BOB AND PAT Codispoti of Almond took a four-day bicycle trip along the Little Miami Scenic Trail in Southwest Ohio in August. The trail started under Interstate 70 near Springfield, Ohio and continues 78 miles to Newtown, OH, just outside of Cincinnati. The trip, despite Bob's bicycle needing repairs, was a delight and they look forward to another similar trip.

AU 2010 graduates finds jobs in their fields

ALFRED—The majority of Alfred University alumni in the class of 2010 responding to a campus survey report finding work in their undergraduate field of study.

Alfred University's McComsey Career Development Center has released the 2010 Destinations report, sharing the results of a survey of students from the class of 2010 on their current employment and graduate school enrollment.

"Despite the sluggish economy, it appears that our students continue to experience success following graduation," said Mark McFadden, director of the Career Development Center. Seventy-nine percent of the class of 2010 responded to the survey. Of the undergraduate respondents, 55 percent have found employment in their field of study, while 41 percent are attending graduate school. Seventy-eight percent of graduate students who responded reported finding employment, with 18 percent continuing into another graduate program.

"One trend that is not surprising is the number of students opting to attend graduate school," McFadden commented, noting that this number has increased 4 percent from last year and 18 percent from 1998. "No doubt the challenging economic times with no foreseeable relief in sight play an important role in the higher trend towards obtaining an advanced degree."

Only 3 percent of students who responded to the survey reported that they were currently seeking employment, a decrease of 2 percent from 2009 and below the national unemployment rate for recent college graduates, which is 4.3 percent. Geographically, New York State attracted the largest number of 2010 graduates, with just over half of respondents reporting remaining in the state, followed by Pennsylvania, North Carolina, Massachusetts, Ohio, and Washington state. Students have also relocated internationally to countries including New Zealand, Japan, Lebanon, Denmark, and Sweden.

For more information regarding the results of specific majors and other detailed information regarding the report, contact McFadden at mcfaddenm@alfred.edu or (607) 871-2164.

Alfred State hosts Economic Development Summit

ALFRED—Educators and business/industry representatives gathered recently at Alfred State College's Lake Lodge for an economic development summit: "Strengths of Academics and Business Partnerships." The event was sponsored by Alfred State (ASC), Corning Community College (CCC), and Jamestown Community College (JCC). Keynote speakers were Dr. Mark Estep, president, and Dr. Barbara Fuller, vice president of instruction, both of Southwest Virginia Community College, who addressed "The Community College: An Economic Development Partner That Can Produce a Profit." The day-long event also included remarks by representatives of each of the sponsoring colleges, as well as a panel discussion on successful business and academic partnerships. Panel members included Dr. Jeffrey Schwartz, education program manager at the Washington, DC, Metro Area of the Appalachian Regional Commission, who served as facilitator; Jan van den Blink, CEO and chairman of the Hilliard Corp., Elmira, who spoke about his company's relationship with CCC; Bill Cunningham, senior manufacturing engineer, Dresser-Rand (D-R), Wellsville, who spoke about the D-R/ASC partnership; Sandy Sleggs, assistant director of Human Resources, CUTCO Cutlery Corp., Olean, and James Stitt, president, CUTCO, who spoke about their company's partnership with JCC; and Jesse Gugino, director, Continuing Education, JCC, who also spoke about that college's relationship with CUTCO. Each panel member concurred that partnerships between academe and industry are mutually beneficial but that more can be done—must be done—to broaden the scope of the benefits to those communities they serve. Pictured here, the panel, l-r: Schwartz, van den Blink, Cunningham, Sleggs, Stitt, and Gugino.

Mock fire staged in Barresi

ALFRED--Alfred University, in conjunction with local fire companies and police, recently took a tabletop emergency drill concept one step further by conducting a full incident response simulation.

The simulation, a fire in Barresi Residence Hall, required a full response from the Alfred A.E. Crandall Hook and Ladder Co. and Ambulance Squad, with support from Alfred Station, Andover, and Almond as well as the Alfred Police Department and Alfred University Emergency Response Team.

AU student volunteers assisted as actor-victims resulting from the pretend fire. Emergency responders dealt with two fatalities, five burn and smoke inhalation victims, and 73 uninjured, displaced students.

The credibility of the student actors along with a smoke-filled Barresi Hall, courtesy of a smoke machine employed by Crandall Hook and Ladder, set the stage for a realistic response situation, said Cherise Haase, environmental health and safety manager at Alfred University who helped to coordinate the emergency drill.

This practice event also served as a test of Alfred University and local emergency service's ability to use the National Incident Management System (NIMS) organizational structure, added Haase.

The incident command post was established in front of the Franklin Olin Building within view of the incident site, with AU emergency response team members establishing their respective operation rooms in the Olin building. Liaisons relayed essential information between the multi-agency incident commanders on scene and John Dougherty, AU Public Safety Chief, incident commander at Olin.

Operational objectives and situation updates were communicated to the AU response team, and team members executed specific strategies in order to achieve the objectives. The operational period of two hours was compressed to 15 minutes, and response teams reported their status to Dougherty at the designated intervals.

Haase noted a short de-briefing followed the drill with strengths and weaknesses summarized and documented. Strengths, weaknesses and recommendations resulting from the simulation will be discussed during a more detailed de-briefing at some point in the near future.

The drill was largely a success, reported Haase, bringing to light potential problems that may exist in the event of an emergency, which will allow for internal changes to be made the campus response while enabling better communications with local responders.

Alfred University is looking to host another drill in the near future that will encourage more participants.

Sale of Kinfolk Foods totebags raises $500 for Comfort House

ALFRED--To celebrate Kinfolk's 30th year in business in Alfred, Carla Coch sold tote bags that raised $500 to be donated to the Comfort House in Wellsville.

The bags were designed by Alfred artist Hope Zaccagni and silk-screened by Phil Curran at the Alfred Sports Center. Kinfolk is a natural foods store opened by owner-managers Elliott and Jessen Case on May 5, 1986. It offers a wide range of fresh produce (mostly locally grown), rice and beans, cooking supplies, vitamins and supplements, coffee and tea, green cleaning supplies, and many other items.

The store is open 7 day a week, 10-6 on weekdays and 12 to 5 on weekends. In addition, fresh fish, bagels, and breads are available Thursday afternoons, and customers can always special order any item in bulk. Kinfolk has served the Alfred community for 30 years-and it's still going strong. Thank you Kinfolk!

Almond group meets Sunday, Nov. 13

ALMOND--- Craig Braack, Allegany County Historian and Almond native, will present his program, "The Legacy of Lincoln" at the Almond Historical Society's annual meeting Sunday afternoon, November 13 at 3 p.m.

The Hagadorn House, located at 7 Main Street, Almond, will be open from 2 to 5 p.m. for tours. Mary Ellen Westlake, AHS exhibit chairman, is planning appropriate Civil War displays in the Linn Phelan Gallery to coincide with Craig's talk.

At 2:30, the annual meeting will be held, at which time a report of the building committee will be presented by Kim Costello. On August 31, 2011, ground was broken for a 28 x 42 building, adjacent to Hagadorn House, which will house the AHS office and archives room. Constructed by David Gillette and Jeremy Roberts, the building is designed in the style of a one-room schoolhouse, and will replace the small room presently used for an office in the upstairs of Hagadorn House. Handicap accessible, more secure from loss by fire, the new location will provide much-needed space for the archives room workers and visitors. Don Jefferds of Jefferds Construction, assisted by Larry Perry, broke ground and dug the foundation for the project. At present, the building is buttoned up for winter, and plumbing and heating facilities will be installed soon.

Election of officers will also be held, and the annual report of President Lee A. Ryan will be given. Following the meeting, refreshments will be served by AHS board of directors members Cindy Banker and Teresa Johnson.

Plans are also being made for the annual Christmas Open House at Hagadorn House to be held on Sunday, December 4. From 1p.m. to 4:30 p.m. The theme chosen by Mary Ellen Westlake for Hagadorn House decorations will be "Grandpa and Grandma's Toys." A children's choir led by Randi Corkey and accompanied by Donna Ryan will present a concert at 2 p.m. at the Almond Union Church next door to Hagadorn House. Christmas cookies by Mary Jane Reid and hot wassail prepared by Kitty Baker will be served throughout the afternoon.

Basic utility vehicle makes its maiden voyage

ALFRED—The award-winning 2008 BUV (basic utility vehicle) created by Alfred State College mechanical engineering seniors, under the guidance of their project advisers, SUNY (State University of New York) Distinguished Service Professor and Department Chair Dr. Edward Tezak, and Ray Gleason, instructional support technician, has finally reached its destination: Kananga, Congo.

BUVs are, according to the Institute for Affordable Transportation (IAT), simple, rugged vehicles that can carry 1,200-pounds of cargo. Their purpose is to help meet peoples’ everyday needs at the ends of the earth. More than cars, BUVs are geared to provide opportunity and freedom, promote trade, and reduce poverty in rural areas of developing countries.

A BUV should be able to be assembled almost anywhere, by almost anyone. The necessary equipment is also very simple: even small repair shops should have the tools to build a BUV. Using primarily off-the-shelf parts, the unassembled BUV skid pack will cost about $1,300 before duties and freight. They are designed for warm climates, slow speeds (up to 20 mph), and unpaved rural roads.

One major challenge in 2008 was to design a three-wheeled vehicle based on the rear clip of a small pick-up truck, with a school bus attachment which connects to the rolling chassis. The bus is intended to serve school children and orphanages in Africa.

Tezak received a message, that after much time and red tape, the BUV reached its destination where it will be used as a mobile library.

Pictured here, this group of BUV “fans” watched as the ASC vehicle made its maiden voyage!

Tomato-less chili with lima beans a hit

Always on the lookout for a new chili recipe, I opened an e-mail that said Recipe4Living. Because I write a newspaper column about food, I am constantly sent e-mails trying to sell me something food related or just get me to mention their product in the paper.

