

Seventh Annual Interscholastic Meet the Biggest yet--Batavia Takes the Trophy-- Canisteo Close Second--Griffiths Third

A team winning the trophy the second year in succession for the first time, a record attendance, and the establishing of three new records, were the most striking features marking the Seventh Interscholastic Meet last Wednesday when Batavia took first place with 22 points, Canisteo second with 18 points, and Griffiths Institute third with 16 points.

It was a stroke of good fortune that the one consistently pleasant day in May should be the one chosen for the Meet, all the weather requirements for such an event bringing out the largest crowd that has ever attended an Interscholastic since its inauguration in 1909 by the Alfred Alumni of New York City. The day was not entirely perfect, for the morning broke with a cloudy and dreary coldness which was, however, dispelled by 10 o'clock, bringing the crowd in for the afternoon finals by automobiles, buses and trains.

While the number of entries was somewhat less than last year the contestants who responded were from larger schools and represented a much higher class field in every event than in any previous meet. Each event was warmly contested and the well-trained athletes conducted themselves like true sportsmen throughout the day.

The new records hung up were made by Weldgen of Batavia who in the hammer throw, after establishing a record 131 feet, 4 inches, in his trial for the record, with a throw of 141 feet, 2 inches, broke the old record of 128 feet, 2 inches held by Card of Olean since 1909. Wilcox of Binghamton, who won the broad-jump by a leap of 20 feet, 7 inches which is one inch over the record of Sheppard of Alfred in 1912; and Johnson of Batavia who did the mile in 5 minutes, 8 4-5 seconds, the previous record for which was 5 minutes, 16 seconds held by Howard of Alfred and which has stood since the first meet.

As was the case last year, the

Sophs Out For Second Conquest —List of Events

Next Friday is the day of the annual Interclass Meet, and as usual, a good representation is promised. The usual list of events are scheduled and as some records are within the striking mark there is a strong possibility that this Meet may see some new ones established.

Last year the Sophomores won the Meet which gave to them one leg of the cup. Three consecutive victories is the number required to take the cup so that they are out for the other two wins while naturally the other classes are equally determined that the Sophs will not be allowed to carry out their designs.

ANNUAL SPEAKING CONTEST

Seventeen Entries—Separate Medals For Girls and Boys

The Seventh Interscholastic Speaking Contest held at the village church on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of last week was one of the most enjoyable features of the Meet. The girls' contest was held on Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, seven girls from the high schools of Western New York and Pennsylvania competing. The prizes were awarded as follows: first (gold medal), Miss Elizabeth Murray of the Haverling High School at Bath, N. Y., subject, "A Pleasant Half Hour On The Beach;" second (silver medal), Miss Madeline McNamara of the Corning Free Academy, subject, "In The Vanguard;" third, (bronze medal) Miss Mary Phillips of the Wellsville High School, subject, "The Fiddle Told."

