

Some Sun...

Almost there! Volunteers making park progress

By NICOLE MUNKWITZ
Special to the Alfred Sun

ALFRED—We're almost there! With just one more weekend of volunteers laboring to complete the staining of playground equipment, it will be done.

So much has been accomplished to renovate the Mike Kenyon Children's Park, even with a rain delay last Sunday. Now, with the help of the community, there is just one more weekend of work to be done.

The wood has been power washed and sanded, repairs have been completed to replace unsafe sections of the structure, and staining has begun. This was all made possible because of the generous number of hours volunteered by community members like you!

This past weekend alone we recorded 192 volunteer hours with representation from Alfred Montessori School staff and families, staff and students of Alfred-Almond Central School, Alfred State College faculty, staff, and students (including the Men's basketball team and three Greek houses), Alfred University staff, faculty, and students (including the Women's Tennis team directly after a tough match and still in uniform no less), and many, many more. We even had volunteers pitch in who had helped build the park 20 years ago.

A huge Thank You to everyone who has participated so far!

What remains is the bulk of stain application to the wooden structure and perimeter fence. Please consider joining us for a couple hours or more this weekend. We will be working from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 27 and Sept. 28.

Equipment and tools will be provided but feel free to bring, or lend for use, your paint sprayer. Come anytime, but help us prepare by emailing to let us know when you plan to arrive: mikekenyonchildrenspark@gmail.com.

If weather looks doubtful please check our 'Mike Kenyon Children's Park' Facebook page for updates. Only with your help will we be able to accomplish the remaining work this weekend.

OBITUARIES

Mark Cappadonia formerly served as auditorium technician at AU's Holmes Auditorium

MARK J. CAPPADONIA

Former auditorium technician
CONWAY, SC—Mark J. Cappadonia, 56, of Conway, SC formerly of the Alfred-Almond area died unexpectedly Saturday, Sept. 20, 2014 at the Conway Medical Center, following an acute illness.

He is survived by his loving wife of 33 years Donna Petric Cappadonia and his beautiful children Anthony Vincent Cappadonia and Rebecca Louise Cappadonia. He was born to the late Anthony C. and Zora Babcock Cappadonia in Hornell, and was later blessed to have his stepmother Bebe Cappadonia of Almond.

Born in Hornell on May 4, 1958, Mark grew up in the Almond-Alfred area and was a graduate of Alfred-Almond Central School (class of 1977). He later attended Alfred State College. Mark was a proud US Veteran, serving in the US Air Force from 1980-1984.

He had been employed for many years at Hornell Electronics and later as an Auditorium Technician at Holmes Auditorium, Harder Hall at Alfred University. He has resided in Conway for the past 10 years.

He most enjoyed his job as an auditorium technician at Alfred University where he became a father figure to many students. He had a special love of gardening and found his serenity in the beauty of nature. A natural teacher, he was a leader for the local Boys Scout Den #3 and an advisor for a campus club "The Forest People" at the university. He lived life to the fullest. He taught his children to have compassion, integrity and love for others by sharing those same characteristics he had within himself. He will be remembered by all for his infectious laughter and his love of life. Mark always displayed courage in sharing his heart and being a comfort to others. Nothing gave him more enjoyment than spending quality time with his wife, family, and faithful dog Sparky. He will be sadly missed and fondly remembered by everyone that had the pleasure of knowing him.

In addition to his step-mother, Bebe Cappadonia, survivors include five brothers, John "Rick" Cappadonia of Louisiana, Anthony Cappadonia, JR of Hornell, Chris (Nanette) Cappadonia of Howard, Joseph (Stephanie) Cappadonia of Virginia and Patrick Cappadonia of Almond; five sisters, Sue (Albert) Avery of Bath, Pamela Wright of Houston, TX, Kathleen (Duane) VanWaes of Houston, TX, Therese (Scott) Delventhal of Lexington, KY and Louise Ballard of Buffalo; and many nieces and nephews.

The family of Mark J. Cappadonia will receive friends from 4 to 7 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 25 at the Dagon Funeral Home, 38 Church St., Hornell, where a Memorial Service will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, Sept. 26 with Father Sean DiMaria officiating.

In honor of Mark's service to his country as a veteran of the US Air Force, the American Flag at the Dagon Funeral Home will be flown at half-staff.

Jackson served 38 years with New York State Police

CLARE ROBERT "CR" JACKSON

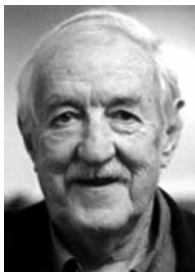

Avid hunter, fisherman

ANDOVER—Clare Robert "CR" Jackson, 85, passed away on Saturday (Sept. 13, 2014) at Hart Comfort House of Allegany County, surrounded by family.

Mr. Jackson was born on April 17, 1929 in Wellsville to Clare Lynn and Anna Louise (Cronk) Jackson. He was a 1946 graduate of Andover Central School. He served in the U.S. Army from 1946-48 and again from 1950-51, the latter term in combat overseas in Korea during the conflict. On April 28, 1953, he married Elizabeth J. Childs, who predeceased him on Jan. 17, 2009.

"CR" was a 38 year veteran of the New York State Police, retiring as a senior investigator in 1989.

Bob is survived by two sons, Michael R. (Cheryl) Jackson of Andover and Robert J. (Yvonne)

Jackson of Canton, Ohio; two daughters, Marcella J. (Bradley) Bledsoe of Andover and Patricia A. Jackson (Mary Lynn Howe) of Fair Haven; one brother, Clyde W. Jackson of Whiting, N.J.; eight grandchildren, Katy (Steve) Willard, Matthew Jackson, Colin Bledsoe, Molly (Burt) Turner, Daniel (Danielle) Jackson, Joseph (Lauren) Jackson, Melanie Jackson and John Jackson; twelve great-grandchildren, Emma Terhune, Grady Terhune, Gabrielle Terhune, Elden Terhune, Nolan Willard, Maureen Willard, Kylen Jackson, Maeve Turner, Josey Turner, Cal Turner, Wes Urbano and Emmerson Jackson; and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was predeceased by one sister, Margaret I. Jackson and one brother, James H. Jackson.

"CR" was an avid hunter and fisherman. He was fascinated with the details of war history. Anytime there was a local Andover sporting event, he was there to cheer on the home team, especially if one of his children or grandchildren were on the team. Bob was very proud of his

45 year plus tradition of cooking what became known as "Bob's Sunday Brunch."

Bob was a longtime member of Allegheny Mountain Chapter of the Association of Former New York State Troopers, Inc., the American Association of State Troopers, the Frank B. Church VFW Post 2530, the Andover Lynch-Burgett Post # 397 American Legion, the 40 & 8, the Wellsville Elks Lodge #1495 and the AMVETS Post #1

Visiting hours were from 6-9 p.m. Monday, Sept. 15 and from 2-4 p.m. and 6-9 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 16 at the Baker-Swan Funeral Home in Andover. The Mass of Christian Burial was held at Blessed Sacrament Church in Andover at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Sept. 17 with Rev. Sean DiMaria as celebrant. Burial with full military honors followed in Gate of Heaven Cemetery. Online condolences may be offered at www.baker-swan.com.

Memorial contributions in Bob's name may be made to Hart Comfort House of Allegany County, 141 East State St., Wellsville, NY 14895.

Bolero was youngest Air Force crew chief ever at 17

RICHARD A. BOLERO

Served in US Air Force

ANDOVER—Richard A. Bolero, 71, of Andover, passed away Tuesday (Sept. 16, 2014) at Bath VA Medical Center.

Mr. Bolero was born on Nov. 9, 1942 in Buffalo to Stanley and Mary (Pollock) Bolero. He served in the U.S. Air Force, from 1959-1961. At 17 years of age, he was a crew chief for the jet fighter, F102; the youngest crew chief in the entire Air Force. On April 9, 1979, he married Mary C. Alvord, who survives.

Richard worked as an electrical technician for Glen Industrial Communications in Rockville, Md. from 1981 until his retirement in 1991.

In addition to his wife of 35 years, Richard is survived by two sons, R. Jon Bolero and Eric Bolero; four daughters, AJ Cavanaugh, Patrice (Mitch) Haskell of Belmont, Serina (Albert) Daniel of New Market, MD and Ina (William Patrick) Hohlt of Victoria, TX; two sisters, Christine and Marcia Bolero, both of Cheektowaga; thirteen grandchildren; one great-granddaughter; and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was predeceased by one sister, Patricia Morrow.

Rich loved to tinker with his hands, making beautiful jewelry and macramé. He was an avid card player and fisherman. He had a lifelong passion as a ham radio operator and was widely known for his call letters, KC2VUX. His interest as a ham radio operator led him to become a member of ARES, Amateur Radio Emergency Service, which provides emergency communications in the event of a disaster.

Friends called from 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 18 at Baker-Swan Funeral Home in Andover. A Mass of Christian Burial was held at Blessed Sacrament Church in Andover at 1 p.m. Friday, Sept. 19. Burial followed in Hillside Cemetery, with full military honors. Online condolences may be offered at www.baker-swan.com.

Memorial contributions in Richard's name may be made to Andover Rescue Squad, PO Box 726, Andover, NY 14806 or SPCA Serving Allegany County, 1374 SR 19, Wellsville, NY 14895.

Hann Homestead Inn now hosting Andover Historical Society meetings

ANDOVER--The Andover Historical Society will now host their programs and business meetings at the Hann Homestead Inn on 3537 Barrett Hill Road, Andover.

Last night, (Wednesday, Sept. 24 at 7 p.m.) Joanne Allen was scheduled to present a program about Count de Rochambeau, a French General who assisted the "Americans" in their quest for independence during the Revolution. At least 100 years ago, an Andover Street, Rochambeau Avenue, was named in honor of Count de Rochambeau.

Members of the Historical Society plan to participate in the Allegany County Museum Trail from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 4.

And, at next month's meeting, to be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 22, those attending will hear a program presented by Mike McCormick on the history of "The Andover Catholic Church."

While the Andover Historical Society meets each month on the fourth Wednesday, meetings in November and December will be held a week early so as to not conflict with the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays. Meetings will be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 19 and 7 p.m.

Wednesday, Dec. 17. Programs will be as announced.

The public is cordially invited. Please come and enjoy some long-ago history in a beautiful ancestral home.

