

AU men's lacrosse team drops conference opener to Hartwick

3/29/03

HARTWICK The Alfred University Saxons could only manage two second half goals in losing to the Hartwick Hawks (5-1, 2-0 Empire 8) 12-7. After the first half of play, Alfred (2-3 0-1 Empire 8) the two teams were tied at five, but Hartwick scored the first four goals of the second half putting the Hawks up for good. Sophomore goalkeeper Nicholas Hohman (Gibsonia, Pa./Pine Richland) played well, making 20 saves and allowing only 12 goals in 57 minutes of play before giving way to senior Matt Jones (Waterloo/Waterloo). Junior midfielder Anthony Fiorelli (Edinboro/Union Endicott) led the Saxons' offensive attack with three goals. Junior Dylan Macro Camillus (West Genesee) also played well, notching two goals and two assists. Junior David Vail (Mt. Lakes, N.J./Mt. Lakes) and freshman Brad Frey (Cornwall, Vt./Middlebury) rounded out the scoring with one goal each. Hartwick featured a well-rounded offense with four players scoring two goals and four others hitting on one shot. Mark Cotite played the entire game in goal, saving 14 of 21 shots. Alfred's next game will be Wednesday, April 2, when the Saxons travel to St. John Fisher. Game time is 7 p.m.