Alfred State holds open house at new Veterinary Tech Center

ALFRED—Alfred State celebrated its new Veterinary Technology Center Friday with an Open House attended by past and present students, President Skip Sullivan, Dean of the School of Arts and Sciences Dr. Robert Curry, faculty, staff, administrators, and community members.

Dr. Philip Schroeder, chair of the Agriculture and Veterinary Technology Department, said the Center is used to teach almost all of the vet tech classes that involve live animals. It includes animal housing, teaching labs, a radiography suite, and a surgical suite.

"The Vet Tech Center is a top-quality teaching facility that rivals any in the region," Schroeder said, "and helps the program continue to be one of the best in the country."

Before opening during the spring 2013 semester as the Vet Tech Center, the facility was used for the horticulture and landscape design program since the 1950s. Renovations to the roughly 7,500-square-foot building began in the spring of 2012 and ended this summer, costing $1.2 million.

The Center also maintains relationships with the Wellsville SPCA and the Hornell Area Humane Society.

"Both of these entities send us dogs and cats to use in teaching and in turn, we spay or neuter and socialize these animals," Schroeder said.

Kellie Donovan, of Bergen, N.Y., who graduated from Alfred State in 2006 with a degree in veterinary technology, attended Friday's Open House and took a tour of the new facility. She came away impressed.

"I think it's great," said Donovan, who is now a licensed veterinary technician at Genesee Valley Equine in Scottsville, N.Y. "It looks amazing."

Hannah Leffler, a veterinary technology major from Averill Park, N.Y., was also present at the Open House. She noted that the Vet Tech Center helped prepare her for a summer internship at Bloomingrove Veterinary Hospital in East Greenbush, N.Y.

"We have so many awesome machines here to work with that are just like the ones we work with at our internships and eventually our jobs, so the Center is really helpful," Leffler said.

Neuroscientist to deliver Miller Lecture tonight

ALFRED—Dr. James Giordano, a neuroscientist and neuroethicist whose research focuses on the development and use of neurotechnology to gain insights into the brain, will deliver the annual Jo Ann S. Miller Memorial Lecture in Ethical Issues in Medicine at 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 2, in Nevins Theater, Powell Campus Center, on the Alfred University (AU) campus.

The lecture is jointly sponsored by the Pre-Health Advisory Committee and the Alfred University chapter of Sigma Xi, the national honorary society for scientific research. It is made possible by a gift from Dr. Irwin Miller, a 1950 graduate of the University and former faculty member in the Department of Mathematics at AU.

Giordano's topic will be "Neuroethics: Issues and Questions at the Intersection of Neuroscience, Medicine and Society."

"Neuroscience is forging new directions and capabilities in the ability to engineer materials and apply discoveries to the brain that enable access and control of thought, emotion and behavior at a rate and level of profundity that has been heretofore unprecedented," said Giordano in his abstract. "The use of these technologies as tools has allowed equivalently impressive progress in several other disciplines of research, as well as medicine, bio-engineering, and even the daily conduct of society. While such progress might be construed as beneficial, the discovery and development and use of new devices, information and knowledge could incur profound ethical, legal and social issues – both arising in the research itself, and stemming from misuse and/or purloined application of these technologies in ways that negatively impact public health and security."

"This lecture will describe frontier areas of neuroscience and technology, with emphasis upon the extent and scope of new knowledge and capability that such developments afford to impact the human condition; and will discuss key ethical concerns that are incurred by such neuroscientific and neuro-technological progress on the 21st century world stage. Finally, paradigms for neuroethical, legal, and social probity, safety and surety, and a putative "preparatory process" for international neuroethics and neuro-policy will be addressed, with a view to guiding future progress."

In addition to delivering the annual Miller Lecture Thursday evening, Giordano will meet Friday, Oct. 3, with graduate students to talk about the future of neuroscience in the United States and will visit Dr. Emrys Westacott's Ethics class to talk about ethical issues in the news.

Former AU dean delivers keynote address at glass conference

PARMA, ITALY—L. David Pye, (AU Class of 1959) and former dean and professor emeritus of glass science at Alfred University (AU), delivered the keynote address at the 12th biennial European Society of Glass Conference Sept. 21-24, Parma, Italy.

In his speech, "Glass Science and Engineering: Introspective, Retrospective," Pye discussed how increased understanding and application of glass helps advance mankind and society. Through his discussion, Pye helped to further dialogue on the importance of glass in the international community.

Pye reviewed the current state of glass science theory and engineering practices pointing out those which are generally accepted and others where additional work is needed. The identification of these theories and their respective status was made with input from renowned glass scientists and engineers throughout the international glass community, he said. The session was attended by several hundred scientists, educators, engineers, and students from across the globe.

Pye retired after a 34-year career at AU as a professor and administrator. He is past president of the International Commission on Glass (ICG) and the American Ceramic Society. He is an honorary member of the German Society of Glass Technology, honorary fellow of the British Society of Glass Technology, and a Distinguished Life Member of the American Ceramic Society.

Pye has received numerous awards, including the ICG's President's Award for Lifetime Achievements and the State University of New York Chancellor's Award for Scholarship and Creativity.

He currently serves as founding editor of the International Journal of Applied Glass Science, and is an aspiring stained glass artist.

OBITUARIES

Jerry Ferringer once operated New Life Printers shop

GERALD C. "JERRY" FERRINGER

Operated New Life Printers for many years

COCOA, FL—Gerald C. "Jerry" Ferringer, 73, of Cocoa, FL, formerly of the Hornell area, passed away Wednesday morning (Sept. 17, 2014) in the presence of his loving family, at the Wuesthoff Hospice House in Rockledge, FL.

Born to Clinton Ferringer and Violet Hooker Ferringer on Sept. 6, 1941 in North Tonawanda, Jerry was raised and lived for many years in Niagara Falls and played Little League there. For six years he proudly served with the U.S. Marine Corps during the Vietnam era at which time he received a Purple Heart.

Jerry was active in the Kiwanis Club since joining the Hornell club in 1977. He had been a Distinguished Kiwanian 10 times, and helped form three Kiwanis Clubs in his division and was chairman for the Chemung Division "Toys for Tots" for six years, chairman for Youth Services for two years, and received the Chemung Division Distinguished Service Award 1999-2000. As well as being a Distinguished Past President, Jerry also served on the Board of Directors for several years.

He served on the Hornell Little League Board of Directors for five years, was head coach for Little League 21 years, umpired Little League for 16 years, umpired High School Baseball for eight years, and umpired Girls' High School Softball for four years and was also manager for the Hornell Little League Moose Traveling Team for two years.

Jerry served as past Governor of the Moose Lodge (life member), Past Commander of the American Legion (member 37 years), charter member of Raider Detachment Marine Corps League (Commandant 7 times – life member), charter member of Amvets (life member), a member of the Hornell Elks Lodge for 27 years, a member of the Hornell Masonic Lodge for 28 years and a Salvation Army Board member for 14 years.

He has been known for his pranks, sense of humor, generosity, caring and being a friend to all. His children remember him as stubborn but very loving.

His favorite hobbies were fishing and golf, but he loved most sports as well as helping the younger generation. For the past eight years, he and his wife have been involved and volunteered at a big cat reserve in Cocoa, FL where they have enjoyed taking care of over 40 tigers, lions, cougars and leopards.

Jerry and his wife Mary Beth (Darley) Ferringer have been married 47 years and retired in 2004 after 27 years in business, owning and operating New Life Printers in Hornell. He leaves his loving wife; also his mother, Violet Hooker Schultz, two children, Gerald Ferringer, Jr. and Maria Staley; four grandchildren: Gregory Staley, Nanci Rose Staley, Melinda Burleson, and Mary Liz Uhl, one great-grandchild, Kristopher Wiley, sister Sharon Leverenz (Leigh), brother-in-law, David Darley (Geraldine), nieces, Kristin Bears (Jeff) and Lisa Sterling (George); nephews, Thomas Darley and David Darley, several aunts, uncle and cousins. He was predeceased by his father, Clinton.

The Bishop & Johnson Funeral Home, Inc. in Hornell is honored to serve the family of Gerald C. "Jerry" Ferringer.

Calling hours were from 4-7 p.m. Friday, Sept. 26 at the Bishop & Johnson Funeral Home, Inc., 285 Main St., Hornell, where a funeral service was held at 11 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 27. Interment was in Forest Avenue Cemetery in Angola.

The United States flag and the Marine Corps flag were proudly flown at the Bishop & Johnson Funeral Home, Inc. in recognition of Jerry's service during the Vietnam era.

In lieu of flowers, a donation to "Central Florida Animal Reserve", P.O. Box 184, Sharpes, FL 32959-0184 would be greatly appreciated. Envelopes for memorial contributions are available from the funeral home. Online condolences and remembrances of Jerry at www.bishopandjohnsonfuneralhome.com.

Sibley Lecturer to address Congress

Following his visit to Alfred, Giordano is scheduled to speak to Congress about ISIS, the al Qaeda splinter group based in Iraq, and neuroscience.

Giordano is chief of the Neuroethics Studies Program in the Edmund Pellegrino Center for Clinical Bioethics and a member of the faculty of the Division of Integrative Physiology, the Interdisciplinary Program in Neuroscience and the Department of Neurology at Georgetown University Medical Center, Washington, DC. He is also a Sigma Xi Distinguished Lecturer.

His ongoing research focuses on the use of advanced neurotechnologies to explore the neuroscience of pain and neuropsychiatric spectrum disorders, neuropathology of neuropsychiatric disorders, neuroscience of moral decision-making, and the neuroethical issues arising from the use of neuroscience and neurotechnology in research, medicine, public life and national security and defense.

