

Alfred University's German earns preseason All-America honors from Inside Lacrosse

1/04/05

ALFRED, NY Andy German (Wayne, PA/Radnor), a sophomore midfielder on the Alfred University men's lacrosse team, has been named a preseason Division III All-American by Inside Lacrosse magazine. German was given honorable mention by Inside Lacrosse, a leading publication covering high school, college and professional lacrosse. He was the Saxons' third-leading scorer as a freshman in 2004, when he tallied 49 points on 29 goals and 20 assists, and was also third on the team in groundballs with 51. He was named Co-Rookie of the Year in the Empire 8 Conference and earned a spot on the all-conference Second Team. German is one of 10 letterwinners returning from an AU team that posted a 6-7 record in 2004. The Saxons open their 2005 season March 5 at Stevens Tech.
