Kent Farms will host 'Tough Mudders' July 27-28

By JACK FAILLA

Special to the Alfred Sun

ANDOVER — Whether you're an Allegany county native, a transplant or a passing college student, chances are you have heard of Kent Farms.

Maybe you have even had the pleasure of meeting the owners. I had the honor of being introduced to Tom Kent (owner of Kent Farms) back in 2009. Shortly after that I met his lovely wife Kate and his two sons Ed and Joe. I had just moved to the area from Sullivan County in Eastern New York and didn't know a lot of people, but Tom and Kate took me in as one of their own.

They never missed an opportunity to introduce me to anyone and everyone they knew. I felt bad calling them by their first name because they were my elders and I had a great deal of respect for them. But Tom wouldn't hear of me calling him Mr. Kent. Tom would say to me from under his Winnfield mustache, "Now Jackson, Mr. Kent was my father's name," so I decided to call them Uncle Tom and Aunt Kate instead. I've been doing that ever since.

I could never express my gratitude for their generosity in making an outsider like me feel like he belonged; I truly think of them as my family. So when the Alfred Sun asked me to do a story on their upcoming exploits I jumped at the chance.

To give you a little background, Tom and his oldest son Ed are both Cornell University graduates where they studied agricultural science. Joe holds a degree in diesel mechanics from Alfred State.

Tom and Kate met on the farm where Kate was working as a farm hand. I'm sure Tom would have you believe that he swooped Kate off her feet in his 1970 Chevelle, and made her his wife. But if you ask Kate she would say "I fell in love with the farm first; Tom was just an added bonus."

Truth is no matter how you slice it they are two peas in a pod. Ed and Joe both work the farm with their mother and father as the fourth generation of farmers. Currently Ed heads up the farming end of things; the farm has over 150 head of beef cattle, corn, potatoes, soy, hay, pumpkins and nursery stock.

Now, in the early fall you may notice a steady flow of traffic headed up Jones Road off of County Rt. 12. For years many families have carried out their fall traditions at the Kent Farms, visiting their pumpkin patch. During the month of October you can go up to the Farm and pick your very own pumpkin right out of the field; there's no need to walk because they have two tractors running hay rides out to the pumpkin patch and to their signature corn maze.

If you have ever gone on the Kent Farms was featured in an episode of Fishers ATV World on the Outdoor Channel, which caught the attention of producers of the internationally growing "Tough Mudders" event.

hay ride then you were sure to meet the craziest Kent of all, Barkly Kent. Barkly is a strange one for sure; he likes to chase the wagon out into the field and eat pumpkins. He once chewed a regulation bowling ball in half... but don't judge him too harshly; we have come to expect this type of behavior from Barkly, a Chocolate Lab who loves people and loves being out and about on the farm—and who just may lick you to death.

The Christmas season is another time of year where you are sure to see a line of traffic on this quiet little back country road. Whether you want to select a Christmas tree that is precut in the front parking lot or would rather take the kids into the woods and cut it down yourself, you will find what you need at Kent Farms.

Want to give your grandmother in California a taste of the East Coast? Not a problem; there is a team of people who hand make live wreaths right in front of you, embellished with a buffet of ornaments from which to choose. They will even package and send the wreaths for you.

But it's not the pumpkins nor the Christmas trees that have put Kent Farms on the international map of late. Something that may be a little more evident are the many convoys of cars, trucks, trailers, vans, RV's and in few rare occasions, buses, that have been spotted making their way to this little slice of Allegany county from all over the east coast. It's all thanks to the brain child of Joe Kent, founder of Tall Pines ATV park which sits right on the Kent farm property.

Not many people may know this, but the second largest ATV park in the State of New York is just 6.7 miles from downtown

Alfred. And opening in 2009, it has been getting bigger and bigger. With over 60 miles of riding trails it's no wonder that this ATV mecca of the Southern Tier has caught the attention of Network television.

In 2011, Tall Pines was featured on the Outdoor Channel. And, the producers of "Tough Mudders" happened to see the episode of "Fishers ATV World" featuring Tall Pines ATV Park and decided to set up a meeting with Joe Kent about potentially holding an event at the ride park.

A few phone calls and a contract later it was announced that Tough Mudders is going to come to Kent Farms/Tall Pines ATV Park for an event on July 27-28, 2013 (see ToughMudders.com)

"Tough Mudder" events are hardcore 10-12 mile obstacle courses designed by British Special Forces to test your all around strength, stamina, mental grit, and camaraderie.

With the most innovative courses, half a million inspiring participants, and more than $3 million raised for the Wounded Warrior Project, Tough Mudder is the premier adventure challenge series in the world."

If you look up the Wikipedia definition you will find "Tough Mudders" is a series of obstacle course competitions that bill themselves as "the toughest one day event on the planet."

Kent farms has a long history of off-roading. Three generations of Kents: from left, Edward Kent, Donald Kent, Thomas Kent, and Kathy Kent. Circa 1970 ish.

Awaiting the start of the ribbon-cutting /dedication ceremony, Trudi Schwert stands on the newly completed Adapted Playground at Canal View Elementary School in Spencerport. Next to her are three brightly colored rubber mushrooms, a memorial to her daughter Kelli Schwert who had been an occupational therapist at the school before her death in January, 2010. Three Schwerts - Trudi, husband Dave and son Daniel - were part of the large crew of volunteers who spent a very hot August Saturday unwrapping, assembling and installing the units that form Phase I of this "inclusive space for all children to learn, play, and improve their overall health together."

Kelli would agree that 'Everyone deserves an opportunity to PLAY'

It was soon obvious that Kelli's addition to this special play area would appeal to children of all ages. The Schwert family is very grateful to Kelli's friends and colleagues and the Canal View staff who created this memorial to her and to Marcey Bears of Bears Playgrounds (Lima, NY) for the acquisition of the rubber mushroom hoppers.

Amandine Club to meet Feb. 7

ALFRED--The February Amandine Club meeting will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 7 at the Alfred Seventh Day Baptist Parish House. The program will be given by Martha "Matt" Mueller. She will present a talk entitled: "Trip to Antarctica."

The Thought for the Day will be given by Linda Butts, and the hostesses for the afternoon will be Laurie McFadden and Linda Butts.

The Club welcomes Alfred area ladies to be guests of the Amandine Club, and would gladly welcome new members. The Amandine Club was started as a Reading Club by Amanda Burdick (Mrs. W.C.) in 1893 and officially organized in February 1894. It is probably one of the longest continuing community groups in New York State. Please join us!

Empire State College info session

ALFRED--The Alfred Unit of SUNY Empire State College will hold a free Information Session on Saturday, January 26, from 11 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. at the Unit Office. For directions to the Alfred Unit office, and to make a reservation for the Information Session, call Unit Secretary, Susan Havlovic, at 607-587-4140.

Empire State College is a part of the State University of New York system and offers a flexible, individualized learning environment ideally suited to the lives of busy adults.

DOZENS OF delectable homemade baked goods are available at Hedgerow Farm Bakery.

Homemade baked goods, local food featured at Hedgerow Farm Bakery

By HEATHER HALLBERG
YANDA

Special to the Alfred Sun

ALFRED--While Alfred was busy with its Christmas plans, a new bakery opened below the Kampus Kave and College Suppliers on Main Street.

