Women's and Gender Studies Roundtable - September

The first Women's and Gender Studies Roundtable of the year will be on Friday, Sept. 4, from 12:20-1:10 p.m. in the Judson Leadership Center. Laurie McFadden, University Archivist and Director of Women's and Gender Studies, will be presenting on the following topic: "Conditioned to it in Our Society: Standards of Women at Alfred University, 1972."

McFadden will present the findings of a 1972 campus study that examined how the women faculty, staff, and students were represented and treated. What were conditions like for women at an institution with such a strong history of support for them in the 19th century? What changed after the study? Current comparisons will be presented to help balance out the presentation.

The Women's and Gender Studies Roundtables are free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be served.

Russell Lecture

The speaker for this year's annual Russell Lecture in history is Barry Strauss, professor of history and classics at Cornell University. Strauss is a leading expert on ancient military history. His most recent book is "THE DEATH OF CAESAR" (2015).

The title of his lecture is: "The Death of Caesar: The Real Story of History's Most Famous Assassination." Thanks to Shakespeare, Julius Caesar's stabbing is the most famous assassination in history. But what actually happened in Rome on March 15, 44 B.C. is even more thrilling than the Bard's depiction. Strauss details the true story behind the carefully planned paramilitary operation executed by Caesar's disaffected officers.

The Russell Lecture will be held in Nevins Theater on Thursday, Sept. 10, 2015, from 7:30 - 9 p.m. The Russell Lecture is free and open to the public.

Student Senate Secretary Position Opening

Hello Everybuddy, Every Club and Organization!

This Email is in regards to the current Senate Secretary stepping down from the position and opening it up to everyone. Attached is a basic application if anyone would like to run for Student Senate Secretary.

If you are interested download the file and fill it out, and return it to either the CSI Office (Center for Student Involvement) on the 1st floor of Powell Campus Center or Place it in the Senate folder(s) on the door or even slip it under the door.

Applications will also be ready to take from the Student Senate Office Door (In the CSI) by tomorrow (Thursday) at around noon. (if you can not open/run/download the file - Student senate office will have applications ready)

Application will be due by next week Wednesday, Sept. 9. If you can not hand in the application and would still like to apply for the position contact Ronnie Rosario (rr10@alfred.edu) to set up an appointment for an interview). Fridays after 2:30 p.m. until around 4:30 p.m. he will be available in either the ICU (Institute for Cultural Unity) or the CSI (Center for Student Involvement) he bounces between both areas.

Any questions, comments, or concerns, please Email the Student Senate account.

Thank you everyone and we at Senate hope classes are going well, and wish you much luck during the semester!

Horse to Harvest Hike

This year's fall hike is very similar to past fall hikes. It will start at the Equestrian Center and wander through the sylvan hills surrounding Alfred for just over seven miles. The hike will end at Living Acres Farm (a local farm co-op) where there will be wood fire pizza by Hedgerow, locally grown food, and music (also locally grown) in a lovely outdoor setting.

Registration is required and there is a small fee to cover cost of transportation and food.

I hope you will join us.

Discover AU History via Google Maps!

The amazing features of Google Maps have been utilized to offer a unique perspective on our campus history! Alfred University is more than the layer we see before us. More than the classrooms, more than the residence halls students call home, more than the trees that shade the sidewalks.

The story of AU has been in progress for 180 years and, despite what we might already know, there are more chapters being added, more stories being discovered. Those familiar with the campus will surely recognize names such as Powell Campus Center and Binns-Merrill Hall because they are part of the current campus tapestry, yet the ghosts of buildings like Babcock Hall of Physics and The Cadmus are hovering just below the surface, waiting to be re-discovered.

Other stories, mostly forgotten, are simply awaiting a curious mind to ask a question, read a story, wonder what used to be. Ask these questions. See what's around you.

Use this interactive map of Alfred University to learn the stories behind what is and discover the history of what was. (This map was developed in 2015 by Amie Acton AU'08 and Natalie Skwarek AU'11, assistants in the Alfred University Archives.)
