We, the Upperclassmen, dedicate this handbook to you, the Frosh. We hereby welcome you to Alfred and hope that soon you will feel as much a part of it as we do. At first, the new "college" way of life will seem strange to many of you. Therefore, in this little book, we have presented what might be considered the introduction to Alfred life. After a short time, with increased participation in the various campus activities, the strangeness will pass and you will become one of us.

Throughout this book, there are many things you will need to know in becoming a part of Alfred. There are rules and regulations which you will do well to get familiar with as well as much other information to help in your new campus relationships.

You will have cause to refer to this handbook often while becoming acquainted with Alfred, but if you feel that there are still things you do not understand do not hesitate to ask about them. .

College, as you know, is the place to gain knowledge, and it is the purpose of the university to see that you do so. However, we also consider college as a place which will round out your personality, where you will become a more integrated, thinking individual.

Alfred is here to help you become this sort of person, but you must realize that the final responsibility rests with you. This is your challenge, Freshman Class. Go to it, and make us proud of you.

WELCOME

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

To the Class of 1953:

It is a pleasure for me to extend official and personal greetings to you as you become students in Alfred University. You have been selected for admission because we believe that you possess the qualities of character and scholarship which will enable you to succeed with a college course.

College years are vitally important years in your life experience. They are years of growth and of enlarging horizons. Undoubtedly the years which you will spend at Alfred will be among the most important of your lives.

Alfred's main objective is to promote the full development of its students as individuals and to prepare them to become intelligent, well-adjusted and responsible members of our present day democratic society. In the accomplishment of this objective, the work of classroom and laboratory, participation in extra-curricular activities, and contacts with faculty and fellow students are all important elements.

You will find that the Alfred faculty will be sincerely interested in your progress and that they will do everything possible in helping you to get the most out of your college course. In the final analysis, however, what you get out of college is largely up to you.

I know that you are coming to Alfred with high hopes. You may be sure that we will do everything within our power to assist you in the realization of these hopes.

M. ELLIS DRAKE
President

WHAT TO BRING

The worry caused to the in-coming freshman concerning the "enormous" problem of "what'll I take to college" is one known to us, the freshmen of a few years ago. Therefore, we have decided to present this section as a possible means of remedying this situation.

The university dormitories, the Brick and Bartlett, provide their residents with the necessary furniture, lamps and bedding. Freshmen may wish to bring their own rugs and lamps. The Bartlett does not have laundry facilities but the Brick has a laundry equipped with an automatic washer, irons and ironing boards.

Students in Ag-Tech are provided with the necessary furniture but must bring their own bedding. Otherwise, our recommendations are the same as for the university dorms.

The matter of the proper clothing to bring is an individual problem but the following generalizations can be made. Alfred has a rather long, cold winter season, so warm clothes are recommended. Throughout the year, the various organizations, classes and houses sponsor dances, formal and informal, teas and parties. Picnics and seasonal sports such as tennis, skiing and skating, help fill our social activities.

We realize that none of these suggestions are very specific but this was done purposely to provide elasticity to them. We hope that they are of some help to you in your preparations for Alfred.

TRADITIONS

FALL FESTIVAL

One of the main social events of Ag-Tech is the Fall Festival, sponsored by the Student Council. Events for the Festival include a special assembly program; an open house of the various girls houses and fraternities; a tea dance; luncheons and exhibits of work done in various departments. The program is concluded with the Harvest Ball.

The object of the festival is an interpretation of the school to parents, prospective employers and future students. Each student enrolled in Ag-Tech is expected to take an active part in the week end festivities.

THE BELLS

Whenever an Alfredian thinks of his campus one of his first recollections is of the carillon, for it is impossible to think of Alfred and not think of the bells. The carillon, the only old world one in this country, was brought to Alfred from Belgium in June 1937, and at the present time is composed of thirty-five bells. Nine Hemony bells will be added as soon as they can be shipped from Europe, where they were buried for safekeeping during the war. The derrick-like structure that houses the bells is soon to be replaced by a tower of native fieldstone. Carillonneur Dr. Ray W. Wingate gives Friday and Sunday afternoon concerts.