If you stand in the cross walk looking west toward The Kampus Kave, the sign in the window below is the first thing to catch your eye: Hedgerow Farm Bakery. Come down the steps, below street level, and walk into what feels like a European cafe, as tiny and secluded, as creative and as necessary to experience as the village of Alfred itself.

The bakery, owned and operated by the Eisenhardts of Alfred Station, offers freshly baked breads and sweets and a small selection of breakfasts and lunches.

The day starts early for Peg and crew--3 a.m. to be exact--so the freshest baked goods can be delivered to the store for the 7 a.m. opening.

The bakery specializes in homemade foods, including several types of breads and the soups, whose broths are made from scratch, and sweets and breakfast items.

Embracing local foods--that is what is written on the sign at the top of the stairs--is a passion for the bakery. Peg, who is a native of the Alfred area and a small farmer at heart, believes the best foods come from local sources. This was a driving force in the design of the business and is a key component to its success so far.

While not much is available in local foods now, more items will be available as the seasons change. Currently the shop uses meats from Locust Brea Farm in Alfred, Sugar Haven Farm in Rexville, Stearns Poultry in Alfred Station, and the Eisenhardt's own pastured turkeys and pork, to create wonderful soups and sandwiches. Living Acres Farm is another local farm that will provide foods for the menu including fresh vegetables and herbs.

So what does local mean? On the big wall beside the tables, there is a map of the area, pinpointing the farms where the consumer could go to buy directly from the farm. The bakery hopes that this will bring attention to the local food movement. If you know of someone who would like to be listed on the map, just give Peg a call.

The shop offers Organic Gimme! Coffee from Ithaca Roasters. The fair trade coffee is ground freshly and brewed waiting for you. Also available is homemade chai and hot and cold teas.

Peg has created a beautifully lighted space with two tables, large enough to sit four people each, and space for shoppers to check out the gallery of goodies in the refrigerated cases, and the small selection of locally made crafts and art pieces offered for sale. All of the proceeds go directly to the artisan.

Hedgerow Farm Bakery is open Tuesday-Friday, from 7 a.m.-5 p.m. and Saturdays from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. The shop is closed on Sunday and Monday. Like the Hedgerow Farm Bakery on Facebook to receive updates about daily lunch items and special treats. You can reach the bakery at 607-587-9383.

Visit. Try the lentil soup with a chunk of bread. Have a cup of coffee. Sit back and stay a while.

An unusual pie recipe, if it's really pie

Looking for unusual pie recipes, I came across this one in a book titled Simply Sensational. I'm not sure it really qualifies as a pie.

Peaches and Cream Pie

Crust:

¾ c. flour	3 T. margarine, softened
1 tsp. baking powder	1 egg
½ tsp. salt	½ c. milk
1 (3oz.) package vanilla pudding mix (not instant)

Combine all ingredients and beat with mixer 2 minutes. Pour into greased 9 inch pie plate. Set aside.

Filling:

1 (29oz.) can peaches, sliced, drained, reserve juice	½ c. sugar
1 (8oz.) pkg. cream cheese, softened	3 T. peach juice

Place peaches over crust. Combine remaining filling ingredients and spoon over top of fruit to within one inch of edge of dish.

Topping:

1 T sugar	½ tsp. cinnamon
-----------	-----------------

Mix topping ingredients together and sprinkle over pie. Bake 35-40 minutes at 350 degrees. Refrigerate and serve cold. Must be prepared several hours ahead. Serves 8.

Winter Soup Lunch to be held Jan. 27

ALFRED STATION--The annual Winter Soup Lunch at the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 27. Come and bring your friends, your neighbors and your family.

What awaits you? All you can eat soup and a piece of pie. As the lunch begins there will be at least 12 varieties of soup from which to choose. Remember what you also get with the soup is rolls, a piece of pie, and of course something to drink, like coffee or tea.

There is no set charge. We ask and gratefully accept a donation that will assist the Alfred Station S.D.B. Church serve our community.

Andover Historical Society to meet Jan. 30

ANDOVER--The Andover Historical Society will hold its Annual Meeting at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 30 in the Community Center on East Greenwood Street. The agenda will include election of officers and board members and then a vote on revisions to the Society's By-laws. There also will be a discussion about how to promote Andover's architectural history, whether it be another house and building tour or a walking tour publication similar to what Alfred and Hornell published a few years ago. The Society chose not to have a Holiday event in December with the idea we do something in February. So, this will be discussed as well.

After the business meeting, there will be an informal discussion among the members who would like to reminisce about their favorite businesses, their school days and possibly their early family life in Andover. Visitors are always welcome and refreshments will be served.

ALFRED... ... in years gone by

By HAROLD C. SNYDER
Alfred Sun Columnist, Lifelong Alfredian

HORSE POWER

Back in the '30s and '40s, horses still played a minor role in and around the Village of Alfred.

Horses could be seen transporting produce, firewood, manure for gardens, collecting garbage, plowing gardens and getting people places by buggy or horseback. Many homes had a barn of some sort to keep a horse along with chickens or a cow.

Dr. Paul Saunders of the Alfred University Chemistry Department comes to mind. In addition to teaching chemistry, he recorded Alfred's weather and conducted public liquid-air demonstrations. He kept a milking cow and a flock of chickens to help feed his large family and "keep the wolf from the door" well into the '40s.

Earl Myers (dairy professor at Alfred Ag & Tech) could be seen out riding horseback from time to time.

Reed Champlin from the Belmont Hill would bring manure into the village for a few gardens and firewood to other homes. Burdette Burdick used horse and wagon to collect garbage every week.

Work teams from outside the village would occasionally pass through the streets, getting to thrashing or wood cutting bees, etc.

I remember one day back in the '30s when my brother Ken and I ran from South Hall after school to get candy and check the upcoming movie flyers posted on each end of the Main Street business block. Movies were shown Wednesday nights and then on Friday and Saturday, double features were shown. Prices were 14 cents for kids and 25 cents for adults. This included all the extras like Disney cartoons, Movietone News, coming previews and maybe a Leon Arrow or Joe McDoe short for a good laugh.

Well, before Ken and I could study the movie posters, a clatter of steel shoes and harness chains from near the Sun Office drew our attention. Uncle Dick Pierce's horses were running away from Clarence Jacox's farm on Jericho Hill. As we stared in amazement, they cut the turn by the Box of Books and roared up West University Street to their home on Moland Road (the old Bond farm now owned by Suzanne Wood).

Before we could collect our thoughts, Uncle Dick came running along and asked if they turned the corner towards home. Hearing "yes" he continued on foot.

Ken and I forgot about the candy and upcoming movies and hurried home to supper and chores. We could hardly wait to tell Mom and Dad about that fantastic experience.

DiPietro 'protecting our citizens and their rights'

A Legislative Column by
Assemblyman David DiPietro
(R,C -East Aurora)

I am a staunch defender of the Second Amendment of our United States Constitution and will make protecting the citizens of the 147th Assembly District a priority. I'm a member of the NRA; I've had articles published in the Shooter's Committee on Political Education (SCOPE), and I'm a member of the Safari Club. I've aligned myself with organizations that will not allow the rights of New Yorkers to be infringed. This is something I take great pride in, and while I will listen to proposals brought to the Assembly floor, rest assured I will be a consistent voter for liberty and personal responsibility. This is why I voted 'no' on the gun control legislation presented during the opening days of session.

Personal responsibility is not only a core tenet of my own ideology but also a major pillar of the Republican Party. We cannot continue to cede responsibility to the government for the promise of safety. We must continue to safeguard our rights with the vigilance a free nation requires. To increase the role of government is to limit the freedom we enjoy every single day as Americans.