Jo Ann S. Miller, in whose honor the lecture was named, graduated from the Deaconess Hospital School of Nursing in 1951 and was licensed as a registered nurse later that year. She married Dr. Irwin Miller in 1952, and worked in New York City and Huntsville, IL, until 1955 when she left the field to raise family.

Two of the Millers' three children graduated from Alfred University. Dianne received her bachelor's degree in nursing in 1977, and Paul earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in 1983. David did not attend AU.

The Millers moved to Alfred in August, 1986, when Irwin Miller was appointed to the faculty in mathematics. Jo Ann Miller was active in the Alfred Women's Club and University activities until her sudden death in January 1987.

It has come to the attention of the board of directors of the Hornell Area Arts Council that there seems to be some lingering confusion about the HAAC. HAAC is the sole not-for-profit arts organization that has been in existence since the 1970s. HAAC is NOT in any way associated with the "Hornell Community Art Center" Building (former Ponderosa) on Broadway. While we hope to work with the city in utilizing this building for the arts community in the future, the Center and our organization are two completely separate entities. The activities at the former Ponderosa building are run by facilitator Kevin Jacobs under the direction of Mayor Shawn Hogan and the city of Hornell.

AU, Corning CC in partnership

ALFRED—A new partnership between Alfred University (AU) and Corning Community College (CCC) will enable students to earn a bachelor's degree in early childhood/childhood education on the CCC campus.

The first group of students will be enrolled in January 2015 with an expected graduation date of December 2016. Upper-level education courses will be offered, and students will complete a minor in psychology through the program. A modified tuition rate will be offered for students who enroll in this degree completion program and financial aid will be available through AU.

Environmental Studies Speaker Series continues

ALFRED—Amy Wolfe, Trout Unlimited's (TU) director of the Eastern Abandoned Mine Program and PA Eastern Brook Habitat Initiative, will present "Recovery of the West Branch Susquehanna Watershed" as part of Alfred University's (AU) Environmental Studies Speaker Series, Friday, Oct. 3 at 12:20 p.m. in Roon Lecture Hall (Room 247) in the AU Science Center. Everyone is welcome to attend, admission is free, and refreshments will be served.

The presentation will focus on the pressures from poor land management, natural resources development, and other problems that have reduced the number of fish and fishing opportunities throughout Pennsylvania.

Wolfe earned a bachelor of science degree in environmental biology and ecology from Lock Haven University, Lock Haven, PA. Her work with TU began in 1999.

Stull Observatory offers Open House clear Sunday nights

ALFRED—Open House nights at Alfred University's (AU) Stull Observatory will now be held on clear Sunday evenings from 8:30-10:30 p.m.

Astronomy at AU has a rich history, dating back to the year 1863, when William A. Rogers donated a 9-inch refractor. This was packed away during the 1920s and was nearly lost until the late Dr. John Stull, a ceramic engineering Ph.D. and physics professor, learned of its existence.

After several years of putting up and taking down the telescope each night, Dr. Stull and the AU administration established the Observatory as it is today. In fact, all the major telescopes in use there have either been built or rebuilt by Dr. Stull. All the telescopes are capable of imaging charge-coupled devices and film cameras (35 mm or 4 x 5 inch formats).

Reservations for open house are not required but are requested for large groups. For more information or to make reservations, email Dr. David Toot at tootd@alfred.edu or call 607. 871.2208 during business hours.

Peach Cream Pie is a taste of GA

An apology-last week we were rushing around before leaving on a trip. I had done my first draft of the recipe but needed to edit it because I thought the directions might be confusing. In the rush I forgot to do it. I apologize and here's the correction: It says as the first direction: Process in a food processor the flour through the sour cream. I thought that a particularly Down East way of saying to put the first four ingredients in a food processor so I was going to make it a little more clear.

This week's recipe is from A Taste of Georgia published in Newman, Georgia.

Peach Cream Pie

2 c. vanilla wafer crumbs      ½ c. lemon juice
1 stick margarine, melted      2 c. sliced, peeled peaches
1 (14oz.) can sweetened      1 (9oz.) carton frozen whipped condensed milk      dessert topping, thawed

Make crust of wafer crumbs and melted margarine. Press into 9 inch pie plate and chill. Blend condensed milk and lemon juice until thick. Put peaches in blender and blend for a few seconds until smooth. Pour peaches into milk mixture and blend well. Fold in dessert topping with a spoon and pile into crumb crust. Chill.

Growing Up in Alfred

By JUDE FRECHETTE
Special to the Alfred Sun

"Alfred"

Many of my stories would be unbelievable outside the setting of a small town, and a few could never have happened anywhere else but in our little village of Alfred. It was, and is, unique in so many ways that I hardly know where to begin.

Most obvious, and perhaps most important is the pairing of rural agrarian life with, not one, but two highly respected universities. In simple numbers that means five students for every village resident, but it isn't that simple. The lines are blurred by residents who are professors and employees of the colleges, students who are locals, and a whole cast of characters who fall somewhere in the middle.

It's not unusual for a city kid to fall in love with our way of life, and carve out a niche here after graduation. But it's also true that many of our local youngsters move away after high school, seeking their opportunities elsewhere.

It was a terrific place to grow up, with endless fascinating things to do. In addition to the usual organized activities, we had all the hills, woods, fields and creeks right in our backyards, complete with wild animals, birds, bugs, crayfish, fossils, berries, flowers, and secret spots. We built lean-to shelters, snow forts, treehouses, dams, totem poles, toy boats, and campfires.

We learned very early not to eat anything we weren't sure of, not to use sedimentary rocks to line a fireplace (they blow up,) and how to recognize poison ivy. We knew all the trails, and made a few of our own. We pretended to be Indians, pioneers, gold miners, explorers, the Jesse James Gang, wild children, or anything else that suited our fancy.

We didn't have much sense of property lines, reasoning that the natural world belonged to everyone. Both farmers and townspeople would smile indulgently and look the other way when they saw us innocently trespassing, knowing we would do no harm, and glad that we loved the land as they did.

But that was just the beginning. The civilized world had its attractions, too, especially when the weather was harsh or dreary. From babyhood on, I knew a dozen doors I could knock on anytime, where kindly old people waited to stuff me full of cookies and tell stories about what Alfred was like in the old days.

Emily VanSchoik had a fine collection of classical records. The Carpenter sisters had real wooden jigsaw puzzles which they rented out. Mrs. Eckdahl baked amazing confections from her native Sweden. Lynn Langworthy had an enormous, terrifying steam engine. Olive Watson made sweets from bee's honey, and I thought her first name was hysterically funny. George Place told the best stories, and sang in a rumbling bass so deep that it vibrated the porch floorboards. I loved to watch Grace Nease weave on her loom, choosing colors that became magical together.

These people and many others taught me a great deal about living, not so much from what they said, as from the way they lived. They treated everyone, even little kids, as equals with dignity, intelligence, hopes, and opinions of their own. They never talked down to me or belittled my ideas. (Unfortunately, I can't say the same for many of my teachers at school.)

Snyde remarks

By DAVID L. SNYDER
Editor, Publisher and Janitor
alfredsun.news@gmail.com

Bill LaCourse recently walked away from the microphone in the press box at Yunevich Stadium after announcing Alfred University football games for as many as 37 years. That's a lot of first downs, winning raffle tickets and license plate numbers for illegally parked cars. Not to mention the pronunciations of all those players' names!

Bill took over the duties in the mid-1970s, filling a pair of shoes that many thought could not be filled. But he did it well. Fred M. Palmer, my grandfather, was the first to announce football games at Merrill Field back in 1932. There was no press box. Bepa erected a perch on one of the floodlight poles and, until a press box was constructed, climbed the pole to his perch where he announced the game with his own "Palmer Sound System."

LaCourse was, however, at the game Saturday, having donned an AU Pep Band tee-shirt. He has joined the group he's often touted as "the best college pep band in Allegany County." (Of course, it's more than likely the only college pep band in Allegany County). But it's better today because Bill, after many years wishing he could, picked up his trumpet and jumped on the band wagon. And the band is glad he did!

While Alfred Police Chief Tim O'Grady recently resigned to accept the same position with the Wellsville Village Police Department, it may not be the last we see of him in Alfred.

After serving with the Alfred Police Department the past 20 years, the last eight years as chief, O'Grady was appointed chief of police in Wellsville, taking that position effective Sept. 15. But now there are discussions taking place about the possibility of implementing an agreement of "shared services" between the Village of Wellsville and the Village of Alfred.

Much like some small school districts "share" a superintendent, or some small church congregations "share" a pastor, village officials are investigating the possibility of "sharing" a police chief.

O'Grady suggested that, should an agreement be made, he would likely be in the office three days a week in Wellsville and two days a week in Alfred.

I guess that explains why the Alfred Village Board waited to act on appointing a replacement for O'Grady. If they can work it out, I believe it will be beneficial to both communities.

Allegany County Legislator

CHANGING TIMES

The date for this week's session of the County Legislature had to be changed because several Legislators were unavailable on Monday, September 22nd, the usual meeting date. They were in Buffalo for several days attending the fall conference of NYSAC (New York State Association of Counties). The conferences are usually quite informative and valuable. I could not attend this conference due to prior commitments and demands of my law practice. The meeting opened, as usual, with the Pledge of Allegiance. We were led by former Navy Electrician's Mate 3rd Class Roland P. Kemp. "Rollie" served from 1942 to 1946, seeing combat and various other actions. We are indebted to him and his comrades for their service to our nation.