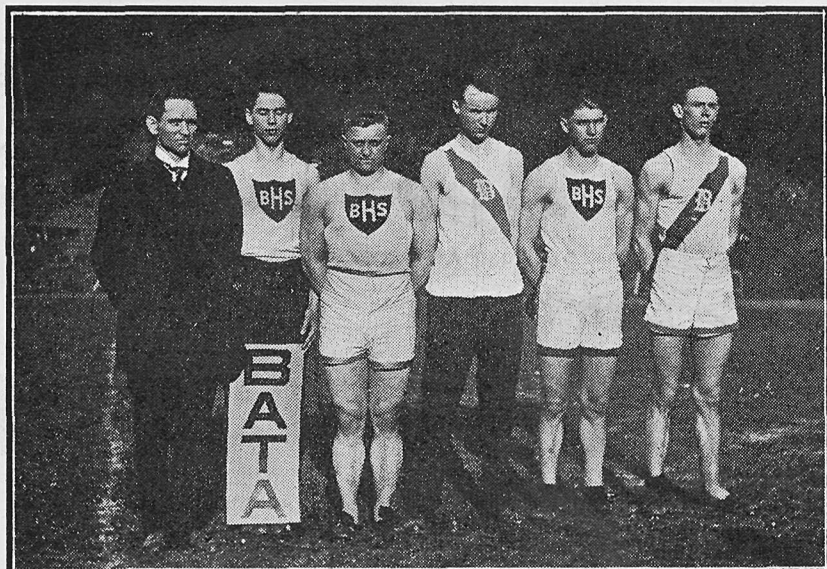

The other contestants, all of whom are to be congratulated upon their excellent work were: Miss Helen Kilts, Canisteo Academy, "The Little Colonel;" Miss Gladys Root, Bolivar High School, "The Painter of Seville;" Miss Mary E. Saunders, Alfred Academy, "The Shadow of Kishineff;" Miss Frances Stull, Portville High School, "The Hundred And Oneth." Those fortunate enough to hear the speakers were unanimous in declaring that their work compared favorably with that done by professionals.

Music was furnished during the intermissions, by Mildred Taber '17, and Stanton Davis '17. The judges for the evening were: Prin. A. M. Blodgett, Corning Northside High School, Prof. Katherine Porter, Alfred University, Dr. P. E. Titsworth, Alfred University.

NOO YAWK CLUB

On May 22, the Club held its second shoot and picnic. Although the weather looked threatening in the morning, the afternoon and evening were ideal.

The shoot began at 3:30 and lasted until 5:30. Manager Anderson made the greatest number of kills and Gerald Platt '16, was a close second being followed by Arthur Sheridan '15.

Of the ladies, Miss Bessie Kenyon again was first, hitting two out of five.

After the shoot, a camp fire was built, and the girls, assisted by Professor Pontius, prepared the supper which to say the least, was excellent.

Arthur Sheridan '15, and Irving Maure '15, entertained the party with music while the evening wore on and before anyone realized it the time to go home was at hand.

During the meal, Manager Anderson was presented with a birthday cake by the ladies and a watch fob by the Club.

Professor Pontius and Miss Bennett chaperons of the party, were well pleased with the day's fun. Professor Pontius, who took an active part in the shooting, tied fourth with several others.

We all feel sorry that our time to stay here is limited so that only one more Club Shoot and picnic is possible. However, all are looking forward to the next one with the anticipation of having as good a time as at the first two.

N. Y. S. A. CAMPUS

Bob Prangen '16, spent the week-end at home.

Chester Platt was in town over the week-end visiting his brother, Gerald Platt '16.

Almon Thayer '16, was in town for the Track Meet and incidently on some other business.

Francis Acker '15, spent the week-end at his home.

Hub Williams '17, was in town most of last week. On Friday, May 21, he pitched for the town team.

Mark Sanford '15, F. Conderman '15, Ernest Cochran '16, Harold Dennis '16, Roger Kilts '14, LaVerne Kenyon '15, and Gerald Gahagan were in town for the Track Meet.

Harry Blackmore '15, Marie Angell '17, Arthur Booth '15, Bernice Sherman '15, Harold Howard '15, and Miss Nellie Barkhouse, who acted as chaperone, went on a picnic last Monday afternoon in Lover's Lane.

SECOND ANNUAL STOCK JUDGING CONTEST

The second annual stock judging contest held in connection with the Interscholastic Meet last Wednesday was run off on scheduled time and attracted much interest as was shown by the number of spectators present.

There were eight schools entered but only six reported.

In Class A, the silver loving cup donated by the Allegany-Steuben Holstein-Friesian Breeders' Association was won by the team from Atlanta High School, R. L. Jeffers coach, composed of Henry Gardner, Clara Gray, and Elsworth Wolfanger. Their score was 321 points. Belmont High School won the special contest banner in this class with a score of 307 points.

In Class B, Portville High School team with a score of 362 points won the silver loving cup donated by the David Harum Stock Farm, Syracuse, N. Y. The team was composed of R. L. Hatch, George Scott, and Ward Black. Alfred Academy won the special banner which was second prize with 334 points. Canisteo High School took third and Almond High School fourth place.

The individual prizes were awarded to Carl Davis Alfred Academy, first, with 150 points, who received a copy of Henry's "Feeds and Feeding." The second prize of Plumb's "Types and Breeds of Farm Animals" was awarded to R. L. Hatch of Portville High School.

