ALFRED UNIVERSITY DOWNSTATE PROGRAM

'We will do it the Alfred way,' Charley tells grads

BROOKLYN—"We will not solve the country's economic problems by building walls, or restricting trade, or pitting one religion, race or ethnic group against another," President Charles M. Edmondson told the newest graduates of Alfred University's Downstate master's degree programs at commencement ceremonies held Friday, June 3 at St. Francis College.

"We will do it the 'Alfred Way,'" said Edmondson, who was presiding over his final commencement ceremony in his 16-year tenure as AU president. He retires at the end of the month.

"We believe if you want to work, if you want to make a difference, then we will help you, no matter who you are," to become the person you want to be, said Edmondson, citing the principle upon which Alfred University was founded 180 years ago.

Edmondson, whose academic discipline is history, told the newest alumni — those receiving master's degrees in counseling, literacy education, and public administration, as well as those receiving certificates of advanced study in mental health counseling — in their professional lives, they are "seeing a profound revolution in the way human being create economic value." In the past 10 years, he noted, "about 40 million jobs have disappeared from the United States' economy," and worldwide, the number is about three times that.

Contrary to what some would claim — that the jobs were "stolen by immigrants" or given away by trade agreements with other countries — the "brutal truth" is that they have simply ceased to exist, made obsolete by advances in science and technology. Jobs once performed by workers manually are now being done by computer-controlled machines or robots.

"Fully 50 percent of all job (types) in the United States today were created within the last 25 years," said Edmondson, and by 2030, 80 percent of American workers "will be doing things we have not even developed yet."

Such advances are "both inspiring and intimidating," he said.

As educators, as counselors, and as public administrators, the new graduates have an obligation to lead the social changes that must come along with such a "profound change in the economy," Edmondson said.

And that's where the "Alfred Way" comes to the forefront. The University was founded by people who believed that women should be educated as well as men, that education should be made available to all those who wanted to learn, regardless of their gender, their race, their religion or their economic status.

"They founded a university 'in the wilderness' of Western New York and put those principles into action," Edmondson said. After 180 years, Alfred University is still adhering to those principles.

Prior to delivering his address, Edmondson was awarded the Alfred University Order of Merit, presented by Trustee Michele Cohen. "We are here today because of Charley Edmondson," Cohen told the new graduates, their families and friends. Through Edmondson's "guidance and support ... Alfred University launched the 'Downstate Program' 11 years ago. It is with his continued encouragement that Alfred University has expanded its program offerings, and is poised to expand it even more. Today, more than 1,000 have completed their master's degrees and are Student speakers with Trustee Elizabeth Reina, President Charley Edmondson proud to call themselves Alfred University alumni."

The Dougherty Award, created by the late James Dougherty, president of the Center for Integrated Teacher Education, AU's partner in the Downstate Program, recognizes those in each degree program who "do good by doing well," said Dr. Jay Cerio, dean of external programs for the University.

This year's recipients include: Counseling — Jennifer DiBlasi, Tenelle Ferguson, Jonela Hasani and Nilson Mejia; Literacy — Rania Joudeh; and Public Administration — Georges Leconte.

The supervisor of the year award was presented to David M. Robinson, a 2008 alumnus of the program who is now school guidance counselor at Manhattan Comprehensive Night and Day School. This is the second time Robinson has received the award for his mentorship of students completing their practicum under his guidance.

Recognized for earning grade-point averages of 4.0 — straight A's — during their graduate work were: Mohammed Ali, Dema Bader, Bonnie DeFina, Jennifer DiBlasi, Eileen Fine, Silvana Hoti, Latricia Howell, Angela Latchana, Yvenide Neal, Diane Pearsall, Christina Roberts, Kristen Saladino, Anthony Seriki, Lisette Turitz, Bernadette Wright and Torian Yancey, Counseling; Ashley Bedard, Roseangela Fracchiolla, Keriann Garvey, Rania Joudeh, Michele Lawson and Katherine Lopez, Literacy; and Jamal Khan, Public Administration.

Student speakers included Mohammed Ali, Counseling; Michele Lawson, Literacy; and Paula Clarke, Public Administration. Trustee Elizabeth Reina, a 2002 graduate of AU and now president of the Alumni Council, inducted the new graduates into the Alfred University Alumni Association.

OBITUARIES

Frederic R. Marks Sr., 70, had worked 35 years at NYSEG, avid antique boat enthusiast

FREDERIC R. MARKS SR.
35-year career with NYSEG
ALMOND—Frederic R. Marks Sr., “Fred”, died peacefully at home on Friday, June 10, 2016 with his wife Rose by his side. He had valiantly fought a battle with lung cancer which was diagnosed in 2012.
Born on Nov. 22, 1945 in Schenectady, Fred attended Calvin Coolidge Elementary School, East Junior High Middle School and Binghamton North High School, graduating in 1963. He attended Lafayette College in Easton, PA, where he was a member of Phi Gamma Delta (FIGI Fraternity) and received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mechanical Engineering in 1968.

He started his career at NYSEG in Marketing until enrolling in the US Air Force in 1969. Specializing as a Jet Engine Mechanic, Fred served four years and received the rank of E5 Staff Sergeant. Upon his completion of his service, Fred returned to work for NYSEG in Endicott and Binghamton, eventually relocating to East Aurora, Hamburg and Hornell. He was a Divisional Manager for NYSEG during the 1991 snow and ice storm, with over 130 people under his supervision.
This tall, gentle and kind man had a sensitive and caring heart for helping others in his community that led him to volunteer for many organizations. Throughout his 35 year career with NYSEG, Fred was an active member of many civic organizations and held several leadership roles in Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs. As a long time Rotarian, he received two Paul Harris Fellow awards for outstanding service. He also volunteered for Faith in Action and the Bethesda Foundation, where he served as a board member working on the Grant and Planning committees. He subsequently served as the Executive Director of the Bethesda Foundation, a position which he held throughout his illness. In April 2016, Fred received an award from Alfred State College for his ardent support of and leadership in fostering a productive and strong relationship between the college and Bethesda Foundation.