A week away, spent working with homeschoolers on anatomy, courtesy of my AMAZING department at Alfred State College, Physical and Life Sciences, also allowed some time to have a delicious supper at Parkview Grocery and Deli in Unadilla, NY, with family. I was charmed by this enormous airplane or spider plant, obviously a "pet" of the owners. I hope you can read the inscriptions on the pot, including "I'm overweight," on the lower left.

But then buys another cookbook in Maine

Ellen culls her cookbook collection

I finally went through my cookbook collections and culled some for the book sale last weekend. I was so proud of myself, but then we went to Maine and I just had to buy another cookbook. It is a beautiful one called Delicious Deer Isle. How could I resist?

It is a collection of recipes from the Sunset Congregational Church "at the edge of the sea in Maine". This recipe is a twist on old-fashioned peach pie and has an interesting crust.

Peachy Pie

1½ c. unbleached flour
½ tsp. salt
1 stick butter
2 T. sour cream
spray for pie pan

3 perfect, ripe peaches, sliced
3 lg. egg yolks, beaten
1 c. sugar
2 T. unbleached flour
½ c. sour cream (be generous here)

Preheat oven to 425. Process in a food processor the flour with sour cream until it forms a ball. Pat this softish ball into a prepared 9" pan, fluting the edges prettily if you have the patience. Bake 10 minutes. Remove from oven and allow to cool. Turn oven down to 350 degrees. Arrange the peaches in concentric circles within the pie crust. Now you are ready to prepare the rest of the filling. Combine the last four ingredients, mixing well, and pour over the peaches. Cover loosely with foil. Bake for 35 minutes or until set. If you want to "gild the lily" you can melt about ½ c. current jelly with 2 T. Grand Marnier until jelly is melted and can be poured. When you gently pour this over the top of the pie after it is baked and cooled it gives a nice sheen to this amazing dessert.

Did not feel welcome

Dear Editor:

My name is Christine Dodd and I am a student at Alfred State College. After recently attending a village board meeting, I'm writing to call greater attention to the apparent tension between the colleges and some members of the village community. There are a lot of amazing students that genuinely care about their respective colleges, and also deeply care about the village community. I am one of those students. I make time to work in the Office of Student Engagement and in the Office of Civic Engagement. Through this work, I put in over 200 hours just last year trying to create events and activities for students to become more connected to both their school and their community in an interactive and safe way. And I'm not the only student dedicated to the betterment of the college and Alfred community; there are many students on both campuses who work just as hard as I do. Other students who deeply care and who love the many diverse communities that make up Alfred include 'regular' students, student athletes, Greek students, and students who belong to the many clubs. Admittedly, there are people in both the campus and village communities who don't have the appropriate amount of respect for the other. Please, I ask you this: don't generalize. Most students are those that say please and thank you, that go to your local businesses and spend money that goes back into the community, that are more than willing to rake your lawn in the fall, and that help at the Community Garden. So when I attend a village board meeting, if you're on the board or just attending the meeting, please treat me with the same respect and courtesy as I am committed to showing you. I'd like to feel both welcomed and respected; last week, I felt neither.

Thanks to Peg, Anne

To the Editor:

The Alfred Village Planning Board would like to thank Peg Prisco for 33 years of service to the village as a board member including 9 years as chair. She has been a thoughtful and diligent volunteer who served with kindness whether working on recommended changes to the code or reviewing site plans during board meetings. Her presence and experience will be missed by the board. Thank you, Peg!

Additionally, the Planning Board would like to acknowledge the life and service of our former chair, Anne Wenslow. Anne was a tireless worker who cared deeply for the Alfred community serving on the Village

Planning Board for 11 years and chair for the past 8 years as well as a board member of Alfred 21st Century Group. Anne is sincerely missed and her contributions to the village cannot be overstated.

Special community

To the Editor:

This past Saturday I stopped by the Mike Kenyon Children's Park to see the ongoing renovations first-hand. I encourage everyone to stop by.

Volunteers of all ages were painting, sanding and repairing and it was truly uplifting to see the park bustling with activity. Huge thanks to Nicole Munkwitz and the Renovation Steering Committee for organizing and leading the effort and to everyone who has volunteered!

I stopped by the park on my way home from the well-attended Disaster Preparedness Training at Alfred State. During my park visit the always fun Box of Books annual sale was occurring across the street. On my way to the training I passed a group of students collecting trash on South Main. I was running late (typical!) so did not have a chance to inquire who they were and thank them. Belated thanks to them!

All in all, it was a day that reminded me how special a community Alfred is. Finally, I understand the work at the children's park will continue this weekend. Nicole and company - please reserve a brush and/or sander for me.

Best,
Justin Grigg

A Superheroic Gratitude

By VISHAVJIT SINGH

Alfred University hosted me this past Wednesday for a day of art, talks and some superhero action. One of the most unique educational programs in the nation, Drawn to Diversity was my host courtesy Dan Napolitano. My passion in life is to create cartoons, write and as of last year cosplay to engage our collective contradictions, obfuscations, inspirations and carve a space for new imaginations.

On a trip to University of Kansas this past spring sharing my art and Captain America alter-ego, I was made aware of the mission that drives the Drawn to Diversity. Armed with creativity to promote equality, reduce violence, and strengthen communities. If I was in college again this would be my most sought after class.

I started my day addressing the Foundation class. As I do in many settings I started with an informal survey to ask everyone in the audience to pen down the first words that come to mind when they see me. My goal is to set a baseline for prevalent stereotypes of turbans and beards in contemporary America. An overwhelming majority of Americans have a negative response to a turban and beard which I spot as part of my Sikh faith.

So to my surprise the majority of students had an utter affinity to the blue turban, blue sweater and my sparsely populated DNA spiral beard. One student wanted to run his or her fingers through my beard (* not in a creepy way).

And then there were commonly held responses for a small minority. Muslim, Middle Eastern, Foreign, Islam. Clearly this young college crowd of fine art students came into this early morning class with a different lens than majority of Americans. For the next hour we journeyed through a collage of Sikhtoons, cartoons featuring Sikhs in America and beyond.

Then I was off to my hotel room for a change over into my Captain America alter-ego. A costume inspired by the latest Captain America: Winter Soldier movie altered extensively to fit my skinny frame supplemented by my blue turban and ankle high Supra shoes.

My walk about through campus had its quiet moments with classes in session followed by photo moments, selfie's and many affirmative hollers of awesomeness. I even had a run in with Thor dressed in her thick high heeled red shoes.

The day concluded with a Turban demystification workshop with the current crop of Drawn to Diversity students armed with their creativity and weapons of change and me armed with a colorful bag of turbans. Red, saffron, blue, turquoise, polka dot. We rolled the long cotton cloths together, willing volunteers sat on a chair and we went rolling around in circles tying turbans. My hope for these fellow citizens to step into my turban for a few moments and personalize something that is beyond the far reaches of their mental horizons.

A student came up to me towards the end of the day and told me he really enjoyed my work with the hope I come back to Alfred. I certainly felt the warm open embrace of student community in this village known to be named after Alfred the Great.

I would like to extend my Gratitude to the entire Alfred University for hosting me, engaging me and in the process allowing me to share my superpower in the words of a friend of mine. Making it easier for people to wrap their heads around a more compassionate world. How? By wrapping their heads with my turbanful imagination.

Vishavjit Singh is the first turbaned and bearded editorial cartoonist in U.S. By day he is a software analyst and by nights/weekends he creates turbanful Sikh cartoons that can be consumed at Sikhtoons.com. He can be reached at @sikhtoons and vsingh at sikhtoons dot com.

What I Should Read Is Something That's a Mystery to Me

Y'know, every book that's interesting's a mystery; It's the only way a book that's any good should be, Whether novel, self-help, reference, or history - A mystery's what every single book should be.

Cuz if to read it I'm inclined to be,
It had better be a mystery to ME.

FROM THE DESK OF DAVID PULLEN

By DAVID PULLEN

Allegany County Legislator

CITIZENS OF DISTINCTION

There was a time, not that long ago, when men and women from Allegany County occupied places of distinction and leadership in our state and nation. Through their own efforts, and those with whom they held close association, they made valuable contributions to the growth and development of America. In this article I will follow the careers and connections of several of those individuals.

Martin Grover, Esq. moved to Angelica from Hammondsport in 1835. He became one of the pre-eminent attorneys in NYS and Allegany County. In 1844 he was elected to Congress, and served several terms. He was a staunch opponent of slavery. In 1857 he was appointed as Interim Justice of Superior Court. He was re-elected in 1859 to a full term. In 1865 he was appointed to the Court of Appeals, the highest Court in New York. In 1867 he was elected to a full term on that Court. He died in 1875 while still serving on that Court. During his career he handled many notable cases, and trained many attorneys who later had distinguished careers of their own. Today his portrait hangs in the James Euker Courtroom in the County Courthouse in Belmont.

David P. Richardson, Esq. came to Angelica in 1856 to help start the "Angelica Academy." He served as one of its earliest principal's. A few years later he began to study law with Martin Grover, Esq. In 1861 he helped raise a company of cavalry that served with the 6th New York Regiment during the Civil War. After the War he served on the County Board of Supervisors for 3 terms. In 1878 he was elected to Congress and served two terms. He married Julia Lloyd and raised his family in Angelica. His son, Ransom Lloyd Richardson, Esq. opened up one of the first law offices in Fillmore. His grandson, David P. Richardson, Esq. became an attorney and joined that practice. He continued that law firm from the 1940s to the 1980s. When I graduated from law school in 1975 he offered me my first job as an attorney. My current firm is the direct successor of that law practice.

Frank Sullivan Smith, Esq., was born in the Town of Granger in 1851, and grew up in our County. He was the son of William M. Smith, M.D., who served as Surgeon General of the State of New York, and also as Health Officer of the Port of New York, during the huge immigration surge occurring in the late 19th century. He attended Angelica Academy before enrolling in Yale College in 1872. After graduation he returned to Allegany County and was appointed as School Commissioner of the Northern District of Allegany County. He studied law under David P. Richardson, Esq. in the late 1870s and became a partner in that law firm. However, he became involved with railroad development, and ended up as president of the Pittsburg, Shawmut & Northern Railroad, and several other corporations. He married Clara Higgins, sister of Frank W. Higgins.

