GENERAL COMMENCEMENT CEREMONY INFORMATION:

Please note, the following information does not apply to the AUNY graduating students. Those students will have a separate ceremony on June 14th in Brooklyn, NY. AUNY students will receive separate information regarding this ceremony.

- * All approved graduating students and students on the walk-list through the University Registrar's Office, will each be allotted five tickets for attendance to the annual Commencement Ceremony.
- * Faculty, members of the graduating class, and all other staff partaking in the ceremony will not need a ticket.
- * Tickets will be available starting Monday, April 22 - Friday, May 17, 2019 for approved graduates in the Powell Campus Bookstore on the second floor of the Powell Campus Center.
- * Those requesting additional tickets have the option of being placed on a list. On May 13, prior to the Commencement Ceremony, a review of any remaining tickets will be conducted and those tickets will be divided and distributed evenly amongst the requests. Placement on this list is not a guarantee of additional tickets.
- * Students and guests may park in any valid parking spot the day of the ceremony. Shuttles, starting at 8:00 am until 1:30 pm, will be running from several locations to assist you with getting to the McLane Center and returning to your vehicles.
- * Guest seating opens at 8:30 am. Please arrive early to locate parking and be seated prior to the start of the ceremony at 10 am.
- * Any person occupying a seat must present a ticket for admittance. There is no standing room area in the McLane Center for guests without tickets.
- * For those without tickets, an overflow area will be available in Holmes Auditorium, Harder Hall, where a live streaming video of Commencement will play.
- * A live stream video of Commencement will be available on the Alfred University website.
- * Children under the age of 3 years old who will sit in a lap during the entire ceremony do not require a ticket. Please note, due to strict fire regulations, strollers and car seats may not be taken into the McLane Center.
- * Guests with disabilities: seating on the floor (rather than bleachers) is available and guests may enter at the lower level of the McLane Center. We encourage you to make prior arrangements with Bonnie Dungan, Director of Summer and Parent Programs at dunganbj@alfred.edu or (607) 871-2612 should you require special assistance.
- * Cell phones and other electronic equipment must be turned off or muted.
- * Due to fire regulations, guests are not permitted in the aisles during the ceremony at any time.
- * Professional photographers will be taking photos of the graduates as they receive their diplomas.

Andrés Monzón. Thesis Part 1. Sitting with Marta

Opening reception, April 18 from 5:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Date: Thursday, April 18 - Thursday, May 23 - by appointment

Location: Terra Cotta Building, Main Street, Alfred New York (in Front of the Post Office)

Cost: Free

About this event: "This exhibition is comprised of a series of ceramic objects inspired by my grandmother, Marta Echeverri Gutiérrez (1925-2016). Due to instability and political unrest in our native Colombia during the 1990s and early 2000s, hundreds of thousands of people, including most of our family members, left the country. Marta however, did not. When I moved back to Colombia after more than a decade in exile, Marta and I spent hours together in her dining room, sometimes in silence. We shared meals, looked at photographs, discussed her childhood, marriage, and her experience relocating to Cuba in the 1940s."

Awards Forms

Department completes two forms:

1. Taxable Gifts and Awards form <https://my.alfred.edu/hr/...>

- a. Complete all sections of the form
- b. Do not forget to select if the recipient is an employee or not an employee (if the student receives any payroll from AU they are considered a "student employee")
- c. If the student is an "employee," the check amount will be the award less taxes regardless of the amount of the award or the intent of the award
- d. If the student is not an "employee," the award will be reviewed by financial aid to see if the recipient is able to receive a cash payment or if the award will need to be applied against their outstanding loan balances.
- e. As a non-employee student, if cash is allowable, the business office will issue the check for the full amount of the award. The student is responsible for declaring the award on their taxes for 2019. If total awards received by a student in a calendar year equal or exceed $600, the student will receive a 1099 tax form from the Business Office at the end of the calendar year for tax purposes

- e. Complete the description and reason for award and date presenting award
- f. All forms to be delivered to Human Resources, Greene Hall by Monday, April 18 for processing in time for Awards Presentation

2. Check request form <https://my.alfred.edu/bus...>

- a. Complete all sections of the form including student address
- b. Do not forget to enter account number (FOAP) and amount of the award
- c. Explain details of award and date presenting award
- d. Send to Human Resources, Greene Hall by Monday, April 18 with the award form from above

HR will review and approve completed forms and forward to the Business Office, if necessary, by April 10.

