A Compend of Useful and Important
Information to Students

THE SUN PRESS, ALFRED, N. Y.

The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. wish to acknowledge the assistance and co-operation of the College Faculty and of the various student organizations; of the townspeople and friends whose timely help and suggestions have facilitated the publication of this book.

The Presidents of the Christian Associations wish to acknowledge their thanks to Miss Vida Randolph for her work in compiling this handbook, and also her assistants, particularly Mr. Chester Taylor, for advertising.

Always carry this book with you In it is your Athletic Ticket and the Alfred Directory, our best songs, and many valuable facts which will enable you quickly to fit into our social life.

If you lose this book get another at once. Additional copies may be had for the sum of fifty cents.

The Christian Associations of Alfred intend to stimulate and give vent to those higher, inner tendencies of every Alfredian. The addresses should be inspirational and the discussion groups, suggestive toward religious and spiritual ideals.

Above all, we wish to create Christian friendships. "Of what shall a man be proud, if he is not proud of his friends."

Lastly, we would quote Saint Paul: "Render unto everyone his due: respect to whom respect is due; tribute to whom tribute; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor."

ROBERT T. SPICER, Pres. Y. M. C. A.
GENEVIEVE E. KILBURY, Pres. Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. is affiliated with the National Y. W. C. A. This has many advantages, for it enables us to send delegates to national conventions and conferences. We receive two visits a year from the Field Secretary and so keep in touch with other Y. W. C. A.'s.

The regular prayer meeting is held each Sunday night at 7:15 in the Association room on the first floor of the Brick. These meetings are informal. There are no denominational limitations. Each girl is invited to come and make Y. W. an important factor in her college education.

Purposes of the Association

To develop true Christian womanhood.

To lay a fine moral and spiritual foundation for Christian influence.

To interest those not already interested in Christian work.

To promote a high social spirit among the young women of the college.

FACULTY RULES

Assembly

On Wednesday at 11:15 o'clock there is a general College Assembly before which one of the instructors presents a prepared address. One-half a semester hour credit will be allowed for attendance at Assembly. provided absences do not exceed three for the semester.

Student Advisers

Each student on entering college will be assigned to some member of the Faculty who will act as his adviser until May 1 of the student's sophomore year. At that time the adviser will report to the faculty the student's choice of major and minor. The professor who has charge of the student's major work will then be his adviser.

Registration Rules

Students will register at the Registrar's office on registration days. A fee of two dollars will be charged for late registration.

Students are expected to register for no more than 17 hours, but if a student has an average standing of B in the preceding semester he may register for 18 or more hours upon the approval of the Dean and Registrar.

Physical Training and Assembly may be taken in addition to the maximum of 17 hours.

Regulation concerning standings to be maintained by students to entitle them to the privilege of registration the following semester:

Freshmen are required to have an average scholarship index of 0.

Sophomores are required to have an average scholarship index of 0.15.

Juniors are required to have an average scholarship index of 0.25.

Seniors are required to have an average scholarship index of 0.30.

For graduation it is required that a student have an average scholarship index throughout his course of 1.

Scholarship indices are explained on page 20 in the catalogue.

Students desiring to drop a subject for which they have registered must obtain permission of the instructor and report to the Registrar's office. If however, a subject is dropped after the first two weeks of a semester it is reckoned as a failure.

Standings

The standings of students are reported to them only by letters, and not by percentages. A signifies 90 per cent and above; B, 80 per cent to 90 per cent; C, 70 per cent to 80 per cent; D, 60 to 70 per cent; E, conditioned failure; F, failure.

D is reckoned as a passing mark; but for graduation it is required that a student have a scholarship index of 1.00. The major work must have an average grade of B, or a scholarship index of 2.

No credit is given, except by special vote of the Faculty for one semester of any course which the instructor has designated to be pursued for a full year.