Privilege of the Floor was granted to several individuals and/or organizations. County Planner Kier Dirlam and his associates recently won an award from the American Planning Association for the outstanding County Comprehensive Plan in the State. The Allegany Senior Foundation presented a check to Allegany County for $10,000 to support the Office For the Aging Meals on Wheels program. County Supervising Public Health Educator Theresa Moore gave a presentation on Lead Poisoning Prevention. ACCORD Domestic Violence Program Manager Heather Frost gave a presentation about Domestic Violence Awareness Week. Later Chairman Crandall proclaimed October as Domestic Violence Awareness Month. He also proclaimed September 23rd as National Fall Prevention Awareness Day.

Thirteen resolutions were pre-filed for consideration by the Legislature. Many of them were routine in nature. Resolution 165-14 designated the Alfred Sun Newspaper as the substitute official newspaper for the week of October 5, 2014. Resolution 166-14 set new per diem rates for Election Inspectors and Coordinators for 2015. Resolution 167-14 accepted and appropriated $500 reimbursement for damage to a county vehicle in an accident. Resolution 174-14 approved an amendment to an agreement with KVR Services, LLC amending the price paid for meals for Office For Aging programs, such as Meals on Wheels. The price per meal was increased from $3.95 to $4.00. Resolution 175-14 approved a contract with the NYS Department of Transportation for purchase of vehicles with grant funding. This will allow the County to receive $387,840 in federal funds, and $48,48 in state funds. Resolution 176-14 approved a lease with Donald Baldwin for property rented for the WIC and Cancer Services programs. Resolution 177-14 approved the County's 2015 STOP DWI Plan and authorized the Chairman to enter into agreements with Towns and Villages consistent with that Plan.

The remaining resolutions all involved accepting and appropriating funds, or transferring funds between accounts. They were the following:

- #168-14 accepted and appropriated a Homeland Security Grant for $17,500.
- #169-14 accepted and appropriated an Office of Justice Programs Grant for $7,983.91 to the Sheriff's Department to purchase Body Armor.
- #170-14 transferred funds between accounts in the Community Services Program.
- #171-14 transferred funds within the Sheriff's Office Accounts for payment of invoices for E-911 Dispatcher Certificates.
- #172-14 transferred $3,960 between Sheriff's Office accounts to cover costs for an inmate who needed to be transferred to a mental health facility.
- #173-14 transferred $72,295 from the Contingency Account to cover the cost of repairs to the Jail Septic System.

After the regular session we held a Committee of the Whole to review the Full Environmental Assessment Form for the proposed demolition of the former County Museum, and proposed construction of a parking lot on that site. Assistant County Attorney Karissa Knapp, Esq. explained that form to the Board. We then adopted a "Negative Declaration" so that the demolition project can proceed. The Board then went into Executive Session to consider Budget and personnel matters.

As a Legislator I want to achieve the following goals:

1. Reduce real property taxes;
2. Promote economic development and job development;
3. Stay within the State mandated 2.0% tax cap; and
4. Maintain an appropriate level of public services.

You as taxpayers will be the judges of how we are doing. Let us know what you think.

Work by Ashley Lyon exhibited at two venues at AU

ALFRED—The Alfred University (AU) School of Art and Design will present work by Ashley Lyon, the Robert Chapman Turner Teaching Fellow in Ceramic Art, College of Ceramics at AU and a sculptor residing in Hornell, in the Cohen Center for the Arts Gallery and the Schein-Joseph International Museum of Ceramic Art.

This two-venue show runs from Thursday, Oct. 9 through Thursday, Dec. 4. There will be a public opening reception for the artist Oct. 9 from 4:30-7 p.m. simultaneously held at both locations. Lyon will present a gallery talk, free and open to the public, at noon on Thursday, Nov. 20 at the Cohen Gallery.

The Cohen Gallery, at 55 N. Main St., is open Tuesday - Thursday from 11 a.m.-5 p.m. The Schein-Joseph International Museum of Ceramic Art, on the top floor of Binns Merrill Hall, is open from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Wednesday-Friday.

The Robert Chapman Turner Teaching Fellow in Ceramic Art was established in 2006 in honor of the late Robert Turner '49, distinguished professor emeritus. The fellowship provides for a visiting faculty and research position and is funded by the School of Art and Design and the Division of Ceramic Art. Additional funding for the Lyon exhibition was provided by the Community Foundation of Elmira-Corning and the Finger Lakes' QuickARTS Program, administered by The Arts Council of the Southern Finger Lakes and the Elizabeth Greenshields Foundation.

ASHLEY LYON

The Gallery notes for the Lyon exhibit say: "Exploring the ontological boundaries of images and objects, Lyon's work takes inspiration from everyday bodies, portraiture, nuanced memories, and found imagery. The photographs in this exhibition display, through their affinity for the ceramic fragment, an acute meditation upon a collective gaze."

In her artist statement Lyon says of her work ... "figurative fragmentation can engage realism and the uncanny in a more convincing and complex way than simply illustrating pathos or narrative. I am striving... for a nearness to realism, like a peripheral vision, in which my objects and images become vehicles for projection. Realism is not only an experiment in the reiteration of a hand or foot or head, it is to locate the sensation of being human."

Lyon earned a bachelor of fine arts degree in ceramics from the University of Washington, Seattle and a master of fine arts degree in sculpture and extended media at Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond.

Her work has been featured throughout the world in various states and countries including the Netherlands, Ecuador, and China.

The Cohen Gallery seeks to create opportunities for students, faculty, and alumni to engage in the professional activities of curating and organizing art exhibitions from the ground up, thus providing valuable experience in the business aspects of art. The gallery also provides a supportive environment for exhibitions that serve regional constituencies, such as regional arts councils, public schools, and exchanges between regional art programs at the university level.

The Cohen Center for The Arts was created with a gift from University Trustee Michele and Martin Cohen, parents of Adam Cohen, AU Class of 2003.

Hundreds of kids visit ASC Farm

First- and second-graders participate in Kiddie Ag Day

ALFRED—Hundreds of first- and second-grade students from area schools visited the Alfred State Farm Tuesday for Kiddie Ag Day.

Dr. Philip Schroeder, chair of the Agriculture and Veterinary Technology department, said the students toured the 800-acre farm, learning about agriculture and where their food comes from. Participating schools included Andover, Alfred-Almond, Cuba-Rushford, Fillmore, Whitesville, Bolivar-Richburg, Genesee Valley, and Scio.

Alfred State, Schroeder said, has hosted Kiddie Ag Day "for as long as anyone can remember," although the college did not hold it for the past few years because of construction on the farm. The return of Kiddie Ag Day this year, according to Schroeder, was a big hit.

"Between the beautiful weather, the enthusiasm of our students' tour leaders, the donation of more than 500 cartons of milk and string cheese by Organic Valley, and the attendance of more than 600 kids," Schroeder said, "I think the day was a great success."

Alfred State agricultural technology student Elise Morgan, of Auburn, speaks to area first- and second-grade students touring the Alfred State Farm Tuesday during Kiddie Ag Day.

Art professor at today's Bergren Forum

ALFRED—Alfred University's (AU) Bergren Forum, a weekly lunchtime series, continues today (Thursday, Oct. 2), in Nevins Theater, Powell Campus Center with a talk by Laurel Jay Carpenter, associate professor of art, titled "Performance To Go." The program is free and open to the public.

Since her sabbatical two years ago, Carpenter has presented new performance art work in Italy, Norway, Poland and Germany. Her forum will focus on her solo and collaborative work, and perhaps include a few tourist shots of the residency sites.

According to her personal webpage, "Carpenter is a performance and installation artist, investigating longing, devotion and alchemy in her durational live works."

She has exhibited her work both nationally and internationally. It has been featured at eight different venues in New York, two in Germany, and one in Spain, Italy, Norway, and Poland.

Carpenter was one of only two U.S. participants in the Independent Performance Group (IPG) from 2004-07. The IPG is a non-profit established to promote young international performance artists.

Carpenter holds a bachelor of arts degree in English literature and art history from Tufts University, Medford, MA, and a master of fine arts degree in sculpture and performance from the University of Connecticut, Storrs.

She teaches in the Interdisciplinary Art program at AU with special interest in performance art, found object sculpture, and site-specific installation.

Bill Dibrell at Oct. 9 Forum

Alfred University's (AU) longstanding lunchtime series, the Bergren Forum, continues Thursday, Oct. 9, at 12:10 p.m. in Nevins Theater, Powell Campus Center with "Intoxications, Altered States, and Flow Experiences."

What do hallucinations, intoxications, and flow experiences possibly have in common? Why do humans so frequently seek these experiences? These are questions that Dr. William Dibrell, professor of philosophy, will address in his Bergren Forum discussion. The program is free and open to the public.

"I will suggest .... that one value these states can have is a temporary loss of self and self-consciousness," said Dibrell. "Of course, some ways of achieving this kind of loss of self also result in self-destruction," he added.

During his time at AU, Dibrell has been an active member of the campus community. He is chairman of the Pre-law Advising Committee and the Strategic Planning Coordinating Committee. He also previously served as Faculty Senate president.

Additionally, in the wider Alfred community, Dibrell is a member and previous chief of the A.E. Crandall Hook and Ladder Co., where he is currently a firefighter/EMT.

Dibrell holds a bachelor of arts degree in philosophy and English and a master of arts degree in philosophy, both from San Diego State University, and a Ph.D. in philosophy from Michigan State University.

The Bergren Forum is sponsored by the Division of Human Studies, the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, and the Provost's Office. Guests are encouraged to bring a brown bag lunch; coffee and tea will be provided.

