

Ithaca College defeats AU men's lacrosse

4/13/02

ALFRED The Alfred University men's lacrosse team suffered an 8-6 loss to the Ithaca College Bombers Saturday afternoon on Merrill Field. The Saxons (6-4, 2-2 Empire 8) scored the first goal of the game and overcame a two-goal deficit in the second quarter, but the Bombers scored two unanswered goals late to gain the victory. Sophomore attack Dylan Macro (Camillus/West Genesse) led Alfred with four goals. Senior midfielder Bill Crehan (Buffalo/Bishop Timon) and sophomore midfielder Anthony Fiorelli (Endicott/Union Endicott) each added one goal for the Saxons. Sophomore attack David Vail (Mt. Lakes, NJ/Mt. Lakes) contributed three assists. Senior Kevin Kazmierczak (West Seneca/Orchard Park) made several key stops in the goal to keep the Saxons in the game and finished with 11 saves. For Ithaca, freshman Brian Weil led the team with two goals and one assist. Junior Ryan Martin played a great first half in the nets and had 17 saves for the game. The next game for the Saxons will be Wednesday, April 17 when they travel to Rochester to face Empire 8 foe Nazareth at 4 p.m.--30--
