

AU carrillonneur plays concerts at two college campuses

7/12/07

Alfred University Carillonneur Laurel Buckwalter is taking her skills on the road this summer, playing two concerts on the eastern seaboard. She played in the annual summer carillon series at Mead Chapel, Middlebury College, Middlebury, VT, on July 12. She was also scheduled to play July 14 at Norwich University, Northfield, NJ, in the Saturday afternoon carillon series. Buckwalter is a member of the Guild of Carillonneurs in North America. She is Alfred University's third carillonneur. A graduate of Houghton College with a major in music, Buckwalter earned a master of science degree in education from AU. She often is the piano accompanist for recitalists and choral groups throughout the area.