The series known as the Bergren Forum began in 1970. Rick Bergren, who taught at the University in the '70s, started the forums after being inspired by learning of the gatherings that (AU) students in the 19th century were known to conduct in Alumni Hall to discuss community issues. After Bergren's death in 1974, the University decided to continue the tradition in his name. Various faculty members have taken on the coordinator duties since that time. William S. Dibrell, professor of philosophy, is the current coordinator.

Almond 20th Century Club Library

What's Happening at Almond Library

By SANDRA ROBINSON

Almond Twentieth Century Club Library Director

Thursday, Oct. 2, from 6:30-8 pm: As part of Cooperative Extension, Master Gardener Mary Lu Wells will present "Plant Now, Bloom Later," her inspiring and illustrated talk on planting fall bulbs for spring blooms. This is a new presentation with many original photos which Ms. Wells is excited to unveil. Please call the library today to pre-register for this event. There is a fee of $5.

For our Pumpkin Patch kids: our final Pumpkin Harvest Celebration will take place Saturday, Oct. 11, at 10:30, when Pumpkin Patch gardeners harvest the fruit of their labor. We'll also make homemade pumpkin pudding to enjoy with fresh whipped cream!

Mary Jane Essex will be our "I Geek" speaker this month. She has a long career teaching college English and literature classes, which brings her currently to the faculty of Alfred State College. Please join us Thursday, Oct. 16 at from 6-7 pm for her presentation, "Write Your Story," as she leads us in transferring our experiences to the written page, both for ourselves and future generations.

Our next Overdrive Big Library Read will run Oct. 13-28, when one title is chosen to be available for unlimited checkout—which means that everybody, everywhere may read the same digital book simultaneously. Consider it a reading party! The selection for this event is the Young Adult title, Anatomy of a Misfit by Andrea Portes, and is available as an e-book or downloadable audiobook via the STLS Digital Catalog. Just use your library card to check it out at starcat.stls.org, or call us for assistance.

Beginning this month, we will supply reading materials to Meals On Wheels participants in the Alfred-Almond area, and to the Senior Lunch site at the Union University Church Center in Alfred. Books (including large print), audiobooks, magazines, etc. will be available on a bi-weekly basis to those who may not otherwise be able to visit our library. In a joint effort, the Alfred Box of Books will supply e-readers and digital resource training. This project is supported by outreach funds awarded by the Southern Tier Library System's Co-ordinated Outreach Services Advisory Council.

Oct.'s schedule:

10/13-28: Overdrive Big Library Read, Anatomy of a Misfit.
10/14, 6:30 pm: 20th Century Club Meeting: Crafts!
10/16, 6-7 pm: I Geek Speaker Series: Mary Jane Essex, "Write Your Story."

AU WILD offers Pony to Pond Hike Oct. 5

ALFRED—Alfred University's (AU) Wilderness Immersion, Learning, Discovery (WILD) About Alfred organization will host a community Pony to Pond Hike Sunday, Oct. 5. This seven-mile hike replaces previous years' Horse to Holler Hike.

The event will begin at AU's Bromeley-Daggett Equestrian Center located at the Maris Cuneo Equine Park, Foster Lake Road, and wander through the sylvan hills surrounding Alfred, ending at Foster Lake where participants will find food and music.

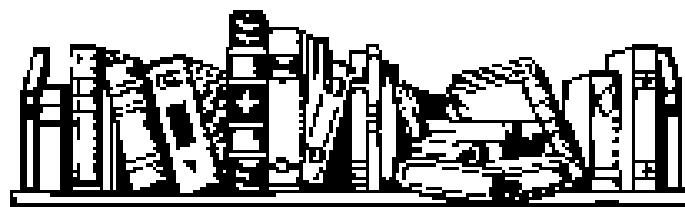

The hike sets off at 10 a.m.; check-in begins at 9 a.m. Shuttles will run from 8:45 to 9:45a.m. from AU's Powell Campus Center to the Equestrian Center and return back from Foster Lake to Powell Campus Center between 1 and 4 p.m.

Registration is required: $10 for all college and local students, $20 for community members. To register for the hike, please visit www.alfred.edu/students/wild and follow the link for Pony to Pond.

WILD was formed in spring 2011 to help students and faculty make the most of Alfred's unique wilderness setting in Western New York. The group sponsors and organizes events such as Friday Night Hikes, Zombie Runs, and trips to Alfred State's rock climbing wall to encourage members of the Alfred community to get outdoors and stay active.

NOTES from the BOX OF BOOKS

By ELIZA ORDWAY

Box of Books Library Director

In partnership with the Introduction to Human Services class from Alfred State College, the Box of Books library has offered to act as a drop off point for a food collection for the Alfred/Almond area food pantry. You can drop off canned items and other non-perishables to the Box of Books during their hours open. We will be collecting starting on October 1st until Thanksgiving

Following is a list of items that the food pantry really needs:

- Cereal
- Any kind of canned fruit
- Any kind of pastas and rice
- Other canned meats
- Corn
- Pork and beans
- Mac and cheese
- Specialty items: jams and jelly, cake mixes, sugar, flour, boxed meals, gelatin, cookies, crackers, etc. (anything not in the main food groups.)
- Peanut butter
- Any kind of soup
- Tuna fish
- Cream corn
- Baked beans
- Canned pastas (spaghetti o's etc)
- Macaroni

October is shaping up to be a very busy month here at the Box of Books. Our annual appeal letter will be coming in the next couple weeks. We have taken a new approach and hope that it is a successful change for us.

Events coming up:

October 2nd at 4:30 - BoB's OWLS continue the journey through the book Hoot by Carl Hiaasen discussing through chapter ten and we will be making birds nest treats!

Pigskin Picks Football Contest

Barb Welch wins Week Four

We went from a perfect entry in Week Three to some tough pickin's in Pigskin Picks in Week Four. Barb Welch of Arkport, with 5 misses, edged Floyd Patrick Farley of Hornell with 6 misses and Jessica Stephens of Hornell with 7 misses to take Week Four honors.

Other contestants included Nelson Snyder of Alfred Station, Robert Grogan of Canisteo and Chris Yarnal of Almond, each with 8 misses; Roland Stephens III of Hornell and Jay Lawrence of Fulton each with 9 misses, with five other contestants missing half of the 20 games.

It's easy to participate! Enter your guesses of winners of 10 college and 10 pro football games (found in the ads of our sponsors on these pages) and predict the score of the Monday Night Football game as the tiebreaker in the form below. Enter today! Winners are announced each week right here on this page. Don't forget to guess the score for the tiebreaker, the NFL's Monday Night Football game as it many times takes the tiebreaker to declare a champion. The entry form below is due by 5 p.m. Friday, OCT. 10. Send entries to: Pigskin Picks, PO Box 811, Alfred, NY 14802 or take to the ALFRED SUN mailbox on the porch of the home office located at 764 Route 244 in Tinkertown. ## Bethesda Foundation board members visit Alfred State simulation labs

ALFRED—Nine members of the Bethesda Foundation visited Alfred State Thursday to get a first-hand look at one of the Nursing department's high-fidelity simulation labs in the Physical and Health Sciences building.

The group watched as senior nursing students Chelsea Goodwill, of Falconer, N.Y., and Jessica Matava, of Ontario, N.Y., administered care to a SimMan 3G® manikin, which simulates an actual hospital patient.

Phil Loree, president of the Bethesda Foundation, said of the simulation, "I think it's great. The ability to use a manikin like that is fantastic."

Barbara Arnault, a member of the foundation, echoed Loree's statements, saying, "It's wonderful. We are so glad we're able to make contributions that help out with these very expensive projects."

The Bethesda Foundation, according to its website, is a non-profit charitable organization devoted to the funding and support of health-related projects and scholarships in the Hornell area. The foundation provides roughly $15,000 a year for numerous scholarships at Alfred State, typically for nursing students from Allegany, Steuben, or Livingston counties.

"Alfred State appreciates the Bethesda Foundation and its ongoing scholarship support to nursing students in these three counties," said Dr. Lisa Harmon, chair of the Nursing department.

Alfred State 'military friendly school'

ALFRED—Alfred State announces that Victory Media has named the college to its Military Friendly® Schools list for 2015.

Victory Media, originator of the Military Friendly® group of education and career resources for veterans, announced the list on its website, MilitaryFriendly.com, this week. The list includes institutions that exhibit leading practices to support military students.

This is the fifth consecutive year Alfred State has been designated a military-friendly school.

"We are most grateful to the veterans who have served our country," said Alfred State President Dr. Skip Sullivan. "We are honored to be designated a 'military-friendly' college. Veterans will always be welcomed as part of the Alfred State family."

The designation process includes extensive research and a data-driven survey of schools nationwide approved for post-9/11 GI Bill funding. The survey considers a number of factors, including on-campus military support, credit acceptance, tuition assistance, spouse and dependent benefits, and flexible scheduling and course completion requirements.

Alfred State College selected as NASPA 'Lead Institution'

ALFRED—Alfred State has been selected to participate in a national initiative on civic learning and democratic engagement. The college has been named one of nearly 100 colleges and universities in the nation as a Lead Institution by NASPA – Student Affairs Administrators in Higher Education, the leading voice for the student affairs profession.

As a participating institution in NASPA's initiative, Alfred State will continue to encourage students' civic development through thoughtful community partnerships, engaging leadership opportunities, and democratic participation.

"Alfred State is pleased to be selected to participate in NASPA's network of institutions dedicated to developing students' sense of civic identity as a core value of higher education," said Jonathan Hilsher, director of the Center for Civic Engagement at Alfred State. "Being recognized as a national leader in this field is a reflection of the quality of our current efforts and our collective commitment to inspiring students to demonstrate leadership through civic engagement."