ARTS FESTIVAL

All schools of the University cooperate to present an Arts Festival each Spring. The Festival is relatively new to Alfred's campus with the fourth event of its kind being planned for this year. A new arrangement of scheduling was tried this last year with the Festival going on continuously from May 19 when the Footlight Club presented the "Caucasian Chalk Circle" through to Commencement.

THE HELLO COMMUNITY

Alfred prides itself on its friendly spirit. It has long been a custom to say hello to everyone, students or townspeople, whether or not you actually know them. This tradition adds a great deal towards increased friendliness among students and also between students and townspeople.

One of the first things that impress newcomers to Alfred is the fact that all stores, including the Post Office and the Bank, are closed on Saturdays and open on Sundays. This causes a few mistakes during the students' first week or two here, but one becomes easily familiar with the set-up and after a while shopping on Sunday instead of on Saturday turns into a regular habit. Another interesting point about Alfred is the close relationship between the college and the townspeople. The University is the center of village life, and the townspeople here are very friendly towards the students.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming is the first big social event of the year. This is the time when all the grads return for a "big week-end" which includes an alumni banquet, a football game, and maybe a dance. The campus is flooded with strange beaming faces, and everywhere you look people are shaking hands and saying "Remember the time when?" Their excitement is contagious and soon the whole campus is buzzing. All the fraternities and sororities hold open houses, and the big event, which is, of course, the football game, will be with Buffalo University this year. Needless to say, a good time will be had by all.

MOVING-UP DAY

Moving-Up Day comes in May, just three weeks before finals. The day marks the "moving up" of one class to the next—the frosh become sophs; the sophs, juniors; and the juniors, seniors; and the entire campus honors the outgoing senior class. In the morning, there is a general clean-up, when the entire student body cooperates to improve the appearance of the campus.

At a special assembly, the seniors appear in cap and gown, tapping of new members is done by honorary fraternities, and the new campus officers are introduced. Immediately after assembly a step-singing contest is held on the steps of Kenyon Hall, and most of the residence units on campus participate. A cup is awarded to the group that the judges select as the winners. Later in the afternoon a pushball contest takes place between the Frosh and Soph men, and a softball game is played between the Frosh and Soph women.

PAINTING THE BARN

Very early in the school year, freshman men try to paint their class numerals on the barn on the hill opposite Bartlett Dormitory. Sophomores, however, do not sit idly by, but try to prevent their year being painted out and new numerals put on. If the sophomores succeed, the freshmen try again until they succeed. Very often, the incoming class finds it rather difficult to accomplish what it sets out to do.

ST. PAT'S DAY

Every year for 16 years the campus has celebrated the birthday of St. Pat, the patron saint of ceramic engineers, with the St. Pat's Festival weekend. The Festival starts with a parade of floats entered by various campus organizations followed by two busy days of tea dances, exhibits and the Ceramic open-house with its featured glass-blowing demonstration. Every year, a ceramic senior is elected to act as St. Pat for the week-end and lead the festivities. The high moment of the weekend is the coronation of the Queen of the Festival by St. Pat himself, at the St. Pat's Ball. The queen is chosen by all-campus election from a group of elected senior girls.

WINTER CARNIVAL

The second Annual Winter Carnival, sponsored by the Alfred Outing Club, was held this year in spite of an unkind weatherman. The scheduled snow sculpture contest and skiing competitions had to be cancelled because of lack of sufficient snow. However, movies, the barbeque and skating contests were run off on schedule and the trophy winners were rewarded by the Queen at the Sno-Ball. The Queen was selected this year from a group of five girls by Al Sisson, Rochester radio commentator.