Fred was predeceased by his mother, Janice Rothery and his father, Francis Richard Marks. Fred married Rosemarie (Ruffo) on March 6, 1982. Together they raised three children, Frederic Marks Jr. (Maureen), Melissa Merlino, and Domenica Burns (Jonathan). He is survived by one brother, Charles Roger Marks and his wife Donna and a sister Constance B. Marks. He is the beloved grandfather to Abby Rose, Kira Lee, Micah Sebastian and Karis Isabella. He is also survived by two nephews, Justin Marks (Meridith) and their children Louisa and Henry, and Dr. Lucas Marks (Christina) and their children Liliane and Charlie.

Fred was passionate about old wooden boats, a trait he passed on to his son and daughters. He was an avid antique boat enthusiast and acquired his first Century wood boat in the early 1980’s, which after three years, he rebuilt in his home garage. “Wood Rose” became the winner of numerous awards from various ACBS (Antique and Classic Boat Society) Chapters over the years. Fred was a Director and Past President of the Century Boat Club. He was an active member of ACBS, Wine Country Classic Boats and the Buffalo Chapter (to name a few). Fred served in many volunteer boat show positions and as “Chief Judge” at ACBS shows across the east coast. Always a stickler for detail, Fred’s goal was to restore “Wood Rose” to her original condition for a 1959 Century Resorter. With his vast knowledge of boats, especially his favorite “Century” boats, he was always eager to help anyone looking to restore a wooden boat.
Fred found peace and enjoyment spending time with his family or while in a boat on the water. He traveled extensively on all the Finger Lakes, Lake Erie and for 20 years on Lake Winnepesaukee in New Hampshire. Fred was known as “the Peace Maker” for his ability to listen and help others without being judgmental. He will always be remembered as an outstanding citizen and a dedicated and loving husband, father and proud grandfather. He will be sincerely and truly missed.

Strawberry Festival Monday in Almond

ALMOND—Don’t forget the Almond Historical Society’s annual Strawberry Festival to be held Monday evening, June 20 with serving starting at 5 p.m.! OOPS . . . in last week’s Sun, we made a mistake: For years and years, Mary Jane Reid has made the wonderful biscuits for our event . . . and a wrong assumption was made that she would again be able to make our biscuits. However, that is not the case this year . . . and we are sorry for the misinformation. We send our best wishes to faithful

Mary Jane Reid! However, don’t let that stop you from attending our famous Strawberry Festival, which will be held rain or shine under our pavilion and big tent on the Hagadorn House Lawn, corner of Main Street and Karrdale Ave (at the red light) in Almond. We expect to serve more than 400 in less than two hours – due to the faithfulness of our volunteers. Our Strawberry Festival Chairman Louise Schwartz and her committee are arranging for servers, waiters, berry washers and hullers, and folks willing to clean up and set up. If you want to volunteer, call Louise at 661 4364. The funds raised from this event go toward the maintenance of our 1830s Hagadorn House, a local treasure. Bequeathed to the Almond Historical Society in the early 1970s by Ken Hagadorn, the house had been in his family for three generations. A cooking fireplace was found behind one of the walls in the 1940s, and is complete with all sorts of utensils and tools. The house is filled with local memorabilia, furnishings, and collections. Tours will be available in the house as well as the new office/archives building, where family records, genealogies, and other historical documents and records are kept.

SUNNY SIDE UP

By ELLEN SHULTZ
Alfred Sun Columnist

Edith Place’s salmon loaf best ever

[Editor’s Note: Like most of the recipes she shared with our readers over the past couple of decades, Ellen Shultz’s Sunny Side Up columns are worth repeating.] Edith Place worked most of her life in the Alfred bank. She was a familiar smiling face to nearly everyone since there was only one bank here then. Edith was also a tireless church worker and a good friend to all. She shared this recipe with many people who even today say it is the best salmon loaf ever.

Salmon Loaf

1 can (ca. 1 c.) flaked salmon
1/2 tsp. onion juice
1 c. stale bread crumbs, soaked
2 egg yolks, beaten in 1 c. scalded milk
1 tsp. lemon juice
1 T. butter, melted
2 egg whites, beaten stiffly
Combine ingredients in the given order. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites last. Place in well greased loaf pan or ring mold. Bake in moderate oven or steam. Serve with hardboiled eggs chopped into a thin white sauce; peas may be added if desired. It makes a nice presentation if the sauce is served in the center of the salmon ring mold. (Note: my recipe book says bake at 350 degrees for 35 min.)

Snyde Remarks

By DAVID L. SNYDER
Editor, Publisher and Janitor

Going ‘coast-to-coast’ for 100 new Sun subscribers

So the Editor, Publisher and Janitor is planning a solo coast-to-coast trip for summer vacation. Actually, the East Coast will be reached during the weekend preceding Independence Day as the wife and I visit her brother in Westerly, RI.

Later in the month, as the Alfred Sun embarks on its annual two-week summer vacation, I’ll be headed west. I will be doing some more research in Indiana for a book I’m writing on legendary Alfred University Football Coach Alex “Yunie” Yunevich.

From there, I tentatively plan to visit friends in Lawrence, KS; Tulsa, OK; Electra, TX; Phoenix, AZ; Los Angeles, CA; Pendleton, OR; Bozeman, MT; St. Paul, MN; Lac du Flambeau, WI; and then, more than likely, rush home to get out the next paper!

I thought it might be fun to conduct a circulation campaign along with my travels and try to pick up some new subscriptions along the way. Thus, during the months of July and August, a new subscription to the Alfred Sun will be offered at a discount rate of $30 mailed anywhere in the continental United States for one year.

