

Keuka College edges Lady Saxons 3-2

9/19/07

KEUKA PARK, NY The Alfred University women's soccer team lost 3-2, Wednesday evening at Keuka College. Alfred (0-6-1, 0-2 Empire 8) got on board in the sixth minute when freshman midfielder Allyson Klopp (Derby, NY/Lake Shore) scored off a corner kick. Despite holding a shooting advantage (20-19 for the contest) the Lady Saxons could not overcome three straight goals by the Storm. Nicole Bondellio tallied two first half goals to give Keuka (4-1) a 2-1 lead at intermission. The Storm added to their lead 34 minutes in to the second quarter when Molly McGuigan scored Keuka's third unanswered goal. Freshman Elizabeth Graham (Wellsville, NY/Wellsville) gave AU hope in the final minute of play when she scored off an assist from senior Yachia Winters (Cambridge, NY/Cambridge) but it proved to be too little too late. Freshman goalkeeper Meredith Ragan (Dallas, TX/Science Engineering Magnet) went the distance in goal for AU making four saves. On the other side of the field, Keuka's Kristi Chamberlain played 90 minutes and made six saves. Alfred is in action next on Saturday, Sept. 22 at home against conference opponent Utica College at 4 p.m.