OTHER DANCES

The Interfraternity and Intersorority Councils sponsor formal dances during the college year. The Interfraternity Ball is held during the fall, and the Intersorority Ball, after rushing, in the spring.

The various social fraternities, sororities, clubs and classes plan closed and all-campus parties throughout the year.

SONGS and YELLS

COLLEGE SONGS

ALMA MATER

Nestled away 'mid the Empire State hills,
'Neath the watch-care of sentinel pines,
Where the murmuring song of the brook hums along,
And a favoring sun ever shines;
In a valley so fair where the forest trees share
Dominion o'er hillside and glen,
Stands the pioneer college of Western New York—
Alfred, the mother of men.

— Chorus —

Hail to thee Alfred, thou guide of our youth,
Sweet, benign mother, all hail!
Sing out thy anthems of duty and truth;
May thy clear ringing music ne'er fail.

She was founded in toil, cemented with blood,
And nurtured thro' yearnings and tears,
Her treasure the hearts of brave heroes who stood
Undaunted throughout trying years:
Each stone was a prayer and her battlements there
Have mem'ries of purposes strong,
Staunch daughters and sons are her monuments fair,
And they lift up the grateful song.

— Chorus —

Others may boast of prestige and size,
Of numbers and treasure and fame
But Alfred's pride lies in manhood's clear eyes,
And womanhood's high stainless name.
O Alfred, dear Alfred, thy fame will abide
With Kenyon and Allen and Main,

With Davis and Titsworth, now Norwood and Walters, today,
Her honor and power maintain.

— Chorus —

OUR COLLEGE A. U.

Alfred's our college, hail Old A. U.
For the Varsity team give a cheer,
Each manly player so sturdy and true,
Fights on the team without fear.
Encourage each fellow to play a swift game,
And follow the ball best he can;
And when the foes of old Alfred draw nigh,
To fight for her prestige and fame.

— Chorus —

Come give a cheer for your College,
Root for old Alfred A. U.
Cheer her when she is victorious,
Ever be loyal and true.
Purple and Gold are her colors,
Loyal in spirit A. U.
Urge her men on to the victory,
To the praise and the fame of A. U.

Aye and forever, be loyal to her
With the Varsity spirit let's sing.
Strong on the line up, and swift in the backs,
Shout 'till the loud echoes ring—
With spirit and vigor for Alfred we'll cheer.
Your whole heart put into the game,
And when the foes of Old Alfred draw nigh
We'll fight for her prestige and fame.

— Chorus —

SONG OF THE BELL

By the roaring, roaring banks
Of the old Kanakadea,

 Oft I've lingered in the springtime long ago;
While the waters rushed along,
And the hills took up the song;
 And a gentle voice was calling sweet and low.

— Chorus —

O, I hear the echoes ringing from the belfry on the hill,
 And the song inspires my heart to do and dare;
 Calling me to love and duty, calling me to faith and prayer,
For the bell is ringing, ringing, ringing still.

When the autumn days were on,
And a brilliant crimson show
 Where the Alfred hill-side glory met the sky,
Voices whispered in the breeze
While I sat beneath the trees,
 And communed with master minds of days gone by.

— Chorus —

O, the days of frost and snow;
O, the coasters' ruddy glow;
 O, the evening's long delight with comrades dear,
When we talked on mighty themes,
Or indulged in happy dreams
 Of our victories in the future hov'ring near.

— Chorus —

Now my hair is turning gray,
For those days have passed away

Seems to bring old Alfred near,
 But their mem'ry lingers sweet and sweeter yet;
And my fireside's evening cheer
 And the faces which my heart can ne'er forget.

— Chorus —

ALFRED EVENING SONG

Softly the dusk is falling,
Slowly the sunset dies;
Tender the benediction,
Hymned in the fading skies.
Then, shaken by the magic of
Moonlight-misted trees,
And quickened by the kisses
Dropped by a dreaming breeze,
Deep in us stirs a spirit,
Calling a kindred throng
To wake, arise, assemble,
And answer with a song.