The Second Amendment exists to defend the rest of the Bill of Rights and our cherished Constitution. When you disarm law-abiding citizens, firearms only remain in the hands of criminals. We have seen how strict gun regulation has failed the people of Chicago. Through December 9, 2012, there were 487 murders in the city of Chicago. Virtually all of them were committed with guns.

In his recent State of the State address, Governor Cuomo discussed some of the most anti-Second Amendment proposals in the nation. The governor has used the emotions following the Sandy Hook and Webster tragedies to eat away at a fundamental right. I don't believe in capitalizing on a tragedy, and I surely don't believe in stripping the rights of all honest citizens based on the actions of a few evil men.

During my time in Albany, I want to assure everyone in the 147th District and the rest of New York that I will not vote to limit or restrict your Second Amendment rights. Part of the oath of office I took was to uphold the Constitution of the United States, and I believe that in order to fulfill that role I will vote to uphold the Second Amendment.

FROM THE DESK OF DAVID PULLEN
By DAVID PULLEN
Allegany County Legislator

THE IMPORTANCE OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT

The first regular meeting of 2013 of the Allegany County Legislature convened shortly after 2:00 pm on January 14th. Retired Army Sergeant Richard Johnson, of Wellsville, led those in attendance in the Pledge of Allegiance. He retired in 1980 after serving in both the Navy and Army. Chairman Curt Crandall presented former Election Commissioners Elaine Herdman and Catherine ("Cass") Lorow with Certificates in recognition of their many years of service to Allegany County.

Most of the resolutions approved at this session of the Board of Legislators involved routine business of the County. Michael Hennessey was re-appointed as Director of the County Veterans' Service Agency. Four members were re-appointed to the Citizens Advisory Council of the Office For the Aging. New members were appointed to the County Planning Board. Two Legislative members and one County Grange member were appointed to the County Soil and Water Conservation District Board. The Board approved Chairman Crandall's appointment of two members to the Region Nine Fish and Wildlife Management Board. We accepted an insurance payment from NYMIR of $225.00 for a broken vehicle windshield. The Board approved an Agreement with the County Association for Blind and Visually Handicapped, Inc., to provide services and training to the indigent blind in the County. We approved an Agreement with the Allegany County Agricultural Society (County Fair Board) for payment of $8,000 for County Fair programs. We also approved an agreement with the Volunteer Firemen's Association for payment of fire training schools run by that Association.

Resolutions 12-13 through 15-13 related to agreements with NYS Department of Transportation ("DOT") for operating grants for the bus system. We repealed two earlier resolutions that DOT thought might involve a possible conflict of interest. We then approved two similar resolutions approving the same grant applications from Allegany County. The ultimate goal is to seek and obtain grant funds to underwrite the operation of the public transportation system.

The final two resolutions were prompted by proposals pending before the State Legislature that could have major impact upon Allegany County and its residents. Resolution 16-13 expressed our opposition to the early voting legislation being rushed through Albany with the support of Governor Cuomo and Speaker of the Assembly Sheldon Silver. They are ignoring the high cost that legislation would impose upon rural counties, and are apparently ignoring the potential for voting fraud presented by their proposed changes. I strongly support efforts to make voting easier and more accurate. Unfortunately the proposed legislation will make voting more expensive and less reliable.

Resolution 17-13 expressed our opposition to any attempt by the State Legislature and Governor to enact legislation that "bundles issues related to gun control and proposed an amendment of the Freedom of Information Law." Unfortunately, the State Legislature and Governor went ahead and the next day adopted legislation containing such bundled provisions. The new "Gun Control Laws" contain numerous provisions involving stricter gun control. There was virtually no discussion or debate before these changes were rushed through. Many of these provisions will prove to be ill-advised and counterproductive. For example, the amendment of the Freedom of Information Law would permit publication of the names and addresses of gun owners. Several law enforcement officers observed that most criminals don't actually buy the weapons they possess and use. They steal them from citizens who legally purchased them for legitimate purposes. Publishing the names and addresses of those who legally own guns helps the criminals by telling them where they can find and steal guns.

President Ronald Reagan was a strong supporter of "federalism." He favored local government over state or federal "big" government. He supported local control that was tailored to local needs. In New York this principle goes under the name of "municipal home rule." Unfortunately, the state and federal governments continually expand their intrusion into local matters. Your County Legislature opposes that trend. Hopefully Albany and Washington will listen.

AU alum plugs Alfred with dreamed up card game

ALFRED--There's a new game and it's heading straight to Alfred.

Alfred University alum and current Alfredian, Peter McClain, has invented a card game that is so inspired by our little town that it bears the name of the town on every card.

The game is called Str8 Eight (pronounced "straight eight") and came to Peter in a dream two years ago.

"In my dream it was a board game that consisted of the numbers in a twelve-by-twelve multiplication table," says the inventor. "My biggest challenge was constructing a board that captured the game play in a simple and user-friendly manner."

After some consternation,

Peter reduced the game to a set of cards and shrunk the size of the deck to the numbers in an eight-by-eight multiplication table.

Peter tested the game out with a former AU international student, Michael Beck, who returned from Germany for reunion weekend in 2011.

"We tried all sorts of combinations of hand sizes and scoring matrices before settling on the current rules, but it was immediately apparent that the game was as fun as I'd hoped it'd be," Peter explained.

The Str8 Eight prototype was then played at family gatherings and visits with friends while considering whether to produce it commercially.

In that time, Peter's wife Janet – a native Alfredian – designed an initial logo of an S overlaid on an 8 and encouraged Peter to hire a graphic designer to reimagine the game before going to print.

A family friend, Nick Kuder – who teaches at Alfred University's School of Art and Design – improved upon the logo and card designs, and worked with the printer to get the colors right.

"Janet and I wanted to incorporate the colors of Alfred as much as possible, and I think Str8 Eight accomplishes that," he said of the purple, gold and white colored card set.

With final designs in hand and a contract signed with the printer, fellow Alfredian, Jason Tutak – who runs AlfredWebsites.com – developed the site where a piece of Alfred will be sold to the rest of the world.

On Sunday, Jan. 20 the Mc-

Clains opened their house to friends and family for a launch party celebrating the release of their game.

The Alfred Sun's editor was in attendance to learn how to play and ascertain the reaction of guests playing the new game. And, the editor won one out of the three games he played.

"This game is great fun for everyone," said current Alfred University student, Edi Udoyen. "It's very competitive and straightforward; there is hardly a dull moment while playing it."

The game is available at the Alfred Pharmacy, the Canacadea Country Store, and the Alfred State and AU Bookstores for – surprise – $8.88. You can visit www.str8-eight.com if you're interested in learning more about Str8 Eight.

Beckhorn offers workshop

OLEAN--Children's writer Susan Williams Beckhorn will conduct a workshop for those interested in writing works for children, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 2 at the Olean Public Library. A light lunch will be provided.

Her books include Moose Power: Muskeg Saves the Day; Moose Eggs or Why Moose Have Flat Antlers; The Kingfisher's Gift; Sarey By Lantern Light; and Wind Rider.

Beckhorn grew up in a home where kids, animals and the outdoors were deeply valued. She says, "I had a wonderful childhood: a dog, woods and a lake, an old row boat, butterfly nets, paints, plenty of books, and parents who read to us."