This recipe was in the message and it intrigued me because of the addition of lima beans. I’m not sure it really qualifies as chili since there are no tomatoes in it, and I don’t believe I have ever seen limas in a chili recipe. Anyway, I made it and served it to friends and it was a hit.

- Crockpot Beans
- |                          |                   |
|--------------------------|-------------------|
| 1 can kidney beans       | ½ lb. bacon       |
| 1 can pinto beans        | 1 c. ketchup      |
| 1 lg. can pork and beans | 1 med. onion      |
| 1 can lima beans         | ¼ c. vinegar      |
| 1 lb. ground beef        | 2 T. liquid smoke |
- salt and pepper to taste

Brown and drain ground beef. Open all cans of beans and add beef and beans to crockpot. Fry, drain, and crumble bacon and add to crockpot. Dice onion and add with remaining ingredients. Cook on low 4-6 hours, stirring occasionally. (I drained the limas, but not the other beans.)

An occasional column inviting readers to identify the scene and appear at Tinkertown Hardware with the correct answer, the first of whom will receive a monster cookie. The identity of the event or scene will appear in the next edition of the ALFRED SUN.

Last weekend, we spent two gloriously beautiful days in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. As Bob says, we like to have mini-adventures, and this was a very sweet one. As we were ascending a hill, we came up behind traffic moving very slowly. Ahead, we suddenly saw, against the beautiful blue sky, a white plume of...steam, not smoke. We were moving so slowly behind this gorgeous steam engine that I was able to jump out of the car and run up the slope to catch it. What a sight!

Jesus Wouldn't Believe in Himself?
According to Dawkins
(Who's doin's the talkin's)
If Jesus were living today,
He'd think it was odd
To believe in a God
Of whom he's the son (so they say).

With steadfast reliance
On logic and science,
He'd "see the light," Dawkins insists;
Imagine a man
So divine (if you can),
That he doesn't believe he exists.

Because (you may know)
As these Jesuses go,
He believed he was God in the flesh;
With such creed-heeding while
In theistic denial...
His religion would fall with a great crèche.

So this clear contradiction
Would mean he's a fiction –
One who is, thinks he's not? That's absurd.
I find it ironic
That one so iconic
Is so hard just to take at his Word.

Now, if Jesus was talkin's,
He'd be sayin's to Dawkins,
With words like a double-edged knife,
"You're wrong in so many ways,
But I died for you anyways;
And I AM 'live today – I'm 'the Life'!"

—Dawkins Sooth

College honors Charles Joyce

ALFRED—Smiles were the order of the day recently as Charles P. (Charlie) Joyce, president, Otis Eastern Service, Inc., Wellsville, was presented with the Alfred State College "President's Medallion" at its annual President's Society Dinner.

Presentation was made by College President Dr. John M. Anderson and Alfred State College Council Chair Patricia K. Fogarty. The medallion, a replica of the one the president wears during all academic ceremonies, is "awarded to those who have made outstanding contributions to Alfred State College. The College recognizes and commemorates the efforts of supporters and advocates dedicated to the mission of Alfred State."

FROM THE DESK OF DAVID PULLEN

By DAVID PULLEN
Allegany County Legislator

PUBLIC DEFENSE

On November 2nd the Personnel Committee considered a request to create a new Assistant Public Defender position. The Public Safety Committee had already approved that move, but it also requires approval by the Personnel Committee, Ways and Means Committee, and Board of Legislators. For various reasons I grudgingly supported this action. Our Public Defenders are dedicated and hard working. Their workload is enormous and growing, but so is the expense. This entire system provides an excellent example of how good ideas and intentions have run amuck.

Historically only individuals facing the death penalty were entitled to have an attorney appointed for them. Such cases were rare, and those attorneys typically served without compensation. However, in the 1960s the Supreme Court decreed that everyone charged with a felony had a right to an attorney. If the person could not afford to retain his/her own attorney they had a right to government appointed counsel.

Suddenly thousands of individuals became entitled to assigned counsel. Private attorneys could not handle this deluge on a voluntary unpaid basis. New York State assigned responsibility for this new program to its counties as another unfunded mandate. In 2011 Allegany County budgeted $214,606 for the Public Defender Program. However, it also budgeted another $443,500 for the Assigned Counsel Program that supplements the services of the Public Defenders.

Over the years the federal and state governments have expanded the types of cases for which the County must provide "free" legal services. We must now provide legal counsel for felony, misdemeanor and some violation cases. We must also provide attorneys in Family Court on Child Neglect, Child Abuse, Child Custody and Family Offense cases. In many cases we are providing counsel for everyone involved, including both parents, and one or more children. We are required to provide counsel for those brought into "Support Court" on child support violation cases. By State mandate these "free" legal services must be provided to anyone earning less than 125% of the "poverty level" for their size household. In a poor county this can represent a sizeable percentage of our population.

In addition to paying for the Public Defender or assigned counsel, we must pay various indirect expenses. The District Attorney's Office and County Attorney's Office need more attorneys and staff to handle the increased volume of cases where they are opposed by the Public Defender's Office or Assigned Counsel. For 2011 the budget for the District Attorney's Office was $552,285, and the County Attorney's Office budget was $446,893.

The irony and insanity of this situation is that in many cases the County is paying for both/all sides of the court proceeding. The District Attorney and County Attorney are required to prosecute cases of alleged misconduct. Most of us understand and agree with that function. However, in many cases we are also required to pay attorneys to oppose those prosecutions. We also pay investigators and caseworkers to research allegations of crimes, child abuse, neglect, family offenses and non-payment of child support. The State also mandated that we expand our Courthouse facilities to house all of the hearings, trials and proceedings related to these different matters.

As an individual and private attorney I am dedicated to the freedoms guaranteed by the United States Constitution. However, I have re-read my copy of the Constitution and I cannot find anything in it about a right to assigned counsel. This "right" was created by the Courts and expanded by Congress and the Legislature. It is clear we cannot afford this "right" in its current form. Here are some commonsense changes that could dramatically reduce expenses:

- Limit assigned counsel to felony cases only;
- Establish a "sliding scale" rate of contribution for those receiving assigned counsel;
- Establish mandatory "co-payments" from anyone receiving assigned counsel;
- Establish a "cap" that limits the amount that will be paid to assigned counsel.

I think something needs to change. What do you think?

In his remarks, Anderson noted that "Charlie has always worked closely with the Applied Technology campus in Wellsville, often supporting the college with access to equipment and employees when special items were needed, including access to cranes and operators. He was instrumental in the college's working directly with the IUOE (International Union of Operating Engineers) at the local and national levels and setting up and attending meetings with national and local representatives. He continues to give Alfred State students and instructors access to his larger heavy equipment for training exercises in our heavy equipment operations program."

In 2006 Charlie participated in the planning for the 40th Anniversary of the Applied Technology campus in Wellsville. Based on his ideas, the college instituted an annual "Taste of Wellsville" program where faculty and local merchants host program events and food tasting, attracting approximately 800 visitors to the campus.

Anderson continued, "Charlie Joyce quietly supports the community, and it is very difficult to track all the private things he does for the community and the region. He is well deserving of this recognition and meets the criteria by being active nationally, regionally, and locally and needs to be publicly recognized for his giving of both time and funds to worthy causes."

Otis Eastern, founded in 1936, is one of the nation's leading constructors of high-pressure pipelines to transport oil, natural gas, and petroleum products from producers to the market.

In 1972, following his graduation from Cornell University with a BA in government, Joyce started work with Joyce Leonard Canada, Ltd., managing construction projects in Western Canada and Australia. In 1977, he became the president of Joyce Western Corp.

Joyce joined his father, Charles H. Joyce, at Otis Eastern Service, Inc., in 1983, as vice president; he became president in 1995. Joyce is active in many industry and labor groups.

He is also active in the community as a member of the Board of Trustees of Alfred University, a past director of Jones Memorial Hospital, a member of the Income Impact Council of the Allegany County United Way, and a member of the Board of Education of Allegany/Cattaraugus BOCES.

Joyce is a resident of Wellsville where he lives with his wife Sherry Walton. The couple has two children, both recent college graduates, Casey and Anna.

Boy Scouts scout for food Saturday

ALFRED—Troop 19 Boy Scouts of America and Pack 1026 Cub Scouts on Saturday, Nov. 5 kicked off its annual Scouting for Food drive by placing bags on doors in the Alfred and Almond area. This is the largest service project our local scouts do each year.

Scouts will pick up your food donations on Saturday, Nov. 12 early in the morning. Place donations in bags on porches or outside doors for quick pick up beginning at 9 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 12.

If your donation misses the scout pickup, please take to the nearest food pantry. All food collected will stay in our local communities, and benefit the Alfred, Alfred Station and Almond Food Pantries.

Food donations needed include canned items such as vegetables, meat, chili, soups, juices, and baby items. Boxed or bagged meals and pastas are also welcome. The ideal food donation bag would include one of each. Please, nothing perishable, frozen or in a glass container. Monetary donations cannot be accepted.

Scouting has always stepped up to provide needed service to the community. There are children and adults in our local communities that do not have enough food each day to meet basic nutritional needs. With this drive, especially right before Thanksgiving, we hope to ensure that there is enough food to go to local food pantries to help feed those in need.

Doug Roorbach, executive director of the Allegany County Area Foundation, accepts a donation on the Foundation's behalf from the Allegany County Board of Legislators' Chairman Curt Crandall at the board's most recent meeting. In the background is County Administrator John Margeson.

Legislators recognize Area Foundation

BELMONT—The Allegany County Board of Legislators recognized the Allegany County Area Foundation at a recent meeting, making a donation to the organization and granting privilege of the floor to Doug Roorbach, executive director of the ACAF.

Roorbach thanked Curt Crandall, chairman of the board, as well as each of the members for their regular support. "I know that you have been long-time supporters of the Foundation," he said, "and I want you to know that we do not take that for granted, especially in these difficult economic times."

