NYS Withholding Tax Table Changes

New York State did NOT make changes to the withholding tax table for employees earning less than $200,000.

NYS did revise the withholding tax computation rules for employees earning over $200,000 per year. The new tables are effective with the May 15 payroll. Affected employees who need to adjust their withholding tax should complete form IT-2104 (Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate) in the Payroll Office in Greene Hall.

More information can be viewed at www.nystax.gov

Confluence-Traditional/contemporary on flute, piano, foot percussion

Concert, Thursday, May 14 at 7 p.m.

Nancy Howe Auditorium at the David A. Howe Public Library in Wellsville

Join us for an exciting concert as the duo play flute, piano, and foot percussion in a variety of traditional and contemporary pieces. Tonight's music will focus on music from Quebec, New England, Ireland, including original selections.

The duo will include generous touches of Latin jazz, groove, swing, blues, and classical music, underscoring both the versatility of the musicians and the interconnection of seemingly separate genres. You will love their hot reels and sweepingly beautiful waltzes!

This library-sponsored concert is free and open to everyone.

Family Concert: Sing a Story-Read a Song with Nan Hoffman

Saturday, May 16 at 10:30 a.m.

Nancy Howe Auditorium at the David A. Howe Public Library in Wellsville

Nan Hoffman treats us to a concert for all ages to celebrate our creativity and the warm spring world. Music, particularly folk music, can give us clues to our past, nature and the environment, and the many ways people live, work and play. Be ready to stimulate your imagination and participate in this family concert.

This library-sponsored concert is free and open to everyone.