She holds a Masters degree in English Education, has worked picking apples and potatoes, written features for the second smallest daily paper in New York State, has served on the faculty of the Highlights Foundation's Chautauqua Conference, and been a college professor.

"I was a shy kid," she said, "Books were some of my best friends and many a tear dried on my cheeks when I had my nose between the pages of a good book. I just figured someday it would be my turn to tell my own stories." She loves to visit schools, libraries, and book festivals to "share her enthusiasm for her work with children."

Beckhorn tells kids that their ideas are valid, showing them the original version of The Kingfisher's Gift which was a seventh grade writing assignment. She lives with husband, Fred and many pets, in a stone house in the wilds of Rexville. She believes that each of us, no matter where we come from, has a unique story to tell.

The program is sponsored by funds from the New York State Council on the Arts and the Olean Public Library.

AU's Fosdick-Nelson Gallery to host 'Gage/Gaze' reception

ALFRED—Alfred University's Fosdick-Nelson Gallery, Harder Hall, will host the opening of an exhibition featuring the work of two glass installation artists, Æsa Björk and Hiromi Takizawa, with a reception Friday, Jan. 25 from 7 to 9 p.m. The public is invited.

Their exhibit, "Gage/Gaze," running through Feb. 23, is inspired by optical observations of inner and outer landscapes and the exploration of measuring devices.

Takizawa, born and raised in Nagano, Japan, uses self-awareness fueled by a history of dislocation as an inheritance of her immigrant status to make glass art depicting the mitigation of inner and outer self.

Using light as it is seen outside of and contained in glass Takizawa builds a dialogue characterized by juxtaposing perceptual shifts between the inner substances of her work and its outward projecting appearance. Takizawa uses the observation of this relationship to build a narrative of inner self versus and relating to outer self, a concept close to home due to her emigration from Japan years ago.

Björk, an internationally cultivated glass artist describes her work as searching for new ways to expand the technical and expressive boundaries of her medium.

She considers the duality of time as the fleeting minute instance and the loom upon which life is played out, eventually out running life itself. This relationship of the finite moment rolling itself out infinitely into a vaster agent founds ideas of liquidity and the expressions of transience within her work. Through ideas concerning attempts to measure Björk emphasizes the ephemera of life.

The Fosdick-Nelson Gallery, located in Harder Hall, at Alfred University's School of Art and Design offers an opportunity for community members within a 60 mile radius to experience the contemporary work of established and emerging artists. The gallery hosts artists based locally out of New York State, nationally and abroad. Fosdick-Nelson programming presents community members the opportunity to engage with artists, curators, and scholars.

The gallery is open Monday - Friday 11 a.m. - 4 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday 1 until 3 p.m. The Fosdick-Nelson Gallery can be contacted by phone at 607.871.2149 or go to http://fosdicknelson.alfred.edu/

In The Alfred Sun 50, 25 and 10 Years Ago

Compiled By DAVID L. SNYDER

Alfred Sun Editor and Publisher

FIFTY YEARS AGO, JANUARY 24, 1963

"Direct Distance Dialing" will be available to the village of Alfred next month, according to a recent announcement by the Allegany Telephone Company district manager Roger Tuttle. As of 2:00 a.m., February 3, Alfred residents will be able to pick up the phone and make a direct call to more than 80 million telephones across the United States and Canada. The Direct Distance Dialing changeover will not affect students living in dorms who use pay phones because operators must handle pay calls and person-to-person calls. However, students living in private houses and houses with credit phones will notice the change in calling when it comes into effect. The change in telephoning procedure comes to Alfred after almost two years of planning by the Allegany Telephone Company. A new cable is presently being put up connecting Alfred to Alfred Station at a cost of $17,000. Each telephone number will be changed to begin with the prefix 587. The existing four numerals on the phones will be retained. The telephone company will send out a round card with the new number to be inserted in each telephone.

Snow sculptures for the annual winter carnival at the Agricultural and Technical Institute here are taking shape near Tech fraternity and sorority houses. The sculptures will be judged on Saturday morning and the results announced at the Snow Ball Saturday night at the Tech Union.

Another Allegany County milk plant has fallen to the more efficient bulk milk delivery system. The Olean Times Herald reports that the Borden Food Products Company will close its Belmont plant on February 28. The closing follows the closing of the Cuba receiving station, Sept. 1, 1960. The only remaining Borden facility in the county after February 1 will be the Whitesville station.

Roger B. Van Horn, a ninth grade student at Alfred-Almond Central School, will receive Scouting's highest award at a Court of Honor, Tuesday, Jan. 29. The 15-year-old Explorer Scout will receive the Eagle Award at ceremonies scheduled for the Student Union Music Room at the Agricultural and Technical Institute. Roger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene T. Van Horn of 13 South Main Street.

Alfredians—Cardinals singing in the morning at some of the feeding stations in town are cheering notes needed to brighten our winter days. Miss Fucia Randolph was admitted to the Bethesda Hospital Sunday afternoon for a general check-up. Mr. and Mrs. Roland Norwood Jr. of Canaseraga, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dlugozima (Sally Norwood) and family of Zelienople, Pa. were called to Alfred by the death of their father, and grandfather, Roland Norwood, on January 17. Mr. and Mrs. Borden Mills, Mrs. Coburn McGraw of Alfred and Mrs. Irene Shoup of Alfred Station attended a Cub Scout "Pow-Wow" at Bath Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Belovsky spent last week in Pittsburgh, Pa., and Washington, D.C.

The Growing Alfred (Photos)—New Landmarks. As yet not quite complete, this house will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. David Trautlein and family, located on the east side of Pine Hill Drive. Located on the west side of Pine Hill Drive is the home of Mrs. Alice Sephton. Mrs. Sephton is a secretary on the University campus. Next to the Sephton residence is the house owned by A. W. Matison, which is the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neill. Mr. and Mrs. William McAlee are the owners of the home pictured above. Located on the north side of West University Street, this house was completed last year. Mr. McAlee is on the faculty at Alfred-Almond Central School and is also freshman football coach at Alfred University where he was an outstanding lineman, a few years ago.

An Almond girl has been chosen to play in the All-Eastern Division High School Band the first week in March at Atlantic City, N.J. Miss Audrey Hardy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Hardy, has been selected to play first French horn in the organization. The 17-year-old musician has performed in many local music groups as well as in the band of Alfred-Almond Central School, where she is a senior.

Alfred Station—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jacox and Carlton Brown were visitors at the home of Mrs. Glenn Cornell at Fulmer Valley recently, due to the death of Mrs. Jacox's brother-in-law, Louis Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ormsby and sons and Judy Lewis of Greenwood were in East Avon, Sunday, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ormsby. A ninth birthday party was held last Wednesday evening for John Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Shaw. Guests were Mrs. Glen Shaw, Buddy and Carolyn Shaw, Marty, Joanne and Ginny Davis, Bobby and Susan Pierce, and the children's parents. Linda Perry spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Perry at Almond, to visit her cousin Bryan.

Almond—Mrs. Grace Davis and Mrs. Doris Montgomery were in Whitesville Thursday to attend a funeral. Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dorr Cotton were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cotton and family of Horseheads. Mrs. Ruth Sisson, Mrs. Gladys Witter and James Wilcox attended a meeting for the lecturers and service and hospitality chairmen of Grange Friday evening in Scio.