I might even pay a visit to current subscribers along the way, if it’s not too far off the oddball itinerary I’ve planned. For instance, my travels east from Pendleton, OR will likely take me through Walla Walla, WA where long-time Alfredian Phyllis Bloomquist now resides. She just recently renewed her subscription to the Sun before taking off for a family gathering in California.

If time permits, my travels may include a visit to San Francisco where one-time Alfred Sun Publisher Gary Horowitz resides. It was good catching up with him last weekend at the AU Alumni Reunion.

The trip out west is something I’ve long wanted to do. Some 50 years ago, Dad bought a brand new 1966 Dodge Van (Jerry says it was a 1965...perhaps Dad can settle that dispute), a brand new tent (with a sewn in floor!) and our family of six traveled across the country and back in three weeks, camping most of the way. I had the privilege of selecting the campgrounds where we stayed. I hope to visit some of those same places 50 years later.

So, if you know anyone with an Alfred connection who might enjoy a visit from their “hometown newspaper,” please let me know!

ALFRED TOWN TALK

By DAN ACTON
Alfred Town Supervisor

Highlights of the May 12, 2016 Town Board Meeting

Games of Chance

Our monthly meeting was well covered by the local press as the Hornell Tribune sent a reporter to cover our meeting and the Alfred Sun sent the janitor to do the same.

Regular monthly reports included the police report and APD Police Chief Paul Griffith walked us through the18 incidents in the Town to which the APD responded during April. These included drug/alcohol possession, property damage, vehicle stops, and mutual aid assistance. Each incident can result in an arrest, closure by investigation, or referral to the State Police.

Boy Scout Silas Cochran has raised over $4,000 for his Eagle Scout Project to put in fire numbers in the town. Phil Curran will donate material for the numbering on each post which greatly reduces the project cost. Silas hopes to increase his fund raising by receiving a community grant from Lowe’s for which he has applied. Finally he indicated that the county 911 Office suggested that he slow down the project. Board member Jerry Snyder suggested and the board agreed that we contact the county to see about the delay.

Highway Superintendent Brad Price reported that summer road work would include Kenyon Road and portions of Foster Lake Road that would be ground, oiled, and stoned.

Peter McClain attended the meeting representing the village and spoke about the desire of Alfred State College to have a Games of Chance Law in the town. It seems that fund raisers such as raffles for which tickets are sold “on premises” are ok to do but, tickets can be sold “off premises” only when a Games of Chance Law exists in the municipality. Apparently Alfred State College has curtailed student fund raisers for fear of violating the law. The board agreed to investigate the matter.

FROM THE DESK OF DAVID PULLEN

By DAVID PULLEN
Allegany County Legislator

SHORT-TERM FOCUS VS. LONG-TERM FOCUS?

One of the areas of responsibility for the Facilities and Communications Committee relates to providing adequate facilities for county agencies and programs. At our June meeting we discussed space needs for the Board of Elections. Its needs have increased dramatically as a result of mandated changes resulting from the “Help America Vote Act” (“HAVA”). The County now owns the voting machines that used to be owned by towns and villages. The County must store those machines and meet other storage needs. We must provide training to Election Inspectors, and provide servicing for the machines. State and federal leaders assured us that HAVA wouldn’t cost us anything. That turns out to be untrue. The current location of the Board of Elections is inadequate to meet current needs.

This situation raises some related questions. Should we seek a short-term solution, or should we invest in a long-term solution. At our meeting Legislator Norman Ungermann declared that the County has failed to develop a long-term strategy or plan. He complained that space needs have been addressed on a short-term basis. This discussion highlights the tension between short-term solutions and long-term planning. It is a complex issue that deserves serious consideration.

Each of us must make numerous decisions every day. Every issue has multiple factors that must be considered. Various factors must be balanced against one another. Should we buy a cheaper used car, or a more expensive new car? Which will be more cost-effective over the long run? Should a high school graduate enter the job market and begin earning wages right away? Should that graduate obtain college or technical training so that he/she can (hopefully) obtain a better paying job in the future? Should we postpone purchases and save our money until we can pay cash? Does it make more sense to purchase needed items on credit? The answers to these questions seem to depend on the circumstances.

I believe that whenever possible it is best to live “within our means” and avoid borrowing.

Going into debt mortgages the future. Indebtedness has sometimes been described as a form of slavery. However, there are times when borrowing is unavoidable. Most of us cannot attend college, purchase a home, or purchase a vehicle without borrowing money. We justify borrowing for such major expenditures on the grounds that they are an investment. Homes frequently (but not always) appreciate in value. Educations enable us to live more fulfilling lives, and increase our earning capacity. A vehicle may be essential for getting to work, medical appointments, and other important events. Other debt (such as credit card debt) is more typically a sign of living beyond our means.

What does all of this have to do with providing adequate space for the Board of Elections? If cost wasn’t a factor we could simply construct a new building to store voting machines and train Election Inspectors. However, cost is ALWAYS a major factor. Government (like private individuals) cannot afford expensive buildings without borrowing to pay the cost. Taxpayers typically object to increasing taxes. Borrowing money for a major capital project is usually very unpopular. It was difficult to gain support for construction of our Public Safety Building (Jail). Legislator Ungermann and others opposed the County Courthouse Addition/Renovation project. In each case taxpayers (and some Legislators) opposed the long-term solution on the basis that the County couldn’t afford the expense.

The County Legislature has engaged in some long-term planning regarding space needs. We have looked at numerous alternatives. Need and cost are always major considerations. We must also comply with state statutes that require certain offices to be located in the “County Seat.” Parking availability, co-location of related agencies, and efficiency issues must be considered. There usually isn’t a perfect solution. We typically end up balancing advantages and disadvantages. Sometimes that means choosing the short-term approach. Other times it may involve choosing long-term solutions. Hopefully the Legislature, working collectively, will make the best decision most of the time.

We continue the Moonlighter Festival Series with our newest public events.