The cattle in Class A, were from the State Farm Barns and the Percheron mares No. 2 and 3 were from S. S. Karr & Son, Almond. No. 1 Charles Whitney, Almond and No. 4 from L. H. Burdick, also of Almond.

This is the first year that silver trophies have been awarded. They are the property of the winning school until the next contest when they are to be returned and put up for competition. Should any one school win a cup three times in succession it becomes the permanent property of that school.

The contestants were accommodated at the Farmers' Club during the Meet.

Prof. Pontius, Superintendent Poole and F. C. Smith, Allegany County Farm Bureau Manager, were judges of the contest.

COUNTRY LIFE CLUB

A most interesting program was rendered last week on the development of the talking machine since its invention. Following is the program:

Song	Club
Devotions	Mr. Acker
Reading—Development of the Victrola	Mr. Feagles
Music	Mr. Sheridan
Reading—Manufacture of Records	Miss Tuttle
Music	Mr. Sheridan
Song	Club

Mr. Feagle's and Miss Tuttle's readings were very appropriate and Mr. Sheridan fortunately had two records that were over fifteen years old, "Rigoletto" and "Crucifix" which he played first. He then played "A Dream" by Evan Williams, "A Voice in the Woods" by Misha Elman, "Three Trees" by Tom McNaughton, "Mother Machree" by John MacCormack and "The Wee Hoose 'Mong the Heather" by Harry Lauder. The difference between the old and new records was very noticeable both in clearness and evenness.

We wish to thank those who aided in the program and hope Mr. Sheridan will favor us with some more selections before we leave.

TRACK MEET

entire day was devoted to the meet and the morning trials gave promise of some good performances in the finals. The choice of the field as shown by the trials seemed to be between Batavia, Binghamton and Canisteo with the first two the biggest favorites Binghamton, however, was unable to stand up under the grelling test and in the finals was passed by Griffiths and tied by Coudersport and Corning Free Academy.

Twenty contestants started in the 100 yard dash and though the track was slow due to recent rains, every heat was a thriller. Birmingham of Bradford and Smead of Griffiths, made the best impression in the trials, and bore it out in the finals when the first and second places respectively were taken by these men. In the finals Birmingham led from the crack of the pistol but the manner in which he was pushed by the others made this one of the prettiest races of the day.

The 220 yard low hurdles was well contested throughout and was only 3-5 of a second behind the record established last year by Kerr of Wellsville. Lane of Canisteo, in taking first place, showed good form but was pushed hard by O'Neill of Hornell.

A large number were entered in the 220 yard dash which was slow but closely contested. McGonnell of Coudersport came up well in this, and, passing the others on the straight-away, won by a safe margin, although Smead of Griffiths clung to him gamely and finished a good second.

The gruelling 440 yard dash was the best and fastest dash of the day. Several of the morning trials passed last year's time and in the finals Longcor in a heart-breaking spurt broke the tape ahead of Davern of Binghamton in 56 seconds which, although 1 3-5 seconds slower than Johnson's record, was remarkable time for the condition of the track.

The first record of the running events which was threatened was the 880 yard run which was sensational all the way through. Darling of Griffiths was one of the pace setters, but Kennedy of Batavia soon pulled himself out of the bunch and leaving the field behind crossed the line in 2 minutes, 14 seconds, which tied the 1913 record of Jeffers of Cook Academy. Everetts of Corning and Darling then furnished a closer race for second and third places, Everetts securing the verdict. Kennedy, the winner, is one of Batavia cracks and is one of the best trained athletes ever entered in an Alfred meet.

Real thrills came in the mile run in which Johnson of Batavia hung up a 5 minutes, 8 4-5 seconds new record. Wight of N. Y. S. A. got off at a fast pace and was soon half a lap ahead of the field, but was unable to maintain his lead and was gradually overtaken by the leaders. The fast pace set by Wight, with the finish which followed between the other contestants, were the factors which contributed to the establishing of the new record. Johnson, Dieter of Bradford and Blemaster of Griffiths, fought it out on the last lap and, while it was plainly evident that Johnson would take first, he was forced to the last.

In the broad jump a better showing was made than last year when the contestants displayed lack of practice. Here the second record of the day was made, and although Wilcox of Binghamton with his leap of 20 feet, 7 inches easily outdistanced his opponents, the event was one of the best of the field events.

