

Quilters to keep AU in stitches

7/29/04

The Genesee Traditions Educational Quilting Conference is being held Sunday-Wednesday, Aug. 1-4, on the Alfred University campus. There will be a display of conference projects from 9:30 a.m.-noon Wednesday morning, Aug. 4, at the Powell Campus Center. In addition to the student projects, the four visiting artists who are teaching Monday and Tuesday will be displaying their own work. They are Gyleen Fitzgerald, Churchville, MD; Mary Beth Larsen, Geneva, NY; Linda Luggen, Cincinnati, OH; and Barbara Murak, Getzville, NY. The public is invited to join the group for this quilt show, observe and chat with the quilters as they continue working on their quilts, and to meet the visiting artists. There is no charge for this event. The conference is presented by Quilts and Other Legacies, Belfast, NY, and is under the direction of Gail Wightman-Bouldin of Belmont, NY. More information about the conference may be obtained by calling Alfred University's Office of Summer Programs at 607 871 2612.
