

Two AU men's soccer players named regional scholar-athletes

1/10/03

ALFRED - Two members of the Alfred University men's soccer team have been named regional scholar-athlete all stars by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA). Senior defenders Pat Mancini (Endwell/Maine-Endwell), and Dale Owen (Endicott/Union Endicott), were given honorable mention to the NSCAA/adidas All-East Region Team. It marks the second straight year Mancini and Owen earned honorable mention to the All-East Region Team. Mancini, a mechanical engineering major, has a 3.38 GPA. He started all 15 games for Alfred and was named an Empire 8 Conference Second Team all-star. Owen, a marketing major, has a 3.57 GPA. He played in 13 games, starting 11, and scored three goals.