Weldgen of Batavia had little difficulty in taking first in the hammer throw, although Niles of Corning Free Academy came very close to passing Card's previous record. Weldgen, who is the best hammer thrower ever seen in Alfred, broke the former record with a 131 feet, 4 inch throw but, not being satisfied with this, in the trials for record bettered his previous throw by nearly ten feet, or 141 feet, 2 inches.

Waite's (Griffith Institute) record of 10 feet, 6 inches in the pole vault established last year was in little danger and will probably be one of the records which will stand for sometime. Darling and Lowe, both of Griffiths, were first and second, with Glover of Canisteo third. Darling's best effort was 9 feet, 5 inches.

Mosch of Coudersport, O'Neil of Hornell, and Kennedy of Batavia took first, second and third places, respectively, in the high jump. This contest was not characterized by its usual wearing down of the men but was quickly finished by the elimination of all but the point winners. The 5 feet, 5 inch jump of Mosch, while two inches below the record, is a good scholastic mark.

Jamison of Canisteo took first in the shot put, heaving the sphere 39 feet, 5 inches, while Weldgen of Batavia, who won first in the hammer, by taking second place in this event won the distinction of highest individual point winner.

The relay concluded the events of the day. The offer of a special cup for this event led to entries by teams other than the possible winners of the Meet. This race, which is always one of the most exciting from a spectator's standpoint, was not lacking in thrills. Laine, the fourth carrier of the baton for Canisteo, was first to cross the tape while Davern of

For the last time this year we are using our columns as a medium for dunning. It is highly essential that we collect all outstanding subscriptions in order that we may finish the season free of financial obligations. Please, everyone, pay up.

For the enlightenment of the young ladies of the freshman class—or, more specifically, several members from that portion of its personnel residing at Abigal Allen Hall, otherwise known as the Brick—be it stated that it is not customary nor wise to take advice on matters pertaining to the campus rules from any persons other than those constituting the membership of the organization whose specific function it is to determine the application of said rules. This fact should have been sufficiently clear for the comprehension of any intelligent persons, freshmen or otherwise, but the events of last Wednesday would seem to make clear the fact that we had overestimated the mental capacity of a few of both the former and the latter. This, however, neither excuses nor explains the disobedience of these self-assertive young ladies, to the direct mandate of the President of the Student Senate, who, we understand, was consulted by telephone, and who distinctly stated the position of the senate in regard to allowing the infants to appear in public without the insignia of their ranking in college on the day of the Track Meet. But then, we must expect these things occasionally; it is the effect of extreme youth and inexperience which confuses non-conformity to rules and regulations, which, perhaps are not thoroughly understood, with a proper demonstration of independence. That is to say, young people in their underclass days, with the ear-marks of the high school still upon them, are wont to look upon what in vulgar parlance would be termed "brass," as a proper assertion of individuality.

If it were merely a question of the 18'ers having broken over the rules, however, we should not give so much space to the affair. It is not wise to take freshmen too seriously at any time; there are other and more effective avenues of expression than the public prints for keeping the youngsters quiet and dealing with their little attacks of friskiness. What is serious in this affair, what makes it seem to us wise to devote space in these columns to it, is the fact that the poor children were apparently encouraged in their action by those who should have known better. The gravity of the indiscretion of these individuals—Seniors, Juniors and, we are informed, at least one sophomore—is heightened when we consider the fact that two of them have recently been chosen to act on next year's senate. This seems to us a rather poor example to set for underclassmen! If next year's senate hopes for student backing it is only logical to expect that its prospective members should stand behind the present senate. It would have been the part of wisdom to refrain from any high-handed attempt to interpret rules which the senate alone has power to interpret; it would have been the consistent thing to abide by the decision of the body elected by the students for this purpose; it would have been the well-bred thing for these persons to attend strictly to their own affairs, refraining from the assumption of responsibilities that properly fall on other shoulders.