Awards for Non-Employee Students will be reported on a 1099 at calendar year-end by the Business Office

Awards for Student employees will be reported on a W2 at calendar year-end by the Payroll Office

All checks will be ready for pickup on Friday, April 19 in the HR/Payroll Office

Gazing Into Infinity

Gazing Into Infinity: Selections from The Kuala Lumpur Experimental Film, Video & Music Festival (KLEX). In person Q & A with artist and Festival Curator Siew-Wai Kok.

Date: Thursday, April 18

Time: 1:30 pm

Location: Holmes Auditorium

Sponsored by: The Institute for Electronic Arts

Seven videos (55min) and curators Q & A

Curator's note:

We are taught to experience the world first through senses, and then try to comprehend it through the intellect and reasoning. To understand the world through geographical, social and political context is undoubtedly limited, as it is only what we can see externally. It is only part of the truth. The most essential is always hidden and unseen, rooted internally. This program consists of works about the explorations and reflections of physical places as well as the inner psyche, featuring works from Malaysia, Thailand, Japan, Taiwan and Belgium. The works adopt various styles such as video diary, experimental music video, abstract graphics and experimental documentary. They have been screened in previous versions of KLEX Festival and KLEX special programs.

The Kuala Lumpur Experimental Film, Video & Music Festival (KLEX) is an artist-run grassroots international festival of experimental film, video art and music founded in Malaysia in 2010, by a cross-disciplinary group of artists. With an independent spirit and enthusiasm, KLEX aims to serve as a platform to introduce contemporary experimental film, video, and music from the region and worldwide to the Malaysian audience, as well as introducing works from South East Asia and beyond to other parts of the world, to cultivate understanding, learning, friendship and exchange among local, regional and international experimental art communities. KLEX has showcased experimental films, videos, music and performances from around the world - Asia, Africa, Australia, Canada, Europe, Latin America and USA. With the dedication of its tiny yet strong festival committee, the festival has been running for the 10th consecutive year.

Media Monday: I am Evidence

When: 7pm, Monday, 4/22

Where: Holmes Auditorium

I AM EVIDENCE tells the story of four survivors whose rape kits went untested for years, following them as they navigate their way through the criminal justice system and learn that so often, the system is broken. The film reveals the historic nature of the way we treat the crime of sexual assault in this country, and the positive effects that occur when perpetrators are held accountable and survivors are given an opportunity for healing and justice. This film is FREE and open to all students! A short discussion will follow the film.

Sculpture in the Public Domain for International Sculpture Day

Date: Sat 27th April

Time: All day

Location: Alfred Village and Alfred University Campus

Cost: Free

Sponsored by: Sculpture Dimensional Studies

In conjunction with International Sculpture Day, Juniors from the course 'Sculpture in the Public Domain' will be siting a series of five temporary sculptures in and around the village of Alfred and on Alfred University campus for five days. Sara Scholl's work 'To hurt and to heal' is a multi-part project exploring human interaction. Luci Busch has handcrafted King Alfred a beautiful 'Cape of Shame' to display how much plastic we use, hoard and waste. She is still collecting plastic bags so please drop off your plastic bags at the Moka Joka until Monday 22nd. On your walk look out for a flowering of columbines on the Powell Campus Center lawn for Josh Johnson's 'Destruction of Innocence'. Saymia Pinder will be telling your fortune and gifting good luck charms in return for a valuable of yours with her performative installation 'Bartered Fortune'. Jack Bancroft takes us up into nature at the hairpin with his sculpture 'Sonus-Ventus' which harnesses the wind in order to research sound making.

Sculptures will be installed on Tuesday 23rd April and stay up through Hot Dog Day.
