

Michalske 75, University trustee, named National Laboratory Director of the Year
8/11/15

AU Trustee Dr. Terry Michalske, Class of 1975, who is director of the Savannah River National Laboratory (SRNL), has been named National Laboratory Director of the Year by the federal Department of Energy&s Office of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization. The award recognizes successful directors who show leadership and commitment in maximizing small business utilization. Working with Terry, says John Hale, director of the small business group, has made him appreciate Terry&s hands-on leadership at SRNL.