Chamber Music Series to feature Glass Armonica performer Dennis James & Guzheng Artist Zhongbei Wu

Do you know that the Glass Armonica was invented in 1761 by Benjamin Franklin? To put it into perspective historically, Bach had been dead 11 years and Mozart was only 5. In fact, Mozart was so enamored by the instrument that his final chamber music composition is for the Glass Armonica and String Quartet.

This rarely performed work features world-renowned performer of unusual instruments, Dennis James. James has made a performing career by discovering and mastering the obscure and challenging musical instruments that have fallen into disuse but for which there remains a viable repertoire. Emerging as a 'curious musician with curious instruments' on the international scene, he has performed around the world in solo recital, with major orchestras, and for music festivals throughout the U.S., Canada, Mexico, Europe, and South Pacific, and has been the subject of worldwide radio and television broadcasts.

Zhongbei Wu is an award-winning Guzheng (Chinese Zither) player. Before moving to the U.S., Ms. Wu was associate professor of music and director of the Hunan University of Commerce Chinese Orchestra. Recent performances include the Gallery of TK Asian in Manhattan NYC, the Music Festival of the International Society for Improvised Music in Waterloo, and the Burchfield Penny Art Museum in Buffalo. Ms. Wu is renowned for her technical mastery and poetic beauty, and will address the audience about her instrument and the music.

"Music Under the Stars" features the Alex Levin Trio

Nestled between our classical music concert series is the sorbet known as Music Under The Stars. This year, we welcome New York City based Alex Levin Trio, Wednesday, July 6 at 7:30 p.m. in the Knight Club on the AU campus.

"From the first notes, one can't help but notice Levin's elegant, Hank Jones-like touch. But it's also evident that he's taken his cue from Bill Evans in finding beauty and lyricism in virtually everything he plays. And he never loses track of that all-important requirement: it must swing!"

~ George Fendel, JazzScene Magazine

The Alex Levin Trio will perform for Music Under the Stars Live Music and Dance Event. Alex Levin has been performing jazz in New York City for more than a decade. A native Philadelphian, he studied at The New School Jazz Program in the '90s before graduating from Brown University and moving to Berlin.

Levin's quartet, "The Living Room," performed throughout Europe. Alex returned to New York City in 2001 and quickly established himself as an in-demand solo pianist and bandleader. Over the course of the last decade, Alex has released a series of critically acclaimed CDs, including Night and Distance, A Reason for Being Alone, New York Portraits, and, most recently, Refraction. With his trio in high demand in New York and the surrounding area, Alex continued to explore new sides of his musicianship.

The Alex Levin Trio features Alex Levin on Piano, Phil Rowan on bass, and Ben Cliness on drums. The band has worked together for over a decade in New York City, and is celebrated for its uncluttered, engaging sound. The simplicity and lyricism of the group appeal to both jazz fans and casual listeners. Their newest CD, A Sunday Kind of Love, is slated for release this fall.

Listen and dance to your American Songbook Favorites from Gershwin to Cole Porter. Ticket price includes delicious food along with a cash bar.

Alfred is such a beautiful town, and everyone was so nice and supportive. I have learned so much, working with the orchestra, performing twice for a great crowd, and making all these new, wonderful friends. I loved every bit of my time while I was there and look forward to the opportunity to be back in July.

AU master's grad awarded SUNY Thayer Fellowship for art achievement

ALFRED—Hannah F. Thompson, who this spring earned a master's degree from Alfred University's School of Art and Design, College of Ceramics, has been awarded a State University of New York (SUNY) Thayer Fellowship.

The $7,000 award serves as a bridge between academic study and first-time entry into a professional career. The fellowship selection is based on talent, achievement, and potential as a professional artist.

Thompson, a daughter of John and Marybeth Thompson and a graduate of Scio High School, earned a master of fine arts degree with a concentration in ceramic art.

The Thayer Fellowships were established for SUNY by Walter N. Thayer, in honor of his wife Jeanne C. Thayer, who was a SUNY trustee from 1974-84. During that time she was the liaison trustee to the university-wide Committee on the Arts and helped plan and implement many projects in the visual and performing arts.

Applications are reviewed by a panel composed of non-SUNY professionals in the applicant's field. Final decisions are made through audition and interview.

Hannah F. Thompson of Scio is the recipient of a 2016 $7,000 State University of New York Thayer Fellowship.

In her "Statement of Intent," made in applying for the Thayer Fellowship, Thompson said:

"By working with ceramics, paper, and photography, I examine the idea of constructed reality through the use of illusion and representation

"I am exploring the phenomena of light and visual perception. How does light move over a form or surface? And how do we apprehend it? How is the encounter affected when representation becomes a part of the equation? I have developed a way of working with these ideas that is reflective and meticulous. Personal time and space are the most crucial elements for the productivity and success of my practice....

"The next step in establishing my career as an artist is to invest in myself, my practice, and my community by setting up my own studio.... I have chosen to do this in Wellsville, a place and community with which I am familiar, because I know it will provide me with the proper atmosphere and resources to achieve my individual goals as an artist and to establish myself as an active participant within the community.... Wellsville and the surrounding area of Western New York also have a tremendously supportive arts community....

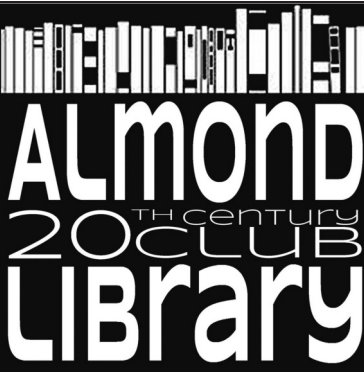

"This art community functions through the Wellsville Creative Arts Center, which provides a public platform for collective learning, gathering, and discussion. This will present me with the opportunity to teach, access facilities, and reach out to artists and professionals in other locations. I look forward to being a part of an inclusive and mutually beneficial environment in which all people involved can have an impact on the presence of art within their lives and community...."