Three Alfred-Almond wrestlers added to their unbeaten skeins as the Eagles took Wellsville 19-18 Tuesday night. Jim Evans made it 8-0 with a 2-1 decision; Joe Decker had a 4-2 win to make it 8-0; and Karl Barron upped his record to 9-0 with a 6-0 decision.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO, JAN. 28, 1988

Contract negotiations between the state of New York and the nation's largest higher education union began in Albany Thursday, Jan. 21. The current 3-year contract between the state and United University Professions (UUP)—representing 19,000 state university faculty and professionals on 29 campuses—expires June 30, 1988.

Alfredians—Christmas guests at the home of the David Clarkes were: Douglas Clarke, Jeanette McElrsere, both of Myrtle Beach, SC, Sherman Clarke of Ithaca, Cathy (Clarke) and Bruce Baumgarten and Michael of Rochester. Della MacCrea of Rochester spent a few days with her daughter, Dorothy Drumm at the home of Roger Drumm on Waterwells Road. Marine Cpl. Roy V. Doane (Alfred-Almond '84), son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Doane, has completed the Noncommissioned Officer Leadership course. He is stationed at Camp Lejeune, NC. Michael Ninos of Chicago, IL and Nikki Ninos of Alfred spent ten days in Miami, FL and other Florida spots for 10 days. Edith A. Wheaton died in Jones Memorial Hospital following a brief illness. She was the widow of Fay Wheaton. She recently had resided in the Maple Apartments in Alfred.

Dr. and Mrs. Lyndon Goodridge of 10 Randolph Road, Alfred, announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Lt. Michael Mennelle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas A. Mennelle of Worcester, MA. The bride-to-be is a 1982 graduate of Alfred-Almond Central School and a 1986 graduate of Alfred University. She has recently served as a public relations consultant in Washington, D.C. She will begin work Feb. 8 as a radio announcer for KJCK radio in Junction City, KS, which she plans to continue following the wedding. Her fiancé is a 1986 graduate of U.S. Military Academy at West Point and is a 1st Lieutenant in the U.S. Army Infantry Division at Fort Riley, KS. The couple is planning an April 9, 1988 wedding ceremony to be held at the Alfred Seventh Day Baptist Church.

Lydia Grey Overfield and Donald Robert Mix were united in marriage Saturday, Oct. 17, 1987 in Virginia Beach, VA. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Overfield of Trion, GA. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Kay Chapman of Alfred Station.

Rose Becker, 91, of 11 West University St., Alfred, died Tuesday, Jan. 19, 1988 at Jones Memorial Hospital in Wellsville. Born in New York City, Dec. 30, 1896, she was the daughter of John and Pauline Becker. She had resided for many years in Brooklyn and had been a resident of Alfred for over 20 years. She was a noted violinist in the New York City area and had received critical acclaim for her stifle and deftness. At one time, she was the only female in an otherwise all-male symphony. She had given several concerts with her sister, the late Ada Seidline, in the Alfred area and had given private music lessons in Alfred. Survivors include one nephew, Dr. John Seidlin of Rockford, IL; two great-nephews.

Matthew Linn Myers of 110 Main Street, Almond, has won first prize in the Crayola National Coloring Contest and received a 5-foot plastic Crayola crayon in recognition of the achievement. Matthew, 11, is a sixth-grader at Alfred-Almond Central School and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Myers.

Area residents were named to the Dean's List at Alfred University for earning a 3.30 (out of a possible 4.0) or above grade-point average as a full-time student during the 1987 Fall Semester. They include: David R. Gignac of Alfred. Lisa G. Goodridge of Alfred. Lisa

J. Lang of Alfred Station. Nikolas J. Ninos of Alfred. Gailyn C. Taylor of Almond. William J. Walker Jr of Andover. Esther Wheeler of Alfred.

TEN YEARS AGO, JANUARY 30, 2003

Although John and Chelly Ninos, owners of Alfred's Collegiate Restaurant, are reluctant to release an opening date for their new coffee shop, the good news is the opening is coming soon. Barring unforeseen delays, the Terra Cotta Coffee House plans to open its doors by the end of February, according to Ninos. The planning and delays began more than seven years ago when Ninos started seriously thinking about opening a coffee shop. Alfred University was enthusiastic about opening such a business according to Ninos, but chose instead to open a music store. Ninos continued his search for a location for the coffee shop, and when the music shop closed its Alfred branch he jumped on the property. The coffee house's terra cotta theme, designed by Ninos, is based on the heritage of Alfred's first big industry—terra cotta roofing and decorative tiles. It will feature decorative tiles that were inspired by old Alfred tiles, as well as terra cotta sculptures and other pieces. Ninos will display student art work, which will also be for sale. He is also encouraging art students to make glass tiles to display.

The public is invited to the opening of "6 X 6", a show of photographs taken by five Empire State College students and their instructor. The opening reception will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 2 at the Alfred Hair and Tanning Center, 23 North Main Street in Alfred. The five student photographers are Denise Crane and Mary Ellen Dropp of Hornell, Carol Phillips of Canaseraga, Amy Stinson of Cohocton, and Pamela Ann Walsh of Arkport. Photographs by their instructor, Diane Martin of Alfred will also be included.

Sunbeams—James Bennett serves as city councilman for District 3 in St. Petersburg, FL where he resides with wife Aimee and children Lyndsay, Brandon and Alexandria. He is the son of Rev. and Mrs. D.A. Bennett, who resided on Hillcrest Drive from 1960-1965 when his father served as Episcopal chaplain at Alfred University. Warda Mauro of Redlands, CA writes that she enjoys the local news and the "years ago" items in the Alfred Sun. "Alfred is my hometown and my bumper sticker has brought Alfred contacts here in California many times," she says. Mrs. Jane LeMon is bringing new meaning to the term "wintering" as she is spending the winter near her son in DeWitt, NY. Friends may write her. Friends and family are invited to participate in a "Card Shower" in honor of the 55th wedding anniversary of Frank and Jean Snyder on Feb. 15, 2003. What kind of editor sneaks off to a treehouse to be alone with his own publication while visiting family? The editor definitely has issues.

25 Years Ago, Feb. 2, 1978—Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Conderman, formerly of Alfred, are now located in their new home on the Vandermark Road. C.M. Mitchell was taken by ambulance to Jones Memorial Hospital Jan. 24. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burdick and family spent a few days last week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. James Tinklepaugh. The Burdicks are moving from Wellsville to Racine, Wisc. The Alfred A.E. Crandall Hook and Ladder Company and Alfred Station firemen were called out Sunday morning to Mrs. Mildred Landis' home on Hartsville Hill in time to quell a chimney fire. Bess Burdick, a former Alfred resident, was 96 years old on Jan. 22. She is now a resident of the Clancy Nursing Home, Canisteo Street, Hornell. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Palmiter and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Carter returned from two weeks in Florida.

JOHN D. SOOTHERAN, KAREN M. DUNHAM

Couple plans wedding

Fred and Anne Dunham of Seattle, Washington, are pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter, Karen Michelle Dunham, to John David Sootheran.

John graduated from Nyack College with a Bachelor's degree in Communications. He is employed as a Quality Assessment Engineer at Casenet, LLC, of Bedford, and lives in Billerica, MA. He is the son of David and Linda Sootheran of Andover.

Karen works as a teaching fellow and learning technologist in addition to being a doctoral student at Harvard Graduate School of Education working in educational media research.

John and Karen found each other on the Internet, and after their minions battled each other for a while, they decided to join their armies and conquer their worlds together. The couple is planning a Friday, Feb. 22 wedding in Cambridge, MA.