Frank W. Higgins is the only native of Allegany County to be elected and serve as Governor of New York State. He served from 1904 to 1906. Prior to his election he had worked as a merchant and entrepreneur. The Higgins Family and Smith Family made major charitable donations to the Olean General Hospital and Angelica Library.

Ransom Lloyd, Esq. moved to Angelica in 1827 as a young attorney. He was one of the County's earliest judges. His daughter married David P. Richardson, Esq. His son, Harlan P. Lloyd, Esq., served as a cavalry officer under General Philip Sheridan in the Civil War. After the war he moved to Cincinnati, Ohio and established a law firm. One of his partners was a former Ohio governor. Another partner was former US Attorney General Alphonso Taft. The Taft family produced a US President, Supreme Court Justice, and several Governors and Senators.

Allegany County has a heritage and history we can be proud of.

It's 'All in the Timing' for 'An Ives Evening' at AU

ALFRED—The Alfred University (AU) Performing Arts Division will pay homage to American playwright David Ives during four nightly presentations of "An Ives Evening/All in the Timing," Wednesday, Oct. 1 to Saturday, Oct. 4 beginning at 8 p.m. in the C.D. Smith Theatre, Miller Performing Arts Center on campus.

General admission is $10 while cost for senior citizens and non-AU students is $5; admission is $2 for AU students. Email performs@alfred.edu or call 607.871.2828 for reservations.

Ives is known for his short comic plays that follow deep cerebral paths to examine and expose the inner complications and details of American life. His plays have been described as "witty, quirky, heady, and surprisingly logical."

The seven selected pieces that make up "An Ives Evening/All in the Timing" are "Words, Words, Words," "The Universal Language," "Phillip Glass Buys a Loaf of Bread," "Sure Thing," "Foreplay, or The Art of the Fugue," "The Philadelphia," and "Seven Menus."

"Words, Words, Words" walks through the process of three chimpanzees typing randomly in a science experiment to create "Hamlet." "The Universal Language" follows the story of a con man running a scam to teach a made-up language to any willing (and paying) student. "Phillip Glass Buys a Loaf of Bread," an operatic satire, was composed by Phillip Glass, contemporary composer from Baltimore. "Sure Thing" centers on a chance meeting in a restaurant that may result in a budding and lasting relationship. "Foreplay, or The Art of the Fugue" follows the story of a man named Chuck who tries to win over the heart of a girl through three different miniature golf "first" dates. "The Philadelphia," a play set in a New York City diner explores the idea of distant cities being portrayed as states of mind or states of being like Cleveland being described as "death, without the advantages." And lastly, "Seven Menus" examines marital relationships, changes, and exchanges while taking place in a restaurant as well.

Student performers include

Morgan Rairigh, a first-year art and design major from New Hope, PA, as Kafka in "Words, Words, Words," Martha in "The Philadelphia," and Dawn in "Seven Menus;" Abigail Hurley, a sophomore Spanish major from Barrington, RI, as Swift in "Words, Words, Words" and Dawn in "The Universal Language;" Nicki Jones, a sophomore theater and English major from Muncy, PA, as Milton in "Words, Words, Words" and Alma in "Foreplay, or The Art of the Fugue."

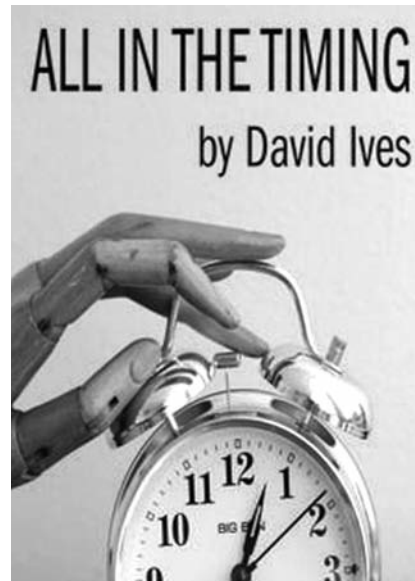

Also, Brian O'Connor, a sophomore English major from Chittenango, as Don in "The Universal Language" and Fluff in "Seven Menus;" Aubrey Fry, a senior math and physics major from Jasper, as First Woman in "Phillip Glass Buys a Loaf of Bread," and Amy in "Foreplay, or The Art of the Fugue;" Rachel Romack, a senior theater and psychology major from Ithaca, as second woman in "Phillip Glass Buys a Loaf of Bread," Betty in "Sure Thing," and Hazel in "Seven Menus;" Nathan Yard, a senior biomedical materials engineering science major from Quakertown, PA, as Glass in "Phillip Glass Buys a Loaf of Bread," Chuck I in "Foreplay, or The Art of the Fugue," and Paul in "Seven Menus."

In addition, Noah Mitchell, a first-year student from Elizabethtown, PA, as Baker in "Phillip Glass Buys a Loaf of Bread," and Bill in "Sure Thing;" Delaney O'Hare, a first-year theater major from Wallkill, as Annie in "Foreplay, or The Art of the Fugue" and Phyllis in "Seven Menus;" Andrew Hazer, a junior theater major from New York City, as Chuck II in "Foreplay, or The Art of the Fugue," Waiter in "The Philadelphia," and Jack in "Seven Menus;" Sean Heverin, a first-year art and design major from Merrick, as Chuck III in "Foreplay, or The Art of the Fugue" and Barry in "Seven Menus;" and Samantha Faller, a first-year engineering major from York, PA as Ally in "The Philadelphia," and Ruth in "Seven Menus."

In addition to those performing, several students will be designing for the first time. Sophomore art and design major from Middleburg Heights, Ohio Nick Labate will be designing costumes for "Phillip Glass Buys a Loaf of Bread" and collaborating on the poster and other publicity visuals with junior art and design major from Whitehall, PA Jason Dearing. Dearing and first-year student Grace Beekman from Middleburgh will join junior Cassidy Teagle from New York City to design the floor plans and props for "Foreplay, or The Art of the Fugue" and "The Philadelphia." Teagle will also design costumes for both pieces.

Alongside the 15 students involved in the making and delivery of this production, Becky Prophet, theater professor, and Zach Hamm, technical director in the Performing Arts Division, and AU senior political science and theater double major Jamal Welcome of Brooklyn will be collectively directing/staging the performances. Welcome will direct "Sure Thing" while Prophet will direct the other six plays. Hamm will work as the technical director alongside Prophet to coordinate, light, and stage all seven plays. Prophet is an alumna of Alfred University holding a bachelor of arts degree in English. She earned a master of arts degree and Ph.D. from the University of Michigan-Ann Arbor. Having spent nearly three decades working and teaching in theater, she has acted, directed, and taught in Massachusetts, Michigan, Wisconsin, and Atlanta. She enjoys directing plays which challenge students and audiences and favors theater which addresses for social and political change. She is active in the Kennedy Center/American College Theatre Festival and Association for Theatre in Higher Education.

Hamm has worked on dozens of productions along the East Coast, particularly in New York, North Carolina, and Virginia. He earned a bachelor of arts degree in architectural studies and art from Connecticut College, New London, CT and a master of fine arts degree in technical theater production from the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill. He is responsible for supporting two dance performances, three theater productions, and in excess of 10 music events in the Miller Performing Arts Center annually while teaching.

Hornell Arts Center exhibition art dean's 70-year retrospect

HORNELL—Mario Prisco, former dean and professor at the School of Art and Design, NYS College of Ceramics at Alfred University, will have a selected retrospective at the Hornell Art Center.

The exhibition will contain examples from a number of series dating from 1947 to the present in various media, including drawing, watercolor, acrylic and oil painting.

The work demonstrates the influences and events that impact an artist's efforts over a seventy-year period.

The 20th century witnessed rapidly changing concepts and styles, and with the advent of electronic media in the 21st century, the changes seem to occur even more rapidly.

Prisco will give an artist's talk to discuss his passage through these changes and whether there is a thread or attitude that sustains the work over that period of time.

The exhibition is at the Hornell Arts Center, 58 Broadway Mall, Hornell. Entrance is from the parking lot. There will be an opening reception from 5 to 7 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 4. The artist's talk will be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 7.

Susan Greene at today's Bergren Forum

ALFRED—Alfred University's (AU) Bergren Forum, a weekly lunchtime series, continues today (Thursday, Sept. 25), in Nevins Theater, Powell Campus Center with a talk by Susan Greene, an expert on early fabrics, clothing, and textiles. The program is free and open to the public.

A local resident, Greene, former art teacher and graphic designer, will talk about "Calico and the Sturdy Pioneer" with a focus on calico - what it was, who wore it, and how it related to the "home-spun movement."

Greene was in charge of the American Costume Museum in Alfred Station for several years. In order to accommodate her collection, the Genesee County Museum in Mumfordsport spent $2.7 million to renovate its gallery and storage facility. She has recently released an encyclopedia on the subject.

Laurel Jay Carpenter to give next talk

The Bergren Forum continues Thursday, Oct. 2 at 12:10 pm in Nevins Theater, Powell Campus Center with "Performance To Go" by Laurel Jay Carpenter, associate professor of art. The program is free and open to the public.

Since her sabbatical two years ago, Carpenter has presented new performance art work in Italy, Norway, Poland and Germany. Her forum will focus on her solo and collaborative work, and perhaps include a few tourist shots of the residency sites.

According to her personal webpage, "Carpenter is a performance and installation artist, investigating longing, devotion and alchemy in her durational live works."

She has exhibited her work both nationally and internationally. It has been featured at eight different venues in New York, two in Germany, and one in Spain, Italy, Norway, and Poland.

Carpenter was one of only two U.S. participants in the Independent Performance Group (IPG) from 2004-07. The IPG is a non-profit established to promote young international performance artists.

Carpenter holds a bachelor of arts degree in English literature and art history from Tufts University, Medford, MA, and a master of fine arts degree in sculpture and performance from the University of Connecticut, Storrs.

She teaches in the Interdisciplinary Art program at AU with special interest in performance art, found object sculpture, and site-specific installation.

The Bergren Forum is sponsored by the Division of Human Studies, the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, and the Provost's Office. Guests are encouraged to bring a brown bag lunch; coffee and tea will be provided.

The series known as the Bergren Forum began in 1970. Rick Bergren, who taught at the University in the '70s, started the forums after being inspired by learning of the gatherings that (AU) students in the 19th century were known to conduct in Alumni Hall to discuss community issues. After Bergren's death in 1974, the University decided to continue the tradition in his name. Various faculty members have taken on the coordinator duties since that time. William S. Dibrell, professor of philosophy, is the current coordinator.