Crandall noted that the legislators raise money for their "flower fund," from which the donation came, through activities such as their annual clam-bake, and then donate some of that money for worthy causes in the county. "This is not taxpayer money," he said, adding that the legislators are especially pleased to support nonprofit organizations whose impact is primarily in Allegany County.

"This year the Foundation gave over $200,000 in scholarships to 42 of Allegany County's students," Roorbach said, "and granted thousands more to organizations as diverse as Allegany Arc and the Genesee River Wilds Project. We have endowment funds for the SPCA, Cuba Hospital and several libraries in the county, too."

The deadline for clothing donations is Sunday, Nov. 13.

Campus Notes

Duncan MacCrea of Alfred Station received a scholarship award during the SUNY Oneonta Department of Earth and Atmospheric Sciences Majors Night on Oct. 20. MacCrea, a geology major, was selected by the department's faculty to receive the QTZ Scholarship Award, which recognizes high academic standing. Available to geology, water resources and earth science majors at the college, the award was established by three SUNY Oneonta alumni: Terry Quinn, a 1982 earth science graduate; Eric Tappa, who graduated in 1981 with a degree in economics and philosophy; and James Zachos, a 1982 geology graduate. The scholarship was presented as part of the 35th annual Majors' Night, during which alumni of the department's programs return to campus to discuss their careers and offer advice to current students. The SUNY Oneonta Department of Earth and Atmospheric Science offers some of the college's fastest-growing programs. In the past two years, the number of students pursuing majors in earth science, environmental science, geology, meteorology, water resources and earth science education increased by 45 percent.

Community Chest Drive Drive at 71.2% of goal

Dear COMMUNITY:

This year's Community Chest Appeal is now in the latter phase of the campaign and may be in jeopardy. We are in need of your contributions in order to avoid possible reductions to services. This may mean (among other things): that Ambulances may not be as well equipped, that elderly will be forced to pay for Lifeline assistance, that the Alfred Station Fire Department will have less money with which to buy equipment needed for the many calls, that fewer adults in our county could learn to read, and that the handicapped of Allegany County will be missing some assistance currently being provided.

The Alfred-Alfred Station Community Chest drive has reached about 71.2% of its 2011 goal of $34,360 in support of local charities. As of this week, we have received donations and pledges totaling $24,463 towards that goal. It is uncertain whether or not we will be able to reach our final goal. Please help us!

We are asked occasionally what is the difference between the Alfred-Alfred Station Community Chest and the United Way. The Community Chest dedicates our funds primarily to the local community. The campaign or overhead expenses for the Chest amount to less than 1% of our total pledged monies. Therefore, over 99 cents of every dollar you contribute goes to the charities we support. Some organizations keep 10 to 15% of their donations for administration. The only expenses we have are for printing, postage, and a periodic audit. All administrative services are performed by volunteers. The space donated in this newspaper, and in campus publications replaces more expensive advertisements.

The Allegany County Association for Retarded Citizens (ARC) continues to be an important member of our campaign. They are a not-for-profit corporation concerned with the welfare of citizens of our county who often have severe disabilities. They maintain Community Residences in Alfred, Belmont and Wellsville and operate special training programs. The training programs provides basic independent living skills as well as pre-vocational training for adults. Many individuals residing in the Community Residence in Alfred, utilize these and other services offered by the Allegany County ARC. As you consider making a gift to support our campaign, think of it as giving back some of your good fortune to assist your neighbors at the Alfred Community Residence on South Main Street.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to those of you who have already made a commitment to the campaign; and, we ask those of you who have not yet made a donation or pledge to join your friends and neighbors in making our drive a success. If, for some reason, you did not receive a pledge card, donations may be left at the Alfred Pharmacy in Alfred, the Canacadea Country Store in Alfred Station, or may be mailed to Alfred-Alfred Station Community Chest, Box 603, Alfred, NY, 14802. We look forward to your support.

Sincerely,
Your Community Chest Board

Fairview tour starts in Caneadea

By ELAINE HARDMAN

Alfred Sun Reporter

ALLEGANY COUNTY--We started the Fairview tour in Caneadea where the Coffee Plus Cafe offers coffee with an attitude. Had it been summer we might have found ice cream at the outdoor stand but since it was well into fall, hours there are shorter, only 7-11 am Tuesday through Friday - a little later on the weekend.

We continued north on 19 and detoured to the Houghton campus. Houghton has some wonderful stone buildings but the only one we went into was the Stevens Art Center. Normally they have a show but we happened in between shows. When up, shows are open to the public with details listed on the Houghton website.

Some people aren't aware that our colleges in Houghton and Alfred open many of their performances and shows to the general public for free. Some concerts or plays might require a ticket but fees are low and quality is high. Check online events calendars to see what's going on.

At Houghton, we found Kaylan Butgen, a post grad art student, using a letter press patented in 1882. This wonderful machine, The Pearl, flowed silently to move color over paper as Kaylan made personalized stationary with rubber ink.

We wandered through classrooms and work areas at the Stevens Center and then moved from Houghton to Fillmore turning left on County Route 27 to see Wiscoy Falls. Seeing the falls requires a short detour from the driving route to cross the creek to park your car near the old saw mill, a large, wooden, creek-side structure that must have been impressive when it gathered up logs and made them into planks.

Both our brochure and the man we found on the road at his mail box said that there is a trail from the sawmill to the dam. We hiked far enough to get mud up to our knees but only made it to

WISCOY FALLS...near Fillmore. (Photos by Elaine Hardman)

Corning Glass Museum opening new exhibit

CORNING—The Corning Museum of Glass is celebrating the opening of the new exhibit, Founders of American Studio Glass: Harvey K. Littleton, with some American classics at the free event, 2300°: Honky Tonk Holiday, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., on Thursday, Nov. 17.

Highlights include:

- Live glassblowing by emerging artist DH McNabb, who transforms molten glass into eclectic blown sculptural forms. McNabb's work has been shaped by his many experiences working with many studio glass artists.
- Live music by the Boston-based singer Eilen Jewell, "Queen of the Minor Key." Jewell merges folk, country gospel, jazz, and more in an exploration of American music.
- Local whiskey tastings by the Finger Lakes Distilling.
- A first look at the Museum's newest focus exhibition, Founders of American Studio Glass: Harvey K. Littleton.

• Complimentary hors d'oeuvres and soft drinks. Heartier fare is also available for purchase.

Admission is free. There is some additional cost for food and drink. Registration is not required. A free shuttle bus service from the Museum's I-86 parking lot is available. Call (607) 937-5371 for more information.

The next 2300° event is Peace, Love, and 2300° on Thursday, December, 15, featuring the band Entrain and glassblower John Kiley.

The Corning Museum of Glass (www.cmog.org) is home to the world's most comprehensive and celebrated collection of glass, with more than 45,000 objects reflecting 3,500 years of glassmaking history. An independent, non-profit, educational institution, the Museum is dedicated to the art, history, science, research and exhibition of glass. Call (607) 937-5371 for more information.

the 4th of the 5 falls which is a fair distance from the dam. Sometimes it seemed as if we were on a trail but we didn't find markers. We took a short cut through someone's yard to make it down stream without having to go through the water again. It's a pretty place alive with the sound of rushing water.

We made our way back to 27 and, at the time, we found a considerable enthusiasm for Halloween decorations. We also sighted a house ready for Christmas. At least they won't freeze their fingers getting out the decorations.

We turned right at the end of Wiscoy and Mills Mills Road and found the Roger Mills Memorial Bridge and the dam and came back to the tour to head out County Route 3.

Three things were very common on throughout this tour — laundry hung to dry, firewood for sale and small produce stands. These may all relate to the fact that many of the people living along this route are Amish or Mennonite.

It was Monday when we drove and apparently a lot of families hold that as laundry day. I remember that my Grandmother and Mother did. Since modern machines aren't on these farms, the families presumably do considerably more to clean clothes than to toss them in the washer and push a button so they may commonly set aside a day to do that.

In keeping with the neighborhood was the Pine Grove Country Store on County Route 3. They had things for sale that we hadn't thought about shopping for. There were 50 pound sacks of flour or oats (rolled or cut). They had a few different sugars, several flours and 3 kinds of popcorn. There were bulk spices at prices worth the drive, grains, crayons, dinnerware and calf blankets.

The hardware section had parts and pieces to build or repair a buggy and the children's section offered boy's straw hats in various sizes and styles. There were buttons, boot laces and bolts of fabric in somber blue, black, brown and white. One shelf had the largest stainless steel bowl I've ever seen — a bowl for canning huge amounts of fruits or vegetables for large families.

One shelf sported a butane clothes iron. It seemed awkward and heavy but maybe easier than other irons might be.

We bought gingersnaps (spicy and crisp), sesame sticks (salty and crisp), spelt flour and rolled oats— but not 50 pounds of anything. The Pine Grove Country Store was as far as our schedule allowed us to drive that day. We had to scoot back to Wellsville for a meeting. Our total drive was just over 100 miles.

My favorite part was the scenery. The sheets blowing in the wind on porches or across yards really gave a sense of country as did the women in their long dresses raking leaves while men in straw hats worked in fields. All of them would have made wonderful photos but none made it into my camera. Better to just remember.

House on Houghton College campus. (Elaine Hardman)

Civil War history at Baker’s Bridge meeting

ALFRED STATION—The November meeting of Baker’s Bridge Historical Association will begin at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 14. If you are interested in the topic being presented or the history of the area, please join us at the Meeting House at Alfred

Station where Dr. Spencer Annabel will present an account of “The Second Battle of Manassas.” Dr. Annabel’s talk will describe this battle which began on August 28th, 1862. General John Pope had been brought to the Eastern theatre of war to consolidate three Union Armies stationed in the Shenandoah Valley. He was very boastful, announcing that he was used to seeing the backs of his enemies and that he would bring the hard hand of war to Virginia.