By combining real-world learning situations with civic engagement opportunities, Alfred State students make significant contributions to communities around the world and are frequently among the first to lend their skills and knowledge to those in need, including communities devastated by Super Storm Sandy and Haitian communities recovering from the 2010 earthquake. Last year, Alfred State students contributed nearly 60,000 hours of service, civic leadership, and workforce-ready knowledge to communities in need.

To learn more about NASPA's Lead Initiative and view a complete listing of participating institutions, please visit the NASPA website at: <http://www.naspa.org/rpi/lead-initiative>.

The Many Purposes, Styles of Garden Fences

There are many aspects to the garden besides plants. In the following articles, we will go over them. Why some are necessary, others just for pleasure. Let us begin with fences.

In ancient Persia the word for heaven was paradise which also meant an enclosed garden. American garden traditions come mainly from two sources: The orient via England the Islamic via North Africa, Spain, and the American Southwest.

Gardens in the middle east were always enclosed, usually with walls of mud brick or hedges of cactus as in gaga. This was necessary to keep the wind at bay, the blowing sand and dogs out, as well as for privacy. The wall separated God's natural landscape from the one organized by man.

The orient tended to use evergreen hedges and wood. The English followed suit adding the ingenious ha-ha (look it up!) as they wished not to mar their picturesque view with a fence.

In 19th century America with our ideas of liberty and equality, we did not much go in for fences. Some neighborhoods actually ban them.

But as most of us live in an increasingly crowded world, fencing has become more popular. Its function is to define external boundaries (remember Robert Frost: "Good fences make good neighbors.") as well as divide the garden into rooms or provide a backup.

Depending on where your garden and the style of your garden, different types come to mind: the white picket fences recalls small town and New England.

The split rail is more western. A suburban needs a board and batten or evergreen hedge. The sturdy chain link of modern times keeps out most pests including the neighbor's kids!

Fences are expensive so you need to think through its purpose as well as how it will look. Will it blend in with your house, garden style and surroundings? A formal garden calls for hedges. The cottage garden a picket fence, a Japanese garden hedge of rhododendron, a desert garden needs an adobe wall.

There are several books in your libraries dealing with fences: lots of pictures and detailed instructions on how to. Have fun.

Woodshed Prophets will perform

WELLSVILLE—The Woodshed Prophets will perform at 8 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 11 at the Wellsville Creative Arts Center. Advanced tickets are $12, $14 at door. Members save an additional $2. Tickets may be purchased online at www.WellsvilleCreativeArts-Center.com or at the Art Center Coffee House. For more information visit the website or call (585) 593-3000.

The Woodshed Prophets is an Americana (acoustic folk rock) band formed near Binghamton, New York in 2009. The group consists of Rob Stachyra (guitar, vocals), Dan Hardy (guitar, vocals), Ed Gliha (bass, vocals), and drummer Dan Dunham, aka Bird-Dog. These members came together from regional upstate New York groups such as Fetish Lane and Dirt Farm. Influences include Jerry Jeff Walker, Wilco, Tom Petty, Bruce Springsteen, Willie Nelson, Guy Clark, Dick Dale & the Deltones.

The Woodshed Prophets are the original purveyors of "Power-Twang!!!" Power-Twang is a high-energy mixture of rock and country music, designed to excite the ear drums and make the feet move.

They have been praised for their tight harmonies, high energy and synthesis of music styles ranging from rock and country to blues and power-pop, with the occasional hint of Tex-Mex. In 2013 the Prophets released their second studio album, "Nowhere But Down," recorded with acclaimed indie producer Brad Morrison (Spiral Jetty, The Push Stars, The Sugarcubes, Graham Parker).

Homecoming Concert set at Houghton College

HOUGHTON—The Greatbatch School of Music presents Homecoming Concert: Collage 2014 at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 3 in Wesley Chapel. This event is free and open to the public.

Student ensembles and faculty performers will be featured in a one-hour continuous musical experience without pause. Guests are invited to enjoy music from a variety of styles and composers.

Director of instrumental activities, Justin Davis, said, "In celebration of the Greatbatch School of Music's heralded past and growing accomplishments now and in the future, the faculty and students offer this concert as a gift to the local community."

The talent of veteran faculty: Judy Congdon, Kelley Hijleh, Sharon Johnson and Horne/Blanchard Endowed professor of music, William Newbrough, will be featured along with new music faculty: Sarah Luebke, Sara Rupe, Roy Smith, Armenio Suzano and Steve Thomas.

The concert will end with a combined finale of the Houghton College Choral Union and Houghton College Instrumental Department performing the last few minutes of Mahler's "Resurrection" Symphony #2.

Post finale, Houghton alumni from past ensembles will join with current members in the traditional pieces of "Hymnsong of Philip Bliss" and "Give Me Jesus."

"This is the inaugural concert of its kind at Houghton College, and the Greatbatch School of Music is excited to perform for all our guests at Homecoming," said Davis.

FIFTY YEARS AGO, OCTOBER 1, 1964

Charles W. Cameron of Alfred Station has received the Scholes Scholarship for outstanding work during the '63-'64 academic year as a freshman at State University of New York College of Ceramics at Alfred University...

Daniel A. Bennett Jr. has completed his boot training at Great Lakes Naval Training Station. On liberty for the past two weeks, Bennett, a Corpsman Apprentice has now returned to the training station for his special training in the Hospital Corps. Bennett is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Daniel A. Bennett of Alfred.

A Western New York special and rare book collection will be housed in the new library, now under construction at the State University Agricultural and Technical Institute here. A special room in the library has been allotted for the collection, according to Roland D. Hale, chairman of the library committee. The committee is searching for area residents who have books, periodicals, pictures or histories of Western New York which they would like to contribute or will to the Institute. The collection will include memorabilia from Steuben, Cattaraugus, Chautauqua, Erie, Monroe and Allegany Counties...

The victory-starved Saxons today are hoping that a bit of home cooking can end the famine. Suffering their seventh straight loss Saturday at Cortland, 15-0, the Alfred University football team comes home to meet Brockport State on a Saturday night contest. Perhaps one bright spot in the loss was the promise of Don Sagola, a junior from Newton, Pa., to revive the Alfred passing game. Injured as a sophomore, Sagola came off the bench Saturday to complete 8 of 20 passes for 105 yards. Included was one long one that hit Keith Gregory of Garden City for 47 yards. Actually, the Saxons never mounted a real scoring threat. They had one early chance after a fumble recovery on the Cortland 27...Alfred lost six straight in 1963 after winning its first two games. Now the losing streak has reached seven.

Alfred Station—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rossman and family of Almond, Mr. and Mrs. William Ackerman of Marcellus and Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Sick were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burdick Sunday, at a chicken barbecue...Mr. and Mrs. Harry Austin were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Burr Woodruff and family at Medina...Mrs. Virgil Dickinson was a recent caller of Mrs. Kay Nesbit and friends and relatives in the area...

Alfredians—Mr. and Mrs. William Stopper and son John have moved to their new home, "Evergreen Farm" on Sherman Road...Mr. and Mrs. William Evans Jr. and son "Bill" of Flemington, N.J. were guests of the local William Evans family for the weekend...Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Kenyon and house guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Cressy of Toronto, Canada, were luncheon guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Kenyon...Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Hitchcock were Saturday over-night guests of their son Alan, and family, at their new home in Snyder...Dr. and Mrs. Donald Polan and family of Seneca Falls were Sunday evening guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L.R. Polan...Mrs. Louise Kline, having sold her property in Belmont, is now making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Roland Hale and family...

Homeroom representatives for the Alfred-Almond Parent Teacher Association were honored at a tea Thursday afternoon in the cafeteria of the school. John Paul of Almond, second vice president, was in charge of the event...Tea and cookies were served from a table decorated with fall flowers. Miss Melrose Lilly, cafeteria manager, assisted Paul. Other committee members included Mrs. Robert Lewis, president; Mrs. Clyde Bracken, Mrs. John Palmer, Mrs. Carl Rigby, Mrs. J.L. Kernan, Mrs. William Specia; and Mrs. John Paul...

Construction of a major addition to Jones Memorial Hospital in Wellsville, is scheduled to begin next summer, it was announced recently by Theodore McClure, chairman of the board of managers. The addition will consist of a third floor over the central portion of the present building and an adjoining three-story structure extending to the rear of the present building...

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO, OCTOBER 5, 1989

Concern for a perceived spilling-over of village growth into the Town of Alfred dominated Monday's meeting of the Alfred Twenty-First Century Group held at the Alfred Station S.D.B. Church. During a session in which residents were asked to cite their concerns about future development, an audience member said he heard a rumor that fraternities might move into Alfred Station. Though it was not elaborated, the rumor may have started after the Alfred State College fraternity aKappa

Sigma Epsilon rented a trailer in Alfred Station. KSE, known as the "floating fraternity," does not have a permanent house in the village; unlike Alfred University Greeks, the group cannot build a home on campus land. Bob Granger, vice-president for administration at Alfred State, tried to reassure residents at the meeting that the college would not try to "export" its fraternities as a solution to the land shortage in the village. But, he said, "We just don't have the authority over students we had 30 years ago..."

After a brief public hearing Tuesday night the Alfred Village Board passed a law to ban parking on front lawns of two-or-more family properties...

(Photo) The Alfred State College Association of Women welcomed new members Sept. 14 at its annual dinner and tea. New members welcomed include Sandy Perkins, Ann Marie Curle, Tina DiRocco, Joanne Moore, Ervella Crandall, Nadine Shardlow, Lyla Beth Hunter, Lisa Porter, Angela Bennett, Laura Giglio and Deborah Clark.