Alfred, whose grace doth give us
Joys that we deem divine,
Set in life's shifting pageant,
Ever undimmed to shine;
The throbbing exaltation
Of homage from our peers,
The falt'ring fond responses
Breathed only for our ears;
Yes, all the jeweled fabric
We weave from flashing days
To hold for us, forever,
Thy glory and thy praise.

CHEER FOR ALFRED

We are out to cheer for Alfred,
We will help her win the day,
Make her gain athletic vict'ry,
By our shouts of ray! ray! ray!
Alfred, O!
Purple and the gold triumphant,
Waving 'neath a smiling sky,
Make us say we'll fight for Alfred
"Till the years have all rolled by.

ON SAXON WARRIORS

On Saxon warriors,
The Purple and the Gold defend;
On Saxon warriors,
Ever on like men.
Crash thru the opponent's line
And victory will come our way
Fight, fight for Alfred.
And she will win the day.

OH, HERE WE ARE

Oh, here we are! Oh, here we are!
You see us marching down the street,
You hear our cry: "To do or die,
We have the team that can't be beat.
We have!" (shouted)
So give a cheer, a lusty cheer,
And let the echoes carry true,
With a tramp, tramp, tramp,
And a stamp, stamp, stamp,
For the team of old A. U.

RAY RAY SONG

Way up in Allegany
'Neath the shade of sheltering pines,
There stands a little college
That's for training noble minds,
And when they get together
On the gridiron, field or track,
You hear the students give their yell
And bring the victory back.

— Chorus —

Oh! Ray! Ray! Ray! Ray! Ray!
Hear the students yell,
Ray! Ray! Ray! Ray! Ray!
Notes of victory tell.
Oh! Ray! Ray! Ray! Ray! Ray!
Better move along
When you hear the students
Sing their Ray! Ray! song.

Oh here's the little college
That will help you do your best.
Her girls are true, her men are strong,
They always stand the test,
And when they get together
On the gridiron, field or track,
They put their shoulders to the wheel,
And bring the victory back.

— Chorus —

Each sorority, fraternity, and residence unit, shall upon proper application to the Senate showing sufficient cause, be granted a charter for the year, allowing one representative for each unit having 30 to 45 members, two representatives for each unit having 46 to 75 members and three representatives for each unit having more than 75 members. All chartered groups shall have at least one representative regardless of numbers and shall in no case have more than three representatives. All members of the Senate shall be eligible for reelection.

- D. No person elected president or vice-president in the general election shall lose his office by the above provision.
- E. Any unit which fails to be fully represented in a Senate meeting by either its representative or a duly elected alternate for that representative, shall be warned of its negligence. In the event of a second offense, that unit shall lose its rights of representation in the Senate for the remainder of the current semester, subject to review by a Board of Review composed of Senate members.

Sec. 3. Each class president shall become a member of the Senate at the time of his election.

Sec. 4. Any senator other than the president and the vice-president of the Senate may be impeached and removed from office by a three-fourths vote of the Senate for failure to carry out his or her duties in an unbiased, trustworthy, and efficient manner.

2. Students are, in general, allowed to exercise a personal discretion in regulating their attendance at classes. This discretion involves a consideration on the part of the student of the effect of his absence from the classroom not only upon his own work but also upon the group as a whole. Furthermore, whenever a student cuts a class he should realize that the instructor shall not be expected to aid the student in making up the work he has thus missed.

3. Absence from University exercises two days before or after a vacation is regarded as interfering with the collective interests of the University. Unexcused absences will cause either an hour's reduction in credit or a lowering of a grade by one letter, the exact penalty to be applied at the discretion of the Absence Committee. Excuses before or after the vacations may be granted only by the personnel deans, only for urgent reasons.

4. All unexcused absences beyond the three permitted each semester in Physical Education should be made up by arrangement with the instructors. The Department of Physical Education has special regulations governing required attendance and excuses for men and women.