A "condition" or E grade shall be given whenever a student has failed to do work of a passing grade, but has done sufficient work to be able to complete the course without repeating the class work. A condition may be removed any time during the following semester. Upon report from the instructor that the condition has been removed the office will change the grade from E to D.

An incomplete (designated by the letters "Inc") shall be given to the student whose work has been of passing grade but who has not completed the full amount of work required by the end of the semester. An incomplete may be removed during the following semester, when the student has satisfactorily completed the required work. In the semester in which the incomplete is being removed the student shall register for the same and shall pay with his tuition an "incomplete fee" of $1.00 per hour credit to be obtained for the course.

When a student has failed to complete one-half of the work required in a course, the final grade will be F and not "Inc."

An incomplete or a condition which is not removed during the next following semester of residence in the college shall automatically be changed in the office to a failure (F) grade.

Examinations

Final examinations are held at the close of each semester, and sometime near the middle of each semester mid-semester examinations are given. Occasionally written tests are held during the semester. Fees will be charged for all examinations taken by those not regular members of classes or for examinations or announced hour class tests taken at other times than those appointed. The fee for a special examination to take the place of a final examination or a mid-semester examination is $5. The fee for any special test to take the place of an announced one-hour class test is $1.

When the student wishes to take a special examination or class test, he shall bring to the instructor a receipt from the University Treasurer, saying that the fee for the special examination or test has been paid. This receipt must be countersigned by the Dean (or by the Registrar in the absence of the Dean) to show that permission has been obtained to take the special examination. No special examination will be given by an instructor unless this receipt, properly countersigned, has first been presented.

Seniors whose semester standing during the second semester is A or not less than B in any subject shall be exempt from final examinations in that subject.

Absences and Excuses

Application for excuse for necessary tardiness must be made to the instructor in the course in which the tardy mark is received. Two unexcused tardinesses count as one unexcused absence.

It is expected that no student will be absent from any college class except in cases of necessity. Necessary absences may, however, be allowed under the following regulations:

1. The Dean of the college and two members of the college Faculty, one of whom shall be a woman, shall constitute a committee known as the Committee on Absences, to whom application for excuse must be made.

2. At the end of each week each instructor shall report on the proper blanks to the committee all absences from class with a statement of cause, if known.

3. Applications for excuse must be made by the student in writing upon blanks provided for the purpose and must be presented to the committee within two days after the expiration of the absence. The excuse, if granted, is sent to the proper instructor by the committee; if not granted, it is returned to the student.

4. The committee will consider two kinds of applications for excuse: First, ordinarily reasonable excuses, if the number previously granted does not exceed the number of recitation periods per week; second, excuses in excess of this number for serious illness or other exceptional cause only. All excuses are granted with the understanding that any work missed will be made up to the satisfaction of the instructor.

5. All cases of student illness must be reported in person or by proxy or by telephone within twelve hours of the appearance of such illness, either to the Dean or to the college medical officer, Dr. Russell Ferguson.

Only such applications for excuse for illness as are validated by the college physician will be granted. For the purposes of validation of such applications the services of the medical officer will be without charge to the student.

Any student ill of a contagious or of an infectious disease who does not report within the twelve-hour period will be subject to college discipline.

6. At the end of every semester the instructor reports the students' scholastic attainment in letters to the office. For unexcused absences in any course the instructor observes the following table:

Recitations per week	Reasonable Excuses Granted	Unexcused absences lowering the grade one letter
3	3	3
4	4	4
5	5	5

Unexcused absences lowering grade two letters	Unexcused absences to make the grade failure (F)
3	4
4	5
6	7
8	9
10	11

7. When the number of unexcused absences in any one course equals the number of recitations per week, the committee shall notify the delinquent student.

8. Managers of student organizations and athletic teams, previous to their absence from college, must file with the committee a list of the members of the organization or team, with a statement of time the team expects to be absent. Such list is for the information of the committee and is not in lieu of any excuse or application therefor.

Social Regulations

There is a college Committee on Student Life which has advisory supervision of activities in which the interests of the students in general are involved. This committee is guided in its action by the following general regulations concerning:

(A) Committee on Student Life.