He achieved the consolidation of the three armies after the Union defeat at the battle of Cedar Mountain. He significantly underestimated his Confederate foes. During the Battle of Second Manassas he became obsessed with the destruction of Stonewall Jackson’s Corps and ignored the arrival of General Longstreet’s Corps on his left flank. This ultimately resulted in the Union Army losing this battle.

ePLACE offers November classes

By RIMA O’CONNOR

ALFRED—Alfred Box of Books ePLACE offers the following classes for November:

Prepare for Cyber Monday: Find Deals and Shop Online With Confidence—4-6 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 17.

We all know about Black Friday, but did you know there is also an online shopping day called Cyber Monday? It takes place the Monday after Thanksgiving, when many online stores offer good deals at certain times throughout that day. In this class we will talk about how to follow these special offers strategically (and there is a strategy!) in order to get the best deals possible. Then you will learn how to place your orders online securely. (If you are already comfortable with this part of the process, you are welcome to leave the class early.) Anyone who attends this class will also receive a list of local businesses that have lots of great gift ideas.

Get Free Books for Your Kindle... or Your Computer—4-6 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 30.

Now you can borrow library books by downloading them to your Kindle, or use the free Kindle app to do the same thing with your computer! Once you take this class, you’ll be able to hole up this winter and let it snow while you settle in with a cup of something hot and that new book you pulled off the Internet from home.

Participants in all classes need to have basic mouse and keyboard skills unless otherwise specified. For more information or to register for a class, call or stop by the Alfred Box of Books Library, 607-587-9290, 1 West University Ave. in Alfred, or send an email to burnsa@stls.org.

CATCH ME IF YOU CAN

After indulging in more than a fifty year addiction to them, about three months ago I found myself without any small, furry, caged animal pet. I began shopping for a young, replacement gerbil. On the two most recent occasions when I had engaged in a similar activity, I had wound up with a dwarf hamster each time. They were quite adorable, but being hamsters they tended to be awake when I was asleep.

So this time I was determined to shop until I dropped for a youthful gerbil. The ones I have harbored in the past have consistently provided a satisfactory amount of entertainment during my active hours. As it turned out, at the first store I visited there was exactly one, young, supposedly male gerbil available. Given no other choice, I bought him. Based on previous experience, I held my breath for a few days. To my relief, he did not present me with any babies within a week of purchase, as one of the “male” dwarf hamsters had done.

He has, however, presented other problems. First of all, he is almost totally black. Each of his two front paws and his chin bear a tiny white spot. I decided that “Midnight” was the obvious name to give this starlit being. Thereupon, I followed a recent custom of mine. I turned to my Hungarian born friend to tell me the word for midnight in her native language. She did, and the gerbil is called “Ejfel.” Each “e” is pronounced as a long “a.” So he is “Ay-fayl.”

How did I reward my friend for this favor? By asking another, of course. I left town for a week, and she put up with the rodent’s presence in her house. However, Ejfel provided a diversion for her dog, Duna (Hungarian for Danube.) Once Ejfel was back with me, I began a continuing struggle with his ability to make himself invisible. His color matches that of the floor in his aquarium cage. By now I have trained myself not to have a heart attack if I glance inside and do not see him. By shifting his litter around, and then occupying a cleared space, he creates the invisibility illusion.

I must remove a screen which covers his cage when I clean his premises. Twice during this routine he has leapt out behind my back. Luckily, he did not land on my living room floor either time, and I did not have to set a trap to catch him there. My hands were sufficient to crowd him into a spot where jumping down into his home was the only option.

Now I follow a recipe when doing his housekeeping. First, I grab an empty 32 ounce yogurt container and put a couple of tablespoons of comfy litter into it. Then I place it on the floor of the cage. I add one gerbil, and attach a lid with breathing holes.

Ejfel stirs continuously as I clean. When finished, I tip Ejfel out of the container. To ensure “doneness” we both check the fresh litter, food, and other amenities, such as cardboard placed inside for demolition.

Gerbils must gnaw on objects other than food to keep their constantly growing teeth capable of eating. Of all the gerbils I have had, Ejfel is the master recycler.

Although he likes running through the tubes, he is more likely to first chew a bit on proffered cardboard rollers from paper towels and toilet paper. He also fervently attacks cracker, cereal, frozen dinner, and facial tissue boxes. Two of our friends contribute theirs to augment his supply.

Yes, Ejfel is able to manipulate people. Apparently somewhere along the evolutionary path he acquired some human genes. Perhaps these also account for his contrariness.

For one thing, he prefers some of my food to the packaged small animal mixes of seeds and grains, or the pellets, which have satisfied my other pets. We share raw cashews, sunflower seeds minus their shells, raw carrot slices, and several kinds of salad mix leaves. These include romaine, endive, and radicchio. I have not offered him salad dressing, fearing he would object to the “light” ones which I use.

For another thing, Ejfel does not keep normal gerbil hours. He prefers to get up late at night. If I happened to be awake at one a.m. Daylight Saving Time, I could catch him at his liveliest.

With midnight’s recent fall back to Standard Time, I hope to catch more sleep, myself. If not, I shall spring forward and pronounce Ejfel “Awful.”

NOTES from the BOX OF BOOKS

By ELIZA ORDWAY
Box of Books Library Director

Congratulations to Gladys Peckham on winning the Quilt Raffle that was held at the Tasting, Tunes and Treasures 3. The quilt was worked on by the friends of the library. Gladys is a life time user of the public libraries. She has held a library card at various libraries in her life and is proud to say she has had a library card for 92 years. That makes her a true winner in our book. The Box of Books is proud to have Gladys Peckham as a library patron and many other patrons like her. Congratulations again to Gladys for her continued support of our library.

The Tastings, Tunes, and Treasures proved to be a great success and a very good time was had by all involved. The funds raised at this annual event help to keep the library running smoothly throughout the year and allow us to purchase items that may otherwise fall to the wayside due to budget restrictions and cuts. A big thank you to the Friends of the Box of Books for sponsoring such a great event, and to all the businesses, artists, and community members who donated their goods to our cause.

If you haven’t noticed yet, the bushes have been removed and with minimal mess, we think, a great job done by Ed Kent of Kent Farms in Andover. We look forward to planning the new garden in the spring.

Columbia prof to deliver Lefkowitz Lecture

ALFRED--Professor Marianne Hirsch of Columbia University will deliver the second annual Leonard and Saradona Lefkowitz Lecture in Jewish Studies at Alfred University at 5:15 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 15 in Nevins Theatre in the Powell Campus Center. The lecture is free and open to the public.

Entitled "Fantasies of Return: Memory and Postmemory After the Holocaust," Professor Hirsch's illustrated lecture will explore memories of the vibrant Jewish community of Czernowitz (in modern day Ukraine), which, though vanishing after World War II, left an inspired legacy in Jewish literature, culture, and memory. A reception will immediately follow the lecture where audience members can engage Dr. Hirsch in further conversation.

Dr. Leonard (AU '57) and Saradona Lefkowitz endowed this lectureship within the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences to help cultivate knowledge and understanding about Jewish cultural and historical experiences.

Dr. Mary McGee, Dean of the College, notes that "Dr. and Mrs. Lefkowitz have had a lifelong devotion to Jewish heritage, culture and study, and this annual lectureship allows the Lefkowitzes to share their passion with Alfred University on an ongoing and long term basis."

In choosing someone to deliver this annual lecture, the Lefkowitz Lecture Selection Committee, which includes faculty and students, looks to find an outstanding scholar and engaging speaker who will have broad appeal across our Alfred community.

Dr. Hirsch is such a scholar; her work, which integrates multiple disciplines, illuminates our understanding of cultural memory through her examination of history, literature, art, family, and photography.

Marianne Hirsch is the William Peterfield Trent Professor of English and Comparative Literature at Columbia University and Professor in the Institute for Research on Women and Gender. Born in Romania, she received her undergraduate and graduate degrees at Brown University, then taught at Dartmouth College before joining the Columbia University faculty.

Author and editor of more than a dozen books and numerous articles, she is a sought after speaker. She is particularly well-known for her work in feminist studies and her books on photography. Among her books are The Mother/Daughter Plot; Family Frames: Photography, Narrative, and Postmemory; The Family Gaze; and Conflicts in Feminism. Her book The Generation of Postmemory: Visual Culture After the Holocaust, will be published in 2012.

Copies of some of her books, including her most recent book, co-authored with Leo Spitzer, Ghosts of Home: The Afterlife of Czernowitz in Jewish Memory and History, will be available in the Alfred University bookstore in the week leading up to the lecture and can also be purchased at the lecture. Ghosts of Home is a communal memoir, providing insight into the city where her parents grew up and survived the holocaust.

Recipient of several prestigious awards and fellowships, Dr. Hirsch has served as the Director of the Institute for Research on Women and Gender, and Co-Director of the Center for the Critical Analysis of Social Difference at Columbia University. She is currently the second vice president of the Modern Language Association of American. Her course topics reveal much about her areas of interest and expertise: "Introduction to Women and Gender Studies," "Trauma, Memory and Performance," "Feminism and Diaspora: Rites and Rights of Return," "The Novel and Feminist/Queer Literary Theory," "Contested Memory and the Holocaust" and "Heroines of Disaster: Novels and Feminist Literary Theory."

"Marianne Hirsch is an engaging and engaged scholar," reports Dean McGee, who knew her while at Columbia; "this is a tremendous opportunity for our Alfred community to host such a renowned as well as generous scholar, whose Alfred lecture will resonate with all of us in different ways, as we think about how family memories shape our own understanding of history and culture."

