Undergraduate Students - Financial Aid Application Procedures for 2010-11

The AU Financial Aid Application and filing instructions for the 2010-11 academic year have been placed in your Powell Campus mailbox. Please be sure to stop by your mailbox to pick up these documents before you leave campus.

If you had an expected graduation date for December 2009 or May 2010, a financial aid application was not placed in your mailbox. If you plan to return to AU for the 2010-11 academic year and did not receive an application packet, please pick one up at the Financial Aid Office. The Financial Aid Office is open 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Troop Drive

The AU Outdoor Club is doing a drive to support our troops overseas. We are looking for small toys, non-perishable foods, sample-sized toiletries and appropriate magazines to send over for Christmas to those who don't get as much mail. There are boxes in the Powell Dining Hall, Info desk, Ade, and at the Equestrian Center. Money to help with the shipping costs would also be appreciated.

Free Pizza at Relay for Life!

This is the last chance for your team to get free pizza at Relay for Life! All you need to do is have one person from your team sign up online (www.relayforlife.org/alfr...) by Friday, Dec. 4 at midnight and it's all yours. Who wouldn't want free pizza anyways?

And for those of you who don't know what Relay for Life is, it is a 12-hour American Cancer Society fundraiser that gives us the opportunity to celebrate the lives of those who have battled against cancer, remember those who have been lost, and to fight back against the disease that affects us all! It is a great time and lots of fun; friends and memories will be made!

SPCA Serving Allegany County Christmas Extravaganza

The SPCA Serving Allegany County is holding its Christmas Extravaganza on Saturday, Dec. 5 at the Wellsville High/Middle School from 9a.m.-2 p.m.

This year all of our delicious cookies will be pre-packaged for your own enjoyment or for your gift giving pleasure. Typically we will have Peanut Butter Kisses, Peanut Butter Fudge, Chocolate Chip Cookies, Snicker Doodles, Ginger Crinkles, and Peanut Butter Cookies. We will also have many cut-out and other types of Christmas cookies and candies.

But wait, there's more! This year, in addition to the cookies, candies, and baked goods, we will have pet treats for your furry friends, fabulous crafts, and used books. Santa will be there for a digital photo with your dog or cat and we will have gingerbread men for the children to decorate. You won't want to miss it!

Bring the whole family and help support our furry friends at the SPCA. Remember, "The furry faces we have may change, but the needs never go away."

All of the proceeds will go to help the homeless animals of Allegany County.

If you would like to help, we are in need of Christmas cookies, other cookies, baked goods, and donated crafts. If you like to bake or donate crafts, this is your chance to help the shelter animals!

Please have your cookies ready to go by Friday, Dec. 4. Cookies can be dropped off at the Service Desk in K-Mart on Dec. 4 or call the shelter at 585.593.2200 for more information on where to drop them off.

Joy to the World by Hornell Area Community Choir

On Sunday, Dec. 6 at 7 p.m., the Hornell Area Community Choir will be performing its annual Christmas Cantata at St. Ann's Roman Catholic Church, 27 Erie Ave., Hornell.

The choir is directed by AU's own Mark Smith, librarian at Scholes and former Canisteo music teacher. Members of the choir come from a variety of backgrounds, including the Maple City Barbershoppers, area church choirs, and members from more than 20 area churches. The choir will be accompanied by an instrumental ensemble.

Admission is free, but free-will offerings will be accepted. All funds raised this year will go to Faith in Action.

The doors open at 6 p.m., when John Bartell, the organist for the church, will play Christmas tunes before the choir reaches the stage at 7 p.m.
