I started gathering data for a Greenman genealogy in 1955 when I came back East after working eight years in the Canal Zone and five years in Kansas. That Fall I went up in the North Country (Northern New York) to work and my sister, Alta Nelson Brown took over. Between 1955 and when she had a stroke in 1961, she did a lot of work on this. Recently I picked up what had been done. Now that it is completed, I plan on having enough copies made so as to give one to each married couple, each maid, bachelor, widow, widower and maybe some single persons, members of the Greenman Family.

I stoped at cemeterys getting information from head stones, called on several people and wrote a lot of letters. Most of the information on the older generations was given us by Carroll W. Greenman. There are several dates and some other data missing that I was not able to get.

Thanks to all the members of the Greenman Family for all the data they gave. Also to Mrs. Maybel Swanson of the Potter County Historical Society in Coudersport for helping me to find data on some members from their 10 year census books of Potter County and from their Cemetery book showing who was buried in the 5 Corners Cemetery at Hebron, Pa.

I have not followed the side branches of the Greenman Family. Only our direct lineage from Jesse Mason Greenman.

HISTORY

The first Greenmans in America appear in Taunton, Mass. in the Colony of New Plymouth. As early as 1626 there were settlers in Taunton. Plymouth, the first English Settlement, was made in 1620. From Plymouth, the Colonist drifted into New Plymouth. The greater part of the proprietors came in 1637 to 1639. In 1639 Taunton was incorporated. In 1640 Captain Miles Standish surveyed and layed out the town. It was named Taunton from Taunton, Somersetshire, England evidencing that influential members of the Colony came from that locality. Among the earliest proprietors appear the name of David Greenman. He was a land owner previous to 1639 when the record shows that he disposed of his rights to James Tisdale.

John Greenman came to Dorchester, Mass. from Somerset, Wiltshire, England in 1630. Admitted an inhabitant of Newport, R.I. May 20th 1638. Listed as one who had large houses or otherwise serviceable. Had land assigned to him. Afterwards gave up as did others a portion of his land to constitute a public park or common. He also shared in the partition of the Islands in Narragansett Bay, Jamestown and Hog. Old records mention sale of lot 100 "on ye point bounded East by Benj. Coggeshall, West on the harbor, North on Daniel Ayrault, South on Samuel Holme". Mentioned as a hood-maker to Job Carr, a cooper of Newport. Also as an original purchaser of Taunton, Mass.

John's son, Edward Greenman, along with David Greenman were listed as wheel wrights. They sold twenty two acres of land near Endship or Village of Greenend on the highway leading from Newport to Portsmouth. In 1655 he was enrolled as a freeman. In 1657 he was a commissioner. On Sept. 9th 1661 he had a quarter share of Misquamicut (Westerly) lands assigned to him. In 1668-1669-1670 and 1682 he was a deputy. In 1680 He was taxed 1 pound, 10 shillings and 8 pence, about four dollars and thirty three cents. In 1678 he petitioned the assembly relative to the estate of George Brown, praying that a commissioner would declare the estate bankrupt. In 1688 he was foreman of the grand jury. His home was in Newport, R.I.

Edward's son, Thomas Greenman, was an original member of the Westerly Sabbatarian Church. He was a tailor and kept his own sheep, having an ear mark granted to him on Oct. 17 1700. On Oct 4th 1706 he sold 13 acres of homestead to Geo. Babcock of Westerly for 6 pounds, about eighteen dollars.

Sylvanus Greenman, son of Thomas and Mary Greenman, inherited land in South Kingston when his father died in 1728.

Deacon William Greenman of Stephentown, N.Y., son of Sylvanus and Sarah Greenman, was born in 1737 or 1738 probably in South Kingston, R.I. On Nov. 27 1760 he married Susannah Gardner. During the Revolution, William served as a private in Colonel Beekman's Fourth Regiment of Enlisted Men, Albany County, New York Militia.

Deacon James Greenman of Stephentown, N.Y., son of William and Susannah Greenman was born Jan. 15 1771 in South Kingston, R.I. His father moved to Stephentown, N.Y. soon after James was born. He married Lois Mason on Nov. 14 1793. Their children were Jesse Mason Greenman born on Feb. 24 1796. Alonson was born Jan. 23 1799. Lois died March 29 1802 when Jesse was 6 years old and Alonson was three. On July 1 1802, James married Susannah Greene. James died at the age of 42 years on Nov. 28 1813.

Jesse Mason Greenman, son of James and Lois Greenman, and a great great great grandson of John Greenman, was born in Stephentown, N.Y. He married Elizabeth Remington of Hancock, Mass. on July 12 1818. He moved from Stephentown to Berlin, N.Y., then to Almond, N.Y. and then to Alfred, N.Y. Later he settled on Greenman Hill in Hebron Township, Potter County, Pa. in 1831. That section of the country known as Greenman Hill was named after Jesse Mason Greenman and his sons, James, William and Sylvester who all had farms there.

Jesse Mason Greenman bought 100 acres of unimproved land on Greenman Hill. He built a log cabin of hand hewn logs and it had an ash floor that his wife, Elizabeth, kept as white as marble. He died in 1878 of a disease of the heart.

Greenman Hill was covered with virgin Pine. Lumber was of little value so it was burned to clear the land. Deer, bear, wolves, fox and wild turkeys were plentiful. Obtaining a living from the soil was difficult and often they would have gladly exchanged a platter of sliced turkey meat for a loaf of wheat bread. The nearest source of supplies was Jersey Shore. Roads were little better than trails and it was the usual practice to make the trip to Jersey Shore with a yoke of oxen, taking about a week to make the trip. An emergency trip for medicine could be made on horse back in much less time.

There was no water at the house site of my grandfather, James R. Greenman. They had to carry water from a spring some distance down the hill. One night my grandmother, Fanny Babcock Greenman, went down to the spring to get a pail of water. It was dark and when she got back near the house, she saw what she thought was a bear and threw the pail of water at it. It turned out to be an old stump, so she had to make another trip back down to the spring.

The Greenmans were instrumental in building the Seventh Day Baptist Church at Hebron, Pa. It was completed Sept. 23 1869. The first officials were Jesse Mason Greenman, James R. Greenman, W. C. Reynolds, W. H. Hydorn, George W. Stillman and Silas S. Greenman.

The following statement was written by Benjamin Franklin Greenman, son of James R. Greenman.

"This Bible, the first ever owned by Miss Mary Anne Greenman, was given by her to her younger brother, Silas S. Greenman when he was about to go to Oberlin, Ohio to school in his 18th year. By him it was used in his school room. When I, as a boy and his oldest nephew, looked to him many many times as a kind and practical teacher. Uncle Silas S. Greenman died April last aged 38 years at the home of his sister, Mrs. Mary Anne Stillman and today she gave me this Bible as a memento.

Hebron, Potter County, Pa.

12th Sept. 1875.

B. F. Greenman"

Silas S. Greenman served 3 years in the Civil War. He was in Company H, 71st N. Y. Infantry. He died in 1875 of wounds he received in the Battle of Gettysburg.

Mary Nichols' parents both died when Mary was an infant. Mary Anne and George Stillman took Mary and raised her. They did not adopt her. When grown Mary married Arch Tracy. They had two children named Theron and Mildred who married a ~~man~~ ^{Carey}. Mary Anne lived with Mary Tracy the last few years of her life and died at Mary's Home. Mary Anne had a spirit lamp that originally belonged to Jesse Mason Greenman. After Mary Anne died, Arch Tracy gave this lamp to The Potter County Historical Society, Coudersport, Pa. where it is on display.