Guitar legend to perform in Angelica

ANGELICA—Black-Eyed Susan Acoustic Café (22 W. Main St., Angelica) welcomes local guitar legend Brian Voorheis of Friendship, on Friday, Nov. 11. Saturday's performer is pianist Annie Wells of Rochester, playing original jazz and pop tunes with smooth, polished vocals. Both shows run from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. There is no cover charge, but guests are expected to contribute to the musician's tip jar.

Brian Voorheis will rock the room on his guitar with harmonica and vocals, playing folk, blues and rockabilly music that spans more than 40 years of an impressive musical career. VOORHEIS performed at folk clubs, ballrooms, bars and festivals around the San Francisco bay area in the '60s and '70s, including the Avalon and Fillmore ballrooms. During that time he opened for The Grateful Dead and Hot Tuna; for The Flying Burrito Bros. & Big Mama Thornton; for Charlie Musselwhite and Dan Hicks.

He co-wrote "Rockabilly Funeral" with Blackie Farrell which was recorded separately by Commander Cody, Bill Kirchen, and the Twangbangers. He marries his talent and intuition with the experience of years of playing with a ton of notable musicians. The result is remarkable music.

On Saturday, Nov. 12, the café is pleased to welcome back composer / recording artist Annie Wells of Rochester, playing her stylish blend of jazz and popular songs influenced by such well-known artists as Billie Holiday; Miles Davis; Aretha Franklin; George Gershwin; and Billy Strayhorn. Jeff Spevak of Gannett Newspapers says that she has "one of the nicest singing voices around" and the late, great Chuck Cuminala said her voice "is amazing." Ms. Wells has been writing and performing in the Rochester area since she was seventeen. Over the past year she has performed in Rochester at The Little Theatre; The Four Walls Gallery; and Abilene; as well as at the Clifton Springs Library as part of its Tunes by the Tracks series. This year she released her fourth CD titled, "Tell Me".

Shared art exhibit featured in Angelica

ANGELICA—The Angelica Sweet Shop and Black-Eyed Susan Acoustic Café are pleased to present a shared exhibit of multiple works in watercolor, oil and pen & ink by former Cuba, NY resident Barbara S. Learn.

Learn studied art at The Pratt Institute in the 1930s and worked for a time as an apprentice under the tutelage of Robert Noel Blair, a prolific Western New York artist. She worked in a variety of media including oil and pen and ink, but she is known for her vibrant, fluid, natural landscapes in watercolor. Her work has been shown at Buffalo's Albright-Knox and Lakeview galleries.

She painted with the North Truro, MA art Association and the Olean Art Association, and received many awards for her work. She was diagnosed with leukemia while in her 50s, and lost her battle in 1973.

Her daughter Katie Williams of Cuba and her granddaughter Barbara Williams are working cross-country from New York to California to make these images available for public viewing. Framed and matted prints and note cards from the original paintings are available at both exhibit locations.

The Angelica Sweet Shop is open daily from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and until 7 p.m. on Fridays.

Cardboard boat competition

ALFRED, NY, November 2011—The Alfred State College student chapters of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers (ASME) and the Society of Manufacturing Engineering (SME) recently hosted a cardboard boat competition. Competition rules required each boat to be constructed entirely of cardboard and held together by no more than one roll of duct tape. All students who participated are enrolled in the Mechanical and Electrical Engineering Technology Department. The competition consisted of two events and was held in the ASC pool. The first event was a four-lap boat race. TJ Zurell, Cortland, and Josh Krest, Macedon, (ASME) won this event – they handily defeated two other boats. The second event was the demolition derby. In this event, the SME was victorious. Pictured here: the winning, three-man SME demolition boat (right) is manned by (l-r): Hans Walthert, Mexico (NY); David Radloff, Queensbury; and Dave Parker, Whitesboro. The boat on the left is manned by ASME member Jake Girardet, Orchard Park.

ASC faculty 'locked up'

ALFRED—Five members of the Alfred State College community joined local leaders around the country recently who were picked up, locked up, and assessed a bail amount in order to get out of "jail." By trading in their typical work duds for horizontal black-and-white prison stripes, they raised money for the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Not only did they "put the bite on" family, friends, and colleagues to raise "bail," but three of the five were the top three money-raisers at the Hornell site.

Dr. Stephen Havlovic, ASC vice president for Academic Affairs, raised $1,253; Barbara Davis, secretary to the dean of the School of Applied Technology was a close second at $1,220; and Steven Martinelli, professor, ASC Computerized Design and Manufacturing Department, who raised two sons with the disease, raised $840.

Chanel Wright, executive assistant to the president of ASC, and Evan Enke, assistant professor, ASC Computer and Information Technology Department, were the other college participants.

Proceeds enable MDA to continually provide help and hope to hundreds of thousands of children and adults living with neuromuscular disease. Donations from the Lock-Up will support local families and guarantee that MDA can continue its mission to find treatments and cures, as well as provide vital services.

Support of the MDA Lock-Up will also help MDA provide medical equipment, clinic visits, support groups and a magical week of MDA Summer Camp for the families served by the Association in our local area.

Dr. Steve Tyrell co-authors journal article

Titled "The Future of Student Affairs is Dependent on Choosing Roads Less Traveled," the article is a critique of how student affairs' professional associations, national conventions, and academic journals have changed over two decades and how these changes may no longer prepare student affairs professionals with the core skill sets and competencies necessary to serve college students and their

Alfred State coding program gets approval

ALFRED—Alfred State College is pleased to announce that its coding & reimbursement (CRS) certificate program, a comprehensive coding program, has been awarded the status of approval by the American Health Information Management Association (AHIMA) in conjunction with the Association for Healthcare Documentation Integrity (AHDI). This is the highest recognition available for a coding certificate program. This approval is effective for five years: Sept. 16, 2011, and expires on Sept. 1, 2016.

The AHIMA approval identifies comprehensive coding education programs which have been evaluated by a peer review process against national minimum standards for entry-level coding professionals. This process allows academic institutions, healthcare organizations, and private companies to be acknowledged as providing an AHIMA-Approved Coding Certificate Program.

The approval designation assures healthcare providers that graduates of the Alfred State coding program possess the necessary job skills to attain success in entry-level coding positions. Students are guided through a comprehensive coding curriculum providing them with more than 264 hours of instruction in ICD-9-CM and CPT coding and reimbursement methodologies.

FIFTY YEARS AGO, NOVEMBER 9, 1961

A last minute write-in campaign drew a record 500 town voters to the polls today, but all incumbents listed Republican candidates emerged victorious without serious difficulty. Election officials disqualified 34 write-in votes as being incorrectly listed, illegible or for being written in the wrong columns. The closest contest was for Justice of the Peace, inactive, a $200 post, which was won by the incumbent, L. Eugene Reynolds, over his write-in opponent, Ben Palmer Jr., 277 to 121. In the contest for town councilman, also a $200 post, incumbent E. Carlton Greene defeated his write-in opponent, Frank Snyder, 217 to 103. Incumbent Republican Supervisor C. Richard Fenner was reelected with 429 votes. An unexpected ten votes were cast for Eddy Foster of Alfred. The supervisor's post carries a salary of $1,000...

Name that street! That's the feeling of the Alfred Village Board as they called for names for three new streets in the upper Sayles Street area of the village. The dining hall linking the new road to State will be located within the curve of the street which runs in front of three existing men's dormitories...

Funeral services were held Tuesday for Dale Emerson Barron, 26, of Almond RD 1, who was killed in an automobile accident on Route 21, four miles south of the village of Wayland, early Saturday morning. Another passenger in the car, Maxwell Trimble, 22, also of Almond, was not injured. Both men were thrown from the car, which skidded on the east side of the road, traveled 270 feet, and overturned. A native of Canisteo, Barron moved to Almond eight years ago after attending Canisteo Central School. He graduated from Alfred-Almond Central School with the class of 1956. After his discharge from two years of active duty with the United States Army four months ago, Barron was employed as a surveyor with the Erdman-Anthony Consulting Engineers of Rochester...

The Music and Drama Departments of Alfred-Almond Central School will present "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 9 and 10 at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. The musical by Burt Shevelove, Larry Gelbart, and Stephen Sondheim takes place in Rome around 200 B.C. and combines the hilarious illogicalities of Latin comedy and the zany nonsense of Vaudeville. The show stars senior Jason Connolly in a role particularly suited to his flair for comedy and showmanship. Other leading roles will be played by Joe Johnson, Meghan Simpson, Julian Petrillo, Jeff Williams, Tom Meacham, Amy Palmer, and Dan Cornell. Special dance numbers will be performed by Patsy Culley, Susan Copenheaver, Michelle Ormsby, Nataly Sich, Alex Lakin and Andrea Freeman. Highlights of the show include the show stopping number "Everybody Ought To Have a Maid" performed by Connolly, Petrillo, Williams and Meacham and a hilarious funeral scene followed by six minutes of the wildest mayhem ever performed on a stage. The musical director is Linda Staiger; choreographer is Wayne Higby; and the director is Ellen Shultz.

All dressed up and nowhere to go. That's the case for Ken Hasler's outstanding Alfred University men's soccer team. The Saxons (12-1-2, 5-0-1 Empire 8), in what must rate as one of their best seasons ever, yielded only seven goals in 15 games and finished as co-champions with RIT in the Empire 8. The 2001 Saxons set school records for most goals scored and least goals allowed, yet their season has come to an end. Despite giving up only seven goals all season, and going unbeaten and unscored upon in Empire 8 conference play, the Saxons were denied bids to both the NCAA and ECAC Northeast Region Division III tournaments. RIT received the automatic berth in the NCAA Tournament on the basis of the fifth tiebreaker used. RIT outscored Empire 8 opponents by a larger margin than AU. On the field, the teams battled to a 0-0 tie. Because of the automatic conference berth, AU was overlooked for at-large bids. The only explanation for the ECAC Northeast snub is that the AU phone lines were busy when the ECAC called. The Saxons certainly couldn't have been entirely overlooked.