Lucinda Ann Snyder and Masoud Faraj Torkaman were united in marriage Saturday, Sept. 16, 1989 at the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church. Rev. Melvin F. Stephan performed the double ring ceremony and candle ceremony. Amanda Snyder, mother of the bride, was pianist. Given in marriage by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson W. Snyder of Randolph Road, Alfred, the bride wore a white "feather glo" satin gown with a portrait neckline, beaded silk venic bodice and elbow length sleeves with center shirring and a basque waist. Her semi-cathedral train, portrait neckline, short sleeves with center shirring and a bow on the lower back. The groom is the son of Mrs. Ghadan Matz of Augusta, GA and Abdulah Faraj Torkaman of Tehran, Iran...

Cobra baskets with magenta carnations, ferns with baby's breath and white bows decorated the Alfred Seventh Day Baptist Church for the Sept. 2, 1989 wedding united Rachael Carine Amato and Philip Baldo III. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Amato of 40 S. Main St., Alfred. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Baldo Jr. of 38 O'Dell Road, Mansfield, PA. Pastor Walter Caldwell performed the double ring ceremony. Donna Ryan of Almond was organist...

Adventure of the nails—(By Joan Lindeman) Katie and Mary, my daughters, came up with this next adventure. They had traveled all the way from Colorado and Georgia to help celebrate my granddaughter Brigit McCormick's wedding. They, of course, knew the rules for my adventures—something never tried before like riding in an 18-wheeler or skinny dipping in our pool. So they assured me it was a new experience for me, and having already made an appointment I must agree to it. It seemed easier to go along with their plan than to start World War III during their vacations. Trouble was they hadn't told me what they had planned for me to undergo. So off we went to Main Street in Hornell, parked and entered New Dimensions Salon and Day Spa...we were taken to a room with soft easy chairs. No plastic covered barber chairs facing huge mirrors for us. We were in a salon for sure. Lots of herbal soaking, massaging, filing and finally the many layers of polishing. I didn't even get to choose my colors of nail polish as the girls were just overcome with power...It was a wonderful wedding and dinner plus a very happy joyous celebration afterwards. I even got to lead a Congo line, much to my surprise. But of one thing I am completely sure. Next time my daughters offer me a surprise adventure I'll think seriously of excusing myself due to age or something. But that might completely end the adventurous side of my life. God forbid!!

TENTH AVENUE NORTH, a multi-award winning Christian rock group, will be in concert at 8 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 4 at Houghton College's new Kerr-Pegula Field House.

Tenth Avenue North offers concert at new Kerr-Pegula Field House

HOUGHTON—Houghton College welcomes multi-award winning Christian rock group Tenth Avenue North to campus Saturday, October 4, at 8 p.m., with special guest Matt Maher.

The Kerr-Pegula Field House, part of Houghton's new $23 million premier facility, will host the inaugural concert event with the capacity to hold upward of 6,000 guests. Doors open at 7 p.m., show will begin at 8 p.m. Students and the general public can purchase tickets now at iTickets.com. For more info, visit www.houghton.edu/tenthavenorth.

Since their 2008 debut album, Over and Underneath, Tenth Avenue North has become one of the Christian music industry's most successful groups, saturating Christian radio with memorable songs such as By Your Side, a number one single that was Billboard Magazine's No. 3 overall Christian song for the decade.

The band won New Artist of the Year in 2009 at the 40th Annual Gospel Music Association (GMA) Dove Awards, and in 2010 By Your Side was named GMA Song of the Year.

With their first two albums, Tenth Avenue North managed to fuse truth and music in a potent blend that left listeners engaged, entertained and inspired. The 2010 album, The Light Meets the Dark, hit the No. 1 Christian Album chart position at both iTunes and AmazonMP3, reaching Top 5 on iTunes' overall chart.

Tenth Avenue North currently holds the No. 11 spot on Billboard's top Christian Airplay.

Special guest and two-time Grammy nominee, Matt Maher, is known for such hits as Hold Us Together, Your Grace Is Enough, Christ Is Risen and Turn Around. Maher has also just released his newest album, All The People Said Amen, which has quickly received significant airplay and has remained on the Billboard Christian music chart for 9 weeks.

Gas prices rise a bit, average $3.56/gal.

Average retail gasoline prices in Rochester have risen 0.3 cents per gallon in the past week, averaging $3.56/g yesterday, according to GasBuddy's daily survey of 319 gas outlets in Rochester. This compares with the national average that has increased 1.2 cents per gallon in the last week to $3.34/g, according to gasoline price website GasBuddy.com.

Including the change in gas prices in Rochester during the past week, prices yesterday were 18.5 cents per gallon lower than the same day one year ago and are 5.8 cents per gallon lower than a month ago.

ASC alumni, students call it 'best Homecoming ever'

ALFRED—With sunny skies, several new events, and plenty of fun activities for everyone, it's no wonder Alfred State's Homecoming/Family Weekend was so well attended this year. In fact, according to Spencer Peavey, senior director of student engagement at Alfred State, some alumni, students, and families were calling this the "best Homecoming ever."

"The student responses were amazing," Peavey said. "The attendance rates, from the dodgeball games to the comedian and magician, were higher than ever."

Peavey said the nice weather "absolutely" impacted attendance for Homecoming/Family Weekend, which took place from Thursday through Sunday. He said while he has no way of estimating the total number of visitors because the majority of people at the events were students, he saw more alumni around this past weekend than he has in years.

"Alfred's Got Talent, which continues to be the biggest event outside of the football game, reached a record high for attendance at 500 students, family members, and alumni," Peavey said.

New to this year's Homecoming/Family Weekend were a Greek chili contest, Game Day Live interviews, a classic car contest, a student car show, and a family zone with inflatables and carnival games. The weekend also included several fundraisers, such as the fourth annual Race for a Cure 5K run/walk, which 41 people attended, and raffle baskets during the tailgating event, which raised more than $2,500 toward charities and student initiatives.

A Soup-icious Workshop

Homemade soups from your garden

BELMONT—A "Soup-icious Workshop: Homemade Soups From Your Vegetable Garden" will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 25 at the Allegany County Cornell Cooperative Extension Office in Belmont. There's frost on the pumpkin and the days are growing shorter. What better way to ward off that Fall chill than with a bowl of hot homemade soup? Let the Master Gardeners from Cornell University Cooperative Extension show you how to make delicious soups from the vegetables and herbs grown in their home gardens.

Debbie MacCrea will be creating borscht, which features beets, beef, cabbage, sour cream and dill.

Brenda Starr will show you how to prepare New England fish chowder with potatoes, onions, fish fillets, cream, carrots, and an array of homegrown herbs in a delicious fish stock.

David Shaut and David

Chamberlain will be cooking a squash soup with (yes, you guessed it) squash, leeks, and a variety of spices. Mary Lu Wells will teach you how to create a Mexican red bean soup with beans, barley, tomatoes, onions, chicken broth, and herbs.

Terry Haas will demonstrate the art of making a soup stock out of chicken, the basis of many a great soup.

Following the demonstrations, you will be able to sample all the flavorful soups with homemade breads provided by Carol Sitarski and Sheri Gregory. So, bring an apron and enjoy another "Experience in the Kitchen"

Saxon men's soccer team edges Naz, 5-4

Capitan-Carro gets hat trick, E8 offensive honors

ALFRED—Ivan Capitan-Carro (Baynot, Spain) netted a hat trick to lead the Alfred University men's soccer team (5-4-0, Empire 8 1-1) to a 5-4 victory over Empire 8 foe Nazareth Saturday night at Yunevich Stadium.

Capitan-Carro, a senior midfielder, as a result of his hat trick was named Empire 8 Conference Offensive Player of the Week. Capitan-Carro netted two late goals to help AU overcome a 4-3 Nazareth lead.

The Saxons set the tone for the rest of the game in the first half putting up two goals early. The first came in the 20th minute when Richard Lander (Narrowsburg/Sullivan West) ripped a hard shot into the box that went off the chest of a Nazareth defender into the goal. Nearly ten minutes later Capitan-Carro came into the box and sent a curling cross body shot into the upper right hand ninety of the net, putting the Saxons up 2-0.

Then came the Golden Flyers with a late goal in the 41st minute by Ramez Al-Hebshi putting pressure on the Saxons going into the half.

However, the Saxons increased their lead in the opening minutes of the second half when Lander crushed a free kick low and hard between the keeper's legs, giving the Saxons what they would believe to be an insurance goal.

Over the course of the next 15 minutes Nazareth scored three times to take the lead 4-3, with the last goal coming in the 73rd minute. At this point, the Golden Flyers had the lead and momentum, but the Saxons did not despair.

Finally the Saxons were able to put a couple scoring chances together, the first coming in the 82nd minute when Jeff Thomas (Canandaigua) wrapped a ball from the corner into the middle of the box which found Capitan-Carro who corralled the ball with a masterful tap, and sent a screamer past the diving Naz keeper, Diego Abreu deadlocking the game at 4-4.

Just when the game was assumed to be over, Lander came to the eighteen again and sent a low hard ball that bounced out of Abreu's hands right at the feet of Capitan-Carro who sealed the victory with a single flick of his toe.

Freshman Chris Gutierrez (Holbrook/Sachem East) was between the pipes for the Saxons and had one save. Neither team held an advantage in corner kicks with each taking four.

Bombers rally, hand Saxons first defeat, 17-6

Visiting Ithaca rallied from a 6-0 halftime deficit, holding the Alfred Saxons scoreless after intermission, en route to a 17-6 win over AU in a key Empire 8 Conference football contest Saturday afternoon at Yunevich Stadium.

