

Alexander 89's Evolving Poles part of outdoor sculpture display

5/28/15

Works by Anne Alexander, AU Class of 1989, are included in the 2015 Art in Nature exhibition at Fruitlands Museum, Harvard, MA, on view in the hillsides and meadows surrounding the museum through Nov. 1, 2015. Anne is one of 14 New England sculptors selected to exhibit in the "2015 Art in Nature" show. Museum visitors will be asked to vote for their favorite artist in the exhibition. Anne, from Windham, Maine, generally exhibits her smaller-scale sculpture in galleries and her larger, human-size works in outdoor exhibits throughout New England and beyond. Her sculpture "Touch Me" is on permanent display at The Andres Institute of Art in Brookline, NH. Anne currently presents sculpture, ceramics, and carving workshops to children and adults. You may learn more about Anne by visiting www.annealexandersculptor... Fruitlands Museum, at 102 Prospect Hill Road, Harvard, MA, is open Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. and weekends and holidays from 10 a.m.-5 p.m. There is an admission fee; members and children under 5 are admitted free.
