

AU men's swimming and diving team thrashes Penn State-Behrend

1/12/02

ERIE, PA The Alfred University men's swimming and diving team demolished host Penn State-Behrend by a final score of 150-77 on Saturday afternoon. The Saxons controlled the meet from start to finish and nearly swept the top place finish in every event. The Saxon onslaught was maintained by several first place finishers, including junior Federico Gentry (Peoria, IL/Richwoods) in the 1000 freestyle and sophomore Matt Weems (Arlington, VA/Washington & Lee) in the 200 freestyle. Other AU swimmers placing first were junior Carl Schwarting (Weedsport/Weedsport) in the 50 freestyle, sophomore Mike Dube (Williamsburg, VA/Lafayette) in the 200 IM, senior Dave Berman (Auburn/Auburn) in the 1-meter dive, and freshman Kevin Martin (Conesus/Livonia) in the 100 butterfly. Alfred also took first place in the 400-medley relay with the team of senior Pat Kerwin (Canandaigua/Canandaigua), senior Andy Huray (Binghamton/Chenango Forks), junior Justin Healy (Fayetteville/Jamesville-DeWitt), and Schwarting. The Saxons are in action again on Friday, January 18, at 6 p.m. when they host Utica.