It would almost seem, from the facts brought to light in connection with the affair of last Wednesday, that the student body has made a grave mistake in selecting any of the "feminine persuasion" to serve as senators during next year. How may we expect unprejudiced decisions from the vote of persons who appear so easily swayed by external pressure? How may we hope for the strictly unpartisan judgments so necessary for the maintenance of the principle of student self-government from a senate whose feminine members, in the occurrences of the past week, have shown themselves to be incapable of appreciating the necessity for a consistent upholding of the campus rules?

Those who heard the remarks of the President of the Student Senate in Assembly recently, and who read or heard Prof. Clark's address, with an appreciation of their full significance, cannot fail to see in this affair a serious indictment of the efficacy of student self-government. It would seem that there must always be a few who will not co-operate with the majority in upholding its will, in the expression of that will in the rules it has made, and in the entrusting of the enforcement of the rules to a body which has shown that it is actuated only by a desire to assure the best interests of the majority.

SENATORS ELECT NEXT PRESIDENT

Groves '16, to Hold the Office

At a joint meeting of the old and new Senates last Wednesday evening, Milton Groves '16, was elected president for next year. Mr. Groves is undoubtedly the best man who could possibly have been chosen for this position of honor and trust. Under his capable leadership the student body should take further steps toward a solution of the self-government problem.

people, students and out-of-town guests. Ten boys competed, the prizes being awarded to Paul Laine, Canisteo Academy, subject, "The Murderer's Confession;" Colwell Davis, Alfred Academy, subject, "The Perfect Tribute;" and Claude Lounsberry of the Haverling High School at Bath, N. Y., subject, "Robert of Sicily." The work of these boys was excellent, and made a delightful evening's entertainment. The other entries were: Walter Spencer, Portville High School, "The Lie;" Raymond Weldgen, Batavia High School, "What Then?" J. Gordon Canfield, Binghamton Central High School, "Antonio Maceo;" Harley Crandall, Bouvar High School, "The Sleeping Sentinel;" Adolph Vossler, Wellsville High School, "Decoration Day; A Vision of War;" Edgar Everetts, Corning Free Academy, "A Plea For Cuba;" Harold B. Chapman, Hornell High School, "Jerry, The Bobbin Bay."

The music for the evening was furnished by the Misses Winifred Howe '15, Mabel Hood '17, and Elisabeth Sullivan. Prin. A. M. Blodgett of Corning, Prin. John A. Entz of Coudersport, Pa., and Dr. Paul E. Titsworth acted as judges for the contest.

The interest shown in this work speaks well for the modern ideas in the teaching of public speaking, and is a direct refutation of the assertion that oratory is dying out. The management has been wise indeed, in including such a contest in the events of the annual Meet.

THE MEET IM KURZE

Manager Groves and his assistant, Edward Saunders, deserve

RAYMOND WELDGEN
Of Batavia H. S., Having Highest Individual Score

the distinction of having engineered the best Meet ever held. There is considerable question where Groves secured the horse-shoe which favored us with such ideal weather.

The new scoring system is a great improvement over anything yet devised.

The refreshment booth in charge of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. was well patronized and yielded a good sum to these associations.

Binghamton, Bradford, Pa., and Coudersport were new schools which made good showings and we hope to see them at future Meets.

The Meet was not cornered by a certain few as last year in Carpenter, Kelley and Waite, but the fact that three records were established and another equalled, show that the material was there and competition was keener.

Hornell had the largest out-of-town spectators' delegation — a number sufficient to favor the crowd with a concert.

Alfred Academy now has only one interscholastic record—that is Voorhees' 100 yard dash established in 1909, which will undoubtedly stand the test of time as by it Voorhees entered the 10 second class. Sheppard's broad jump and Howard's mile, were records which fell Wednesday.

The danger from the hammer which has always been evident, is becoming more of a question with the increasing crowd that attends the Meet. On two occasions this year the hammer missed spectators only by a most narrow margin. It is a matter of some concern that some arrangement be made whereby this event can be pulled off without the danger that it now brings to the spectators.

Griffiths Institute seems to have a corner on the pole vault. Their men have taken first the last three or four years, their man Waite holds the record, and the first and second places this year were stowed away by Darling and Lowe.

Batavia's men give the appearance of natural athletes who have responded well to good training.

Canisteo by taking second place, has something to boast of for a high school of its size.

Wellsville, Randolph and Portville, while failing to tally, show themselves true sportsmen and should make themselves more feared another year.