1. It shall be the duty of this Committee to supervise student life in dormitories. This shall be understood to include the right to make suggestions at all times to the matron of the Ladies Hall and the housekeeper at Burdick Hall, who shall be under their supervision, as to the administration of their respective houses.

2. The Committee shall have complete supervision over the boarding and rooming places of all college students both within and without the dormitories.

3. The Committee shall have supervision over all student social functions and amusements. Students desiring to promulgate any entertainment, party, class affair, dance, etc., (this to include the so-called vacation dances), shall first make application to the Student Senate as provided in the student constitution. All permissions so granted shall be submitted to this committee for approval.

4. The Committee shall be a regular medium of intercourse between students and Faculty. It shall be its duty and privilege at all times to advise with the Student Senate and make suggestions to them bearing on matters of student conduct and self-government. The Senate is invited to confer with this Committee on any or all matters of student interest.

5. It shall be the duty of the Committee to hold itself in readiness to advise individually with students concerning their social and personal problems. One member of the Committee, a woman, shall act as adviser of women.

(B) Dancing.

1. That there shall be no dancing together of men and women in any University building, except Alumni Hall and then only when approved by the Student Life Committee.

2. That upon request from parent or guardian a student will be prohibited from dancing.

3. That all dancing shall be subject to the supervision of the Committee on Student Life.

4. Seniors may obtain permission from the Dean of Women for properly chaperoned parties to attend private out-of-town dances if the organization of such dances is such as can be approved by the Committee on Student Life. These privileges shall be accorded only to seniors who have approved themselves by their previous conduct in college.

(C) Rooming.

1. A register of proper accommodations for students is maintained and supervised by the Committee on Student Life.

2. Men and women shall not room in the same building except with approval of the Committee on Student Life.

3. Young ladies shall be expected to engage rooms and board at the Ladies Hall unless they can show cause to the contrary.

UNIVERSITY ORGANIZATIONS

Glee Club

The College Glee Club is an organization consisting of sixteen men and a director, the positions being competitive. Each year the Club makes an extended trip, giving concerts under the auspices of various schools, churches and other organizations.

Kanakadea

The Kanakadea is the Alfred Year Book, published annually by the Junior class. The Board of Editors is chosen from the Juniors with one representative from each of the other classes.

Footlight Club

The Footlight Club is an organization to promote the best in dramatics. Its members are elected from those who show the most ability for acting, and a try-out play is held the first part of each college year. At least once every year some suitable play is selected and given by the club.

Chorus

The University Chorus, consisting of about a hundred voices, gives an opportunity to all who wish to improve themselves along musical lines. Each year one or more concerts are given in which much valuable experience is gained by the students.

Ceramic Society

The Ceramic Society is a student branch of the American Ceramic Society. It consists of all the upperclassmen and the faculty of the New York School of Ceramics. The society meets regularly and discusses Ceramic problems and other items for self improvement.

Ceramic Guild

Organized by the Art Department as a means of advertising the school by acquainting the people with a pleasing and creditable grade of pottery and as a means for the disposal of student work the Ceramic Guild gives regular exhibitions which have been very successful in the past.

General Athletics

Athletics are the spice of college life. Without them there is little to keep up college spirit at Alfred or any other College. Athletics do not pay financially, yet for the good of the College they must be kept up by the students. Successful teams are the best physical training department a college can have.

It is the duty of all to support athletics and of every one who can, to get on the field and do his part to make the season successful. Football, baseball, basketball, tennis, wrestling and track are played here. Nearly everyone is capable of taking up at least one of the above forms of exercise and should show his spirit by trying out for the teams.

A departure in athletics was witnessed in the year 1915-16, when the hitherto separate athletic interests of the college and agricultural departments were combined into an all-university association.

