

Ceramics Monthly cites three Alfred University alumna as emerging artists

4/21/17

Ceramic art by April Felipe,
Renee LoPresti and Lindsay
Scypta

Three Alfred University graduates -- April Felipe &03, Renee LoPresti &09 and Lindsay Scypta &03 -- are featured in the current issue of Ceramics Monthly as Emerging Artists in the magazine&s prestigious annual review.

Felipe, a native of Queens, NY, received her MFA in 2017 from Ohio University and currently lives in the Athens area, working at the Dairy Barn Arts Center and managing her own studio. She has won numerous honors including the Kiln God Award, presented by Watershed Center for the Ceramic Arts, Newcastle, Maine.

New Jersey native LoPresti currently lives in San Marcos, Texas and is a studio artist of functional ceramics. She is a resident artist at Eye of the Dog Art Center, in San Marcos.

Scypta is a studio potter and currently adjunct professor at Owens Community College in Toledo, Ohio.

To see the issue of Ceramics Monthly in which they are cited, visit: <http://ceramicartsdaily.org/ceramics-monthly>.