2015 Community Involvement Fair

Interested in volunteering? Alfred University and Alfred State College, together with the 2-1-1 HelpLine, will host the third annual Community Involvement Fair on Friday, Sept. 11 from 10 a.m. - 1 p.m. at the Health and Wellness Center/McLane Annex on AU's campus.

Representatives from community service organizations will be on campus to talk about volunteer opportunities with students, faculty, staff, and Alfred community members.

Contact Corey Fecteau, AU's Service Learning Coordinator, with questions at fecteau@alfred.edu. (Faculty, please consider adding the Community Involvement Fair to your syllabi as an extra-credit activity.)

YMCA Children's Theatre: 'The Frog Prince'

Friday, Aug. 14 at 6 p.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium
David A. Howe Public Library
155 N. Main St., Wellsville
585-593-3410

The play is presented by the children attending the YMCA Summer Theatre Program.

Adapted from the fairy tale by the Brothers Grimm, "The Frog Prince" combines song, dance, and comedy with the story of a young prince who has been turned into a frog by an evil witch. Add to the cast of characters a young princess whom no one can understand because she too, lives under a witch's spell, three singing frogs, a pet snake who has a taste for frogs, a solemn king, and a silly court jester.

This delightful play is directed by Jasmine Sanders with assistance by Richard Murphy. Free and open to all.