Almond Twentieth Century Club Library Director

Think spring! There is nothing more encouraging at this time of year, when the portent of snow and a long, cold winter is upon us, than to envision and prepare for the uplifting beauty of next spring's garden blossoms. As part of Cooperative Extension, Master Gardener Mary Lu Wells will present "Plant Now, Bloom Later," her inspiring and illustrated talk on planting fall bulbs for spring blooms. This is a new presentation with many original photos which Ms. Wells is very excited to unveil. Please call to pre-register for this event, scheduled for next Thursday, Oct. 2, from 6:30-8pm. The usual nominal fee of $5 must be prepaid at the library.

Calling all our Pumpkin Patch kids (you know who you are)! We will meet here this Saturday, Sept. 27 to carve our initials into our growing pumpkins. Mary Lu Wells will be here at 10 am, and is also offering to do soil pH testing for the home gardens of those participating. Please call the library for details. Then, our final Pumpkin Harvest Celebration will take place at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 11, when each Pumpkin Patch gardener may harvest the fruit of his or her labor. We will also make homegrown pumpkin pudding to enjoy with fresh whipped cream!

Infinity and Beyond Sci-Fi Book Club will meet on Thursday, Sept. 25, from 6-7 pm. If you have any inclination toward the subject of science fiction, you should really try this meeting at least once. We have an eclectic group of scientists, pastors, musicians, techies, etc. who know how to have a good time, and consider "the more, the merrier." Feel free to stop by for discussion of this month's reading selection, Pattern Recognition, by William Gibson.

Community Coffee will be served this Monday, September 29 at 10am. There is always room for more at our friendly gathering of local folks who like to talk, sip coffee or juice, and nibble on something sweet. Please come!

Mondays 10 am: Preschool Storytime. Stories, songs, and a craft. See our calendar on Facebook or visit almondlibrary.org. Location: 44 Main Street, Almond, NY 14804. Phone 607-276-6311 Hours: M, W, Sat 9:30 am-1pm. Tu, Th 1-7 pm. We geek libraries!

AU WILD offers Pony to Pond Hike Oct. 5

ALFRED—Alfred University's (AU) Wilderness Immersion, Learning, Discovery (WILD) About Alfred organization will host a community Pony to Pond Hike Sunday, Oct. 5. This seven-mile hike replaces previous years' Horse to Holler Hike.

The event will begin at AU's Bromeley-Daggett Equestrian Center located at the Maris Cuneo Equine Park, Foster Lake Road, and wander through the sylvan hills surrounding Alfred, ending at Foster Lake where participants will find food and music.

The hike sets off at 10 a.m.; check-in begins at 9 a.m. Shuttles will run from 8:45 to 9:45a.m. from AU's Powell Campus Center to the Equestrian Center and return back from Foster Lake to Powell Campus Center between 1 and 4 p.m.

Registration is required: $10 for all college and local students, $20 for community members. To register for the hike, please visit www.alfred.edu/students/wild and follow the link for Pony to Pond.

WILD was formed in spring 2011 to help students and faculty make the most of Alfred's unique wilderness setting in Western New York. The group sponsors and organizes events such as Friday Night Hikes, Zombie Runs, and trips to Alfred State's rock climbing wall to encourage members of the Alfred community to get outdoors and stay active.

NOTES from the BOX OF BOOKS

By ELIZA ORDWAY

Box of Books Library Director

The library and its staff is recovering from a VERY successful Book Sale this past weekend. The weather was beautiful and the tent was full all day. I honestly wish we could have stayed "open" longer because people were still busy shopping when we began breaking down. I would like to thank whoever took the time and energy to move our recycle books under the bus stop covering for the weekend while they awaited pick up. We were able to pack up 85 boxes of books to send off to Better World Books this year and only had to send about 30 boxes off to recycling due to the condition or content of them.

A yearly challenge for us is what to do with the books at the end of the sale. We have guidelines from Better World Books that dictate what books they want and which they do not. If the books don't meet these guidelines we have to send them for recycling. Then the challenge with the recycle books is where to put them. We have put them on the curb and then it rains which is sad to have books ruined by the elements. I never thought of using the bus stop cover to help protect them. I welcome suggestions about what to do with these books.

The tent that we rent from the Andover Lions was left up longer than usual and had a pole removed from it. If you have seen a large tent pole in the creek or in your yard could you please let me know. We are hoping that it will turn up and can be returned to the Lions.

All of that said let me say THANK YOU! To the Delta Chi Omega Sorority, the Kappa Sigma Epsilon Fraternity, Keith Rogers, the Friends of the Box of Books Library, and all of the volunteers who made the Book and Bake Sale such a great success. All of your help is immeasurable and the sale would not be possible without all of you!

Coming up here at the BoB:

Thursday, September 25th at 4:30 - Bob's Wise Ol' Owls will be discussing Hoot through Chapter 6 and making Clay Owls. There are still copies of the book available and all are welcome.

Wednesday, October 1 at 10:15 - Story Time: Music, Movement and Stories for birth to 5.

Tuesday, October 7th at 1 pm - ePLACE Webinar- Foods Toxic to Pets - must register for this event by October 6th. For more details contact Rima O'Connor at the library.

Pigskin Picks Football Contest

JAY LAWRENCE wins Week Three

Jay Lawrence of Fulton did something that hasn't been done in a long time—if ever. He had a perfect entry. And to top it off, he picked the Bears to beat the Jets 23-17 Monday night. Bears won, 27-19.

Jay was way ahead of a pack of seven contestants with four misses each. They included Robert Grogan of Canisteo, Floyd Patrick Farley of Hornell, Barb Welch of Arkport, Bill Pulos of Alfred Station, Chris Yarnal of Almond, Nelson Snyder of Alfred Station, and Mark Jackson of Virginia Beach, VA. Doug Lorow of Webster and Judy Marlatt of Almond each had six misses.

It's easy to participate! Enter your guesses of winners of 10 college and 10 pro football games (found in the ads of our sponsors on these pages) and predict the score of the Monday Night Football game as the tiebreaker in the form below. Enter today! Winners are announced each week right here on this page. Don't forget to guess the score for the tiebreaker, the NFL's Monday Night Football game as it many times takes the tiebreaker to declare a champion. The entry form below is due by 5 p.m. Friday, OCT. 3. Send entries to: Pigskin Picks, PO Box 811, Alfred, NY 14802 or take to the ALFRED SUN mailbox on the porch of the home office located at 764 Route 244 in Tinkertown. Good luck!

Three ASC teams in 'Fireball Run'

ALFRED—Three teams headed from the Alfred State School of Applied Technology campus in Wellsville to Frisco, Texas, Tuesday morning for Fireball Run, the annual life-sized trivia game that seeks to aid in the recovery of America's missing children.

Two of the squads, Team Allegany and Team Salamanca, are competing in Fireball Run, while Alfred State is providing a support team and sponsoring the event.

"We're really excited to be sending off another team to the Fireball Run," said Craig Clark, executive director and dean of Applied Technology.

The college's support team will perform duties such as tire pressure and car checks, according to Kent Johnson, chair of the Automotive Trades department.

"When the cars break down, we're going to lend a hand," Johnson said of the Alfred State team, which will drive a 1987 Mercedes Turbo Diesel donated by 1975 Alfred State graduate Mark Crounse.

Along with Clark and Johnson, the Alfred State support team includes automotive service technician students and brothers Josh and Jordan Ricotta, both from Falconer, N.Y. The students said they were honored to be a part of this year's Fireball Run.

"We're honored to go and represent the college that we wanted to take up automotive at," said Josh Ricotta. "Our hard work paid off and they honored us with being able to go."

"It sounds like a great opportunity and seems like we'll have some fun," Jordan Ricotta said. "It's a great experience to learn from."

This year's Fireball Run begins Sept. 26 in Frisco, Texas, and ends Oct. 4 in Independence, Mo., covering 14 cities and 2,000 miles. For a full schedule, updates, and to watch the action live, visit www.fireballrun.com.

'Paperback Parade' features article written by ASC's Richard Kellogg

ALFRED—Dr. Richard Kellogg, professor emeritus of psychology at Alfred State, is the author of an article that appears in the most recent issue of "Paperback Parade," a quarterly journal for readers and book collectors published by Gryphon Publications. The article is titled "Philip Wylie's 'The Disappearance.'"

The author, in reviewing Wylie's novel "The Disappearance," notes that Wylie (1902-1971) was often labeled a misogynist for his biting critique of wives and mothers in his earlier "Generation of Vipers" (1942). He suggests that Wylie wrote "The Disappearance" to atone for his earlier attacks on women.

"The Disappearance" takes place in Miami on Valentine's Day in 1950. In the blink of an eye, all the women suddenly disappear from the world of men. At the same instant, all the men vanish from the world of women, leaving two parallel

DR. RICHARD KELLOGG universes: one occupied by men and the other by women. The novel reveals the sequence of events that occur over the next four years in the male and female domains.

Wylie depicts a one-sexed world as one filled with loneliness and despair. He captures the sadness and the anger that develops when men and women are separated from each other. Wylie asserts that the combination of male and female energies is necessary to create a healthy and productive society.

Kellogg concludes that Wylie understood the interdependency of the two sexes and that "The Disappearance" refutes the allegation that he hated women. In fact, literary critics now consider this novel to be among Wylie's finest achievements in the genre of science fiction.

Environmental talk set

ALFRED—Stephen A. DiLaura, vice president of Nothnagle Drilling Inc., Scottsdale and an Alfred University (AU) alumnus, will present "A Geologist in the Drilling Industry" as a part of the University's fall semester Environmental Studies Speaker Series.

The lecture will take place Friday, Sept. 26 at 12:20 p.m. in the Roon Lecture Hall (Room 247) of the AU Science Center. All are welcome. DiLaura, AU class of '83, will discuss the relationship between geologists and the drilling industry.

Washington Monthly lists AU among top master's programs

ALFRED—In its 2014 College Guide, Washington Monthly, the bi-monthly non-profit magazine, ranks Alfred University's (AU) master's degree programs among the top 5 percent of those offered throughout the country.

