

InterVarsity Christian Fellowship exhibition highlights passions

8/30/19

ALFRED, NY – InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, a club at Alfred University, will unveil an art exhibition, “What Is Your Passion,” at an opening reception Friday, Sept. 6, at the Turner Gallery, Harder Hall.

Members of the club spent the 2018-19 academic year developing the exhibition. They help pop-up events in which they talked to students, faculty and staff at Alfred University and Alfred State College, asking them what they are passionate about. First-year and transfer students at Alfred University were asked the same question during the Block Party Saturday, Aug. 24, welcoming new students to campus.

The subjects wrote their passions on their hand and were photographed. Janet McClain, secretary in the Division of Modern Languages who helps supervise InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, said approximately 200 subjects have been photographed. The images make up the exhibition, which will be installed on a wall in the Turner Gallery and be visible from Academic Alley.

McClain said the opening reception for the exhibition will be held from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 6. Refreshments will be served and the public is invited to attend. The exhibition will remain on view through the end of October.
