Free Retirement-Planning Session

Allegany County older adults, boomers, and caregivers may need to put their financial house in order, but many have not taken any steps to follow through. Financial security in retirement does not just happen. It takes planning and commitment. That's why Ardent Solutions and Allegany County Office for the Aging is teaming up to offer a half-day community conference entitled Saving Matters on Friday, Aug. 28, 2015, from 1-5p.m., at Genesee Valley Central School in Belmont.

Bill Armbruster, associate state director for AARP, will join us for our Keynote Address presenting Shedding Light on Avoidable Money Pitfalls. Armbruster will discuss the truth behind persistent myths that can hinder retirement planning; such as paying for healthcare in retirement, long-term care planning, how much savings is adequate in retirement, etc.

Workshop presenters include local and regional experts in the field of:
? Estate Planning- Linda Gear of HoaganWillig Attorneys at Law

? Medicare Basics- Allegany County Office for the Aging

? Western New York Coalition Pooled Trusts and Substituted Decision Making- Legal Services for the Elderly, Disabled or Disadvantaged of Western New York

? Financial Planning for Alzheimer's and Dementia Care- Alzheimer's Association of Western New York