AU sits at 99 out of the 671 institutions reviewed, cited for contribution to the public good in three Washington Monthly categories — social mobility (recruiting and graduating low-income students), research (producing cutting-edge scholarship and PhDs), and service (encouraging students to give something back to their country).

"Alfred University takes pride in its consistently high place in the Washington Monthly's ranking. The emphasis on social mobility is particularly appropriate at a time when our elite institutions do almost nothing to counteract the national trend towards severe economic inequality," said Dr. Charles M. Edmondson, AU president. "The fact that Alfred is a shining exception to that pattern inspires pride in our alumni and hope among our current students."

"The Washington Monthly recognition highlights what AU has intended for 179 years - the development of whole persons through dedicated teaching and learning, challenging scholarship, and the practical engagement of community," added Dr. Rick Stephens, Provost and vice president for Academic Affairs.

This is a tale of the little plant that couldn't. Eight or so years ago, I bought a small wintergreen from a good nursery. This wild ground cover from N.E. forests loves the humus rich, acidic soil found in the shade of our deciduous forests. I assumed acid meant a PH of 6 or so that our Allegany County soil was in that range. So it was planted on the north side of my house with my other Woodland Wildflowers.

And there it sat, neither dying nor growing. Wintergreen is a lovely ground cover growing 4-6 inches high with small shiny evergreen leaves. In June, the small very pale pink bell flowers appear to be followed in late summer by Scarlet berries. Both leaves and berries make wintergreen tea.

The mystery of survive but not flourish was solved when I read another book on wild flowers. Wintergreen needs a PH of 4.5 - 5! This is very acidic.

So I bought some pure sulfur from Jung Nurseries and added it to the soil in fall. This I do every October, then mulch with pine needles.

Amazing! My little plant that couldn't now covers a square yard and blooms heavily.

The moral of the story: never assume always check your facts. Supply what your plants need and they will respond.

So, if you covet blueberries, holly, azaleas, first test your soil! On Saturday, Sept. 27, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Tinkertown Hardware in Alfred Station, some Master Gardeners will be there to provide a free PH soil test! So, bring your soil and your questions.

Everything that we touch turns to SOLD!

THE FELIX ENSEMBLE will perform at 3 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 28 in Miller Theatre, Miller Performing Arts Center, on the Alfred University campus

Felix Ensemble to perform at AU

ALFRED—The Felix Ensemble will perform at Alfred University at 3 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 28 in Miller Theater, Miller Performing Arts Center. This event is open to the public free of charge and is sponsored by the David and Elizabeth Miller Guest Artist Fund.

Violinist David Colwell, violinist David Rose, cellist Rintaro Wada, and pianist Ritsuko Wada will perform classic masterworks including Ludwig van Beethoven's "Trio for Violin, Viola, and Cello in D major, Op. 9, No. 2" and Johannes Brahms's "Quartet for Piano, Violin, Viola, and Cello No. 1 in G minor, Op. 25."

Colwell, assistant professor of violin at State University of New York Fredonia School of Music, has performed since the age of 14 as a soloist and chamber musician in Europe, Canada, and the United States. He studied at Yale University School of Music where he was awarded master of music and master of musical arts. As a winner of the Johan Strauss Foundation Scholarship in 1998 and 1999, he was also afforded the opportunity to study at the Internationale Sommerakademie Mozarteum in Salzburg, Austria.

Rose, of Regina, Saskatchewan, began playing viola at the age of 12. He studied at the University of British Columbia and at Indiana University and has been associated with the CBC Vancouver Orchestra, the Vetta Chamber Ensemble in Vancouver, and as principal violist of the Vancouver Symphony and the Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony. Most recently, Rose served as the acting assistant principal viola of the San Francisco Symphony, with which he toured Europe and enjoyed involvement with the Grammy-winning Mahler symphony

Rintaro Wada has given solo, chamber music, and orchestra performances in Japan, Italy, and the US. He earned a master of music in performance and literature from Eastman School of Music, Rochester, and a post-graduate diploma in cello performance from Showa College of Music in Japan. Wada is currently a cellist of the Western New York Chamber Orchestra, orchestra teacher in the Olean City School District, faculty of the Houghton College Greatbatch School of Music, and artistic/executive director of the Chamber Music Society of Olean.

Ritsuko Wada holds a bachelor of music degree in piano performance from Showa College of Music where she was a merit scholarship student studying with Japan's leading pianist Takahiro Sonoda. She also studied piano at the Respighi Summer Music Academy in Italy and the Cahl Slue Piano Education Association. She has performed with the Allegany Piano Trio, Felix Piano Trio, Greifen Piano Trio, and W Piano Quartet. Mrs. Wada is a member of the Music Performance Practice Association of Japan and currently teaches in her private studio and at Jamestown Community College-Olean.

The Chamber Music Concert Series was founded in summer 2001 by Mr. and Mrs. Wada to ignite live classical music scenes in the Southern Tier of New York State. The series has given over 40 concerts in the Southern Tier, Western New York, and Northern Pennsylvania and includes performance groups such as the "Duo Wada," "Greifen Piano Trio," "Felix Piano Trio," and "Felix Piano Quartet." The organization also promotes the next generation in classical music society through the Young Artists Concert Series.

Alfred State alumni invited to gathering in Wellsville

ALFRED—Alfred State will host a free alumni event from 5-7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 3, at the David A. Howe Public Library, 155 N. Main St., Wellsville.

The event provides an opportunity for the 700 alumni residing in Wellsville and the surrounding areas to meet and greet College President Dr. Skip Sullivan and one another.

Alumni will also have the chance to learn about Alfred State's 19 baccalaureate and 50 associate-level programs, its 800-acre working farm, its move to NCAA Division III athletics, and the NYSUNY 2020 Challenge Grant Program, which will help fund a Sustainable Advanced Manufacturing Center (SAMC) at the School of Applied Technology.

Students at the SAMC will be trained in state-of-the-art techniques of sustainable manufacturing, including advanced lighting, HVAC, and process improvements through waste reduction and LEAN Six Sigma processes. The SAMC will be designed and constructed to minimize the energy typically used in manufacturing and will also serve as a prototype to assist manufacturers in developing new products and systems in a sustainable environment.

Hors d'oeuvres and cocktails will be served during the event. Those interested in attending should contact Cindy Croston by Sept. 30 at 607-587-3931 or at alumni@alfredstate.edu.

Alfred Sun Editor and Publisher

FIFTY YEARS AGO, SEPTEMBER 24, 1964

Volunteer firemen watched helplessly late Tuesday night as a spectacular fire leveled a barn owned by John Wood, on the Moland Road, between Alfred and Five Corners. The blazed, fanned by a brisk westerly wind, could be seen in the Village of Alfred, approximately two miles away. The wind also shot sparks hundreds of feet in the air. The fire was discovered by Mrs. Wood about 10:15 p.m. when she noticed a glow in one corner of the barn. As she called firemen, her husband attempted to extinguish the flames...

The 1961 Ford station wagon was sold to the highest bidder, J.F. Hubertus, for $650 at a meeting of the Alfred-Almond Central School Board of Education Tuesday night. Three bids were submitted on the vehicle, according to officials. Increases in salary were granted two teachers, William McAlee and Mrs. Claire Randolph, who have now completed 30 hours of graduate credit. The increase was effective September 1964...

The Alfred Tech Players will present Mel Dinelli's psychological drama "The Man" at the State Tech Friday, Sept. 25 at 8 p.m. The seven-member cast headed by Mrs. Barbara Larsen of Alfred and David Snyder of Wellsville, will stage the full-length play in the Alfred Tech gym. Mrs. Larsen plays the role of Mrs. Gillis, who is imprisoned in her own home by a youth who is potentially a dangerous maniac. Mr. Snyder plays the role of Howard, the youth. Others in the cast include: Wallace MacDonald as Mr. Armstrong; Pamela Scofield as Ruth; Vincent Trotta as Mr. Franks; Charles Bloomquist Jr. as Doug; and Mrs. Larsen's husband, John, as Mr. Stevens. All members of the supporting cast are from Alfred. Mr. Larsen is also director and stage designer. Other backstage members include: Era Scofield, lights; Mrs. Charles Bloomquist, make-up; Charles Bloomquist, stage carpenter; and Joanne Bono, properties...

Sabbath observance: 'they watched him'

ALFRED STATION—This Sabbath, Sept. 27, your friends and neighbors at the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church invite you to join them during the 11 a.m. Worship Hour. Your friends and neighbors at the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church: "A 3C church, Connect-Care Community," as Pastor Ken will be completing the sermon series on "How to Observe the Sabbath." The Sabbath sermon "They watched him" is focused on Mark 3:1-6 where Jesus heals the man with the withered hand. Sabbath School precedes the Sabbath Worship Hour at 9:45 a.m. Why not try the Adult class Bible from Backside Adult Class meeting in room #15 of the Christian Education Building. They are presently studying the book of Hebrews paragraph by paragraph.

The campus of the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist church is located at 587 Route 244, Alfred Station. If you have questions about Salvation, the Sabbath or Seventh Day Baptists please call the church office at 607-587-9176. See you and yours this Sabbath.

Darren Litz (left), director of Performing Arts at Family Life, presents a plaque of appreciation to Levi Weaver (right), founder of Pleasant Valley Mennonite Church. The plaque was given in immense gratitude to the Mennonite church for donating its entire facility to Family Life for the purpose of opening the Center for the Arts. (Photo provided)

Family Life opens Center for Arts

BATH—On Sept. 15, Family Life opened the doors of its newly renovated Center for the Arts, an extension of the organization's growing performing arts department.

Nestled in the heart of Hammondsport, the new arts facility is the former Pleasant Valley Mennonite Church, located at 8096 Pleasant Valley Road. The church donated the building to Family Life in March of 2014 and work began that month to transform it to the permanent home of the Center for the Arts.

Now humming with performance and creation, the center provides an immersive and artistically rich experience for students wanting to study and perform various styles of music, dance and theater in a Christian environment. The facility is fully equipped with a newly renovated reception area, restrooms, office space, three rehearsal studios, and a large dance studio. Private lessons and group classes are available to students of all ages and all skill levels.

Owned and operated by Family Life in Bath, the Center for the Arts is a faith-based arts program, meaning all aspects of the curriculum are designed to support and promote spiritual maturity as well as artistic development.