Robertson-Whiteman scholarships funded

BELMONT--Loretta Whiteman Robertson lived in Cuba, NY and worked as a marching band teacher at Hinsdale Central School. Her life was devoted to her students, her family and her community.

She passed away in 1972 and in her will provided a scholarship fund. Local attorney, Wesley J. Serra was the trustee of that will until his death. Thereafter, Anne Serra, wife of Wesley J. Serra became the voluntary administrator of the will. Her desire was to carry out the wishes of her good friend, Loretta Whiteman Robertson.

In 2012, Terri L. Ross, Allegany County Treasurer was assigned the role of trustee by the Honorable Terrence M. Parker. As decreed by the court; upon the completion of the administration of the trust, the trust shall be terminated and the assets distributed to the Allegany County Area Foundation, Inc. to be administered in perpetuity as the John C. Robertson and Flora S. Whiteman Scholarship Fund as directed by the will of Loretta Whiteman Robertson.

Terri Ross advised Carolyn Miller, president Board of Directors of the ACAF, in December 2012 that the Foundation would be receiving custody of the scholarship trust. Terri presented Carolyn Miller and Warren Emerson, development chair of the Board of Directors a check for $44,000.00 on December 18, 2012. Several guests attended the celebratory luncheon at the Fountain Bistro in Belmont. Guests included: Anne Serra, and Duff Serra as well as representatives from the Allegany County Area Foundation.

The scholarship fund provides for students from the Cuba-Rushford School District who are pursuing a Bachelor's Degree and are enrolled beyond their freshmen year in a college or university.

History Prof Gary Ostrower named a 'Super Professor' by FacultyRow. com

ALFRED--Gary Ostrower, professor of history at Alfred University (AU), has been named a "SuperProfessor" by FacultyRow.com.

FacultyRow, with 91,000 members in 103 countries, was launched in 2011 and is increasingly gaining recognition in traditional academic institutions throughout the world.

"SuperProfessors" has become a prominent platform highlighting achievements of leading academics; instructors given the title "SuperProfessor" are considered the most admirable in their field. They demonstrate excellence, passion, and clarity, and have a wide range of knowledge within their respective field of study.

Ostrower was chosen out of a pool of 4,000 applicants for the official 2013 list of SuperProfessors. Currently, there are about 400 SuperProfessors nationwide.

Currently the Joseph K. Kruson Distinguished Professor at the University, Ostrower is an AU alumnus. He earned a bachelor of arts degree in history at AU and a master of arts degree and Ph.D. in history from the University of Rochester. He has spent most of his teaching career at Alfred, but previously taught at Vassar College and the University of Pennsylvania.

An active member of the academic community, Ostrower has served as president of the Society for the Study Society of Internationalism; as a Fulbright

GARY OSTROWER

Lecturer at Aarhus University, Denmark; authored three books; and contributed articles to encyclopedias and historical journals, including International Organization and The Historian. In addition, he has reviewed many books for historical journals such as the American Historical Review and the Journal of American History.

Ostrower has also remained a prominent member of the surrounding community. He served as mayor of Alfred from 1999 to 2005 and as a Republican member of the Village Board of Trustees for 18 years. He has previously served as a county liaison to the NYS Assembly and has been a member of the Allegany County Youth Board for 28 years.

GREG SAMMONS
Sammons named vice-president

ALFRED--Alfred State announces the appointment of Greg Sammons to the position of Vice President for Student Affairs.

Sammons, who joined Alfred State in 1996, was appointed chief of police in 2005. In 2012, he became interim vice president for student affairs. With this appointment, he will oversee departments including Athletics, Civic Engagement, Greek Life, Health and Wellness Services, Judicial Affairs, Multicultural Affairs, Residential Life, Student Activities, and University Police.

Earlier this year, Sammons was awarded the Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Professional Service. He has an associate's degree in applied science degree in criminal justice from Finger Lakes Community College, a bachelor's degree in organizational management from Houghton College, and a master's degree in justice administration from Norwich University.

AU basketball teams beat Canton, lose to IC

ALFRED--The AU men's basketball team (4-12, 1-6 Empire 8) defeated SUNY Canton, 89-70, and later fell to Ithaca College, 74-64, over the weekend.

Senior guard Sean Curran (Honesdale, PA) scored 21 points on 8-of-12 shooting (5-of-9 on three-pointers) with five rebounds and junior guard Thomas Tsatsis (Neponsit/Townsend Harris) had 17 points and six steals to lead the Saxons.

Against Ithaca, Curran led AU in scoring with 15 points, while Tsatsis and junior forward Jason Ruback (Pittsford-Mendon) scored 12 and 11 points.

Women defeat SUNY Canton
The women's basketball team (5-11, 0-7 Empire 8) defeated SUNY Canton, 63-53, Tuesday and later fell to Ithaca College, 69-39, in a weekend Empire 8 contest.

Sophomore guard Harley Cleary (Rochester/Our Lady of Mercy) led Alfred with 18 points and had eight rebounds. Against Ithaca, junior guard Rachael Stedman (Hamburg/Springville Griffith) scored 12 points. Freshman guard Heather Hebert (Hilton) scored 10 points and had five rebounds.

Men's swimming and diving team suffers loss to Hartwick

The men's swimming and diving team (4-2, 2-1 Empire 8) fell to Hartwick, 188-87, Saturday. Sophomores Dave Coombes (Dansville) and Zac Toth (Lockport/Starpoint) won the 100 backstroke (55.89) and 200 IM (2:03.36), respectively.

In women's competition, AU lost to Hartwick, 169-115. Frosh Carly Watson (Hyde Park/FDR) won three individual events to pace AU. She won the 200 free (1:59.63), the 200 butterfly (2:15.98) and the 100 butterfly (1:00.63). Her time in the 200 fly established a new AU school record, breaking the previous mark of 2:17.98 set in 2003 by Becca Coppola.

Curran, Watson Named Saxon Athletes of the Week

Sean Curran: The senior guard from Honesdale, PA, tallied 21 points against Canton and 15 points in the Saxons' home loss to Empire 8 foe Ithaca.

Carly Watson: The freshman from Hyde Park won three events, one in school record-breaking time, in the women's swimming and diving team's dual meet with Hartwick.

'Many Gifts, One Spirit' sermon topic

ALMOND--We've been given gifts to be used, not only for ourselves, but for the good of all. Each of us are part of the Whole--we do not live in a vacuum. Everything we do affects others just as what others do affects us. Our gifts are not only for us.

There's a story of a pastor who stood up one Sunday and said he was giving a three-point message that day. The congregation expected the typical 3-point sermon so they weren't surprised. He first point was: two billion people are starving today. Then, seconds later he made his second point: 'most of you don't give a damn!' (GASP!!) By now you might be wondering what his third point was: most of you care more about the fact that I said 'damn' than the fact that 2 billion people are starving. And he sat down.

As Christians, we've been desensitized to the suffering around us. If you checked it out, that 2 billion number is probably about 4 or 5 times the size of the US population...(whoa, talk about overwhelming!)

Mother Teresa said "when a poor person dies of hunger it wasn't because God didn't take care of him. It's because neither you nor I did what God calls us to do."

