Advance Notice of Banner Down Time - Monday, Nov. 17

Both Banner INB and BannerWeb will not be accessible for three days in November - Saturday, Nov. 15 through and including most of Monday, Nov. 17.

We are at a key stage in our migration from Banner 7 to Banner 8 - moving our production database from our old VMS system to a new LINUX system. This is a major move and will require 2-3 days of down time to migrate data and compile forms/programs with the help of our technical partners, SICAS and ITEC.

We appreciate your patience as we migrate Banner to a new operating system, and we are hopeful that this advanced notice will allow you to plan alternative activities for Monday, Nov. 17.

We will monitor the progress of the migration and will let you know through campus e-mail when it is again available on Monday.

Once again, thank you for your patience as we make this major step toward Banner 8. And a special thank you to all of you that have helped with testing, your support and help is greatly appreciated.

Denise J Kirschner

'In the Loop' at the Fosdick-Nelson Gallery

Opening reception, Friday, Nov. 7, 7-9 p.m.
Show runs through Dec. 3

"In the Loop" features an array of international artists currently working with video--all honoring, or to some degree inspired by, iconic 1970s performance art works. Like their predecessors, these artists are commenting on issues of the engendered and political body, as well as the weightiness of art historical pedigree. Yet, they contemporize the dialogue with wit, whimsy and satirical references to diverse popular culture.

Gallery hours: Monday to Friday 11 a.m.-4 p.m.; Saturday & Sunday 1-3 p.m.

'The Contrast' - Nov. 12-15

"The Contrast," a comedy of manners by Royall Tyler, compares the American ideals of patriotism, liberty, sacrifice, and equality with the frivolity, materialism, and greed of snobby British pretenders.

Through a roll of droll events and a good deal of witty banter, the power of the American values supplant the shallow and more European outlooks. First written and performed in 1787, just before the writing of the U.S. Constitution, this play is anything but jingoistic. Instead, there is a wonderful emphasis on the power of ideal democracy where common interest promotes the common good and signal a healthy and productive society.

Rakes, fops, ingnues, tricky servants, and very smart hicks clash in the drawing rooms and parks of the New York City of early independence.

"The Contrast" is directed by Becky Prophet.

Please e-mail (performs@alfred.edu), visit the Web site ('order tickets here') or call the Box Office 871.2828 for reservations. Curtain time is 8 p.m. each evening.

CASHNet eCommerce System is Now Live!

After a short delay, our new paperless electronic Billing and Payment site for Alfred University Students, hosted by "CASHNet" is now live!

Students, log into BannerWeb to access the billing and payment site. The link to connect to CASHNet is on the Student Services page. Please log in to give anyone that may need to see your bill access. They will ONLY be able to have access to the CASHNet information, not any other information posted on BannerWeb.

For Parents and Authorized Users - Once a person is listed as an Authorized User for a student at Alfred University, They will receive the User Name and password to access the CASHNet System by e-mail. The CASHNet website will have bills posted for your student account during the next billing cycle. The site also has payment links for a secure and convenient way to pay your student account balance.

The Student Accounts Office at Alfred University will do everything we can to make the transition to "paperless" as easy as possible for everyone in our Student Accounts System. As always, if you need to contact us, please send an email (do not include confidential information in the email) and we will respond to you as soon as possible.