Under the new arrangement, athletics are controlled in the college by the Athletic Council consisting of twelve councilors, eight from the college and four from Ag School. A committee of four faculty members acts in an advisory capacity to the council. The Council formulates the general policy to be pursued, while the execution of the plans is effected by the graduate manager, who has broad powers. Under the graduate manager are managers and assistants, elected by the Council for work in specified sports.

Financial support is secured through membership, payment of dues and receipts from games, although the amount from all sources is not sufficient to prevent hampering our athletics. Every college student becomes a member of the association upon payment of his tuition bill, which includes an athletic tax of $10.00 a year, making all bona fide members with all rights to hold office under the association's supervision. By vote of its student body, Agricultural School assesses itself.

Football

is the college game. It is possible for a small college with the proper spirit to get out a winning football team. This has been proven at Alfred. With the students all pulling together and each one doing his share it will be possible for Alfred to have more winning teams this year. Come out freshmen and try for the team.

Basketball

This sport is becoming more successful each year. The score of last year proves this. Every man who has played basketball is urged to try out for a place on Alfred's five.

Tennis

There is much interest in tennis in recent years. Three courts are in excellent condition and more are planned for. It is being looked on with favor as a varsity game. Every year a tournament is held which creates great interest.

Interclass Track Meet

Interclass day gives every one an opportunity to show his class spirit and to win his class numerals if he failed to do so by playing on the class teams. Great interest is shown when all the classes meet and compete with each other for supremacy on the track and field.

Intercollegiate Track

Track has achieved a new place in College athletics during the past three years. Alfred is now putting out a team which is capable of competing with the best in this sport.

Cross Country

This sport, though new in Alfred last year, was most successful. An exceptionally good schedule has been arranged for next year. If you are fleet-footed this is your chance.

Interscholastic Day

For the last fifteen years, Alfred has held an interscholastic track meet at which high schools from central and western New York and Pennsylvania have been represented. Greater interest is shown in this event each year and large crowds come a great distance to see the meet. All the principal field and track contests are held and also two prize speaking contests—one for men and one for women.

The Varsity "A" Club

This Club is composed of men who have earned their major or minor "A's." It also includes the managers of the different clubs. Each man is elected to the Club by a majority vote. The purpose of the Club is to promote a greater athletic interest and to encourage high school students to attend Alfred.

The English Club

Primarily organized with the purpose of studying contemporary literature the English club serves as a means of developing critical and appreciative reading of literature. Its informal discussions make its meetings entertaining and gives an opportunity for self expression.

The Mathematical Society

A very popular society aiming to enjoy the entertaining and recreational sides of mathematics as well as some of its serious problems. It now also includes a chess club where active and powerful opposition can be met by anyone desiring it.

FIAT LUX

The "Fiat Lux" is the University paper, the medium through which the news, announcements, strivings and attainments of the students are presented.

The life of and the interest in the paper depends for the most part on its news value, which is a function of hearty student co-operation. Report to the editors all activities of general interest, hand in suggestions for editorials or articles; if a bit of news from an alumnus is received, make it possible for the subscribing alumni to know of it. "Fiat Lux" can only live up to its name and give light to all concerning Alfred through the interest and help of all.

COLLEGE SONGS AND YELLS

The following are some of our songs and yells which every student should learn as soon as possible :

Alumni Song

Since the morning when Old Alfred called us Freshmen,

With the verdant green upon our youthful brow

Scarce a moment have we deemed as really wasted,

Fondly held in recollections now
Thus we'll love her dearly ever more re-vereing,

Cherishing her precepts staunch and true,
'Though others take our places, yet 'tis cheering

That others grow to cherish old A. U.

—Chorus—

Royal purple chaste with golden,

Fling her banner to the sky,
Cheer the flag so proudly floating,

'Till the hills shall make reply,
Wave old flag and fly forever,

Lift aloft thy colors true,
Woman queenly, Manhood royal,

Such is life in old A. U.

How she held us up and helped us in our struggles,

When the way was dark, and all the world was blue,

Do you think we could do other, Alma Mater.