We ask, "if we are His followers, what are we doing to help? Is our Food Pantry doing enough? We have the Samaritan's Loft--enough?" Here's a phrase for you: "Low Information-Action Ratio." Think about this--each day we are bombarded with so much information about all the trouble in the world it's not possible for us to do anything about ALL of it. So, what's the result? We do nothing--it's too overwhelming. Since we cannot allow these problems to just marinate and get bigger with no effort on our part to whittle them down, what do we do?

Glad you asked. Try this on for size: what about looking for just one thing to focus on instead of drowning in the big picture? Look around to find one thing you can do to be of help. This is a good time to consider what gifts you have which can be used to help, you know. Find ways to show compassion locally. (Reporter Note: do you recall the song "One Little Candle"? 'It is better to light just one little candle than to stumble in the dark?')

I learned that back in elementary school and Girl Scouts...I understood it then and I really understand it now. Cut that humongous problem down to a bite-size chunk and chip away at it til you've fixed it!! Then start on the next chunk.)

Paul's points on gifts are important to look at.

First, UNITY. the church is united when we all use our different gifts to serve the Body. (ie: If the body had only eyes how would it hear?) God gave you your gifts, He has a plan for them and you.

Second, DIVERSITY. One body, but every part is necessary to make it a whole. A church is made up of many people and each person is important. Many Gifts, One Spirit.

The problem with the word 'gift' is that it seems to bring to mind only things like music, dance, art, athletics--things which we typically refer to as gifts. That's where we miss the boat though. Those are, indeed, gifts, but what about the person who is called to be a pastor? And beyond that, what about the person who has the gift of dealing with financial issues? And children: who are the ones who work amazingly well with the kids? What about the one who is crazy good at mechanical things? And then there's the one who makes food an art--someone who can make meals out of 'nothing'. Not to mention the one who is extremely gifted with the ability to organize--anything and anyone! And actually, what about the one who is a gifted 'follower'? Someone who is a solid worker and is able to put the directions of a 'leader' into practice!

Look at yourself--just what is it that you do really, really well? Then search for ways to use that gift in service to your church. Not to serve individuals in the church, but to serve the church body--you know--the spirit of Christ. The church is intended to serve community, to reach out to others in need. We are here. Reach out.

Overseas Missions Sabbath emphasis

ALFRED STATION--This Sabbath is Overseas Missions Sabbath at the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church. Your friends and neighbors want you to join them during the 11 a.m. Sabbath Worship Hour to as believers remember the message and the mission of our faith.

During the 11 a.m. Worship Hour we will hear from Pastor Steve James of the Verona Seventh Day Baptist Church, who will share about his call and ministry last summer in Kenya, Africa. Calvin Babcock and Curtis Palmiter will speak of their service in Guyana, South America.

During the Worship Hour via the use of technology as a congregation we will visit with Brian and Jen Zerbe in Tajikistan. Brian serves as an eye doctor in the country. While they attended Houghton College Brian and Jen joined us in the 11 a.m. Worship Hour.

During the Sabbath Morning Worship Hour we will also be reminded of Sanctity of Life Sabbath through a Bulletin insert provided by Bright Alternatives of Wellsville, an non-governmental organization dedicated to helping those woman and men who choose Life for the unborn.

At 2 p.m. in the church meetinghouse social rooms you can meet some who have served the Christian Faith in other countries, see their pictures, artifacts and speak with them one-on-one. Pastor Kevin Palmiter of the First Seventh Day Baptist Church of Genesee with his trip to the Olympics, Pastor Steve James and Kenya, and Calvin Babcock and Curtis Palmiter with their trip to Guyana. THE GLORY OF AMERICA

Thursday, January 24

Something glittered among the pebbles at the edge of the fast-moving American River in the northern California Territory. James Marshall, who was building a sawmill there for John Sutter, looked more closely, then reached down and pulled out a tiny nugget. On this day in 1848, he secretly reported his discovery to Sutter.

But gold is impossible to keep secret. Word leaked out, and by 1849, countless thousands of men back east simply walked off their jobs and headed for California. Called '49ers, they gave the Great Western Migration its biggest impetus--and ensured that America would stretch from sea to shining sea.

Everyone loves a parade!

Dear Mom, Dad, Grandpa and Grandma:

Here's a chance for you to show off the pride and joy of your family. Alfred Sun will publish its annual ever-popular "Parade of Little People" on Thursday, March 28, 2013.

All-age youngsters are eligible. Bring in or send your youngsters' pictures to the ALFRED SUN by Saturday, March 23, 2013. No matter where you live, a picture of your Little Person will be accepted. The charges listed below will help cover the costs of processing your photo(s) and printing.

Wallet size pictures are preferable to large portrait size pictures. Color pictures, except Polaroid (which do not reproduce well) are acceptable although black and white is preferable. It is best if there is only one child per photo. However, all photos will be accepted. The charge for photos with more than one child reflects the additional space for identification.

Fill out the coupon below to insure that your youngster is included in the Parade of Little People in the March 28 issue. Print the child's name on an edge on the back of the picture. For multiple submissions, the form below can be duplicated.

All pictures will be held for 30 days after publication for pick-up or you may send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and we will return your photos.

COSTS: 1 photo for $5, 2 photos for $10, 3 photos for $12, 4 photos for $16, 5 photos for $20, 6 photos for $24; $3 for each additional photo. Photos with more than one child, $10.

The Dugout

HITS AND MISSES:

Starting off this week with some wrestling news as Alfred-Almond's Travis Harvey recently competed in the Mount Union Purple Raider Open in Ohio with his Alfred State College teammates in a "non-scoring" event. There were 21-teams entered and Harvey went (2-2) in the 197lb. class. The former Eagle standout, who went to the states last year, topped a wrestler from Lake Erie College and one from Pittsburgh in his two wins. Being the "wrestling expert" I am, not really sure why they have a non-scoring event? Sure John Ninos can fill me in. Attempts to reach Smitty, the 1970 county and sectional champ on the mats for A-A, were futile.

A crazy-strange-sad week past all rolled into one. Monte Te'o (Notre Dame), Lance Armstrong (Team USA cycling), Chip Kelly (Oregon/Eagles), Ryan Leaf (jail), Earl Weaver (Orioles), "Stan The Man" and many more highlighted a busy week in sports.

Monte Te'o and his "catfish" episode? The only catfish I knew before that was the great pitcher for the A's and Yanks! WHO takes the time to do things like they did to the Irish football star? How pathetic a life!

Watched some of the Lance Armstrong interview with Oprah, part I, not live but later on ESPN and all I came away from it was how smug Armstrong came across. The guy was a cheat-liar-bully for years and stated his innocence numerous times during that period. No time for him. Yes, what he did for cancer ($$$) is awesome but what he did to ones who got in his way ... deplorable.

Guess Chip Kelly is indeed going to coach in the NFL after all. After saying he was returning to Oregon and the Pac-12 football powerhouse, Kelly abruptly bolted and is now the head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Ryan Leaf ... one-time QB ... a waste.

Hall of Famer Earl Weaver passed away over the weekend while on a cruise ship with Oriole fans. He was 82-years old. Back in 1985 when Pat Atwell and I were on our "baseball tour" of games, our stop in Baltimore at old Memorial Stadium was the nite Earl came out of retirement to manage Baltimore again! What a festive atmosphere that game was and we had great seats. Atwell and I went from Toronto to Detroit to Cincy to Pittsburgh, over to Philly after picking up brother Scott, to Baltimore then Yankee Stadium and Fenway Park before finishing up at Shea Stadium. Whew. Just realized, only Fenway Park is still there of all the stadiums we went to! Wow. Weaver managed in the minor leagues in nearby Elmira.