"The Center for the Arts cultivates not only an artist's craft, but an artist's spiritual life as well," says Darren Litz, director of performing arts at Family Life. "As believers in Christ, we have this awesome opportunity of enriching both the performer and the person by teaching essential performance skills in a setting that develops personal character with biblical truth."

With a focus on Christian values and beliefs, enrolled students have the option of taking classes that explore dance and theatrical arts, while students interested in learning an instrument or developing vocal talent can sign up for private lessons with a trained instructor.

"We are fortunate to employ a dozen part-time instructors, each who love their craft and have a passion for teaching the arts," says Litz. "We couldn't have asked for a more talented, vibrant team of teachers dedicated to the Lord and the spiritual growth of their students."

Dance and theater classes operate on a trimester schedule, each trimester running 12 weeks, with an average of six to eight students per class. The first trimester began September 15 and finishes mid-December. The second trimester will begin January 2015.

Litz said as the program grows, the plan is to add future courses in visual arts, media arts and creative writing. Visit Family Life's website (www.fln.org) for more information on the Center of the Arts, including a descriptive list of classes, lessons and teacher biographies.

THE GLORY OF AMERICA

Thursday, September 25

In 1862, in a time of prayer with Eliza Gurney and three other Quakers, Abraham Lincoln unburdened his heart:

"If I had my way, this war would never have been commenced. If I had been allowed my way, this war would have ended before this. But we find it still continues; and we must believe that He permits it for some wise purpose of His own, mysterious and unknown to us; and though with our limited understandings we may not be able to comprehend it, yet we cannot but believe, that He who made the world still governs it."

Alfred State Homecoming planned this weekend

ALFRED—A multitude of Alfred State alumni, faculty, staff, students, and their families will soon gather at the Alfred campus to celebrate Homecoming/Family Weekend Sept. 25-28.

"The Homecoming/Family Weekend Committee members have worked hard to offer a weekend filled with fun and exciting events," said Colleen Argentieri, co-chair of the committee. "Some of the activities have become a 'tradition' of Homecoming/Family Weekend, including Alfred's Got Talent, several sporting events, and the Tailgate Barbecue.

"We've also added some new and different activities this year, such as the Spirit Bonfire and Rally with an actual 'Pioneer' chuck wagon, as well as the new End Zone Club Party taking place during the football game. We are looking forward to an electrifying weekend on campus involving our students, alumni, faculty, and staff."

The festivities will begin at 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 25, when students compete against faculty and staff members in a dodgeball game at the Orvis Activities Center gymnasium.

The rest of the schedule is as follows:

Friday, Sept. 26

• 3 p.m. — Open House for the Veterinary Technology Center.

• 4 p.m. — Men's Soccer vs. SUNY Canton at Pioneer Stadium.

• 6 p.m. — Athletic Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony at the Orvis Activities Center's Cappadonia Auditorium. Honorees include the 1971-1972 National Champion Ski team, Richard Zeitler (wrestling), Peter Wuerstin (skiing), Tom Stapleton (skiing), James Burns (wrestling), Paul Eaton (swimming).

• 7:30 p.m. — Alumni and Athletic Hall of Fame Dinner in the Small Event Room at the Student Leadership Center. All alumni are invited to attend dinner with President Skip Sullivan and his wife to hear updates on the college and honor the Athletic Hall of Fame inductees.

• 7:30 p.m. — Spirit Bonfire and Rally outside of Pioneer Stadium.

• 9:15 p.m. — Fireworks Display. This will immediately follow the Spirit Bonfire and Rally.

• 10 p.m. — Alfred's Got Talent. Held at the Orvis Activities Center's Cappadonia Auditorium, this annual event highlights the many talents of Alfred State's students, faculty, staff, and alumni.

• 11 p.m. — Madden Tournament in the Gaming Room in the Student Leadership Center.

Saturday, Sept. 27

• 9 a.m. — Fourth annual Race for a Cure — 5K Run/Walk, starting at 10 Elm. The cost to participate is $15, with proceeds once again going to Carley's Club and Roswell Park Cancer Institute.

• 10 a.m. — Alumni Lacrosse Game at Pioneer Stadium.

• 10 a.m. — Alumni Baseball Game at the Baseball Field.

• 11 a.m. — Alumni Cross-Country Meet at the Practice Field.

• 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. — Tailgate/Barbecue event at a tent near Pioneer Stadium. The cost is $11 for adults and $6 for children, and includes admission to the football game.

• 12:30-4 p.m. — People 21 and older can watch the big football game from the End Zone Club at Pioneer Stadium.

• 1 p.m. — Football Game — Alfred State Pioneers vs. Castleton State Spartans at Pioneer Stadium.

dium.

• 5 p.m. — Comedian/Magician Daniel Martin at the Orvis Activities Center's Cappadonia Auditorium. Ranked one of the top three touring acts in the country, Martin is touted as "The perfect blend of incredible and hilarious."

Sunday, Sept. 28

• 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. — Brunch at The Terrace in the Central Dining Hall. The cost is $6.50.

• Noon — Men's Baseball vs. Corning Community College at Pioneer Stadium.

AU prof wins research funds

ALFRED—David Lipke, assistant professor of materials science and engineering in the Inamori School of Engineering at Alfred University, is one of 149 university researchers nationwide to win funding for research equipment from the federal Department of Defense.

Lipke will use the $308,667 award to design and install a xenon-arc image furnace for the synthesis and characterization of materials in ultra-high temperature (up to 3000 degrees C) environments under a variety of atmospheric conditions ranging from high vacuum to elevated pressure.

"This instrument will provide us with exciting new research capabilities especially for processing of materials under conditions previously only achievable in highly specialized, sometimes inaccessible laboratories," explained Lipke.

"These facilities will complement Alfred University's already impressive Center for High Temperature Characterization <<http://engineering.alfred.edu/research/chtc.cfm>> by significantly extending the upper temperature limit of our furnaces, especially in oxidizing or reactive environments, which is expected to help enable the discovery of new materials and the study of historically ill-defined materials systems," said Lipke.

The Center for High Temperature Characterization is a user facility, one that allows researchers from academia and industry to process and characterize materials and devices exposed to high temperature environments. The Center for High Temperature Characterization was created through funding from New York State in response to requests from industry partners for such a facility.

Lipke joined the faculty of the Inamori School of Engineering at Alfred University after completing a two-year National Research Council postdoctoral fellowship at the Air Force Research Laboratory (Edwards AFB, CA). He earned a B.S. degree in engineering from Harvey Mudd College, and a Ph.D. in materials science and engineering from Georgia Institute of Technology.

Among the research activities in the Lipke research group is the study of elevated temperature gas-solid interactions as they relate to materials synthesis and performance degradation, especially of ceramics, metallics, and their composites.

Saxons prevail on wind-swept Coyer Field

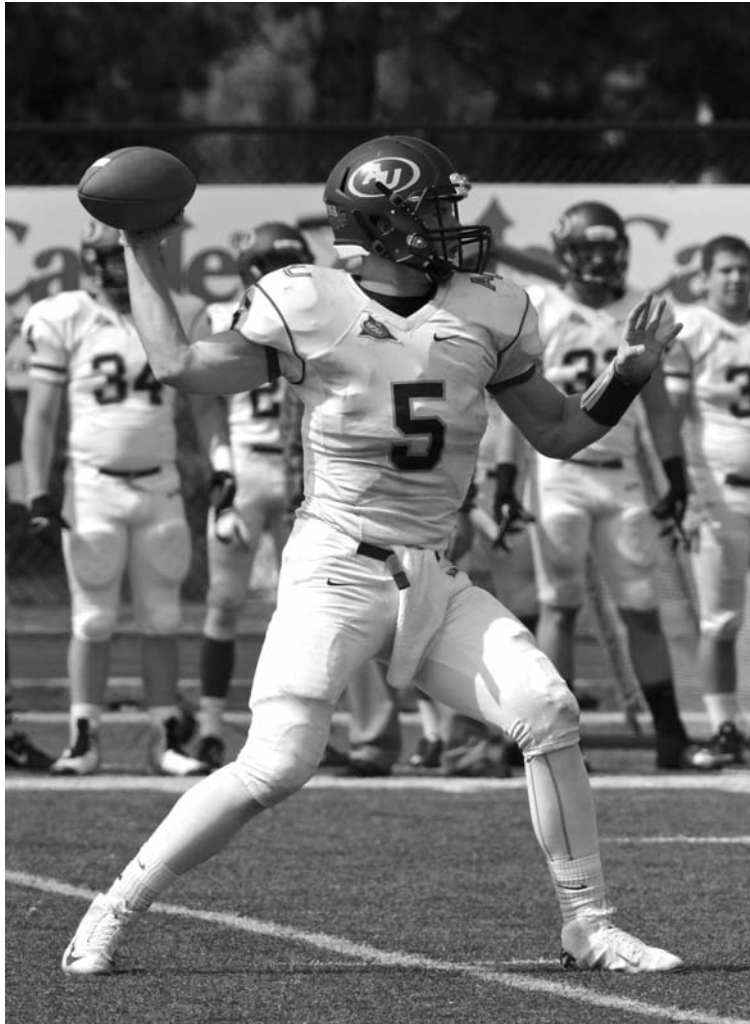

AU builds a 29-7 lead then holds on to beat Buffalo State

BUFFALO—The visiting Alfred University football team scored 23 unanswered points in the second and third quarters and held a potent Buffalo State offense to 288 yards, nearly half its average output, in a 29-21 win on a windy Saturday afternoon at Coyer Field. The Saxons spoiled Homecoming for the Bengals before a sell-out crowd of 3,000.

With the win, AU improved to 3-0, winning its Empire 8 Conference opener. The host Bengals, also playing their E8 season debut, fell to 2-1.

AU opened the scoring with a long opening drive, going 75 yards in 15 plays against the wind. The drive, which consumed 9:20, ended with a 13-yard TD pass from sophomore quarterback Tyler Johnson (East Syracuse-Minoa) to sophomore wide receiver Brendan Buisch (Hornell) with 5:40 left in the opening frame. A bad snap on the PAT resulted in a failed 2-pt conversion attempt and AU led 6-0.

Buff State answered with a touchdown on its ensuing drive and the Bengals held a 7-6 lead after one period. The Saxons then scored 23 unanswered points. It started when John Slaski tipped a Kyle Hoppy pass that was hauled in by sophomore defensive end Zack Bacon (Hornell) who returned the intercepttion 13 yards for a TD with 5:42 left in the second. A 38-yard field goal by freshman Trevor Monk (Liverpool) with 27 seconds left in the half gave the Saxons a 16-7 lead at intermission.