Alfred (3-1, 1-1 Empire 8) opened the scoring on its second drive of the opening quarter, driving 89 yards on 13 plays after stopping Ithaca on a fourth-and-one try at the AU 11. Sophomore quarterback Tyler Johnson (East Syracuse-Minoa) connected with sophomore wide receiver Brendan Buisch (Hornell) for a six-yard TD pass to cap the 6:51 drive. The extra point missed and AU led 6-0 with 38 seconds left in the first.

The remainder of the first half was scoreless, but Ithaca scored on its first two possessions of the third quarter to take a 10-6 lead. Quarterback Tom Dempsey hit wideout Vito Boffoli with an 18-yard scoring pass to give Ithaca a 7-6 lead with 12:57 left in the third.

The Bombers got the ball back on Alfred's next drive, when Johnson was intercepted at the Saxon 45-yard line. Ithaca drove to the AU 5-yard line before Garrett Nicholson booted a 22-yard field goal to put the Bombers up 10-6 with 6:34 left in the third.

AU drove to the Ithaca 12-yard line on the Saxons' ensuing possession before turning the ball over on downs. Two possessions later, Ithaca closed out the scoring by driving 51 yards on four plays after an AU punt, with Dempsey connecting with Boffoli from 11 yards out with 11:14 left in regulation.

Johnson finished 20 of 42 for 209 yards a touchdown and two interceptions. Buisch caught five passes for 68 yards and a touchdown, his seventh of the year. Senior wideout Bobby Broddus (Liverpool) caught six passes for 56 yards and senior tight end Isaiah Young (Groton) caught four passes for 42 yards.

Johnson ran for a game-high 50 yards on 17 carries and freshman tailback Sammy Davis Jr. (Union Endicott) had 40 yards on six carries.

Dempsey threw for 219 yards and two TDs and Boffoli finished with eight catches for 102 yards. Tailback Tristan Brown had a team-high 39 rushing yards on 15 carries.

Senior linebacker Davis Turner (South Glens Falls) had 11 tackles (two for loss) to lead the Saxon defense. Senior linebacker Justin Liberta (Hamburg/Frontier) and junior free safety Michael Berardi (Wellsville) each had 11 stops for AU and senior cornerback Mike Perkins (Rochester/East) had four tackles and two pass breakups.

Linebacker Kenneth Bradley had 10 tackles (one for loss) and defensive back Sam Carney had five tackles and an interception to lead the Ithaca defense. Tackle Schanyder Termidor had two sacks and linebacker Chris Williams had an interception.

AU is in action Saturday, Oct. 4 at 1 p.m. at Empire 8 foe Hartwick at Wright Stadium in Oneonta.

Women's soccer battles Hartwick in 1-0 loss

The Saxons fell to the Hartwick Hawks in a close 1-0 game Saturday afternoon. AU came out in the early going of the game looking to control the ball putting multiple shots on goal, but were denied. Following the offensive play by the Saxons, the Hawks maintained possession of the ball for a majority of the first half putting six shots on goal.

The lone goal of the game came late in the first half from a Hartwick corner that was headed past sophomore keeper Sammy Jo Shanahan (Valley Stream South) by the Hawk's Casey Boucher.

The second half was a defensive affair, with the Saxons refusing to concede an insurance goal to the Hawks. Shanahan had six saves in the second half behind the Saxons defense. She had 11 saves for the game. Shanahan is currently leading the Empire 8 in saves with 83.

The Saxons (3-5-1, Empire 8 0-2-0) hit the soccer pitch again Sept. 30 at D'Youville College and after an Oct. 4 game at Lebanon Valley, will host Keuka College for an 8 p.m. game at Yunevich Stadium Tuesday, Oct. 7.

Alfred State women's soccer 8-0-1 in September games

Women's Soccer: 8-2-1, #4 in USCAA Poll

The Lady Pioneers outscored their opponents 23-0 as they won three matches this past week, 4-0 over Bryant & Stratton, 12-0 over Penn State Beaver, and 7-0 over Penn State Greater Allegheny. Alfred State finishes September with a 8-0-1 record.

Kali Muhleisen (Alfred Almond) netted six goals this past week while McKenzie Miller (Belfast) had four goals and three assists. Kaitlyn Huyler (Jasper Troupsburg) had three goals and four assists while Chelsea Dunn (Newfane), Haley Vosburg (Fillmore), and Keri Teufel (Sachem) each had two goals and an assist.

Morgan Scheiner (Spencerport) recorded three saves in two shutouts while Allison Danielak (Brockport) recorded a shutout.

Volleyball: 15-2, #3 in USCAA Poll

The Lady Pioneers extended their winning streak to a dozen with five more victories. The Lady Pioneers defeated Elmira 3-0 and then won all four of their matches at the SUNYIT Tournament, 3-0 over SUNYIT, 3-1 over Utica, 3-1 over Elmira, 3-0 over SUNYIT.

Kay Pflughardt (Tioga) recorded 73 kills and was credited with 48 digs, Lera Braun (Waterloo) had 170 assists, Jess Ramsey (Tioga) had 75 digs, Madison Szpaicher (Ellicottville) chipped in 25 kills and 44 digs while Bryanna Godfrey (Tioga) had 28 kills and 32 digs.

The Lady Pioneers finished September with a 13-0 record.

Football: 0-4

Derek McAddo intercepted a pass and returned it 33-yards with 1:47 remaining in the 3rd quarter to lift Castleton State to a 36-23 victory over Alfred State. The Spartans trailed 23-19 at the time of the interception and scored the contests final 17 points.

Kevin Alberque got Castleton on the board on their first drive when he took a reverse 38-yards for a score to cap the Spartans 7-play 62-yard opening drive. The PAT was missed.

Tavon Moore (Syracuse/Bishop Grimes) caught a 44-yard touchdown pass from Jake Bahantka (Elmira Heights/Thomas Edison) with 9:04 remaining in the 2nd quarter to tie it up. The TD pass was the first of Bahantka's career. The PAT was blocked.

After the Spartans pinned Alfred State on their own one yard line, Rasheed Williams (Swedesboro, NJ) set a school record with a 99-yard run on the first play to give the Pioneers a 13-6 lead.

Castleton answered right back with their own big play as Alberque caught a 63-yard touchdown pass from Tyler Higley 16 seconds later to tie it back up.

Noah Weinman (Genesee Valley) gave Alfred State the lead heading into half when he connected on his first career field goal from 25-yards out with 55 seconds remaining.

Higley opened up the 2nd half with a 21-yard scoring pass to Makai Hawkins to give Castleton back the lead, 16-13.

Williams scored his second touchdown of the day and sixth of the season just over four minutes later when he went around the corner and scored from 25-yards out.

After a three and out by the Spartans, Alfred got the ball back but on a 3rd and 5 play, McAdoo stepped in front of the Pioneer receiver and sailed into the endzone for what would prove to be the winning score.

Bobby Lineberger made it 29-23 after connecting on a 30-yard field goal. The ensuing kickoff was fumbled and the Spartans capitalized with a 13-yard pass play from Higley to Tyler Combs to add to their lead.

The Pioneers couldn't get anything going on the offensive side and turned the ball over on downs on their final two possessions.

Williams continued his unbelievable season with 260 yards rushing on 26 carries. Bahantka finished 17 for 34 for 212 yards, Erik Simmons (Elmira Free) caught six passes for 96 yards, and Josh Ashley (Brooklyn/Grand Street Campus) had six catches for 52 yards.

Nick DePofi (Union Endicott) led the defense with 11 tackles while Edward Harrell (Syracuse/West Genesee) and Calvin Felker (Clyde Savannah) each had eight.

Men's Soccer: 4-6

The Pioneers were 2-1 this past week. They defeated Penn State Beaver 4-2 and Penn State Greater Allegheny 4-0 but fell 3-0 to SUNY Canton.

Brandon Holley (Livonia) led the Pioneers with three goals this week including two vs. Greater Allegheny. Mitchell Porter (Alfred Almond), Kory Zimmer (Livonia), Nick Peraino (Genesee), Antonio Fleming (Floral Park), and Tyler Landries (Genesee Valley) also scored this week while CJ Reynolds (East Rochester) had two assists.

Dalton Cady (Jasper Troupsburg) picked up his first collegiate victory in net vs. Beaver while Nickolas Weir (Harrisville) earned the victory over Greater Allegheny.

Cross Country:

The cross country team competed vs. Pioneer alumni in a non-scoring exhibition during Homecoming 2014. Keith Johnson (Webster Thomas) broke the 5k course record with a time of 17:22.

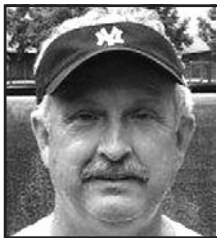

The Pioneers have this coming weekend off before return to action on Oct. 11th.

HITS AND MISSES:

The Alfred Saxons (3-1) football team dropped their first game of the season as they fell to the visiting Bombers of Ithaca College, 17-6 in a key Empire Eight Conference collision at Merrill Field in Yunevich Stadium. Ithaca remains undefeated in the early going in the E8 standings along with favorite SJ Fisher and a surprising Utica Pioneer squad. The Saxons opened the fall slate of games with wins over Husson, RPI and a week ago at Buffalo State. The Saxons went up 6-0 but couldn't muster any offense after that on a spectacular day in Alfred ... weather-wise! Next up for Coach Rankl's troops is a visit to Oneonta to take on the Hartwick Hawks who were "off" this past week. Alfred University should be 4-1 at their mid-season break in the schedule.

