word. Anyhow, we caught up on things as we always

LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL SOCCER

#2 A-A to host #7 J-T or #10 Honeoye

ALMOND—The Alfred-Almond boys varsity soccer team will kick off Section V Class D1 Tournament play at 6:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 21 when the #2 seed Eagles host the winner of the #7 Jasper-Troupsburg vs. #10 Honeoye game of Oct. 18.

If A-A wins its Section V Tournament opener, the Eagles will play again on Tuesday, Oct. 25 at a time and site to be determined. If higher seeded teams advance, the Eagles would face

#3 seed Mt. Morris.

Eagles finish at 13-1-2

The Eagles concluded regular season play with a 5-1 win at Steuben League Division 1 foe Addison to finish with a 13-1-2 record.

Brady Holmok, assisted by Duncan Allen, opened the scoring for A-A 18 minutes into the game. A few minutes later, Addison retaliated with a goal by Nicholas Solinas to knot the score at 1-1.

Ten minutes later, however, Jake Johnston took a pass from Jack Castle and netted the game-winner for a 2-1 halftime lead.

Dustin Kinnaird and Johnston added unassisted goals in second half play, with Gavin Porter completing the night's scoring with Allen getting another assist.

A-A outshot Addison, 29-3 and had 7 corner kicks to the Knights' 1. Dylan Griffin made 3 saves in the Eagle net.

do and then I actually asked him a political question. The only guy I would actually do that with amongst my friends. Quite informative. His only regret on Amtrak journey was that he didn't have a copy of the Alfred Sun handy to have a photo of Albert reading it and (of course) catching up on things in The Dugout!

Gene "Sky" Doorley (A-A) and his Alfred State College women's volleyball team is zipping along with a gaudy (18-2) mark as of Sunday past with recent wins in the Lycoming (Pa.) tournament as well as at Alfred University versus other schools. The Pioneers are in the Wilkes tournament this weekend, then take on Houghton and Cazenovia before ACAAC tourney play.

Tuned into a bunch of sports on the tube on Sunday past including the SAS Championship on the Champions Tour of golf. Jeff Sluman tied for third and saw him play the last hole. Think he had a Wegmans logo on his shirt. Know he has been sponsored by Paycheck for years as well but Wegmans might be relatively new for the Rochester area native. Tournament was held at the Prestonwood CC in Cary, NC where the once-legendary Kaz is a member. Looked for him in the crowd but unable to spot him. "Sure" he was busy at The Upper Deck working(?) instead.

Also watched some of the Bills win over the hapless SF team in NFL action. Perhaps the worst team in the league at the moment and Coach Chip Kelly might want to look at college ball again because his system doesn't seem to fit in the NFL. Colin Kaepernick was at the helm of the SF offense again. Could care less. The Bills on a four-game win streak will head to Miami this week to take on the Dolphins who are coming off a big win over the Steelers.

In big-time college football can anyone challenge the Alabama Tide? 'Bama is ranked #1 and they beat #9 ranked Tennessee, 49-10 on the Vols home turf! Quite the separation. My top for teams right now for the playoffs would be: Alabama, Ohio State, Clemson and Washington. Can Michigan knock off the Buckeyes at the end of the year? Maybe, but Wisconsin is probably better than the Wolverines and they just barely lost to Ohio State. Clemson or Washington will probably lose and someone else will slide in there but don't see that happening to 'Bama or Ohio State.

College basketball practice has started! Duke over Kansas for the National Championship.

D3 hoops ... Coach Kornaker's troops at SJ Fisher the cream of the crop in the E8?

Brian Andrews ... assuming not of Alfred University hoop fame, took sixth-place in the Penfield Fire Company 5K over the weekend.

Dawn Sayre-Ross (Ohio) competed in and finished her first Half-Marathon in Columbus over the weekend.

The Cleveland Cavs won the NBA title last season. The Cleveland Indians in the World Series next week? The "Traveling Sports Fan" at games #1 and #2 in the ALCS?

The NBA starts up this week as well. Barring injury, Golden State and Cleveland in the finals again? Warriors over Spurs in West, Cavs over Celtics in East, GS Warriors champs.

In WNBA play, the Minnesota Lynx champs again this week? Paced by Maya Moore from UConn and an Olympic gold medalist this past summer for Team USA.

Daughter Lauren was at the Runner's World Fall Festival of races this past weekend in Bethlehem (Pa.) where she ran a 5K-10K on Saturday and a Half-Marathon on Sunday. 5K time was 25:44 where she was 166th overall and 8th in her age group. 10K time, starting about one hour after finishing 5K, was 51:19 where she was 343 overall and 31st in her age group. 3L's H-M time was 1:41:44 and she was 249th overall, 75th female and 16th in her age group. Second year in a row she ran this event, heading down with Jason (Bourne) and getting to meet former Boston Marathon winner, Amby Burfoot.

Did not head to the Fall Festival this year, unfortunately, due to work and "not pleased" over that one. Have missed some soccer games this year I wanted to see because of that ... St. Lawrence, Utica and Genesee women plus some potential golf outings with Simbo. Yuk! So, had enough ... retiring! Hate missing Lauren's non-NYC races. I know, Nelson Snyder thought I retired years ago. Now I'm going to, mid-November. Hopefully time now to golf with Simbo, get out and golf with Jeff Calkins, hit the links more than once with Bakes over the summer. Maybe even Stu and Smitty! Catch all of Lauren's races and who knows what else? Some more hoop games, AU football, etc. Maybe even see the Pistons play in the NBA and chat with Coach Beyer! Tony Schon ... this column will continue and hope you are doing ok!