The Summer Reading Program is coming! Perhaps, as an adult, you are wondering how you can take part in the activities? You can sign up to volunteer! We need volunteers to help with crafts and games and reading aloud to the kids, or you can volunteer to run the front desk and learn how to check out books to patrons. There are also adult programming ideas, so that you can have your own summer reading goals -- start a walking group and listen to audio-books while you walk; or join the Book Club, and read the club selections each month and get together to discuss them; or, make a list of all the books you have been meaning to read, and start checking them off. The more kids see the adults in their lives reading, the more they will be encouraged to read, themselves.

We are having a Summer Reading Program kickoff party on Wednesday, June 22 from 5-7 p.m. Come in and register your children and yourselves for a whole summer of fun and learning! Please let me know if you would wish to volunteer to help out!

Teen Club starts on Wednesday, June 22 at 5 p.m.! There will be crafts, food, books and fun! This is a great way for your kids to hang out with their friends in a safe environment. If you wish to find out more about Teen Club, pick up the club brochures at the library today. We also have brochures available for the Tween Club (kids between 4th and 6th grade). Stop by and check them out.

The DIY Farmer's Wife Approach

By KRISTINA SNYDER

A DIY Deodorant Stick...

It's commonly known that most store bought deodorants contain carcinogens and other things not good for our body. I've experimented with a lot of ways to get around the deodorant debacle. This recipe is the easiest and most effective for our family. It is safe for sensitive skin and young teens. I buy the reusable deodorant containers from Amazon for the convenience. However, you can put this recipe in a covered jar and just swipe on with your fingers in the morning.

Here's What You Need:

- (Makes two sticks) *1/3 c coconut oil
- *3T beeswax grated *2T Shea butter
- *1/3c arrow root powder *10-15dr essential oils
- *2T baking soda

Melt oil, beeswax and Shea butter on low in a small saucepan. As soon as mixture turns to liquid, take off burner and add arrow root powder and baking soda. Finally add your favorite essential oils or keep unscented. Pour into stick container or jar. Once cooled to room temperature use and enjoy!

GEOLOGY

AU students share papers at meetings

ALFRED--Three students from Alfred University's (AU) Division of Environmental Studies and Geology recently presented research papers at regional and national professional meetings.

Two 2016 graduates, Abigail Schmeichel of Lancaster, PA, and Alex Hildebrand from Schenectady, presented their research at the northeast sectional meeting of the Geological Society of America in Albany this spring.

The title of their paper was "Heavy Metals in Sediments from Illegal Burn Piles on the Bank of the Poultney River, West Haven, Vermont." Schmeichel majored in environmental studies and minored in geology; Hildebrand earned a degree in geology with a minor in environmental studies.

Their paper was co-authored by their adviser Dr. Michele Hluchy, professor of geology and AU's Hagar Professor of Natural Sciences, and Roxanne Baker, AU class of 2015, a geology major with an environmental sciences minor, from Baltimore.

Crystal Burgess from New York City, also a May 2016 graduate who majored in geology and minored in environmental studies, presented a paper entitled "Detection of Diagenesis in Paleosol Carbonate Nodules Using Optical and Cathodoluminescence Microscopy" at the annual meeting of the Geological Society of America in Baltimore. Burgess's research was done during the summer of 2015 as part of a highly competitive RESESS (Research Experiences in Solid Earth Science for Students) program in Boulder, CO.

ALFRED POLICE REPORT

Cannabis found growing in Alfred Station home

Alfred Police Chief Paul Griffith, in a bulletin to local media, announced that at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, June 8, Alfred Police arrested Harley A. Marble, 22, of Alfred Station at his home on State Route 21 in the Town of Alfred. Marble was charged with violation of Public Health Law 3382, growing of cannabis by an unlicensed person. He was issued an appearance ticket for Alfred Town Court. Griffith said that two marijuana plants were spotted growing in the window of a house on State Route 21 in the Town of Alfred. Members of the Alfred Police and the Southern Tier Regional Drug Task Force went to the house and interviewed a Harley Marble and recovered 21 small marijuana plants. Marble was then ticketed. Haps 'n' Mishaps (By Carol Burdick, Pondhouse Inhabitant). Many years ago, I insisted on washing the dishes following a sumptuous Down East lunch fed me by a Maine friend. She really didn't want me to do this but I went ahead, claiming it was the "least I could do." ALMOND UNION OF CHURCHES

Sermon series on prayer...How?

By LINDA STAIGER
What IS prayer? An act of worship, acknowledging God. WHY pray? To have a relationship with God...emptying our pride, control, anxiety to be filled with peace, joy. That's it. OK, so HOW should we pray? In truth, there is more than one way to pray. There is a story about a mother who asked if her little girl had said her prayers that night. She said, "Yes, I did, but I didn't say those same old things to God we always say. I told Him the story of the three bears. I thought He would want to hear something different tonight."

Talk about 'mixing it up a bit'! It helps us stop and think about what we are doing. Sometimes we get caught up in using the right words when praying, but there really is no formula for praying. It is about your relationship with God and sometimes even silence is okay in a good relationship. Sometimes we need to be quiet. To listen. Shut out the busy-ness of the world. It isn't the words, it's the attitude. Prayer can be a request for help, an expression of thanks, an earnest hope or wish, an exercise of our faith. We are encouraged in the book of Acts to join together in prayer and are told that the early church devoted themselves to prayer. Supplication—what we need. Intercession—pray for others.

Praise—thankfulness, gratitude. God invites us into His presence, into an environment of grace and mercy. Nothing needs to keep us from prayer. There is no special technique—God doesn't expect to be perfect when we come to Him in prayer but He DOES expect us to be honest. Knowing that God is there 24/7 and provides home delivery should bring us peace of mind. Look back and you will see that God has been moving in your life—even though it probably is not the way you expected! Just say Thanks...and continue on. How do we go about it? Try reciting the Lord's Prayer...it is a perfect prayer. Or take a Prayer Walk and praise God for His creation, for the goodness around you. Pray for people and businesses as you pass by—you don't need specifics, just pray—God knows what each needs.