Houghton College announces concerts

HOUGHTON--Houghton College is pleased to announce Christmas Prism 2011, an artistic exploration of the joy of Christmas through music, dance, visual art, and poetry.

This year's Prism is titled Heaven and Nature Sing! Performances will be held on Dec. 2 in Rochester, Dec. 3 in Houghton, and Dec. 4 in Buffalo.

Heaven and Nature Sing! is "intended to bring the joy of Christmas to all," remarked Brandon Johnson, artistic director for this year's performances. From the angelic symphony crying aloud, to the meek and lowly whispering at Jesus' birth, each song is raised in wonder and praise. Johnson continues to describe the performance as one that will "usher in the Christmas season."

CHRISTMAS PRISM

& Nature

The term "prism" is used to symbolize the meaning and structure of the event, while the message of the birth of Christ represents the light and the various elements of music, dance, visual art and poetry reflect the variety of ways to celebrate this great event. Viewing the news of Christ's birth through these many lenses creates an artistic explosion of color and beauty whose brilliance can't help but enlighten its surroundings. With over two hundred student artists, Prism seeks to add a sense of wonder and enchantment to this festive season.

New this year will be performances in Buffalo and Rochester. The Friday, Dec. 2 performance will take place at 7:30 p.m. at Third Presbyterian Church in Rochester. Saturday's performance on Dec. 3 in Wesley Chapel at Houghton College will take place at 8 p.m., preceded by a dinner reception at 6 p.m. The final performance will take place on Sunday, Dec. 4 at First Presbyterian Church in Buffalo at 7:30 p.m.

All three performances require tickets and advance purchase is strongly recommended.

For more information and to purchase tickets, please visit www.houghton.edu/events/prism or call 585.567.9210 or send an e-mail to: events@houghton.edu.

Four A-A students attend Boys State

ALMOND--Patrick Greaney, Travis Harvey, Michael Timbrook, and Zachary Woughter represented Alfred-Almond

Central School as delegates to the American Legion Boys State convocation at Morrisville State College near Syracuse.

The A-A delegates were sponsored by the Alfred American Legion Post 370. Delegates to Boys State were chosen by their schools for their leadership, character, scholarship, and service. They joined over 1100 delegates from throughout New York.

Boys State and Girls State are sponsored annually by the American Legion in each state. Prominent graduates of Boys State include presidents George W. Bush, John F. Kennedy, Ronald Reagan, and Bill Clinton. Boys State is primarily a leadership action program in which top high school juniors participate in a course in practical government. Delegates join a political party and elect officials to all levels of government - from town and county to state legislature and the judiciary. They will also elect delegates to the national Boys or Girls Nation in Washington D.C.

In addition to government, delegates can participate in a variety of sports, publish a daily newspaper, and play in a marching band. The week culminated in a review ceremony at Morrisville. Delegates leave with a working knowledge of governmental organization and the concept that quality government depends on our active participation. Interested students should contact their counselor, school principal, or (local representative) in the spring of their junior year to be considered for next year's Boys State program.

THE GLORY OF AMERICA

Thursday, November 10

Perhaps recalling the intent of the Puritans who came to the Lord's table in the wilderness a century before, John Adams once speculated:

"Suppose a nation in some distant region should take the Bible for their only law-book, and every member should regulate his conduct by the precepts there contained! Every member would be obliged in conscience to temperance, frugality, and industry; to justice, kindness, and charity towards his fellow men; and to piety, love, and reverence toward Almighty God."

A-A sweeps soccer titles

ALMOND--Fire truck escorts became almost a daily occurrence last weekend.

Both the Alfred-Almond boys' and girls' soccer teams swept the Section V Class DD soccer championships, the boys winning Friday night and the girls winning Saturday night.

The Alfred-Almond boys' soccer team Friday night captured the Section V Class DD championship with a hard-fought 1-0 win over Steuben League rival Arkport.

Kieth Vosburg took a Markus Ernest pass and drilled it into the net at the 42:49 mark of the second half for the game-winner in a game played at the Cohocton Sports Complex.

A-A goalie Patrick Chamberlain earned his ninth consecutive shutout, making 8 saves.

With the win and the Eagles' second straight Class DD title, A-A was scheduled to play Class D champ Whitesville at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 8 at Wellsville's Sports Complex.

A-A, the #2 seed, had advanced to the finals with an 8-0 win over #6 seed Lyndonville, which had upset #3 seed (and Eagle rival) Jasper-Troupsburg.

Arkport, meanwhile, the #4 seed, had upset undefeated #1 seed Fillmore as, in a 2-2 tie, the Bluejays won the penalty kick shoot-out to advance.

Girls edge Arkport, too

Mary Hendee scored the game winner late in the second half as A-A overcame a Bluejay rally to defeat Arkport, 3-2, and capture its first Section V championship since 1985.

Megan Murray scored first for A-A just 7 minutes into the game with Caitlin Cook getting the assist. Murray got a second goal at the 23 minute mark, assisted by Hendee to give the Eagles a 2-0 lead.

After A-A suffered a number of injuries to senior players, Arkport battled back to tie the game at 2-2, setting up Hendee's heroics.

Caitlin Flaitz made 14 saves in the nets for A-A.

The Eagles (14-3-2) were scheduled to play Class D champion Belfast at 5 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 8 at the Wellsville Elementary School to determine the Section V entry in the State Tournament.

AU soccer players earn E8 honors

ALFRED--Four members of the Alfred University men's soccer team have been awarded all-conference recognition from the Empire 8, including junior forward Frankie Mannino (Elmira, NY/Elmira Free Academy), who was named a conference all-star for a third straight year.

The Empire 8 announced its all-star teams Wednesday and Mannino, sophomore forward Jeff Thomas (Canandaigua) and freshman defender Connor Petrauskas (Flemington, NJ/Hunterdon) were named to the Second Team. Junior midfielder Tony Gai (Burke, VA/Lake Braddock) was given honorable mention.

Mannino, who was a Second Team all-conference pick as a freshman in 2009 and an honorable mention selection last season, led the Saxons in goals (12) and added three assists to give him a team-best 27 points. Thomas had 18 points on seven goals (three of them game winners) and a team-high four assists. Petrauskas, who as a freshman started 14 games on defense, scored one goal. Gai netted 11 points on four goals and three assists.

Each season, the Empire 8 honors students-athletes from each conference school, who play on teams sponsored by the conference, with Sportsperson of the Year awards. Honorees, chosen by their coaches, exhibited outstanding sportsmanship in keeping with the conference's mission of "competing with honor and integrity." Sophomore midfielder Sam Miller (Kinsman, OH/Badger) is Alfred's honoree from the men's soccer team.

Alfred finished the 2011 season with a 7-8-2 record (1-5 E8).

When You Leave Your Job — Don't Leave Your Money Behind

No matter when you leave your job, the money you accumulated in your employer's retirement plan (such as a 401(k) or a 403(b) plan) while you were there can make the trip with you. Just be sure you don't lose it en route.

Penalties and taxes for premature withdrawals or improper rollovers into new retirement accounts are common pitfalls to avoid.

Saxons beat Bombers, 21-19 for first win at Ithaca since 1982

ITHACA--The Alfred University football team defeated host Ithaca College, 21-19, Saturday afternoon at Butterfield Stadium, snapping the Saxons' 12-game losing streak at Ithaca.

The Saxons had not won on the Bombers' home turf since the 1982 season and with the win AU snapped a two-game losing streak in conference play, improving to 6-3 on the season, 3-3 in Empire play. With the loss, Ithaca falls to 4-5 (2-5 Empire 8).

Senior linebacker Nick Clark (Canisteo-Greenwood) had seven tackles (including a sack) for the Saxons, giving him 363 for his career and breaking the school record of 359 formerly held by linebacker Wil Greene (1993-96). Clark also had an interception that thwarted a third-quarter Bomber drive and rushed for a touchdown.

Alfred led 21-12 when Phil Neumann tossed an eight-yard TD pass to Joe Ingrao to make it 21-19 Saxons with just under four minutes left in regulation. Junior tailback Tyler DeRosa (Miller Place) returned the ensuing kickoff 32 yards to midfield. Three runs by sophomore tailback Austin Dwyer (Hornell) produced a first down and freshman wideout Christian Smith (Lackawanna) rushed for five yards on third-and-four to give AU another first down. With Ithaca out of timeouts, the Saxons were able to run out the clock and secure the victory.

Dwyer finished with 129 yards on 28 carries and DeRosa had 30 yards on nine carries.

The game was close throughout. AU took a 14-6 lead after Clark bulled into the endzone from three yards out (one a fourth down play) to cap a 14-play, 78-yard drive with just under two minutes left in the third. The Saxon drive came after Clark's interception at the Alfred 22-yard line with 3:52 left in the third.

Ithaca had a chance to tie the game at 14 when Dan Ruffrage returned a punt 43 yards for a touchdown with 12:08 left in the fourth, but the two-point conversion attempt failed as Clark sacked IC quarterback Phil Neumann and Alfred led 14-12. On its ensuing possession, AU drove 68 yards in eight plays before senior quarterback T.J. Kilcarr (Nanuet/Clarkstown South) hit junior tight end Adam Schutz (Geneva) with a 15-yard TD pass to put Alfred up 21-12. Dwyer ran for 34 yards on the drive.

Kilcarr finished 17-of-30 for 211 yards and two touchdowns with one interception. Sophomore wide receiver Justin Oliver (Rocky Point) had three catches for 70 yards and a score and Schutz had five catches for 53 yards and a score. Sophomore wideout Josh Phillips (Syracuse/West Genesee) caught four passes for 42 yards.

AU led 7-6 at intermission, thanks to a late first half defensive stand.

