New Round of Employment Scams

Please be advised, a number of students have reportedly received e-mails from employers stating that the Career Development Center sent the employer the student's resume. The Career Development Center does not forward resumes to employers without consent. Therefore, these are scams phishing for additional information.

If you receive such e-mails, please forward them to the cdc@alfred.edu for evaluation and and to be processed (blocked) by ITS.

Thank you

Lauren Adams Live @ Studio Visits!

Join us for our first STUDIO VISITS lecture and talk show this Wednesday, Sept. 21, from 9-11 a.m. in Nevins, Powell Campus Center.

This week we are welcoming artist Lauren Adams from St. Louis to the stage. Lauren Frances Adams is an artist from North Carolina who currently resides in St. Louis, Missouri. Lauren's artwork primarily features painting, drawing, printmaking and sometimes video and performance in the context of installation works. Her interests include political propaganda, the history of decorative arts, and the work of the Russian Revolutionary artists of the early 20th century.

To learn more about Lauren or Studio Visits go to the SV Web site <http://austudiovisits.wor...> or to <http://www.lfadams.com/>.

All SV events are free and open to the public.

Play 'Angry Word,' A New Game Invented By Openhym Residents

You've heard of ANGRY BIRDS! Now play ANGRY WORDS, a life-sized version of the popular bird-slinging game with an educational lesson built in!

Join us Wednesday from 5:30-6:30 p.m. on the Openhym Lawn as we slingshot the birds (free speech) across the lawn and knock over the pigs (speech not protected by freedom of speech). You'll have so much fun, you won't even feel the pain of learning new stuff.

$50 prize for the winning contestant!
Sponsored by Openhym's Drawn to Diversity Living-Learning Community.

'The Belle of Amherst' in Angelica

The Angelica Players will present a one-night performance of "The Belle of Amherst" by William Luce on Friday, Sept. 23 at 7 p.m. at the Angelica Free Library.

The Belle of Amherst delicately explores the life of America's greatest woman poet at various stages in her experience from the age of 15, when she was full of hope and success, until she died at 56, a virtual recluse with her door closed against society. Her life is recreated with liberal excerpts from her poetry and by the method of her playing the roles of her father, teacher and friends.

The evening's performance features the talents of Annie Wright, veteran community theater actress of Warsaw. The production is directed by Wright's theater colleague and peer, Mary Eckstein.

Tickets are $4 and can be purchased at the door or in advance at The Angelica Sweet Shop, by e-mailing info@angelicaplayers.com, or calling 585.466.3787.