Or, ask children from Almond Union Of Churches about "The Five Finger Prayer." In a position where you don't know what to do? Try reading a scripture to the person.... you never know. Keep one thing in mind—you cannot do it all by yourself. Admit to God that you cannot and that you need His help—allow God to do His work. [Reporter Note: I personally can attest to this...get to the end of your rope and finally ask for help. Voila—there it is.] You can't pray badly...He knows you well...Let go and let God.

A father walking past his five-year-old daughter's room one night proudly noticed that she was on her knees in prayer. Listening in, he heard this curious prayer... "a b c d e f, etc." repeated several times. When she was finished, he asked her what it meant. "God is really smart. When I don't know what to pray about, I just say the alphabet and He figures it out for me."

"THAT, my friends, is our God!"

'The Royal Law' sermon title at Alfred Station SDB Church

THE GLORY OF AMERICA
Thursday, June 16

Moments after Andrew Jackson's death, his friend and protege, General Sam Houston, and his young son arrived at the Hermitage to receive a final blessing. Houston grasped the hand of the old warrior, but it was cold in death. With a sob, he fell to his knees and buried his face on Jackson's chest. After a moment Houston composed himself and drew his boy to his side. "My son," he said, "try to remember that you have looked upon the face of Andrew Jackson."

WELLSVILLE—Lynda Pruski, Board President for The SPCA Serving Allegany County, recently received a $1,000 anonymous donation from the Allegany County Area Foundation. This money was given by a donor who really loved animals. This donation will help the local SPCA attend to the needs of the abandoned, neglected, and abused companion animals of Allegany County.

Currently, The SPCA Serving Allegany County is working on completing a new shelter that will accommodate the needs of the community and allow for the highest level of care for the animals. This new shelter is located on State Route 19, south of Interstate 86 in the Town of Amity. For more information on how you can help the SPCA Serving Allegany County please visit their web site at: <http://www.spcaallegany.org>.

Andover Historical Society
to sample switchel drink

ANDOVER-Memories of switchel are fast disappearing and the Andover Historical Society will have samples of the age-old recipes on hand at the 7 p.m. Wednesday, June 22 meeting of the historical society at the Andover Community Center.

Farmers working in the hot, dusty fields thought switchel was a very refreshing, thirst-quenching drink. It has been compared to ginger ale. We welcome the public to join us in sharing the ingredients and even to partake a sample of this once thirst-quenching drink.

Alfred Lions mark 50 years

By KATHY BENZAQUIN
Alfred Lions Club President

ALFRED—The Alfred Lions Club On June 4, 2016 the Alfred Lions Club came together to celebrate the 50th anniversary of their club’s charter. Over 60 Lions, former Lions and guests helped honor the club’s history and three of its 50 year members. A social hour and dinner were held in the Powell Center on Alfred University’s campus. New and old members and friends mingled and perused displays of the club’s memorabilia and pictures of past and present Lion activities.

Region Chair Lion Rick Whitney paid tribute to the club’s history and Wellsville Lions Club President Roger Moyer noted that Wellsville was the sponsor club for Alfred’s group. Alfred Village Mayor Justin Grigg also brought greetings and well wishes from the local community.

A book of letters from noted officials and local businesses was filled with accolades for the club’s many years of service. Included were tributes from Governor Andrew Cuomo, Senator Cathy Young, Congressman Tom Reed, ServU Federal Credit Union and Community Bank as well as a special Congressional Proclamation from Congressman Reed.

Special awards were presented as part of the evening’s festivities. Four members were awarded the Robert J. Uplinger Distinguished Service Award: Cathy Johnson, Nigel Jones, Bob Heineman and Beth Plaisted. This award recognizes exemplary service to both the club and community.

Three members were named Melvin Jones Fellows given for their dedicated humanitarian services. It is the Lions Club International Foundation’s top recognition. Recipients were President Kathy Benzaquin, Past President Brad Bowden and John Ninos, Sr.

This year President Benzaquin selected three members for the Citizen of the Year Award. She recognized the club’s 50-year members and noted that their dedication and service, as former club officers and a past District Governor, were exemplary examples of Lionism. Charter members Chuck Shultz and Charles “Phil” Phillipson, along with Wally Higgins received special plaques for their commitment. In addition each received a special Half Century Pin and certificate from Lions Club International and the Alfred Club voted to pay their club dues as long as they remain members. In a special segment of the program, each shared their memories of the early years of the club.

A final recognition was given to retiring club secretary Leo Lejuene. Lion Leo is retiring from his post as secretary after 23 years. The club awarded him a personalized golf umbrella to enhance his retirement experiences!