And one of the all-time greats in MLB also passed away over the weekend past. Stan "The Man" Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals at age-92. Musial played with the NL club from 1941-63, won seven-batting titles along the way and 3-World Series championships. Obviously, enshrined in Cooperstown as well. As long-time Cardinal fan Atwell said to me ... "he was revered in St. Louis and all of the mid-west." One of the greatest ever who probably didn't receive his proper accolades. Mr. Cardinal if there ever was one and no one even close.

The Alfred University women and men basketball teams split home contests last week at the McLane Center. Each squad beat SUNY Canton and both fell to Ithaca College in E8 play. Coach Murphy's women (5-11) and Coach Wellman's men (4-12) have a tough week on tap as they hosted SJ Fisher on Tuesday past, head to Rochester on Friday to tangle with Nazareth and return home for a Saturday tilt versus Utica. Screwed schedule! Should be playing Fisher-Naz, Friday-Saturday, home and home contests and then Utica tied in with Hartwick, home-home, on a different weekend.

Happened to catch a score in Sunday's edition of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle and had to double-check it to see if right! Monroe CC beat the Alfred State College men, 128-48 in hoops. Ouch.

Alfred State College Hall of Famer, Tom Curle and his Plattsburgh (10-5) men's hoop team had a solid weekend of league play as they beat New Paltz and Oneonta, 75-70 and 82-75.

Former Alfred Saxons head coach Tom Spanbauer and his Cortland Red Dragons (12-3) are cruising along in SUNYAC action as well as his men cagers beat Geneseo, 79-73 and crushed Brockport, 102-83.

Bob Montana's Union College men's basketball program is at (14-2) after wins over Bard and Vassar. The Dutchmen lead the Liberty League with a 6-1 mark, Hobart is second at 4-1 and the two tangle on February 5th.

Rob Kornaker's (AU) men's basketball team at SJ Fisher College was at 9-8 as he returned to his alma mater on Tuesday. His Cardinals were in midst of a three-game skid to Stevens, Nazareth and Ithaca (90-87).

The Cedarville Yellow Jackets have posted an (11-6) mark to date in women's basketball as Raegan Ryan is averaging 8.6 points per outing and has dished out 83-assists along the way. The Ohio school next plays Central State and Salem International ... Atwell's alma mater!

The Bona men cagers are at (8-9) following a win over Temple. The (Hoot) Owls who handed Syracuse their lone loss. "The Traveling Sports Fan" took in the Bona-Xavier game recently. Guessing after his marathon, snow-shoveling adventure at Ralph Wilson Stadium!

Actually caught part of the Syracuse-Louisville game on the

Alfred State College Sports Roundup

Men's Basketball: 6-10, 0-4 WNYAC

The Pioneers were tripped up in each of their three games this week, 88-55 at Niagara CCC, 75-55 vs. Erie CC, and 128-48 at Monroe CC. Marquis Chatman (Allen, TX) led the Pioneers with an 11.7 ppg and 8.0 rpg average while Jamar White (Laurel, MD) averaged 10.3 points.

Indoor Track & Field: Open season at Brockport Invite

their way into the Alfred State record book as the team opened up the 2013 at the Brockport Golden Eagle Invitational.

Desmond Chambers (Rochester/Gates Chili) was the lone Pioneer to win an event on the day. He won the long jump with a leap of 6.74 m. His mark is 7th best all time at Alfred State. He also finished 2nd in the 60 m dash in 7.25 (7th all-time). Chambers also was part of the 4x200 relay team (Zach Woodard -South Jefferson-, Dane Dechau -Randolph-, and Brian Tubbs -Waverly) that finished 2nd in 1:35.60 and is now 5th on the all-time list.

Josiah Thomas (Rochester/John Marshall) was 2nd in the triple jump with a leap of 13.22 m (8th all-time), Brian Edwards (Tri-Valley) was 3rd in the shot put with a toss of 14.04 m (6th all-time), and Frankie Bailey (Rochester/John Marshall) was 3rd in the 60 m hurdles in 9.07 (9th all-time).

On the women's side, Megan Dillon (Lake Shore) and Nicole Lipa (Newfane) were 6th with a vault of 2.28 m (5th all-time) and 7th with a leap of 2.13 m (7th all-time), respectively, in the pole vault.

Wrestling: 1-5

Travis Harvey (Alfred Almond) led the Alfred State wrestling contingent at the Mt. Union Purple Raider Open on Sunday. Harvey was 2-2 in the 197 lb. weight class. He earned a 5-4 over Tim Strauss (Lake Erie College) in his opening match. After falling in his 2nd round match, Harvey pinned Ramsey Hanna (Pittsburgh) in 2:29. In his next consolation match, Harvey was eliminated by Tyler Landfried (Mercyhurst).

tube on Saturday past as the Cardinals basically "handed" the game away. Yikes. The Orange could be ranked #2 or #3 (behind Duke, obviously) as they clashed with Cincinnati on Monday past, MLK Day.

The NBA announced the starters for the All-Star game in February and eight of the 10-players are from four teams. In the East it was LeBron James and Dwayne Wade from Miami plus Rajon Rondo and Kevin Garnett from the Celtics. They are joined by Carmelo Anthony of the Knicks. In the West it was Chris Paul and Blake Griffin of the LA Clippers along with Kobe Bryant and Dwight Howard of the LA Lakers. Kevin Durant of OKC joins this foursome. Not sure what Howard is doing there?

A batch of NYS vanity plates spotted: SNOWPROS, START-NOW, ECOSMART, DIRTY ... Canfield in Pittsburgh, OBX SNH ... Outer Banks @ South Nags Head, DODGEMAN ... "Hilly" in MA, SULU1701 ... Star Trek! and DEENASTY ... "card shark" in Winter Park, FL.

Add Lance Armstrong to the list of athletes with #7 ties along with Barry Bonds and Roger Clemens. Tour de France titles, MVP awards and Cy Young awards. All tainted.

The parents of new Cleveland Browns head coach, Rob Chudzinski own a bar in Fremont, Ohio called "Chud's Grille." Info sent to me via text from Vincent Wasilweski, "Chud" in Lexington, KY!

Super Bowl 47 will be Harbaugh versus Harbaugh, San Fran and Baltimore, head coach and head coach. The SF 49ers eased by Atlanta on the road despite a solid QB performance from Matt Ryan of the Falcons while the Ravens stopped Tom Brady and the Pats in Foxboro, MA.

Caught parts of three-different golf tour events on the tube Sunday past. The European Tour event that Tiger Woods was DQ'd from, the PGA Stop in California and the Champions Tour from Hawaii later on. Wanted to see Fred Couples in the last one listed. Might see four different golf stops this year, in person! The Bay Hill in March in Florida on the PGA Tour, the LPGA Championship in Rochester, the PGA Championship in Rochester and the Dick's Open in Endicott.

3L had a busy weekend in Maryland-DC as she went to visit former SUNY Geneseo field hockey All-American, Milko. The Vestal native is now working in the athletic department for the Maryland Terps and will be working at Congressional CC this summer. "Waiting" for my golfing invite any day now from there! Daughter Lauren got to see the Capitol Building on the way to the bus depot in DC on Sunday and the Empire State building in NYC on the way to the subway and home, all in one day. 3L in a half-marathon in NYC this Saturday.

Off to the Gaisser wedding this Saturday for me.