Ithaca had a chance to take a halftime lead when Jarrett Naiden broke free for an 86-yard run with Roland O'Brien (Hoosick Falls) saving the touchdown by pushing him out of bounds at the Alfred 2-yard line with under two minutes left in the half. After gaining only one yard on three plays, the Bombers settled for the second of Andrew Rogowski's two first-half field goals, this 19-yarder coming on fourth-and-goal from

Ithaca's first field goal, from 28 yards 2:49 into the contest, staked Ithaca to a 3-0 lead. AU took a 7-3 lead 2:52 in to the second when Kilcarr capped an eight-play 70-yard drive with a 40-yard scoring pass to Oliver.

AU dominated the stat sheet, producing 394 yards of offense

(211 passing, 183 rushing) to 239 for Ithaca (112 passing, 127 rushing). The Saxons had 22 first downs to nine for Ithaca and converted nine of 18 third downs to only four of 15 for the Bombers.

AU senior end Marcellus Jones (Lancaster) (sack) and junior tackle Mike Raplee (Dundee) each had five tackles and junior end Chris Steeves (Rochester/Gates-Chili) had a sack.

Neumann was 10-of-31 for 112 yards, a touchdown and an interception. Ruffrage caught three passes for 55 yards and Ingrao had four receptions for 22 yards and a touchdown. Naiden had 18 rushes for 141 yards.

Eric Toporoff and Will Carter each had 12 tackles to pace the Ithaca defense. Joe Gilfedder had nine stops and Mike Conti had an interception for the Bombers.

Alfred is in action next on Saturday, Nov. 12, at 1 p.m. at home against Empire 8 foe Utica, in the regular season finale for both teams.

"Congrats" are also in order for Coach Gary "Doc" Moore (A-A) as his Alfred State women are national champs in cross country! The ladies traveled to Westfield, MA and emerged victorious in the NJCAA Division III ranks. Is the second championship trophy for this program as they also won it in 2003. And for some icing on the cake, Moore ... an A-A Hall of Famer, was named NJCAA Coach of the Year! I would certainly hope so. "Little" biased here as Moore is a friend of mine but an honor beyond-richly deserved. Moore is one of those coaches that is constantly recruiting, on the road all over the place and to see all of that come together with a championship and award is most fitting.

The Hornell Red Raiders (10-0) are sectional football champs for the 11th time after they drilled Livonia in the "B" finals, 58-7. The two-time defending state champs will play Alden (10-0) next from the Buffalo region in quarter-final action.

Meanwhile, the Wellsville Lions (8-2) football team are sectional champs for the first time. Wellsville beat Wayland-Cohocton by the slimmest of margins, 23-22 to grab the trophy in "C" play. They will now tangle with Southwestern (Jamestown-Lakewood area) from Section Six.

There are now two, fall championships in the Sherman household in Brockport! Coach Kristy Sherman's (Arkport) girls soccer team at Brockport High won the "AA" sectionals by beating Fairport, 2-1. Skip's (A-A) baseball team at Genesee CC won the WNYAC title a couple weeks back. Brockport (19-1) goes up against Williamsville North next, the #1-ranked team in the state. Yikes. You are 19-1 and have to go against the top squad in the state ... in the quarter-finals!

Greece Odyssey beat the Hornell Red Raiders girls soccer team in the "B" sectional finals, 3-0. Was third-straight sectional title for the Greece school.

In other Division III football action this week it was: RPI stunning previously undefeated Hobart, Salisbury blasting SJ Fisher to win the E8 title, UR easing by St. Lawrence, Cortland topping Brockport and Buffalo State "nipping" that Morrisville program, 58-31.

LSU and Alabama the "Game of the Century" on Saturday? How about one of the most boring games ever? Yes, great defenses. Granted. How about getting a QB to go along with your great defense! A 9-6 game just not all that exciting. 9-6 in overtime, to boot (no pun intended Bama fans). They could meet again in the BCS title game as I think Oregon will beat Stanford this week and Oklahoma might knock off Oklahoma State later on.

And Syracuse loses to a very mediocre UConn football team, 28-21.

Things not so happy in "Happy Valley" this week. Joe Paterno at Penn State ... must go. A moral blunder.

The New England Pats had about 20-draft picks this year and they still have no defense?

"Really" going to miss the NBA this year.

Coach Tim Green at Skaneateles High ... wow.

Why did DH/sluggner Jim Thome sign a one-year deal with the Phils? Where is he going to play?

Some NYS vanity plates spotted: TNT TAT2, REDHAWK7, PLYNFIRE, L ODUM ... of the Lakers and SANDMAN8 ... often on Frank's golf scorecard. Also, from Illinois and spotted in Ithaca parking lot: MR CLEAN.

The SUNY Genesee women's soccer team (14-4-2) lost in the semi-finals of their conference playoffs to #1-seeded Cortland, at Cortland, 3-2 in PK's after a scoreless regulation and two overtimes. Ouch. A very competitive and tight conference. Cortland then fell in the title game to New Paltz, 1-0. That loss probably cost Coach Wiley's team an at-large bid to the Division III NCAA tournament. Yuk. Cortland got bid as did Stevens (champs) and Ithaca from the E8. "Sure" Nazareth enjoyed that as they beat the Bombers in their conference semi-finals. Also in is William Smith (15-0-2) ... ranked #2 in the country behind Messiah, obviously. Was hoping to hit the road again this weekend with Randy Beale from Penfield to watch some more Genesee soccer. Not to be.

3L is playing on a coed soccer team in NYC thanks to Mike Jock, brother of former Genesee teammate, Rian. She is happy to be playing soccer again as she gears up for a 10K run in Cincy on Thanksgiving Day.

The Brooklyn Pickle.

Off to Alfred this Saturday with Nealon to watch some more AU football.

Finally this week, a salute to my Uncle Butch and veterans galore on Veterans Day, November 11th. Thank You!

The race course was modified from the original course due to the last weekend's snowstorm that hit the east coast. Most of the 5k course was run on roads instead of in the park.

The national championship was the 13th in the history of Alfred State and the third by a women's team.

Football: 5-4, Will play for Region III Championship Next Weekend at Erie CC

Neicefe Rieddick (Syracuse/Bishop Grimes) picked off a pass.

Men's Basketball: 2-1

The Pioneers opened up their season by winning two of their first three games. They opened up the season with an 88-75 victory at Broome CC and then split a pair at the Mohawk Valley CC Tournament. They fell 84-71 to Mohawk Valley CC and then defeated Queensborough CC 89-83 in the consolation game.

In the season opener at BCC, Patrick Parker (Queens/Hillcrest) scored 17 of his team high 21 points in the second half while Alex Hall (Jamaica/Forest Hills) added 19 points (4 three-pointers). Darin Butts (Jamestown) and Dashino Charles (Elizabeth, NJ) each finished with 13.

On Friday vs. MVCC, Kadeem Hillman (Buffalo/International Prep) led the Pioneers with 22 points while DaQuan Allen (Brooklyn/Boys & Girls) added 13. Parker also finished in double figures with 11.

Versus QCC all five starters finished in double figures. Parker led ASC with 28 points. Hillman had 12, Butts had 11, and Allen and Hall both chipped in 10.

Women's Basketball: 3-0, SUNY Delhi Tournament Champions

The Lady Pioneers were a perfect 3-0 this past week and claimed the SUNY Delhi Tournament title. ASC defeated Broome CC 66-59 in their opener and then defeated Sullivan CC 72-42 and Delhi 74-71 at the Delhi tourney.

Versus BCC, Camille Romero (Queens Village/Mary Louis) led the blue & gold with 22 points while Nuri Bey (Bronx/HS of Computers & Technology) chipped in 14. Freshman Hailey Witchella added 12 and Amie Brooks (Pavilion) had eight points on the day.

Romero and Witchella each scored 17 points to pace the Lady Pioneers in the victory over Sullivan. Brooks chipped in 12 and Carriola Chambers (Manhattan/Facing History) added seven.

In the tournament finals vs. Delhi, Romero scored 21 points to lead ASC en route to being named the MVP of the Tournament. Witchella added 20 points and was named to the All-Tournament team. Brooks chipped in 14 points and Bey had 10.

Swimming: Men 2-0 & 2nd at GCC Invite, Women 1-1 & 5th at GCC Invite

The swim team got their season with two competitions this past week. The men swept a double dual meet vs. Genesee CC and Mercyhurst North East and then finished 2nd at the Genesee CC Invitational while the women split the double dual and finished 5th at GCC.

On Wednesday, Braden Kozlowski (N. Tonawanda) led the blue & gold with two victories on the night. He won the 200 free (1:58.00) and the 500 free (5:29.85). Talon Schroeder (Norwich) won the 1,000 free (12:03.34), Jacob Giglio (Hornell) won the 50 free (23.59), and Josh McDowell (Wayland Cohocton) won the 100 free (55.93).

The men's 400 relay team of Josh Stellrecht (Oakfield Alabama), McDowell, Schroeder, and Kozlowski won in 3:42.76 and the 200 medley relay team of Joshua Tull (Lansing), Mark Pendelton (Beacon), Giglio, and Samuel Naughton (East Aurora) won in 1:52.90.

Wrestling: 8th at Ithaca Invite, Tyler Peet 149 lb. Champ

Tyler Peet (Unadilla Valley) opened up his season an impressive fashion by winning the 149 lb. weight class title at the Ithaca Invitational. Peet helped Alfred State finish 9th with 50 points in the two-day competition.

Peet pinned Tyler Carmen (Oswego) in 46 seconds and then pinned James Gendler (Springfield College) in 58 seconds to advance to the semis. He defeated Eric Hamrick (Springfield College) 7-1 in the semifinals and then earned the title when he defeated #1 seed Alec Miller (Thiel) 8-3.

Dondrey Sharrock (Sleepy Hollow) finished 4th in the 197 lb. weight class competition. In the quarterfinals he earned a 7-5 victory over Joseph Frankel (Oswego). In the semifinals he fell 13-3 but was able to bounce back with a 6-3 win over Ryan Murphy (Thiel) in the consolation semifinals. In the 3rd place match, he battled Patrick Morris tough but fell.