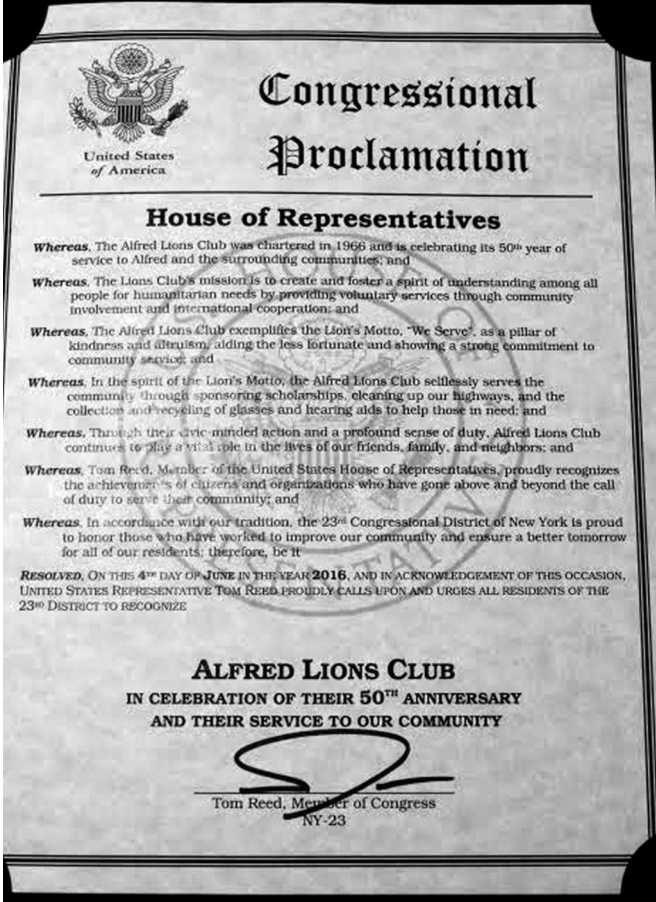

The evening was a great success. Members received unique ceramic coasters and special guests were given an Alfred Lions clock. The club is looking forward to another wonderful 50 years ahead!

THE ALFRED SAXONS have advanced to the Final Four. As the #6 seed in the Midwest, the Saxons outpulled the #3 Coe College Kohawks, defeated #2 seed Webster Gorlocks and defeated #5 seed Concordia College Cobbers. AU now faces #1 seed Oglethorpe University Stormy Petrels.

‘Saxons’ mascot in the Final Four!

ALFRED—The Alfred University Saxons are the only school that was seeded below the #2 seed that is in the Final Four of the Sports Illustrated: Campus Rush Division III Mascot Bracket.

Voting for the Final Four will open soon. The #6 seeded Saxons first upset the #3 seed Coe College Kohawks in the Round of 32. The Webster University Gorlocks were the next opponent as the #2 seed in the Sweet 16. AU defeated them to advance to the Elite 8 where the Saxons would meet the #5 seeded Concordia College Cobbers who just took out the #1 seeded Tufts University Jumbos.

HITS AND MISSES:

"Congrats" are in order for Alfred-Almond runner Hunter Clark who participated in the NYS meet at Cicero-North Syracuse this past weekend. Clark ran the 1600 in 4:28.83 and took eighth in D2, 16th overall in the Public race and 23rd overall in the combined Public/Federation tally. This meet was at the University of Albany last year and will be in Binghamton next spring. Cicero-North Syracuse is the alma mater of UConn women's hoop standout, Breanna Stewart. Clark will run next year at Alfred State College ... but not for retired A-A Hall of Famer, Gary "Doc" Moore.

State champs galore were crowned this past weekend in baseball, softball, lax as well as in track & field. Genesee Valley made it to the finals in "D" baseball where Fort Plain drilled them, 11-0. Avon made it to the finals in "C" before dropping the title game to North Salem. In "AA" play, Webster Schroeder lost a heart-breaker to a loaded Shenendehowa squad, 7-6. Think "Shen" had three players drafted in the recent MLB selection process! Yikes. The winners tallied three-runs in the bottom of the seventh to grab the trophy. Ouch. In softball action, Bradford made it to the finals in "D" play before losing big-time to Deposit, 13-0. Bradford beat Fort Ann, which always seems to be in the "Final Four" or Chazy is, in the semi-finals before getting crushed. Cal-Mum made it to the finals in "C" before losing to Notre Dame, 8-6. Not sure which Notre Dame this was? Elmira maybe? or Rome? And in "A" boys lacrosse, Victor completed another undefeated campaign (22-0) to take home the trophy. The Blue Devils are ranked #1 in the nation by at least one lax publication! Finally, the R-H girls out of Rochester put on another show to land first-place finishes all over the place. Lanae-Tava Thomas and Olympic hopeful, Sammy Watson paced a record-setting R-H squad.

One week after boxer Muhammed Ali passed away, hockey legend Gordie Howe died at age 88. Not a big hockey nut by any means but was aware of the names of Howe, Bobby Hull and Bobby Orr long before The Great One ... Wayne Gretzky came along. While a very casual fan, enjoyed watching Orr play for the Boston Bruins until knee injuries slowed him down. Howe played 25 years with the Detroit Red Wings, was an All-Star in 23 of those years, winning four Stanley Cups and grabbing six MVP awards. And what impressed me even more later on was that he played in the WHA with his sons, Marty and Mark, for Houston and they won two league titles there. Think it was the Avco Cup or something like that. He was in his 40s then. Gordie Howe then came back to the NHL at age 51 or 52 and had a solid season before finally retiring for good. Obviously a Hall of Famer and one of the all-time greats of the game.

The Rio Olympics are set for August and the Team USA men's basketball squad will not have the following names on their roster: Chris Paul and Blake Griffin of the Clippers, James Harden of Houston, Russell Westbrook of OKC, Steph Curry of the two-time NBA champs in Golden State, John Wall of the Wizards, Anthony Davis of the Pelicans and LaMarcus Aldridge of the Spurs. Wouldn't surprise me to see LeBron James decline an invite after another NBA championship series loss. Not a knock, he has played in a ton of Team USA games. The talent pool is deep in the NBA and the USA squad will be good but probably nowhere near what Coach K (Duke) expected to have on hand for his final run with this team. Many of the "declines" are injury related and understandable. Westbrook? Certainly didn't look hurt in the West Conference finals. Hopefully names like Paul George, Kevin Durant, Kyrie Irving, Kevin Love, Klay Thompson Andre Drummond, Kawhi Leonard and Damian Lillard, to name a few, will be on the team.

Jake Taft of Florida, with his sister Mindy in town and other family members, took in a Houston Astros - Tampa Bay Rays baseball game over the weekend past at Tropicana Field in St. Pete's.