With the wind at their backs, AU outscored Buff State 13-0 in the third to take a commanding 29-7 lead heading into the final frame. Johnson scored on a 41-yard run with 8:20 left in the third, and with 55 seconds left in the period, hit Buisch with an 11-yard touchdown pass. Buff State scored two touchdowns in the fourth, the second coming with just under eight minutes remaining, to close out the scoring. The Bengals had two more possessions, but turned the ball over on downs both times: the first at the AU 46-yard line with 5:08 left, and the second at their own 34 with 1:32 remaining.

Johnson had another big day for AU, rushing for 111 yards and a TD on 25 carries. He has eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark in each game this year. He also completed 17 of 27 passes for 163 yards with two touchdowns and a pair of interceptions (his first of the year).

Buisch had four catches for 43 yards and a pair of scores, giving him six TD catches on the year. In each of Alfred's three games this year, Johnson has tossed two TD passes to Buisch. Freshman tailback Willie McFadden (Amityville/ Copiague) had 36 yards on 14 carries and senior tight end Isiah Young (Groton) caught seven passes for 65 yards.

Buff State came into the game averaging 568 yards of offense (264 rushing; 304 passing) but AU held the Bengals to just 288 (150 rushing; 138 passing). Buff State quarterback Kyle Hoppy had thrown for over 600 yards combined in two previous games, but against AU, he completed just eight of 27 passes for 138 yards, a TD and two interceptions.

Buff State wideout Mike Doherty, who had over 300 receiving yards and four TDs coming in, had four catches for 64 yards and no scores against AU. Wideout Ryan Carney caught two passes for 30 yards and a score, and tailback Rich Peete rushed for 116 yards on 22 carries.

Senior linebacker Justin Liberta (Hamburg/Frontier) led the Saxons' defensive effort with seven tackles, a forced fumble, and an interception. Senior linebacker Davis Turner (South Glens Falls) had six tackles (three for loss) and Bacon added four tackles (one for loss) and an interception.

AU is in action Saturday, Sept. 27 when the Saxons host Empire 8 rival Ithaca College (2-0). The Bombers, defending E8 champs, have wins over Union (21-16) and Hartwick (42-7) to date to their credit. Kickoff is 1 p.m. at Yunevich Stadium.

Alfred State falls to Husson, 34-28 in overtime

Football: 0-3

Joe Seccareccia scored overtime to lift Husson to a 34-28 come from behind victory over Alfred State on Saturday afternoon. The Pioneers put together two scoring drives in the 4th to grab a 28-21 lead but the Hawks scored in the closing minutes and held the blue & gold on their possession in OT to set up the winning drive.

Kyle McKinnon accounted for the lone points of the 1st quarter when he ran in from 10-yards out to give Husson a 7-0 lead.

Alfred St. tied it up on the first play of the 2nd quarter when Ben Wilkerson (Buffalo/Fayette-Ware) connected with Erik Simmons (Elmira Free) on a nine-yard scoring pass. The PAT attempt was blocked.

Seccareccia connected on a 32-yard pass play to Deon Wiggins with 6:50 remaining in the half but Rasheed Williams (Swedesboro, NJ) answered right back 21 seconds later when he raced in from 75-yards to send the game into halftime 14-13.

Husson added to their lead with 1:49 remaining in the 3rd quarter when Seccareccia connected with Ryan Stroud on a 22-yard scoring play to cap a eight-play 72-yard drive.

Alfred State gained momentum with two consecutive scoring drives. Wilkerson and Simmons connected on a 13-yard scoring play with 14:00 left to make it 21-19. The same two connected on the 2-point conversion to knot the game up at 21-21.

After a Husson punt, Wilkerson found Simmons for the 3rd time in the contest and 5th time this season for a 35-yard scoring pass play to give the Pioneers their first lead of the game, 28-21.

The Hawks then took their next possession 62-yards on 11-plays to tie the game up. Logan Steward capped the drive with a 5-yard run.

Alfred State drove the ball to the Husson 24 in the final seconds but a game-winning field goal attempt went just wide left to force overtime.

The Pioneers had the ball first in OT but turned the ball over on the first play. Husson needed five plays to drive down the field in their possession to earn the victory capped by Seccareccia's 2-yard rush.

Williams had another monster game for the Pioneers. He finished with 234 yards rushing on 27 carries. He now has 519 yards on 77 carries in the blue & gold's first three games.

Wilkerson was 14 for 26 for 175 yards and three scores, Simmons had five catches for 69 yards and three scores, and Josh Ashley (Brooklyn/Grand Street Campus) had four catches for 66 yards.

Keegan Phalen (East Aurora) and Nick DePofi (Union Endicott) both finished with eight tackles for the Pioneers. Alex Richardson (West Irondequoit) added seven.

Cross Country: Men 1st, Women 3rd at Brockport

The Alfred State men's cross country team won the Houghton College Highlander Invitational by 41 points as five Pioneers finished in the top seven. The women's team finished 3rd with 87 points.

Keith Johnson (Webster Thomas) led the Pioneers with a 2nd place finish. His time of 26:55.65 is the fastest Alfred St. time at Houghton in program history on the 8k course. Jacob Hanss (East Rochester) was 4th (28:03.75), Jordan Rusek (Williamsville East) was 5th (28:11.25), James Westman (Fonda-Fultonville) was 6th (28:43.67), and Jonathan Pearl (Campbell Savona) was 7th (28:45.96).

The Pioneers scored a 24 to win the event followed by Roberts Wesleyan (65), Alfred University (72), Houghton (113), Bryant & Stratton (133), Finger Lakes CC (136), and Pitt-Bradford (173). 58 runners finished the race.

Lindsey Thiel (Liverpool) had another impressive run to lead the women's team. She finished 3rd on the 5k course in 19:59.49 to establish a new mark for Lady Pioneers at Houghton. Mary Frances Aini (Arkport) was 13th (21:20.6) and Kelly Healy (Maple Hill) was 23rd (22:35.13).

Houghton won the women's title with a score of 50 followed by Roberts Wesleyan (56), Alfred State (87), Alfred University (96), Keuka (103), Elmira (132), and Pitt-Bradford (192).

Men's Soccer: 2-5

The Pioneers had 2nd half leads in both of their contests this week but lost 3-2 decisions to Keuka (in OT) and D'Youville.

Mitchell Porter (Alfred Almond) and Nick Peraino (Gene-seo) scored vs. Keuka while Brian Markel (Arkport) and Kory Zimmer (Livonia) scored vs.

D'Youville. Nickolas Weir (Harrisville) made 16 saves in net on the week.

Women's Soccer: 5-2-1

In their only action this week the Lady Pioneers battled to a 1-1 tie vs. Fairmont State

Kali Muhleisen (Alfred Almond) scored her 9th of the season after getting a corner kick from McKenzie Miller (Belfast). Fairmont tied it moment later and neither team would score the rest of regulation or during either of the 10-minute overtime sessions.

Alfred State held a 22 to 18 shot advantage (15 to 9 shots on goal) in the contest. Allison Danielak (Brockport) made six saves in 65 minutes while Morgan Schreiner (Spencerport) made two saves in the 2nd half.

Volleyball: 10-2, #3 in USCAA Poll

The Lady Pioneers ran their winning streak to seven games with 3-0 victories over Penn College and Davis College. The team also was ranked #3 in the first USCAA poll of the season.

Janae Hamilton (Ellicottville) led the way with 18 kills for the Lady Pioneers. Kay Pfleghardt (Tioga) had 15 kills and 15 digs, Lera Braun (Waterloo) had 44 assists, and Jess Ramsey (Tioga) had 20 digs.

The Dugout

It was time for a "classic" fall journey as I embarked on a (richly deserved) vacation last week. I realize many of you think I am constantly on vacation but nothing could be further from the truth! The main part of my trip would be to head to Kentucky to see my sister, Robin and her husband, Brian. Too long a trip, for me anyhow, to just make in a long weekend, so having the past week off worked well. Then, so long as I was out wandering around, figured I would piece in each day along a journey to eventually get back to Webster. Pretty much accomplished most of what I set out to do.

Headed out from work at Frito Lay on Friday (9/12) knowing that this would be the worst part of the entire trip. Really not up to driving 8-9 hours in a stretch but knew I had to do so to arrive in Taylor Mill (KY) that evening. Mission complete but quite tired upon arrival at 10:00 pm. Some pizza and a cold one, a little catching up with all and hitting the sack at 11:00 pm. Was glad to see that brother Scott, plus his daughter and granddaughter, there as well as a few hours ahead of me in from Virginia Beach. Hadn't seen him in two-years since Florida and a birthday gathering for my mom.

The weekend was great! Well, the golf game wasn't exactly "great" but getting out with Brian Fischer, his brother Bob plus Scott was a good time. Each course we played at was like a combination of Hornell CC and Conesus CC. Very hilly, side hill lies and not knowing the layout it was "fun" attempting some shots at various points and just hoping. Actually, that is my golf game in a nutshell. Anyhow, golfed two days, two excellent meals at nite with the family ... including my "favorite" niece in from ECU, some corn-on-the-cob that has to rate with best I have ever had, nephew Josh joining us after Bengals game Sunday and just catching up on a variety of things here and there.

Bright and early Monday it was time to say good-bye to all. Scott-Perrin-Zoey off to Virginia Beach, my sister, Brian the nite before as he had an early morning appointment in Tennessee. I am off to Canton, Ohio to see college buddy Glen Sayre and have lunch with him. Decent ride there after the fog cleared out in the Cincy area. Rush-hour traffic headed in from Kentucky to the home of the Bengals and Reds. Then more traffic outside of Cincinnati towards Columbus. Other than that all was quite smooth. Met Sayre at his place of work as the head honcho at ECO and we headed for a restaurant called Rockne's. Very much like an UNO's Chicago Grille. Food was very good and we had a chance to catch-up on a ton of things. Sayre and I have known each other since we were 18-years old at Alfred State College and have kept in touch thru the years. Always good seeing him. Wished we had a chance to golf but not to be this trip. Plus, he was moaning about a "bad back" and would've likely have used that as an excuse for a poor outing!