William Carmella (Kings Park) finished 2-2 but did not place in the 157 lb. weight class.

The Dugout

By DOUG LOROW
Alfred Sun Sports Columnist
dugout2@gmail.com

Where do I start this week in the "local" world of sports? With Gary "Doc" Moore's NJCAA championship women's cross country team at Alfred State College? Or with the 21-19 victory by the Alfred Saxons on the football field at Ithaca? Yes, AT Ithaca! Or with fact that the Alfred-Almond girls and boys soccer teams each grabbed a sectional trophy over the weekend past? Whew. Some great action and achievements by local teams, high school and college.

Will begin with the Alfred University victory over the Bombers in Ithaca mainly because I went to the game. Little easier to write about an event you were actually at rather than getting details from others or just reading about it. Not that I ever do that! Anyhow, it was off to Ithaca on a beautiful fall day in November with noted area photographer, Leo Nealon. He on "double assignment." Me along to enjoy the game and even write about some of it here. After stopping near Geneva for breakfast at Magees Diner we got there plenty early as Nealon wanted to get some shots during warmups. Leaving me time to settle in along the fence, near the Saxons bench and look for Martin "Larvell" Moses. Never did see him this day which was a huge surprise.

Despite excellent records over the years, especially of late, Alfred had not been victorious in Ithaca since the 1982 season. Now, some of that is deceiving as AU-Ithaca only play there every-other-year, obviously and sure there are some years in there when AU wasn't in the E8 conference and thus didn't play Ithaca. So, not like it was 29-straight losses but it has been awhile. The time was certainly ripe this year as the Bombers are having a rare, mediocre season for them, coming into the contest at (4-4). Alfred was only slightly better at (5-3) but perhaps gearing up for an ECAC Bowl berth with a key win on the road. The Bombers finish up their 2011 slate with games versus Alfred and Cortland. Yikes. Hello ... 4-6!

Per normal I ran into some people I knew but not exactly what I was expecting. Had a chance to chat briefly with Saxons great Joe Van Cura, met Brian Keefer before the contest and mid-way thru the first period I heard a familiar voice from a guy standing about four-feet away from me along the rail as well. It was Terry Williams ... Webber, from Olean. Hadn't seen him in probably 25-years! Played softball against and with him, a sales rep that I knew when I worked in Alfred. He was chatting with Mr. Secky ... father of AU's Tom Secky and LeMoyné basketball player, Chris Secky. Williams introduced us and Chris actually showed up late after his hoops team finished a scrimmage game. The Secky brothers are former QB's at Maple Grove High School over near Jamestown.

Oh yes, on the field, Alfred played a solid if not spectacular game and defeated Ithaca, 21-19. Being on "field level" was quite the different view for me and an eye-opener in some cases. Some great hits nearby on a field that looked like the old, grass field at Merrill in Alfred. Austin Dwyer of Hornell had a good game as did Nick Clark of Canisteo (when doesn't he?) and AU departed with a big win over the Bombers.

Said my good-byes to Williams and headed down to the end-zone where we came in to wait for Nealon. Fully expected to see Moses or Dave Snyder or Woody & Sue Lange. Saw none of them. Maybe I missed them all! Did see the former Alfred Mayor though. With the win Alfred is indeed in good position for an ECAC berth and with a victory Saturday over Utica, maybe a home game as well.

HITS AND MISSES:

"Congrats" are indeed in order for the A-A soccer teams, both sectional champs! The boys (16-1-2) topped Arkport, 1-0 and the girls (15-3-1) also beat Arkport in the title game, 3-2. Whew, tough week for the Bluejays. Even "tougher" one for Fillmore. Both of their teams were seeded #1 for the sectionals. The Arkport boys eased by Fillmore in the semi-finals on PK's and the A-A girls advanced over Fillmore to the championship contest, also on PK's. Both A-A teams had state qualifier games slated for this past Tuesday at Wellsville. As "DD" champs they had to play the "D" winners with those winners taking on the Buffalo Region qualifiers in state play. The boys took on Whitesville (who beat Andover) and the girls were up against Belfast. Guessing the winners will play this Saturday in the Buffalo area, maybe Amherst or ECC.

Alfred State wins AU Horse Show in riding debut

ALFRED--The Alfred State College Western Equestrian Club Team won the grand championship at its first Intercollegiate Horse Show Association (IHSA) show of the 2011 season (Oct. 22). The newly formed team tied with Cornell for top honors in the intercollegiate riding event held at Bromley-Daggett Equestrian Center at Alfred University.

"All things considered, the team's performance was remarkable," said head Western Coach Marie Dougherty. "These kids went up against some serious varsity riders from some well-established programs like Cornell and AU and RIT (Rochester Institute of Technology). And they walked away with a Grand Champion Ribbon in their first intercollegiate show. As a club team, we have only been training together for four weeks, but they rode like old pros."

The newly constituted Alfred State College team was recently formed as a "club" team under the direction of Vicki Bolton, SUNY Distinguished Teaching Professor, and Jessica Hutchison, lecturer, both in the Department of Agriculture and Veterinary Technology.

Long-time West Almond trainer and equestrian rider Marie Dougherty was tapped as Western Coach to ready the 17-member team for a the eight-show season (Oct. 22-March 3). The team trains at Hurdale Farm equestrian center owned by Peggie Blamire and Marie Dougherty in West Almond. Also helping with the team is Christina Brokaw, Arkport.

According to Bolton, "There is a lot of buzz on campus about the program. Team members are sporting sharp new 'Equestrian Team' jackets and the winning ribbons are displayed for all to see. We're located in the heart of horse country and there has always been a lot of interest in riding here at the College. Having a truly competitive program here will fuel the fire. Our Equestrian Club is currently at 55 members and growing everyday."

Alfred State College competes in association with the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association (IHSA) with some 8,300 students representing 370 colleges and universities. IHSA participation stresses learning, sportsmanship, fun and encourages student show participation at all levels of riding skill.

Alfred State College results:
Open Reining--Justine Burnett, Almond, veterinary technology, 4th and 4th.

Open Horsemanship--Justine Burnett 1st and 3rd.

Advanced Horsemanship-- Laura D'Amico, Clifton Springs, veterinary technology, 2nd and 3rd

PEP TALK

By DAVE "Pep" SNYDER
Adviser, AU Pep Band

"MR. CLUTCH"

Call him "Mr. Clutch."
With Alfred University clinging to a 7-6 third quarter lead, AU senior standout linebacker Nick Clark (Canisteo-Greenwood) intercepted a Phil Neumann pass at the Saxon 22-yard-line to halt an Ithaca Bomber scoring opportunity.

The Saxon offense responded and grounded out a 14-play, 78-yard scoring drive. While Austin Dwyer (Hornell) accounted for most of the drive's yardage, it was culminated by a gutsy fourth down 3-yard TD run by short yardage running back Nick Clark. Clark took a pitchout from AU quarterback T.J. Kilcarr (Nanuet/Clarkstown South) and fought his way into the end zone. Eric Rockwood (Allegany) added the PAT and Alfred's lead was 14-6.

When the nation's second leading punt returner Dan Ruffrage returned a Rockwood punt 43 yards for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter, Coach Mike Welch elected to go for a two-point conversion to tie the game. But "Mr. Clutch" sacked Neumann and the Saxons retained a slim 14-12 lead.

Masterfully mixing runs and passes and a face-mask penalty against Ithaca thrown in for good measure, the Saxons then drove 68 yards on 8 plays, scoring on a 15-yard pass from Kilcarr to Adam Schutz (Geneva), who had five catches for 53 yards to lead AU receivers. Rockwood's PAT gave AU a 21-12 lead.

While the Bombers rallied for another late TD to pull within 21-19, AU's offense ran out the clock with some nifty runs to preserve the Saxons' first win at Ithaca since 1982. The loss also snapped Ithaca's string of 40 straight winning seasons as Ithaca (4-5) can only hope to finish at 5-5 with a win in Cortaca.

But back to Clark.
Known for making big plays, Clark has been a consistent performer for four seasons at Alfred. In fact, on Saturday, two plays before his interception, Clark made his fourth tackle of the day, giving him 360 career tackles. It's a Saxon record. He finished with six tackles and one assist, giving him 363 career tackles. Wil Green formerly held the record with 359 tackles from 1993-96.

Clark has surpassed a number of standout Saxon defenders on the career tackle list. After Wil Green at 359, Brian O'Neil (1979-82) had 353 career tackles; John Hoosock, who has the AU record for most tackles in a season with 154 stops in 1990, finished with 350 career tackles; Brian Keefer (1997-2000) had 317 career tackles; and Bob Carley (1983-86) had 308 career tackles.

Clark has led Alfred in tackles each season since donning the purple and gold. As a freshman he had 66 tackles in 2008; 76 in 2009, 112 in 2010 and, to date, 94 in 2011, with a game or two to go.

"I think most people would consider him one of the best defensive players in the country," said Coach Dave Murray, "He forces other offenses to adjust to him, and he's an outstanding leader who makes everyone around him better."

A Second Team D3football.com preseason All-American this year, Clark was named Empire 8 Defensive Player of the Year and a Second Team D3football.com All-American in 2010.

EXTRA POINTS: Rockwood was a perfect 3-for-3 on PATs Saturday but did not get a field goal try... T.J. Kilcarr had a good day Saturday, completing 17 of 30 passes for 211 yards with 1 interception and 2 TDs...Austin Dwyer (Hornell) ran for 129 yards on 28 carries...AU dominated the time of possession with over 21 minutes in the second half; overall, it was 38:49 to 21:11... Saxons (6-3) will host Empire 8 foe Utica (5-4) Saturday at Merrill Field with kickoff at 1 p.m. The Pioneers have lost two consecutive games, 63-36 to St. John Fisher; and 40-14 to Springfield...an ECAC Bowl invitation is likely on the line Saturday.