'Than to pledge allegiance firm and true?
Just the mem'ry of those days of boundless pleasure,

When we sang and dreamed and studied all day long,

Turns us back until we stand before thy altar,

Where men are growing noble, kind and strong.

Alma Mater

Nestled away 'mid the Empire State hills,
'Neath the watch-care of sentinel pines,
Where the murmuring song of the brook
hums along,

And a favoring sun ever shines;
In a valley so fair where the forest trees share

Dominion o'er hillside and glen,
Stands the pioneer college of Western New York—

Alfred, the mother of men.

—Chorus—

Hail to thee, Alfred, thou guide of our youth,

Sweet, benign mother, all hail!
Sing on thy anthems of duty and truth;
May thy clear ringing music ne'er fail.

She was founded in toil, cemented with blood,

And nurtured thro' yearnings and tears,
Her treasure the hearts of brave heroes who stood

Undaunted throughout trying years;
Each stone was a prayer and her battlements there

Have mem'ries of purposes strong.
Staunch daughters and sons are her monument fair,

And they lift up the grateful song.

—Chorus—

Others may boast of prestige and size,
Of numbers and treasure and fame;
But Alfred's pride lies in manhood's clear eyes,

And womanhood's high, stainless name.
Old Alfred, we say; Alfred now and for aye—

Kenyon and Allen and Main,
And the gallant young leader we honor
today,

Her honor and power maintain.

—Chorus—

REV. L. C. RANDOLPH.

Song of the Bell

By the roaring, roaring banks
Of the old Kanakadea.
Oft I've lingered in the springtime long ago;
While the waters rushed along,
And the hills took up the song;
And a gentle voice was calling sweet and low.

—Chorus—

O, I hear the echoes ringing from the belfry
on the hill,
And the song inspires my heart to do and dare;
Calling me to love and duty, calling me
to faith and prayer,
For the bell is ringing, ringing, ringing still.

When the autumn days were on,
And a brilliant crimson shown
Where the Alfred hill-side glory met the sky,
Voices whispered in the breeze
While I sat beneath the trees,
And communed with master minds of days gone by.

—Chorus—

O, the days of frost and snow;
O, the coasters' ruddy glow;
O, the evening's long delight with comrades dear,
When we talked on mighty themes,
Or indulged in happy dreams
Of our victories in the future hov'ring near.

—Chorus—

Now my hair is turning gray,
For those days have passed away
But their mem'ry lingers sweet and sweeter yet;
And my fireside's evening cheer
Seems to bring old Alfred near,
And the faces which my heart can ne'er forget.

—Chorus—

Song of Cities

Sing a song of cities, roll dem cotton bale, Nigger ne'er so happy as when he's out of jail.

Norfolk for its oysters, Boston for baked beans,

Baltimore for pretty girls, but for niggers
New Orleans.

—Chorus—

I've been working on the railroad, all the live long day,

I've been working on the railroad just to pass the time away,

Don't you hear the cap'n shouting; rise up so early in the morn.

Don't you hear the darkies calling, Oh
Dinah, blow your horn?

Sing a song of colleges, tell you where to go,
Harvard for its knowledge, Cornell for a row.

Princeton's wealth, or Amherst's pride, for them naught do we care

For old A. U. is strong and true, and for her we'll do and dare.

—Chorus—

Hea' Dat Bell

Ho here's to Alfred's College

And the bell we love so dear,

It rings for us each mornin'

T'fill our hearts with cheer.

—Chorus—

Hea dat bell, don't ya hea dat bell

It's a callin' for de 8-o'clocks every mornin'

Hea dat bell, don't ya hea dat bell.

It's a callin' us t'duty sure's your born.

De days are long and de lessons hard,

De lectures are dry as ebber,

But when dat bell peals forth its song

We go what ebber de weather.

—Chorus—

But when we all are old and gray,

An de days ob school are o'er

We all will strive to wend our way

T'hea dat bell once more.