After lunch and a brief stop back at Sayre's office it was time for me to head to my next destination and that was the "booming" town of Marienville (Pa.) in the heart of the Allegheny National Forest. Had stayed there about 12-years ago at a place called the Pioneer Motel when I was on my way to get Lauren from a camp about 30-minutes further south. We were headed to Kentucky from there and didn't want to drive from Webster to Taylor Mill that time either! Same hotel, as I am a creature of habit, different owner and only remembered name as I knew it had an "Alfred connection" somehow. Was going to look into golfing Kane CC the next day, thus the stay here, but Tuesday morning was quite overcast and only three cars were in the parking lot when I drove by the golf course. Not too promising. Looks like a beautiful layout from the road. Oh well.

Stopped for gas in Cuba, across from street from the McDonald's, with many memories of Lauren from her youth as it was a "meeting point" to Port Allegany (Pa.) from Almond. Breakfast that morning at the Kopper Keg which was great. Probably because they had salt rising toast on the menu! On way to Cuba I passed thru Kane ... hometown of Chuck Daly, coach of the Detroit Pistons and the "Dream Team." Needs a sign update. Thru Bradford past the Zippo plant and Limestone where another college buddy, Lenny Swatt grew up. Next stop, with a relatively long drive ahead, was going to be Cooperstown. Zipped across I-86 and onto I-88, a route I had taken once before in that direction. Saw Stephen Baker play soccer in the early morning at the Oneonta Hall of Fame fields in his senior year of high school and then it was off to Burlington, Vt. to see Jess Herbst play for UVM. Got to Cooperstown, which rolls up its streets at 5:00 pm after the summer is over, except for some restaurants. One open was the Cooperstown Diner! Been there on two previous visits, once with 3L. Biggest burger ever! Staying that nite at the Hickory Grove Motor Inn on Otsego Lake.

Heading north on route 80, past the golf course where the Hall of Famers play when in town for the baseball induction, various homes along the hillside that are nothing short of spectacular and on a road with the lake right below you. Pretty narrow. One of the huge homes had a sign marked ... August Busch. Wow! The granddaughter or great granddaughter of the Budweiser beer baron now occupies the mansion. Find the Hickory Grove Motor Inn on a slight bend that comes up on you quick and I made a great (lucky) choice for the nite to stay. Decent view of the lake, neat little backyard that would be awesome to kick back on in one of the chairs on a summer nite and a "homey," very clean room. About five-miles from downtown Cooperstown.

The Baseball Hall of Fame was on my agenda for Wednesday and got there just about opening time at 9:00 am. Have been here 3-4 times prior but each time you seem to either see something new, or they have added things from past visit or I just take more time to read certain things. Quite enjoyable and not sure if I'll get here again so wanted to take it all in. Great tour and time to head to Indian Lake.

Headed back up route 80, past the Motor Inn again and connected to route 20 east then looked for 10 north. First time on each of these stretches of road on way to Indian Lake, my "second home" in the ADK's! Passed thru a dinky town called Ames, established 1790. Probably more people living there then than it looked now. Stopped in Lake Pleasant to play nine-holes and hooked up with a local couple, Peter and Lillian. Very nice folks! Erratic game was in fine form this day but did manage four pars. Took off from there, headed up to Speculator and at stop sign, on a vehicle in front of me, his license plate tag was from Leesburg, FL ... where my mom lives. Followed him into nearby lot, got out and chatted with him (of course) and found out he lives in The Villages for six-months and Speculator for six-months. Didn't know Derck Frechette.

After saying good-bye to him, off to Indian Lake and the Lone Birch Motel. One of biggest reasons for taking a fall vacation is to get up to the Adirondack's to see the spectacular views afforded. Little early for the fall foliage but some of the leaves have changed colors. Got my room key from Becky, kicked back and waited for Brad & Jan Burdick to arrive. They were there for the annual Antique Show and staying at the Lone Birch Motel as well. Jan an A-A classmate! Dinner that nite together at the famed Bear Trap Inn as Swift's and the Adirondack Inn both closed. Crazy. Catching up on a variety of subjects. Place was crowded and food was good. Stopped in here one other time on one of our "regular" ADK visits in July.

Thursday morning the three of us met for breakfast at Chrissy's Café just south of the Bear Trap and then we embarked on the Antique Show that stretched all along main street in the quaint village. Brad was attempting to wheel and deal, at times, as I observed and chatted with Jan. Quite the collection. Saw a sign at one spot ... Yankee Stadium, with an arrow pointing to the right. Thought that would be "sharp" to have. Yep, $500 sharp! Asked vendor "where that was specifically from?" He said ... "I have no idea." Lots of help there. Soon it was time to depart as I hadn't checked out of the LBM yet, say my good-byes to Becky for now, stop in at the Pine Tree General Store in town to get a present for Herbst and head to Webster. One stop in Inlet for fudge with Mary's Shop closed and lunch at Tamarack's.

Another solid trip in the books and even a few days left to run errands galore before heading back to work! Off to Buffalo on Saturday past to see the Alfred Saxons in action versus the Bengals in Division III football. Tagging along with noted area photographer, Leo Nealon.

HITS AND MISSES:

Did indeed head to Buffalo State with AU photographer, Leo Nealon on Saturday past and had a great time at windy Coyer Field. Happened to hook-up with some Alfred University alumni to sit with including former QB's, Paul McDonnell and Jimmy Carman. Also, from the AU basketball squad back in the day, Mike "Harold" Casseri. Others there that I didn't know previously and all a good bunch. They on a golfing-AU football-Bills football weekend. Had a chance to chat with former Hornell Red Raiders head football coach, Gene Mastin plus Paul Vecchio, the AD at Alfred. "The Janitor" was in attendance, as was Kay Chapman, Frank Snyder and a solid AU contingent. MIA ... "Larvell" Moses and "The Traveling Sports Fan!" Oh yes, Alfred prevailed in their E8 opener, 29-21 over the Bengals! Was at this same stadium 2-3 times when Lauren was playing soccer at Geneseo and the wind was just as "nuts" in all those games. The field perhaps not situated too well. The Saxons spoiled the Buffalo State Homecoming Weekend, on the gridiron anyhow.

In other Division III football action of note it was: Ithaca just drubbing Hartwick by a 42-7 mark, SJ Fisher cruising by Brockport in the Courage Bowl, 36-20 while Salisbury was "off" over the weekend. The Sea Gulls take on Buffalo State this week. The Bombers head to Alfred in a key E8 contest for both. Have to figure that SJ Fisher is going to be right there at the top of the conference, with Salisbury probably next in line and that leaves Ithaca/Alfred in the third slot ... potentially. The Courage Bowl had a record crowd of 9,320 at Brockport.

Turning to big-time college football, going with a top four this week of: Oregon, Oklahoma, Auburn and Alabama. Texas A&M and Florida State next in line. And are things just a little "out of whack" with the Seminoles at FSU? Suspended knucklehead QB, Jameis Winston is roaming the sidelines in the Clemson game in uniform?

Speaking of QB's ... the Buffalo Bills need one! Or maybe a better game plan? San Diego is a better team than the Bills but was pretty sad to watch on the tube Sunday from Ralph Wilson Stadium.

Who is more "clueless" ... the Baltimore Ravens or Lord Goodell or maybe even Ray Lewis, formerly of the Ravens? Can anyone get the Ray Rice story correct? And Lewis, once under investigation for murder, basically says ... "some things you have to hide." That is from experience!

In soccer action, Coach Anne Gaisser Holmok's (A-A) women's team at Alfred State College is now (5-2-1) on the season after a 1-1 tie with Fairmont State last week. The Pioneers next play Bryant & Stratton at home before heading out to tangle with PS-Beaver and PS-Greater Allegheny.

The Alfred-Almond boys soccer team gathered in a big win last week as they topped Jasper-Troupsburg, 1-0 to remain undefeated (8-0-1) on the season. Coach Burt Turner's program tied Bath-Haverling earlier in the year.

The Andover boys soccer team is having quite the season as well as the Panthers are (7-0-0) as of last week and Coach Sean Reilly's squad has four shutouts in their seven wins.

Stephen Baker and his Harrington (Philly) JV boys soccer team upset the #1 squad in the league last week, 1-0. Baker, a recent grad from UPenn, also got some great news last week with a job!

Coach Wiley's SUNY Geneseo women's soccer team (6-1-1) had a trying week as they tied RIT, 2-2 and fell to St. Lawrence, 1-0. The Knights host Fredonia and Buffalo State this week as SUNYAC action starts.

A batch of vanity plates spotted in my recent travels: Ohio ... ADK NYSE, SHIIFFT, UF GATORS and MOUSE 48, New York ... 7TH LAKE in Inlet, CPRSTWN in Cooperstown, GOC-BILLS, CLBROWNS, H3DG3HOG, POPEYE 1, WHOA BOY AND 1SHARK. Vermont ... BLCK-OUT and with a Rhode Island plate it was ARTS 2 ... Art Gaisser! Also, spotted on I-88, a Porsche with Hawaii plates.

A-A grads Our Man Frank, Jake Taft and The Scum took in the finale game for Derek Jeter at Tropicana Field last week as the Yanks topped Tampa Bay in AL East play.

Clayton Kershaw of the LA Dodgers ... Cy Young Award winner and the NL MVP?

Watched Masahiro Tanaka pitch for the Yanks on Sunday versus Toronto and have to believe if he was healthy all year, NYY grabs a play-off wild card spot. Even with their anemic hitting! Tanaka was well on his way to Rookie of Year honors and perhaps the AL Cy Young Award as well.

Former Webster Schroeder/UVM soccer player, Jess Herbst celebrated her birthday over the weekend by running in the Rochester Marathon, her first. Herbst wanted to get under 4:30 for the run and she accomplished that at 4:26. Another ex-WS athlete, Megan Rieger was fifth in the women's race with a gaudy 3:15 mark!

Savo's buddy, Joost Luiten won the Wales Open (-14) on the European Tour of golf over the weekend past.

The Ryder Cup is this weekend and can't see Team USA pulling this one out. Europe, 16-12.

All the best to Don Higgins (A-A '70) as he continues to recover from a motorcycle accident.

A potentially busy weekend on tap, as might head to Geneseo on Friday to watch the women's soccer game. Then Saturday to Alfred to see the Ithaca football game and Sunday in front of the tube for Ryder Cup golf action.
