

University to host annual AIDS charity basketball game

10/30/07

Alfred University will host the Annual AIDS Charity basketball game on Saturday, Nov. 3, at the McLane Center. AIDS Charity is an annual basketball game between Alfred University and Alfred State College. The major goal of the event is to raise money and awareness for the growing AIDS epidemic. Tickets will be on sale for $7 for the game and after-party, $5 for the game and $4 for just the after-party. Doors will open at 5 p.m. and the game starts at 6 p.m.