Was watching a New York Yankees game on the tube (YES) the other nite and pitching for the Yanks was Anthony Swarzak. Playing first base was Chris Parmalee. Both ex-Rochester Red Wings. Didn't even know either was still in baseball and maybe they were off the radar. Parmalee has since been injured, first-sacker #4 for the Yanks, but Swarzak pitched again this past weekend in Yankee Stadium. Guessing Nick Swisher is "shot" at Scranton W-B, or

ALFRED OLYMPICS LAUNCHED

A Sunday evening picnic gathering at the Village Bandstand followed by the Ping Pong Ball Regatta in the adjacent Kanakadea Creek kicked off Alfred's inaugural Olympics.

Kaitlyn Cook wins Ping Pong Ball Regatta

ALFRED—The inaugural Alfred Olympics began on Sunday evening with a Ping Pong Ball Regatta at the Village Bandstand.

After a false start where the wind moved the balls further upstream than the current could push them down, the race began in earnest. Many balls took their turn at the lead only to run aground and be passed. Finally, Kaitlyn Cook's entry maneuvered through all obstacles and brought home 100 points for the North Side team. Second and third place were a family affair as Janet and Micah McClain rounded out the award podium, respectively.

The next event is at 1 p.m. Saturday, June 18, at Pioneer Stadium on Alfred State College's campus. There will be many events for young and young-at-heart, so come out to see which villagers are fastest at different kinds of races. As with all Alfred Olympic activities, participants and spectators alike earn points for their neighborhood team.

Then, on Monday, June 20, the Box of Books Summer Reading Program begins where every book read by Alfred children will earn points for their neighborhood team. Stop by at 5 p.m. for the kickoff and enjoy frozen yogurt!

It is a tight race atop the Olympic leaderboard after one event with the East Side leading the way with 117 points, followed by the North Side at 115, the South Side at 15, and the West Side (strongly represented by Nick Rozard) sits in fourth place with 3 points.

Ping Pong Ball Regatta entries.

else the Yanks would've called him up by now. "Tex" looks like he is one his last legs (along with A-Rod) so guessing Greg Bird will be at 1B next season for NYY.

Spotted a couple of NYS vanity plates last week and one had: IOWA with a logo of a blue-bird. Another was: NY RASP ... in Utica? Last week: PY Diner ... Penn Yan?

Correction from last week as it is the Prospect Diner in Lake George and not the Prescott Diner ... egads. Only been there 5-6 times over the past few years with McDrip or Lauren.

Watched a bunch of golf on the tube on Sunday past as the LPGA had a "major" in the KPMG PGA Championship. This is the event that used to be in Rochester before major sponsor KPMG took over and now it moves around the country. World #1 Lydia Ko was shooting for her third-straight major title, Ariya Jutanugarn was going after her fourth-straight victory on the tour while cool, calm and ace putter, Brooke Henderson of Canada rallied to take home the top check and trophy in sudden death. The three are 18-19-20. Bernhard Langer won (yet another) "major" on the Champions Tour as he grabbed the Senior Players Championship for the third-straight year. Was also the third major in the last four weeks for the 50+ circuit. The PGA has their second major this week, the U.S. Open with Jordan Spieth the defending champ. Hard to pick against Jason Day to win it this week. Hope Spieth does and would love to see a final day, crowded leaderboard, of: Spieth-Day-McIlroy-Johnson-Mickelson-Scott. Rarely happens that way. In Europe, Savo's buddy Joost Luiten finished T6 in his event.

Pat Atwell (Andover) and Wayne Johnston (A-A) will play Chambers Bay at the end of this month as they and wives will be on vacation in Seattle. Chambers Bay is the quirky course that Spieth won the U.S. Open on last year. Not sure the "warm-up" at the beautiful Quincy CC will help Atwell on this course.

Coach Kornaker (AU) of the SJ Fisher men's hoop program, was at McSorley's Old Ale House in NYC over the weekend enjoying the cast of characters usually assembled there. Guessing wife, Leslie there as well? Lauren and I were at this place 3 years back. Oldest pub in New York City and well worth the trip if ever in the area.

"Really glad" they start the NBA finals at 9 pm! Do enjoy listening to Jeff Van Gundy on the games though. Mike Breen is excellent as the play-by-play man. Mark Jackson I can do without but he isn't terrible by any means. Wish room for Hubie Brown in there!

Upcoming interviews (hopefully) in this space: AU grad and assistant Detroit Pistons coach, Bob W. Beyer with a draft-heavy report, if he has time to do so. Recently retired Alfred State College coach, Gary "Doc" Moore ... who I'll have to track down. And, A-A grad Bill Giles.

Hooked up with 3L and the SEAL this past Sunday morning (briefly) as we met for breakfast at the Chili Family Diner. "Pam" Verdino ... MIA. Lauren and Jason in town for a wedding of 3L's former Northcoast travel/Macker hoops teammate, Cass Beasley.

A "classic" conflict weekend on tap. Leo Nealon and I have gone to a strawberry festival in Canada 3/4 years sponsored by a church near Niagara on the Lake. Caitlin Cook has her high school graduation party this weekend in Almond. Love to do both (but) off to Middletown/New Paltz area to do a few things. Golfing with Bob Bergin on Saturday at a place called Stony Ford. Sure McDrip has hit the links there. Bergin of the SUNY Geneseo soccer family. On Sunday, daughter Lauren is running in the New Paltz Half-Marathon where she'll be joined by former teammates Steph and Kelly Bergin plus Bre Glynn. Others in the Bergin extended family will run the 5K that day as well, including Barb! A Father's Day cookout afterwards. Had hoped to find time to see McDrip as well but he off to Lake George for the weekend.

And it is indeed Father's Day weekend. Miss Big Dale and just amazed it will be nine-years at the end of this month that he passed away. We tried to golf this day (or Saturday) together and often at Allegheny Hills in Rushford. Might even be a different name now? Our favorite place to go and always looked forward to it.

Fathers Day weekend ... enjoy!