In Division III action of note elsewhere, it was SJ Fisher pound-ing semi-hapless Frostburg State by a 48-7 tally in Maryland. Frostburg is probably quite anxious to leave the E8 football slate behind after this season! Utica (4-0) surprised Brockport, 42-28 and Salisbury fell at Buffalo State, 32-28 in what has to be considered an upset although the "wind tunnel" could've been brutal on the Bengals home turf this past Saturday. Utica is undefeated but their next five games are against: Ithaca-Salisbury-SJ Fisher-Buffalo State-Alfred. Hello (4-5)! And Hobart pounded Merchant Marine in the weak Liberty League, 42-7. Nice program, not much of a conference anymore. And former E8 member Springfield "nipped" the University of Rochester, 63-27. The Pride were up, 42-0 at the half and collected 532-yards of offense from their ground attack. Whew.

Shifting to big-time college football and going with a "Final Four" this week of: Oregon, Alabama, Auburn and Oklahoma. Next in line would be Texas A&M and Florida State plus Georgia lurking in the wings.

Notre Dame blitzed a weak Syracuse team, 31-15 at MetLife Stadium in NJ as the Irish remain undefeated with a big game against Stanford this Saturday. Don't think the Irish are one of the best teams in the land but a win over Stanford would put them in good position to grab a solid bowl berth later on.

While on my recent (richly deserved) vacation I happened to pick up a Pittsburgh paper while staying in the "wilds of Pennsylvania" and there was an article in there about the Pitt Panthers and how they should be ready to ... make their move! Final this week: Akron - 21, Pitt - 10. Zipped by Akron?

And the Buffalo Bills added a new chapter in their ongoing futility as they lost to the Houston Texans with ex-QB, Ryan Fitzpatrick at the helm, 23-17. The Bills (2-2) are going nowhere with EJ Manuel as their signal-caller! Watched a little of this game on Sunday, can't watch a lot of the Bills with Manuel as the QB, and this game was there for the taking. The Texans aren't exactly a juggernaut with Fitzpatrick as their QB.

Why is the NFL so intent on having a game per season in London? And why on earth would they send over the sad Oakland Raiders if they wanted to promote football and the NFL? The once-vaunted Raiders are terrible and this new front office, post Al Davis, isn't doing any better than when Davis was in charge and most likely senile. Easily the worst team in the NFL.

Turning to soccer, as Stephen Baker and his Harrington (Philly) boys JV team is at 5-4-1 on the season as the ex-McQuaid/UPenn soccer player has a busy schedule on his own plate. Baker coaches the JV team, plus a U12 girls team and I think he also coaches a U8 boys academy squad. In addition to weekends spent as a referee and, oh yes, he has a full-time job as well. Yikes.

The Alfred-Almond boys soccer team is cruising along at (10-0-1) in D1 action as they are currently the top seed with sectionals looming. The Eagles are followed, in order by: Webster Christian, HAC and the ever-present Fillmore Eagles.

The Andover Panthers (9-0-0) boys soccer team is right there with the A-A team as they are enjoying an excellent campaign as well in the D2 ranks. Andover is currently the top seed in their bracket with Mount Morris, Whitesville and Belfast next in line. Lets see, an undefeated A-A team wins their sectional tourney and an undefeated Andover squad wins their sectional bracket, then meet in a state qualifier for the "D" representative!

Coach Anne Gaisser Holmok's (A-A) women's soccer squad at Alfred State College had an awesome three-games past, to say the least, as they outscored their opponents by a 23-0 tally. Yes ... 23-0! In soccer. The Pioneers (8-2-1) beat Bryant & Stratton out of Buffalo, 4-0 and then pounded two teams from the Pittsburgh area this past weekend. ASC topped PS-Beaver, 12-0 as ten different players scored. That alone is pretty impressive. Holmok's team then beat PS-Greater Allegheny, 7-0. Too bad Alfred and Coach Pat O'Driscoll's PS-Behrend program didn't meet this year on the soccer field. Alfred started out the year 0-2 in the Potsdam tournament.

Coach Nate Wiley's SUNY Geneseo women's soccer team (7-2-1) split a pair of home, conference games last weekend at Saratoga Field as they were upset by Fredonia and nipped Buffalo State in OT. Both by 2-1 scores. The Knights are off to New Paltz and Oneonta this weekend. Two spots that haven't been friendly over the years to

Geneseo.

Noted area photographer Leo Nealon was in Oneonta this past Saturday to shoot the Alfred University-Hartwick women's soccer game in E8 action. Thus no trip to Alfred for us to see the Ithaca-AU football game.

Alfred-Almond grad, Todd McEvoy ... "The Big Kahuna," took in the Florida State at NC State football game this past Saturday. The Wolfpack were up early but faded in the second half. The once-legendary Kaz there?

Alfred State College x-country/track & field coach Gary "Doc" Moore (A-A) and his wife, Mary are off to Cooperstown and Otsego Lake this weekend. Taking in the Baseball Hall of Fame after lunch at the Cooperstown Diner.

Former A-A baseball player, Mark S. Gaisser participated in the World Softball Championships last week at the Field of Dreams Complex that has 12-fields all built to look like a major league park. Gaisser's team "played" at Wrigley Field, Fenway Park and three times at Yankee Stadium as they took fifth place.

Alfred-Almond grad, John Baker and his wife, Colleen were at a wedding over the weekend at the Notre Dame Cathedral. Wow! After that they were bolting for Anna Maria Island in Florida. "Guess" no cheesecake my way for awhile.

Stephen Baker had quite the "celebrity spotting" this past weekend in Philadelphia. While out on a Sunday morning run he saw this Escalade drive by, he waves thinking it was a parent of one of his players until later on he realizes it was ... Sir Charles, Charles Barkley!

"The Traveling Sports Fan" from Almond has been busy of late collecting autographs and taking in the Bills loss to the San Diego Chargers at The 'Ralph. The former A-A foul-shooting whiz got autographs at a couple of card shows from Johnny Bench, George Foster and Cesar Geronimo from The Big Red Machine, plus Jim Kiick of the Dolphins, former FSU coach Bobby Bowden, Joe Morris of the NJ Giants, Adrian Dantley of the NBA, Shane Conlan of the Bills and "Throwin Joe" Ferguson of the Bills ... Savo's all-time favorite!

Former Webster Schroeder/UVM soccer player, Jess Herbst was in Lake Placid this past weekend and climbed Mt. Marcy with others while there! Herbst who has been to Indian Lake with 3L, myself on many occasions.

The Team USA women's basketball squad is competing in the World Championships with a UConn-laden squad and is expected to bring home the gold from Turkey. Former UConn stars include Diana Taurasi and Maya Moore ... college Players of the Year, hotshot point guard Sue Bird and Tina Charles. In addition, the current leader of the national champs, Breanna Stewart (North Syracuse) is on Coach Geno Auriemma's team. Taurasi is coming off an MVP performance in the WNBA Finals as her Phoenix team won the title. No Elena Delle Donne on the USA squad though as she is sidelined with a back injury. "Almost" a UConn star!

Spotted a few NYS vanity plates here and there: GOSHARKS ... for the Rochester minor league hoop squad, 7N38TH with a Yanks logo ... McSorley's Tavern? and JIMMY ... former AU QB, Carman.

Ex-Notre Dame head football coach, Charlie Weis is out as the head honcho with the Kansas Jayhawks after a (6-22) stint. The football coaching career of Weis has dipped "a little" since leaving the New England Pats.

The MLB playoffs will be underway this week with a one-game wild card collision to start things off in each league. One game where there could hardly be a favorite. In the AL it was Oakland at Kansas City and in the NL it was San Fran at Pittsburgh. Going with the Royals and Giants. After that, in the AL it'll be Baltimore-Detroit and KC-LA Angels of Anaheim. In the NL: San Fran and Washington will tangle and in a great matchup, the Cards and Dodgers. Flip a coin all the way around with a variety of combinations. Angels and Detroit in the ALCS. Dodgers and Nats in the NLCS. An LA-LA battle in the World Series. Sticking with the Dodgers and Clayton Kershaw to win the WS but think best team right now might be the Washington Nationals.

Farewell to Derek Jeter of the Yankees as the Boston Red Sox had a great ceremony for the retiring captain this past Sunday at Fenway Park. Sadly, Jeter like Mariano Rivera the year before, went out minus a final playoff shot. Anemic bats will do that to you as well as a poor Minor League system. All the best to #2.

Dave Kingman a perfect Pigskin Picks slate last week?

Team USA loses the Ryder Cup in golf ... again. Quite frankly, the Europeans have better players at the moment, seem to want it more, seemingly are a better "team" and they can the putts when it counts! Team USA has too many players who seem to be just "there" and not overly excited about playing. Could be wrong. Love watching Bubba Watson play but not much happening in the Ryder Cup. Webb Simpson? Billy Horschel or Chris Kirk would've been better. Phil Mickelson was off all year. On and on.

Had a rather "unique" dinner out last Tuesday nite with Chels Lindahl as we went to a place called Phuket Thai in Webster. Good seeing her again! Lindahl and 3L classmates/teammates at Webster Schroeder. Lindahl just back from working in DC area and now off to South America on quite the journey.

Few things on tap this week as it is Webster Thomas-Webster Schroeder in girls soccer on Wednesday (10/1) at Schroeder Stadium and just might head over there. Two teams met in the "AA" sectional finals last year on a miserable nite in Brighton with WT winning, 1-0. Then this weekend Lauren is running in the Wineglass Marathon, Bath-Corning on Sunday morning, so will get a chance to see her some. Back-to-back weekends as we are headed up to Lake George the following, Columbus Day weekend. Still want to squeeze in a SUNY Geneseo women's soccer game again this season ... sometime.