INTERSCHOLASTIC DANCE WELL PATRONIZED

Guests Have Good Time at The Hop

The Hop given in connection with the Interscholastic Meet last Wednesday evening was a most successful affair, bringing the events of Alfred's big day to a pleasant close. About seventy couples were in attendance. Dickinson's Orchestra of Corning, furnished excellent music for the occasion. The management was indeed fortunate in securing their services.

HORNELL INTERSTATE VANTAGES VARSITY

A not very inspiring brand of baseball the first three innings after which time King relieved Blumenthal from the hurling mound tells the greater part of Hornell's Interstate teams running up a 9-0 score against the Varsity on the local field last Thursday. "Long" George failed in his second appearance against an Interstate team and when King was rushed to the rescue in the third with two on bases and only one out, seven runs and as many hits had been garnered from Blumenthal's offerings.

The game from thereon was a better demonstration of baseball and overlooking some juggling by both sides due to the wet ball and slippery field the game was quite interesting. King handed up a variety of curves that the Interstaters found difficult to fathom and when the smoke cleared away at the end of the ninth the results of King's six innings emergency work was seven strikeouts while only two runs and six hits had been chalked up against him which showing is worthy of notice when performed against such a bunch of stickers as the Hornell pros are carrying this year.

On the Varsity end of the hitting column no averages were fattened against Lang and O'Keefe who kept the game well in hand at all stages. Crawford and Capt. Hopkins were the only Varsity men who found the Hornell pitchers each coming across with clean singles. The team's batting eye which seemed to have struck the right focus against Chamberlain, had from all indications been overstrained on the Silver Lake trip.

Line up:

Alfred—Buck 1 b., Hopkins 3 b., King 1st p., G. Crawford c., Howe c. f., Martin 2 b., Decker s. s., F. Crawford 1 f. Blumenthal p., Acker r f., substituted in 4th.

Hornell—Gilhooley 2 b., Hersperger 3 b., Dann c f., Brooks 1 f., Reichert s s., Dahl 1 b., Mansel r f., Prozeller c., Lang p. O'Keefe p. and Dunlavy c. substituted in 6th.

Score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Hornell	4	0	3	0	0	0	1	0	1	—9

STUDENTS PROTEST

The students of the Wesleyan University at Mitchell, South Dakota, adopted resolutions protesting against saloons in that city, and state that the attendance of the institution would be greatly increased if there were no saloons. They feel that many parents object to sending their children to a wet town. It is estimated that fifteen new students would bring to Mitchell as much money as is now received from saloon licenses, and this would be new money, not simply that taken from her citizens and turned over by the saloons.

Mitchell is one of the South Dakota cities that carried for prohibition.

Lowell Randolph was last night elected president of next Senior class. The other officers elected were, Lucy Whitford vice president, Katherine Vander Veer secretary, Ford Barnard treasurer.

SOPHS WALLOP FROSH

In the Inter-class baseball game, the Sophs walloped the Frosh in a fiercely contested battle, 10-4. Stevens, the Soph star mound artist, was in poor condition and was knocked from the box in the second inning when the Frosh secured four run outs. Hop held them hit-runs. Hop held them hit-remainder of the game. Crawford for the Frosh pitched good ball but had no support. Errors contributed in no little part to the score on both sides and considerable comedy was evident. Hildebrand played a star game in the left garden and made some wonderful stops. Murdock was all to the good for the Sophs, although the all-around work of the Sophs stood out conspicuously.

Athenaeon Echoes

Vida Kerr, Enid White

"A Few Bars in the Key of G"

Genevieve Burdick

Athenaeon Quartet

"Angels of Buena Vista"

"Love's Old Sweet Song"

Mildred Place

Ethel McLean's original story held the interest of the audience until its close. The white costumes of the angels of Buena Vista were well suited to the scenes of their work on the Mexican battle field among the wounded soldiers while we were made to feel the tender mercy and love of women in their ministrations to friend and foe alike in the example of Ximena.

Mildred Place gave us "Love's Old Sweet Song" in a new setting. Dressed as an old lady, she sang it musingly as she rocked by the dim candle light thinking of her past girlhood.
